91 YEARS OF PROGRESS A Historical Tour of the Louisville & Nashville R.R. REGULAR THROUGH SERVICE TO NASHVILLE ESTABLISHED OCT. 31, 1850 FOLLOWING the opening of stock subscription books, the Louisville & Nashville Railroad Company held its first stockholders' meeting in September, 1851, and moved into its first general office building at Bullitt and Main streets, Louisville, in October of that year. A year later, after several preliminary surveys, and with $1,828,700 in the treasury, the board of directors definitely ordered the line to Nashville located by way of Elizabethtown and Bowling Green, Ky. Actual construction of the road was begun on May 2, 1853, but many difficulties were encountered and six years elapsed before Louisville and Nashville were linked by rail. As construction progressed, trains were run to the end of the line. Actually the first train was run in 1855 when the track had reached a point twelve and one-half miles south of Louisville. That city subscribed three million dollars to the venture in 1856, and proudly dedicated the L. & N.'s first freight and passenger station in 1858. The first regular through passenger service between Louisville and Nashville began Oct. 31, 1859. TODAY 7360 stockholders own 117,000 shares of L. & N. stock and there are about an equal number of bondholders. The Company's investment in road and equipment is now $43 million dollars. It owns 942 locomotives, 53,000 freight cars, 700 passenger cars and 2,000 pieces of work equipment. The ability and purpose of this railroad to efficiently and costlessly serve its patrons are at the highest levels in its history. It is ready and willing to handle all transportation business offered it, whether peacetime commerce or for national defense.

Army Openings In Air Corps Ground Units

The War Department has authorized to accept 1700 additional three-year enlistments for Army Air Corps ground units. This was announced today.

The men will be sent to stations in Ohio, Indiana, Kentucky, Missouri and California. Upon completion of training they will be assigned to new units to be organized and stationed in Ohio, Indiana, Kentucky, North Carolina, Oklahoma, New Mexico, Georgia, Maine, Louisiana, Idaho, Washington, Arizona, Texas, California, Florida, Nevada, Connecticut, Mississippi, Virginia, New Hampshire, New York, Oregon, Utah, Michigan and Massachusetts.

All men enlisted for these assignments must have a high school education or a journeyman's rating as a mechanic. The War Department stresses the desire that every man accepted should be attending a study course at Air Corps schools. All men so qualified may attend one or more of these schools.

The schooling and experience which these men will receive during their enlistment will enable them to obtain worthwhile positions with good pay if they desire to continue in the Army as a career, or if they desire to return to civilian life at the end of their three years.

Many do not realize that it requires ten men or more, on the Air Corps, to maintain a plane. Most are highly trained specialists, and their pay is exceptionally good. Details are available at all Army recruiting offices.

L. & N. Workers Get Annual Raise Saturday

Approximately 2,241 workers employed by the Louisville & Nashville railroad will get pay raises estimated to total approximately $138,000 annually, when the minimum wage order of the nation's railroad workers becomes effective Saturday. It is estimated that 70,000 workers in all will be affected by the minimum wage order and wage increases will total more than $7,000,000 annually.

The order was issued by General Philip B. Fleming, Administrator of the Wage and Hour Division, United States Department of Labor, on the recommendation of the railroad carrier industry committee appointed under the Fair Labor Standards Act (Federal Wage and Hour Law). The recommendation was made after extensive investigations and public hearings.

The minimum wage established for trunk line railroads was 36 cents an hour, and for short lines 33 cents an hour. About 65,000 workers will receive pay raises on the long lines and 5,000 on the short lines. By far the largest group affected by the order will be the maintenance of way employees, including crossing, bridge flagmen and gatemen. It will also include clerical workers, station workers, shop laborers, road crew, dining car and kitchen workers where their present wage is lower than the minimum established.

This is the third largest wage increase to be ordered under the Wage and Hour law. The first was in the apparel industry where the scale of minimum wage rates from 32 1/2 cents up to 40 cents an hour increased the rate of pay for about 175,000 workers. The number of workers for whom wage rate increases have been ordered under the Wage and Hour law is now more than 600,000 and the total pay increases on an annual basis due to these wage orders will exceed $35,000,000. The 30 cent an hour minimum for all interstate employees caused pay increases of more than $65,000,000, making the total pay increases as a result of the Act $100,000,000.

