Livingston

J. L. Hughes has been very sick for a few days but is slowly improving. Mrs. Larkin Pennington is reported very sick at this time. S. C. Frankling and son, Benard, of Mt. Vernon, was here between trains Wednesday. Mrs. J. W. Mullies and son, John Thomas, are visiting relatives at Mt. Vernon this week.

Miss Lydia Cook is with relatives at Mt. Vernon for a few days. Prof. Wilson is with relatives and friends in Lebanon Junction this week. Mr. and Mrs. R. B. Sams, of Stanford, have returned home after a few days visit to Mr. and Mrs. John W. Mullins. Mrs. Bettie Pike, of Mt. Vernon, is visiting relatives here this week. Mrs. J. H. Owens, who has been very sick, is better. Mr. and Mrs. Jake Pike, of Pineville, are visiting relatives here this week. Tom Stewart and Dave Clark were in our town Wednesday. Judge Chomack, of Richmond, was here between trains Wednesday. J. W. Baker, who was running a store at Winchester, was here between trains Wednesday on his way back to Mt. Vernon. Well, "Ucke" John, there is no place like home.

Dr. M. Pennington, of Mt. Vernon, was here between trains Wednesday. Mrs. Daniel Ponder is very sick at this time. Miss Gracie I. Owens, who has been very sick, is greatly improved.

Miss Cora Griffin, who has a position at Shelbyville, was with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. G. S. Griffin, through the holidays. O. D. Brvant spent Christmas with homefolks at Mt. Vernon. Born to the wife of R. Gregory on the 25, a fine girl. Simeon Griffin, of near Mt. Vernon, spent the holidays with relatives here. Mrs. Robert Griffin and Miss Flora Pennington were in Brodhead Tuesday. Misses Ida and Myrtle Hamlin, of Mt. Vernon, visited their sister, Mrs. F. M. Marshbanks. Rev. Jones, of London filed his regular appointment at the Baptist church Saturday and Sunday. F. M. Marshbanks is confined to his room and has been for the past week with grip. Clifford Catlin, of Lebanon, has returned home after a few days visit with his brother, I. W. Catlin. Mr. and Mrs. J. P. E. Drummond are spending the holidays in Knoxville. Stephen Carson, of Jellico, Tenn., who was once a citizen of our town, was here a few days en route to Mt. Vernon to visit relatives. S. Griffin was in Mt. Vernon Monday on business. Christmas is over and it was a quiet time here. We never saw a more peaceable time, hardly a loud word spoken, and Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Owens, who kept it to themselves. There were two Christmas trees here, one at the Baptist church and one at the Christian church, and lots of presents given and we guess all of the little folks made happy. This is the time to celebrate the birth of our Saviour, instead of drinking, fighting and such things. There are several of our citizens who will attend Circuit Court at Mt. Vernon next week. Mrs. Earl Rice, of Lebanon Junction, visit relatives here through the holidays. Mr. and Mrs. Will Verron and children, of Mt. Vernon, spent Christmas with relatives here.

A family reunion was held at G. S. Griffin on last Saturday and a great many of the family were present and a real old-fashioned reunion was held. Will Griffin, who is farming at Bakergeld in Missouri, and who had not been in Kentucky for fifteen years, was there. There was present Mrs. J. L. Arnold, of near Livingston, Mrs. Sarah Hall, and Mrs. Jane Owens, Mt. Vernon, and Mrs. W. M. Owens, of this place. This includes all the children, except J. N. Griffin, of near Varetburg, who could not attend on account of sickness. Besides, there were several grand-children.

Mr. Solomon Griffin, their father, had come to Mt. Vernon. He is 82 years old yet he gets about like a boy. At noon dinner was announced and we were summoned to the table, which was groaning under the weight of lots of good things to eat, for which Mrs. Griffin is an expert to prepare. In the evening the photographer was called and pictures were taken of the entire crowd. Mrs. Edd Quinn and children, of Paris, are visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Hayes, this week. Mr. and Mrs. Claud Griffin, of the Buckner Station, attended the reunion here Sunday. Well, we see that our old friend, James Maret, has arrived back at Mt. Vernon, but as we are pressed for time this week, we will wait on our friend next week. Will say, we were badly worried over his whereabouts, but since he has shown up, we will promise him a write-up next week.

