EVERYBODY'S NOW FIGURING INCOME TAX

In Order to Be Helpful to Public Internal Revenue Bureau Has Every Available Officer in Field.

SEVERE PENALTIES IF YOU DELAY BEYOND MARCH 15

With the due date for income taxes only a few weeks away, the collection of our income tax for 1918 has now started off with a bang. Every day is being made a busy day for the Internal Revenue Bureau. Payments and sworn statements of income must reach Internal Revenue Bureau by March 15. If they do not, there are severe penalties for delinquency.

Residents of Kentucky should make their returns and pay their taxes to the nearest of the following: Josh T. Griffith, Owensboro; J. H. Hester, Clarksville; W. H. Thompson, Covington; Edward Hamilton, Lexington; John W. Hughes, Louisville.

Who Must Make Return. It is estimated that many thousands of single and married persons in this section of the United States who have never filed annual returns are required to do so this year.

Income tax returns must be made before noon, and March 15 by persons who come under the following classification:

Any unmarried person whose 1918 net income was $1,000 or over. Wife and widowers, divorcees and married persons who are living apart from their husbands or wives, are for the purposes of the Income Tax classed as unmarried.

An married person living with wife or husband whose 1918 net income was $2,000 or over. The income of husband and wife must be considered together with the earnings of minor children, if any.

Revenue Bureau Officers Aid. Each person in the United States is in either of these classification classes and chief inspectors, also by following the instructions for a correct return can be secured.

The new Revenue law places upon "the Tax day on citizens means that the Internal Revenue Bureau is sending its men to work right up to the public to get the tax and the returns in. With active cooperation every tax due March 15 will be paid and every return required by law will be in the hands of the collector on time.

Exemptions Are Allowed. A single person is allowed a personal exemption of $1,000. If he is supporting his household relatives who are dependent upon him he may claim the status of the head of a family who has the same exemption as if married.

A married person who lives with wife or husband is allowed a personal exemption of $2,000. The head of a family is entitled to claim a similar personal exemption.

An additional exemption of $200 is allowed for each person under sixteen or incapable of self support who was dependent upon and received his chief support from the taxpayer. A husband and wife living together are entitled to but one personal exemption of $2,000. If they make separate returns, the exemption may be claimed by either or divided.

Absolute accuracy is necessary in making up income figures. Any person who is working for wages should find out exactly how much was received during the whole year 1918. Fees, bank interest, bond interest, dividends, rents received and all other items must be reported correctly. Mere guesses are not accepted, for they are injurious alike to the taxpayer and the Government and defeat the proper administration of the law.

THIS TELLS HOW TO FIGURE INCOME TAX

Squarely Up to Every Individual to Get Busy by March 15 or Suffer Penalty.

"Don't wait until the final due date, March 15th, for paying your income tax and making your return. Avoid the last minute rush. Any person can figure out his liability today as well as on next week, and if there is any point on which he needs advice he can now get in touch with a Revenue Bureau officer. This word of advice is being given out by Internal Revenue men. Returns and payments are being collected in Kentucky by the following collectors and their assistants:

Josh T. Griffith, Owensboro; J. H. Hester, Clarksville; W. H. Thompson, Covington; Edward Hamilton, Lexington; John W. Hughes, Louisville.

Every citizen of this office and field office is being given freely to the public. The Income Tax men will not pull your down until you are ready according to the Collector's announcement. It is squarely up to every individual to get busy on his own case and to get busy if he comes within the scope of the new Revenue law.

Did You Pay Tax Correctly? Every unmarried person who reported income averaging $100 a week during 1918 and every married couple who jointly received income averaging $200 a week, should secure an office from the nearest Revenue collector of the nearest bank a Blank Form 1010-A. That form containing the information he will need to enable him to secure his correct tax liability and any tax that he owes the Government.

The list requires that every citizen over 18 years of age and every person over 18 whose net income was $1,000 or over (including the income of husband or wife and the income of minor children, if any) must make a return on or before March 15th. And this requirement does not include on whether the person owns a tax.

Taxable Income. An individual must include under gross income all gains, profits and income derived from salaries, wages or compensation for personal services rendered, interest in whatever form and from professions, vocations, businesses, rents and royalties, and all kinds of interest, rent, dividend or profits derived from any source whatever, except the steps of income.

Deductions include ordinary and necessary business expenses, interest paid or accrued on indebtedness, taxes and all kinds of Federal income tax.

