FAIR MEETING. The Mt. Vernon Fair Association met at the Court House at a regular stated meeting and a goodly number present. After general talks and suggestions by the members present, the following officers and directors were elected. For Pres. W. A. McKee, Vice Pres. O. D. Sutton, Secy. C. D. Sutton, Treas. J. W. Faras, Jr., Bullock, Tom Kirk, Dr. J. M. McCoy, Dr. M. Pennington, Wm. Poynter, David Hisinger, K. L. Durham and E. S. Albright. Aug. 6-7-8-1919 are the dates set for the big Mt. Vernon Fair. Mr. Charlie L. Tuggle, of Mansfield, Illinois, and Mrs. Lela Bray Cress, of near Mt. Vernon were quietly married at the home of Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Daily, at six o'clock on Monday, Jan. 20, at 8 o'clock by Rev. Green Fish Private Tuggle has been in training camps for the last seven months and has recently been discharged. They will reside near Mt. Vernon. Their many friends join in wishing them a long and happy life. This is a splendid young couple and the people of Mt. Vernon will be glad to have them reside here.

Barrow—W. T. Hicks and H. H. Wood—two of the best taxpayers in the county and two of the best and most progressive farmers and business men of the East side, are very much interested in getting a bridge across Clear Creek, near the L. T. Stewart addition in getting the road, which is right along the creek bed and lots of times this creek is past fording. These people are entitled to some relief and it is to be hoped that the Fiscal Court, which meets the last day of this month, will give consideration to get that road out of the creek and supply a bridge which is so badly needed.

The annual officers' banquet of the Harlan Lodge, was held last evening in the lodge rooms. The lunch was prepared by the Willing Workers, and it is unnecessary to say that it was O.K. There were about sixty present. There was also a public installation of officers, the newly selected being R. H. Miller, Master; F. L. Durham, Senior Warden, and C. D. Sutton, Junior Warden.

Steve Price received a message yesterday that his son, Russel, a member of the Marines and one of the first of the Rockcastle boys to go across, was wounded or killed, captured by the Germans and later died in a German hospital.

Lost—An open face gold case watch, Elgin movement. In the back the words "Mother to Herbert" are engraved. Return to H. T. Young, Mt. Vernon, and receive reward.

A. G. Ball has bought the stock of goods of A. T. Furnish at Orlando. Mr. Furnish bought the stock from Mr. Ball last summer when the latter was called into service.

Bryant Bros. have closed the deal so we understand, for the lot between the pictures show houses and U. S. Williams' residence and will begin soon the erection of a two story brick building to be used as a garage.

Robert Nixon, a well to do farmer of the Brindle Ridge section died last Monday after an illness of pneumonia of only a few days. The deceased had been up from the flu only a short time and less than two weeks ago, he went to Richmond and was in the rain a good portion of the day. On his return home that night he began feeling badly and gradually grew worse until the end came.

The Stock Pens are being pushed and with two more weeks like the past two, will almost be completed. The building is 400 feet long, has between 40 and 50 pens, two large drive ways and room above for all the feed or anything else the company will likely ever have space to buy. Farmers are coming in every day, some wanting stock others just to see how the work is progressing. People who have never given the question a thought, do not realize what such an enterprise means to the county.

The directors are as follows: J. W. Faras, Jr., Bullock, Tom Kirk, Dr. J. M. McCoy, Dr. M. Pennington, Wm. Poynter, David Hisinger, K. L. Durham and E. S. Albright. Aug. 6-7-8-1919 are the dates set for the big Mt. Vernon Fair. We are planning to give special premiums and attention to registered hogs, sheep and cattle and assist in every way possible to place our stock raising on higher ground. C. D. Sutton, Secy. protem

STOMACH TROUBLE

Mr. Marion Holcomb, of Nancy, Ky., says: "For quite a long while I suffered with stomach trouble. I would have pains and a heavy feeling after my meals, a most disagreeable taste in my mouth. If I ate anything with butter, oil or grease, I would spit it up. I began to have regular sick headaches. I had used pills and tablets, but after a course of these, I would be completely exhausted. It just seemed to tear my stomach all up. I found there were no good at all for my trouble. I heard two hundred and thirty thousand (230,000) railroad employees in the South have taken the pledge to do their best to work those seven days without getting hurt themselves or being the cause of another's injury.

MT. VERNON KENTUCKY

This plan was tried out by the Central of Georgia Railroad in December with such signal success that Regional Director Winchell decided to extend "No Accident Week" to all railroads under Federal control in the South. The psychological effect on the railroad workers it is believed will give great impetus to the movement and thereby benefit the railroad service and the public.

By the afternoon of January 19, approximately two hundred and thirty thousand (230,000) railroad men South of the Ohio and East of the Mississippi rivers will have signed a pledge to go seven days, if possible, without sustaining personal injury.

