LIVINGSTON

Mr. and Mrs. I. W. Catlin have returned from Cincinnati. Miss Ella Argensbarger, of Knoxville, is visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. D. K. Argensbarger. Mrs. S. C. Mullins and Mr. and Mrs. Edgar Hill will leave for a few days visit with relatives in Lexington. Mr. and Mrs. Henry Lee, son of Mr. and Mrs. T. C. Welch, had the misfortune to get his arm broken Tuesday. Dr. Amys was called and he seems to be resting well later. Mr. and Mrs. W. M. Thompson, of the Loret Green section, has been visiting relatives in Corbin and Livingston, for the past week. Since our last letter J. W. Bazer, Jr., has moved to town and put in a scale of merchandises. Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Ashcraft, near Dallas, has been letter part of last week to attend the funeral of her father E. H. Owens. Mrs. V. C. Owens and children, of Hazel Patch, have been visiting relatives here for a few days. Dr. R. G. Webb has purchased and is installing a $2,000 fountain. It looks like we all can keep cool if we have the coin. B. H. Griffin left Tuesday night to confer descriptive of Uncle Sam. He goes to Indianapolis. This makes three brothers to enlist. It looks like they are doing their part to fix the hat on Jim. The best expert soldier some of our boys. We had begun to think that the pipe on the river will do an act not today the survivors are here and have started the survey of the pipe, so now it is a reality and they claim that the work will be pushed. Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Arnold, of West Virginia, are visiting relatives. F. Dees is overhauling his telephone lines here and adding new phones. Mr. A. Wolf, who has been quite sick for a long time, remains about the same. Mrs. J. P. Owens, of Pineville, is visiting relatives here. Mrs. M. Wolf has returned from a few days visit with relatives at Lexington. We have been silent for several weeks, as far as a letter from this place is concerned and the editor even returned to have a search warrant issued for us to see if we could be found. Well, here we are at the front again, ready to dig up the news. We have been very busy in the past few weeks as work seems to be increasing. We see our friend Robins, of Breedin, claims that he has lost us. We have returned and at our post again, ready to give all the news we can, ready to do it all we can to help the Hun and carry the Stars and Stripes to Berlin and place them on the list of peace of the city, where we are satisfied they will be ere this war is over and peace and good will will reign among men. Mr. and Mrs. Ed Graves, of Cokington, Ky., are visiting relatives here this week. Ed is just recovering from a severe case of typhoid fever. Maurice Cotton, has a job of firing on the rail road and will go to Paris in a few days. Mrs. Thomas Farley, who has been quite sick for some time, is some better. Ed says, this is a busy week. Everybody is doing his part, or, unless he is here there are any leaders now, you can put it down that they will not work for there is work for everyone. The litter has no excuse now, nor will they have soon. Some of these days were going to have one of these bombings. This will be when the murderous Hun lay down their arms and sue for mercy, when the red-handed, blood thirsty Kaiser, and the rest of his tripe, are de-throned. We will not express our feelings, but mothers there will be a homecoming which many Stars and Stripes have been carried to Berlin, when auto-pilots and Kaiserism will be a thing of the past, then the boys will return home, and until then let's try and strive to do all in our power to help win this war. We have been informed that our police judge has resigned, as has also the mar- and many of the cabinet. We do the town justice we will see that we were getting along fine until a few days ago when a few 14th discharges arose and the magistrate will settle them. Our friend Robins wanted to know what has become of us? One of his letters and now we believe we has gone to hunt us, but hope he will return soon.

Died July 4th James H. Owens at the age of 79 years. He had been in very poor health for five or six years and about a year ago he had a stroke of paralysis from which he just the use of his left arm. About 11 o'clock Wednesday he had another stroke from which he died about 7 p.m. July 4th. He leaves his wife, one son, the writer, two daughters, Mrs. Sarah C. Inaboudi, of Dallas, Pulaski County, and Mrs. Marilla Wells, of Cincinnati, O., one brother and two sisters and a host of other relatives and friends to mourn his loss. He was laid to rest in the McGuire burying ground to await the call of his master. All those that have had a like experience know the feelings of the writer.

Flierhart, the London photographer, will be in Livingston every Sunday morning during the month of July.