Exemptions. The new Revenue law places upon "the Tax day on citizens means that the Internal Revenue Bureau is sending its men to work right up to the public to get the tax and the returns in. With active cooperation every tax due March 15 will be paid and every return required by law will be in the hands of the collector on time.

"Build A Home First"

THE slogan for the last two years has been "Win the War." We have accomplished that, and the slogan now is, "Build a Home."

The human heart has no affection more enduring than the love of home. No normal human being knows the full measure of contentment until he becomes a dweller within a comfortable home of his very own.

The boys who have ordered the war's necessities are coming back with a new and deeper love for home. If the question were put to them they would answer unanimously, "Build a Home First."

I am endeavoring to make my office the center for reliable advice in building and repairing. Come in and see me. My experience and best judgment is at your service.

Remember, I have a very complete line of building material in stock, and am able by buying in car load lots to make you money saving prices.

If you need wood fiber plaster or Portland Cement, I have just received a car.

GEORGE ALLEN IN GERMANY

Somewhere in Germany,
January 15, 1919

Dear mother—
Will answer your letter I have just received. It was very old. It was written August 29, but you know I was glad to get it. I am well and hope you all are the same. I will tell you where I have been. I was only here two weeks until I went to trenches, but I was lucky. I didn't get a scratch, but I sure did have some close calls. Loten thought I would never see the old states again. I have seen them killed from my side. I often thought of you and Mrs. Scott when I was lying in the mud up to my knees, dodging machine guns. Mamma, I know you and Mrs. Scott were praying for me, and I believe your prayers were with me. You don't know how a poor boy's mind will lead out to different thoughts when he is expecting to get killed at any time. Any one can be a soldier in the old states, but it means something to be a soldier over here in France. I tell you when you are expecting to get killed you will think of a million things, but the greatest thought of all, I would never get to tell mamma good bye. That stuck me deeper than anything, but I can say this the time is coming when I can tell you all hello again. I long for that sweet day. Listen, Mamma, don't you ever worry about me, don't you even think that I am not having a good time. A soldier has a better time than any body, when there is isn't any war. Believe me it was some dark looking time Nov. 10. We crossed the Meuse river and went over on the Hun's. We captured three Germans that night and they told us that the war was over at 11 o'clock, but we didn't believe them until the Hun's quit firing, but if look all of that to show Kaiser Bill where he stood. We were in one hundred yards of the Germans when the guns stopped firing. We saw and have named the Kaiser. Well, I'll tell you where I am. I came out through France, Belgium and Liekerburg and am now in the middle of Germany and I am having some time. I can't say when I will come home. How is papa, Lee, Clara and Omer by now? I must close as it is time to go to bed. Answer soon and a long letter.

Your loving son,
GEORGE W. ALLEN,

There is more Catarrh in this section of the country than all other diseases put together, and for years it was supposed to be incurable. Doctors prescribed local remedies, and by constant failure to cure with local treatment, pronounced it incurable. Catarrh is a local disease, greatly influenced by constitutional conditions, and therefore requires constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Medicine, manufactured by F. J. Cheney & Co., Toledo, Ohio, is a constitutional remedy, is taken at intervals, and acts through the blood on the Mucous Surfaces of the System. Anti-Bootlegging Committee

In last week's issue, we reported some cases which should be of general interest to the people interested in suppressing the sale of whiskey. Special interest should be directed to the number of cases acquired that were represented by attorneys. This bears out the theory that it is more in the hands of the lawyers of this county than any other, and it they will persist in defending bootleggers who have a Court record, we will continue to have the guilty on unacquainted. The pressure should be kept up and endeavor should be made to have our attorneys serve notice on their clients that no one with a Court record as a bootlegger, who had been convicted or acquitted need apply to them for their services. We feel that our lawyers are competent to take a living out of their profession without requiring this class of cases and if they think of the matter as we see it, there are no not important from a legal standpoint. There is nothing about defending a bootlegger that shows the legal talent of any lawyer, and nine out of every ten cases are simply a matter of producing evidence that would make a shadow of an excuse for acquitting the defendant on the grounds of a reasonable doubt. The remaining part of the legal ability necessary to stand the men summoned on the jury and find that the jury accepted is composed of men inclined to be sympathetic with any fellow man who is in trouble, and one who serving in other cases has proved to the satisfaction of the lawyer for the defendant that they are strong on a reasonable doubt. I suppose to be ethical to a client, when a lawyer has accepted a case, it is his duty to pick a jury which he believes will decide in favor of his client. The lawyer cannot be criticized for so doing, but we do believe that the lawyers of this county should be interested in the general welfare of the county to such an extent that they would prefer to agree not to accept these cases, and thereby avoid the need of being placed in an awkward position of having to testify in a case against their own former clients.

