Mrs. J. F. Griffin is on sick list.

County Clerk Bowman was in London Monday on business.

Atty J. A. Owens is in Harlan county for a few weeks on business.

J. F. Dees the Livingston telephone magnate was in town Monday.

John Lahr is now located in the Post Office Department at Washington, D. C.

Miss Ethel Abbill, stenographer, has returned from a visit to her mother at Berea.

Mrs. T. J. Nicely after some days illness reported at Red Cross headquarters for service Wednesday.

W. J. Sparks was very sick a few days the first of the week and is still confined to his room, but very much better.

Mr. Robert Fensel, of Stanford, was up Sunday to see his son, Matthew, and trick operator at depot, and his new daughter.

Ed Jones has returned to his telegraph job on C. & O. between Ashland and Cincinnati after a pleasant visit to home folks here.

Mrs. Mary E. Williams, aged 72 has knitted for the Red Cross, 10 pairs socks, 5 sweaters, 3 pairs wristlets and 2 scarfs, and is still at it.

Miss Martha Sparks is at home this week, on account of the school which she is attending in Louisville, being closed down because of the coal shortage.

Our old road pioneer has been reassigned to Clark county for 1918, in high way inspection work to which place he will return in the early spring.

Jack Lawrence has the thanks of the writer for half bushel of apples which were recently restricted from the cold cold ground, yum yum.

Elmer Perciful has a letter from his brother, Bradley in Cleveland, Ohio, stating he had just married a young lady from Knoxville, Tenn. They will live in Cleveland.

Henry Smith, a well known Orlando citizen, whose health was precarious for some years; is now holding down a position with the L. & N. bridge carpenters. The open air has done wonders for him.

U. G. Raker, who has been quite sick for past week or more, and is fully recovered, came out to his store Wednesday morning. His host of friends were pleased to see him 50 ft on the road to recovery.

Cashier A. M. Blatt of Citizens Bank was up from Brodhead yesterday and like his neighbors gave a good report of the activities of his bustling and progressive town. Says there is something doing in real estate life all the time.

Mrs. E. R. Gentry spent two or three days in Winchester last week lecturing the city schools in her line of work which she is successfully carrying out. Mrs. Gentry will have Lexington as headquarters hereafter.

Mathack Gentry is in for a visit to his family. He is working for Coal Co. at Twila, Harlan county, mining town. The owners of this property have been offered a million dollars (less 100 cents) for their holdings, but the offer has been turned down.

Mrs. J. W. VanWinkle continues very sick.

Tip Hurd and Tom McCreary have gone to Bell County to dig coal.

Miss Julia Fish will enter Willbur R. Smith Business College, Lexington next week.

Gard Hessel who is working in the mines in Bell county has moved his family there.

Mr. and Mrs. W. G. McRee spent Wednesday with Mr. and Mrs. C. M. Thompson at Livingston.

Ed Newland was up from Louisville Monday. He is working in machine shop on government contracts.

Mrs. Lou Wiltaber, an aged woman living near the fair grounds suffered a stroke of paralysis Monday, and has not received sufficient to speak or take any nourishment.

Max Boring, with Signal Corps, Greenville, S. C., writes an interesting letter to his uncle Joshua Boring, this county, advising that his company had been re-ordered to Loom Springs, Texas.

J. M. Craig, who bought a half interest in the Dave Thompson farm near Lancaster, will move to the farm in the early spring.

Mr. Craig is one of our best and most progressive citizens, and we shall regret to lose him from our number.

Mr. and Mrs. S. B. McKenzie came up from Stanford Sunday to see Mrs. McKenzie's brother, James Hatt Fish, who is home for a few days on furlough.

Mrs. McKenzie and children remained over a few days with her parents. Mr. and Mrs. G. C. Fish.

Dr. Grover C. Price and family, of Hudson, Ind., were here a few hours Sunday. Due to volunteer his service to our government last summer in order to avoid the draft, he was recently commissioned a First Lieutenant and is now in training at Ft. Ogden, Ill.

Miss Mary Bradley has resigned her place in the high school to accept a much better place in one of the schools in Pittsburgh, Penn. She leaves today.

Miss Virginia Bradley will fill her place until permanent arrangements for filling the vacancy can be made.

James Hatt Fish is home from Camp Green, Charlotte, N. C., for a few days, with his parents near town. Jones left here nearly five years ago and has been ranching in California until last August when he enlisted in the U. S. Engineering Corps. He will leave for Camp Green Sunday.

