CANDIDATE HUGHES.

Mr. HUGHES' policy as a candidate for the high office of President does not have a tendency to raise him in the estimation of the voters, even of his own party. He seems to adopt the easy job of picking flaws and criticizing the present administration, an important respect does he suggest constructive legislation. He has been asked many questions as to what he would have done under conditions confronting our President, but never has he answered. Many of the great authors and writers of the country joined in asking him nineteen questions, but up to this time he has failed to answer any one of them. Why? Because as Ralph Cople, Chairman of the Speakers Bureau of the Republican Party, says Hughes has not the inside information. Why should he criticize if he cannot give us something better? Under the Wilson Administration the country has been given the Federal Bank Reserve Act. Panic among one hundred million people, at the command of a mighty few gamblers, is no longer possible. It is constructive and for the people. The Clayton legislation takes human labor and lives from the list of market commodities and articles of Commerce. It is constructive and for the people. The Child Labor legislation saves the most precious possessions of this nation, frees children. It is constructive and for the people of this and future generations.

The Farm Loan Act is freedom and opportunity for the sinew, bone and soul of the country. It is constructive and for the whole people in its final effort. The Seaman's Act, the Armour Plate plant, the Preparedness and other measures enacted under the guiding hand of President Wilson means freedom, safety and advancement of all true American ideas. They are constructive and for the people. Right here in America, in our business, in our homes, in the lives of our children we are having and are to have the splendid effects of Woodrow Wilson's engineering of constructive laws that mean better lives, better people and a much better nation.

In view of such splendid work and the enactment of such wholesome laws, it is the interest of the whole people to continue such a man in office and that man is Woodrow Wilson.

WHAT THE DEMOCRATIC PARTY HAS DONE AND WHAT THE REPUBLICAN PARTY DID NOT DO.
 [Cincinnati Enquirer.]
 Mr. Taft has the grounds for a strong argument to say that the Wilson administration has given such consideration to domestic issues it has neglected the foreign of the country. The Wilson administration has given much attention to affairs directly affecting the interest of the people within the boundaries of the United States, their home life their business life, their advancement and their prosperity, and not any Republican administration from 1867 to the noon of March 4, 1912, has any record of legislation that will compare in benefits to the public and to general business of the nation as the legislation which gave the country the Federal reserve banking system, the farmer's loan banking system and the shipping bill.

OUR BOONEWAY MAN In Winchester

Mr. James Maret, President, Boone Way Association, Winchester, Ky.
 My Dear Sir:
 It was my opportunity to have been at the Southern Appalachian meeting, held in Lexington, and to have heard the quiet glowing accounts of the progress of the Boone Way, which you and the little town of Mt. Vernon are deservedly credited with having put on the map.

You say you hope to have it ready as a thru route by June 1917.
 We will be pleased to have a story on the road with photo-athletic material for use in our official monthly publication, the American Motorist, if you or Mr. Roberts can find time to prepare it to the spring.
 We expect to add Kentucky, another year, to the states which we are mapping, for we realize that your section of country is certain to attract many road visitors when continuous highways become a reality.

Very Truly Yours,
 A. G. Batchelder, Executive Chairman.
 The American Automobile Association is the largest organization of its kind in the world, and has accomplished great results in pushing the good road movement through the country from coast to coast. It now has an eye on Boone Way and is encouraging its early completion. A great travel is assured over this, to be, historic highway and untold benefits will accrue to the mountains.

The National Highways Association, of Washington, D. C., of which the Boone Way Association is now a division, will make a complete map, in colors, including the territory from Kenton, Ohio, on to Lincoln Highway, (to which it has lately been decided to route our road). Kenton was named in honor of Simon Kenton, a close companion of Daniel Boone in the bloody Indian wars and the settlement of Kentucky. The patriotic citizens of Kenton are anxious to have the highway through their city, thru Chillicothe, Ohio, and the Association has agreed to the extension.

Kenton will be the Northern terminus of Boone Way and Boone Park, N. C., the Southern terminus. Leaving Kenton, our highway crosses the Old National at Egglets at Columbus, Ohio, and the Midland Trail at Winchester, Ky., connecting with the Southern National Highway at Hickory and Asheville, N. C. These four highways are transcontinental roads, crossing the country from coast to ocean. The Lincoln Highway starts at New York and ends at San Francisco. The Old National Trail begins at Baltimore and Washington and ends at Los Angeles. The Midland Trail starts at Richmond and Washington and winds up at San Francisco and Los Angeles. The Southern National Highway begins at Washington, passing thru Virginia, North Carolina, Tennessee, and ending at San Diego, California. Midland Trail passes thru Winchester and out of state at Louisville to St. Louis. Boone Way, as is generally known, also connects with East Dixie Highway at Lexington, (on Louisville Division), Richmond and Cumberland Gap using the same road bed between the latter points, via Mt. Vernon where the divisions of Boone Way meet.

