PERSONAL

Johnny Cloniz is improving slowly. Master Benjamin Mullins has been very sick. Mrs. W. H. Cox has been feeling much worse for a few days.

Louis Miller has returned from Oklahoma and says that is the garden spot. Jane Carson of Tellico Plains, Tenn. has been with his sister, Miss Ella, here for a few days.

Mrs. Robert Harry Miller, nee Miss Margaret Lovell, is here from Miami, Oklahoma, on a visit to her parents, Dr. and Mrs. Lovell.

Edgar Mullins, who has been very sick with typhoid for the past three weeks, is doing as well as could be expected, yet he has been very sick.

Mr. and Mrs. M. C. Williams who have been with Mrs. Mary Williams for several weeks returned home Wednesday. Mrs. Williams stays about the same.

J. J. Painter, who has been holding down the Lebanon Junction office for years, will move back to the farm near roadhead and will take the job at No. 2 tunnel just south of town.

LOCAL

New Spring goods now arriving at Sutton & McBees. Poll tax cannot be paid by off road bonds.

Warners Low just Corsets, latest styles. Sutton & McBees. Men's and boys good clothing at low prices.

No Livingston letter this week Bill got married, that accounts for it. Some men are born foolish There are others who will argue with a woman.

Mr. Raymond Jett son-in-law of W. L. Richards, is figuring on starting a bank at Annville, Ky. New Embroidery, Laces and white goods, at Sutton & McBees.

Can any man be considered a good citizen who willfully misrepresents the road bond issue or any other issue? WANTED—The man who has my Level and Jack Plane to bring them home. No questions asked. 2-53 H. B. MCKENZIE.

How any business man can always recognize the narrowness of his make-up always be ready to fight every improvement that is presented, is a problem. Just watch it, and see if that fellow is not always howling hard times, and as a usual thing times are hard for him but it is because he makes them so. It is the man.

It is a matter of public record, for any one to see who wants to go to the records and look out in the last twenty years Rockcastle county has spent $120,000.00 on the public roads for the county. Vote the bond issue, build the pike and in twenty years it will only take a little over one-half that amount to pay all indebtedness. If there is doubting Thomases go to the records and investigate.

Better clothes for less money at Fish's. It costs 11 cents a second to talk to San Francisco from New York over the telephone, or $2.70 for a three minute conversation. Now who says talk is cheap?

The Men's Bible class of the Christian Church is to build and equip a room, as the meeting place for all sessions of the class, which will be quite an asset to the Sunday School.

Squire Logan Arnold, of Walnut Grove section has bought a lot in the Sparks & Davis addition, will build and move to town to take advantage of our splendid schools.

The taxable property of Rockcastle for 1915 is $1,769,449. The Rockcastle Corporation is $1,309,957. Take these figures and see whether or not it is a business proposition for the people of Rockcastle to take advantage of the rate issue.

Mr. S. H. Martin, one of the safe, conservative men of the county says the bond issue is the only way to get roads under the present law, and he says that his advice to all, rich and poor, young and old, is to get behind the issue and help make it go, because it will be a help to all and be an injury to none.

One of the saddest deaths of the new year was that of Emanuel Hill, second son of J. Chilton Buller, son of Wildie, Tuesday. Just three weeks ago he was married to Miss Arrie Dotson near Wildie, and at that time was suffering from a deep cold which developed fever and took his life. His remains were laid to rest in the Seaford Cane burying ground Wednesday.

Old Cull went to Conway Monday. He said when he reached Round Stone he saw a chicken peddler whipping the ground with his black sack whip. Cull asked "what are you whipping the ground for?" The peddler answered "I watch cock," and Cull said he did and in a short time he saw a wagon and team come out of the mud."

Ground hog day falls on February 2nd. This is the goods. The annual dictionary, Webster's and John Watson Brown dolere such to be the fact, and those people who have lost sleep over the matter as to what day of the month ground hog day actually is, can now rest in peace and proceed in the discharge of their daily avocations under the assurance that this vexatious question is forever settled by all possible doubt and every one can now enter upon the bond issue proposition with courage and hopefulness of a successful outcome.

The turpikes will be free for everyone to travel over, notwithstanding some foolish enemy to progress stated nonsensical report that soil would be charged for even though to pass over, and among the propose improved roads. Let everyone tell the truth at all times and we have no fear as to the outcome.

