WELL BLESS HIS OLD HEART Here he is once more looking after the Rockcastle folks. My friend Billy Routt has promised to visit Mt. Vernon and give a free show to his customers who eat Acme Flour and Meal, that is so good. It is dangerous to handle. A car came in, 10 or 15 bags bursted wide open. Mr. Landrum didn't know what to do. There is n't many sacks with quality that is just bursting itself to be sold at $1.15 per bag. Acme Flour $1.50, good as any and better than some, and O you Mill Feed $2.25, just like what you have paid $2.75 for. You have got to care for the cow and feed the little ones. Oh, how I wish I had me some babies, but I haven't a one, but if you will come to see me at the Rockcastle Hotel will help you feed yours. Will show you the longest man physically in Harlan county, 7 ft. 2 in., and some long financially, and Mate he has got the quality when it comes to Flour, Meal and Feed. So my friend Routt sent me down a car and told me to divide it up among the people and he would ship down another car next week, provided if his car of coal holds out he got from Bob Mc, Pine Hill, Ky. Now, boys, come on and let's get together and save money and Buy Liberty Bonds and win the War. You just as well come on and get this stuff out of my way for I have got to have room for that 7 ft. Giant Flour King. Any time you want to see Billie Routt call on BILLIE RIDER and he will be delighted to show BILLIE to you or any of his products.

FISHBACK-STERN. Miss Eugenia Brown Fishback and First Lieutenant Milton J. Stern were quietly married in Lexington Wednesday afternoon, by Rev. I. J. Spencer, pastor of the First Christian Church. Miss Fishback is a daughter of Mrs. Ada King Fishback, of Paris and Mr. Stern is a son of Mr. J. A. Stern, of this city. The couple had been friends a little over a year and their marriage proved to be a pleasant surprise to a large number of their friends. Miss Fishback is formerly of Mt. Vernon, Ky., but for the past year has been living in Paris with her mother who is a member of the faculty of the Paris Public School. Miss Fishback was graduated last year from the Midway Orphan School, at Midway, Ky. She is of exceptional personal beauty and charmingly attractive, a gifted musician and is a young woman of many social graces. Lieut. Stern, the happy bridegroom, is a Paris boy and is a graduate of the Paris High School. After finishing his high school course he entered Bellevue College, New York, and was graduated. Completing his educational course he returned to Paris and opened offices as an eye, ear, nose and throat specialist. His rare skill and mastery understanding of his profession soon established for him a large practice. Dr. Stern successfully continued his profession in Paris for four years having offices in the Daugherty and First National Bank Buildings. In 1917, when the United States declared war on Germany, he patriotically volunteered his service to his country and on August 4 of the same year he received his commission as first Lieutenant in the Medical Corps. He was ordered to report on December 16 at Fort Oglethorpe, Georgia, and afterwards was assigned to his present location at Camp Wadsworth, near Sparansburg, South Carolina. The happy couple after a short visit to their relatives in Paris left Thursday night for their honeymoon trip in the "Land of the Sky," first going to Asheville, N. C. At the expiration of Lieut. Stern's furlough, he and Mrs. Stern will return to Camp Wadsworth, where they will remain until Lieut. Stern leaves for overseas service. The many friends of these young people, extend congratulations, and sincere good wishes to their recent happiness.—The Kentuckian-Citizen.

Why Not Quarantine For "Flu" In Rockcastle

We Call On The Public To Effect A Voluntary Quarantine Themselves—Post Influenza Card

SAVING OF ONE LIFE WORTH TROUBLE

Only Bread-Winners Should Be Permitted To Leave Home; Others Should Be Isolated.

Quarantine has been ordered through the United States Public Health Service in many places throughout the country, and it is hoped Rockcastle will not wait until it is too late to help curb the spreading of the disease. Lot every citizen effect a quarantine against influenza and that at once, right now. The loss of a single life is more than worth the trouble. Immediate action is what is needed and not a consideration. If you only have a very slight case it may infect others and be the cause of a death. The public should do their part and not wait to be forced to do so. Don't be smart or ignorant in so serious a matter. Do not be afraid of the disease but do everything you can to avoid contracting the disease, thus prevent its spreading. If you become infected make it a special duty not to spread the disease, always remember that death may result from your direct neglect, and sometimes by actual ignorance of what you are doing. Let us be plain spoken and be loyal about the matter. Read carefully a circular that has been distributed through the post office, issued by Rupert Hile, Surgeon General. In Louisville bread-winners in the houses placarded for influenza are permitted to leave the house on conditions that he has not come in contact with the patient. The exact rules of quarantine given each placarded house follow: "All cases must be rigidly isolated for a period of ten days from the onset of the disease, or until such time as the patient has entirely recovered from any complication of the disease. Family Must Be Isolated. "All members of a family in which there is a known or suspected case of influenza shall be isolated until the recovery of said case, provided that bread-winners and wage earners may continue at their vocations as long as they do not come in contact with the patient until such patient is officially discharged by the health department. "The rules that have been given in Louisville concerning the placarding of houses and apartments follow: "In case of a private residence influenza placard is to be placed in a prominent place at the front of the house. "In case of apartment houses, placard this apartment only. "In case of rooming houses, placard the room only. "In case of hotels, where the case is separated from other roomers, placard door of the room only. "In case of hotels, where the case is separated from other roomers, placard door of the room on conditions that he has not leading part in the campaign for volunteers for preparing the quarters for soldiers. "It is to be that your son who must be housed at Camp Knox this winter," the call reads, "it is the boy of some other mother—all of them training to protect our liberty in the great fight for freedom. Provided the men do not volunteer for this well paid and patriotic work, it is the duty of every loyal Kentucky woman to report them to the nearest United States Employment Service just as they would a Hon spy or an army slacker."