Discontinue, Kenton, Ohio, to Boone Park, N. C., 655 miles. Two miles of Boone Way on the Versailles pike, out of Lexington, is being made of asphalt.

Boone Way will be routed over the new Otter Creek pike from Richmond to Boonesboro, instead of the old Lexington and Winchester roads. Boone's Trail follows Otter Creek.
 The writer is now engaged in the construction of Boone Way between Winchester and Paris, and a fine road is being made. It is meant to complete, in this fall.
 The following Rockcastle people were visitors in Winchester, during the week: Scott Miller, (now of Versailles), Rev. H. T. Young, Mrs. W. J. Sparks, Judge L. W. Beaman and T. J. Nicely. Judge Brown of London, was here Tuesday; the latter, three stopped off between trains while en route to Lexington and Frankfort.
 One hears some talk of the election, here, but that warn interest usually shown in presidential elections has been manifested, itself. The writer has a suspicion that the Republicans are adopting Gum Shoe Hunter's method of conducting the Kentucky campaign this year. The Dums will be caught napping "If they don't watch out."
 A drill will be started for oil, on the farm of Vancy Merritt, at the mouth of Red River, in Clark county, this week.
 Miss Maria Brock, is teaching in Winchester city school, a position she has held for several terms.
 The dedication of Boone Way will take place in Mt. Vernon in 1917; probably the time will be in September or possibly a little earlier. Delegates and visitors from many states will be present. It will be one of the biggest days in the record of old Rockcastle.

OUR BOONEWAY MAN In Winchester

Official marking of Boone Way will be in progress, on some of the divisions, within next few days. A circular will be mailed to all the various Commissioners, in the different counties, along the route, inside of ten days, giving direction for the marking. The colors adopted are Red and Black, which are to be painted in six inch bands or belts of each color around telephone poles, with a Black "B" on red band and a red "W" on the black band. The signs are to be placed about six feet above the level of the surface of the roadway, and to be at least four to every mile. Full direction will be given in every circular.

The big Boone Way map, size five to seven feet, that has been on exhibition in the Phoenix Hotel lobby, at Lexington, is now hanging on the walls in the lobby of the Brown-Proctoria, Winchester's largest hotel, where it is attracting the attention of hundreds daily.

The REWARD, $500.
 The reader of this paper will be pleased to learn that there is at least one dreaded disease that science has been able to cure in all its stages and that is catarrh. Catarrh being greatly influenced by quinine constitutional treatment.

Hall's Catarrh Cure is taken internally and acts thru the Blood on the Mucous Surfaces of the System thereby destroying the foundation of the disease, giving the patient strength by building up the constitution and assisting nature in doing its work. The proprietors have so much faith in the curative powers of Hall's Catarrh Cure they offer One Hundred Dollars for any case that cannot be cured. Send for list of testimonials.

HUSBAND RESCUED DESPAIRING WIFE
 After Four Years of Discouraging Conditions, Mrs. Belle Bullock Ups in Despair. Husband Came to Rescue.
 Catron, Ky.—In an interesting letter from this place, Mrs. Belle Bullock writes as follows: "I suffered for four years, with womanly troubles, and during this time, I could only sit up for a little while, and could not walk anywhere at all. At times, I would have sworn I was in my last days.
 The doctor wanted in, and his treatment soon relieved me for a while, but I was soon confined by my bad again. After five months in bed, I was cured. Nothing seemed to do me any good.
 I had gotten so weak, I could not stand, and I gave up in despair.
 At last, my husband got me a bottle of Cardui, the woman's tonic, and I commenced taking it. From the very first dose, I could tell it was helping me. I can now walk two miles without its lifting me, and am doing all my work."
 If you are all run down from womanly troubles, don't give up in despair. Try Cardui, the woman's tonic. It has helped more than a million women, in its 50 years of continuous success, and should surely help you, too. Your druggist has sold Cardui for years. He knows what it will do. Ask him. He will recommend it. Begin taking Cardui today.

Miss Fannie McClure was the charming hostess for an afternoon social, given at her home, Saturday Evening, Sept. 23, in honor of Miss Lottie Dalton. The younger society of Conway and vicinity was well represented. After a very delightful musical program, and a number of games, refreshment were served. At a late hour the guests departed, feeling that Miss. McClure is an ideal entertainer and that they had attended the most enjoyable social event of the season.

