ANNOUNCEMENTS

We are authorized to announce... AS A candidate for Representative from the Eighth First Legislative district...

The supporters of Judge Carroll... they claim, that the country folks are indifferent about the Primary election...

It is true that the country folks have fertile soil... they are keenly interested in the election of our officers...

We are thoroughly opposed to the Republican ticket chosen by the bosses at Lexington... We are opposed to Democratic bosses as much as we are to Republican bosses...

So to the polls, Democrats, to the polls we go, and let every man see that his neighbor is there to cast his vote too!

If the live Democratic newspapers throughout the state will only open their eyes and observe the purpose and effort of the 7th Congressional District to obtain all the Democratic nominations...

For Governor, John D. Carroll, of the 7th District; for Lieutenant Governor, R. C. Oldham, of the 7th District; for Secretary of State, Mas Cohen, of the 7th District; for State Auditor, Henry M. Bosworth, of the 7th District; for Commissioner of Agriculture, John W. Newman, of the 7th District; for Superintendent of Public Instruction, Rice Subank, of the 7th District; for Clerk of the Court of Appeals, Alvin Steger, of the 7th District...

We do not mean to reflect on these candidates because they are from the 7th District, but would it be wise for the Democrats to load down their ticket with too many nominees from that district? It would be unfair to the Democrats of this state; it would be unjust to other districts for the voters throughout the state and should look to this situation before casting their ballots.

Think it over, Brother Editors, and if you conclude that this is correct, let the information be published that the attention of the voters may be called to this serious condition that confronts us.

Gov. Jas. D. Black, for Governor, W. H. Shanks, for Lieutenant Gov. and I. W. P. Brune for Auditor are three names that will look mighty good on the ballot next November. It looks like all three of them are winners. We know Black is, we believe Shanks will be and we hope Brune is to be.

FARMERS COMMUNITY MEETING

The Farmers Community Meeting held here on Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday, a great success, notwithstanding the attendance of the farmers much smaller than was anticipated. The men and women sent here for this occasion, are excited by their bug and those who heard them will profit as they heard. The fact that more farmers did not attend than did, is due to the hay harvest which is on. Had it been possible to arrange the dates for this meeting for a later date, the attendance would have been quite different. Many of our farmers are interested in those things which will help them and help the county, some being interested in anything and the results thereof, including much. Back appears to have for the occasion was present and ably took care of the subject assigned. The picture show for each evening was a disappointment, because of a mishap, yet the evening sessions were full of interest and the most important reels were shown at the Boone Way opera house. Plans are already underway for another meeting just like this one in 1920 and it is more suitable than can be arranged, there is a possibility that the attendance will be quite different. By that time the farmers will realize the benefits of the one just closed and be ready to take advantage of the benefits offered by those in the future.

This meeting closed Wednesday night with an attendance from 700 to 1500 people during the series of lectures. All who attended are reflecting over what was said and done. The people received the greatest good are those who attended every day. Those who attended part of the time, received good also. Those who did not attend will be wonderfully helped indirectly by those who did attend. Therefore the conclusion is that the entire County is better by having had such a meeting. The people of Mt. Vernon did much in advertising the meeting by letter and word, to their friends. Country people were made glad by letter and word and town people by the presence of the country people. All deserve credit for the forward step in real living and letting live.

Each meeting was an inspiration to all. The speakers had a real message and spoke it with heartfelt conviction which brought results and will still continue to bring results. There was a pure bred Duroc pig given away each afternoon at 5:00. Monday afternoon, Wm. McHargue, of Pine Hill, drew the pig. Tuesday, Roscoe Proctor, an Agricultural club boy, of Orlando and Wednesday Miss T. Bida Hunt, of Mt. Vernon, 3 miles out of town on Dixie Highway.

Registration papers were filled out by the County Agricultural Agent and Mr. Walter Miller for each pig. We expect these pigs to be exhibited at the Mt. Vernon Fair Aug. 13, 14, 15. The Fair catalogue states that all pigs must be registered. The 36 papers that were given away were scattered in every section of the county. The papers alone are worth the entire cost of the meeting. If nothing else had been done, The papers will continue to spread good tidings to the readers and the readers to their associates and friends. The good can't be estimated. A movement was started for a meeting to be held in the county each month for the purpose of getting together and discussing big and better things for the county's good. These meetings will be measure for good in proportion to the attendance. The topics of Health, Homes, Schools, Churches, Roads, Agriculture and Live Stock which were discussed in the Farmers Community Meeting must still be discussed in the coming monthly county meetings. These are subjects which are of vital importance to the people and to their happiness. CO-OPERATION was the KEY for our future meetings. The revival has now started in Mt. Vernon lets keep it up. None reached the attention of the county and all are converted to Real Living and Real Happiness which brings success to all.

