Coleys Shows will be one of the main attractions at the Mt. Vernon Fair. They carry one of the largest Ferris wheels in the country and if you want a real thrill don't fail to get on.

If you have no catalog of the Brodhead Fair it will pay you to write the Secretary at once as the premiums will surprise you. It is worth your time and effort this year to be in this exhibit.

J. M. Craig, Bogue Brown and Cecil Brown were over from Lancaster yesterday buying stock. They say the Garrard and Lincoln county folks are coming to the Mt. Vernon fair in full strength.

The Manager of Coleys famous shows that will have the Midway at the Brodhead Fair reports his company will occupy the entire to acre area up-to-date by the race track. Mr. Robins sold his store several weeks ago on advice of his physician that he must get out of the goods business because of his health. He is undecided what he will do, whether he will re-buy in Brodhead or buy elsewhere.

He has been strongly urged by leading business men of Stanford, Cran Orchard and Mt. Vernon to locate at either place he might desire. Mr. Robins is a splendid business man, progressive and energetic and will be a valuable asset to any place where he may choose to locate. A cordial welcome awaits him in Mt. Vernon, should he decide upon our little city as the place for his future home.

BRODHEAD METHODIST CHURCH ANNOUNCEMENT.

Rev. C. H. Groer, Presiding Elder, will preach Friday night. Rev. R. C. Evans, pastor, will preach the last sermon of the Conference year Sunday morning and evening. We hope we can have a good attendance at these services.

Next week is the Mt. Vernon Fair and the following week is Brodhead Fair. Get ready and take in both fairs. For the past two years it has been all work and little play, the summer will soon be gone and a little vacation does every one good. At these fairs are mighty good places to spend a little vacation. Come to Mt. Vernon next week and then be ready for Brodhead the next.

The starroll for the first month of Fairview school is as follows: Second grade—Flossie Poynter, Lula Poynter, Agnes Lambert, William Wren.

Third Grade—Mamie Johnson, Fifth Grade—Millard Poynter, Earnest Kirby, Oscar Hayes, Opal Johnson, Naomi Wren, Virgil Bailey, Rosa Webb, Raymond Poynter, Aderson Richmond.

Seventh grade—Robert Gadd, Opal Leo Wren, Gladys Howard, Fred Bailey, Grace Poynter, Lillie Poynter.

Teachers, Miss Fannie Wynn, Wade L. Skidmore.

The Oak Hill school reports the following pupils that were successful in making the Honor Roll the first month: 5th grade, Clyde Smith; 6th grade, Everett Bowman; 1st grade, June Smith and Hunley Rigby. This means the children mentioned above were neither absent nor tardy and made an average of 84 percent. We are indeed excited to see this number increased month by month and believe that it will do so. The pie supper given at this place last Saturday evening was well attended. Quite a number from Brodhead and others outside the district were well come guests and helped swell the proceeds to $27.00. This amount will be spent for some badly needed school supplies.

Miss Clyde Watson, Teacher.

A state wide educational campaign will be waged the week of August 25-30 in every school district in Kentucky. Announcement of plans were sent out by Mrs. Cora Wilson Stewart, Chairman of the Kentucky Illiteracy Commission, to every County Superintendent and to every County Illiteracy Agent today.

Local speakers will tour the county on August 25, 26, 27 and 28, and a state speaker sent by the Kentucky illiteracy Commission will speak at the final rally at the county seat on Friday or Saturday following.

The phases of education emphasized in this campaign will be the removal of illiteracy, increase of day school attendance and better salaries for teachers. It is a campaign of the Kentucky Illiteracy Commission and the County School Superintendents' Association. The speakers will be announced later.

The assurance comes that the Dixie Highway will be completed through Rockcastle and every things points that it will be done next year. The Rockcastle Fiscal Court has made a deal with the State Road department whereby the completion of the road is assured, and Mr. Wiley the State Road Commissioner says he hopes to complete it by the close of 1920, all the way from Parkers Creek to the Madison line? For several days Judge McMillen, the Dixie Highway Commission and others have been busy getting some additional right-of-ways which are necessary to meet State and National specifications. The State and Nation are going to build this road for Rockcastle and it is hoped that none of our citizens will do anything to retard the progress. Judge Molins and others are working day and night to get this road and the question of right-of-way should not be any consideration for the man who is to have this road.

How Are You Going to Keep 'Em on the Farm?

ANSWER:
 With Electric Lights

Delco-Lights Makes the Farm Home More Attractive to the Girl or Boy

When Delco-Light is installed there is no longer as great incentive for the son or daughter to go to the city. Its conveniences are brought to their home in the country.

The daughter can have electric lights in her room, an electric curling iron and all other comforts that are so much desired by young women. It makes the chores easier for the son and provides power for operating labor saving tools.