The week beginning January 20 this year is the first under the Regional Director of Railroads as "No Accident Week" and according to a statement issued today by C. M. Anderson, Regional Supervisor of Safety, Southern Region, the lines under his jurisdiction approximately total thirty-six thousand (36,000) miles with two hundred and thirty thousand (230,000) men and women on the payroll.

That of this army of industrial workers, who have decided to eliminate personal injuries, are three hundred and fifty safety committees, composed of both officers and employees working under regulations prescribed by the United States Railroad Administration.

According to the employees themselves, who are taking the keenest interest in the movement, "No Accident Week" is bound to give a big impetus to their safety work. The test is something concrete—something which may attain definitely as a result of their efforts. This is causing rivalry among the roads and the means by which the psychological effect upon the rank and file of employees of being thus placed upon their mettle, together with the knowledge that even for a week, they may prevent actual suffering or grief to any number of employees of their families makes "No Accident Week" well worth while.

Daily reports will be compiled by telegraph of progress made on every railroad in the South so that every employee will be advised as to what is being accomplished.

SAFETY WEEK

Complete details for staging "No Accident Week" January 20-26 inclusive, have been decided upon by the safety representatives of railroads in the Southern Region, according to announcement from the offices of the Railroad Administration today.

Mr. C. H. Anderson, Regional Supervisor of Safety has conferred with about thirty safety officials of the various lines; the meeting having been held in his office in the Healey Building.

It develops that the roads in this jurisdiction have in the aggregate, approximately two hundred and thirty thousand (230,000) employees and that each employee is going to be asked to individually do his utmost during a period of seven days to keep from being injured himself or being the cause of injuring a fellow employee.

Bulletins, rallies, moving picture exhibits, of an educational nature, personal appeals and many other forms of getting in close touch with all employees will be utilized and it is estimated that before January 19, there will be few if any railroad workers South of the Ohio or East of the Mississippi rivers who will not be "watching his step" and avoiding personal injury.

This movement, covering as it does a vast territory and affecting an enormous population of high class industrial workers, is said to be causing unusual interest every city and town in the South.

The "No Accident Week" was determined upon by Mr. E. L. Winchell, Regional Director of Railroads, who believes that the cause of safety among railroad men and the public generally may receive a material impetus as a result of it.

The humanitarian value of the plan of Regional Director E. L. Winchell to institute a "No Accident Week" among all railroad employees of the South commencing January 20 is strikingly shown by a report just compiled by the Regional Supervisor of Safety showing the extent to which railroad workers are killed or injured each month in the performance of their duties. During the month of August, 1918, when the Railroad Administration had just organized the Safety Section in the interest of making safe the lives of the great army of railroad workers, approximately forty five (45) employees were killed and two thousand one hundred (2,100) were injured on the railroads of the Southern Region. At the close of November, the latest month for which the figures are available, those fatalities had been reduced to approximately thirty one (31) killed and one thousand two hundred (1,200) injured. These figures include only employees and do not take into consideration the large number of trespassers killed and injured.

It is the purpose of the Safety Section of the Railroad Administration to demonstrate by "No Accident Week" that this great economic loss of life and service of industrial workers can be materially reduced and to this end and do some shopping — Ben Helard has moved to his property that he purchased on Main street.

— Thomas Jones, whom the flu had, or who had the flu, is at his post again. — W. N. Riggs, who has been on the sick list for some time, is slowly improving. — J. W. Baker, of Mt. Vernon, was in our town Sunday, between trains. — Mrs. E. L. Cockerell and little son, Brown, were in London between trains, Monday. — Mrs. Thomas Norris is visiting in Paris this week. — Mrs. George Smith has returned from Corbin, after a few days visit with relatives. — L. M. Oliver has moved his family to Paris, where he will make his future home. — E. B. Owens has moved into the property vacated by L. Oliver. — We understand that James D. Black will be a candidate for Governor and we are satisfied as to the nomination.

The letter of Judge Bethuram published in these columns two weeks ago, has caused much comment. The article was very timely and we believe will result in much good toward wiping out the distasteful evil which has so imperiled our town and county so long. The whisky traffic is the worst evil the country has to face and the bootlegger is the hardest violator of this law to convict. He plots his man to sell and once the sale is made it is the hardest problem yet, to extract from that man who buys, just where and from whom he made the purchase. When the judge is selected to try the case, Dick Tom or Harry, who are opposed to whiskey and would convict, either manage to get excused from the trial or are cut off by the attorneys in the case. The witness takes the stand and says he bought from so and so. The bootlegger stands and says he did not sell. The Judge instructs the jury according to law and the weakness of the law in such cases, gives the doubt to the defendant and he goes acquit. The Judge then asks the witness who he bought from, have each done the same. The law has been followed to the letter so far as the case is concerned, the jury satisfied that they did their part, the bootlegger pleased with the great victory and the good citizen satisfied to place the blame upon the officer of officers of the law that he is not doing his duty. The court can do it all. Since Judge Bethuram's letter was published in our paper, it has been posted by some one: "What is Sam Mullins doing? In justice to Judge Mullins we want to say that he is trying to do his duty. Take the records of his courts, the number of men who have been brought before him for investigation, the number of men who are in jail. It is sufficient proof of what he is trying to do. The officers can only do their part. The juries must do theirs and the people generally must do theirs. It is too big a proposition for two or three men's job."