Here's The Latest In Spring Styles

The spring's leading colors for milady's clothes? The standards of beige to brown, blue and black; but also, more emphasis on colors than for many seasons.

The most important "must" on the wardrobe list? Tailored suits, sleek with easy-fitting jackets with an average length of 25 inches, and often smoother shoulders, though not always. In fact, many styles and silhouettes of suits may be worn this season, according to Miss Vern Latzke, clothing specialist for the University of Kentucky home economics department.

Coats may be fitted or box with emphasis on straight lines, and details of suits may be worn this season, according to Miss Vern Latzke, clothing specialist for the University of Kentucky home economics department.

Colors that are good besides those mentioned are clear greens that are soft looking and either light or dark; golds, and red. As for clothing fabrics, they are smoother in texture than have been used for several years, and as is usual in such cases there is more emphasis on quality.

Make Cellars For Home Food Supply

The construction of storage cellars has been added to the Adams county, Kentucky, campaign for the production of more food on the farm for the farm family. Two farmers already have completed concrete storage cellars.

"If the farm is to be made to feed the family, it is not sufficient to grow food," points out County Agent R. B. Rankin, "but provision must be made for canning and storing food."

Throughout meetings have been held throughout the county to discuss the production of more food and feed on the farm, for the farm family. Garden leaders have been named, and gardens, fruit, cows, poultry, pigs and other sources of food discussed.

Unemployment Officials To Be More Stern

Frankfort, Ky.—Officials of the Kentucky Unemployment Compensation declared today a sterner attitude toward claimants who receive "benefits" in the form of falsification and fraud would be punished in the future by the Commission in such cases.

"During the early stages of the unemployment insurance program," said H. B. Hensley, acting executive director of the Commission, "the Commission withheld punitive action against claimants who erroneously received benefits due to the fact that it did not desire to prosecute anyone who may have received unearned benefits through unfamiliarity with the provisions of the law.

"The benefit program has now been in effect for over two years, and it is the Commission's belief that workers have had sufficient time to become acquainted with the provisions of the law as well as their duties and obligations.

"If a claimant is in doubt as to whether he may be eligible for benefits for any period, he has only to write the Commission itself," Hensley emphasized.

As the evidence of its determination vigorously to prosecute fraud cases, the Commission pointed to the recent conviction in Mubenberg Circuit Court, of a claimant charged with forgery in connection with receiving unemployment benefits.

The claimant, Diaz Martin, was sentenced to two years in prison on the charge. He had forged his employer's name to pay-order cards while claiming benefits. Diaz swore he had worked only seven hours in one period when in reality he had worked five days. He had collected one check for $22.00 and the forgery charge grew out of his attempt to collect another.

Game Of Century Carded Monday Night

Commercial Juggernauts To Battle Faculty Man-enters. Proceeds To Buy Band Uniforms

Those who have long memories probably look back with relish on that immortal clash between the Faculty and Commercial Club held last year at the High School auditorium. Many have urged the contestants to try again as soon as their aching muscles had healed, and we take pleasure in announcing after one year and five days, that old "Fats" and the other gladiators are now ready for combat. The game is called for 7:15 Monday at the school gym. As a preliminary the Seniors will play an All-Star team composed of members from the other three classes. This should be a real contest.

The manager of the Juggernauts is Carl "Hawkshaw" Baker and like a true genius, he has been burning a match of oil in devising intricate plays to forestall the vicious man-enters. The fact is that on Tuesday evening "Hawkshaw" had one play that he conceived during the night, but on the playing court his tired brain failed to function and he forgot the details. The way it worked out the other side made it a goal. Boosters for the Juggernauts can see that they will be hard to beat with such a "heady" coach.

The star player for Juggernauts is Fritz "Killer" Krueger. Like the man on the fly he gets on the floor with the greatest ease. This will be okay if some of the boys don't forget and leave him the goals. Fans can look for some professional basketball. "Killer" takes the floor.

