WEATHER AIDS RUSSIAN ARMIES

Petrograd Experts Assert They Will Check Advance
of Germans.

NEW LINE IS 'IMPREGNABLE' Eighty Thousand of Czar's Troops Beaten and Routed in Great Battle of Delatyn, a Strategic Point in Vienna Statements.

By FRANCIS LAVELLE MURRAY,
International News Service Correspondent.
Petrograd, Feb. 17.—Weather worker has again come to the aid of the Russians, who have retired from East Prussia to the shelter of fortified positions on their own soil, before the terrible attacks of the great army commanded by General von Hindenburg and his assistants. It is credited by military observers here that the winter weather has been a factor in the Tentonic invasion of Russia will end in a complete collapse.

The new line is in the northern area and conditions similar to those which resulted in the defeat of the Germans a few months ago again prevail. The soil that had been frozen by the terrific cold of January is again turned to swamp and the Germans will be unable to transport their artillery. It was their lack of guns that forced them to retreat from Suwalki and Augustow to their previous invasion.

The fact openly expressed in some quarters that the German advance from Luck and the Masurian region might strike at the rear of the Russians at Warsaw and compel the evacuation of that city and the fortress of Novo Georгиевск is declared to be baseless by the war expert of the Douze Gazette.

The position of the Russians along the Bobr and Narow rivers are improved, he says. "Supported by the fortresses of Orskov, Legnica and Pulaski, the Russians can defy every attempt to cross the natural barriers formed by these streams.

Latest reports from the Carpathians show that hard fighting continues between the Austro-German troops trying to shatter the Russian front without any effect. The situation in Poland is declared by the war office to be unchanged.

Big Teuton Victory at Delatyn.
By STEVEN BURNETT,
International News Service Correspondent.
Vienna, via Berlin and Amsterdam, Feb. 17.—Eighty thousand Russian troops were defeated in the battle of Delatyn on Saturday, and driven 15 miles through Walderna and back to east Stanislaw. It is officially reported in dispatches received at the war office.

The battle of Delatyn which is eight miles southeast of Walderna, is declared to have been the "greatest" battle fought on the soil of Galicia and a battle that resulted in the complete triumph of the Austrian troops over their German allies.

Two entire Russian corps were overwhelmed by the Austro-German troops that advanced through Franck and Zibonka passes. In a night attack the allied troops destroyed wire enclosures and the Russian post was and opened their main attack down on Saturday. The Russians were compelled to withdraw after a six hour fight.

The retreating Russians made a last stand at Hill 431, at the bottom of a steep northern slope of Walderna is located. Attacking under the fire of the Russian artillery, the Austrian army troops captured the hill and drove the Russians down the northern slope into Walderna.

NO COMPROMISE ON FOODSTUFFS SAYS ENGLAND

Germany's Proposal Is Rejected In Its Entirety by the British Cabinet.

BLOCKADE ORDER EXPECTED Government Organ Declares Time for Bargaining Passed—United States Likely to Oppose Rule Making Food Absolute Contraband.

By HERBERT TEMPLE,
International News Service Correspondent.
London, Feb. 17.—Germany's proposal to England to abandon her embargo upon foodstuffs constituted a German civilians in return for Germany's agreement to her submarine campaign against the English merchant ships was presented to the cabinet at an extraordinary session for Foreign Secretary Edward Grey on Saturday.
The German proposal was rejected in its entirety.

At the close of the cabinet meeting it was announced that King George would hold a private council at which it was expected that the king would sign a proclamation prohibiting the transportation of foodstuffs to Germany. It is expected that the government will also issue a proclamation authorizing the use of the various intelligible methods adopted against Germany because of its threatened blockade.

After Sir Edward Grey had presented to the cabinet the proposition of the German proposal, the cabinet members were informed by Winston Spencer Churchill, head of the admiralty, of the plans that had been made to retaliate against Germany. These are understood to include a blockade of the German coast.

Time for Bargaining Has Passed.
The Westminster Gazette, which voices the opinion of the cabinet, announces that the time for bargaining has passed.

"Germany must understand that we are not going to be driven from our legitimate strokes of war by threats to commit piracy and murder unless she meets our views," says an officially inspired editorial in the government organ. "Her action in this respect is a threat not only to us, but
to all neutral powers."