BRODHEAD

Twins, a boy and a girl, were born to the wife of Ed Barber, last week. Mrs. C. E. Fanner, of Livingston, was the guest of the family of W. A. Carson, last week. Mr. and Mrs. O. V. Jarrett, of Berea, were with relatives here during the week. We understand that they will soon move to our town. Mrs. Bertie Thrapp, and Miss grand daughter, Elizabeth Francisco, arrived here from Hazard county, Saturday. Mrs. Tharp, who has been here several months with her daughter, Mrs. Wm. Francis, will remain here, and in a few weeks Mrs. Francisco will move back to their home in Berea. Mrs. Francisco will remain there where he has a good position. Lee McHargue, of London, was here Saturday on business. R. L. Smith and S. S. Purcell were on the Stanford stock market Monday with fifty head good stock cattle. D. M. Cress ship a car each on loads and loads here Wednesday. Sayers & Hann a car each of boys and the writer Bowling accompanied her father, Mr. West, to his home in Laurel county, Tuesday. She will return home the last of the week. Miss Elizabeth Davis, and brother David, of Staeville, are with their aunt, Mrs. R. H. Hann, this week. D. B. Chandler took Mrs. Chandler to the Norton Memorial Infirmary, Louisville, Thursday, to be operated upon. Dr. and Mrs. W. F. Carter accompanied them. Mrs. Chandler has been in poor health for several months and it is thought that an operation is very necessary. A number from here are attending the Institute at Mt. Vernon, this week. Misses Ella Belle Newland, Hazel Albright, Nina Albright and Elizabeth Davis, were in Mt. Vernon, Wednesday, between trains. Everett Watson was at home Sunday from West Point. Mr. and Mrs. Josh Wilson, of the Bee-Lick section, were with her father, Mr. J. T. Lawrence, during the week. Miss Jo Davis, of Mt. Vernon, is spending several days with her sister, Mrs. Walter Robins, here in Goodly, Livingston, holo France. We understand that our good friend of Livingston is in the front line trenches and that accounts for no news from that good town for the past few months, but we hear he is on the way and when he arrives there will be no scarcity of news then.

FOR WEAK WOMEN

In use for over 40 years! Thousands of voluntary letters from women, telling of the good Cardui, has done them. This is the best proof of the value of Cardui. It proves that Cardui is a good medicine for women.

There are no harmful or habit-forming drugs in Cardui. It is composed only of mild, medicinal ingredients, with no bad after-effects.

TAKE CARDUI

The Woman's Tonic

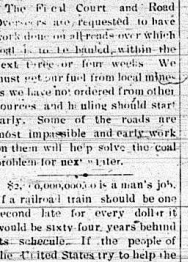

You can rely on Cardui, Surely it will do for you what it has done for so many thousands of other women. It should help.

"I was taken sick, seemed to be... I was in Madison Heights, Va. I got down so weak, could hardly walk... just staggered around... I read of Cardui, and after taking one bottle, or before taking quite writes that I had better. I took 3 or 4 bottles at that time, and was able to go to work in the spring when run-down. I had no appetite, and commenced eating. It is the best tonic I ever saw." Try Cardui.

COUNCIL OF NATIONAL DEFENSE

The Kentucky Council of Defense means to put on an all day war conference in Rockcastle county, August 6th. This will be a get-together patriotic and business gathering. Many speeches and discussions of meth-

Candidate for the Republican Nomination for Congress

W. J. HOWARD

If you believe that bankers and lawyers are the only people to draw and enjoy the big fat salaries, and if you believe further that coal barons and merchant princes are endowed with a patriotic wisdom that will nourish civilization and peacefully bless the human race, then vote for Mr. Robison, who is a banker, a lawyer and a mine owner, or for Mr. Edwards, who is president of the United States and one of the nation's greatest wholesale merchants, both of whom have proven to be selfish dollar makers, which very much to be regretted, brought the world to this, the most horrible crisis known to history.

Over There... it is a man's job to "Over There." And we now know that it is a man's job over here. Don't cry out against the United States government and its subscription list. Did you ever stop to think that the boys "Over There" can't stop after they fight one battle and take their own life to fight the next one? It's the life and blood and wounds "Over There" is their dollar and cents over here. Take your choice. It's taxes one month. Read Cross the next Liberty Bonds the next. Y. M. C. A. funds the next and K. O. subscriptions the next. That's all right. "Over There" it is gallantry, bravery, valor, and heroism, and they are not getting a percent compound interest on their investment of life and limb. Wouldn't you like them to know that Kentucky did not hesitate to invest money while they invested their lives? Look upon the War Savings Stamps as a man's job just as you looked upon the Third Liberty Loan.