Post yourself by reading the new road law before trying to teach others. One of the big fighters against good roads acknowledged, a few days since, that he had never read the new road law, yet this same man set himself up as a teacher to inform others as to how they should vote on the question.

Wednesday evening was the annual election of officers and directors of the Mt. Vernon Power Co. The old board and officers were retained as follows: U. G. Baker, President, Jonas McKenzie, Vice Pres., James Maret, Secretary, Director, F. L. Thompson, Treasurer, Directors, U. G. Baker, C. Williams, C. D. Sutton, Judge Beith, Thurmond and E. S. Albright, the last named director was again made general manager. The Mt. Vernon Power Co. which began business last June has made a phenomenal success, even surpassing the anticipations of the most optimistic supporters of the enterprise. The stockholders, numbering some twenty odd, were so well pleased with the progress that when the proposition to install a storage battery was presented, the vote was unanimous and by April 15 it is intended that Mt. Vernon shall have continuous service, day and night.

At the Boone Way opera-house in the play Kenilworth, one of the characters after writing a note, with a quill pen, was observed to use something like a pepper box to sprinkle something over the sheet. The older people in the audience understood that sand was being scattered thereon to dry up the ink. Blotting pads were unknown in early days.

Services at Christian Church

The services at the Christian Church for Sunday, February 7th are as follows: Sunday School—10 o'clock Subject, "Ruth Chooses the True God." Preaching—11 o'clock Subject, "My Master's Joy and Mine." Endeavor—3:30 in the evening. Subject, "Christian Endeavor that Counts." Preaching—7:30 Subject, "The Two Greatest Failures of Life."

The Steady Subscriber

How dear to our hearts is the steady subscriber. Who pays in advance at the birth of each year; Who is getting more money and does it quite gladly. And casts round the office abalo of cheer.

He never says: "Stop it, I can not afford it." I'm getting more journals than now I can read." I'm always saying: "Send it; all readers like it." In fact, we all think it help and a need."

How welcome his check when it reaches our sanctum; How it makes our pulse throb; How it makes our hearts dance; How we thank him; we inwardly bless him— The steady subscriber who pays in advance.

Henry A. Wood, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Wood, passed quietly away Saturday Jan. 30th at his home at Conway. The deceased was twenty three years of age, had been in employe of the L. & N. R. Co. for almost 8 years. He had lived an honest life which should be an example to all who knew him, was every ready to help those in distress, was a cheerful giver to the support of churches, was an efficient Sunday school teacher, and seemed to be devoted to his masters service, had many times expressed a desire to be a minister. For the past two years he had been a sufferer of tuberculosis, had endured various operations and tried different climates, but nothing proved successful. He fully realized his condition, was ready and willing to go at any time to the West. Deceased was the oldest member of the family, leaving to mourn his loss, his mother, who before her marriage was Miss Ida Jones, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jas. M. Jones, of Mt. Vernon, two brothers and one sister, who are all at home. The remains were laid to rest Sunday afternoon at the family burying ground near Wildie.

A GENERAL SURVEY OF THE WAR

An uncorrected dispatch from Bula Post says that a new Russian army has invaded Hungary. The new army entered Hungary through the Bukovina pass after turning the left wing of the Austro-German forces massed to the northward of the eastern Carpathians. The dispatch states unreservedly that the Russians are advancing unimpeded in Hungary. The Italian war office has ordered the reservists called out to join the colors on Feb. 23. According to information obtained from diplomatic sources here, Greece has decided to aid Serbia if another Austrian invasion of Serbia is attempted. A new gigantic Russian army has appeared in East Prussia and is attempting a turning movement designed to compel the retirement of the Germans from the entire province. It has reached Pogonin, three miles north of Pilsa, an important city in northern East Prussia. Until the advance of this army was reported by the great staff, its existence was unsuspected. All that had been known of the Russians in this respect was their active progress of an invading force fighting its way westward—across the hills of Pilsa—into the territory of East Prussia. The twenty-five mile wide German territory had indicated a new move on the part of the commander; his chief, but the character of the move had been concealed. The recent Geoprosity raids by German submarines in the Irish sea following bold and extensive operations in the North sea, the channel and off the north coast of Ireland has convinced the British that no waters, no port, is quite safe from Germany's submarine destroyers. Lords insurance on commodities traded through a bond from 5 to 15 per cent. It is reported that the British government has observed in the Irish sea, eighteen miles from Liverpool, Monday. The news that the Russian in East Prussia are advancing on Osterberg from the north and west and are threatening the city of Gumbinnen, as well as driving the Germans across the border, reveals the extent of the Russian advance. Circles here think that the Austro-German army, the Russian general, and the Russian columns has marched swiftly through the Balkan pass and is reported to have reached the Hungarian plain.

