The Signal wants 600 new subscribers and to every person who sends us five new paid subscribers for one year each, we will pay $1.00 in cash, and for ten new paid subscribers for one year each we will pay $2.50. Boys and girls try to club ten and see how easy it is to get ten names. Remember that those names to already on our list will not count. Madison C. Owens was again elected Tyler of Ashland Lodge No. 640 at the annual election held on Dec. 27th. He has been Tyler so long many don't try to enumerate the years but its somewhere between 25 and 30. He has been a mason 52 years.

One of the postmasters, whose name was omitted from last week's article, was that of the late M. P. Newcomb who held the office during Buchanan's administration 1837 to 1845. The office was kept in the old Newcomb storehouse which was burned last February when it was being occupied by M. I. Miller.

The writer (Jim) is pleased to acknowledge the receipt of a Christmas box containing a half dozen hemstitched linen handkerchiefs with embroidered initials, from his esteemed cousin Miss Julia T. Fish who has not failed for some years past to present us an appropriate holiday gift. Other friends also remembered us.

W. M. Mullins now has his scientific clothes cleaning and blocking establishment installed in the concrete building opposite Court House on Main Street and is better fitted up for the business than any larger town. It is prepared to do all work in first class order including dyeing. Our town is glad to have such an establishment located within its limits.

The first package by parcel post to arrive at Mt. Vernon post office was received by James Maret from Dr. M. Pennington, of Berea, Ky., containing a New Year's gift of fruits, candies etc. The postage was the first stamp of the new variety which was affixed away as souvenirs. The express on this package would have been 25 cents therefore a saving of 60 per cent.

Mrs. Belle O'Collyer writing from Denver, Colorado, to her brother James Maret, at this place says she visited Mrs. James Robinson at sanitarium a few days since and found her in cheerful spirits though she was very low and not expected to live but a short time. New Firm—W. M. Mullins, Dry Cleaning House, No. 48 East Main St. opposite Court House.
Dr. P. H. Conover, Dentist who has recently moved from Mount Celio, Ky., wishes us to state that he has located in Mt. Vernon permanently. His office will be in Baker's building, same rooms recently vacated by Drs. Hatfield and Harris. He expects to have his office open by Mon. Jan. 6.

The severe headache which often follows a long railway journey or a protracted tour of museum or a picture gallery is usually wrongfully attributed to bad air. As a matter of fact, says Dr. Sidney Stephenson, headaches are more often than not due to the fact that the eyes have been overworked. The cure is not a cup of tea nor a bottle of smelling salts; it lies in a pair of spectacles. From exactly the same type of headache clerks, typists, dressmakers, and students are great sufferers. In the great majority of these cases, says Dr. Stephenson, examination has shown that weak and overworked eyes were the cause of the trouble which has disappeared with the use of a pair of good spectacles.

ROCKCASTLE CHURCHES.
Rock Springs church situated two miles north of Level, Green was one among the earliest church buildings erected in Rockcastle. Mt. Pleasant is said to be the oldest organized church in the county. It is located two miles West of Level Green. The burying ground there contains more graves than any other cemetery in the county. Decoration day here a beautiful custom has been regularly observed there for probably forty years past an hundreds are usually in attendance. Some years there has been more than a thousand present to observe the day.

ANNOUNCEMENT
Langdon Memorial School will re-open on Wednesday January 8. All students are expected to arrive on January 7th.
The school stands as it has always stood, for thorough, honest work, high ideas, strong character and training for service. It is our purpose to maintain this standard.
All who wish to enter school but have not completed arrangements for doing so, are asked to communicate with me at once as the number of places to be filled are few.

With sincere regret that Miss Dodson will not be in charge of the music department next term and realizing that her place will be hard to fill, we never-the-less expect to have a competent teacher of music soon. Definite announcements will be made. We ask a continuance of the music patrons and that others who have been considering taking music will be ready to begin when the new teacher arrives. Here, as in the other departments, we expect to maintain our standard of thorough and earnest work.
We sincerely hope that the whooping cough epidemic will soon be over and that a large number of little people will be ready to greet Miss Robertson on Jan. 8th.

With best wishes for the New Year to all patrons and friends of the school, I am,
Most cordially yours,
ROSE McCORD.

The Dormitory was the scene of a very pleasant New Year's reception on last Wednesday evening. Mrs. Fishback, Mrs. Annie Miller, Mrs. Franklin, Miss McCord and Miss Clarkson were the hostesses of the second open meeting of the Women's Club.

The guests assembled in the new building where the Turner Art Exhibit was on display. The first hour was spent in the living room where Miss Sparks and Mrs. Miller furnished delightful music. Miss Adams gave a description of two of the pictures which she had seen while in Europe. Michael Angelo's Jeremiah, and Reynolds's Age of Innocence. Miss Watson told the story connected with Alexander's Pot of Basil, and Peppier's Atlanta's Race.

LIVINGSTON.