The Government printing office itself occupies thirteen and one-half acres of ground in the City of Washington. It employs 5,000 persons, and the annual payroll is nearly $5,000,000. There are 200 typesetting machines, the largest number of such machines assembled at any one place in the world. There are 150 presses employed and 700 electric motors. The machine equipment of the plant is valued at $2,000,000. The type metal cast into galleys each day amounts to twelve and a half tons. The equipment also includes nearly one hundred linotype machines, 1/2 of which are located in the branch printing section at the Library of Congress. The bindery contains about one hundred machines of the latest approved type for the various operations in the modern binding process. So much for the plant. The figures of output are equally amazing. For example 1,500,000 type pages are set in a day, and this number of type pages is said to be greater than the annual output of all the book publishing houses in the United States. Last year 49,777,771 publications were distributed and 2,600,000 books bound. These bound books, if placed end to end, would cover a distance of 490 miles. The members annually printed for Members of Congress number approximately 25,000,000. The quantity of frank government mail (largely printed matter) received each day by the Washington City post office is estimated at 150 tons. —Reviews of

There will be a Conference held at the Court House in

MT. VERNON
March 18th & 19th

The purpose is to improve the social condition of the community life.

THERE WILL BE THREE SESSIONS EACH DAY, as follows: 10 a.m. to 12M — 2 p.m. to 4 p.m.— 7:30 p.m. to 9 p.m.

The State Y. M. C. A. will furnish three men for this conference. Mr. D. H. Lyon will be here as Secretary of this District. Chaplain S. P. Stapp and the Rev. Mr. Scott will be the principal speakers. Chaplain Stapp was a Baptist minister when he went into the service as Captain. He is just back from France and has an interesting message. Mr. Scott is minister of the First Christian church at Somerset and is one of the most interesting speakers in this part of the State.

Please remember that this conference is for the whole of Rockcastle County. One like it is being held in each county of the State.

There will be a banquet on Tuesday evening at 6 o'clock. The plates will be 50c each to civilians and FREE to SOLDIERS. During the banquet hour, there will be short speeches—many of them by returned soldiers. We hope to have many civilians at this banquet, but we are very anxious to have all the soldiers of the county as our guests.

YOU SHOULD HAVE ONE

IN every country of the world they are to day doing their share to make life more worth living and to raise humanity to a higher plane.

For them the blazing sun of the equator, or the frigid regions of the north, hold no terrors.

Regardless of surroundings, their creed is "Service", and to-day there are millions of owners who will testify to the fact that they are living up to that creed.

The half civilized natives of India finds it to their advantage to use them; the missionaries in China and the Jungles of Africa say they cannot do without them. In the training camps of America, England and Italy they were indispensable. On the battlefields of France they were doing the lion's share—Forging on through mud, wrecks, shell holes and entanglements—Going where others dared not venture.

Once they were considered an experiment, a rich man's luxury; to-day they are considered a positive necessity. Merchants, doctors, lawyers, farmers, and men in every walk of life, have figured them a paying investment. More business, more rest and a bigger, broader vision of life and people, are some of the dividends these people are receiving.

BOOM FOR GOVERNOR

JUDGE R. G. WILLIAMS

The above is a picture of our good friend, Judge R. G. Williams, of Covington, Kentucky. His many friends over the state are earnestly urging him to become a candidate for the high office of Governor. Many nice things are being said of him. Among them is the following editorial from the Interior Journal with which we heartily agree:

