The Signal had room to publish his splendid letter in full.

The spirit of the old original Commercial Club still lives and no doubt it will see to it that the best element will be elected to carry on town affairs. No backward step should be taken by our citizens. The little old town has made rapid strides during few years and will continue in the same line. It has a greater mileage of concrete sidewalks, according to number of population than any town within our Commonwealth, and this going some.

Mr. Vernon's future seems bright and no doubt will continue to improve as the days go by, with such men interested in affairs as, Cooper, Baker, Sparks, Fish, Young, Krueger, McBoe, Payne, McCreary, McFarren, Griffin, Durlam, Adams, Thompson, Lovell, Conry, Williams, Bethune, Owens, Mullins, Bryant, Brown, Pinkerton, Albright, O'Mara, Franklin, Noe, McKinney, Miller, Pennington, Clure, Bowman, Cummins, McClure and others who desire progress.

The Boone Way man is looking to you and feels confident each will do his duty.

Girls and boys, (no age limit, all are boys and girls till swallowed by the grave), of Rockcastle, now located at any old point on the face of the globe of ours, are asked to write the Boone Way man at Winchester, Ky. Tell him what line of work you are following; time you left Rockcastle and any other particulars in connection with your past and present experience. We are trying to make this column interesting to homebodies and those who have wandered to other climes.

"At 20 a man is anxious to show his knowledge to the boys in his generation."

Which one's speed limit signs posted on all roads at city limits reads:

"Speed limit 15 miles. Dr. Sniffler. Come again."

Another death from automobile accident occurred here Friday last. Spauld. This is the sixth death to occur in this county since Map 24th, from an auto. Pretty heavy toll.

Prius for spiritual goods have taken astounding lugs. Straight goods are now $1 a pint, at Lexington. Winchester boys pay $1 round for their pants to that racing town and pay here difference for their wet goods. Within six months it is predicted $3 a pint will be asked and of course paid by those who think they must have it.

The bill of fare at one of the restaurants here reads: "Eggs, 10 cents straight. Tomato sauce 5 cents extra." The next issue of the menu card will probably add: "Salt, 3 shales 1 cent, pepper ditto, patrons not allowed to tap on bottom of salt and pepper boxes with thumb or finger when in an inverted position. (The container not the patron). Vinegar 1 cent a teaspoon, one tooth pick free to each patron where he spends 25 cents at the table or counter. Paper napkins 2 cents each, not to be carried from the premises. Bread crust 6 cents a foot (lineal measure. Country ham 2 cents a small; gause water slice of same 14 cents, with bread 21 cents, mustard extra."

While every good solid citizen believes and feels in his heart that the shortage of the dillies in the making of whiskey is a great thing for the county, and no doubt it is, it surely opens up the temptation for the coffee pot moonshine fakers, in which line there will surely be something doing. It is to be hoped the makers will forego the use of potato to put on a "head". Its bad enough to at least without putting in the lye to burn out the stomachs of the poor wretches who use the output. For the love of Mice or any give it to em, straight, without bread or anything. The first run which will probably be made will be by John Brown's old friend Tom B. who will bring his first output to J. W. B. for analysis, as to its purity. Tom is conscientious.

The new depot, under construction, at Berea, is a beauty. Mrs. D. Moore, after a visit to her mother at Hazard, has a little son, J. F. Moore, at "Break

The Beautiful Gulf Coast

THE BEAUTIFUL THING about the Gulf Coast!
Between New Orleans and Pensacola, is that it is a real playground, summer or winter—a playground for northern folk from November to May, and for Southern during the summer months. You can't ask for much more of physical nature than has been provided on the Gulf littoral between New Orleans and Pensacola. There are pine woods, forests of living oak, all moss lining and moss-forest, long stretches of winding, shaded roads, beautiful beaches, quiet southern towns and modern resorts being well equipped and airy life, beautiful resorts where you can stay a handsome all day and dinner in the morning. There is no better place for a winter vacation, for boating, fishing—anything and everything that calls for the sea, a delicious.

