Mr. Vernon has a greater millage of first-class concrete sidewalks as compared to the number of inhabitants than any other town in the State.

STRAWBERRY A cow, fresh red color, smooth, weight about 1,000 pounds, wore bell with home-made chain collar, right bag largest. Notify and receive reward.

J. H. CLARK, Pine Hill, Ky. Charles Goodright, of Texas, has a herd of cattle (cross of cattle and buffaloes). It is claimed they are superior to cattle in many ways; that the "male beef" for meat, clear of flies, and it never gets tough like beef.

WAS STATIONER, threshed 63 bushels of wheat, a pretty good number of bushels to have, yet Mr. Staverson was a little disappointed in that the yield per acre was not as much as he expected. It was less than 25 bu. per acre.

The Rockcastle Missionary Baptist Association met with Freedom Church this week and was one of the best in the history of the Association. Rev. A. J. Pike, Moderator, and J. Parker, Secretary, were unanimously re-elected. The Association meets with Mt. Zion church in 1915.

Fato, G. H. J. W. C. Johnson, P. S. J. A. Proctor, R. A. C. A. B. Parrish, S. C. Franklin, Sec'y; H. L. Smith, M. 3rd V. A. S. Ball, M. and V. W. D. Laswell, M. 1st V. Jas. Rickels, Sen.

THOMPSON STRONG - Mr. C. S. Sutton, of the firm of Sutton & McEbes, the well-known and successful Main Street merchants, and Miss Ada Thompson, the youngest daughter of Mr. F. L. Thompson, were married in Louisville, Kentucky, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Hutchison. They will visit Indianapolis and other Northern points, returning to Mt. Vernon about September 15th. We join with the best of friends in extending hearty congratulations to this splendid young couple.

Now and then we hear it said that so and so is afraid to have electric lights installed. For the benefit of those who wish to say that those properly wired is much safer than the lighting of the concerned and electric lights are certainly safer than an old oil lamp which is liable to explode at any time. Don't let the danger part worry you in the least and besides the Mt. Vernon plant is only 250 volt direct current which will not kill or injure even though one gets at the house on the wire line load. The Mt. Vernon Power Co. is anxious to have every house in Mt. Vernon on its lines. The only comparatively few houses are not wired, yet the company is anxious to get those. Ask your neighbors who has lights and see what he says about them. The cost is small.

The Mt. Vernon Graded School opened Monday, with the greatest prospects for a most successful year. There were over 225 pupils for the first enrollment. The faculty is composed of Prof. J. S. Irvine, principal; Miss Mand Rowley, High School department; Miss Georgia McFerron, primary; and Misses Bradley, Clyde Watson, Bernice Landrum, and Mrs. Fishback, Grade teachers. A splendid faculty, who will do their best to attain the greatest success, there must be co-operation on the part of the patrons and pupils. The teachers can not do it all. For them we bespeak the support of every person in the district, no matter whether you have children to send to school or not. The man who is not interested in the education of his neighbor's children is a poor citizen. At the school, speak words of encouragement to pupils and teachers alike, and you will be surprised to see the good it will do.

New fall caps for men and boys at Fish's. Phoenix silk hose for men and women at Fish's.

School books for Livingston at J. P. E. Drummond's. New things every day at Fish's for men and young men to wear.

Cooser's Kenaha Klossed Krotch union suits in full weights at Fish's.

Roy Hides is the name of the new shakers at Fish's and they wear like raw hides.

Langdon Memorial School will open Monday with a splendid faculty and a full school.

Mr. and Mrs. Ed Hibel, of Covington are with Judge and Mrs. G. M. Ballard for a few days.

C. A. Davis was in Richmond last Monday and bought two good horses to place in his livery stable. Dept. of Education has appointed J. P. E. Drummond agent for school books at Livingston. They are to be sold for cash only.

It is a good idea to save all fruits and vegetables you can by drying, canning or other means, so as to be able to fight high prices the coming winter.

