A SINGING ARMY IN FRANCE.

The slogan indicates a new determination on the part of the Army Y. M. C. A. to meet the increasing needs of the soldiers boys for music in the camps according to a bulletin just received here from the Central Department headquarters of the National War Work Council of the Y. M. C. A. Following the declaration of Maj. Gen. Harry C. Hate that "a singing army is a winning army," the Army Y. M. C. A. is now planning to work for soldiers throughout the United States to beat the Germans at their own game.

Thirty eight of the foremost song leaders in this country are now at work in the cantonments of the United States, organizing the enlisted men by companies and barracks and teaching them a score of songs which they may sing together at reviews of on the march. It is stated that 47 such song leaders are provided for and this number will soon be reached. One song leader is being supplied in each of the army camps. In addition there are to be 12 itinerant song leaders who will instruct the men in singing at isolated points. The purpose of this Y. M. C. A. singing program is to develop song leaders among the ranks and make each military unit self maintaining as it moves "over there."

"Music alone competes with religion in the power to lift up man's heart and soul," says Marshall M. Bartholomew, in charge of singing instruction for the Y. M. C. A., in a statement issued here. "The two most military nations of the world have long recognized and systematically exploited this power. During a long residence in Germany before and during the present war, I had opportunity to study at first hand this important phase of army life, and more recently in Japan I made myself familiar with military music in my opinion, the singing in the German army has done more to keep up the morale of those troops and to stimulate the patriotism of the people than any other single influence."

The State Y. M. C. A. of Kentucky is trying to recruit thirty-five men per month for Army Y. M. C. A. service and a large portion of the men should be able to lead singing.

Inquiries can be addressed to C. A. Tevenhaugh, 345 Association Building, Louisville, Ky.

BRODHEAD

The sad news reached us Friday noon that Mrs. A. E. Albright, who was in a private sanatorium in Cincinnati under treatment for a complication of diseases, died at 6:30 a. m. Mrs. Albright had been in Cincinnati for almost a week at the bedside of his wife, and while her condition was considered critical the end came with little warning, the immediate family, Mr. Albright, the nurses, in fact her physician did not realize the seriousness, or rather unexpected that the end was so near. Death came so quiet and so calm that she went from a natural sleep into the sleep that knows no awakening. Mrs. Albright was a devoted member of the Baptist church, and while she made no display of her good deeds yet they were many. She was ever mindful of those who were of the less fortunate, and many of our town and community shed bitter tears because of the loss of one who had been a friend to them when friendship counts.

so much. Short services were held at the residence by the pastor, Rev. A. J. Pike, who baptised her when a little girl, and he was assisted by Rev. R. E. Noel and Mr. J. C. McClary of Stanford, after which her remains were laid to rest in the Baptist church cemetery. She is survived by her husband, Mr. A. E. Albright a prominent business man of our town, two daughters, Mrs. O. Vadon Misses, Hazel, Nina, Worth and Vivian, her mother, Mrs. O. W. Turpin, a sister, Mrs. J. W. Tavo, and two brothers. Possibly the largest number that ever attended a funeral in our town was present Sunday afternoon at 2:30 and remained until all was done that human hands could do, showing their sympathy for the bereaved ones, and endeavoring to comfort them. — Ed., and says from here Saturday.—W. J. McQueen bought a farm from Dr. Pennington, of London, last week for $3,000. This farm is in Laurel county, and Mr. McQueen is moving his family to it.

Short funeral services were held at the residence, Thursday noon, by Rev. M. G. Fish, after which his remains were brought here and buried beside his wife in the Christian church cemetery.—Mrs. Almona Watkins died at her home Saturday, and was buried in the Methodist church cemetery Monday noon. She leaves besides her husband, a week old baby—Mrs. W. A. Robins, of Corbin, is with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Sowder this week.—Walter Brown returned to Harlan county Sunday, where he is doing carpenter work.—Mrs. Allen Hyatt and her daughter, Miss Oma Brown, are critically ill and their recovery is considered very doubtful. Mrs. Ben V. Tiddle, another daughter of Mrs. Hlatt, is very sick. Mrs. Kiddle was just recovering from measles and she has her present sickness as a relapse of the measles. She is very ill.—Prof. and Mrs. J. L. Pilken ton were in Corbin several days this week. Mr. Pilkenton was looking after his duties there.