It is to the women of the State to show the men that it is their duty to volunteer for work at Camp Knox and to take their places during their absence. "All of the organizations interested in the construction of Camp Knox have agreed upon C. C. Quinlan as director of the construction work and the details of organizing the State and procuring workmen are in his hands."

Letter From Clarence Rickels

Somewhere in France. Dear mother and all: I guess you think I have forgotten you entirely but I have not. I have been in the hospital two months and am getting along fine, only I can't use my hand. I expect to be out in a few weeks. I was only slightly wounded so don't worry about me. I have not got any mail from you for quiet a while. I guess I will get a bunch of them in a few days. I lost most of my letters upon the front, but I hang on to a couple of yours. I think you will all be at home this time next year. How is Anna and her husband getting along? Fine I hope. Say mother what is the matter with Clyde? He never writes me. I wrote him a letter two months ago and never got any answer. Tell him to write and all the rest write to me. Just think I you were over here alone, you would like to hear from us at home. Well, mother I will leave the plow for this time, so be sure and write me. I am alright. Just one place under my arm and about twelve places on my back. Tell father to write to his son once in a while I would love to see all the folks at home. So, good bye. Red Cross To Help Flu Infected Districts

Cities and towns needing nurses and hospitals supplies to care for influenza cases among civilians must make their needs known through their local health officer and local Red Cross Chapter and not apply direct to Red Cross division headquarters. The same procedure holds good for military schools established in colleges which may be stricken with the epidemic. This statement was issued at Lake Division headquarters this afternoon as a result of the confusion arising among civilian population and student soldiers needing nursing care and supplies. If local Red Cross associations and public health resources are not adequate, local health officers can get help from Division Red Cross headquarters in their state boards of health request it. All chapters have been provided with full instructions as to procedure, relationship with local boards of health and with the division headquarters. Meanwhile the Lake Division is still sending nurses and hospital supplies direct to military camps almost as quickly as requisitions are received. New requisitions are on hand from Camp Taylor, Sherman and Buell. All graduates and practical nurses are again urged to volunteer with their nearest Red Cross chapter for assignment. Chapters have received full instructions as to how to carry out a survey of their communities, reported being urged to go out on any influenza examinations without some authorization from the Red Cross. This is to enable the Red Cross to keep a constant inventory of the number and kind of nurses available. With out this inventory, according to the statement from division headquarters, confusion will result. Today's instructions to Red Cross chapters from James L. Fieser, chairman of the division Committee on Influenza, suggest that the organization of lay women to augment the professional nursing forces if necessary. The instructions, however, point out that the organization of such women should include only those who are, through some previous training or experience, qualified for membership in this important auxiliary force.

Labor Needed to Save Camp Knox for State

Emergency Causes Summary Notice From Authorities At Washington. DRAFT MAY COME IF VOLUNTEERS FAIL. State Wide Calls Sent Out To Lead Aid For Speeding Up Work. State wide calls have gone out to save Camp Henry Knox at Sittion for Kentucky. The authorities at Washington have served notice on Kentucky that if they cannot produce the necessary laborers to complete the work at Sittion before cold weather sets in, the permanent artillery camp, representing an investment of probably $2,000,000, will be withdrawn from the state entirely. Immediately upon receipt of these advices the state officials got busy and are sending out calls to all individuals and business organizations, pointing out the emergency and frankly declaring that if Kentucky carpenters and laborers do not volunteer for the work, a forcible draft must be made effective at once on non-essential industries. ULTIMATUM ISSUED! Work at Camp Knox has dragged for lack of men and winter time is now approaching with thousands of the soldiers still in tents at Camp Taylor and West Point. The ultimatum is that barracks to hold not less than 30,000 men and stables for 15,000 animals must be completed by December 1. It is the belief of the Kentucky authorities that even now is possible that one workmen can be secured to erect buildings that will accommodate