There is more Catarrh in this section of the country than all other diseases put together, and for years it was supposed to be incurable. Doctors prescribed tonics, but they failed to cure. Catarrh is a local disease greatly influenced by constitutional conditions and therefore requires constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Pills are the only medicine of its kind, and are the only medicine that can be taken by F. J. Cheney & Co., Toledo, Ohio. Sold by all Druggists, 75c. Hall's Family Pills for constipation.

IN REMEMBRANCE

In fond and loving remembrance of our dear companion and mother, Sarah H. Hoak, who passed away July 7, 1917.

Our dear one is gone, but not forgotten. Never will her memory fade, Sweetest thoughts will ever linger Around the grave where she is laid.

We loved her, oh we loved her, But the Savior loved her more, So the Angel sweetly led her To that bright and happy shore.

The golden gates were open, A gentle voice said come, And with farewell spoken, She calmly entered home.

It was so hard to part with her, Our sorrow to see her here, But then we will try to meet her, Some sweet day here and by.

Gone from our home, yes, forever, Although we waited here to stay God has his Infinite plan. Sent his Angel to take her away.

THE NAME BEHIND THE FIRE

"I wouldn't swap my G & J for any other tire made. Why? Because I know the name behind the tire. G & J means that I can have the product of all superior tire makers who stand back of every tire they put out. I know this tire really; are not apt to puncture; protect you from accidents; and hold up to my mind are the best tires in use. One of many hundreds of users' opinions. I know that if your car is fitted with G & J TIRES."

Allow no one to deceive you in this. All Counterfeits, Imitations and "Just-as-good" are but experiments that trifle with and endanger the health of Infants and Children—Experience against Experiment.

What is CASTORIA? Castoria is a harmless substitute for Castor Oil, Paregoric, Drops and Soothing Syrup. It is pleasant. It contains neither Opium, Morphine nor other narcotic substance. Its gentle laxative action is so reliable for Constipation, Flatulence, Wind Colic and Diarrhoea; allaying Feverishness arising therefrom, and by regulating the Stomach and Bowels, aids the assimilation of Food, giving healthy and natural sleep. ## Meat Must Be Sold Fresh meat is perishable. It must be sold within about two weeks for whatever it will bring.

A certain amount of beef is frozen for foreign shipment, but domestic markets demand fresh, chilled, unfrozen beef.

Swift & Company cannot increase prices by withholding meat, because it will not keep fresh and salable for more than a few days after it reaches the market.

Swift & Company cannot tell at the time of purchasing cattle, what price fresh meat will bring when put on sale. If between purchase and sale, market conditions change, the price of meat must also change.

The Food Administration limits our profit to 9 per cent on capital invested in the meat departments. This is about 2 cents per dollar of sales. No profit is guaranteed, and the risk of loss is not eliminated.

As a matter of fact, meat is often sold at a loss because of the need of selling it before it spoils.

Swift & Company, U.S.A.