A CREED FOR ROCKCASTLE COUNTY. Shall we as farmers and citizens accept the following creed: We believe in increasing and maintaining our soil fertility, more and better live stock, growth of localities, rotations of crops, better homes, better schools, better churches, better roads.

The meeting which has just closed touched upon these things mentioned in the suggested creed. Read it, think it over and see if you believe in it as a citizen of Rockcastle County.

ROSE HILL. County Agricultural Agent. Boys' and Girls' Agricultural Club, Colerain, Ky., July 24, 25 and 26th. AW Rockcastle County Club Boys and Girls, local leaders and those who have been invited want to attend this convention. Those who are going must catch train 38 on the K. C. line July 24, so as to reach Berea at 12:55. The afternoon of the 24th will be a great afternoon in Berea. The County Agent and all of Madison county club members will meet all visiting club members and friends at station.

There is Sunday School every Sunday afternoon at Rose Hill church. This school has recently begun to grow and when the Rose-Hill folks get started they do good work.

NOTICE. Anyone wishing to buy a nice stock of groceries will see me at once. I will sell at a bargain. W. H. BROWN, Mt. Vernon, Ky.

Geo. W. Allen and Miss Bertha Logan are to be married today at the home of the bride, Miss Johanna, in this county. George has recently returned from overseas and says he will now settle down and stay in old Rockcastle. We extend congratulations.

Judge Cam Mullins has sold his residence on Gentry Lane, to W. T. Crawford. Price, $20,000. This property joins the one recently bought by Mr. Crawford from Fred Asher. Judge Mullins bought the farm of W. A. McKenzie, known as the Miller farm about one mile east of town. Price paid for farm $1800.

Lieut. Hubert Hall and Miss Ruth Renner were married yesterday at the home of the bride, Mrs. C. G. Hill, at this county. The bride is the attractive daughter of Mr. and Mrs. H. G. Kenner of the southern section of the county. Lieut. Hall has recently returned from eleven months service overseas. They will live in this county for awhile. The Signal joins a host of friends in extending congratulations.

B. R. Wilmont died at the Lakeland Sanitorium, Lexington, Sunday, and his remains were brought to Brodhead, his old home, Monday afternoon and buried in the Christian church cemetery with Masonic honors. He leaves a widow and three small children, two brothers, R. G. Wilmont, of Lexington, and O. C. Wilmont, of Knoxville, and three sisters, Mrs. Walter Miller, of Lebanon Junction; Mrs. George Brooks, of Elvado, near Danville; and Mrs. Homer Wallin, of Danville.

J. P. Matson, and son, Everett will give the collected their 50th and 24th birthdays respectively last Saturday. A big dinner was served at their home in Brodhead as is the usual custom each year. Those attending from a distance were Mr. and Mrs. W. T. Watson, Mr. and Mrs. Karl Prentiss, Miss Anna Prentiss, and Willie Prewitt, of near Lancaster; Miss Bess Layton and John Smith, of Kirksville; and Mr. and Mrs. F. L. Durham, and son, Master Austin, of Mt. Vernon.

The blackberry crop in Rockcastle is a bumper. The fields are full of them and the people are getting good prices for them. W. R. Gott has already bought and shipped over 60,000 pounds, which is over 10,000 gallons. Basing these at 20 cents per gallon you will see that a sum of $3,000.00 has been paid to the people at this crop already. W. R. Gott has already bought a couple of wagon loads yesterday and got $144 for them. This is not all the berrieship from this county by a long shot. There are buyers at Wildie, Brodhead, Livingston, Mareburg, Mullins Station, Rock Hill and every other station. The blackberry crop for Rockcastle will more than likely reach the $8,000.00 mark before the season closes.

Let Fish do your t. loring and it will be done well.

Capl. D. C. Tackett, of Wickliffe, Ky., is the Superintendent of construction of the Dixie Highway, which road is being built by convict labor. Capt. Sackett knows road building and likewise knows what a days work is. The convict boys are getting accustomed to the temperature and are doing good work. Capt. Sackett is much pleased with the progress of the work and those who have passed over the grade which is being built south of town, are equally well pleased with the character of work that is being done.

Mt. Vernon has two new Doctors one M. T. ... at Dr. S. ...