The Cummins well is now down about 750 feet. For seven feet they have been in the second strata of lime stone. Different pockets of oil has been found in small quantities, and one remarkable thing is, the difference in the oil found. The members of the Rockcastle Oil & Gas Co are still enthusiastic in their belief that the Cummins well will be a producer, although it will take 1500 to 1800 feet to get oil.

A number of fires have been reported from different sections of the county. Some of these fires were due to defective fuses. We want to take this opportunity to urge everyone to have your chimneys and flues inspected before starting your fall and winter fires. No matter how good you may think your chimney or flue to be, you certainly will not make any mistake in thoroughly inspecting it. Look about your kitchen stove and especially if it is one of those box ranges which rest right on the floor. "Safety first."
F. C. Pison, representing Arbuckle Bros., has been in the county this week advertising Arbuckle's Coffee. Many years ago Arbuckle was the only parched coffee sold through this section. Later came other brands, and for many years, the old Arbuckle came a favorite, became an unknown brand. Now that the grade of coffee has been improved the Arbuckle brand of coffee is being pushed in every section, from the largest city store to the smallest of the cross road peddler. Arbuckle's Coffee is being sold.

MT. VERNON POWER CO.
In its issue of February 17, 1916, the Wayne County Outlook, published at Monticello, contained reflections on the character of Judge J. W. Bethurum and attempted to bring some severe epithets, which we will not publish. There was at the time no campaign in progress, and this action on the part of our contemporary, was without the extending conditions of a heated political issue.
Justice Bethurum instituted suit in the Pulaski Circuit Court, against J. W. Simpson, editor of the paper, for libel and in the action beset out in detail the article of the Outlook, and charged that the statements contained therein were falsely and maliciously composed. When the case was called for trial it was before J. R. Miller, Special Judge, the editor, J. W. Simpson withdrew all pleas, and confessed to the charges in the petition of Judge Bethurum and a jury was empaneled to try the case. All the papers and the petition containing the libelous article were submitted to them, and they retired and brought in a verdict awarding judgment of $5,000 to Judge Bethurum. TRY, TRY, Again Adage Always Works Wonders
The Stronger Never Say Die. While the Weaker Become Disheartened.
The old adage, "If at first you don't succeed, try, try again," has worked wonders for most of us. Some times in the lives of every one we imagine things are going against us. The weaker become discouraged and give up, while the stronger face this great game of life with staunch hearts, clear brains and steady hands, and with this good old adage as their slogan.
Probably more persons become discouraged over continued ill health than from any other cause. The records of any city will bear this out. Others, who probably suffered as much physical pain and agony as their mentally weaker brothers, will not give up the fight, but will do all in their power to gain relief. Difficulties are the best of the man.
Hundreds of people testify daily that they had suffered years of torture and agony from stomach or kindred troubles and had tried everything before they heard of Tanlac. These people did not "give up the fight" after the first remedy tried to cure them. When they heard of the wonders that Tanlac, the new reconstructive tonic, was working, they did not lose this opportunity to be aided simply because other preparations had failed. It is this "stick-to-it-iveness" that has won happiness for thousands.

The truth of this is clearly brought out by the fact that business men, professional men, artists and women, too, in all walks of life, whom common, practical judgment guides them in all acts and conclusions, are daily testifying to the merits of Tanlac.
Improper food, poor digestion, over eating and lack of healthful exercise have cut short the lives of thousands from the lowest to the highest in the land. Tanlac, the famous vegetable preparation, has proved invaluable for stomach trouble, which, after all, are the base of most ill health. Tanlac overcomes poor digestion, restores normal appetite, brings good restful sleep, and banishes that tired, nervous feeling-in short it restores the stomach to the habit of doing a full day's work and doing it well.

Tanlac, the ideal reconstructive tonic, is being especially introduced in Mt. Vernon at R. E. Miller, also at Central Drug Co., Livingston, and John Robins Drug Store, Brodhead, W. M. Owens Store, Barr, Line Bros., Crab Orchard, S. E. Welch, Servey, J. Reynolds and Soap Box, etc. Wherever the name appears explain its merits.

It is a familiar fact that a person lost in the woods wanders around in circles to the right. The reason is found in the demonstrated fact that the human race is right-handed and left-legged. That is the left leg is stronger than the right one; and the constant tendency because of the greater activity of the left leg and the longer stride taken with it, is to bear down on the right leg. Locomotion is a continuous pedestrian march between the right leg and the left one, and the left is continually getting ahead.

It's just the way in money matters. Our existence is a constant battle between spending and saving, and our "spend-leg" seems the stoutest and is generally in the lead. To overcome this the wise ones are handicapping their "spending member" with a Saving Account and are steering a straight course out of the forest of debt—into the civilization of peace and plenty.
