Unredeemed Land To Be Sold For Taxes

In accordance with the laws of the State now in full force, I will sell to the highest and best bidder the following described property or so much thereof as to pay the tax, cost and penalties now due the State of Kentucky and county of Rockcastle by the parties hereinafter mentioned.

This sale will take place at the door of the Rockcastle county Court House in Mt. Vernon, Ky., on the 15th and 16th days of August, 1919, at 1 o'clock p.m., and will continue thereafter without further notice.

Deed, with Fee Simple Title will be given to the highest and best bidder, AND NOT ANY OF THE PROPERTY WILL BE SUBJECT TO REDEMPTION THEREAFTER.

Any parties desiring final opportunity to redeem their property can do so by seeing me at my office in Greenville, Ky., on any day previous to the date of this sale, viz., by mailing me at Greenville, Ky., by registered mail, check or money order for amounts as hereinafter set out, giving correct postoffice address for receipt to be returned, and the lien will be properly released of record.

Very respectfully yours,
W. H. GRAY,
Revenue Agent for State at Large.

Miss Ethel Hayse is visiting relatives in Indiana.—Dr. W. T. Amyx moved his family into the property that he purchased of J. P. E. Drummond on Main Street, near the depot and J. W. Higgins is moving into the property vacated by the Doctor.—Do not forget Saturday. Get up early and go to the polls and do all you can for Gov. Black.—Miss Ella Mae Biantford is with home folks this week after several days stay in Louisville.—Arnie Hayse, of Cincinnati, has been visiting his grand parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Hayse and is visiting relatives at Mt. Vernon at present.—Mrs. A. McKinney of the Freedom section, has been visiting relatives here.—Rev. Kim Pike, of Lexington, was here latter part of last week. He preached one night at the Presbyterian church here and folks that heard him claim that he is some preacher. He is a Rockcastle boy and this sounds good to us. He was accompanied by his brother, Rev. A. J. Pike, of Brodhead, one of Rockcastle's best preachers.

G. S. Griffin, of Mt. Vernon is in our city Tuesday on business.—J. N. Clark is in Louisville for a few days.—Wonder what has become of my friend at Brodhead. It seems that his letters have got few and far between. We were always eager to read his write-ups and as we have friends in the good little town of Brodhead we sadly miss the news. So come on and give us the news and we will promise to be good, and if our old friend, James Martin, says anything we will doubt team on him.—Mrs. George Dennan and children, of Etowah, Tenn., have returned home after a few days visit with her mother, Mrs. Jane Bales.—J. M. Fourie, the blind preacher, has returned from a few days sojourn at Corbin, Harlan and Pineville.—Only a few more hours until the primary election. Boys get busy those few remaining hours, put on your political fighting clothes, go to every nook and corner of your precinct, tell all demagogue you meet to get busy that Saturday is the election and what ever we do we must not fall to go to the polls and every one give James D. Black a vote and then and there we will say you have done your duty. Get busy and keep it up until Saturday night, when you will hear that Black has been nominated.—Leslie Rambo, son of Mr. and Mrs. D. B. Rambo has typhoid but is getting along splendid with the attention of W. T. Amyx.—Miss Jalet Griffin, of Mt. Vernon, was here between trains Monday.—Mrs. Lee Mullins and children, are spending the week with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Sam Stalworth, near East Bernstadt.—Mrs. I. W. Catlin, after a weeks visit with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. G. Nickey, has returned to her home at Highland Park.—Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Biantford motored to Parksville and spent from Friday until Monday. They also visited friends at Danville.—Mr. John Hall is visiting relatives in Paris this week.—Atty. J. A. Owens, of Mt. Vernon, was here between trains Monday.—A company, unloading one of the largest oil well drilling outfits here this week and it was taken over Gauley to the Gilliam farm where work will begin at once. Hurrah for old Rockcastle and if we don't strike oil we are at least boring with a mighty big anger. Walter Owens, who returned from overseas about a week ago, is working for the L. & N. at Ravenna.—Miss Marie Rambo has returned from a few days visit with Jalet Griffin near Mt. Vernon.—Mrs. G. S. Griffin and children, Burgess and Avey, were here between trains Monday.—Mr. and Mrs. Sam Hillard, after a few days visit with relatives here have returned home to Ravenna.—Mrs. E. B. Mr. W. C. Johnson, Orlando, Ky.
Dear Uncle:
It has been some time indeed, since I heard from you, so I am going to drop you a few lines tonight while I am not working, just to remind you of the fact I am still among the living. I am in the best of health and feeling fine. The thing that is worrying me most now, is, when in the Sam Hill I am going to get home. I have been over, as perhaps you know, fourteen months. I landed here on April 22, 1918. I came over with a Regular Army Division (the 5th) which took an active part in giving the Huns what they deserved, from the time we landed up to the time the armistice was signed. We were in a number of battles, the most important were the St. Mihiel offensive on Sept. 13th, and the great Argonne-Meuse. Since the Armistice was signed, I have been with the Veterinary Dept. until recently we turned our horses over to the Quartermaster and made preparations to go home, and our orders were canceled, and we were put back in the Army of Occupation. I am now clerk in the Supply Office. Don't have a great lot of work to do at present as our work has been suspended somewhat since our property was turned in.
My trip over here has been a wonderful adventure for me. I have seen many wonderful things which I shall tell you more about when I come.
I have seen some pretty country. Have seen the greater part of France, some of Belgium, Italy and a part of the "Fatherland." There's but little difference