The professional man who buys an order house and a merchant who has his printing done out of town belongs to the same lodge—same degree.

Federal Food Administrator, Dr. M. Pennington deserves much credit for his activities in the various branches of organizations for National Defense. The doctor works diligently and conscientiously in any position he is called upon to fill or aid in publishing along. While he is known as chairman of the Food Committee, he gives his time and energy in the various lines of war duties.

A mistake was made last week as to the number of Red Cross members at Wildcat. There are 45 instead of 35 as reported.

The Mt. Vernon Red Cross has 42 active workers at sewing machines or with knitting needles. Their headquarters remind one of a clothing factory and knitting goods piled up adds to the scene of industry.

GOOD—W. O. Jones stands first on the list of 6,000 New York policemen examined to fill positions of sergeants of police. He stood first among New York five million when the city of New York asked to borrow a man from Gotham's police force who could clean up the vice conditions of a city.

To be sure the department stores tell you that if their goods are not satisfactory you can return them. Sure! But you have to pay express or freight both ways and you decide to keep them. If your home merchants goods are not satisfactory you can take them back and it costs you nothing.

The Somerset Board of Education was very wisely decided to have school on Saturdays or six days a week, in order to shorten the term, while the Jefferson County Board of Education closed the public schools this week in order to save coal and will make up the time by extension of the school term in June.

For the information of some who are not posted it would be well to understand that the Local Board, the chairman of the Fuel and Food Committees have the powers of Federal officers and Uncle Sam expects them to be respected accordingly, and the orders issued by them are strictly observed.

The Red Cross people, the Y. M. C. A's, the housekeepers, merchant business and professional men, farmers, and in fact all of the Rockcastle people are doing their bit, and then some in the great movement toward winning the war. Rockcastle people are usually up with the profession in lines of endeavor for progress and seldom lays in the rear.

NOTICE—To all that are owing me on accounts or notes, who have not made a payment within the last twelve months, are earnestly requested to come in and settle. If not settled within a reasonable time I will advertise these accounts for sale in public auction. Please come in and settle and save this trouble and oblige. JONAS MCKENZIE.

A meeting of the stockholders of the Mt. Vernon Fair Association is called to be held at the Court House in Mt. Vernon, Ky., at 2 p. m., February 1st, 1918 for the purpose of electing officers and directors for the year 1918 and for the transaction of any business that may come up at that time. All stockholders are earnestly requested to be present at this meeting.

It is of the utmost importance that you read every article in the paper on the subject of agriculture and conservation subject.

NOTICE—If those who wish to buy a monument or tombstone will see us at once, I can save you money, as I am thinking of going out of the monument business.

The American branch of the Red Cross is under the patronage and protection of the Federal Government. The organization is universally known throughout the world as being of transcendent importance.

Engineers will be put in the field as soon as weather permits for surveying, making estimates etc. of the gap in Dixie-Boone between Livingston and Parker's Branch, so as to get the construction started at earliest possible date.

A lawyer will give you five minutes of advice on any one topic, and charge you $5 for it. An editor will give you advice on a hundred different topics and charge you only 5 cents for it. And very often 5 cents given to an editor will save $5 given to a lawyer.

The track was cleared and traffic was resumed in a few hours.

ROAD CONSTRUCTION—Many people, who don't understand how important conditions have grown since the war, they consider the slowness in the construction of the highways through Rockcastle. Road building is a slow process under any conditions and considering the labor supply and other delays from causes requiring time to remove, good progress has been made.

In the opinion of old road builders there is no room for complaint over apparent delays.

DOMESTIC MENU—Miss Culver, Domestic Science teacher at Lexington Memorial school entertained at the Model Cottage on last Thursday evening the girls of the seventh grade cooking class, with a sweetened, meatless, wheatless, oatless dinner.

Attention is called to the professional card of Judge L. W. Bethurum, which appears in this issue of this paper. Heretofore the card has been run in the firm name of Bethurum & Lewas. The firm by mutual consent of the members has been dissolved. Judge Lewis withdrawing from the firm to take up his duties as County Attorney. Judge Bethurum will continue in the practice of his profession. It is unnecessary for this paper to call attention to his ability to handle business for the people, as he is well known, both personally and professionally, to the people of this county and throughout the state.

WAR COUNCIL IMPORTANT. It is of great importance that a large number of Rockcastle citizens are present at the meeting called to convene at the Court House on Monday, Jan. 28th, at 2 P. M. A number of vital subjects will be brought before the Council for action thereon, among them the preparation for a big corn crop; seed corn that will germinate; an increased production of the crop; plans for saving everything produced and other matters whereby the farmer (and others) can help the government and the government can help them. Come to this War Council and bring your neighbors.