His resignation becomes effective July 15th. Livingston is in the lead in War Savings Pledges as leading number of Limit Members. That district subscribed $12,000.00 and has several Limit Members. A photograph of homefolds pleases the soldier more than any thing you can give them. Let kismet make it for you. He will be in Mt. Vernon every Saturday during the month of July. Word reached us just before going to press that Eliza Langford, whose death has been expected for several weeks, had passed into the great beyond, from the ravages of that terrible disease consumption. Eld. James Riddle will preach at the John Graves grove next Sunday morning at 11 o'clock. On the third Sunday he will preach at Brindle Ridge and on the fourth Sunday at Pine Hill. Each service will be at 11 o'clock. The War Savings workers are still busy and will not let up until they have seen every one in Rockcastle and given them a chance to lend our Government what they can. There are a few schools which have turned in an absent list but it is hoped these will all be wiped out before the final report is turned in to Washington. If you happen to be on that absent list of your district get your name on a pledge card to-day or phone the Chairman of your district or the County Chairman and they will do it for you. Kentucky must raise its fifty million and Rockcastle must raise its quota. The young folks arranged a most delightful outing and picnic at the "Big Fill" for last Wednesday evening in honor of John P. Landrum, of the Navy, who is at home on a ten days furlough and will Thompson who has returned from war as training at Camp Sheridan. It was a most pleasant evening for all and the young ladies certainly did their part in preparing lots of good things to eat. The following is the list of those who enjoyed the pleasant outing: Misses Edith McCoy, Margaret Welch, Robert Phillips, Ozie Silvers, Amy Proctor, Bonnie and Bessie Nicely, Lula McCoy, Julia Fish, Margaret Sparks, Christine Davis, Viola Brock, Virginia Crawford, Rissie Williams, Ruth Landrum and Mrs. Nicholas Randolph Megars, John P. Mrs. Jane French, age 75 died Wednesday morning at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Shell, at Level Green. Mrs. French's home was in Harlan County. Mrs. Mattie Childress, of Plato is also a daughter of the deceased. The burial took place at Friendship yesterday. The following is the list of Rockcastle boys who will train for Fort Thomas next Monday. The list is as follows: Arthur E. Rice, Ervin Rice, Harmon Skidmore, Earl Phillips, Charles Crawford, Delbert Gray, Baker, Bud Clark Addison Gray, Don Ball, William Thomas, Wesley Settles, Fred Oscar Greener, Henry Logan Renner, Cloyd Cummins, Bill Poynter, George Henry Doan, Henry F. Todd, George Washington Herald. Hayes Frank Bullock. The Anti-liquor-shipping bill, passed by the recent Kentucky Legislature became effective July 20th. It is now unlawful for any intoxicant of any character to be brought into Rockcastle county even for personal use. The express companies, railroads and all other conveyances are prohibited from carrying any intoxicating liquors. Not only that, but an individual cannot go to Lebanon, Lexington or any other wet spot and bring on his person any intoxicants of any kind for his own use or that of another. This is a good law and the people of this county expect the officials to rigidly enforce it. TEACHERS INSTITUTE. Another splendid session of Rockcastle County Teachers Institute will come to a close today. This is the third institute in succession, with Prof. Ireland as the instructor. There is no question but that he improves with age. One notable fact was that there were very few young men to be found among the teachers. There are a few who are "too old to fight," making a large percentage of the teachers ladies. Many of the teachers will teach their first school this year, but many of them we know and we also know that they are better qualified than some who have been trying to teach for years. The week has been both pleasant and profitable and we expect to see many good results from this week of instruction and the inspiration which the teachers have received from the number of splendid talks made by visitors as well as our home people and the splendid instructor, Prof. Ireland. The following is the list of teachers enrolled: Miss Lula Owens, " Ozzie Houston " Ozzie Barton " Lucy Mink " Artie Coffey " Winnie Fallin " Bernice Alcorn " Berta Hensley " Lena McCall " Willie King " Nancy Hamlin " Byrda Robinson " Laura Howard " Georgia Gentry " Ida Hamlin " Rose Gentry " Rilda Chandler " Mollie Woodall " Lola Norton " Dorothy Owens " Lillie Seaborn " Sallie Mullins " Nellie Norton " Esther Staverson " Candice Morris " Ozie Silvers " Flora Pittman " Tabitha Hutt " Mary Cummins " Viola Deborn " Grace Large " Marie Brannaman " Ella Lake " Effie Bell Chastain " Lela Mullins " Cordia Hammond " Grace Griffin " Edith Phillips " Ella Mae Coffey " Selby Payne. Mrs. Georgia McClure was thrown from a buggy yesterday afternoon and has a broken leg in the right leg as the result of the fall. Master Owen Meadows was driving a pony and had Mrs. McClure get seated in the buggy, the pony began turning around and upset the buggy. The boy was not hurt. Food Administration. Producers of poultry and eggs can ship their own product without a license. Dealers who ship without a license will get in trouble with the Government. Retail merchants who do not get their applications for sugar certificates in before July 15th will be unable to buy any more sugar this year. Retail merchants can no longer furnish customers with a certificate to buy twenty-five pounds of sugar for canning purposes. Some body has misused these certificates. The twenty-five pounds of sugar can still be bought for canning purposes, but to the County Food Administrator has to issue the certificates. The merchant who sells this sugar can send these certificates to his wholesaler and buy sugar on them to replace the sugar for canning. The merchant's allowance is to be sold for regular table purposes, and to customers who will agree to use not more than three pounds per month for each individual. The Government buying of wool is still so complicated that it will be advisable for small producers to sell to local buyers. No local buyer can be a profiteer in this process. Any local buyer can buy wool, as it will ultimately reach the Government factories. Millers can grind wheat for the farmer and deliver to him on the basis of twelve pounds of flour for each thirty days, for each individual in the family. The miller can receive an amount of wheat equal to a nine months supply, but the last six months supply can not be delivered now, but is subject to any ruling issued later. But the consumer in every case must agree to use an equal amount of flour substitutes. H. T. YOUNG, Rockcastle County Food Administrator, Mt. Vernon, Ky.