BLACK A WINNER

Tomorrow is the final day and when the polls close we confidently expect to hear the good news that Gov. James D. Black has been nominated by an overwhelming majority. Our last appeal is for every Democrat to go to the polls and let Black come to the Black column as having done her full duty.

Washington, July 29—As anticipated, the house tonight passed the resolution directing Secretary of War Baker to sell without delay to the public the surplus surplus army food.

There were only four votes against it, Representatives Dominick, South Carolina; Garner, Texas; Garrett, Tennessee and Humphreys, Mississippi, all Democrats. The vote in the affirmative was 269.

But the resolution was preceded by a day of bitter partisan debate, in which Democrats objected strenuously to the report made by majority members of the special committee investigating War Department expenditures.

This report censured Secretary of War Baker, and declared he withheld food from the American people with intent to sell it abroad.

Democrats announced they did not oppose the resolution that objection being to the report. However, they attempted to modify the resolution by adding amendments, one committing the House to an appropriation to assist the War Department in the public sale; the other leaving it to the discretion of the Secretary to sell certain food to other than consumers. These amendments as offered in a sub-resolution by Mr. Garrett were defeated by vote of 160 to 114.

The Great Brodhead Fair

WELCOMES THE SOLDIER BOYS Every soldier boy in the county has been to the Brodhead Fair and knows all about the beautiful grounds, fine shades and an abundance of cool fresh water.
Just an ideal spot to have a big time. We are making the fair this year especially attractive to the boys who have been "over the top," and want to forget the awful tragedy—as they all do.
They will not be asked to parade in the dust and heat, because we know they would not do it.
Most of their uniforms are soiled, they have no guns and are not in practice. We will be ever rass them in that way. So here's to the soldier boys? Bring your sweethearts and sisters to the GREAT BRODHEAD FAIR where you will find everything to make you happy. If you have no sweetheart, there will be hundreds of pretty girls here to greet you and guarantee you a good time. Don't forget the dates Aug. 20, 21, 22.

SHANKS SHOWS WHITE FEATHER

Will Not Meet Oldham In Debate.

"Bitter Disappointment to Me" Says His Opponent. "How can he meet the Republicans?"

As was expected here the chalenge of R. C. Oldham, candidate for the Democratic nomination for Lieutenant Governor, to W.
O. Shanks, his opponent to meet him in joint debate at Owenton, was not accepted. The Interior Journal published in Stanford, and the paper that groomed Shanks for the race, had said that he would certainly be there.
The local Courier rightly predicted in last week's issue about me that "Col. Oldham is a good speaker, and we doubt that Shanks will be willing to cross oratorical lances with him."

Oldham said in an interview this morning: "It is a bitter disappointment to me. Since he announced his friends have told me that I wanted explained. I did not invite him to a mud slinging contest, but simply gave him an opportunity to explain to the people.

I might have asked him about that disgraceful record of his as a member of the Kentucky Legislature. His friends have circulated rumors that the Republicans would be able to attack me; that both candidates for Governor would slate against me, and many other underhand insinuations and I was eager for an opportunity to have their championing to make these charges to my face and answer mine to him. I would not make any in any other manner than direct. After these rumors were proven false and malicious they were printed in newspapers as PAID ADVERTIS-ING and I would have asked him to explain that. I sincerely regret that he has dodged the issue, and can not see how he could be expected to meet his Republican opponent should he be the nominee and be challenged.