possibly 50,000 men with stable accommodation for 30,000 animals. This is the present patriotic determination. Frank D. Federal Director of the United States Employment Service immediately issued a public notice, sent broadcast throughout Kentucky, telling just what the state was up against. He called a meeting of lay groups interested, including John Griffiths & Son Company, builders of the Camp for the government, Major W. H. Radcliff, constructing quartermaster in charge, and organized an intensive campaign that is destined to reach every city and hamlet of Kentucky. "Every man and every business organization," said Mr. Dale "must realize that this is an emergency that calls for immediate action. Under the authority given us from Washington it is the men in sufficient numbers do not volunteer, their services we must draft them from the non-essential industries. It is up to the employers of laborers throughout Kentucky immediately to displace men in their employment with women and recommend their employees to enter the service at Camp Knox." Major W. H. Radcliff, constructing quartermaster at Camp Knox, has also appealed to the people of Kentucky to volunteer for service. "Every man you drive," says Major Radcliff in a ringing message to workmen, "every brick you lay, every bit of real work done, will add to the growing loads around the Kaiser's neck. The war won't wait."

It is with much feeling that the Signal speaks to the public at this trying time, such as we are passing through in the influenza epidemic and will it be possible to mention the names of the affected ones in the county, and send wishes to all who have suffered, and hope that the disease will abate rapidly, and that no further deaths will occur. We ourselves have suffered and know its effect. We extend our sympathy to the bereaved who have had the misfortune to lose their loved ones.

BRODHEAD

Lee Carson, 13 years old, youngest son of Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Carson, died at 6:45 o'clock Tuesday morning with influenza. Lee had never been strong physically and had been a sufferer for many years with asthma. He had some tubercular trouble and the disease progressed so much for his run down condition and after several days of intense suffering finally succumbed to it. He was a bright boy, a favorite of the family and every body loved him. He was a member of the Christian church and a regular attendant both of church and Sunday school and will be greatly missed by his many young friends and associates. In many respects this was one of the saddest deaths we ever attended, and what made it more so was the small number that was able to attend the funeral. His friends were unable to attend either because of sickness or the severe cold disease. The remains were buried at the Christian church cemetery Wednesday afternoon at 2:00 o'clock after short services by Pastor, Elder J. N. Bowling. Besides his father and mother he is survived by one sister, Ella Carson, Matron of a school at Colcord, W. Va., and four brothers, Blain, Givens, Gus and Wayne. Blain and Givens are in the service of Uncle Sam and could not reach here in time for the funeral, as was the case with Miss Ella, Mr. and Mrs. Carson and his entire family. The friends sympathize of their many friends in this sad bereavement—Mrs. H. H. Higginson, of Middlesboro, has been the guest of her sister, Mrs. W. E. Gravelly recently—Mrs. Frank Baker and children, of Winchester, were here a few days ago the guest of their uncle, John Robinson and family. The deaths have been reported in the last few days from Flu in the Virginia settlement. A small child of Levi Dewey, a young man of Bill Newell and the wife of James Sporamore—Gov. Frith, who fell from a train on which he was traveling, is able to be on crutches—Wm. Francis, who has been suffering with a Coal Company, has the mountains, came home Sunday on account of the serious illness of his family, Mrs. Frances and their son, John Fairfax, are mighty sick and their recovery is very doubtful at present—Capt. George Frith, now stationed at a training camp in South Carolina, was with his wife, Mrs. and Mrs. J. G. Frith here, a few days last week—Roy Roberts, age 24, son of Mrs. Sallie Roberts, of Gum Sulpher, and a brother of our Monte Roberts, died at his home Wednesday of last week and his remains were buried at the family burying ground near the home of A. J. Bailey the following day. He had influenza and pneumonia. His mother, one sister, Mrs. James Hayes, and three brothers, J. Monte Roberts, member of the firm of Shaffer & Roberts; here, Guy Roberts, now in training at West Point and Charles Roberts, of Gum Sulpher, survive. Mr. Roberts was single and ran the farm for his mother

HIATT CRAWFORD, Indianapolis. ALLEN SMITH, Battle Ship New Jersey.

HIATT CRAWFORD—Our Soldier Boy

Hiatt Crawford was the first of our town boys to be brought home in his casket, wearing the uniform of his Country. His death touched the depths of this community's emotions. The whole community honored, respected and loved this soldier boy. They shared with the family their pride in him. He belonged to the highest type of young American.