Mr. and Mrs. Leroy Mullins, Mr. and Mrs. Clyde S. Baker, Cleo Mullins of Cincinnati, and Belle Mullins, of Paris, are with relatives here and in the county.

George Payne, who has been in the service of Uncle Sam three years is with his parents here. George has been pitching ball for the Charleston, S. C. Club, of the S. A. League this summer and has made quite a record.

McNews' wheat threshing is still making music in this locality, having passed thru two half dozen times within just three weeks on its way to various wheat fields. It is estimated that Rockcastle county sows 300 per cent more wheat than it did six years ago.

McFarland Memorial Presbyterian Church

All services will remain cancelled during the evangelistic meetings being held in the Big Tent, under the auspices of the Disciples Church. Our members and friends are requested to cooperate in this soul winning campaign. RAY, JOHN M. MACMILLAN, Charley Rice, Jr., and Virgil Tharp, brakened and a stockman, were seriously but not fatally injured in a freight wreck at Cedar Creek, Wednesday night. A dead engine and eighteen cars were piled in a heap. Tharp was caught and held fast in the wreck for several hours. His arm is badly mashed. Rice received several bruises but no bones broken.

Charley Hurst and Miss Mollie Owens drove in from Freedom, Tuesday, and were married at the County Clerk's office by Judge Ballard. Mr. Hurst is a son of this county and is a electrician, residing at Indianapolis. Mrs. Hurst is the attractive daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Alford Owens, of the Freedom section. The Signal would like to tell on the occasion with a host of friends extends congratulations.

Especially is it true, that with county Judges, serving first term, that in performing marriage ceremonies, the new Judge is always more or less embarrassed and often times gets the ceremony a little short and sometimes adds on a part that could have just as well been left off. The following pretty good one is told on Judge Ballard. Recently a young couple appeared at the Judge's office, presented the license and requested him to tie the nuptial knot. Unfortunately for the Judge there were quite a number assembled in the office, but with trembling knees he arose and proceeded. Requesting the happy couple to join, right hands the Judge said, "Do you take this lady whom you hold by the right hand to be your lawful and wedded wife, which was promptly answered in the affirmative. Then extending his hand for congratulations, the Judge concluded with the admonition: "May the Lord have mercy on you, is my prayer."

Pianos sold from factory to home. We have some rare bargains in slightly used pianos and organs.

THE BIG TENT MEETING

Evangelistic services under the auspices of the Christian church of Mt. Vernon, continue with unabated zeal, judging by the crowds that meet in the "Big Tent" every night.

The congregational singing led by Evangelist J. Ross Miller, is a feature of the services at all times. Mrs. Miller, as vocalist, and Mrs. Tinsley as violinist, render solos, of absorbing interest and will continue to lend their special powers in this service, while the revival is in progress. Speaking in sincere terms of conservatism, Bro. Miller possesses the power of inspiring men and women to "get busy." We must not forget that our Big Brother Geo. Tinsley is a wheel in versatility and house to house canvassing to find lost christians as well as unwary sinners. So that with the joint leadership of the Miller-Tinsley aggregations of evangelism, Mt. Vernon has never had the opportunities now offered for a tidal wave of revival in her midst. We must not forget this spiritual force thrust on by Bro. Macmillan as one of the most powerful ally of the forces named. His services have been conspicuously prominent for weeks past in the masterful quiet efforts put forth by him in preparation for this special effort.

Bro. Allen, while not yet fully recovered from a recent illness must be reckoned as one of the strong forces working overtime for the uplift of our town, spiritually, and in every way, and under every condition that correlates with practical christianity. In general terms the business men of the town as well as those engaged in amusement, and pleasure-seeking places of resort are to be heartily commended for the unselfish stand each has taken, in closing their respective places in business at 7:30 while the revival continues. So, "come on" as Bro. Miller urges. Get busy and cooperate heartily in promoting every good cause - first of which all will agree is pure and unadulterated religion, as the Apostle James puts it.

All are earnestly solicited and urged to come out and lend their influence in extending the Kingdom of Heaven. Come one and all.