"I used a bottle of Chamberlain's Colic and Diarrhoea Remedy about nine years ago and it cured me of flux (dysentery) I had another attack of the same complaint some three or four years ago and a few doses of this remedy cured me. I have recommended Chamberlain's Colic and Diarrhoea Remedy to dozens of people since I first used it."

Are the Packers Profiteers?

Plain Facts About the Meat Business

The Federal Trade Commission in its recent report on war profits, stated that the five large meat packers have been profiteering and that they have a monopoly of the market.

These conditions, if fair and just, are matters of serious concern not only to those engaged in the meat packing business but to every other citizen of our country.

The figures given on profits are misleading and the statement that the packers have a monopoly is unsupported by the facts.

The packers mentioned in the report stand ready to prove their profits reasonable and necessary.

The meat business is one of the largest American industries. Any citizen who would familiarize himself with its details must be prepared for large totals.

The report states that the aggregate profits of four large packers were $140,000,000 for the three war years.

This sum is compared with $19,000,000 as the average annual profit for the three years before the war, making it appear that the war profit was $121,000,000 greater than the pre war profit.

This compares a three-year profit with a one-year profit—a manifestly unfair method of comparison. It is not only misleading, but the Federal Trade Commission apparently has made a mistake in the figures themselves.

The aggregate three-year profit of $140,000,000 was earned on sales of over four and a half billion dollars. It means about three cents on each dollar of sales—or a mere fraction of a cent per pound of product.

Packers' profits are a negligible factor in prices of live stock and meats. No other large business is conducted upon such small margins of profit.

Furthermore—and this is very important—only a small portion of this profit has been paid in dividends. The balance has been put back into the business. It had to be, as you realize when you consider the problems the packers have had to solve—and solve quickly—during these war years.

To conduct this business in war times, with higher costs and the necessity of paying two or three times the former prices for live stock, has required the use of two or three times the ordinary amount of working capital. The additional profit makes only a fair return on this, and as has been stated, the larger portion of the profits earned has been used to finance huge stocks of goods and to provide additions and improvements made necessary by the enormous demands of our army and navy and the Allies.

If you are a business man you will appreciate the significance of these facts. If you are unacquainted with business, talk this matter over with some business acquaintance—with your banker, say—and ask him to compare profits of the packing industry with those of any other large industry at the present time.

No evidence is offered by the Federal Trade Commission in support of the statement that the large packers have a monopoly. The Commission's own report shows the large number and importance of other packers.

The packers mentioned in the statement stand ready to prove to any fair minded person that they are in keen competition with each other, and that they have no power to manipulate prices.

If this were not true they would not dare to make this positive statement.

Furthermore, government figures show that the five large packers mentioned in the report account for only about one-third of the meat business of the country.

They wish it were possible to interest you in the details of their business. Of how, for instance, they can sell dressed beef for less than the cost of the live animal owing to utilization of by-products, and of the wonderful story of the methods of distribution throughout this broad land, as well as in other countries.

The five packers mentioned feel justified in co-operating with each other to the extent of together presenting this public statement.

They have been able to do a big job for your government in its time of need; they have met all war time demands promptly and completely and they are willing to trust their case to the fairness of the American people with the facts before them.

ROADS

If you maintain roads you help with the war.

There is not such a shortage of men who want to work.

Why can't we slip the argumentative and educational programs and build and maintain roads now.

