ADVERTISE! Mr. Business Man, have you thought about the fact that each succeeding year the mail order houses are increasing their sales, and other sales, and their business continues to flourish regardless of howling hard times?

Why is it that a mail order house can sell $2000 to $5000 worth of goods a year to Corbin people and vicinity and let them pay the freight on them, while merchants here handle almost any article that is ordered, and at a price that is no higher and oftentimes even less?

If you will keep a check of the parcel post, the express and freight offices, you will find that more than the above amount is yearly being shipped into this town by the mail order houses. You can't educate the people to hunt here for what they want, when it is pictured a thousand places in a thousand homes, in ten thousand catalogues. You must fight fire with fire. Advertise—Advertise every week. Advertise continually and persistently. Advertise in the mail order houses do, and you will get the result within the next few weeks; otherwise the home merchants will have to give way to the foreign mail order houses, who will certainly take the day.—Corbin Times.

Forest Fires

The Greatest Destructive Agency to the Forests of the State

FOREST fires undoubtedly are one of the greatest destructive agencies to the forests and property of the state. It is estimated that from 1911 to 1914 the annual loss from forest fires was $390,000 each year and that there were annually 175,000 acres burned over. A study of the forest fire situation by the state forester since 1912 has shown that over 90 per cent of the known causes of fires reported to his office were due to carelessness and that they at times when winds are not blowing and when the ground is not so dry that fire would spread in every direction from the area to be cleared. Also a little care in clearing the space outside the area to be burned over would go a long way in preventing the spread of fire. In the fall the hunters do a large amount of damage and poison hunting, burning down trees to

FOREST FIRE LOOKOUT TOWER.

AN INKREPESIVE LOOKOUT TOWER.

This is the standard type of forest fire lookout towers that are being constructed over the western United States. It is possible to overlook the country within a radius of twenty miles from one of these stations.

This tower was built on the divide between Kentucky and Virginia, and considering its small cost gave very good satisfaction during the fire season in the spring of 1915.

could have been prevented by reasonable diligence on the part of the individual. The two chief causes of forest fires are burning of brush in the spring and hunting in the fall. It is easy to see that with a little care both of these causes could be eliminated. Brush could very easily be burned at present them altogether.

Erosion Caused by Cutting Away Forests at Headwaters of Streams

A large portion of this farm was washed away in a freshet. The farm formerly came to the present edge of the stream.

An Upland Forest

The forest fires have been kept out of this area, and the timber is in first class condition. Defects due to forest fires reduce the value of the timber product as high as 50 per cent. Good trails make the protection of the timber an easy matter.

This road is approximately seven miles.

Bids will be received on the work as a whole, or for the first three miles out of Mt. Vernon, or for each mile separately. Bids will also be received for grading and macadamizing of said road separately, in the same divisions just set out. The said Fiscal Court reserves the right to reject any and all bids.

Before contracts are binding on the first parties they must receive the approval of the Commissioners of Public Roads. Each bid must be accompanied by cash or certified check, payable at sight to the order of the County Treasurer for 5 per cent. of the amount of the proposal; which check shall be held until the execution of the contract.

Before the contract is awarded, the successful bidder will be required to furnish a bond equal to the amount of the proposal for the faithful performance of the work in accordance with the aforesaid plans and specifications.

All work to be done under the directions and supervision of the state road department.

By order of the Fiscal Court of Rockcastle County.

The highway question is still a live one, and not dead, as some local people have been led to believe, on account of a few of our counties seeming to be asleep in the line of construction, among these is our own county, the indications are that a portion of one of the three lines will be let within the next five weeks. The Dixie Boone will be completed thru Bell county before Christmas. Knox and Laurel are in about the same shape as Rockcastle as far as construction is concerned. There is no doubt that these three highways will be built, but the long delay in beginning the work in the three counties mentioned is all owing to say the least.

In connection with the 14 counties that are applicants for state aid to apply on inter-county seat roads. Our state will have a number of important thru highways including Boone Way from Cumberland Gap via Mt. Vernon, Louisville and the Dixie Highway from Cumberland Gap via Mt. Vernon, to Cincinnati, West Dixie Highway from Louisville to Nashville. The Northern terminus of Dixie Highway is Chicago; the Southern is Miami Florida, with Eastern West roads to Indianapolis, connecting at Chattanooga.

The Dixie Line is proposed to run from Chicago to Nashville via Evansville, Henderson, Hop Hopkinsville, Guthrie, etc. The Jackson Highway with loops, one beginning at Chicago, running to Louisville and there connecting with Eastern loop, starting from Natchez Falls, coming into Kentucky at Maxville, passing thru Fleming, Nicholas and Bourbon counties to Lexington, thence over the route of Boone Way (Boone-Jackson Highway) to Louisville. From Louisville to New Orleans the Jackson Highway will probably be routed via Bardonia, Glasgow, Scottsville, Nashville, Birmingham, Montgomery, Mobile and on to the crescent city. Ten states are represented in a big convention that met in Nashville yesterday for a two days conference at which the routing of this highway was to be done and the election of officers. Peter Lee Asherton, of Louisville, now temporary President, will, no doubt, be elected to that office as he has done more to push forward the movement than any other person.

