clubs here, Livingston and other points along the line good headway is being made in securing the aid of influential men in Kentucky and other states who will aid greatly to the strength of our cause. If other matters are considered at the extra session of Congress which begins in April, the Boone Way bill will be introduced. If otherwise it will have to pass over to the fall session. It is believed, however, that the measure will get in at this extra session.

CINCINNATI, the Queen City, has, through its Chambers of Commerce, advised the Secretary of our Boone Way B. H. that the business men of that wide awake and hustling city are much interested in our movement for the proposed National highway and will render all possible aid in the work toward furthering the proposition before Congress. Cincinnati never does anything by halves. We are much pleased to have had with her pushing qualities come to our assistance in this fight for fair play and justice to the mountain section of Kentucky. That city built the great C. S. railroad now they will use their influence in putting Boone Way on the map.

Mr. Nat B. Sewell, of Laurel county, a man well equipped for the position, will more than likely be a candidate for the legislature to represent the 70th district composed of Laurel and Rockcastle counties. Mr. Sewell is just the man to send from our district to Frankfort to assist in straightening out the tangled financial web into which the State finds itself owing to its out of date taxing system.

Sheridan's dictionary an old leather bound book loaned to the writer, Jm. by R. B. Mullins, shows on the inside of its back over the following inscription in ink "George Carpenters book, 1808". The first page is devoted to a prosodial Grammar of the English language calculated solely for the purposes of teaching propriety of pronunciation, and justness of delivery, in that tongue by the organs of speech" also an appendix with Rules to be observed by the natives of Ireland in order to attain a just pronunciation of English, also by the natives of Scotland and Wales". The old fashioned long "S" is much in evidence throuth the book. Figures, 1, 2 and 3 are used as diacritical marks or points; being placed above the vowels to distinguish the various sounds of the same letter. The pages of the grammar portion of the book are designated by figure, but no figures show for paging the dictionary. The dictionary. The spelling is nearly the same as that of today although some difference is found in many words and a number of obsolete words are shown. Music is spelt music. "Ginseng. A root brought lately into Europe; it is cordial and restorative." Alphabetically; the figure i appears as a diacritical mark above the vowels of this word as follows: 'aia and y'. The cabbage worm is mentioned in this book. Dray, the car on which beer is carried, Chase, the present tense, from to chase. Fat a fat chubby boy. Lucid, making light. Goat, say edging served upon cloth. Petroleum, a liquid bitumen, black, floating upon the water of springs. (They didn't know what coal oil was in those days) Portress, a female guardian of the peace. "Wis, to know". The old book is in a fair state of preservation but is much yellowed by exposure to light. The printing is good and plain though some of the pronouncing italic letters seem a little queer to us today. The oldest inhabitant here doesn't know who George Carpenter was or when the book was brought to Kentucky. There is no date, name of author, printer or place on inside of book showing what country it was published in. On the back between the lids on the outside are printed in gilt letters these words: Sheridan's Dictionary.

The Mountain pygmies, with strings and ropes of fairs aided by a little army press have lassoed and bound head and foot, horns, hoof and hide, the giants of the Louisville press. These animals weren't aware of the fact that the harmless looking little mountain howitzer was loaded for war when they tackled it a short time since with ugly and uncalled for editorials ridiculing and denouncing the efforts of the mountaineers to secure government aid in the construction of Boone Way a proposed national highway through mountain territory. Not satisfied with tinkering with the howitzer they, these bright satellites of newsworld in vaded the handy box of edge tools taking therefrom implements with double edges that cut "both comin' and goin'", resulting in cut fingers and consistences. Didn't want the mountaineers to have anything from the government for roads but wished it distributed in large sums in and around the city of Louisville for canals and retaining walls. "Let the mountains dig roads if they want them." Now these same pygmies in their righteous wrath brought further the little howitzer (SIGNAL) and put it in action. The first shot struck the pocket books of the city's business men and drove them to think a few think's and get to work to offset the mischief and devilment fomented by its newspapers. These same papers seeing the plight into which they were placing their business, now ceased their attacks on the mountaineers' efforts for better things and are now as dumb as was Gulliver when corded up by the pygmies. They, these papers, are mean enough to say many more ugly things but are simply afraid to as they see what a "rixrax" they have stirred up in the mountains.

The Courier Journal, probably by oversight of its censor, let the following slip into its correspondance column.

"The State owes them a debt that it cannot too quickly discharge. The Commonwealth must open up those mountain fastnesses with good roads. What grander monument could be raised to Abraham Lincoln, that plain man of the people, for whose flag and whose principles many of them fought bravely, than to build a highway that would release a sturdy people from bondage, the bondage of poverty and drudgery and illiteracy?"