RESOLUTIONS

Whereas, Our Heavenly Father has seen fit to take out of her earthly home and transplant into the garden of glory, the life of our sister Dolly Albright, wife of Bro. A. E. Albright, and mother of five sweet girls, in her going away we feel that Broadhead Baptist church and Sunday school has given up one of its most faithful and efficient members; and whereas, the hearts of all our membership, and we might add the hearts of all Broadhead people, go out in the most profound sympathy to the bereaved husband and children.

And whereas, sister Albright's life in her home among her children and before the people of the town has been such as to merit the highest commendation of all with whom she came in contact; therefore it is resolved that we, the members of Broadhead Baptist church and Sunday school, do extend to the stricken family our deepest sympathy, assuring them that our hearts are beating in unison with theirs, in this dark hour and that our tears are freely mingled with theirs.

Be it further resolved, That we commend this dear father and children to the pity and loving compassion of our dear Heavenly Father, believing that whatsoever He does is for the best, and that our hearts are beating in unison with theirs, in this dark hour and that our tears are freely mingled with theirs.

WHEAT THE BATTLE LINE IN FRANCE THE PATRIOTIC PLEDGE

I have a family of persons living at my home. I have on hand about six pounds of wheat flour. I save that in my home we will not use more than six pounds of wheat products in thirty days for each person, including flour, crackers, Victory bread, macaroni, etc., until the next harvest comes in August. I agree to hold at my home all wheat flour which I have on hand over a thirty days' supply for my family on the ration of six pounds per month per person, and to dispose of such surplus as the United States Food Administration may direct in the interest of National Safety. If my surplus flour is given to the Government, I am to be paid what it cost me. I make and sign this pledge as an American citizen to aid in the winning of the war.

At out on the above pledge. Fill in the blanks. Sign your name and address and mail to your County Food Administrator at once.

Wheat! Wheat! Wheat!!! This is the great national necessity at the present time. It is needed for the immense armies who are sending abroad the British Line in Western France and all the American gas get "on the job" and drive the German Hordes back across the Rhine.

It is wheat flour that is so badly needed for bread stuffs over there. It is wheat flour that the American Government must have and our American Patriot at home must provide it by savings in the homes. There is no other source of supply till the next harvest. Thus duty calls us to our part in the war.

Knowing that all patriotic citizens are glad and willing to conform their household to the six-pound ration until the new harvest, but knowing also that we have some among us who are disloyal and pro-German and perhaps not aware of seeing sacrificed the splendid brave youth of the nation who are going from our borders to fight for our freedom, the Government is protecting our loyal citizens against those disloyals by needing this call for the saving of wheat flour. There is on the Statute Books a law against hoarding under which those who hoard an unreasonable amount of flour are being prosecuted by the Department of Justice in the Federal Courts. The penalty for convicted hoarders is a fine not to exceed $5,000, and imprisonment not to exceed two years, or both.

The Food Administration has determined the amount of wheat that is available from now until harvest for the American people. It has determined that a reasonable use must not exceed six pounds per month per person and has stated that it is unreasonable in this emergency to have on hand more than a thirty days' supply on this ration for our households.

Any person who has on hand more than this amount is liable to prosecution. The procedure is by indictment in the Federal Court. Recognizing, however, that many patriotic persons, following practices formerly considered legitimate and usual, have laid in larger quantities of flour than the six-pound ration, National Emergency is considered reasonable and right, and that many of these persons, since they are going from our borders to the Food Administration in the interest of fairness and justice, now offer to those citizens who have thus acted in good faith, the opportunity of showing their patriotism and insuring themselves against the notoriety and penalties the would result from prosecution.

No person in Kentucky, therefore, who makes and files with their County Food Administrator the statement disclosed in the Pledge at the head of this article and holds his surplus flour for the Government, agreeing to turn it over if it is needed, will be prosecuted by the Government for hoarding flour.

The Food Administration will not call for your surplus unless it is necessary, as when it does call, will have your thirty days' supply, but it must know where the flour is and it must have your promise to turn it over as a measure of National Safety.