Monday Closing Order

The order to close business on Monday will be observed as indicated last week with this change. All soft drink stands and soda fountains may keep open till noon on Monday, if in connection with other business that can maintain a list, but all fountains and soft drink stands must close at noon for rest of day and evening.

M. PENNINGTON, Chairman, Federal Fuel Committee.

The writer stopped between trains a few days since. Found a sandwich stand at restaurant that had sure enough ham in them and pies that had a crust instead of tough leather excuses as is found in some hash found eric; yours truly has patronized the most far distant past.

Mohday, was generally observed throughout the county as closing day. Some few places which were affected by the order failed to comply. Upon the whole, however, our people were glad to do anything that would help bring about the relief of those in distress and suffering as the result of the coal shortage. With us the coal supply is purely a local proposition, plenty for home consumption, but none to ship away, at war prices, and no reason for shipping any. From a coal standpoint, no other place could be more fortunate than Mt. Vernon. But that is not the question, regardless of conditions or the good it may do the spirit to help and willingness to sacrifice in any move for the general good, brands us as to the kind of citizen we are.

STOCK PENS. Farmers, businessmen and others have long also realized the importance of stock pens in Mt. Vernon. The time has come when the person who has a few head of stock to sell should be able to sell their stock at home instead of having to drive same to Stinford, Richmond or some other point. A number of farmers have already expressed an interest and on next Monday immediately after the adjournment of the War Council meeting, there will be held a short conference to which all who are interested are invited to stay and take part. Mr. Farmer if you want to realize full value on your stuff, help in the getting of this stock market, and start yourself the difference which the middle man makes, off of the sheep, hogs, cattle or whatever you may have to sell, or save the cost of having to drive your stock 30 or 40 miles to a market, and then often have to sell at a reduced price or drive back home at a heavy cost. A home market will save the difference and get that difference in the man's pocket who has something to sell. It means much to the producer and the support of the farmer is all that is needed to make the move a success. Be here next Monday, your presence and support is needed. Meeting will be held in Court house immediately after the adjournment of the War Council.

Don't overlook the seed corn question.

WAR ISSUES TO BE TAUGHT IN SCHOOLS

National Security League Will Teach Every Child Why U. S. Is at War and Must Win.

Alone in the masses involved in the great struggle, not only of delay, but of apathy and ignorance toward the war in many sections of the country, threatening at once the essential prosecution of the war and the moral prestige of the nation, the National Security League has issued an appeal for wide scope to other patriotic education in the schools of the country. The League has requested every educational institution in every state in the Union to give the civic education of each school for his or her jurisdiction, as a part of each day's actual teaching, instruction of the children in the reasons for the country entering the war, the sense of duty and the duty of every citizen to do his or her part in support of America's cause.

The Security League's plan is to carry its educational program directly to the school children of the land through them into the home, as they are the best and the most effective means of reaching the parents. The plan has been sent to all the state superintendents of education; the local school boards, principals, and the superintendents of schools of every city in the country. The plan is to be carried out by the teachers in the schools, and the plan is to be carried out by the teachers in the schools, and the plan is to be carried out by the teachers in the schools.

"Keen Patriotism." The keynote of the League's plan is expressed in the letters to the schools setting forth the purpose: "The spirit which our country abroad depends very largely upon the spirit of the American people and the unity of Congressional support in upholding the government. Victory will be achieved all the more speedily and certainly if there be in this country a strong and enthusiastic sentiment for the war. This can be reached by making it plain to the people why we are at war and the necessity of victory."

"The teacher is a powerful factor in preserving national liberty and honor. To set the facts before the children in plain and easily understood language will unquestionably result in the message being carried into the homes of the people and through clear understanding based on knowledge, a higher patriotism will be developed."

The Resolution. The Security League's resolution starting this campaign reads as follows: "Whereas War are now waged not only by armies, but also entire peoples, and it is the spirit of the people of the Allied nations which must win victory, we look with grave concern upon the alleged sedition views of certain teachers as a menace to the lives of our men in the army at sea."

"Resolved, That without prejudice to a written or views of any particular teacher or reflecting upon the majority of our teachers who are loyal and patriotic, we urge upon the Board of Education of the City of Mt. Vernon, and in fact of all cities, to remove from these teaching staffs forthwith any teacher who proves not to be supporting the conduct of the war and not upholding the federal government with absolute loyalty."