GOING SOUTH on the Louisville & Nashville
Railroad after you have finished, it is impossible to escape the infection of people living, even if you wanted to do it. At every stop through of young men and young women and old people, getting on or off the train. Laughter and cheer, and joyous, radiant as great you. It is not a mere place of scenic natural beauty, but a combination of a winter and a summer resort, where you can enjoy the best of both worlds. It is a place of scenic natural beauty, but a combination of a winter and a summer resort, where you can enjoy the best of both worlds. It is a place of scenic natural beauty, but a combination of a winter and a summer resort, where you can enjoy the best of both worlds.

TOURING along the Gulf Coast is one of the ways travellers take to find their particular clime—and for this purpose the train service of the Louisville & Nashville Railroad is convenient. You can stop everywhere, beginning at Mobile, and stay a few hours, a few days or even a week, as you desire, and then go on to the next place of your ultimate desire. You can, also, if you choose, ship your baggage to the Gulf Coast, and then go on to the Gulf. The route is all good and the country is fascinating in the extreme. It looks its background of fact to a long list of interesting tradition and romantic legends, covering the "Antiquary," while wholly American, has the foreign flavor in sufficient degree to give it diversity and variety. Geographically, the coast line and the Gulf Coast have been the scene of the most interesting and important events in the history of the world, which is told in such broken in the stories, by rich and productive farming lands, and lakes, giving a scenery endless and alluring background. Lying off the shore is a line of islands, forming the outer bulwark of Mississippi Sound, and fastening that have been the scene of some pre-revolutionary days—the towns which began as the French colonies, began under the brothers de Bienville and de Bieville.—Advertisement.

Wayside Notes

Vandalia railroad. Making good of course like all Rockcastle boys away in other lands. He and his brother Clay make their headquarters with their brother Ben in East St. Louis.

Win. H. Spauld, who came into Mt. Vernon about 1867, as an civil engineer with the location of the L. & N. and who married a daughter of Judge John M. Fish, near Buckeye, writes from his old home at Gallatin, Tennessee. He has been engaged these many years in engineering department of various railroads and during last few years has had considerable experience in highway work in his and other Tennessee counties.

And here comes our old friend Jim W. Gearty, son of H. C. Gearty, now located at East St. Louis, Illinois, with a pleasing report of his work. He is in the employment of the L. & N. and gets up along nicely. He is good enough to say:

"I appreciate your work as being a man with the nerve and backbone to stick to the proposition you brought out in 1913 to put a highway thru the Cumberlandians something that will bring untold benefits to our people. Possibly many of our own people don't understand today what Jim Means has done, but we boys of 'at distance see, understand and appreciate what the old fellow has done for the benefit of his adopted county. There should be a mighty knight feeling for the Boone Way man not only in Rockcastle but over the entire route of Boone Way from Boone Park, N. C. to Louisville and Kenton, Ohio. I believe the boys will stand by you should you ever get in need."

That bold, bad man of Livingstone, Will Owens, who of late, only occasionally drops a few lines to Signal, in news items of his behavior, ventured from the "stretching" and was a few, then immediately retreated to cover beyond the firing line. Yes we have the goods on the sly old rascal but wish to keep him in fear and trembling for a short time but the day of reckoning is close to hand and when it comes, he will be home for him is more than a plenty and then some more added.

Among the letters from girls and boys of Rockcastle now located in other climes is one from John H. Fish, a son of Hiram Fish, deceased, his mother is now Mrs. R. M. Mullins of Richmond. He learned the telegraph business at "Fontain. Head, Tennessee and has held positions with the L. & N., during many years past, at Nashville, Knoxville, in Blue Ridge mountains and other points. He is today assistant master of trains at Hazard, in western part of Kentucky. Like other Rockcastle lugs, he has made good. I wish land Farm", near Lovel Green, returned to Fleming, her home in Letcher county, last Friday, stopping between trains at Winchester to see the Boone Way man.

Charles B. Henderson, writes from Ashland, Arizona, that many other native sons of Rockcastle who have wandered away to other scenes, means to spend their latter days on the soil of their nativity. Many of them would return earlier if there was employment here for them.

