Elk City, Oklahoma March, 14, 1921.

Well I have been reading the Signal and someone from Somersford wanted to hear from some one that was raised in old Kentucky. I was for one, and if I thought I would write a few lines. I was borned May 30 1858 down on the somersford road four miles Ask Sam Lewis if he ever knew Bird Bloomer. Sam and I went to school together at the Tyfoe school house on the branch. My first wife was N. L. Southard sister to Milt Southard, my second wife was Sampans Watson, second cousin of Miss Clyde Watson. Me and both my wives were raised in Kentucky, Rockcastle County, and I love the name yet I have been away forty years last September 16th and just been back once. I live till May 30th. I will be 63 years old and if I live until fall I intend to see old Kentucky, about September 15th of this year again. My last wife died July 9, 1920, so you see I am alone again. — Bird Bloomer.

Was Very Weak
"After the birth of my baby I had a back-ache," writes Mrs. Mattie Crosswhite, of Glade Spring, Va. "I was very ill, thought I was going to die. I was so weak I couldn't raise my head to get a drink of water. I took medicine, but I didn't get any better. I was constipated and very weak, getting worse and worse. I sent for Cardui."

TAKE CARDUI The Woman's Tonic
"I found after one bottle of Cardui I was improving," adds Mrs. Crosswhite. "Six bottles of Cardui and... I was cured, yes, I can say they were a God-send to me. I believe I would have died, had I not been for Cardui." Cardui has been found beneficial in many thousands of other cases of womanly troubles. If you feel the need of a good strengthening tonic, why not try Cardui? It may be just what you need.

Brodhead

On Wednesday evening of last week, March 23, Robert H. B. Treanin and Miss Irene Van Dyck entertained at the school building, this was the fourth program of the continental system course, and while each of the preceding programs were high grade and very entertaining none have surpassed this one. Mr. Treanin is a Canadian and told much of his early life. He was left an orphan at an early age and was reared by a Scottish family. He composed a greater number of his readings, the following numbers were: "The Camp Meeting in Dixie," "Deacon Jones catching a rooster on Sunday morning," "Sid Perkins' campship," and many others, which brought screams of laughter to the audience. Miss Van Dyck is a thorough musician and possesses a very beautiful voice and rendered many of the favorite songs. The next program, April 4th, International Glee Club, which consists of four young men, each one not only versatile, but wonderful musicians. Their program consists of vocal and instrumental numbers, readings, sketches, impersonations and is sure to please all. Mrs. O. W. Turpin is visiting her son, Bub Turpin, and family at Marengo, Mrs. E. P. Robbins and children visited her father J. R. Howard and sister Mrs. J. B. Green on Copper Creek first of the week. George Reynolds, after a three weeks visit with his sister, Mrs. O. F. Wagon, has returned to Chicago. Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Owens visited Mr. and Mrs. Silas Owens.

W. H. Doan moved to his farm at Spiro last Friday, which he purchased from Barto Dillingham, and Josh Wilson moved to his property on Silver street, which was vacated by Mr. Doan. Rev. and Mrs. A. J. Pile entertained at a birthday dinner, on Sunday March 14th, in honor of the twenty first birthday of their son, Goebel. The guests of honor were Messrs. Ray Crawford, Will Sowder, Horace Terrill, Orren Wallen, Dan Grey, Les Elder, Alfred Prith, Minnie Terrill and Albert Jarrett. Misses Pearl and Bess Hicks, Mesdames D. H. Grey, O. E. Wallen and H. E. Christie. The table was heavily loaded with the huge cake with its twenty one burning candles. Goebel is the youngest in a family of ten living children, and Rev. and Mrs. Pike are grateful for having lived to see him reach manhood. Uncle Tom Owens suffered a stroke at parlors Sunday. He was reported better last night. Miss Ida Brock and Mr. John York were married at the home of the officiating minister, Rev. A. J. Pike, March 24th, in the presence of a few friends. Edgar D. Newland and Urban Cass are at home from Covington. Mrs. H. E. Christie has been very sick.