MANY friends are asking the question of what is the present status of the Boone Way movement. Through the work of the

HERBINE A Medicine of Power in All Liver Disorders. When you feel dull, out of sorts, discouraged, half sick and everything seems to be going wrong, you can blame it on your liver. It is torpid. You need HERBINE. What the liver is torpid, it throws impurities into the system, which hamper every organ in the body. The result is that functional processes are not properly carried on. Impurities get into the blood, the stomach is bilious, the kidneys weak and the bowels irregular—generally constipated. Herbine clears out all these impurities, opens up the obstructed channels, strengthens the torpid liver, cleanses the blood, purifies and regulates the bowels. After the system has been thus overhauled, there is an immediate improvement. Appetite, regular digestion is good, the spirits rise, the mind clears of gloomy forebodings and everything looks bright and cheerful, which means, sound, healthy conditions everywhere in the body. Bromo Ky. March, 11, 1913 To the Progressives of Rockcastle: After receiving letters from a goodly number and talking with a great many more that are holding out faithful for cleaner politics in all elections and according to a statement in a former letter in regard to calling a meeting for the purpose of formulating plans for perfecting a Progressive county organization I now ask that all Progressives meet me in the court house at Mt. Vernon Ky., on Saturday, March 29th at 1 o'clock p.m. for the purpose of formulating plans for organization, to better acquaint ourselves with each other, discuss our future outlook and come to some conclusion on the subject of putting a ticket in the field for county officers this fall. Now as every Progressive in the county possibly does not take the SIGNAL and will not see these remarks, I will further ask all that does so them to notify every other Progressive in their neighborhood and lets have a good crowd and let every body come and feel free to speak his sentiments. There will be no bosses there. A few comments on W. D. Cummins' letter of a short time ago. I should head our ticket this coming election for County Judge. On the out set will say that I do not care to enter into politics as it has been well said of Politics in the past: "That politics is Hell"—more than every good citizen should in order to have a government of the people by the people and for the people and not a government by the political bosses. But we must have some candidates, and the offices should cost the men and not men seek the offices. I do not mean to dictate what should be done but will suggest that if I should be induced to make such a race that besides running on the platform suited to this county, I am a farmer and at least 90 per cent of the people are from this class and a part of the remainder is common laborers and I can testify to the fact that dollars in this county are scarce and hard to get hold of and for that reason I am in favor of reducing the salaries of the county officers back to $600.00 a year. This will be a good idea and a hundreds of people will testify to the fact that the people are not getting any more or any better service than in former administrations. It is my opinion there can be some more economy used also there by save the people of Rockcastle anywhere from $5000.00 to $10000.00 in the next four years. "Live and let live" is a very good policy. And another thing I would suggest that we have a little cleaner politics, and not so much campaign funds, and then we would not have to have such high salaries to come out ahead. And where there is any suspicion that there was anything used in elections do like has been done in some of the other states, have the parties brought into court and prosecuted. Now there is one more suggestion and it is a very important one. And it is the construction and maintenance of our county roads. I say they can be made comparatively good all over the county in a few years without any bond issue either by using up-to-date machinery that could be bought with the money saved on officers salaries and could be run with the money that is paid to road overseers to let their own teams stand in the shade or haul rock that two men could carry at a load in a coffee sack. If we need hauling done on road let men use a team to particularly put in their six days, say three to one, and in that way get all the hauling done that is needed. And at the end of two years it there isn't a bigger improvement with less expense to the tax payer, it has been quit collecting road tax at all. And another thing not allow no one person to hold more than one office of profit or trust. Now Brother Progressive think seriously and weigh carefully the suggestions made and meet me on the above date. Yours a Progressive, P. H. SURRIS, Advertiser

The Miller & Postley horse sale proved a very unsuccessfull venture for the promoters. There was all kinds of stock on the ground for sale but there were no buyers and consequently no sales were made.

The weather and the time of the year had a great deal to do with it, but the main feature, there were no buyers from a distance and the same people did not want to buy. We regret very much the unfortunate outcome, because these gentlemen had put money and time in the enterprise and were entitled to a successful sale, but where there is a will there is a way and it is determined that Mt. Vernon shall have a horse sale and that a stock market shall be established here.

Miss TEMPEST WARD.

To the Republicans of Rockcastle: After careful consideration I have decided to enter the race for School Superintendent of Rockcastle County, subject to the action of the Republican party at the Primary, August 2, 1913.

I have been engaged in school work for the past six years. If elected I promise faithful service such as an officer should give.

Trusting that I may have the support of the people, regardless of their politics, I remain Yours very truly,

(MISS TEMPEST WARD.)

A few bones, a rings pipe, (partly decayed), part of a hat and the soles of his shoes were found, but old citizens claimed that there was a negro killed on a work train several years ago and buried there, and the excitement ceased. There is more Catarrh in this section of the country than all other diseases put together and until the last few years was supposed to be incurable. For a great many years doctors pronounced it a local disease and prescribed local remedies, and by constantly failing to cure by local treatment, pronounced it incurable. Science has proven Catarrh to be a Constitutional disease, and therefore requires constitutional treatment. E. J. Cattarrh Cure, manufactured by F. J. Cheney & Co., Toledo, O., is the only constitutional cure on the market. It is taken internally in doses from 10 drops to a teaspoonful. It acts directly on the blood and unclogs surfaces of the system. They offer one hundred dollars for any case it fails to cure. Send for circulars and testimonials. Address: F. J. that a county seat town, if Mt. Vernon, to have a store market, I believe like the farmer that it must come through in such avenues as this. First ever man in our town working to build up a market for everything in the way of live stock; providing our city with a small stock yard, such that could make ample provision for any and every thing brought into our city. Mt. Vernon located like this, on the border line of the blue grass and the mountains, is just such a place as great market places are made. Now I feel quite sure that by co-operation, between the farmer and the people of our town, that we can bring to light one of the great needs of our town and country. You need not worry about buyers for they stand ready at all times to come. Gentlemen lend me your assistance in this matter, and see if we don't have an ideal County Court market each and every month. CHAS. C. DAVIS. ARE YOU CONSTIPATED?