Everybody is for good roads the same as we are for good air and good health, but the man that is ready for roads is for the good Road Tax.

A county that has a good county road engineer will have good roads, but pity is expressed for a county that is burdened with an inefficient road engineer.

A good road survey must be made if the road is built as cheaply as possible.

Everybody knows that the roads cannot be maintained under existing conditions without more revenue.

RED WOOL?

Colonel Bob—(Red Kernel)—
County Agent Bob—Says So?

(By Jas. T. Brown, of Berea.)

Down in Eastern Kentucky they've got a young man of red blood—that sees red as the color best adapted for men, women, animals, corn, etc.—This red philosophy comes to him by comparison, contrasted through experience and consensus of opinion—that it has become a doctrine and counterpart of his instruction, for the guidance and safety, in those initial efforts towards progressive farming and breeding, etc. His predilection for the red dominates his talks, and he proves the verities thereof by observation and examples, etc., so that out of an army of converts, there is a battalion known as the "Red Battalion," from the Daniel Boone trail leading to and from Berea, Ky. Our "Bob" is the Colonel (red kernel) of these reds. In some of the mountain communities, he is spotted as "E. L. Red" for his advocacy for the Rhode Island Reds, as the hen for productivity in the egg line at all times. Then again as "Red Cattle Bob"—his fondness for red cows and bulls as best yielders in calves, milk and cream fatteners that title to him too.

"Red Hog Bob" falls from the lips of many. He is ardent in his attachment for the red hogs (Durocs) as superior in their product numerically—their appetite for roughage—their swiftness in putting on pounds of fat and pork etc.—'tis a fad with him and evinces surcess of judgment and big payoffs to all of his followers—"clean pens and surroundings and vaccination to prevent cholera," is a slogan, coming from him persistently at all of his meetings.

Quite as often as "Red Corn Bob" for this is a corn country, his partiality for the red corn to show offener than the white corn. He is not in any objection, but a red and distinctive veneration; he reasons and proves that red corn makes sweeter—and more palatable cornmeal; as it runs to larger kernels, even in formation, and as a rule more to the average cob than white or yellow.

So sure of his success in other red directions, he is on the march to bring forward a breed of sheep to produce red wool; its white and black now, why not red? He's devout in his purpose and positive too, for the result.

The "red battalion" will give him another title of "Red Sheep Bob" when he goes among them, if his object is attained.

This titled gentleman and a new Kentucky Colonel (red-kernel), is a native Kentuckian from the neighborhood of Berea, Ky., son of a farmer and a graduate of that famous and unique Berea College, that institution for the education of the boys and girls of the mountain section of Kentucky, etc.

He is a member of the extension service of the State University, and as such has state authority in the presenting of agricultural knowledge to the seekers of such information which is rendered on call or visitation in his pleasing and intelligent manner.

He also shines pre-eminently as a County Agent for the U. S. Agricultural Department and a successful missionary, in the cause of progressive farming and cattle raising etc., and would wear a red uniform if the U. S. would let him, but Robert F. Spence, County Agent, Berea, Ky., rides a near red Kentucky horse, as proud and handsome an animal that can be seen—it answers to the name of "Red Bird." This new Kentucky Colonel with his red philosophy that has become an obsession, and may incite the desire for a heritage from a red-headed mate, says an editor for he is single and liable to find the agreeable one some day.

Red wool growing on a sheep's back is something to look for—it will be the next surprise.

WAYSIDE NOTES

G. C. Hayes agent North Winchester has a three months vacation and is spending it in Montana with his brother Lloyd, Russell Proctor, of Mt. Vernon is left in charge of railroad affairs during Mr. Hayes' absence.

"The first woman" watchman in Kentucky was placed in charge of the Main street crossing L. & N. July 1st, succeeding William Baker, of Rockcastle who was another duties.

William Baker was in Memphis first of the month to see Mrs. Baker who has been seriously ill for past month. He brought "Biggas" and his young sister back with him and they are with a sister in Lockland, Ohio.

Great activity in grain threshing during past week. Yield is turning out well.

A Winchester sign for room renting says: suitable for "light house keeping." Rather distant from the sea.

The newly added nickname for the "Red" "Red" Elizabeth, could "consistently be accompanied by the "Red Beetle."

Winchester has the distinction of being the only city in our country that has been presented with a flag and staff. The Second Regiment.