Another star of much merit is Hobert "Dynamite" Griffin. "Dynamite" was the terror of Pine Hill in his younger days and used to hurt pumpkins through a barrel hoop with unerring accuracy. One day he miscalculated and wrapped a big pumpkin around the schoolteacher's head. That's the time he broke the court record in the 100 yard dash. You can look for plenty of excitement with Hobert on the floor.

Other "star" players for the Juggernauts include: Robert "Toughie" Bird. That game last year just about cooked his goose. However, "Toughie" will be in there battling. Ed "Sleep" Banks has been prancing around like a war on the court for few days. He can hardly wait for the opening whistle. Wm. "Wild Bill" Cox should prove one of the mainstays for the Juggernauts. If nothing else "Wild Bill" says he will bring out a side on the floor to clear the floor. W. L. "Spike" Simpson is "rarin" to go. Built to stand abuse he should make it tough on the Faculty boys. Ed "Goliath" Denney is expected to be a tower of strength, especially during the first few minutes of the contest, but last year he played a stellar game. M. R. "Horsehoe" Maggard showed the fans last year that he could get his massive frame off the floor. After the game he had a hard time getting his number twelve off the line, L. D. "Gabby" Bryant, who starred way back when "Hawkshaw" Baker, the manager was just learning to say "Mama and Papa," will be in there battling for his alma mater. A new member that should stir up lots of interest is Pat "Flash" Patter. He was a star in the county boys in his boyhood days and if he is able to bring back those glorious school days the Juggernauts will have a real asset.

The Faculty Man-enters are headed by Bill "Two Gun" Landrum. "Two Gun" amazed the crowd last year by his superlativity and mental capacity, for "Two Gun" is not content to let his team play by themselves, but shows his cohorts how it should be done by performing himself. His matchless play serves as a great inspiration.

"Big Boy" Champion proved he was of a varied temperament by his conduct in the contest last year. Many fans will recollect the time he jumped up and down on "Spike" Simpson's nose knowing full well that he had an ingrown toenail on his left foot. Such savagery is certain to bring forth reprisals in Monday night's game.

Charles "Lightning" Brown was the highlight attraction on the floor last year. He got more comment from the fair sex than any other player, and is sure to draw a crowd of thousands of fans to the game. Almost as daring as Gypsy Rose Lee, we mustn't forget little "Toots" Campbell. His play and temperament are perfect. His eye is good and his floor work is par excellence, but as "Horsehoe" Maggard remarked during last year's battle "Be careful and don't hurt the little feller." Lester "Man-Mountain" McErgue is in rare form, if he just doesn't over do those practice sessions. The other evening after a hard session, he looked like a wild pig. Watch him Monday night. A new squad member of the Faculty is Laudell "Preddy-boy" Atkinson. His muscular development is superb and his rippling muscles arouse the envy of his brother Faculty players. "Preddy-boy" is the dark horse for the Faculty and "Hawkshaw" Baker says he will put "Wild Bill" Cox on him to try and curb his daring. Last year the Faculty ran in two ringers in Charlie and Walker Hines, but will not use them this year except in case of necessity.

The three will be Kenneth "Hot Shot" Mullins; "Hot Shot" has secured an extra loud whistle and has tied a log chain to it to keep the contestants from stealing his noisemaker.

With such a galaxy of talent the auditorium should be filled to the rafters Monday night. The proceeds of the game will go toward buying uniforms for the band members.

McBee's Return From Mexico Trip

Ten Days Spent In Tour Across Border

Mr. and Mrs. G. W. McBee returned Monday. They went from here to San Antonio by train where they were joined by Mr. and Mrs. Conn Brown, who are well known here. While in San Antonio the Browns served as hosts and showed them a royal good time.

From San Antonio the two couples departed via auto on the new high-way to Mexico City. The trip is a long one taking three days of hard riding over some of the country's most mountainous. The road is very good although narrower than our roads.

Everywhere in Mexico the visitors were impressed by the extreme poverty on every hand. So much human misery had a depressing effect that did not leave the travelers until they were back in the U. S. A.