"I left Mt. Vernon Oct 21, 1901. Since then have been variously employed" in train service as brakeman, conductor, switchman and yard master for about 13 different railroads. Assisted in building the Florida East Coast over the Keys. Also put in some hard time on the Western Pacific while building through the Feather river Canyon. Hired out here on the Coast Line out of the Santa Fe as work train conductor while double tracking the 3rd district between Winslow and Seligman Arizona, liked the job fine and still here. Been employed here since March 1st 1911, the longest time I ever staid in one place since leaving home. I have run across L. & N. men in old Mexico, Canada, and all over the south west.

There is one other L. & N. boy here besides myself, J. T. Paris, from Rockhold, James, from a very small boy, I can remember the first issue of the Signal it was then the Mountain Signal, and the office was over J. E. Vowels street, the office was in charge of a man named Fox. I don't think I have missed reading many copies since the first one. I have had the paper sent me in Florida, Tennessee, Texas, Missouri, Nevada, Arizona and New Mexico and have made a lot of short stunts where I merely had it forwarded. The mountain people are my people, the world and it is my ambition to make my state and come back to Rockcastle to spend my declining years."

MRS SMITH PROMOTES CHAMBERLIN'S TABLETS.
"I have had more or less stomach trouble for eight or ten years," writes Mrs. G. H. Smith, Brewerton, N. Y. "When suffering from attacks of indigestion and heart burn, or when one or two of Chamberlain's Tablets have always relieved me. I have also found them a pleasant laxative." These tablets ease up the stomach and enable it to perform its functions naturally. If you are troubled with indigestion, give them a trial and get well and stay well.

WAYSIDE NOTES

By "L. M."

When Col. Sam M. Burdett, one of Kentucky's best writers, was correspondent for the Interior Journal from Mt. Vernon, left that place to locate elsewhere, away back in the long ago, the writer was named as pencil pusher in his stead in the capital of Rockcastle. He, (the writer, "wabbled" around in Col. B's shoes for a number of years as news gatherer and scribbler for the Interior Journal, the "cheapest and best" enjoying the reading of his own items, in print, much; whether the readers did or not we cannot say, but hope they have forgiven it. Not forgotten the short comings in his notes to that noted journal located on the site of the fort erected by Logan where he and companions fit the Indians to a frazzle during the days of Boone and Kenton, and on the waters of the St. Asaph near the famous Buffalo Springs.

Most of us have undergone varied experiences since "those good old days." The writer has followed railroading, telegraphing, newspaper publishing, telephone promotion and construction, and the promotion of high-way building; the latter he has followed during the past six years with some little success after some mighty blue years before his efforts attracted attention or amounted to much. Then followed what might be termed a "road millennium" when Boone Way was put on the map to go thru the Cumberland.

The Rural School Fair to be held at Mt. Vernon on October 27th should, and we believe, will have a large attendance, and the meeting and exhibits prove of great interest and of lasting benefit. The writer hopes to be present on this most interesting occasion. Let every pupil between Gum Sulphur and Goochland, Boone's Gap and Ward at the mouth of Back Creek, along with the elder, middle dog and all others who can make the trip to Mt. Vernon. It will surely repay them.

It is possible that some of the claims are somewhat broad, relative to some wonderful inventions and discoveries made lately, but it is a fact that when soon will be, the world will be more than astonished. The Kaiser will be aghest, and take to the woods while raining is good.

A factory is being erected at Council Bluffs, Iowa, for the purpose of manufacturing flour, "tea and coffee," extracts and candies from alfalfa hay. This bears out the reasonableness of the charge once made that our friend Tom Hayes, of Conway, on one particular occasion, at Mt. Vernon, drove a mule from his stall and ate up the hay found in the rack; though it is said to have been timothy and not alfalfa, that he consumed. Tom doesn't deny the charge very strenuously.

Speaking of vocations, the writer has followed, at times, in fact put in years in various lines. That experiences in telephone business with its various ramifications, part owner and general manager of exchanges and lines, was all around the most "aggravating" employment he ever fell into. There was all that constancy in telephone annoyances, troubles, dissatisfaction, grumbling, sometimes verging on to pitched battles. Oh it was the life. It was not all one sided either, it was on both feet, including subscribers and telephone users as well as the company and the company side. Everybody catches it, including father. How would you like to be the telephone man? Not me. The least to be envied is the hells girl at the switchboard, one of the most difficult and thankless jobs of all.