Words in general use during war of 1860s: Ementé, Skocaddie, Copperhead, Butterant, Greyback, Hard-luck, Yank, Johnny Reb, Corolla, Backwash, Skirmish, Home guard, Refugees, etc. Among popular songs and tunes during those trying days were: The Bonnie Blue Flag, Just Before the Battle, When you and I were young Maggie, Tramp, Tramp, Tramp the Boys are Marching, Fisher's Hornpipe, Cornstalk, The Red, White, Blue, Dixie.

On Sunday last James Pinkerton and the writer under charge of the expert driver John R. Albright, made a trip "down on the Hanging Fork," in Lincoln county, on Boone Way between Stanford and Danville to visit the family of James T. Hackley, whose wife is a sister of the writer. The visit was made especially to meet Joseph G. Hackley a nephew of the writer who is in from London, England. Mr. H. is one of the Western Electric Co's expert electrical engineers, who has been located in European work, with headquarters at Antwerp, Belgium until the big war opened which necessitated a removal across the channel to old London town.

It was the good fortune of yours truly to secure at the hands of Mr. H. souvenirs in the shape of London brought down at Big Zepelins in October 1916. Broodings of aluminum used in the monster machines in which twenty tons of this metal was used are among the souvenirs in possession of this overseas visitor who returns to London September first, after staying in Chicago directing the manufacturing of material etc for use of the companies London house. The particular Zep from which we have souvenirs was seven hundred feet long and sixty feet in diameter. It men dered in three minutes and Mr. Hackley's rooming place there, even at that distance the blaze from bursting ship lighted up the streets to a greater brilliancy than a full moon. More than a hundred thousand Londoners visited this scene of the fall next day. The remains of the monster machine covered acres of ground and at several points the debris was three feet in depth. Sixteen Germans met their death in the fall. The bodies were given a military burial and the victims names inscribed, when obtained. "Incendiary bullets" or bombs were used in bringing this air vulture to earth, by being fired into the huge envelope of the machine setting fire to the immense store of gas therein. No more Zepp's ventures on these excursions the airplanes have taken their place. The English available defense against them are now such that the enemy is "skittish" about venturing on raids. One of these forms, in addition to anti-aircraft guns, is that hundreds of captive balloons attached to three mile cables, sent up into the air every night, across the city for many miles. When an airplane strikes one of these cables it becomes entangled and drops to the earth. Raids made at night, the aviators fail to see the cables until striking them, and if made in daytime the anti-aircraft guns do the work for them. Thirty three raids have been made on London since Mr. Hackley's residence in that city. As many a hundred people have lost their lives in a single explosive from bombs dropped from the air. Three forms of missiles are used by the enemy. Explosive bombs, incendiary bombs and darts. The first named explode upon contact with the earth or obstacle, the second is made with a phosgene point, and is of such weight that when dropped will force its way through five floors of a building and is arranged to immediately start a fire from chemicals, consisting of aluminum dust and oxide iron, which when set on fire from a detonator in the bomb makes molten iron of the mixture with a 5,000 degree Fahrenheit. In the early days of the war on some of these raids as many as a dozen fires were under way at the same time. Owing to good organization and preparations made for these emergencies the fires are quickly subdued. Fifty planes are sometimes sent upon these raids to never more than five venture over the city, and they only for a short distance, fending these balloon cables. The majority drop bombs near outskirts of city and return home reporting they have bombed London. The Rhineland cities of Germany are now getting some of the medicine the Hunns have been giving to London and the citizens panic-stricken are after the war-crazed Kaiser to call off his London campaign as many as a dozen times, thereby to appease the Allies to the extent of withholding air roads over German territory. Mr. Hackley's conclusions are that the Allies forces are yet one million less than that of the Hunns and that it is probable that two years will yet elapse before the Allies will secure their defeat, which he says is certain to be accomplished. The Allies' Zepp's Mr. H. says, will raise probably something more than sufficient grain this year for their use, and are looking to America for the remainder of a sufficiency for their use. The greatest shortage is in fats, such as butter, lard and tallow. Four ounces of butter per week is the present allowance for each person. Every Londoner and all the Allies have perfect faith in their mate victory but appreciate and understand there is yet to be much sacrifice of life, fortune and suffering.