"Resolved, That, as a national necessity and as a war measure, we call upon every Board of Education, school commissioner and school committee to give into the curriculum of the schools without delay, as a part of each day's actual teaching, the facts showing why we are at war with Germany, the danger of failure to the country and the duty of every American to support the conduct of the war loyally and as soldier."

TRADE BODIES COMMEND WAR ADMINISTRATION

An encouraging result in these days of charges of disloyalty and criticism of public officials is supplied by the National Security League in a receipt of resolutions commensurate of the work of the Special War Congress, the President, the Cabinet and the Council of National Defense passed by trade associations, chambers of commerce and other commercial bodies in all parts of the country. This action by commercial organizations, representing practically every branch of business in the United States, is being taken in response to their circularization by the Security League following the passage of a resolution along the same lines by its Managing Committee.

The indorsement of the acts of the various agencies of the national government toward the aggressive and efficient prosecution of the war included in the Security League's resume comes from Texas, North Dakota, Montana—practically every state in the Union—and from organizations ranging from the Illinois Grain Dealers' Association and the National League of Automobiles to the Chambers of Commerce of Salt Lake, Erie, Mich., and Port Arthur, Texas.

The Security League's letter to the commercial bodies reads: "The Managing Committee of the National Security League has considered the following resolution, to which we invite your special attention: 'Resolved, That we urge the branches of the National Security League and all public bodies to express to Congress a keen sense of appreciation of the splendid constructive work done by our senators and representatives in enacting legislation to provide for the effective conduct of the war.'"

"And be it further resolved, That we point out that the remarkable record of Congress in late regard together with the wonderful work being done by the President and Cabinet and Council of National Defense is such as to merit the gratitude of the public and in fact of all liberty loving peoples throughout the world. It is but fair that opportunity be taken fully to convey to them these sentiments of the American people. Those who know that work will be inspired by the splendid example of their official representatives to render the last best measure of individual effort and service. The quality and unity of service that has been rendered to the nation during the past few months regardless of party lines is unparalleled in history."

"Kindly permit us to suggest that recognition would be a national public service at this time when the government and every one allied with it needs and deserves the sincerest support and cooperation of all citizens. Will you inform us of the passage by your body of this or a similar resolution?"

S. J. Small, manager of the Chamber of Commerce of Lewistown, Mont., writes that he hopes the League will place this resolution where it will do the most good."

LUSITANIA MEDAL

The recipient of the medal struck by the German in commemoration of the sinking of the Lusitania, above reproduced, is in the possession of Dr. Henry Van Dyke, of Princeton, N. J. The medal was struck by the United States to Holland. It was obtained for him by an American, and directly from Germany in 1916.

There is more Catarrh in this section of the country than all other diseases put together, and for years it was supposed to be incurable. Doctors prescribed local remedies, and by constantly failing to cure with local treatment pronounced it incurable. Catarrh is a local disease, greatly influenced by constitutional conditions and therefore requires constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Medicine, manufactured by F. J. Cheney & Co., Toledo, Ohio, is a constitutional remedy, it takes internally and acts through the blood on the mucous surfaces of the System. One Hundred Dollars reward is offered for any case that Hall's Catarrh Medicine fails to cure. Send for circulars and testimonials.

ATEXAS WUNDER

Under the name of ATEXAS WUNDER, we have secured a valuable discovery in the form of a medicine which will cure all cases of Catarrh of the bladder, and all other diseases of the urinary system. It is a powerful and reliable remedy, and is sold by all druggists.

“Watch Us Grow”

Those who have in mind the welfare and protection of any particular soldier in the service, will be interested to learn that they may apply for and pay the premium on the new War Risk Insurance for the soldier who has not already applied for a policy because he feels financially unable to carry it.

Judges, Sunday Schools, College fraternities, Employees of stores and shops, Farmers having employees in the service, relatives, individuals even entirely outside of the soldiers family or acquaintance, wealthy men, old to otherwise, their bit, are arranging to pay on policies for soldiers who have allotted their pay to dependents.

The simplest way is to advise the soldier to apply for the full $10,000, and to enclose to him a check for the first monthly premium, payable to the Bureau of War Risk Insurance, Treasury Department, Washington, D. C. Advise the soldier that you will send the subsequent monthly payments direct. The monthly rates on a $10,000 policy, protecting dependents in event of death, or the soldier in case of his becoming totally and permanently disabled, are as follows:

21, 22 or 23	$0.50
24 or 25	60c
26 or 27	67c
28	$6.80
29 or 30	7.00
31	7.00

Another way is to apply thru the Bureau of War Risk Insurance, Camp Zachary Taylor, Ky., for $10,000 insurance as the soldier's agent, first having procured from him authorization in writing as such agent, and sending check for the first monthly payment.