How many husbands have died in your community in the last year and are forever gone from the good wife and little ones, they being left to battle life's busy way alone I want you to think and think soberly and see if you can't find some one about a next door neighbor to you. Oh, if we could only prevail on your husbands in some way not to neglect so great an opportunity of protecting their young wife and little ones, then when the death angel comes and demands of you your life think what a satisfaction it will be to you in your last moments to say, well, I have made the necessary preparation to meet you—I have a policy in the Commonwealth Life, of Louisville, which will take care of you and the children in my absence. ### A GENERAL SURVEY OF THE WAR

Dispatches from St. Petersburg quote the czar as saying that he is determined to go to Berlin and that if the Russians fail to clear the way the Japanese are ready to co-operate.

Hungarian sentiment is reported to be growing in favor of Russia, and a revolution in Bukovina, a crown land of Austria-Hungary, would not surprise. With this turn in feeling among the Austrians and the steady advance of the Russian troops, official Russia believes the campaign is proceeding satisfactorily.

An agreement has been struck by Great Britain, France and Russia not to make peace except by mutual consent. The German army is said to be so badly beaten by the transfer of the army corps sent to East Prussia that Paris never may be besieged.

The Russians have occupied Altonstein and are investigating Koenigsberg. The garrison at the latter point have made several sorties, but have always been driven back.

Three million Frenchmen, it is said, are now under arms to defend Paris and new intrenchments are being constructed under the direction of General Gallieni, the military governor of Paris. "In his proclamation he says that the members of the government have failed in order to give a new impetus to the defense of the nation. Only two gates in Paris are open. The two in the northeast, and Porte Daubigny, on the southwest. They are both strongly guarded and defended by batteries."

Attitude of Spain and Italy. Representatives of Germany are at Rome making strong representations to the Italian government and insisting that Italy enter the war as an ally of Austria and Germany. Counter representations are being made by representatives of France and England in the interest of the allies. Senor Lerroux, leader of the Spanish Radical party, declares that Spain will send her army to help France if asked to do so. This move on the part of Spain is for the protection of her interests in Africa, which she fears would be jeopardized in case of Germany's success.

Reports from Constantinople say conditions are disquieting, but there has been so far no declaration of war on Turkey's part.

The British admiralty reports that they received information from trustworthy sources that seven torpedo boats and destroyers went into Wilhelmshaven in a damaged condition and that several more were sunk near the Kiel canal. The British torpedo boats is reported to have been sunk by striking a mine in the North sea. Premier Asquith is at an address at a meeting in Guild hall, called upon every able-bodied Briton and says that between 250,000 and 300,000 have responded to Earl Kitchener's call for recruits.

On the Eastern Line. A dispatch from Rome announces that six German army corps have been sent from France to repel the Russian advance in East Prussia and Galicia. An official statement issued from Petrograd (St. Petersburg) says that the Austrians are retreating after desperate fighting near Halber, having 4,500 dead on the field, and that the Austrians are retreating after a series of attacks in front of Warsaw was repulsed and that the Russians have now taken the offensive. The commander in chief of the army has notified the czar of the occupation of Lemberg and has asked that in recognition of their services the order of St. George be conferred on General Ruzky and General Bressloff. The operation is said to extend over a front of 250 miles and to have been held by a million and a half men. The Austrians' extreme right is said to have suffered enormous loss.

The military government of Paris says that there has been no fear of an attack of the army of Paris with the enemy, that the Germans have suffered reverses in the neighborhood of Verdun, and that the general situation in Lorraine and the Vosges is unchanged, with the French troops in those regions gaining "further partial successes." Advice from Berlin reports that the German army is now pushing through the center and has captured Metzler in the department of Ardennes, where the French center, although it has been able to hold back the German advance. According to the same advice the left wing of the allies has now fallen back on the third line of defenses. The Germans claim a victory in the "three days' fighting" from Rheims to Verdun, saying that the French opposition was strongly maintained, but eventually it was crushed.