THE MAN FOR THE PLACE (The above is a picture of our good friend, Judge R. G. Williams, of Covington, Kentucky. His many friends over the state are earnestly urging him to become a candidate for the high office of Governor. Many nice things are being said of him. Among them is the following editorial from the Interior Journal with which we heartily agree: As it is well known to our readers, the Interior Journal has manifested no choice in the selection of a democratic nominee for Governor, nor is it now especially doing so. It has never agreed to be the consultant, dictator or leader of democracy, and is not now assuming that role. It has been and will continue to be content to serve and advocate the election of the nominees of the party it has always loved. We believe, however, that the time has arrived to offer a suggestion in the matter of selecting a nominee for the governorship, and in doing so let it be understood, no reflection is cast upon any of the gentlemen who have announced their candidacy for that office. It seems to be a foregone conclusion that Edwin P. Morrow will be the Republican nominee—a brilliant stump speaker and active campaigner. To meet this man, democracy must put its best foot foremost, and the Interior Journal, though it has consulted no one, believes it has the man. Some 45 years ago there was born in Rockcastle County, Richard G. Williams. He grew to manhood, surrounded by republicans and republicans. He saw and studied that party's principle, but it did not suit him. He saw and studied the lesson handed down by Thomas Jefferson, and the tenets of that great statesman appealed to him, and "Dick" Williams became a democrat before he became of legal age. With no hope, any with a thought of political preference, he fought the fight year in and year out; practical law for a living and pleaded the cause of democracy for the principle involved. When less than 25 years of age, there appeared on the political horizon of Rockcastle county, discontent over the selection of certain republican candidates for office. The people demanded a change, but who would be the Moses to lead them out of the wilderness was the question every man's lips. Old men, tired in every walk of life, had watched the course of the young stripling, Williams. They had learned that he had the two most vital requisites of a man—a clean, brave heart, and a powerful, brilliant mind. To their dilemma they sought this man, and prevailed upon him to become a candidate for county judge. To "Dick" Williams the idea of overcoming a republican majority of nearly a thousand, seemed preposterous, but he consented to make the fight for the betterment of conditions. And he did fight and win. Furious at the victory, his enemies sought to cripple and intimidate his administration, and every means fair or foul, was used against him. But they reckoned without their host. Williams had the courage of his hardy ancestors, and he made an able, clean and impartial judge. At the end of his term he turned the office back to the republicans who gave it, honored and respected by all. His ability as a lawyer and speaker soon attracted wide attention, and he moved to the city of Covington, where he now resides. His charming personality, coupled with his talents drew the public's attention to him again, and he was twice elected Commonwealth's attorney, and charging the duties of that office with the integrity, a dilly and energy, that characterized his administration as judge of the Rockcastle court. Mr. Williams' life is clean. He possesses the ability to form a clear conviction, the courage to express that conviction, and what is more, and greater still, he has the honor to stand by it. Free from entangling party factions, gifted and ready in debate, young, vigorous and active, courageous to the point of daring, and the soul of honor, "Dick" Williams is the embodiment of the true knight of democracy, and in him we would have a man capable of defending his party upon the hustings, and for whom no apology would have to be made.

The Interior Journal does not know that he could be prevailed upon to make the race, but it does know that no stronger, plainer, or abler man could be found in the State, nor one who could be looked upon with a greater degree of pride than this product of mountain democracy, Richard G. Williams. We surely join the Editor of the Interior Journal in the sentiments of this article. It would be difficult to speak in too high terms of Judge Williams. He deserves all that has been said of him. He is splendid timber, out of which to make the State's chief Executive. Should he enter the race, and be nominated, he will be able to cope with Morrow on or off the stump.

We are sure that many folks both far and near would like to donate plants and etc. toward beautifying this plot of earth and Mr. A. S. Albrecht, President, and Mr. O. R. Henry Baker Dies in Germany. Hospital No. 7, American R. F. From Germany, Dec. 25, 1918. Mrs. Margaret Baker, Withers, Ky., U. S. A. My dear Mrs. Baker: You have surely, of course learned by this time of the death of your son, Henry, and I write to extend to you my sympathy in your bereavement. I visited with Henry as he lay in the hospital here with the serious gunshot wound in his abdomen, with which very skillful surgeons struggled to bring him through to health and strength again. But it was of small avail; his injuries were deep and slowly weakened and he passed away. It seems rather strange that he should be out in the battle and be wounded there, and then die from an accidental gunshot wound received after being back in his Company again. But such are the strange things that happen everywhere, just as much at home as in the army, perhaps more.