Of the many plans for materially helping the cause and at the same time our boys who are to do the real fighting, this is one of the best and most practical. It leaves the loved ones at home well protected in the event of the soldiers death or severe injury. His mind is free to do the serious work before him. He will go out to battle, untroubled by the dread that his family may become an object of charity, and with a purpose to stay and see it through, to return only when his task is accomplished and the "Kultur" and the Teutonic stain on civilization and Christianity exist no more.

The above is a splendid likeness of our new high sheriff, who has the confidence of everyone that knows him, and that is the biggest portion of the citizenship of Rockcastle, that he will make a true and faithful officer and at all times will be found trying to do his full duty. His deputies are W. G. Nisley and W. W. Anglin.

The Council of National Defense

No more critical days have been fallen since the time that Patrick Henry made his famous speech before the House of Burgesses when he uttered these words: "Give me Liberty or give me death." The sinister shadow of the Divine Rights of Kings casts over our land a pall that we dreamed had forever been dispelled by the sun of Liberty which flooded our land after the War of the Revolution. But our dreams of peace, secure from invasion, fostered by our spirit of "God's will toward all" have been rudely shattered by the avowed aims of the Masters of modern Germany to make the present day world subjects to their will. No means, however, food, has been left by them untried, intolerable suffering has no more effect on their ambitious hearts than a dewdrop on adamant; pity is as strange to their bosom as virtue to Lucifer. The well in which truth lies they never discovered. The God whose supremacy all men acknowledge, they condescend to treat as an equal; the pride of conquest, the lust of power, has never been so shamelessly exploited.

And we! We must stand together as one if we are to win; we must rub the sleep from our eyelids; bend the back and strain the muscles of our National being to triumph in the present conflict. Rich man and poor man without regard to race or creed will know the weight of the bond from which the land has been free since the day of George the Third, if we fail in this crisis. It is not enough to say "We will not fail!" We must use our power and resources to make failure impossible. The weapons of force used against us are augmented by insidious attempts to determine our confidence and to produce unrest among our people. Attempt has been made to range America against America; to excite greed at the expense of sacrifice for the National good. These are some of the forms of senseless activity of the enemy "within our gates" that we have to overcome that we may give our whole strength and power to the cause. We must stand as one! Work as one! Fight as one!

Red Cross Notes.

The Red Cross sweater has become so generally used by the patriots in contentions that they are almost the badge of the soldier, same as three links are badge of an Odd Fellow, and our boys appreciate them so much. They are comfortable and carry with them a message of love and substantial backing from the loved ones who cannot go with them over yonder.

W. H. Fish, of Mt. Vernon, has been appointed Chairman of the Publicity Bureau of this Chapter, and will make a good one. All notices of doings of the Red Cross should be sent to him.

The Civilian Relief Committee of the Red Cross is going to be one of the most important branches of this Chapter, not alone from the standpoint of money furnished, but to help those wholly or partly dependent to procure employment; help dependents get their claims properly prepared to procure Federal aid promptly; help keep up the high standard of education among those left behind; be ready to time if left in market; come home partly disabled; arrange a place for the man who cannot take up the work he left on account of wounds or lost health. These things will count in reconstruction after this horrible war is over as well as now, and Rev. H. T. Young and his able committee should have the backing and assistance of every citizen in Rockcastle County to make the work of this committee live after we have all crossed over the Silent River of Death.

CURED AT A COST OF 10 CENTS

"Right years ago when we first moved to Mattoon, I was a great sufferer from indigestion and constipation," writes Mrs. Robert Allison, Mattoon, Ill. "I had frequent headaches and dizzy spells, and there was a feeling like heavy weight pressing on my stomach and chest all the time. I felt miserable. Every morsel of food distressed me. I could not rest at night, and felt tired and worn out all the time. One bottle of Chamberlain's Tablets cured me and I have since felt like a different person."

TO THE FARMERS OF ROCKCASTLE COUNTY. SEED CORN.