JUDGE B. J. BETHURAM has sent out a call to the citizens of his home country. He says that it is reported to him on reliable authority, that conditions in this county are horrible, made so by the illegal sale of intoxicating liquors. Just so, Judge, just so! Wisely you have called upon the people and there is no question but what a great majority of them are with you in your right against the bootlegger. You have called on at least thirty gallons of liquor are brought in here every night. That can be stopped by the united and determined efforts of our people, county and city officials. Go to work and when they are caught give them the limit. The violators of the law test the officers at every step. They went at once the official in sympathy and willing to wink his eye at their nefarious business. Now let the good citizens officers of our county do their duty and thus respond. Judge Bethuram's appeal and assembly on the first day of his Circuit Court in Mount Vernon and there and then begin a campaign for the complete annihilation of those who peddle this vile and corrupting stuff.

THE WRZ PRECEDENT - An Associated Press dispatch from Paris says: Leon Bourgeois, former Premier and French authority on the League of Nations, in a statement to the Main Chamber of the assembly for the punishment of Germany of degrees convicted of violation of the laws of use of Henry Wiz, who was fined by court martial and executed after the Civil War for cruelties suffered by North prisoners in the camp he commanded at Andersonville, Ga.

The Courier-Journal several months ago suggested that the Wiz case might well serve as a precedent for the punishment of individual Germans who transgressed the laws of war.

Capt. Henry Wiz was the commandant of the Andersonville prison camp. He was by birth German, but was regularly in the Confederate service. Nearly five months after the war ended he was tried for violation of the laws of war by a military commission, which pronounced him guilty of conspiring "unlawfully and in violation of the laws of war to impair and injure the health and to destroy the lives of large numbers of Federal prisoners, to wit, the number of about 45,000 soldiers in the military service of the United States, held as prisoners of war at Andersonville, in the State of Georgia."

He was sentenced to death, the sentence being that in default of execution he was to be confined to the proceedings findings and sentence of the court in the within case are approved, and it is ordered that the sentence be carried into execution by the officer commanding the Department of War (Washington, D. C.) on the 10th day of November, 1865, between the hours of 6 o'clock a. m. and 12 o'clock noon. Andrew Johnson, President.

On the date name Capt. Wiz was hanged in the Old Capitol Prison at Washington. Confederate historians regard this action as unjustifiable, holding that the hardships suffered by the prisoners at Andersonville were due to the refusal of the Federal authorities to change prisoners, not withstanding the repeated efforts of the Confederates to relieve their crowded prison by arranging exchanges.

The justice of the sentence, however, has no bearing on the value of the case as a precedent. Plainly it indicates a way by which the perpetrators of many German outrages may be properly punished after peace has been proclaimed. The murderers of Capt. Fryatt, for instance, the assassins of the innocent on board the Lusitania, the Leinster, the Hiram, the Ancon, etc.; with the brutal violators of the laws of war in countless other cases, may be reached and dealt with by this method.

The French are insistent in their demands that such culprits shall be punished. The British have preserved long lists of them against the day of judgment. The peace terms should require the facilitation by the vanquished of the efforts to identify the guilty in cases where identification may be difficult. Once for all the German idea that all's fair in war must be dispelled. - Courier Journal.

The residence of W. K. Shugars, brother of the Misses Shugars of this city, was destroyed by fire on his farm near the out of Liberty, Casey county, early Monday morning with a loss of $5,000 to $6,000 as he carried no insurance of any sort. Mr. Shugars is in Richmond with his sisters and says that all he saved from the building was the suit of ordinary working clothes that he had on.

Mrs. Shugars was in Richmond at the time. Mr. Shugars went to the barn at 6:30 Monday morning to milk, and while he was milking the house caught fire. He thinks that a broken stove pipe caused the fire to catch in the loft. When he noticed the blaze it had gained considerable headway. He rushed to it and endeavored to save some clothes, but was almost suffocated and had to get out quickly to save his life. He then had to stand by helplessly and see his home all furniture and all the family's wearing apparel go up in flames. Mr. Shugars went to McKinney, where he obtained some clothes, and came on to his wife. The home had been refitted by Mr. and Mrs. Shugars a few weeks ago when they moved to the farm, after he sold out his drug store in Stanford. - Richmond Post-Dispatch.

Mrs. Shugars was in the drug business in Brodhead for a number of years.