STORM AT LOS ANGELES. Heavy Damage Result in Property on Pacific Coast. Los Angeles, Cal. (Special): Rain, frost is paralyzed and much damage has been done property by a storm that has been raging for twenty-four hours. The heavy rain in California near Los Angeles, put the Santa Fe's double track system through the mountains into a state of paralysis and this has been further under a landslide. As far as known no lives have been lost. Los Angeles and Pasadena have been literally deluged with rain. At Long Beach the high tide swept the amusement district and flooded many hotels and residences. Pomona, Azusa, Redondo Beach and various other cities are reported damaged.

ORLANDO. Mrs. Lucy Ruder is up again. She has been very sick with a complication of diseases.—Mrs. Rebecca Owens is very sick at this writing.—Uncle Joel Scott is very sick.—Uncle Jack Scott was here one day last week and reports his condition greatly improved. He is talking of going to Oklahoma to his daughter, Mrs. Jake Clark.—Mrs. J. M. Lawwell will go to Berea today to spend a few days with home folks.—Miss Lizzie Wild of Jackson county, who is a student of Berea college, visited Mrs. Jack Lawwell Sunday.—Mose Mullins left for parts unknown Sunday.—We regret to write that some of our rude boys in throwing coal from a train struck Aunt Peg Malhotra on the arm and leg, inflicting great pain but not breaking any bones.—G. T. Johnson and Bill Mason of this place were at Wildie Sunday to attend the funeral services of Henry Wood.—Miss Cass's husband of this place, who is in the Louisville school for the blind is getting along fine and it is believed she will remain here.—Little Bill and Hazel Johnson students of Berea and Mt. Vernon, spent the week end with their parents, Mr. and Mrs. G. T. Johnson.—The bond issue is the topic of the day here, but the boys say one of the roads must be to the Jackson county line or it is no go.—The prayer meeting on this place seems to be doing much good. Bro Wesley Abney delivered a good sermon here Tuesday night.

The report that is being circulated that the town of Livingston would have to build a bridge across Rockcastle river and that Brod head would have to build the bridge across Dix river, is all bosh, there is no truth in such reports, and it looks like those who want to believe such rot are only looking for some excuse to kick out of harness on the only proposition ever offered to give the county a system of roads. The county builds the bridges and not the towns. Go to the statute and read the law.

MOUNTAIN MULES TOO SMALL

Maurice J. Farris, Jr., of Danville, passed thru Stanford last week en route to London where he went in an effort to buy some mules for the English army. He was unable to secure any, however, on account of the lightness of the mountain hybrid. The specifications of the contractors who are buying for foreign governments call for animals which weighed at least 1,000 pounds. Out of about 200 mules which were inspected and weighed by Mr. Farris at London last Saturday, only about six came up to the required weight, and the owners of these would consider no price short of about $200. each for them which is so much in excess of the amount which the buyers can afford to pay for mules, that they could not be considered. Mr. Farris says that he found a fine lot of light wily mules on hand but was unable to handle them.

Mr. Farris and B. G. Fox, of Danville, are commissioned to buy mules in this part of Kentucky for O. A. Wright, of Columbia, Tenn., who is an agent for Guyton & Herrington, a firm that handles stock all over the country and has the sole contract to buy mules and horses in America for the English and French Governments. During the past few months, Messrs. Farris and Fox have bought something like $200,000 worth of mules in this part of the country and have put the much needed money in circulation among the farmers.

WHYS FOR THE BOND ISSUE

Roy Mullins, Dudley.—"I am sending herein a petition with names to swell the number who signed for call of election for bond issue. I hope it will carry and that our people will be lifted out of the mud."