Winchester is not exactly "hot wild" but is bordering upon it. There are probably a thousand people who have located here within past nine months—who are interested in oil production and prospects. Oil field supply houses here are carrying more than $100,000 stocks of machinery and supplies from which orders are fitted to be shipped to various portions of the state the mostly to eastern portion thereof. There is certainly something doing in oil here and hereabouts.

Clark county has made out estimates for the overhauling 17 miles of pikes this year, but the work has been much delayed owing to the difficulty in securing teams and holding labor, the latter especially, is scarce, and difficult to hold during wheat harvest, hemp cutting; tobacco and corn cutting. Laborers getting $2 per day on the roads desert to the harvest, hemp, corn and tobacco fields during their seasons, where the worker receives from $3 to $4.50 per day and in the corn he ranges from $4.50 to $8 in a day, cutting by the shock at so much per.

Some half dozen corn harvesting machines were brought to the county this fall and their work is proving very satisfactory. The machine cuts and binds into bundles, doing the work of several men. It handles down corn nearly as well as that standing.

Manufactories in the states to the north have taken hundreds of laborers, both white and black from this county within the past few years, causing a scarcity of labor here, thereby necessitating more farm machinery to replace hand labor that has departed for other fields.

H. Clay Gentry, drops a line, "I am working as conductor on Belt Line of Southern railway between East St. Louis and Vevian, Been at it four years. Nice position. Mean to hold to it. I often wish for a drink from the old "spout spring" and if my calculations don't make a misconnection I will be there abouts on Thanksgiving Day with father and mother."

John Gentry, another son of our good old fellow citizen H. C. Gentry, is engaged as O. S. & D. man out of East St. Louis on (Continued on last page.)

FOR COUNTY JUDGE

W. A. COX

TO THE VOTERS OF ROCKCASTLE COUNTY:

As you are aware, I am a candidate for County Judge of Rockcastle County, and now appeal to you for your support. The Republicans are urging you to vote the slightest Republican Ticket. My friends, do you as good and patriotic citizens think you should always vote one Ticket, regardless of the candidate for whom you are asked to vote? Will you vote blindly for the sake of party?

Voters, remember that ex-president Roosevelt, twice president of this great Nation, ex president William H. Taft, Charles E. Hughes, late candidate for president on the Republican Ticket, and Elihu Root, one of the most intellectual men in all the world, are now supporting an Independent candidate for Mayor of Greater New York. These are four of the most illustrious men of our age.

A few years ago fourteen thousand Democrats voted for W. O. Bradley for Governor and elected him Chief Executive of Kentucky. Two years ago nearly as many Democrats voted for Edwin P. Morrow for Governor.

Last year thousands of leading Republicans throughout the Nation voted for President Wilson. If these men could fail to blindly follow the party wherever it leads, can't we in the good County of Rockcastle do likewise?

I promise you, if I am elected, I will look closely to the interest of the people of Rockcastle County. I will give my entire attention to the duties of the office. When you come to Mt. Vernon on business with the County Judge you will always find me at my post, ready and willing to discharge my duties. I promise you that if elected politics and creeds and personal friendships will not control my decisions, but I will render justice alike to the great and small, the rich and poor, black and white.

I will be guided alone by law and justice. Many Republicans have urged me to run and pledged me their support. I feel confident of my election.

Very truly,
W. A. COX.

TO THE VOTERS OF ROCKCASTLE COUNTY:

Let us get our heads together and work for the best interest of our county. As I said in my announcement, I am a candidate for Sheriff on the Independent Ticket, and after being urged by many Republicans and Democrats to make this race, I am determined to make same to the end. I feel that the mass of the good people of Rockcastle are interested in this election and they are going to make a change, so let us all work together for the best interest of our county. If such great men of the United States as Ex-President Taft and Roosevelt can work for an Independent candidate for the State of New York, it looks like the good people of Rockcastle can follow suit, and work and vote for an Independent candidate for Sheriff. I am not asking you as a Republican or Democrat to vote for me, I am asking the good people as voters, and if they believe I will make a good Sheriff and treat all the people alike, and will be Sheriff for the people, vote for me.