Local Travel Benefitted

Trains 21 and 22 Extended

An announcement is made by the Queen & Crescent Route that Train 21 and 22, now operated between Oneida, Tenn., and Somerset, Ky., will be extended, effective Sunday, September 6th, 1914, and operated daily between Oneida, Tenn., and Lexington, Ky. The performance of this new service will add seventy-nine train miles each way, or one hundred and fifty-eight additional miles for the round trip. At the present time when the expense of commodities required in the operation and maintenance of railroads is at its highest and most carriers are curtailing, rather than extending, their facilities, this new service afforded by the Queen & Crescent Route is worthy of the greatest attention and patronage on the part of the traveling public. By using Train 22 passengers can arrive Danville before 9 a. m. and Lexington before 10:30 a. m.; transact their business and, return on No. 21 in the afternoon, arriving home before bed time. Local travel between Somerset and Danville and to and from intermediate points will be particularly benefited by this new arrangement, as there will now be two local trains each way daily between those points, making all stops, instead of the train as heretofore.

Wilson Calls For Peace Prayers

President Wilson yesterday signed the following proclamation calling on the people of the United States to pray for peace in Europe.

"By the President of the United States of America:

"A PROCLAMATION. "Whereas, great nations of the world have taken up arms against one another and war now draws millions of men into battle whom the counsel of statements have not been able to save from the terrible sacrifice:

"And, whereas, in this, as in all things, it is our privilege and duty to seek counsel and succor of Almighty God, humbling ourselves before Him, confessing our weakness and our lack of any wisdom equal to these things:

"And, whereas, it is the especial wish and longing of the people of the United States, in prayer, in counsel, and all friendliness, to serve the cause of peace:

"Therefore, I, Woodrow Wilson, President of the United States of America, do designate Sunday, the fourth day of October next, a day of prayer and supplication, and do request all God-fearing persons to repair on that day to their places of worship, there to unite their petitions to Almighty God, that, overruling the counsel of men, setting straight the things they cannot govern or for altar, taking pity on the nations now in the throes of conflict, in His mercy and goodness showing a way where men can see none, He vouchsafe His children, healing peace again and restore once more that concord among men and nations without which there can be neither happiness for true friendship nor any wholesome fruit of toil or thought in the world; praying also to this end that He forgive us our sins, our ignorance of His holy will, our weakness and many errors, and lead us in the paths of obedience to places of vision and to thoughts and counsels that purge and make wise.

"In witness whereof I have hereunto set my hand and caused the seal of the United States to be affixed.

"Done at the City of Washington this eighth day of September, in the year of our Lord one thousand nine hundred and twenty-two and of the independence of the United States of America the one hundred and twenty-ninth.

INVADERS RETIRING ON LINES

Waiting for Reinforcements.

ARMY IS WORN OUT

Plea for Truce to Bury the Dead Deed.

ALLIES PUSHING THEM HARD

German Forces No Longer Bending Energies On Paris.

Rome special: The Montenegrins have cut off the expected supplies of water to Glatina. The bombardment of the fortifications has been resumed.

London special: The left wing of the allied army is continuing its advance, according to a communication issued by the military government of Paris, from the Oise toward Montmirail. The Germans are retreating and further to the east the French have taken the crest of Mandray and the pass of Bouroux.

General Gallieni, the military governor of Paris, said that the German attack had lost its weight and that in the west, near Paris, the British-French line had compelled the German light completely, taking thousands of prisoners.

Request for Truce Denied.

Unofficial reports were current in Paris that the Germans had asked for a truce to bury their dead, but that Sir John French, the British field marshal commanding the allied forces, had refused the request, fearing that the time would be used by the Germans for the landing of reinforcements.

It appears from the dispatches from the front that the fighting on this side has developed into a series of attacks, the allies striving to break through the German line before reinforcements can be brought up.

Reports from the front under General Ven Kluk, estimated at somewhere around 200,000, are reported to be well worn out with the constant fighting and marching and to be held effectively in check by the fresher troops of German origin.