I would like to impress upon the farmers of Rockcastle County the importance of testing their seed corn for this year 1918. Many of the north and north-western states will not have enough seed corn to supply a third of their need. Kentucky must help supply this corn. The early freezes and hard winter have made it necessary for each farmer to select and not only select but to test his corn and see whether it will grow or not. The following is a simple way to test corn: Take a piece of a sheet of good strong cloth. The white factory cloth will do. Spread it on a table and take a pencil and line this cloth off in two inch checks and number checks. Leave a good margin on both sides and ends so as to fold over the checks without disturbing the corn. Pick out the best corn for seed possible. Take from six to ten grains from each ear, number each ear to correspond with the check on the cloth. For instance, grains from ear number one should be placed in check number one. Wet the cloth and place it on a smooth table and place the grain on these checks. Fold over the sides and ends. Place a lamp wick at the end where you begin to fold over lamp wick reaching to the center of the cloth. This was a dry cloth around it and tie it with some string. Place it in a warm room with the wick hanging in a cup of water. Let this stand for six days (be sure it does not get cold at night) then unfold the cloth and see which check has sprouted the greatest number grains, the ones that have sprouted the best lay aside the ear that corresponds to the check number for seed.

I would like to have the names and addresses and varieties of corn of all farmers who have seed corn to sell. This will help the County Agent in giving information to those who wish to buy seed corn.

School Teachers Of Rockcastle County.

My dear teacher friends:—I believe the most important work that you can do now is helping the farmers to test their seed corn. You can do this through your schools. The students bringing the corn to school and testing it there. Then at the end of the week, when the corn has sprouted invite the parents who have had their corn tested and let them see how it has been done. As I said in the beginning it is an important patriotic duty. The winning of the war depends on our ability to make bread and for that reason I am asking the teachers and farmers to help in this seed corn campaign.

Will teachers desiring further information address County Agent, R. F. Spence, Berea, Kentucky.

Local Farmers To Get Nitrate

GOVERNMENT TO SELL NITRATE For Fertilizer Through County Agent

WASHINGTON, D. C., Jan. 25.—Notice has been given to R. F. Spence, Agricultural Agent for Rockcastle County, that the U. S. Department of Agriculture will sell at once a supply of nitrate of soda to farmers in Rockcastle County.

The nitrate was purchased through the War Industries Board under the authority of the Food Control Act as a part of the program for stimulating agricultural production. It will be unloaded at Atlantic ports and the price will be $75.50 a ton, free on board cars at port of arrival. Farmers are to pay in addition freight from port of arrival and the State fertilizer tax fee.

HOW TO OBTAIN NITRATE.

Applications for a part of the 100,000 tons of nitrate bought by the government will be received only from actual farmers or owners or holders of farms for use on their land and may be made through County Agent, R. F. Spence or through any member of a local committee, consisting of W. J. Sparks, chairman, S. P. Capdil, I. B. Chesnut, W. C. Johnson, and George Fish.

No money will be required with the application, but upon notice from the County Agent farmers, who have signed applications, must deposit with a local bank, association, or individual, designated by the Secretary of Agriculture, to act as the farmers' agent for that purpose, money to cover the cost of the fertilizer, except the freight charge. After the money is transmitted to Washington the nitrate will be shipped to the farmers. If applications for the nitrate exceed the supply of about 100,000 tons, the government will allot the supply on a pro rata basis among those who applied. Applications must be received by February 4th.

CHAMBERLAIN'S COUGH REMEDY.

Before using this preparation for a cough or cold you may wish to know what it has done for others. Mrs. O. Cook, Macon, Ill., writes, "I have found it gives the quickest relief of any cough remedy I have ever used." Mrs. James M. Knott, Chillicothe, Mo., says "Chamberlain's Cough Remedy cannot be beat for coughs and colds." H. J. Moore, Orono, Pa., says "I have been using Chamberlain's Cough Remedy on several occasions when I was suffering with a terrible cold upon the chest and it has always brought about a cure."

It is the DUTY of everyone to make an effort to aid, in some way, in the great struggle in which Americans are now engaged, the world war. Don't let it be said later on that to be few is the credit due for doing the actual work, as has often been the case in the past when nine tenths of the people sat back and allowed George to do it. It is either do or the Kaiser will do us. This is a time in which every citizen from the humblest to those who 'sit in high places' to render assistance. Post yourself. Read the papers, especially all articles, circulars, posters and literature on this most vital and important subject. Pass it along to your neighbor; get the people aroused on our situation; get people should like wariness and apathy prevail.

FOOD ADMINISTRATION.