"There is nothing in the war complicated by her calm intimation to threat that must look out for her own safety when she chooses to discharge a torpedo.

"One of the issues of the cabinet meeting was the question of the legitimate strokes of war by threats
to commit piracy and murder unless
she meets our views," says an officially inspired editorial in the government organ. "Her action in this respect is a threat not only to us, but
to all neutral powers."

Announcement was made that Pres-ider Aquino will be asked in joint session whether the government will accept the establishment of a joint war court consisting of representatives of Britain and the United States with a view of avoiding a recurrence of the dispute between the two countries in connection with neutral trade.

America Likely to Oppose.
Washington, Feb. 17.—The new doctrine soon to be promulgated by Great Britain on foodstuffs absolutely contraband is expected to be opposed by the United States. There is evidence that the state department will placate any proclamation which eliminates entirely conditional contraband from neutral ships in time of war.

The representations made to Great Britain in the Wilhelmshagen case will be made into a focus. It is understood in Washington that Great Britain will seize the cargo of the Wilhelmshagen on account of the German zone declaration, and will at the time time issue a statement of her policy in respect to foodstuffs, a blockade of the entire German coast.

It is now evident that Great Britain will force all American vessels to leave out of Germany, and the American government is preparing to question the right to keep the German portations from the civilian population of the German empire.

Germany's Proposal for Position.
Great Britain and Germany are checking for a strategic position in the diplomatic game that is to follow.
Germany has offered to withdraw her zone declaration if Great Britain will allow the Wilhelmshagen to reach a German port. Great Britain contends that the Wilhelmshagen cargo has been made absolute contraband by the decision of the government commandeering all foodstuffs. Germany replies has offered rigid guaranty that the cargo will be returned to its owners, and that the cargo will be used for the use of troops at the front.

How the Farmer Can Get $100,000 Worth of Good Roads For $20,000

By voting a Bond Issue of $100,000, you will get $5,000 actually given you Absolutely Free by the State, thus providing means for the Piked Roads in this County.

Of all the taxes assessed and collected in this County, the towns and the Corporations do bring business in the County pay 60 per cent which will be equivalent to $30,000 of the $50,000 which Rockcastle would pay on a $100,000 bond issue State paying the other $20,000, leaving $30,000 to be paid by the farmer of the county, who are the ones to be profited most by good roads. These are the facts and figures you cannot get around.

There are many reasons why the farmer should vote and work for the bond issue. Here are a few of them:

1. Because he uses the roads more than any one else.
2. Because they cost him less than any one else to have them constructed for him.
3. Because he can get his Produce to market at any time during the year he chooses.
4. Because Roads will add to the comfort and conveniences of Farm Life—makes it possible to have your Schools running during the winter season, when there is no work on the farm for your boys and girls.
5. Because those who are not actually engaged in farming are by this issue offering to build, for the Farmers use and convenience Four Miles of Good Roads for him for each One Mile, he will construct.
6. Because the great number of advantages to be derived from good roads.
7. Because it would not be a the opportunity of a life-time to do something for yourself, your children, and your children's children.

8. Because you are entitled to Good Roads, for you are the producers of all wealth, and should be provided means of marketing your produce when it best suits your convenience.

9. Because this Bond Issue would enable us to construct a good road from the Madison County border to the Pulaski border and from the Lincoln line to the Laurel line. Other locality and neighborhood connecting pikes would follow, thus giving, at no distant date, a splendid county system of turnpikes.

10. Because in time it would automatically eliminate Militia work on the Highways.

11. Because this $100,000 to pay for the construction of Good Roads will nearly all be spent right here in the County. Every laborer who wants to work, and every man who owns a team can get work at good wages during the time required to construct these roads.

12. Because $100,000 spent in this county during the next two years our roads, would mean prosperous times for every one, the farmer, the merchant, and the man who is dependent on his days work for a living.

