

NEW FEATURES AT THE BRODHEAD FAIR

HORSE SHOW EACH NIGHT IN FRONT OF GRAND STAND

Special Rings are being made up for the occasion. Same may be had by writing the Secretary or calling at his office during the Fair.

It is the object of the Association to make the night shows most interesting, EDUCATED HORSES

In addition to the special show rings, arrangements have been made with Prof. A. T. McDonald, of New York City, with his string of educated horses, for the first time visiting any Kentucky towns, to give his performances each evening, and at no other time will his performances be shown except at night.

The Famous Wild West SHOW PERFORMANCES AT NIGHT ONLY

In addition to the free performances each day on the track, consisting of Hippodrome, Races, etc., a special feature will be rendered each night, consisting of the most daring feats of Wild West performances.

AERIAL PERFORMANCES

Consisting of Casting, Flying and Mid-Air Leaps. This feature will last from twenty to thirty minutes and is the most dangerous performances now being staged in open air.

BAND CONCERTS

A special program of Music is being arranged for each night performance, which will add to the occasion as only the best music will be used on this occasion.

The grounds will be handsomely lighted, and enclosed by 600 feet of Wall Tent. Each performance will be given in front of the Grand Stand within the enclosure mentioned, and a change of program rendered each night. This is a new feature never before attempted by a country Fair in Kentucky, and we hope to make it the best part of our entertainment. All special features are very costly to the Association, and the program to be rendered will be no part of any performance shown at any time on the grounds, but are specially reserved for night.

Everyone come expecting to stay for the night show. Show to begin promptly at 7:30 p.m.

BECKHAM WINS HIS FIGHT FOR SENATOR

Will Have a Majority of At Least Twenty-Five Hundred Votes

RESULTS OF THE PRIMARY

GOV. McCREARY MAKES POOR SHOWING THROUGHOUT THE STATE.

The Seven Representatives Who Did Not Have Contests Scored a Clean Sweep and All Will be Candidates for Election in November—Powell Wins Easy Victory.

Western Newspaper Union News Service, Louisville, Ky.—The C. W. Beckham had defeated A. G. Stanley for the Democratic senatorial nomination in Kentucky was indicated when returns from 111 counties, most of them complete, gave Beckham a majority of about 2,500 votes. Even the Bureau of the opposition concedes this estimate. As the missing counties are all in the Tenth and Eleventh Districts, where a complete report will be lacking for a day or so, and all conceded to Beckham, every indication is that the Beckham majority will be built up near the 2,500 mark. Beckham has carried 53 of the 105 counties. Eight of the eleven districts have given him a majority. His concession of three districts to Stanley, made by his campaign managers, was of all days before the primary, has become one out. Gov. McCreary's surprisingly poor race, with scarcely a vote, has been a matter of much political comment. The governor's meager vote is regarded to have weighed heavily against Stanley's chances. Beckham's hard fight, "right the wrong," referring to his former senatorial ambitions and the result at the hands of a Democratic legislature, is believed to have been a factor in his victory. Judging from the Democratic trend of the primary, the entire state by a vote that is remarkable. Only the official returns on all the counties, "factory over-hauling" appointed all figures in eligible reports on his race. Among the Democratic races, the following takes that between Wilson and Ergas a still very close, though the former is said to have a safe margin. The Progressive vote in this election is not light that few reports of it were made. Barton Vance, of Louisville, is a comfortable lead over his opponent, Judge George W. Jolly of Owensboro. Several races, the following are tagged for congressional nomination in the various districts. While the results were not white they have the results show that the winners in each case pulled away by large majorities in the Democratic races, the following are given: First district, Barkley, 5,600; Second district, Nicholas, 5,400; Third district, Thomas, Dem., 2,900; Fourth district, Johnson, Dem., 5,600; Fifth district, Sherley, Dem., 5,200; Sixth district, no contest; Seventh district, Cantrell, Dem., 6,700; Eighth district, no contest; Ninth district, Fields, Dem., 5,900; Tenth district, no contest; Eleventh district, Powers, Rep., 5,000.

ANNUAL EXHIBITION AT BLUEGRASS FAIR

KENTUCKY'S GREAT AGRICULTURAL AND LIVE STOCK EXPOSITION HELD.

HORSE SHOW IS A FEATURE

The Heart of the Blue Grass Region and in the Center of Fine Breeding Section.