Yours for sheriff,
C. H. FRITH.

Mrs. E. T. Chomers, 62 East 42nd St., Chicago, Ill., says: "Manalin best laxative on the market for liver and bowels, very good for indigestion and heart burn. Those who object to liquid medicines can secure Peruna tablets."

MEMBER OF
KENTUCKY PRESS ASSOCIATION

Washington, Oct. 13.—The tardiness of the county in responding to the second Liberty loan is causing deep concern to officials here. President Wilson and his cabinet are watching the campaign with great interest.

With half of the campaign gone treasury officials estimated tonight that not more than $600,000,000 had been subscribed and they consider estimates liberal. It has become apparent to officials that a new and tremendous impetus must be given to the campaign if the subscription is to approximate the $3,000,000,000 hoped for.

The whole weight of the administration is to be thrown into the balance for the rest of the campaign and a drive of dimensions unapproached heretofore, to be made during two weeks that remain before the closing of the subscription books.

A new factor, calculated to shorten the haste of workers and to galvanize the country into a realization that the most strenuous effort must be made if the big drive is to be consummated successfully will be introduced into the campaign, probably within twenty-four hours.

Notwithstanding the splendid reception given Secretary McAdoo in the West, the efforts of a thousands of workers, and the most highly organized publicity campaign ever known in the country, the daily average of subscriptions has fallen far below what officials had hoped for. The time has come, officials feel, when the people of the country must be made to realize, in a manner that leaves no doubt that they must subscribe without further delay to the full limit of their means.

From President Wilson down, officials are understood to be united in this belief. The campaign must be given new impetus at once, it is felt, and steps to give the impetus will be taken without delay.

The $89,000,000 estimate of the treasury takes into consideration all the "optimistic unofficial" estimates from the various reserve districts and that sum is only 12 per cent. of the $5,000,000,000 desired.

This would leave $4,400,000,000 to be raised within the next twelve working days, an average of $37,000,000 a day if the $5,000,000,000 goal is to be attained, and $2,400,000,000, an average of $200,000,000 a day, if only the minimum of $3,000,000,000 is subscribed.

"Neither the average daily minimum nor maximum quota for the second Liberty bond sale set at the beginning of the campaign by Secretary McAdoo," reads the treasury announcement, "had been attained to night when the first half of the great drive came to a close."

An official estimate of subscriptions from five of the twelve reserve banks shows a total of $52,400,000 subscribed.

BRODHEAD

It is predicted by many that day his bed for several weeks with typhoid and for a week before his death his condition was so serious that there was little hope for his recovery. Besides his widow he leaves a number of children, his father and mother and several brothers and a sister to mourn his loss. Woodward Owens bought a small farm from Will Wiggins last week for $500. J. F. Watson was with his brother, W. T. Watson, in Garrard county one day last week. R. L. Smith and Allen Hiatt sold a bunch of cattle at Stanford court last Monday week. Mrs. J. R. Cass is with her daughter, Mrs. L. B. Hilton, at Stanford, this week. Born to the wife of Ed Owens, Thursday, a fine baby boy.—W. A. Carson took his son Lee to London last week and had his tonsils and adenoids removed. Dr. Pennington performed the operation. The boy is getting along very well considering the seriousness of the operation.—Mrs. Ross Hiatt came here last Friday in response to a telegram that her husband, who was visiting Mr. and Mrs. A. M. Hiatt, here, had suffered a stroke of paralysis. Mr. Hiatt's condition, while much improved, is still very serious. He is able to walk about very well, but cannot speak. They will probably be here several days before returning to their home in Louisville.—Mr. and Mrs. Walter Smith have moved from the C. L. Lear property on Main street to their home near Crab Orchard. Mr. Smith will open a garage in Crab Orchard and will likely use the Beaver Livery Stable building on Main street after it is remodeled.