J. W. Lee, Johnetta.—"I send list of names on petition for raising one of Rockcastles greatest and most important movements of a century. I have no fears but you will have sufficient number and names to spirit up calling for proposed election. I was against the bond issue before. Now with State aid I am for it and hope every citizen in our county will be likewise."

R. C. Cox, the barber, says if he should vote against the bond issue he hopes some one will take his tobacco away, give him a kick and throw him into the creek."

J. G. Fain, Pine Hill.—"I signed the petition. Would any a hundred of it would aid tobacco."

J. Baker, Orlando.—"I don't like to be coupled up the biggest part of the winter."

E. B. Price, Pine Hill.—"Mad."

E. B. Williams, Winton.—"I am for the bond issue. The best reason is, the biggest and best reason is good roads."

Jesse O'Connell, Winton.—"The issue of bonds will start things to moving right now. Work for every one that wants to work. Money floating around and every body makes a show of getting some."

Thos. Cray, Orlando.—"The first road built in the county was cut by a door but I am for the bond issue just the same. There is a lot in the good work and you can't have it without the bond issue."

place us in shape to build more and more roads.

D. B. Langford, Orlando.—"Improved roads are the people's greatest need in working for the uplift in education and religion."

Thomas Owens, Johnetta.—"In Lee County, Virginia, bordering on Harlan County, Kentucky, where good roads were recently constructed, lands advanced 75 per cent in value. The proposed improved highways for Rockcastle would do as much or more for us."

J. H. Mullins, Burr.—"I have met some people who said they didn't want their land value to increase, as it would raise their taxes. This is true but the added conveniences and advantages to accrue from good roads would place them in position to earn twenty times more than the tax raise would amount to, besides if they wanted to move some time they would get better prices for the land."

George R. Reams, Dudley.—"The saving in one week's hauling over improved roads would be sufficient to pay the taxes on the biggest farm in Rockcastle."

C. T. Sigman, Hiatt.—"It would even be a big help to the man who has no horse but is obliged to walk over the roads."

R. G. Dodd, Ottawa.—"The U. S. Agricultural Department reports that in Spotsylvania County, Virginia, when they made 41 miles for the bond issue, land that had been selling at $20 per acre is now selling at $44 per acre. With an array of many such instances in other counties in various states and knowing the immense value improved roads bring to us how can I vote against a bond issue to build them? My vote goes for them and hope my neighbors and the whole voting population will do the same."

W. B. Livers, near Hiatt.—"Land values in the neighborhood of Petersburg, Virginia, advanced 75 per cent in 1914, after being sold by all dealers."

the opportunity of a life time to get out of the mud. Will we do it?"

W. S. Cromer, Hausford.—"It's the best proposition ever offered our people to get improved roads and we believe when the matter is fully understood that the bond issue will receive all the needed votes to carry it."

Mitchell Owens, Mareburg.—"One farmer along one of the proposed roads, who owns a team and a $500. farm offered, in way of subscription, to furnish his team and himself as driver for two weeks in construction work. Reckoning his team at $3. a day would amount to $42. and bond tax at 20 cents on the $100; this $42. would pay the tax for 42 years, but bonds, will have been paid off many many years before that time expires."

Robert Nixon, Wilde.—"By 1929 our county valuation would be six million dollars or more instead of three million. I am for bond issue."

O. P. Bostic, Renfro.—"Some of my neighbors have tried to advise me against bond issue. I find said neighbors have not even read the road law and don't know what they are talking about. I am not from Missouri but from Virginia where I have already been shown the immense value of improved roads. Let us vote for the bond issue and ask our neighbors to do the same."

COLDS AND CROUP IN CHILDREN

Many people rely upon Chamberlain's Cough Remedy implicitly in cases of cold and croup, and it never disappoints them. Mrs. R. H. Thomas, Logansport, Ind., writes: "I have found Chamberlain's Cough Remedy to be the best medicine for colds and croup I have ever used, and never miss recommending it to my neighbors and friends. I have always given it to my children when afevering from croup, and it has never failed to give them prompt relief."

For sale by all dealers.

Someone has said that the people with Chronic Liver Complaint should be shut-up away from humanity, for they are pestilence and see their "glass darkly." Why? Because many cases depend upon the liver. Biliousness, Headache, Dizziness and Constipation disappear after using Dr. King's Liver Pills.