Eastern Kentucky counties, including Leecher, Leslie, Berry, Breathitt, and Estill, have started a movement for constructing a highway from Whitesburg to Richmond, to connect at the latter point with the Dixie Highway. It has been stated the road would be named the "McCrea Highway" in honor of our Governor, who has been such a friend to the good roads movement in Kentucky.

The Kentucky Gazette, founded by John Bradford, August 11, 1877, at Lexington, Ky., the first newspaper published west of the Alleghenies, has been revived and began its weekly publication as "Pioneer Newspaper of the West" and the publishers of the paper you hold in your hand, in re-creating the Kentucky Gazette, have as their ambition the desire to make it a Kentucky paper, of Kentucky, by Kentucky, for Kentucky. It is intended to be the medium of expression for any Kentuckian who desires to use it. It is non-political and non-sectarian. Its managers will be devoted to the welfare of Kentucky—to Kentucky's industries, agriculture, education and social life.

LINCOLN BOND ELECTION
By the majority of only 52 votes, the proposition to issue $100,000 in bonds to build new pikes and improve the old roads in Lincoln county was defeated at the special election Saturday. The vote was 864 for the bonds and 916 against. The question of whether a two-thirds vote is necessary to vote bonds is now before the court. Many contend that the courts will hold that only a majority vote is required, which is what the one who favored the bond issue hoped to get in the election Saturday. Those who are for a bond issue to rebuild the Lincoln county roads say that another election will be called within a few months when the tax condition of the public thoroughfares becomes more apparent to the people as winter weather sets in. An analysis of the vote cast shows that only a very small part of the voting population in Lincoln county participated in the election. Out of about 4,000 votes in the county less than 1,800 votes were polled, which shows an amazing lack of interest in the subject. Up to the 14th of the vote was overwhelmingly in favor of the bonds as the people of Cran Orchard want and need very badly a pike from the metropolis of the East End to Bee Lick—Inter-River Journal.

The largest underwriting syndicate in the Western world has been known in process of formation to day to handle the proposed "million dollar" credit loan to Great Britain and France, which it was reported to a sum yet to be determined, between $600,000,000 and $800,000,000.

This mammoth syndicate, according to tentative arrangements said to have been agreed upon, will be nation-wide in its character and will comprise national and state banks and trust companies from the Atlantic to the Pacific. A number of so-called pro-German financiers, it was reported, will join the syndicate. It is finally agreed that the proceeds of the big loan shall be available only for commodity exports and not for munitions of war. The price at which this syndicate will put out the British and French government bonds which will be issued to secure the loan will be 95 per cent. The bonds will pay 5 per cent interest and will be first mortgage upon the entire British Empire and France and her colonies. All other obligations of the two nations will be subordinated to the proposed big bond issue. Even the staggering sums raised by bond issues at home with which the war has been carried on, will come second to the loan to be floated here when the time comes to pay the principal.

BOWLING GREEN, KY. Sept. 20, 1915.

D. M. PENNINGTON, Mt. Vernon, Ky.

Dear Doctor:
The writer has been extremely busy since his visit to your city and has been away from the office practically all of the time. Therefore, he has seemed to neglect you and your epidemic of typhoid fever. It is our painful duty upon careful consideration of what was learned by the writer's visit, that your epidemic is due to the drinking of the water from the spout Spring, although every-thing points to pollution of the entire water-bearing strata from which these springs and your shallow wells receive their water. The only solution I can see in the case of your city is that you install a pumping station, reservoir and purification plant. While this would cost some little money to do, and you must understand that in addition to furnishing an unlimited amount of water for all household purposes assuring cleanliness, saving real drudgery for the housewife, as well as protecting health. There is also the great element of fire protection to be considered, for in the paper that your city has been visited in the past week by a disastrous fire. A few such conflagrations would more than pay the cost of the necessary water plant, and from a cold blooded business point of view, your city can do nothing that will return a greater investment for the money expended. We shall be glad to render you any assistance in our power for the attainment of this end. Very truly yours,
D. P. CURRY, State Sanitary Engineer.

The farmers are very busy now sowing fodder and mangel-worm. Corn is short in this part and lots of farmers are moving their cornfields especially in the bottoms where the corn drowned out. Sherman Chaston, who was teaching Climax school, resigned and accepted our school and trustees of the Climax school employed J. W. Cox to finish that school. The people registered very much to give Mr. Wood up. He is a bright, promising young man. John R. Cope, who has been so low, is no better.