Misses Elberta Martin and Lillian Wallen very loyally entertained their friends with an all day Easter picnic last Sunday. Misses Ella Belle Newland and Effie Reynolds were up from Clark Field for Easter. Misses Wilma Hussel and continues very sick. Misses Katharine Jones, Ella Mae and Rizza Cummins spent the week end with parents at Stanford. Rev. and Mrs. D. G. Cooch of Crab Orchard visited their nephew, Josh Wilson and family Sunday and Monday. J. E. Wallen was at home from Danville Sunday. Mrs. H. E. Christie and daughter little Miss Anna Elizabeth, and Miss Pearl Owens were at home from a visit with friends and relatives at Danville and Lexington. Mrs. J. M. Owens returned Saturday from a visit with her daughter, Mrs. Frank Saylor, at Lexington. Miss Mary Saylor and Sarah Soward of Lexington School, Mt. Vernon, visited the family of F. P. Robbins, Sunday. Charlie Hendrickson is at home from Pineville this week. Mr. J. J. Painter and Children of Haddix, are visiting Mr. and Mrs. I. N. Vanhook, this week. Mrs. Clara Brown and Children of Livingston were the guest of the week. Mr. and Mrs. John Soward of Illinois, were recent visitors at the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Sowder. Roy Owens was at home from Corbin for Easter. — Master Estel McFee and Misses Eva McFee and Mary and Margaret Carter were in Mt. Vernon between trains Saturday. — Miss Pearl Hicks was hostess at an Easter dinner Sunday. Those present were: Misses, Pearl and Ella Belle Newland, Effie Reynolds, Pearl and Bess Hick, Messrs. Ed Newland, G. E. Wallen, and Larry Hicks Mesdames, W. F. Carter and O. E. Wallen. A delightful day was spent by all. — Josh Wilson was in Stanford Monday. — Mrs. W. A. Murphy is in Stanford this week, having dental work done.

PREVENTATIVE MEDICINE

The tendency of medical science is toward preventative measures. It is easier and better to prevent than to cure. Pneumonia, one of the most dangerous diseases that medical men have to contend with, often follows a cold or a sore of the grip. The cold prepares the system for the reception and development of the pneumonia germ. The longer the colds hang on, the greater the danger. Take Chamberlain's Cough Remedy, as soon as the first indication of a cold appears so as to get rid of it with the least possible delay. It is fully as likely to prevent an attack of pneumonia when the remedy may be obtained for a trifle.

THE SOY BEAN

The general practice for seed production is the row method, 30 to 40 inches apart. For hay, sodded, or green manure is drilled or broadcasted crop furnished a finer quality of forage. In rows, from 20 to 30 pounds of seed, from the acre are required; when sown broadcast or drilled, from 60 to 90 pounds.

SOIL PREPARATION

Soy beans succeed best on thoroughly prepared soil. The land should be plowed early and deep, fitted, and then harrowed at intervals until the beans are planted. The young plants of soy beans are not able to push their way through a hard crust, as are corn and cowpeas. Thus, to insure a good stand, the seed should have a light covering of loose, mellow soil.

FERTILIZERS

The use of commercial fertilizers is recommended where sandy soil predominates or the soil is of low fertility. Where fertilizers are used, good results have been obtained by using a dressing of stable manure or 200 or 300 pounds of acid phosphate. In using the commercial fertilizer it is well to apply broadcast before the beans are planted. Lime

There is more Catarrh in this section of the country than all other diseases put together, and for years it was supposed to be incurable. Doctors prescribed local remedies, and by constantly failing to cure with local treatment, pronounced it incurable. Catarrh is a local disease, greatly influenced by constitutional conditions and therefore requires constitutional treatment. Hill's Catarrh Medicine, manufactured by F. J. Cheney & Co., Toledo, Ohio, is a constitutional remedy taken internally and acts through the blood on the mucous surfaces of the system. One Hundred dollars reward is offered for any case that Halls Catarrh Medicine fails to cure. Send for circulars and testimonials.

INOCULATION

Soy beans, whether legumes, when well inoculated add much nitrogen to the soil. Natural inoculation now occurs generally throughout the soy bean region in the southern United States. In localities where the crop has not been previously grown, however, it is advisable to inoculate. Inoculation may be most certainly secured by applying soil from an old soy-bean field, using 300 to 500 pounds of soil to the acre, or by dusting the seed with such soil before sowing.