Mr. Durward M. Gott and Miss Ella Adams were united in marriage at the home of the bride, Feb. 16th. The Rev. Dr. Wm. Brown of the Methodist church officiated. The bride, charming in a golden brown traveling suit and carrying a shower bouquet of bridal roses is one of Berea's well known and most loved young women and the daughter of Mrs. Nannie Brannaman. The groom is one of Berea's splendid young men and is one of the firm of Hayes & Gott. The happy couple left immediately on their honeymoon. They expect to return to Berea for a few days, then to go to Harlan where Mr. Gott expects to go to business. Their many friends extend hearty congratulations and good wishes for long and useful lives.

Dr. S. C. Davis, aged about 70 years and one of the county's best physicians died Tuesday night at his home on Main street, after an illness lasting more than two years.

About two years ago the deceased underwent an operation from which he never recovered, which together with the disease of diabetes, the immediate cause of his death, made all efforts of relief of no avail. The deceased is survived by two sons, Chas. C. and W. T. Davis, one daughter, Mrs. Oscar Wallin, and one brother, County Supt. W. A. B. Davis.

The burial took place yesterday afternoon at Elmwood cemetery after short services at the grave conducted by Rev. Young, of the Christian church.

OUT OF THE MUD.

By Hooper B. Wade. Chairman Good Roads Committee, National Farmers' Union.

Our time is too valuable to waste in traveling over bad roads.

Until we have good roads we will not have better markets.

The cost of good roads is less than the tax of bad ones.

Out of the mud hole and onto the pike should be your slogan.

Fortune lies on the improved highway, misfortune on a poor one.

The growth of any community is dependent upon good roads.

Happiness, contentment and prosperity don't go with bad roads.

Even in barren countries realize the value of good highways.

Mud holes are civilization's greatest pest.

Unto the generation the better types of good roads will extend.

Do deeds that will live after you. Boost and build roads.

Much Being Said In Favor of Bond Issue.

Conway, Ky., Feb. 13, 1915.

Dear Editor:

I see much is being said in favor of the new Bond Issue and I hope that I may not be considered the least interested or the last one on the list to be aroused by delay in stating my views on the subject. Much has been said in favor of it and if I should try, I do not believe I could give a single good reason why I should be any one should be against this issue.

Our future prosperity depends on our roads. How can we expect to advance without them. Is the question that confronts me. If we expect to hold our better class of people or to attract a better class of people to our county we surely must improve our roads, so that instead of having only six months of the year that we can travel we can as easily have twelve months.

I don't believe there is a single rural free delivery in the county, and this due to poor roads. This what the parcel post and rural free deliveries would be to us and our advancement as a county.

Just as our smaller towns and communities are connected to the larger towns of the United States by the great telephone and telegraph systems, our county would thus be connected to the commerce of the whole country, by good roads, rural free deliveries and the parcel post.

With poor roads people will not go to church and children cannot go to school, the result is illiteracy and immorality. If we wish to see wonderful developments and agriculturally rich farms producing crops as much, our hill sides and mountains abounding in many varieties of luscious fruits if we want our children better educated, if we want better churches and prosperity and happiness to all lets every man put a shoulder to the wheel and push for the bond issue.

I wish to congratulate the good people of Mt. Vernon, especially the members of the Commercial Club, for their untiring efforts for the advancement of our county and their determination to have better roads.

With this kind of men to push and with good roads we are bound to succeed.

Yours truly,

M. A. CHASPERN.

Road Bonds Issue Carries by More Than Ten to One IN BELL COUNTY

The $350,000 road bond election held here last Saturday carried by a majority of over ten to one, breaking all records for a similar vote upon any question in Bell County. The total vote in the county was 8,688 for the bond issue and only 375 against it, the issue of bonds, Middleboro and the Yellow Creek Valley made a fine showing, rolling up 1,871 votes for the bond issue, and only 111 votes against it. It was almost a unanimous vote.

Judge Amor informs us that in order to make no mistake and to have everything regular and O. K. a friendly suit will be brought and tested up in the Court of Appeals to see that everything is legal and proper and according to "Holes." He said this will be done as quickly as possible and work will start upon the various roads in Bell County by May first, and the people could be assured of their completion by the first of next year. Judge Amor is very thankful for the showing in favor of this bond issue, and says the people never will regret bestowing the wisdom upon him and that there will be no more manipulating and misapprehension of the County's funds.