A great German army under General Von Huelsen is now being rushed to the rescue of the hard-pressed German front lines. According to reports from Paris the plan of fighting in this battle has been thoroughly in accord with the French general scheme.

Although there appears to be no immediate danger of a siege of German Paris, the authorities of the city are being strengthened at every point.

Russians Still Advancing.

Along the entire line extending along the Bug and Vistula, the Austrians, according to reports from Petrograd, are being driven back by the Russian advance. So far the Russians claim to have taken $2,000,000 Austrian prisoners.

The Austrian army suffered severely; and that the entire Forty-fifth regiment of infantry surrendered.

The Austrian army suffered severely; and that the entire Forty-fifth regiment of infantry surrendered.

Two ships, the Breslau and the Goeben, are now being held by the British, and have been given Turkish names. Turkey still insists that she is maintaining a strict neutrality as to the war.

Austria is hurriedly preparing for an invasion of her territory by Italy, according to dispatches from Rome. It is stated that 800,000 men have been concentrated at Trieste.

Seven hundred French reserves have arrived in Paris from Brant to join the colors. Everywhere in France, they say, the enthusiasm for France is immense.

The Russians have changed the name of Lemberg, capital of Galicia, to Lvov.

PUT THEM IN SCHOOL

Every Child of Proper Age Should Be Made to Wash His Face and Go to School.—Start Today.

Vacation is at an end. School days are again upon us. Are the children—school boys and girls—ready to take up their task of learning—of acquiring an education? asks the Harrodsburg Herald. Time flies. We are boys and girls but once. There is just one age at which we may secure an education; that's when we are young and impressionable. If we wait or hold back we lose our only chance to improve our minds and train our faculties. Boys and girls, do not miss the opportunity. Enter school. Begin on the first day. Go with a firm determination to stick through and a strong purpose to get out of it the best there is for you.

With an education you are equipped to struggle against life's battles; with it you stand a slim chance to win your way. So once again we urge upon our young friends to go to school. Begin at the beginning. Start in even with the rest and do your best to keep up. But if you fall a little behind continue to struggle. Some of the world's great scholars were plodders and struggled against odds at the beginning. Therefore don't get discouraged. Forge ahead and work to overcome every obstacle. Just you keep on keeping on, and you'll win out in the end.

AGUR INDIGESTION

"I was annoyed for ever a year by attacks of acute indigestion, followed by constipation," writes Mrs. M. J. Gallagher, Geneva, N. Y. "I tried everything that was recommended to me for this complaint but nothing did much good until about four months ago I saw Chamberlain's Tablets advertised and procured a bottle of them from our druggist. I soon realized that I had gotten the right thing for they helped me at once. Since taking two bottles of them I can eat heartily without any bad effects." Sold by all dealers.

THE MT. VERNON FAIR

By Charles C. Davis.

[From Farmers' Home Journal] All records for attendance and success in every particular were broken when the ringmaster tipped his bell for silence on the last day, Friday, August 7. The Fair Association held up to the Catalogue in every instant. It was said by all present to be the most ideal fair in this part of the State ever shown—present that never before in the history of stock-cattle county.