SEEDING AND CULTIVATION

Soy beans may be sown at any time after danger of severe frosts is over, ranging from early spring until autumn. As a rule, however, the late varieties are preferable and should be planted about the same time as corn.

The general practice for seed production is the row method, 30 to 40 inches apart. For hay, sodded, or green manure is drilled or broadcasted crop furnished a finer quality of forage. In rows, from 20 to 30 pounds of seed, from the acre are required; when sown broadcast or drilled, from 60 to 90 pounds.

ROTATIONS

Soy beans may be combined advantageously in many systems of crop rotation. The cash value of the seed is sufficient to encourage the growing of these beans as one of the main crops of the rotations as are cowpeas. In some localities a soy bean crop is grown between two wheat crops and in other parts between two oat crops. When winter oats and winter barley may follow soy beans.

MIXTURES

Soy beans may be satisfactorily grown in combination with other crops, thus affording a greater variety and a larger yield of forage. A mixture of soy beans and cowpeas makes a very satisfactory hay. Soy beans are more generally grown with corn than with any other crop. When sown in rows with sorghum or Sudan grass they have

To the Republicans of Rockcastle: LISTEN ONCE MORE PLEASE!

The STORY CONTINUES to roll that I am a Democrat. Please take my word dear Republicans. Have only voted one time and I voted straight for Harding and my principles are Republican. Now, can I do or say anything to make it any more so. Some people don't only tell lies, but they tell me they have sworn that. So dear Republicans both women and men; "BEWARE OF A LIAR."

I hope this will put you in the line of truth. And please cast the word Democrat forever out of your minds in regard to me don't say it again, for I'm just sure a Republican, as the sun shines on a clear day. So pass the truth along to friends and neighbors, and look for me, I'M COMING. The roads are getting right, and so is DOLL, she has new shoes now, so look out.

Hoping to receive the help and vote of every Republican in the County, I remain a true and faithful Republican.

Sincerely yours,
MRS. LELIA MAY COOPER.

MRS. J. M. CRAIG, of Los Angeles, Calif., who says no one can feel more grateful for what Tanlac has done than she does. Has gained twelve pounds and health is better than in years.

"Of all the People who have taken Tanlac I don't believe there is anyone who feels more grateful for it than I do," said Mrs. J. M. Craig of Grand Junction, Los Angeles, Calif.

"I suffered from nervous prostration and was so weak that I could not even sweep the floor and during the day I would have to lie down four or five times. I tried to walk, but found out that half a block was all I could stand before I would give out. Nervous spells came on the often. Finally my husband urged me to try Tanlac. I was so glad to find it, for it proved to be just what I needed."

"The first two bottles did not seem to help me, I guess it was because I was so laid off, but on the third bottle I could walk I can improve myself. I had the more hope than ever of getting well. My improvement from this medicine was rapid and by the time I had taken five bottles I was better and stronger than I had been in years."

"It enabled me to sleep soundly at night and I have gained twelve pounds. That was several months ago and from then until now I have been in good health as I had never before. I have told all my friends and relatives what a wonderful medicine Tanlac is."

Tanlac is sold in Mt. Vernon by Mrs. G. Davis in Brodhead by the Brodhead Pharmacy and in Livingston by R. G. White in Barr by W. M. Owens.

VARIETIES

At the present time about 15 varieties of soy beans are used commercially of seed, the most important of which are Mammoth (late), Hollybrook (medium late), Haberlandt (medium late), Medium Yellow (medium), 160 S (early), Guelph (medium), Barchet (late), Ebony (medium late), Peking (medium late), and Wilson (medium late). All of these varieties, with the exception of Barchet, are suitable for hay and seed production. The Barchet is especially adapted for hay and green manure in the Gulf States. For seed production alone the Mammoth, Hollybrook and Haberlandt are to be recommended, while the Wilson, Peking, and Ebony are better adapted for hay. The Haberlandt is best for this section of Kentucky.