Delco Light so modernizes the farm home that it brings cheer and satisfaction to every member of the family.

A GREAT REMEDY.

The merits of Chamberlain's Colic and Diarrhoea Remedy are well known and appreciated, but there is occasionally a man who had no acquaintance with them should read the following by F. H. Doss, a hotel man at Deputy's, Mead: "Four years ago I used Chamberlain's Colic and Diarrhoea Remedy with such wonderful results that I have since recommended it to my friends."

TUESDAY'S PRIMARY. Rockcastle did very well as far as she went, but when the voters do not realize the importance of going to the polls and voting, when important questions are to be decided, and when nearly one-half of the voters of any political party does not go to the polls at all, there is certainly an evidence of indifference, which is inexcusable.

The small vote cast does not justify a tabulation of the returns and we shall only give the vote of each candidate.

ANNOUNCEMENT.
By way of announcement, we hereby give notice to the patrons of the Livingston Graded School that the 1919 term will begin the first Monday in September.

The School Board is very desirous of having the best school possible, and to accomplish this have employed what they believe to be the best faculty possible to get, and this without exception; and ask that the patrons of the school reciprocate this action by giving to the board and the faculty their unselfish and unlimited cooperation. When this is done which we hope will be, it can be said of the Livingston Graded School, what ought to be said, that it has no superior, and of such a reputation and distinction we would feel proud, and of which our town would derive great benefits.

The Trustees are doing their part to make this the most successful term of school that Livingston ever had, and our worthy principal is now preparing a catalogue for the school, and which will soon be ready for publication, and when ready, every patron of the school shall have one and inform themselves in regard to the course of study as well as the methods and principles that shall at all times dominate the school.

Political Reflection

The Republicans had no important contest in the primary; the Democrats had many contests, and yet Eighth District Democrats stayed at home from the primary and from a synchronous election and permitted the defeat of their candidate for Congress. This was the outstanding feature of Saturday's voting as the Times sees it, and it reveals again a condition in the Democratic party that calls for heroic measures if anything is to be done politically in this State.

Capt. Swape stayed in the army, and Judge Hardin did not, and the reports from the district are that the winner pitched his campaign along that line and promised much legislative consideration to the men who wore the khaki. This unquestionably was his main reason, but it does not fully explain the defeat of the Democratic nominee. The vote in Shelby county is an indication of the fact that Eighth district Democrats simply resigned away from the polls despite the fact that they had a Congressman to elect and that their partisans, from Governor down, were contending for nomination, but could not get an obscure Republican by only 6,000 votes; and now comes the return of a Republican Congressman by the Eighth district, a thoroughly representative American constituency. This result will be heralded, and quite naturally, as a repudiation of the President and the League, and the national Republicans will make much of it. But to the Times the vote in Shelby county alone pictures internal party dissension and reveals an indifference toward party pride that would be amazing if it were not so logical.

It is greatly favorable to the Republicans that they have wise and undisputed leadership. Like nations at a primary held at the same time, Governor Black, who won the nomination he sought; Senators Stanley and Beckham; the Democratic Congressmen from the State and the national leaders, too, may well give some intensive study to the situation here. It was presaged when Mr. Stanley, with the President in the governmental system in European countries is the system of the Kentucky Republicans; a chief in council and a chief in pageant. Mr. Hert, the national committee man, is the chief in council under whose leadership policies are inaugurated and followed, and his wise direction has done much to achieve the present situation in the State. Mr. Morrow is the chief in pageant, and his personality and oratory have given his party a prepossessing candidate for high office. On the Democratic side leadership is divided and disputed and there is no party cohesion.

What may be done between now and November cannot yet be estimated, but the Republicans have every reason to plume themselves. Every reason but one, for the ratcheted defeat of the negro legislative candidate in Louisville will return to plague them. Of course, from a standpoint of practical politics the leaders were required to eliminate the negro if they could, since his nomination under the cabin would have disaffected thousands of voters from Mr. Morrow. But in eliminating him they sowed certain small objects that may develop into dragon's teeth and produce a warlike crop of troubles.

The negro candidate should have been surprised that he was unpopular when he offered to be a guest at a Republican wedding. His people have been exploited politically by that party for years because they vote as a mass for it. He is quoted as saying that he and 40,000 other negroes will vote the Democratic ticket this fall. That would be an effective reprisal, but one hardly to be expected, since it has grown to be a habit for them to vote the Republican ticket every year. The negro should have no party; he should vote as an individual, like the white man; and when he does he will be more effective in citizen ship.