The body of your boy is buried in the little cemetery here, with Christian prayers and military honors. The United States Government Grave Registration Service will take perfect care of the grave, and when the time comes, will ship the body home again for burial in the home-land. My heart is with you at this time. I well understand the grief that accompanies every such sorrow. But yet, we have the blessed Lord's promise of the greater Life to come. He has said that no greater love hath any man than this, that he lay down his life for his friends. Henry did not die in battle, or from battle, but he fought his last and he has given his life just as certainly as any one who has died in this great cause of the world's righteousness. Because the nation possessed men of Henry's caliber the great sacrifice sought to crush the world has himself been crushed instead. God bless you dear woman, and may the comfort of the gospel of our Saviour bring the joy to you as you come to feel the tears being wiped away and realize that you are one of the women who has made the great sacrifice and has given a son to the world for the sake of its freedom and righteousness.

Sincerely yours, LESLIE C. KELLEY, Chaplain, U. S. A. Enclosed is letter Henry wrote to you, detailing it to me, as he was too weak to write. It runs as follows: Dear Mother, I am in the hospital at From, Germany. I was accidentally shot the other day. This is my second wound. As soon as I get better I will write to you. Lots of love from your loving son, Henry. This is Wilcox Baker's son.

MEMBER OF
KENTUCKY PRESS ASSOCIATION

ANNOUNCEMENTS

Wants authorized to announce THOMAS BULLOCK Candidate for Representative from District 10, Kentucky, at the election of Representatives and Senators on August 19, 1919.

During the last year there has been a falling off in the attendance upon almost every Sunday School in Kentucky. Of course, there were reasons for this. Many of the members had been called away from home because of the war, many others were so interested in war measures that they neglected the regular work of Sunday School. Now that we have returned upon the regular work, many of the members must be called back to their normal condition but to move forward.

April will be observed all over the state as Visitation Day. Plans are being made in large numbers of communities and it is hoped that these plans will extend to the entire state to visit every home finding the church and Sunday School preferences, give the visitations in the amount of Sunday Schools in the communities, to become members of some Sunday School. For this purpose write to the Kentucky Sunday School Association, 712 Louisville Trust Building, Louisville, Kentucky.

April 27 to May 4, 1919 will be Children's Week. This will be

emphasize the religious education of children. The recent world war has attracted the attention of all patriotic men and women to the enormous value of childhood and the urgent need of conserving the young life of a nation.
That is the reason for the strong clean bodies and well-trained minds alone can never make democracy safe for the world. Something else is needed and that is trained conscience and will. Conscience which knows right from wrong as defined by the Christ and will which can force selfish mortals to obey their consciences, to deny themselves and follow the great Master in service to others.
At least thirteen millions of the twenty-five millions of children under twelve years of age are receiving no religious education whatever. In May, 1917, under the direction of the Christian Sunday School Association, a
Week was observed for the purpose of emphasizing the Christian nurture of babies. This led to the sending of babies being enrolled in Cradle Roll members of the Sunday Schools of the United States, and thousands of mothers and fathers became interested in the church life. This led to the observance of Children's Week in 1918. The success of the study of childhood during that week and the bringing together of parents and teachers in the Sunday Schools and public schools brought whole communities to thinking of the spiritual needs of their children. In 1919 an interesting program for the week has been prepared and can be secured from the Kentucky Sunday School Association.

May 4th will be Kentucky's to-Sunday-School Day. It should be a "Victory Drive" this year.
The Kentucky Sunday School Association originated this day in 1914, and in one year forty thousand new pupils were added to the Sunday Schools of the state.
Great progress was made each year. In 1918, however, because of war conditions there was a falling off in the attendance at Sunday Schools all over the United States. This year the call is made to every Sunday School in the state to observe the day. Committees will be organized and it is hoped that one hundred thousand additional will be made to the Sunday Schools of the state.

There are about 300 Sunday Schools in the State of Kentucky.
The influenza closed all of the schools for a while. Many of them have never started again.
There should be a rally in every community of the state and by May 15 every Sunday School should be opened, and putting forth special efforts to make up for the lost time.

LEE CHANDLER IN FRANCE.

Bourges, France,
Dec. 26, 1918.