Jerry Brodie sold a small tract of land on Negro-Creek to Mrs. Elizabeth Oliver for $450, also another tract to Wm. Helton for $400 and bought a farm from Wm. Helton for $550.—John Brook, of the Hiatt section, lost his house and contents by fire, his days ago.—No insurance.—A. T. Stewart, of Paint Lick, was here last week the guest of Mr. and Mrs. A. M. Hiatt.—C. E. Frith, the defeated candidate for sheriff, is spending most of his time these days in the byways and rural districts urging voters to help him defeat Tip Langford, and in a very low tone of voice says he will win.—We recently received a copy of the Livington Bulletin, owned, edited and managed by our good friend Pete Drummond, and by the way is a pretty newsy little sheet, and as soon as we have a quarter we can spare our name will appear on his regular mailing list.—Mr. and Mrs. Cyril Francis Herford announce the marriage of their daughter, Miss Marion Louise Herford to Huber Bass Carson on the evening of October 17th, at Telford Plains, Tenn. Mr. Carson is the oldest son of Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Carson, of this place, and a splendid young man, and to him and his we join his host of friends back home in wishing them a happy and prosperous wedded life.—Rev. Evans, the new Methodist pastor, held regular services here Sunday morning and evening. We understand that he will make East Bernstadt his home. Mrs. Evans accompanied him here.—Chas. T. Riddle and Frank Catron have been in the Hoosier slate prospecting. Mr. Riddle rented a large farm there and will move his family there in the next few days. These are good people and we regret to give them up.—W. B. Simpson, of Louisville, representing the Detroit Vapor Stove Co., of Detroit, was here this week with his father, Caloway Simpson.—W. H. Anderson, High Priest of Broadhead Chapter of Royal Arch Masons, and J. Mont Roberts, master of Broadhead Lodge of masons were representing the local Chapter and Lodge at a meeting of the Grand bodies in Louisville this week.—Dr. O'Bannon, of Stanford, was here Wednesday to see Hazel and Vivian Albright in consultation with Dr. Carter. Both the girls were typhoid and seemed to have been a relapse and their condition is rather serious at present.—R. L. Smith of the Hiatt section, attended the meeting of the Grand Lodge and Grand Chapter in Louisville this week.—Mr. and Mrs. U. B. Cass will soon be housekeepers in the city of Broadhead.—A. E. Albright, who was confined to his bed for several weeks with typhoid, is able to get about again, and looks but little worse for his experience.—Mrs. R. E. Albright returned from Asheville, N. C., last week where she went with her husband on account of his health and says it will be necessary for her to be in bed for six weeks. We hope that the change will do him good and that he will soon be able to return home a well man.—L. N. Bowling, John Robins and daughter, Mildred, were in Crab Orchard Wednesday.—We are sorry to see this rain on account of Chuck Frith who is scouring the county over in search of voters. Chuck is a good fellow, "even a tomcat" one would say good things about the fellow when he is down.—Every man has a perfect right to his private opinion, to keep it, to sell it, to loan it, but it is both unwise and improper to insist that his opinion is worthy of respectful consideration.—Chuck's opinion is that he will win.—R. G. Whitcomb, of London, was here Wednesday. His is in the coal business and is making good too.

YOU MUST HELP

The country needs men, and the men are giving themselves—your son your brother your companion.

The government needs money to feed, to clothe, to shelter, and we hope to bring these men back. You can help, you must help, and you will help by buying Liberty bonds—buying them until it hurts and then buying more.

SOME NOBLE EXAMPLES.

As everyone knows, Tamany is corrupt. It may not be as corrupt as the political machine of New York, but it is almost. This year the Democrats have nominated a Machine Democrat for Mayor of Greater New York. The Republicans nominated Mr. Bennett John Purroy Mitchell, the present Mayor is expected to succeed himself as Independent Democratic. Our Ball Moore friend will take notice: ex. President William Howard Taft; ex. President Theodore Roosevelt; Charles Evans Hughes, the Republican candidate for President next year, and Senator Blinn Root, all Republicans of New York, all of reputation, are all heartily supporting Mr. Mitchell, the Independent Democrat for Mayor, of Greater New York. It looks like the fifteen hundred or more of us who are supporting him, who this year are supporting some of our Democratic friends and neighbors for some of the County Offices, are in very good company.—Republican paper Somerset Journal.

