MEMBER OF KENTUCKY PRESS ASSOCIATION

In addition to a column on Boone Way the Louisville Herald always a good friend to the Boone Way movement...

In themselves a few years more or less count for little. Unless each day brings an interesting task...

The mere routine of living, the chalking on life's score board of uneventful days...

There are young today who can lead a piggin of water on their load without supporting the vessel with a hand?

Judge James D. Black, of Barbourville one of the leading Democrats of the mountains...

When a man goes off of his way to tell you how square he is, always take his word for it, but always keep your hand on your pocket-book.

Did you know there are some citizens of this town who claim they don't read the Signal?

Where It is Really Cold

Here in Kentucky December has proved decidedly old-fashioned in the extremely low temperatures reached during its several cold waves.

A Dawson dispatch to the New York Sun tells of Mr. Ballentine leaving to make a race against time between Dawson and Whitehorse, a distance of 395 miles.