P. W. Ray & Son, of Bowling Green, Ky., set the pace for the show horse class, present with their famous high acting stallion Charlie Fox, who set the throats of lookers-on with Edgar Fox, of Richmond, Ky., was present with a very handsome string which attracted special attention in every ring he showed Mr. Varney, as I have noticed him on various occasions, as always up in money to matter where he goes Charlie Dunn, of Madison, one of the State's best young farmers, was very much present with his string which is headed by that famous sister of Blue Dawn, Hilari, who won the blue on some several occasions. Messrs. Lane & Son, of Madison, were also present with their famous sire and son of Rex Pavilion, who was compelled to be seen thru the crowd of scores of good ones by his speed, style and behavior, and never failing to respond nicely when called upon to distribute his gait. Mac Hughes furnished quite a treat to the horse lover when he entered riding Ella McDonald, who is one of Kentucky's most beautiful dams. You must have to Mac when it comes to looking happy, and a sure winner in the saddle. Charlie and Sids Sandage, of Danville, Ky., better known to all fair goers as Mac Chas. and Uncle Sy, demonstrated clearly that age cuts no figure when it comes to setting a horse for they were seen on several occasions to leave the ring with the blue. Mr. Lowen, representing Joe Gibson, of Southerly, Ky., was here with four or five nice ones, including his famous stallion Baton McDonald, who is Mr. Gibson's pride and a splendid individual. And speaking of racing we recalled every thing. Thirteen harness horses present from Knoxville, Sweetwater, Tenn., and Lexington, Ky., making finishes in trot at 2:10 and pacing the last day a clip of 1:31 flat. These races were finished by Rogers & Elmore, of Knoxville, and Mr. Finley, of Tenn., and Mr. Stepp, of Tenn., and Mr. Oliver King, of Tennessee, and give us a chance to show you a bigger and better fair next August, 1915. I thank you.

LOOK YOURSELF IN THE FACE

By MAJOR F. W. BARBAR. The reaper of death swooping over Europe brings to our mind a thought worthy of more than casual consideration. Let us look ourselves in the face, and think—think for the benefit of humanity, for the weal of prosperity. In all parts of the country schools are opening for the fall and winter terms, and much of the future will depend upon the training of the youth of today. Never in our history was there a time when it was more imperative that hasty passions and vindictive temperaments be curbed and eradicated. Never was there a time when the inculcation of brotherly love and a consideration for others was more urgently required.

The youth of today will be the men of tomorrow, and as we train them, now so will they be then. The burden rests heavily upon us. We expect the teacher in the school to transform our child into a man of learning and honor and integrity, but do we stop to consider that more depends upon the parent than upon the educator? The one cannot succeed without the co-operation of the other, but the two working earnestly and jointly will recompense a wonderful results. We should think before speaking.

Harsh words and family jars in the presence of a child gives it the first lesson in manliness, and puts a sharp edge to bow-keeping temper. It is natural for the infant to copy the example of the parent. As we expect much from the teacher, let us give equally of our own store of patience and consideration. Industry demands kindness, good natured sympathy, and the unobtrusive absence of ego, or the coldness of indifference. A child is susceptible to training, but when it reaches man's estate opportunity has passed it by. Shall we heed the lessons of a world calamity and face the duty that confronts us? Shall we look ourselves in the face?

COUNTY COURT ORDER

Whereas on the 24th day of Aug. 1914 a petition was filed in the office of the County Court Clerk of Rockcastle County signed by 25 local qualified voters of voting precinct No. 2, known as West Mt. Vernon, asking a submission of the question, whether cattle or any species thereof shall be permitted to run at large in said voting precinct in said county. It is now ordered by the Court that a poll be opened in said voting precinct at the general election to be held in said precinct on the 3rd day of Nov. 1914 for the purpose of ascertaining the will of the voters of said precinct, upon the question whether or not cattle or any species thereof shall be permitted to run at large in said voting precinct.

C. M. HALLARD, J. R. C. C. Copy Attest. S. F. BOWMAN, C. R. C. C. Sept. 11-14. To call it work is inadequate. The rulers of Europe are all linked together by marriage, which is proof positive that a family jar is about the worst brand of scrap on record. Even Turkey wants to gobble. The investment of Paris may appeal to the Kaiser, but we would rather take ours in park and beans. The rascally creature on earth is the man who keeps his romance at home. The best way to obtain the greatest amount of no-rishment from eggs is to eat them. War is a game at which everybody loses except the winner, and he feels as if he had been stung by a wasp.