There is no reason that can be given why I will not poll the entire party strength in the ticket and he knows it. I will welcome the opportunity at any time to meet any Democrat or to meet Ed. Morrow or any Republican on earth on the stump to debate anywhere in Kentucky.—(The Daily Democrat.)

A TRAVELING MAN EXPERIENCE

You may learn something from the following by W. H. Ireland, a traveling salesman of Louisville, Ky. "In the summer of 1888 I had a severe attack of cholera morbus. I gave the hotel porter fifty cents and told him to buy me a bottle of Chamberlain's Colic and Diarrhoea Remedy and to take no substitute. I took a double dose of it according to the directions and went to sleep.
At five o'clock the next morning I was called by my order and took a train for my next stopping place, a well man."

Thomas Jefferson through the Declaration of Independence helped set the new world free, says Chairman Homer S. Cummings of the Democratic National Committee, "while today Woodrow Wilson is the prime force in preparing a document of liberty that is destined to set the whole world free." But there are certain "nonpartisan" Republicans who strenuously decry a universal freedom because a Democratic President has made it possible.

The Waterway To Health CALLED HER FAMILY TO HER BEDSIDE

Six Years Ago, Thinking She Might Die, Says Texas Lady, But Now She is a Well, Strong Woman and Praises Cardui For Her Recovery.

Royce City, Tex.—Mrs. Mary Kilman, of this place, says: "After the birth of my little girl... my side commenced to hurt me. I had to go back to bed. We called the doctor. He treated me, but I got no better. I got worse and worse until the misery was unbearable... I was in bed for three months and suffered such agony that I was just down up in a knot...
I told my husband if he would get me a bottle of Cardui I would try it...
I commenced taking it, however, that evening I called my family about me... for I knew I could not last many days unless I had a change for the better. That was six years ago and I am still here and am a well, strong woman, and I owe my life to Cardui. I had only taken half a bottle when I began to feel better.
The misery in my side got less... I continued right on taking the Cardui until I had taken three bottles and I did not need any more for I was well and never felt better in my life... I have never had any trouble from that day to this."
Do you suffer from headache, backache, pains in sides, or other discomforts, each month? Or do you feel weak, nervous and fagged-out? If so, give Cardui, the woman's tonic, a trial. J. T.

NE'S A SURE WINNER!

The Mt. Vernon Agricultural Club, composed of Margaret Fish, Laura and Lara Hiatt, Sula Wallen, Robert Fish, Russell Niecey, Bernard Franklin and Albert Cooper, accompanied by Miss Myrtle Bryant, attended the District Agricultural Convention at Berea, Thursday, Friday and Saturday. Those with 230 other members and leaders were entertained at Berea College.

On Thursday afternoon, after making a tour of the town in automobiles and trucks, various places of interest were visited: The dairy barn, where electric milkers were in operation, a cow which for a time gave ten gallons of milk a day, and another which furnishes forty pounds of butter per week. The ice-plant, printing office, laundry and the chimneys in the chapel tower also were visited.

Friday was devoted to lectures and talks by various able speakers, followed by a reception at the home of County Agent, Mr. Spence. Besides the great benefit derived from this convention, the boys and girls report the "time of their lives."

New officers elected for the ensuing year are: President—Homer Hansel, Livingston, Vice-President, Laura Hiatt and Secretary Russell Niecey.

A GREAT REMEDY.

The merits of Chamberlain's Colic and Diarrhoea Remedy are well known and appreciated, but there is occasionally a man who had no acquaintance with them should read the following by F. H. Dear, a hotel man at Dupuy, Mont.: "Four years ago I used Chamberlain's Colic and Diarrhoea Remedy with such wonderful results that I have since recommended it to my friends."

About Prices

Frank statements concerning the present conditions and tendencies of merchandise are not to be "viewed with alarm." We mention them merely in a spirit of service and because of a desire to protect your interests.

Prices are growing higher as goods grow scarcer—that we know. When our present stocks of clothing and shoes are gone we shall be obliged to replace them at increased costs.

In the meantime, greater values are obtainable now than will later be possible.

It is decidedly to your advantage to supply your fall clothing and shoe needs without delay.