So far as the Democratic primary itself is concerned, when its votes are fully recorded it will be seen that not more than one-fourth of the Democrats came to the polls. Thus once more does the primary law show its own weakness and fatality, and the duty of the next Legislature is to find some way whereby representative party nominations can be made hereafter and independents participate as they choose in the selection of candidates.

—Louisville Times. THE defeat of Judge Charles B. Hardin for Congress in the Eighth Congressional district is not any great surprise to the majority of the people of the state. There is no use whipping the devil around the stump about it, there is one and only one thing that brought about the defeat of Judge Hardin. The people did not particularly want King Swape, neither because of his ability or popularity, but they remembered the day when Judge Hardin, while Chairman of the State Central Committee, took the bill by the horns and declared A. O. Stanley the nominee for the U. S. Senate. Stanley was not the choice of the people and he and Judge Hardin well knew it and the day that the announcement was given out that the nomination must be made by a convention and that the committee had named Governor A. O. Stanley, that day Judge Hardin lost that which cost him his seat in Congress. Stanley rule in Kentucky is done with and those who are trying to hold him up and follow his tactics may find it out before it is everlasting too late.

Within the vote in Rockcastle was far below what it should have been, yet those who did go to the polls did the right thing by our good friend Gov. Jas. D. Black. Out of 484 votes cast he received 453 or a majority over both the other candidates of 429. We had hoped to see Gov. Black leave Rockcastle with a better vote, but many were busy, some thought it unnecessary to go to the polls at a primary and others staid away for various reasons. It is safe to say that every democrat will be at the polls next November and cast his vote for the mountain man and friend of the people, Gov. James D. Black.

Railroad brotherhoods backed by the American Federation of Labor, having started a drive for a fund of millions to be used in propaganda for the Plumb plan of nationalization or railway systems. The plan contemplates "education" of the people as to the plan with demonstrations in of the scheme Labor day. It is regarded as probable that the plan will be an issue in the next presidential election, for officials of the unions said that if the present Congress does not adopt the plan a Congress "will be chosen that will pass the necessary legislation."

President Wilson will take steps to effect immediate reduction of the price of foodstuffs. Congress will receive a message from him requesting enactment of whatever legislation may be necessary to lower prices. The Department of Justice has been ordered to make war immediately on all hoarders of supplies and all profiteers. Julius H. Barnes has decided to retain the guaranteed price of $2.20 a bushel for wheat in order to prevent the rise of price. Barnes promised a stabilization of flour prices and hopes to be able to supply all that is needed at $10 a barrel.

Housewives and mothers will do well to have a look at the motoballs tucked in the pocket and folds of their men's fall and winter suits, for every suit purchased, beginning next fall, is to cost from 25 to 40 per cent more than formerly. EVOLUTION.

Three men, an Irishman, a Swede and a Hebrew were brought into court. The Hebrew was arrested for stealing a cow, the Swede for stealing a horse, and the Irishman for stealing a wagon.

"Well," said the judge, turning to the Hebrew, "where did you get the cow?" "I've had it since it was a calf," was the reply.

"Where did you get the horse?" he asked the Swede.

"I've had it since it was a colt," was the reply of the Swede. "And Patrick, where did you get the wagon?" asked the judge of the thief.

"Oh, Your Honor, I've had it since it was a wheelbarrow."

A TRAVELING MAN EXPERIENCE.

Will Nessels, a young mechanic in Lewis & Dry's garage at Lebanon, was shot and fatally wounded by Dan McChord. The trouble is said to have arisen over the repairing of an auto.

The death of Judge J. F. Butler, of the Pike-Letcher district will give Gov. Black the opportunity to appoint a Democrat.

CALLED HER FAMILY TO HER BEDSIDE

Six Years Ago, Thinking She Might Die, Says Texas Lady, But Now She Is a Well, Strong Woman and Praises Cardui For Her Recovery.

Boys' City, Tex.—Mrs. Mary Kilman, of this place, says: "After the birth of my little girl... my side commenced to hurt me. I had to go back to bed. We called the doctor. He treated me... but I got no better. I got worse and worse until the misery was unbearable... I was in bed for three months and endured such agony that I was just drawn up in a knot... I got my husband if he would get me a bottle of Cardui I would try it... I commenced taking it, however, that evening. I called my family about me... for I knew I could not last many days unless I had a change for the better. That was six years ago and I am still here and am a well, strong woman, and I owe my life to Cardui. I had only taken half the bottle when I began to feel better. The misery in my side got less... I continued right on taking the Cardui until I had taken three bottles and I did not need any more for my life... I have never had any trouble from that day to this. Do you suffer from headache, backache, pains in sides, or other discomforts, such as nervous? Or do you feel weak, nervous and lagged-out? If so, give Cardui, the woman's tonic, a steady trial." 71
