

Shape is Cut and Sewed to Stay in Clothcraft Clothes

YOU can depend upon it—the fresh-bought shapeliness of Clothcraft Clothes is there to stay. Many men have found that after a Clothcraft suit has been discarded, the coat can be worn for years for work or rough use without losing its original shape and fit.

Shape is built in Clothcraft Clothes—not pressed in. It's a part of the clothes themselves—and it will keep long after the clothes are worn out.

There's no guess work about this—Clothcraft Clothes are guaranteed to hold their shape.

The Clothcraft guarantee also insures all-wool cloth, first class trimmings and tailoring, satisfactory wear and service.

We back up this guarantee with our own because after careful investigation we find that Clothcraft Clothes make good on every point. They are $10 to $25 and we can prove to you that they are easily worth more.

PEOPLE FOR BECKHAM. SAV COUNTY EDITORS AT THEIR ANNUAL MEETING LAST WEEK.

A dispatch to a Louisville paper from Olympia Springs, Bath County, this week, said: Olympia Springs, Ky., June 13.—Ex-Gov. J. C. W. Beckham candidate for United States Senator, spent Friday here shaking hands with the members of the Kentucky Press Association, who have been in annual session this week. Gov. Beckham is personally known to almost every county editor in the State, and a big majority of them are enthusiastic for him for the nomination next year. They were all glad to see him, and although politics of any sort is, of course tabooed at the formal association sessions, it is a very persistent topic of discussion between times and a large number of the most influential editors from over the state made it a point to assure the ex-Governor of their earnest support of his candidacy.

When it was noted about that he was coming, several of his ardent admirers and supporters, including Harry Sommers, of the Elizabethtown News, Ben D. Coles, of the Shelbyville News, John P. Gaines, of the Bowling Green News, Shelton Ranney, of the Stanford Interior Journal, Gamel Seniff, of the Mt. Sterling Advocate, T. L. Briggs, of the Glasgow Times, J. B. Stears, of the Nicholasville News and Hon. John R. Thomas, of the Lebanon Falcon met him at the station as he ascended from the bus at a copy of the papers and gave him a cordial welcome. They and other prominent editors from other sections of the state gave him the most encouraging news. They say that he has the people of the State with him.

The editors say that the county people are thoroughly familiar with the record he made as Governor. They remember that he paid off a State debt almost as large as the present one—and built a new Capitol without increasing the tax rate one cent or issuing bonds, and most of all, they remember, the editors say that Beckham was the first man to take the office of prominence with the avowed purpose of fighting against the all powerful liquor interests, and gave the people the temperance laws they wanted.

Editors who say they were never for him for a nomination believe are now enthusiastically aligning themselves under his banner, and bring reports from their constituents that the same situation prevails all over the State. They know, they say that Beckham has the backbone to stand for what is right and what the people want, and has never yet been known to sidetrack an issue when it has been brought before him, even though it cost him a Senatorship. The editors told him that his friends are increasing daily and that the attacks made upon him and his past official record are helping, rather than hurting, for the people know what he has done and where he stands, and are not afraid of him running away from any proposition. Gov. Beckham was an honored guest at the annual banquet of the Kentucky Press association Thursday night and responded to the toast "The Commonwealth".

He was given an ovation when he was called upon by the toast master, retiring President Ed Shinick, the guests all rising to their feet with a tumult of applause as he began. The other speakers of the evening were, Col. J. Polk Johnson, Harry Sommers T. C. Underwood, Mike O'Sullivan and J. B. Stears.

The meeting finally adjourned shortly after noon.

DEAFNESS CANNOT BE CURED.

By local application, as they cannot reach the diseased portion of the ear. There is only one way to cure deafness, and that is by constitutional treatment. Deafness is caused by an inflamed condition of the mucous lining of the Eustachian Tube. When this tube is inflamed, it causes a running sound or imperfect hearing and when it is entirely closed. Deafness is the result, and unless this inflammation can be taken out and this tube restored to its normal condition, hearing will be destroyed forever; unless cases out has been caused by Catarrh, which is nothing but an inflamed condition of the mucous surfaces. We will give One Hundred Dollars to any case of Deafness (caused by catarrh) that cannot be cured by Hall's Catarrh Cure. Send for circulars, free.

To the Republicans of Rockcastle County: Many Republicans from all sections of the county have invited me to make the race for the Republican nomination for the office of county court clerk. The demand being so general and urgent on their part, I decided to enter the race. I feel that I am well qualified to fill this important office. I finished a course in bookkeeping and general business about twelve years ago which vocation I have since followed for a living. I write a plain, legible hand and will be able to keep such a record of your valuable papers. Your aid in my behalf for this office is kindly solicited and will be appreciated. Very respectfully, W.