Western Newspaper Union News Service, Lexington, Ky.—The Bluegrass Fair, the great agricultural live stock exposition, and the annual social and amusement event of central Kentucky was held here through the week situated as Lexington is, in the heart of the Bluegrass region, the center of the live stock breeding section of the United States, and in the midst of a more diversified and fruitful agricultural activity than perhaps any other part of the country, the Bluegrass fair is an institution peculiar to itself and a specialty of the Bluegrass region of Kentucky. The preliminary enterprise for the exhibitions and the inquiries received indicated that the fair would be the greatest success it was, the greatest and most largely attended by any of the series, which has extended through many years. The features of the horse show were rings for three and five-gaited saddle horses, roadsters and fine harness horses, while among the races was the $1,000 stake for 2-year-old colts. Tuesday was the time of the exhibitions of miscellaneous cattle, Tomworth and Hamp Shire hogs and Shropshire sheep. In addition to the rings for breeding classes for saddle horses, including $1,000 stake for suckling; roadsters, fine and heavy harness horses, and three-gaited saddle horses, and ponies other than Shetlands. Thursday's exhibition comprised the suckling classes for American saddle horses, rings for draft horses and Shropshire cattle, while the chief feature of the horse show was the rings for five-gaited saddle horses, and fine harness horses, and a ring for ponies finer than Shetlands. Saturday was thoroughbred day, in which the breeding classes for the famous former stars of the turf, which have been retired to the stud as well as their spiritual progeny, which will be the future great race horses of the country. In addition to the rings for roadsters, the best girl driver under 12 years, old the best boy driver, plantation horses, and harness horses including the best and Junior championships, three-gaited saddle horses and the Ebbinge special prize for saddle stallion, 3 years old and under.

MISSING MINISTER IS LOCATED

Covington, Ky.—What is believed may lead to a solution of the mystery surrounding the disappearance of the Rev. Milton W. Hyatt from his home in Covington is a letter received, signed "Rev. Hyatt." The letter came from St. Louis, Mo., and was addressed from St. Charles. It requested that a box which was left by the minister with the firm be sent to him at once. The Rate Case Decision.

The Interstate Commerce Commission's decision in the Dastere rate cases is by no means all that the railroads asked, it is decidedly more than they had been led to expect by what purported to be authentic forecasts sent broadcast in the past few weeks. The increase granted includes both class and commodity rates and are confined exclusively to the lines between Pittsburgh and Buffalo and the Mississippi. No increase is granted on Atlantic seaboard rates or on such commodities as coal, coke and iron. The total increase is estimated at 11 per cent, less than half, it will be seen, of what the railroads asked. That a larger increase was not made is due to the commission's belief that though conditions may warrant it, the railroads have not made out a case sufficient to justify it. Further, the commission is convinced that there are economies in the way of increased passenger rates and the abolition of all passes which can be made to add materially to the railroads' net revenues. Considering the successful fight in the South and East for lower passenger rates, this recommendation of the commission comes as a distinct surprise. Whether it could be put into effect is a question reasonably open to a difference of opinion under normal conditions. As things are now, it is a practical impossibility.

Seen as a whole, however, the Chief significance of the decision lies in the fact that the commission, by a majority of five—Mr. Daniels going even further than his associates, Mr. McChord alone dissenting—has reached the conclusion that the limit to which enforced retrenchment by the railroads can be carried with justice has not only been arrived at, but exceeded.

Coming at any other time the decision would have made immediately and emphatically for a restoration of business confidence and a renewal of railroad activity. With the whole of Europe in a death grapple, it is difficult to see wherein the decision can, for the time being, have more than an academic interest. Later on, when the United States is called on to supply the world's markets and to take over in the commerce of the South America and the Far East the place now held by Germany, the decision will be one of the contributing factors, in an era of prosperity such as no other nation has crept up and for which American foresight, by the building of the Panama canal and the passage of the tariff act, together with the insanity that has mastered Europe, has paved the way.

Whatever other conclusions may be drawn as a result of Saturday's primary, one thing on the face of present surface indications, seems certain, and that is Mr. Stanley's nomination for Governor next year by the Democratic primary. The second conclusion is that State wide prohibition will be in the issue in the primary campaign; if not in the general election and that Mr. Stanley, in the primary will be the perhaps avowed representative of that element in his party which is opposed to State wide prohibition of the liquor traffic.

These two propositions seem at this time to be inevitable. Mr. Stanley has his campaign for Governor already made. He could probably win it without making another speech. The result of his race with Beucham leads to the belief that the campaign heard two weeks longer he would have been successful. He seems to be the sort of a candidate that his party wants, and one of the gentlemen now talked of, as a possible candidate for the Democratic nomination for Governor could probably win it if he entered the race. LIVINGSTON.

Elshu Bullock, salesman, of Harford, was with our merchants Monday. — J. W. Baker was in Mt. Vernon, Sunday. — Miss Bessie Carson, of Jellico, is visiting relatives here and will attend the Mt. Vernon Fair. — Mrs. John Griffey and a little son, who was struck by the train a few days ago is rapidly improving. — Blain, the wife of J. W. Soward on the 6th of July of a girl. — Next Sunday the 9th is the Bible Convention at the Christian Church. (Remember the day — W. H. Kruger is building a five room cottage on his lot on Main street. — Judge L. W. Bethurum, of Mt. Vernon, was in Monday. — Judge Laird of Mt. Vernon, was with relatives here a few days ago and informed us that he was 61 years old. We were surprised how young he looked and so full of life. — The primary election is over and it was surprising how little interest was taken by both sides, but the turnout was 414 done in November at the general election. — H. T. Barnes, a worker for the Baptist Young Peoples Union, was here several days last week holding an institute at the Baptist church. The members of the organization at this place were much edified and strengthened, being better equipped for the work before them and fed that never before they had the ability for training the young people for Christian service that they now have. They have organized their union and are looking forward to great results.