FOARD COUNTY PIONEER

Biblical Sketches and Interesting Bits of Foard County History.

J. E. Fish, the subject of this sketch does not claim to have opened the way to the West nor planned any new trails into Foard county, yet it can be said that his advent into this part of Foard county antedates some who claim the honor of being "pioneers," or "oldtimers." But Mr. Fish claims to be eligible to this department of the Foard County News by permanent citizenship among our good, honest sons of old Foard county, having come here, when times were tough and abating with it through thick and thin, until today he and his excellent family being among the best and most successful farmers in this part of the county.

John Egbert Fish was born in Rockcastle County, Ky., in 1849, spent his boyhood and early manhood in the famous "Blue Grass" country. December 24, 1870, he was married to Miss Elizabeth Ann Crowell, daughter of John Crowell, of near Shelbyville, Ky. Mr. Fish claims that he and his wife left their native place in 1870, and came to Foard county, Ky., in 1873, and settled on a farm near the town of Abingdon. Mr. Fish was well pleased with the looks of the country, he bought a section of the land near Abingdon, and he and his wife moved there. This was in 1873, the first year ever sheep were raised in this part of the county. Mr. Fish claims that he and his wife were the first to raise sheep in this part of the county.

west. They had been on the road for a short time when their only child, Lou, wife of R. N. Featy, was taken sick. This compelled the Fish family to turn back, but Mr. Fish sent his wagon and household effects on through several days later, the child grew better and Mr. Fish and family came on the train, arriving two days ahead of the wagon. They first located near Plano, in Collins county, and Mr. Fish rented a farm from Mr. Beverly, father of J. W. and I. M. Beverly, of this city. This was in 1873. Shortly after their arrival at Plano, another child, wife of A. L. Walling, was born. Mr. Fish and family lived on the Beverly place two years before removing to Williamson county. Here Mr. Fish bought a place, which he improved. He remained in Williamson county ten years and in 1883 he sold his Williamson county farm at a good profit, and again started west, driving before him 800 head of cattle and about 20 horses. They were thirty days on the road, reaching a place near Abingdon, Mr. Fish was well pleased with the looks of the country, he bought a section of the land near Abingdon, and he and his wife moved there. This was in 1873, the first year ever sheep were raised in this part of the county. Mr. Fish claims that he and his wife were the first to raise sheep in this part of the county.

his cattle went down in value from $30 to $5 a head. He had made nothing for several years, but the tide finally turned, and after having lived in the Abingdon country for 16 years, he sold his farm at a good profit and came to Foard county, arriving here November 29, 1901. He bought three sections, paying $3 an acre for two sections, and $1.50 an acre for the other section. This land is now worth at least $15 or $20 an acre, since it is good land in a good state of cultivation, with good improvements. Since that time Mr. Fish has added more land to his tract until he now has 2000 acres, and Mr. Fish today is one of the county's well-to-do farmers. His interviewers on asking Mr. Fish how he made his money since coming to Foard county, Mr. Fish replied: "I attribute most of what success I have had to the raising of cattle and mules. During later years, however, I have made good money off my sheep. I will just tell you my sheep story. Less than two years ago my sons and myself bought 200 acres at $1000 delivered at Crowell. We had got two crops of wool, two crops of lambs, all totaling $700, besides, we now have 500 head of fine sheep worth $2,500."

The Foard County News is always glad to have the opportunity of writing about such a man as J. E. Fish. He is a modest and unassuming, yet jovial in a way, and a good conversationalist. He is also a most excellent citizen and has raised one of the finest families in the county, eight children, and all living neighbors to Mr. and Mrs. Fish in the Vivian locality. The youngest son, Oscar, is yet single and living with his parents. (Foard County News, Cromwell, Tex.)