The capitol city they found very beautiful and the National Palace was visited as well as the Art Gallery. The people of Mexico City were very friendly and according to their guides feel that this country will serve as a barrier against foreign aggressions. Communism is strictly suppressed, as well as all fifth-columnists.

The food in all towns visited in Mexico was terrible, or at least it didn't agree with the tourists. Also the service in all the restaurants and hotels is very poor. In one hotel they waited two hours before being served.

The traffic regulations in Mexico City are worse than none, for few observe the stop signals, and try to pass the red light.

On the way they stopped at a hotel in Monterey, where Pancho Villa had used his lobby as a stable for his horses, at the time he captured the city.

Many more worthwhile places of interest were seen and visited during their sojourn, and the tourists agreed that the journey was very educational. After visiting Mexico Mr. McBee says you can be proud that Rockcastle county is your home and that good red American blood flows in your veins.

1915 Model Ford Licensed For 1941

J. T. Stevens, of Boone was in the County Clerk's office this week to have his 1915-T model Ford affixed with brand-new 1941 license plates. The Ford, one of those with the brass radiators was parked in front of the courthouse and although it looked a trifle ancient, it was still in good running order according to Mr. Stevens and recently he was offered $50.00 by someone who wanted one of Henry Ford's old automobiles. The old model caused lots of comment for the short time it was parked here.

Correspondents Must Watch Writing

It will be much easier on the editor and staff if all correspondents will be careful to write on only one side of the paper and also be sure to divide each item in paragraph form. Some write items one after the other and this makes it hard for the reader to tell when a paragraph is finished. A little attention to these details will be appreciated.

A Fine Tribute Given To A Gallant Team

The Basketball Season Passes In Review Best Team In Years Defeated By Injuries

By Raymond McClure

"WELL REMEMBER"

Here's to the players of the Mt. Vernon High School basketball team of 1940-41—a swell group of boys. Don't you remember the night of November 8th., in the Mt. Vernon High School gym when you watched the team defeat the team from...

Don't you recall the cheering in the gym? The pleasure on the faces of the spectators? Most of us will remember the opening game of the under-19 basketball season. They brought-town and remember winning 45 to 23.

From the side lines you heard—"Best team in years!" Five good players in there. "Good subs on the bench." Management staff if you ask me! Tolsie Noe, Robert Harmon, Jim Cox, Med Noe, Curtis Harmon, Opp Bussell, Earl Harmon, and Alfred Sparks were the players. We would have taken on any school in the state that night and sat back, smiled and come out victorious.

As long as any of those boys can remember, they will remember that night. They couldn't forget Coach Landrum, incessantly chewing his gum and smiling. It was the opening of Mt. Vernon's most successful basketball season.

The Broughtontown game was a sensational win for us. They had later to prove their real worth.

"Long come East Bernstadt, next Hazel Green, then Highland; down went these visitors in quick succession; then Livingston and McKee, and our rivals Brodhead, then went, London, Waynesburg, Berea. People everywhere said, "Who'll stop Mt. Vernon?" "Gosh! 9 victories, no defeats!" But Fate decided we had had enough glory and removed from the ranks of the team, Tolsie Noe, our center. He was forced from the Liberty game, but Mt. Vernon still carried on. East Bernstadt again, Rose Hill, McKee, Berea, Brodhead again, 17 games and still no omelets.

For the first game in February we were victorious, $14,658.45 for bringing home another victory. There we hit a real snag and was nosed out 33 to 32 on up set it was called by the newspapers. But our boys weren't through, no six Mt. Vernon was never through!

Then we received our third blow, Jim Cox, another player taken out by doctors orders, and again Mt. Vernon was never through!

This increase in gasoline consumption is accompanied by a comparable increase of 57 per cent in the number of motor vehicles, both passenger cars and trucks, registered in the state during 1940 over the number registered for 1939. Registrations totaled 461,810 in 1940, as compared to 436,944 the preceding year. Gasoline tax collections on gasoline distributed during the calendar year 1940 were up more than 6 per cent above those for 1939, the State Department of Revenue announced today. Collections, including penalty and interest, were $14,658.45 for 1940 as compared to $13,748,516 for the preceding year. Collections for 1940 are the highest during an eight-year period which began in 1932 with a low of $8,206,105.

