

Last Notice to Tax Payers

I earnestly request, that all who have not settled their taxes for the year 1922, call at once and settle same on or before January 1, 1923.

On that date I will be compelled to proceed to collect all unpaid taxes by levying.

So I hope you will not delay paying your taxes and thereby have to bear the expenses of advertising, which I will be obliged to do if not settled, so I am giving you this last notice, hoping you will attend to this at once, and save this additional cost.

All business for this year must be settled and in order for me to do this it is necessary that I collect, so please don't overlook this important matter, and by so doing burden yourself with this extra cost.

Yours truly, D. G. Clark, S.R.C.

Castoria is a harmless substitute for Castor Oil, Paregoric, Drops and Soothing Syrups. It is pleasant. It contains neither Opium, Morphine nor other narcotic substances. Its age is its guarantee. For more than thirty years it has been in constant use for the relief of Constipation, Flatulency, Wind Colic and Diarrhoea; allaying Feverishness arising therefrom, and by regulating the Stomach and Bowels, aids the assimilation of Food; giving healthy and natural sleep. SPLEDID HOME TALENT PLAY
The play, "Trials of a Hostess" put on by the Ladies of the Parent-Teachers Association, Friday and Saturday nights of last week, was a success in every way. It delighted the large audience which witnessed it both nights and earned a tidy sum for use in re-papering and painting some of the rooms of the Graded School building which are really long when or it. The play was just what it producer each minute, and the characters were all exceedingly well taken and in their period, that as would be unfair to mention one without mentioning the whole cast. The "black-face" comedy at the close of the performance, by Mrs. O. D. Bryant Mrs. C. C. Davis, Mrs. Mattie B. Mullins and Miss Shoupe of Lanesboro School, was done in a manner equal to the best professional, and judging from the laughs it provoked was most thoroughly enjoyed by all. The music furnished between acts was "delightful" to hear, and the only fault we have to find is that the admission charged was entirely too low for such an excellent performance. Put on another play, ladies, and charge double the amount of admission.

County Achievement Contest

TWELVE OF THE SOUTHERN STATES WATCHING THE MOVEMENTS

Secretary Vaughn of Berea College has just returned from a recent trip to Nashville, Tenn., where he says the entire South is watching with a vigilant eye every movement of the County Achievement Contest of the ten counties now entered and well out on the race. The Southern Cooperation League of Nashville will keep step with us in this contest and if we succeed they will then launch a great south-wide programme covering the elaborate programme that we of our part in this work. I am

CHURCH AND SUNDAY SCHOOL DEPARTMENT OF THE COUNTY ACHIEVEMENT CONTEST.

What is the greatest need in our county and every other other county today? It can be answered in two words, Christian citizenship. In striving to do our part in this work I am sure we can not only make the 1000 points but we will train our men, women, boys and girls in Christian Principles and ways to serve.

Are there Sunday Schools in your neighborhood? Do you have a peaching church? Do you have a Ladies Aid Society, a Missionary Society or any kind of a Young People's Society? If you do not have and will organize any or all of these you will earn so many points.

Are you proud of your church house or are you ashamed to take strangers into it because the windows are broken, the roof leaks, the walls are dirty and the floors are worn out. Make your church and the grounds around it attractive by clearing it up and you will help to win the 1000 points.

We have in our county an active County Sunday School Association and will soon have a Ministerial Society so the other things mentioned are up to you and me.

Pastors, Sunday School Superintendents and leaders, please send me the number of members enrolled and the average attendance on last August at your services. From now on please keep a close record on any increase for we have to give it to gain our points. Also have someone notify me as soon as possible.

I have outlined our work but the job is too big for us to do alone and in our own strength but let us ask Him in whose service we work to help us and we cannot fail. Mrs. L. M. Miller, Chairman.

War Savings Stamps

It is to be hoped that every person who can do so will change War Savings Stamps due to fall due for treasury savings certificate, said our Postmaster. "The large amount of money invested and the great number of persons who purchased war savings stamps to aid the government in the prosecution of the war and buy Treasury saving certificates, they will demonstrate that the thrill lesson of the war have not been without effect. The holders of war savings stamps have seen investment of about $20,500 grow to $25 in five years, and larger amounts in the same proportion. They can see the same thing repeated if they reinvest in Treasury savings certificates. Interest accumulates to the 200 per cent each year compounded semi-annually. These savings certificates are exempt from the normal Federal income tax, and from all State and local taxation (except estate and inheritance taxes) of $5,000 maturity value for each issue, by every member of a family. They are backed by Government, and afford an easy and sure method of saving.

During the war the Government offered war savings stamps, paying about 4 per cent as a method of saving for people of small means. Since the war, and to take the place of war savings stamps, the Government offered Treasury savings certificates in denominations of $25, $50 and $1,000 now sold to investors at $20.50, $32 and $820, respectively. They pay 4 per cent until maturity five years from the date of issue.

About $625,000,000 of war savings stamps, series of 1918 became due January 1st, 1923, and the Government now offers Treasury savings certificates in exchange for the war savings stamps. The owners of a Treasury savings certificate have an opportunity to continue a safe investment with good interest. Investing has furnished the life blood for many nations and insures property to the people. The Government is doing everything possible to encourage saving in the United States by offering sound and attractive securities for the investment of small sums. If you want to save and insure your future, it would pay you to investigate Uncle Sam's Savings System.

Santa Claus Day Is Here

OH, THAT the BABIES could call back the days when we were babies: would lay awake until 12 o'clock watching for old SANTA CLAUS to come down the Big Stone Chimney to fill our stockings with fire crackers, long sticks of candy, apples, and sometimes an orange. At five o'clock in the morning we would crawl out (while mother was sound asleep from being up so late) and grab the pack of firecrackers and in the big wood fire would sling some and blow the fire all over the house and set the carpets and beds afire and it would take everyone on the place to put out the fire and watch us while they were all gone. Them happy childhood days are gone forever.

It's now chocolate candy and black cake without any leavening in it, its rabbit instead of turkey, its cold water instead of egg-nog, what will it be when you babies are as old as Uncle Bill.

Don't get worried children, Aunt Mollie may leave you and your Uncle Bill will stay with you and feed you at the right time.

There is nothing in selling goods, it's all in buying—I have mine bought right.

Don't go to getting fresh around here when I have plenty salt $1.00 per 100 pound bag.