CALL FOR VOLUNTEERS

While European countries are calling for volunteers in a conflict of war, Kentucky is calling for volunteers in a conflict of peace, a conflict which, if eventually and successfully waged, will insure to the people of this great Commonwealth a new era of peace, happiness and prosperity. Kentucky has one bright and blot upon her record in this time, and that is the high percentage of illiteracy among her adult population. 208,000 of her men and women cannot read or write, and are thus deprived of the privileges of citizenship and prevented from enjoying the richest blessings of life. These men and women are mostly native whites. Many of them are people of superior intellect and some of them, at least, are ambitious. However much they may hunger for an education, the day school can offer them no opportunity. It must accommodate the children. The State is deprived of the services of these unfortunate men and women, and the school is deprived of their intelligent co-operation. Three weeks' instruction in moonlight schools would enable them to read and write as easily, and when given the keys to knowledge, they will press to unlock the treasure house for themselves. For the sake of this great army of benighted men and women, for the sake of their children and their grandchildren, for the sake of the cause of education, for the sake of a better and more intelligent citizenship, for the sake of more creditable record when the census of 1910 is taken, for the sake of the Commonwealth, which when crime breaks out or epidemics prevail or dark days come, looks upon its illiteracy as the cause and lament. "My people are confounded for want of knowledge," we appeal to every public and private school teacher to enlist and start a moonlight school on the evening of September 7th, and to every citizen to seek out and instruct some one or more illiterates. "One thousand moonlight schools, fifty thousand adults enrolled, ten thousand illiterates taught" is our aim for 1914. Let all true and patriotic Kentuckians, men, women and children, rich and poor, young and old, white and colored, enlist for service in Kentucky's conflict against illiteracy.

WAR SUMMARIZED

British Foreign Office Issues a Statement.

London special: The British scout cruiser Pathfinder has been sunk by a mine in the North sea with heavy loss of life. Washington special: Through its embassy here the British Foreign Office has made public a statement summarizing from the viewpoint of the allies, particularly the British, the situation at the close of the first month of the war. The British statement is as follows: "At the end of the first month of the war, the command of the sea is left unchallenged in the hands of Great Britain and her allies. The main German and Austrian fleets remain in their harbors under shelter of trade winds and batteries. Four German cruisers, one auxiliary cruiser, two destroyers and a submarine and one American cruiser have been sunk. A German dreadnought and a cruiser have fled without fighting and have taken refuge in the Scandinavian seas. "The loss to the British navy has been one light cruiser only. As a consequence of this naval superiority over 300,000 have been able to cross the sea in different parts of the world without the loss of a man. The British extraordinary force has been carried to France; colonial expeditions have been sent to attack the German colonies in Africa and the Pacific, and the French troops under cover of the combined Anglo-French Mediterranean fleet, have been escorted from Algeria to France. Further Strength Promised. "The resources of the empire under the cover of the British will be fully developed and the armies in Europe will be reinforced by those of Australia, Canada, India and Africa, with out ceasing. German mercantile marine has disappeared from the ocean. "Strong as the German navy is to day, there will be an accession of strength within the next twelve months. Their fighting strength is impaired. Meantime, in response to the call of the government, 200,000 fresh recruits have joined the British army voluntarily. The whole empire is absolutely united and firmly resolved to carry the war to a successful issue. Great Russian armies have invaded East Prussia, and are on the point of entering central Germany. The Austrians have been decisively beaten, first by the Serbians at Shtaba and on the River Drava and afterward by the Russians in Galicia. They have abandoned their campaign against Serb and have lost the fortified city of Lemberg. "Gentlemen: Between the Japanese fleet and a force of troops are blockading Tsingtao in China. "Another Vessel Sunk. London special: The Wilson line steamship Ugo has sunk after striking a mine in the North sea on her voyage to Archangel, according to a dispatch received here from Hull. The steamship left Hull Saturday. She carried 600 passengers, most of whom are believed to have been saved. "Prince Ernest of Lippe has been killed in battle. This makes the third casualty in this family since the outbreak of the war. "Chamberlain's Colic Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy and Chamberlain's Liniment. "I advised the boys when they enlisted for the Spanish war to take Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy with them and have received many thanks for the advice given," writes J. H. Houghland, Eldon, Iowa. "No man who is traveling or at home should be without this great remedy." For sale by all dealers.