WICKS' VAPOR SALVE

The Council of National Defense

The pledge signing week has been changed and will now be undertaken October 25th to November 4th. This change was made on account of the Liberty Bond week being more pressing and should have the attention of the whole Nation.

We are sending our boys, man for man, with the rest of the Nation; they are drilling just as hard as any of the rest; they will be subject to the same danger as the rest; we will pay war tax in proportion to our wealth just the same as other communities, but are we subscribing for Liberty Bonds and supporting the Red Cross, loyally as we might? The inference is, we do only what we are forced to do.

The talk about Liberty Bonds being a good investment and somebody should buy them went cold and feed soldiers; neither will promise fire guns. The time is now here when money talks.

The war when unpopular does not make it less a war or less expensive. The people have the money, it is not the Government. If we don't loan to Uncle Sam he will be forced to tax us straight from the shoulder. We had better loan than to give. Buy your Liberty Bond today.

Children Cry FOR FLETCHER'S CASTORIA GREAT FAITH IN CHAMBERLAIN'S COLIC AND DIARRHOEA REMEDY.

"Chamberlain's Colic and Diarrhoea Remedy was used by my father about a year ago when he had diarrhoea. It relieved him immediately and by eating three doses he was absolutely cured. He has great faith in this remedy," writes Mrs. W. H. Williams, St. Louis, N. Y.

OH FAIR MAIDENS OF THE BARTH. He not deceived. Oh fair maidens of the earth, For men come and devour your youth.

He tries hard your heart to win, He believes you are weaker than him. He comes a singing like a jay, And then, what can you say, He takes your pride and worth away.

You'll say, what have I done, Oh me, the world is shun, Its deeds you would adore, If his thoughts you could explore.

Oh fair maidens of the earth, Don't let your conscious betray your birth. The men they are but few, Who pledge their soul to you For man may come, and man may go, But his thoughts you'll never know.

Be not deceived. Oh fair maidens of the earth: For man may come and devour your youth. Written by Sergeant James L. Langford, Co. B 7th Field Battalion Signal Corps.

ROCKCASTLE CIRCUIT COURT.

Missouri Keweenaw, Adm'r. of E. B. Ramsey, Deceased Plaintiff, vs. Commissioner's Sale, W. C. Kirby, Defendant.

By virtue of a judgment and order of sale of the Rockcastle Circuit Court, rendered at the August Term, 1917, thereof, in the above cause, I shall proceed to offer for sale at the court house door in Mt. Vernon, Ky. to the highest and best bidder, at public auction, on Monday October 26th, 1917, being regular County Court day for said county, between the hours of 9 a. m. and 3 p. m., upon a credit of six months, the following described property, to-wit:

One house and lot located in the town of Mt. Vernon, County, of Rockcastle, State of Kentucky, and bounded as follows:

Bounded on the north by Main Street; on the east and south by the Louisville & Nashville Railroad Company's right-of-way; on the west by property recently owned by W. T. Smith, deceased, and now owned by his heirs.

Of sufficient thereof to produce the sum of $458.27, with legal interest from March 1, 1917, and the cost of this action.

For the purchase price the purchaser must execute bond with approved surety, bearing legal interest from day of sale until paid and having the force and effect of a judgment. Bidders will be prepared to comply promptly with these terms.

G. S. Griffin, Master Commissioner, Rockcastle Circuit Court. CHAMBERLAIN'S COUGH REMEDY THE MOST RELIABLE.

After many years' experience in the use of brand other cough medicines, there are many who prefer Chamberlain's to any other. Mrs. A. C. Kirstein, Greenville, Ill., writes, "Chamberlain's Cough Remedy has been used in my mother's home and mine for years, and we always found it a quick cure for colds and bronchial troubles. We find it to be the most reliable cough medicine we have used."

FOR SALE—My rent corn and fodder, on Town Hill. See Charley Check. The land, about eight acres, also, for sale. THRO PROG, Withers, Ky.