Much sympathy is felt for the bereaved ones. There are very few families in town in this vicinity that have escaped the flu epidemic and the seriousness of it has been felt in many homes. Dr. N. E. Cravelly is confined to his bed now with it and the first of last week Dr. W. E. Carter was confined several days with it. Some doctors and druggists are kept very busy and in fact a half dozen doctors could not have answered all the calls that came to town. We feel however, that the worst of the epidemic has been passed and that our town will soon settle back to their normal state. Last night was the first and only time within one week that no bells were heard at the different churches, and there was no public worship in town—Guy Roberts, who is stationed at West Point was at home a few days on account of the death of his brother, Roy Roberts—Edd Smith, of the Hiatt section, received a message Wednesday morning, from Allen Smith, who recently volunteered his service to his country and was in the Navy, died at with pneumonia. It is thought that his body will be shipped here for burial but nothing definite has been learned about it up to the present (Wednesday evening). Allen was a fine young man and had many friends here who are grieved to learn of his sudden death, and much sympathy is felt for his father, brother and sisters who survive him—Cashier and Mrs. A. M. Hiatt were in Stanford Tuesday having dental work done—Mr. and Mrs. Clara Brown recently moved from Quail and are occupying the house owned by Miss Isabelle Martin. Mr. Brown is traveling to the Louisville & Nashville on this division.

If troubled with indigestion or sleeplessness you should read what Miss Agnes Turner, Chicago, Ill., has to say: Overwork, irregular meals and carelessness regarding the ordinary rules of health, undermined it until last fall I became a wreck of my former self. I suffered from continual headache, which seemed to digest my food, which seemed to lay as a dead weight on my stomach. I was very constipated and my complexion became yellow and muddy as I felt. Sleeplessness was added to my misery, and I would awake as tired as when I went to sleep. I heard of Chamberlain's Tablets and found such relief from taking them that I kept up the treatment for nearly two months. They cleaned my stomach, improved my system, and I felt that I was eating and sleeping in comfort. I am today entirely well.

Make Purchase of Bonds Easier Cleveland banks and trust companies have agreed upon a plan which makes buying Liberty Bonds very close to the easiest thing in the world. To those who cannot conveniently save the cash for their bonds, they will make loans up to 90 per cent of the par value of the subscriptions for ninety days from October 20, on bonds purchased through these institutions. The interest rate will be the coupon rate, 4 1/2 per cent. Moreover they will renew these loans, when satisfactorily reduced, for a second ninety days, at one-half of one per cent in excess of the Federal Reserve Bank's discount rate on such loans. The Reserve Bank's rate of discount now is 4 1/2 per cent, subject to slight change at any time. These loans will not interfere with the borrower's regular line of credit. The purpose of the plan is to encourage the buying of Liberty bonds that would otherwise be bought.

Earn and give for a year the young people of America have been coerced in their enthusiasm for the war in the "American Soldier." The third grade girl is now sent to the blackboard to recite: "Thrift is a virtue—at 25 cents a piece will buy you 10 cents a week." The girl in the grade above her is learning in her arithmetic lesson how many Thrift stamps it takes to buy the yarn for 500 helmets for the soldiers in France. Still it figures on the "Right Side" in fact in terms of War Savings stamps so much it costs to supply a regiment of Uncle Sam's men with new uniforms.

W. H. KRUEGER

On the 14th of October, 1918, W. H. Krueger died at his home. In this town, after an illness of several days, that devastating plague, Spanish influenza, which is so fatally sweeping our country today. Will Krueger, as he was familiarly called, was born Oct. 3, 1883, and lived in this country with his parents in 1883, and twenty-seven years ago his parents moved to this place which has been his home ever since. He grew up here with our boys and became one of them. He was a favorably known associate and playmate. He attended the public and high school here, and afterwards was a student in Center College, Danville, Kentucky, and later attended the Law School in Louisville, Kentucky, and was admitted to the practice of the law in January 1911. October 12th, 1911, he was born a son, Fritz, who is now five years old and is a very bright and lively little boy. He has two brothers, Fred and August, who are residents of this place and successful business men. His mother died about twelve years ago.

At a meeting of the Bar of Mt. Vernon, on the 17th October 1918, the following pro-ceedings were had: The members of the Bar met in the Court House and were called to order by Judge G. M. Ballard, the presiding officer of the meeting, when Judge L. C. Richman was elected chairman and J. C. McCreary, secretary. The chairman appointed C. C. Williams, H. J. Keith and W. H. Krueger, to prepare and present resolutions expressing the sense of the meeting upon the death of W. H. Krueger, who departed the following which were unanimously adopted:

WHEREAS, He has pleased the God of the quick and the dead to remove from this our country, the body of our member of this Bar, W. H. Krueger, first, we recognize that in the death of W. H. Krueger, a lawyer of high ability and much respected from among us and taken to that great in-appeal. Second, We extend to his bereaved wife, his mother and his broken father, his brothers and other relatives our most sincere sympathy. Third, That we request that the resolutions be spread at large in the Great Book of the Rockcastle Circuit Court, and that they be published in the Mt. Vernon Signal.