In some Kentucky counties, owing to shortage of supply, it has already been found necessary to direct that excess holdings be marketed, but it is only in cases of emergency that such action is contemplated.

When you call on your County Food Administrator for the safety of our homes from the menace of the Huns. Don't let anyone say you are a slacker because you have not offered your surplus to the Government in time of need. Every pound of flour hoarded in this time of trouble. Remember also that the influence of your offer on other citizens not so patriotically inclined, may save the lives of many who may live on your own home town. Make your sacrifice for them and in the name of your Country's Roll of Honor!

FRED M. SACKETT, Federal Food Administrator for Kentucky.

U. S. Cornmeal Output Doubled. A canvass of the whole country by the Food Administration shows that the actual milling output of cornmeal increased from 3,000,000 barrels in October to nearly 6,000,000 barrels for March. During the past 18 months, the output of corn flour has increased 100 per cent.

No Sacrifice; Just a Change. The program of food conservation in the United States leads Missouri Harsh yet to say: "We Americans have not yet been asked for any real sacrifice. Behind our life the Weaver stands. And our short sight he dim.

Be it further resolved, That we commend this dear father and children to the pity and loving compassion of our dear Heavenly Father, believing that whatsoever He does is for the best, and that our hearts are beating in unison with theirs, in this dark hour and that our tears are freely mingled with theirs.

Be it further resolved, That we commend this dear father and children to the pity and loving compassion of our dear Heavenly Father, believing that whatsoever He does is for the best, and that our hearts are beating in unison with theirs, in this dark hour and that our tears are freely mingled with theirs.

PRESIDENT OPENS RED-CROSS DRIVE

One of the greatest, if not the greatest, demonstrations ever seen was the opening of the Red Cross Drive in New York. There were 75,000 people in line and millions of others lined the streets of the march and cheered them selves hoarse as the president of the United States, the commander-in-chief of the army and navy, who is also the president of the Red Cross organization, marched at the head of the procession. It was a most inspiring spectacle and one that could only occur in a Democratic country, where every law abiding man is as good as any other man; no matter of what degree. At night President Wilson spoke to a vast throng and stirred his hearers to the highest pitch of enthusiasm as he told of the accomplishments of the Red Cross and urged the necessity of every one "giving absolutely all that one can spare and until its hurts are then the heart's blood goes for it." Unlike his usual efforts, the president told a story or two which illustrated his meaning and were decidedly appreciated. The greatest man in all the world pleads for money for the greatest mother in the world. Surely no properly fitted person can give a dollar to the appeal. Save it to help those who are doing everything to make the world fitter to live in.

DO YOU ENJOY LIFE? A man in good physical condition is almost certain to enjoy life, while the bilious and dyspeptic are discontented, do not enjoy their meals, and feel miserable a good share of the time. This ill feeling is nearly always unnecessary. A few doses of Chamberlain's Tablets to open the stomach, improve the digestion and regulate the bowels is all that is needed. Try it.

The Farmer's Share

Live stock is marketed for farmer to consumer at a lower cost than almost any other farm product.

The United States Department of agriculture reported in 1916 that the farmer gets for his cattle "approximately two-thirds to three-fourths" of the final retail price paid by the consumer for the resulting beef.

Under normal conditions, the farmer's share of retail prices of various farm products is approximately as follows:

Butter	40 per cent
CATTLE	62 1/2 to 75 per cent
Eggs	50 per cent
Potatoes	65 per cent
Poultry	65 per cent
Fruits	35 per cent

The difference between farmer's price, and retail price represents the necessary expenses of packing, freight and wholesale and retail distribution.

Swift & Company not only performs the manufacturing operations of preparing cattle for market in its well-equipped packing plants, but it pays the freight on meat to all parts of the United States, operates 500 branch distributing houses and most cases even delivers to the retail butcher. All this is done at an expense of less than 2 cents per pound, and at a profit of only 1/4 of a cent per pound of beef.

Large volume business and expert management, possible this indispensable live-stock raiser and the consumer and make possible the larger proportion of retail prices received by farmer.

Year Book of Swift and Company, on request, will be sent free of charge. Address: Swift & Company, Union Stock and Bond Building, Chicago, Illinois.