Dear Father and Mother: I rec'd your letter of Nov. 26 today and was glad to get it and hear that all of you had gotten well again. I didn't know that uncle Dick had had so much trouble. Charley told me about him spraining his knee but didn't know it was anything very serious. Christmas went off quietly here and I believe about all of us enjoyed it well, considering the fact that all of the season was from home and more than for the first time on Christmas. There was no work on Christmas day except the cooks, and they certainly did enjoy themselves. The old mess kit was being left for father and I had to cram some in my pocket. We had turkey, all we could eat, potatoes, rice, poussin, pickles, biscuits and doughnuts, and I don't think a single one of us could have eaten more.
The V. M. C. A. and Red Cross also distributed tobacco, cigarettes, candy etc to everybody and made it seem to a certain degree like Christmas. The boys with our section of the office went to town for supper Xmas Eve, and I enjoyed the evening fine. There were twenty two of us. We had some dances taken in a crowd and I will send you one as soon as they are finished. I work in the section of the office where the records of the Aviators are kept.
I have been there for about six months. We keep a record of every man when he moves from one place to another, when he gets sick and sent to a hospital and we are supposed to be able to locate any man on short order.

As to how long any of us will be here I don't suppose any body knows. Even if we were to be sent home as soon as transportation could be arranged it would be a good while before all would be across. We can always hear rumors among the boys, of course none of them know about these things, but I am inclined to believe that the outfit will go home with the last half of the men.

I would like very much to be home of course, but I do not worry over the matter the least bit and hope none of you do, as it is no use, and I consider that we are all very, very lucky. I am one of us are held in the service for the next two years, although there is no likelihood of that, I have never had a leave or furlough since I was at home, which is a year ago tomorrow. None of our company have been able to get one until a few weeks ago. I got a seven days pass. I believe that most of us will be able to get one before long if nothing happens. I suppose you have seen accounts of the leave dress in the papers. I hear they have some fine places. I had a copy of the Publisher from Lizzie a few days ago dated Nov-24. She has been quite a number of them from time to time and I think they all finally looked up at the same time. I have never heard of any of the others. I suppose you got my letter telling you that I received the box, if not I got it O. K. and was glad to get it. Every bit of it was in good shape and the candy went fine too. I haven't written to grandmother yet, but will soon you can tell her that I got the socks, and will write her soon.
There are a few members in our outfit and I understand they are to have a social meeting Tuesday night and I guess I'll go along. Let me hear from you often and if there is anything you want me to tell you about ask me As the things around me have all got old and I can't think of anything that would be interesting to you. The censor has just about took the lit off now and it's a good deal less trouble for us fellows to write letters.

Your Son,

HIS CAMPAIGN REPORT.

The law requires for officers to file a report of all expenditures. A patron in Missouri ran for office and in the following absolutely truthful report of what it cost him to get elected:

"Walked 4,000 miles. "Lost two front teeth and a lot of hair" in a personal encounter with an opponent. "Donated one beef, four shoats and five sheep to county barbeques. "Gave away two pairs suspenders, four calico dresses, $5 in cash and 15 baby rattles. "Kissed 120 babies. "Put up four stoves. "Kindled 14 fires. "Washed 4000 mailles. "Shook hands with 9,000 people. "Told 10,101 lies and talked enough to make in print 4,000 volumes; attended 16 revivals and was baptized four different times by immersion and twice some other way. "Contributed $20 to foreign missions and made love to nine widows—five grass, four sod. "Hugged 49 old maids. "Got dog bit 39 times and was elected by 253 majority."

HAS HAD STOMACH TROUBLE FOR SEVERAL YEARS.

Thorndyke Sanford of Fernmore, Mich. has had stomach trouble for seven years and could not get any relief from fruit without pain in the stomach and restless nights; by taking Chamberlain's Tablets he is now able to eat vegetables or fruit without causing pain or sleeplessness. If troubled with constipation or indigestion give these tablets a trial. They are certain to prove beneficial.

ARE DANGEROUS.

I told you to beware of pneumonia. We will sell you every cough wean the lungs, lowers the vitality and paves the way for a more serious disease. People who contract pneumonia first take cold. The longer you delay on the least dangerous, especially from the germ disease, as a cold prepares the system for the reception and development of the germs of consumption, diphtheria, scarlet fever and whooping cough. The quicker you get rid of your cold, the less the danger of contracting one of the diseases. Chamberlain's Cough Remedy has a great reputation as a cure for colds and can be depended upon. It is pleasant to take.

THE MOST DANGEROUS DISEASE

No organ of the human body is so important to health and long life as the kidneys. When they are diseased and unable to filter out the waste products of the body, the result is a condition known as Bright's Disease. This is a very dangerous and often fatal disease. It is caused by the accumulation of waste in the blood, which is due to the kidneys' inability to perform their duty.