On a Sunday a number of the young people spent the day with Miss Anne Wood at her place on Klondike house and enjoyed a dinner, that is seldom served in the county of about ten courses. These present were Misses Porce Pennington, Nettie Rice, Minnie Wood Quigues of Elizabethton, Ky, Alice Ward and Georgia Amy and Messrs John Fields, Earl Rice and John Clark. — The Big Mt. Vernon Fair will be pulled off this week and from what we can gather the Fair people are not leaving any stones unturned to make it a success. Every one that can go, should. The thing to do is to patronize your home Fair and we don't believe any one will regret this time spent in attending the Mt. Vernon Fair this year. — Miss Fred Owens of Elmwood, Ohio, is visiting relatives here. — Fred Beaver, of Elwaco, came to our town a few days ago and took Miss Nettie Farley to Knoxville, Tenn., where they were made man and wife. May their pathway be strewn with roses and may their journey through life be one of pleasure. — Mrs. John Mullins is visiting relatives at Mt. Vernon this week. — Uncle Fritz Krueger was with his son, W. H. Krueger, Sunday. — Fred Baker, the bustling clerk for U. G. Baker and G. S. Griffin was in Mt. Vernon Sunday. — Bill the man from Stauffer is making his regular visits to our town and that on Sunday. We don't see how it is that a salesman would come to get on our nerves every time on Sunday.

We are satisfied that one of our pretty girls is the attraction. We will not give her name; so John need not worry on that point. One of the finest rains of the season fell here Monday, although most of the crops are past redemption, yet it will do a great deal of good. — Miss E. Fishback, of Mt. Vernon, was with her daughter, Mrs. Robt. Shroeder, Friday. — H. M. Kirk, of the Big Hill, was here Saturday, enroute home from Pineville, he almost recovered from the shot he received about two weeks ago. — Mr. and Mrs. Geo. O'Mary, of Jellico, are visiting their son, J. T. O'Mary, of this place. — Mrs. J. R. Orndoff and grand daughter, Miss Nellie Hagan, who have been visiting relatives at Harrodsburg have returned home. — Mrs. J. W. Rambo, who has been visiting her son, D. B. Rambo, of this place, has returned to her home at Maywood, Ky. — Mrs. J. H. Browning is visiting relatives in London, Ky. — C. I. Rambo was in Maywood, Monday.

Judge B. J. Bathurum's Ad-vice

The heading if adopted by the printer will tend to show what the Judge intended. Viz: It is the Judge's "Ad" pointing out what he intends to do with the "Vice" part of it.

The Judge knows where he speaks, if not practically and experimentally he does know from common sense. A common sense man is mighty good testimony when a witness is brought before the court to tell you why he did or she knows about a neighbor's standing as to truth and veracity as we have played fashioned on every.

It is truly gratifying to see public sentiment roused and the political conscience quickened. What we do stress once regard of as the sport and good joke, especially about August these days, now has become a serious business. The good old "ginger cide" humor days have come to a halt, no more. The Australian Ballot system forever broke up the habit of buying voters in "blocks of five" marching the sellers, in platoons, to the polls "drunk as lords" to vote " viva voce" the red ticket, the black or blue.

A new era in national life has dawned,—public sentiment has been aroused.

We are seeing as we never saw before the indignities that have been heaped upon the clear, honest, intelligent citizen—the nation. We are beginning to apprehend the danger that confronts us as a people. The interests that have been made are now in progress of making by the pretention of our only safe guard, to American civil and religious liberty. Viz: The sanctity of the ballot box is being destroyed.

Dear friends, realize what you have done to a man whom you bribe to vote, or to do anything contrary to law.

An awful hue and cry is raised when some poor wretch is taken to give false testimony in a court of justice.

It is a crime for a man, a fellow, to be guilty of perjury when he shall be sworn by him, or then who hired him to swear. If it is a crime for a poor ignorant, besotted wretch to sell his political liberty what shall be said of the man or men that furnishes the means and the other fellow that clinches the bargain, to buy and sell serious jobs, to buy and sell titles. It is becoming awful risky. When such men as the Judge in Adams County, Ohio, and Judge Benton of Clark County Ky., and Judge B. J. Bathurum of Pulaski county and others put their feet on it.

Somebody is going to get their feet in it some of these latter days.

It's bad enough, to tempt a sober man, to take a bribe, but what of the man, who without any sense of remorse of conscience, procures aids or abets in the double diled, infamous crime of brutalizing a human being, by making him drunk, in order to get him to vote or to make him incapable of getting to the polling place.

It is so vile, that public sentiment, in this boasted age, this 20th century of the Christian Era, a time of public education—of religious zeal and activity—is it possible that any man, or set of men, will deliberately plan to carry an election, by these means? If so, God help our State and nation! God save our homes our wives and children, and our beloved country and may God in his infinite love and mercy pay and save those who knowing their duty in this regard death it not, or prayer.

A Voter.