In the effort made by the Government to protect the producer, wholesaler, retailer, and consumer, cooperation is being asked all along the line. The producer is guaranteed good prices for the food products that he can produce, but the producer of the raw material becomes the consumer of the finished product, and as such must have protection. The retail merchant is asked to conform to the general principle of seeking only such profits as would have been fair before the war began. Should any merchant refuse to do this, the Government will step in, upon sufficient evidence, and stop the whole flow from selling goods to the merchant. The retail merchant is protected in his buying by the wholesaler being required to abide by a standard price, based upon what would have been a fair profit before the war began. N. wholesaler can now sell now for so many pounds of sugar to one merchant. There is absolutely no opportunity for any one to spec or hoard in foodstuffs and keep out of trouble with the Government.

The Food Administration is also expecting cheerful cooperation on the part of every consumer who is a loyal American in the observance of Meatless, Whatless, and Potless days. Tuesday is Meatless, and Wednesday is Whatless. This means abstention from (white) wheat flour. Saturday is Potless.

WHILE Rockcastle has kept right up in the procession in the war work, making a creditable showing, when compared with other counties, that enthusiasm has not reached the hearts of many who should take the matter home most thankfully and seriously and acted upon with a firm decision and conscience with a steadfast resolve. "I will do my part."

RENDER every possible assistance and encouragement to the noble men and women of the various War Defense Committees, led by Mrs. Y. M. A., etc., who are giving their energies and time to a cause upon which his goes the continued liberty of our country.

When peace is declared let it go forth to the world: "And there stood old Rockcastle, her sons and daughters did their DUTY and no other locality or community excelled them in the attainment of honors well deserved for successful efforts put forth in aid of our liberty loving land."

It is confidently predicted that the U. S. Government will take over and maintain the thru highways when completed. Men in high places are advocating that procedure even before their completion.

Ask your neighbor how he feels with reference to the war conditions, and the dire results that might follow should he not aid others fully to uphold the Government's hands in the great struggle.

MEMBERS of the War Council at Washington favor the completion of the thru highways as soon as possible, regardless of cost.

By intercommuning for the cause leads aid to the Kaiser.

A WILDIE BOY WRITES

THANKS TO RED CROSS

Jack Wood, son of Mr. and Mrs. H. B. Wood, of Wildie, wrote the following to our Red Cross folks on receiving a Christmas box which they had sent:

December 29, 1917.
Mr. Vernon, Ky.

DEAR MISS CLARY: With my heart overflowing with appreciation, and stomach filled with delicious edibles, I take this means of thanking you, and the Red Cross, for the package which came yesterday.

Proud that I can be one among the Rockcastle boys who are doing their bit in establishing a world's Democracy, and when peace is finally brought to the world, your own boys will be among those who gladly and freely gave more than was demanded.

The one big object now, is to get the Kaiser, we will, and next Xmas shall see his back home in old Rockcastle, bigger, better, and happier for having done our bit.

With best wishes to you and every member of Red Cross, I am,
Yours very respectfully,
JACK WOOD

RED CROSS.

The National Security League will hold its next annual convention in Chicago, February 21, 22 and 23. Sponsored by an advisory committee including men and women of the highest prominence in all walks of life in the country, the League expects to have ten thousand delegates to assemble at Chicago for deliberation on the program and problems which it has outlined.

The gathering will be styled "A Congress of National States" and will be more upon popular education than any one of the previous conventions of the Security League. The invitation is issued by the following persons:

Theodore Roosevelt, former President of the United States.
William Brewster, former President of the United States.
Samuel Crompton, president of the American Federation of Labor.
Jacob M. Dickinson, former Secretary of War.

Johnathan Harrison, former Attorney General of the United States.
Dr. John Orr Hilbert, president of Princeton University.
Dr. Edward James, president of the University of Illinois.
Dr. Harry Pratt Snow, president of the University of Chicago.
Samuel W. McCall, Governor of Massachusetts.

Charles E. Brewer, Cleveland, Ohio.
E. T. Meredith, publisher of Success.
Paul Fanning Des Moines, Ia.
John Farney Mitchell, Mayor of the City of New York.
Mrs. Philip Noyes Moore, president of the National Council of Women.
G. W. Nichols, superintendent of Virginia Military Institute, Lexington, Va.

Charles Edward Russell, editor and publisher.
Mrs. Cordeiro A. Spivey, St. Paul, Minn.
Dr. Anna Howard Shaw, chairman, Women's Commission, National Defense.
Phillip B. Stewart, Colorado Springs, Colo.
Frank S. Stinson, Concord, N. H.
Booth Tarlington.
H. S. George Tucker, Washington and Lee University, Va.
Jesse T. Watkins, agent Mercantile Trust Company, St. Louis, Mo.
Miss Madeleine Wetmore, National League for Women's Service.