The former is Dr. Byron Owens, nephew of Dr. Walker Owens and the latter is our own John D. Henderson. They are both third year men, and are in school and standing in class shows them to be good ones. They have fitted up a small practice here, principally they will devote themselves to that line which will benefit them most in their next years' work. It is safe to say that July 1920 will see the shingles of both these splendid young men hung out in Mt. Vernon.

W. R. Gott & Co. are shipping from Mt. Vernon an average of 125 cases of blackberries. These cans hold seven and eight gallons to the can. What goes out from Mt. Vernon is a small part compared with those shipped from all other points in the county. J. S. Gott, of Berea, is the buyer for the Lippincott Co., all over the state. Never has there been known a crop of blackberries the equal of the 1919 crop and had it not been for Mr. Gott thousands of gallons would no doubt have wasted in the fields. Mr. Gott figures that he will pay to the people of this county alone not less than $1,500,000 for berries.

FROM TRENTON MISSOURI.

To Mt. Vernon Signal: The death of little Beulah Hibbard, Beulah, the fourteen month-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Hiram Hibbard, of this county, Kentucky, Friday, July 11, at ten minutes to eleven o'clock. She suffered two days with a burn. Her family was a sudden shock to her death. The child was playing around the stove on which her mother was baking, when she pitched forward, falling with both hands against the red hot stove. Both hands were severely burned and the shock to the child was so great that she never revived. The funeral services were held Thursday afternoon at Grand Center. The child was a grand daughter of Mr. and Mrs. G. R. Reams. Mr. Hibbard lived at Radley, Ky., several years. From there he moved to Laurel county, then in August 1918, he moved to Trenton, Mo., where he has since lived.

County Commission

The Rockcastle County Dixie Highway Commission recently named for this county met yesterday morning in the law offices of Judge L. W. Bethurum and organized by electing E. S. Al'bright, Chairman and W. H. Fish, Secretary. The other members of the committee are Judge L. W. Bethurum, Dr. M. Pennington, Chas. C. Davis, of Mt. Vernon, H. H. Wood, of Wildie and R. G. Webb, of Livingston. The duties of this committee are to act in conjunction with the Dixie Highway Commission, the State Road department and the county authorities in the construction of the Dixie through Rockcastle and other roads of the county as well.

The following resolution was adopted:

RESOLVED, That we accept appointment as members of the Rockcastle County Dixie Highway Committee, the purpose of which is to cooperate with the Dixie Highway Commission and the State Road Department of Kentucky in the furtherance of the construction of the Dixie Highway and other public roads through Rockcastle County and other counties of this section of the State, and we enter our hearty and enthusiastic approval upon the Dixie Highway, and the intention of this resolution is to notify the said Dixie Highway Commission and

Red Cross Peace-Servic Includes Continued Care of Returning Fighters.

SINCE the first call to arm the chief aim of the American Red Cross has been to secure the comfort and welfare of the American boys in service.

The Red Cross as an organization has been growing with the growing needs of the soldiers, sailors and marines since the first transport started overseas.

How taken care of comfortably all the way over the Red Cross will continue to provide for their welfare until the last man goes off the gang plank of the last transport or leaves the doorway of the last hospital.

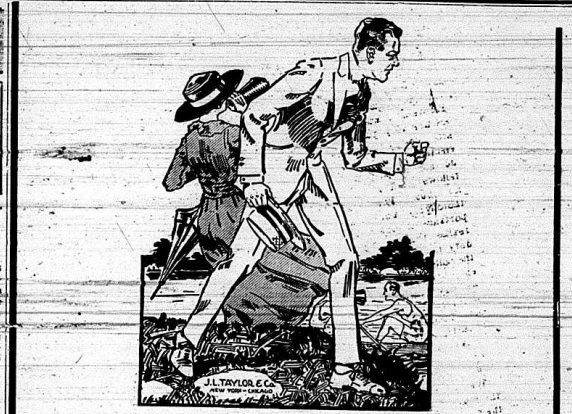

How the Red Cross Helps The soldier is not discouraged, but he can't help thinking, as he lies there in the arms of his twisted neck, of the life for the transport that will take him home.

When the soldier reaches the convalescent stage, here in the Red Cross home with its hospital, its cots, its easy chairs, its music, its books, its newspapers, and its friendly nurses, he is cared for in the best way possible.

When the latest innovation are the banking system established in every town, the demobilization camps, the health care of some, the care of the discharged soldier to deposit part of his discharge money for his return to his bank, he may designate in exchange for a non-transferable receipt.
