COULD SHOUT FOR JOY.

"I would to thank you from the bottom of my heart," wrote C. B. Rader, of Lewisburg, W. Va., "for the wonderful double benefit I got from Electric Bitters in curing me of both a severe case of stomach trouble and of rheumatism, from which I had been an almost helpless sufferer for ten years. I could say more, as I thought, 'just for me.' For dyspepsia, indigestion, jaundice, and to rid the system of kidney poisons that cause rheumatism, Electric Bitters have no equal. Try them. Every bottle is guaranteed to satisfy. Only 50¢ a bottle. C. O. Davis, Inc., would just tell me how I could get the happy I am sure I won't get any more to do it. I'll be a member. You think

FOOLS A FOUL PLOT.

Bookworm campaign in Kentucky is developing some surprising results.

In the past three weeks a campaign has been carried on in two of the magisterial districts of Jefferson county, in which Louisville is situated.

CONGRESSMAN HARVEY HELM has taken the position that he is amply able to find a good postmaster in each town in his district.

A POSITIVE cure for consumption has been discovered, by Dr. Friedman, of Berlin, Germany.

This from a republican newspaper: The best Democratic recipe for reducing the cost of living.

THE Burlington Free Press says that Vermont is now "so doubtful" that neither party can afford to colate its campaign promises.

COL. ROOSEVELT says it cost him $5,000 a year in postage and telegraph toll to be ex-President.

COL. ROOSEVELT pessimistically believes that President-elect Wilson rides that bicycle to keep his leg muscles in the same condition for the next race.

Mr. Bryan accepts all the places for which he has been mentioned, there will be few slices of pie left for the next administration to distribute.

A GOOD many persons go about looking for a quarrel. But comparatively few go about looking for a fight.

COL. W. P. WALTON, former editor of the Interior Journal is being mentioned as the prospective postmaster of Lexington.

THE total vote in the presidential election in Kentucky was 456,698, and there are 603,454 males over twenty-one years of age in the State.

PAIDMASTER TAPP is having his revenge on those who supported Roosevelt, but the mag is outsting him with the pleasure of watching the President go out into the cold, cold world.

BECKHAM is Kentucky's choice for Senator to succeed Bradley.

Mt. Vernon Graded School.

The third month of our schools closed Friday, the 22nd of November. The following pupils were enrolled during the month:

Gracie Griffin, William Wainey, Hattie Griffin, Dave Ramsey, Walter Taylor, Lora Smith, Herbert Walker, Homer Walden, Milton Miller, Hazel Miller, Floyd Ramsey, etc.

There were six eighty-eight pupils who were neither tardy nor absent during the third month.

LEVEL GREEN. Prof. James Ping was very sick last week. His wife had charge of his school while he was out.