Dr. A. W. Wheeler, Chicago, former president of the Chamber of Commerce of the United States.

NEW PROBLEMS.

The invited leaders in part: "The war has forced new social, political and economic problems on America. It is necessary that these should be clearly and fully presented to the people. The nation is awakened through the united efforts of the patriots working to the effect of the solution of the problems on the existence of the republic, the success of democracy, and the preservation of the life of America throughout the world." The headquarters of the convention will be at the La Salle Hotel, Chicago, in addition to the regular meetings of the delegates and reports of assemblies there, a big session will be held outside the hotel, probably at Midway Temple, on Washington's Birthday.

WAR MISSIONARIES

American Orators to Talk to Men in the Trenches of France. The brotherly feeling of America for her allies and the determination of this country to exert its entire aid for victory are to be carried to the Englishmen and Frenchmen in the trenches by a staff of American orators, who will sail in a few days. The men to be selected for this important mission, who will be among the best speakers of their country, will tour the western fighting front and the principal cities of England and France on the auspices of the British Foreign Office. They will be chosen by the war council of the Y. M. C. A. The first man named was Rev. Dr. Samuel Prentiss, of Nyack, N. Y., who has been one of the most active workers in the National Security League's campaign of Patriotic Through Education in this country.

Dr. Prentiss was one of the principal speakers in the Red Cross 100,000,000 drive. He is an orator of unusual ability and was one of the instructors at the speakers' training camp held by the National Security League in Manhattan last July. A pamphlet written by him, entitled "How to Reach Your Audience," has been distributed by the Security League and is being used by patriotic orators in all parts of the country.

It is expected that the sending of an exchange of British and English speaking French orators, who will attend training camps and principal cities in this country.

It is the Y. M. C. A. that judge tries to make it, we have nothing less than the union of Church and State. As we explained before the work of the Y. M. C. A. is only a privilege, granted them by the government, as also the Knights of Columbus.

God bless the good work done by this organization, but what about bringing it to a higher standard of morality and efficiency. Who but moral degenerates would oppose this?—Advertisement.

You can rely on Cardui. Surely it will do for you what it has done for so many thousands of other women! It should help. "I was taken sick, seemed to be..." writes Mrs. Mary E. Veste, of Madison Heights, Va. "I got down to work, could hardly walk... just staggered around... I read of Cardui, and after taking one bottle, I felt much better. I took 3 or 4 bottles at that time, and was able to do my work." Keep it in the spring when run-down, find no appetite, and I commented saying: "It is the best tonic I ever saw." Try Cardui.

REWARD FOR HEROISM

Principal of Broodhead High School Gets Reward for Act of Bravery.

An appeal from Washington, D. C. dated Jan. 23rd says that Bronze medals were awarded nineteen and silver medals awarded six, by the Carnegie Commission for acts of bravery. Three of the number are Kentuckians, and one of the three is our worthy citizen, Prof. J. L. Pilkenton, of Broodhead. The special reads as follows:

"Joseph L. Pilkenton, Broodhead, Ky., bronze medal and $1,000 for a worthy purpose as needed.

Pilkenton, aged 48, teacher, saved Vivian B. Albright, aged 5, from being killed by a train at Broodhead, Ky., April 16, 1915. Vivian fell between the rails of a track on which a passenger train was approaching. Pilkenton ran sixty feet and stepped between the rails, reaching her when the train was about twenty feet away and advancing at a speed of fifteen miles an hour. He seized her and lifted her onto a platform off of the path of the train. He tried to follow her onto the platform, but struck his shid and fell. While he was still prostrate, his feet were on the platform and the track, the front part of the locomotive passed him; but he crawled onto the platform without being struck."

"God's finger touched him and he slept."—The expression of Tompson very much describes the passing of our Brother, James Daniel Griffin, who departed this life, January 7th, 1918, at the age of forty-seven years. Therefore, be it Resolved:

First, That in the death of Bio Griffin, Livingston, Council No. 167, J. O. U. A. M., has lost one of the very best, true and faithful members. His community good citizen, and his five children a kind and loving father.

Second, That we extend to the family and relatives our deepest heartfelt sympathy in this sad hour of bereavement. May they look to God, who doeth all things well; that he may watch over them, and give comfort in their sorrow.

Third, That a copy of these resolutions be sent to the family of the deceased, a copy sent to the Mt. Vernon Signal for publication, and a copy spread upon the minutes of our Council.