The County Agent, has made arrangements with Mr. C. E. Houk, Supt. of Berea College Farm to sell soy beans in small quantities to farmers of Rockcastle and Southern Madison at a reasonable price. Mr. Houk has the Haberlandt bean which is the best for our section. Call at once for your beans. They are going to the first coming. Get them while they last.

This article on Soy beans will be continued next week — watch our paper. Robt. F. Spence, County Agent.

CHINESE FAMINE LAID TO DEFORESTATION
Destruction of China's great forests is blamed by returning missionaries for the world's worst famine that now threatens to wipe out 15,000,000 lives in North Central China.
The Rev. Mr. Stout, of Louisville and Georgetown, Ky., who has returned here after five years in China, will lead a tour of the State next week to help of the horrible conditions in the famine area.
The Rev. Mr. Stout is active in raising funds for the China Famine Fund, of which Joseph Purcell-Lantville, its treasurer, and the Rev. Dr. E. M. Y. Mullins, its chairman. Through the China Famine Fund, every relief organization in China is supplied with funds.

The Rev. Mr. Stout is chairman of the China Famine Fund, every relief organization in China is supplied with funds; these organizations, including the Red Cross, the Salvation Army, Christian missions, religious organizations and American relief.

CATCHING COLDS?
MINTOL OFTEN PREVENTS OLFEMIONIA
It is surprising to read in the daily papers of famines that afflict fathers and grandmothers, used for coughs, colds, catarrh, and bronchial affections.
SPECIAL NOTICE - A druggist said the other day that a customer came to his store and inquired for a mustard plaster and he suggested to the customer to try MINTOL as a more modern treatment for congested conditions.
The customer accepted the druggist's suggestion and in twenty-four hours the same customer came in with a handkerchief.
The druggist replied that he had been handling it for some little time and the customer frankly stated that he would never use a mustard cream or plaster for colds, coughs, or any congested conditions again.
These are thousands of others who would say the same as this druggist's customer did, if he would only try MINTOL.
If your druggist cannot supply you with mintol you may see a list of prices, see, etc. and get it at the Home Relief Laboratories, Boston, Mass.
It is dispensed by The Pioneer Drug Store, Mt. Vernon, Ky.

JUDGE'S GOT 'EM
Car of Feed & Groceries
TO FEED THE BABIES ON
And when you don't come here and get your supplies -
"YOU ARE LOSING MONEY!"
I have lived in your County twenty-two years; my life has been an open book; I am the first man to have nerve enough to publicly denounce the use of whisky, money and guns to influence the stockholders to put me on the board of directors, but I stand for law and order and expect to use barrels of flour to feed the babies on, instead of barrels of whisky to promote myself in office.
Now dear stockholders, who should the sisters and brothers who to put them back on the board when these same directors have made it possible for this county to go dry by using up all the surplus whisky, for 100 miles around, having it in, in the last twenty years, in every campaign that has been launched in this county, to destroy and make drunkards out of your boys.
Now grandmothers and grandfathers, you have been here a long, long time, and know you some things; is it right for this old board of directors to steal Rider's platform and then meet with you stockholders and clap your hands, with tears in their eyes and talk about the deplorable condition of Rockcastle County is getting in? Who is to be blamed for the condition of Rockcastle County, the boys or the board of directors who place the temptation before them? I heard a preacher say the other day that if the officers of this county, backed up with the Commonwealth of Kentucky, did not put down crime in your County, that every one of them, to a man, ought to be impeached and put out of office.
Those who were two nice, sweet, bright-minded boys, about fifteen years old, in jail with forty State criminals, because they would not tell where they had bought the whisky to get drunk on, when the old heads can stay drunk a week in Mt. Vernon and not be in the thing or go to jail. Now who is to blame, these boys or the man who set the example before them? Those who haven't read, I wish would, read the decision of one of our greatest judges in the United States, who was called for to try a boy who had stolen from a bank he was sent to jail for $25,000, and the judge learned that the directors of this bank had been working this boy on small pay and handling $25,000 a day, he readily said, "Guiltily," and sent the boy home, and placed the responsibility wholly on the board of directors for the loss of the money, for placing the temptation before him.
Thus endeth the first lesson.
Your next County Judge,
J. W. RIDER