S. E. Hellard, W. M. Hicks, T. M. Dees and others went to Jackson County, Friday night and organized a Jr. O. W. A. M. Lodge. The depot here is being treated to a new roof—W. H. Mahaffey has returned from a visit to relatives at Richmond. At the Annual election of Jackson Lodge No. 731, F. & A. M., on last Friday night the 27th, the following officers were elected to serve the ensuing year: Master, Summers, W. M., W. H. Cotton, S. W., J. B. Browning, J. W., W. E. Gray, Sec. W. H. Oliver, Treas., and G. W. Arnold, Tyler. A public installation of the officers January 11th and a supper on same date. Miss Georgia Amey, who has been attending school at Mt. Vernon, is with home folks during the holidays. From what we can gather from the papers it seems that Gov. James B. McCreary will be a candidate for senator against Gov. C. W. Beckham again. The Democratic in this neck of the woods has this to say. The party has elected him to every office that he has asked for and now holds the highest of them in the state and our under standing is that when Beckham was a candidate for U. S. Senator before he had the governor to fight and thereby both lost. Now while we think lots of the governor, yet Beckham is the man this time, and we say hands off governor. You have held office all your life and this time the democrats will support Mr. Beckham. So we will say to all democrats let's do our duty, and to do this we will be stand together and elect C. W. Beckham the next U. S. Senator from Kentucky. When we do this then we have done our duty and not until then.—L. E. Hagan, Misses daughter of Mr. W. N. Rice, is expected at this writing. We believe we have had one of the quietest Christmas that we have had for years. We have not seen a drunken man the whole time, altho there was lots of booze but everybody kept quiet and we have had a very low level this time.—The wild animal that infested the Sand Hill region has not been seen for some time. Guess it has gone into winter quarters. J. W. Owens, who has been very low for some time continues very feeble.—G. D. Cook will move into his new house in a few days. He has one of the prettiest houses in town.—On last Thursday night the Dramatic Club of Brodhead produced the play, "The Last Rose of Summer" here. There was a large crowd present for the funny part was after the play. Will Vaden and Brack Durham took two of the roses and fed across the Tenn line and were made man and wife. W. M. Hicks is very downhearted. Now he says that today Dec. 31, brights all his matrimonial life. He was in hopes that some good woman during last year would propose to him but he says all hopes has vanished and he guesses he will still have to enjoy the blessedness of single life the rest of his days. He said that he is satisfied that he would have got married years ago, if it had not been for that hearting fault, beautiful. Now we believe that some good woman should start a correspondence with Matt, and lead the way and then the game is won. Mrs. R. B. Sams and children of Paris, were here between trains Saturday.—Fred and Miss Ida Mae Merimee of Paris, have returned home after a few days' visit with their Grand Ma, Mrs. Geo. Pope. Mrs. O. W. dece of the bride's sister, Mrs. W. P. Buchanan, at Sta. Ford. May their pleasures be multiplied.—Mr. and Mrs. Tamm, of Louisville, have been visiting his sister, Mrs. G. W. Mann, during the holidays.—Mrs. G. W. Mann and little daughter, has been visiting in Louisville, Danville and other points for the past week.—Mr. John Mullins and Miss Clyde Lair, were united in the holy bonds of matrimony Dec. 30th. Mr. Mullins holds a good position with the L. & N. R. Co. and is a nice young man, and the bride is the beautiful and accomplished daughter of Mr. and Mrs. T. B. Lair. They will go to housekeeping in the Sumbrook property. May their pathway be full of pleasure.—George Painter, of Brodhead, has been visiting his daughter, Mrs. C. E. Rice, for the past few days.—Fritz Kreuger, of Mt. Vernon, was here Sunday.—Bill Nicoley, of Berea, has been here for a few days. He will move his family here about the 10th of January and take charge of the hotel and restaurant.—Neal Parrott, of Mt. Vernon, was here Sunday visiting his father-in-law, Mr. A. Pennington.—Miss Lydia Cook attended the Mullins Lair wedding near Mt. Vernon, Thursday, the 29th, at 10 o'clock. Mrs. Emma Jones is visiting her daughter, Mrs. F. He is a worthy young man and we predict a successful future for him.—He left New Year morning accompanied by Cashier A. M. Hiett.—A Stock Company has been organized here known as the Brodhead Spoke Co., with Owen V. Jarrett as Manager. The purpose is to manufacture all kinds of vehicle wood material. They are using hickory, ash and white oak and hickory timber. Those having timber of this kind to sell would do well to call on them for prices. The plant is already in operation the parthra having attached their machinery to the J. W. Tate saw mill.—The New Year has left here some fifteen years ago from New Orleans, Louisiana, returned Wednesday to spend a few days with relatives and friends in old Brodhead. He is employed by the Texas & Pacific R. R. Co. and is making good in his southern home.—The old saying, that "it never rains but it pours" was fully demonstrated last Thursday night when Miss Lena Rivers Albright, and Willie Yaden, Miss Eva Mae Albright and Brack Durham, boarded the train at Livingston, where they had gone with the Brodhead Dramatic Club, and went to Jellico, Tenn. where they were married at 8:00 o'clock a. m. the next morning. It was a great surprise to most of their many friends, and we rather think it was a surprise to the contracting parties too, as we understand that no arrangements had been made until a short time before the train arrived. These young people are very popular, and have a host of admiring friends, who wish them all the pleasures that life affords.—Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Leonard and children, of Richmond, were visiting Mr. and Mrs. R. B. and last week.

Another supply of the bi-legal spectacle fixtures just arrived. Give satisfaction and happiness to wife, husband, brother, sister, or father by presenting a pair of these splendid glasses, fitted with cellophane temples at S. E. Franklins new shop. There is only one thing that is harder than shavin' the back of your own head, and that is to disengage a sheet of sticky fly paper from the bosom of your trousers. Unless you can tell it, there really is no advantage in knowing a secret.