It was observed that, since penalty and interest receipts are practically stationary and amount to only a negligible production of total receipts, the increase is almost entirely attributable to an increased consumption of gasoline.

This increase in gasoline consumption is accompanied by a comparable increase of 57 per cent in the number of motor vehicles, both passenger cars and trucks, registered in the state during 1940 over the number registered for 1939. Registrations totaled 461,810 in 1940, as compared to 436,944 the preceding year.

Alfred Sparks, son of Mr. and Mrs. A. B. Sparks has been quite ill, being confined to his bed for the past two weeks.

Vernon was crippled. Still the team took it like men and fought on. Down went Stanford, Liberty and a much improved Hazel Green five. But we needed more men to play strong teams. Highland came to Mt. Vernon and won a decision of 40 to 25 from the Red Devils and handed them their worst defeat yet. Then Vernon went to Waynesburg and Livingston came to Mt. Vernon. Both teams were beaten badly.

but losing the game of the season the hand of fate really plowed us under. Curtis Harmon was handed down from the game with a twisted knee. This injury hindered Curtis from doing his best in the tournament.

On February 23 Mt. Vernon journeyed to meet Burgin, the much feared of the best scoring team. The locals went without three regulars, but they still won the game. Curtis Harmon went to death and bled 12 points. Without three regulars Burgin's high scorers showed up poor. Last to Rose Hill and the final victory.

Tournament time found Mt. Vernon a crippled, broken team. We drew Highland the first game and watched them take a point decision from us.

We took down the red and white banners that night until another year. We saw our school defeated but not licked. In the future they will be able to brag about our spirit of victory and win and win again.

To each player and to those who are graduating we say: "KATIEE—Thanks a million for all the help you gave us. ROBERT—You did your best this year and we are proud of you. JIM—Thanks for your help. EARL—May you always be as helpful as you were this year. OPP—Always do as well when you are needed as you did for us this year.

MED and CURTIS—You are left to play in other years. Please make the best of them.

To those who are graduating, the song is ending but the melody lingers on. A toast to 6 boys. To 6 great players.

"Alligator, alligator, alligator bar, Who in the heck do you think we are. We're the people, we're the staff We're from Mt. Vernon and that's enough."

Brodhead Loses In Regional, 25-24

(Bulletin) In a thrilling game that was tied 24 all at the finish, East Bernstadt nosed out a fighting Brodhead team by one point in a three minute overtime. The contest was the opening game of the Regional Tournament which opened in Somerset Wednesday night. Behind at the start of the second half Brodhead came to life and went out in front by a few points. The lead saw-sawed back and forth with neither side more than two points ahead during the last quarter.

In the second contest Somerset defeated Highland 45-34, in a game that was featured by a fist fight in the middle of the court. Very poor sportsmanship was displayed by the Somerset team.

Gas Tax Collections Show Big Increase

This increase in gasoline consumption is accompanied by a comparable increase of 57 per cent in the number of motor vehicles, both passenger cars and trucks, registered in the state during 1940 over the number registered for 1939. Registrations totaled 461,810 in 1940, as compared to 436,944 the preceding year.

Wholesale Trade Up 29.1 Percent

Wholesale trade in Kentucky in 1939 amounted to $464,432,000, which was an increase of 29.1 percent over the figure for that year being $359,662,000, the Census Bureau, Department of Commerce, reported today. In 1929, wholesale trade totaled $500,389,000.

The average number of employees in Kentucky's wholesale establishments increased from 15,616 in 1935 to 19,499 in 1939, a gain of 24.9 percent. However, the 1935 figures exclude personnel of 56 commission bulk stations. In 1929, there were 17,725 employees. In addition to the 19,499 employees reported for 1939, there were 1,673 proprietors and firm members of unincorporated businesses.

Kentucky's pay roll totaled $23,871,000 in 1939, compared with $17,720,000 in 1935, showing an increase of 34.6 percent. (The figure for 1935 was $17,200,000.) The pay roll for 1939, based on commission bulk stations. The wholesale pay roll amounted to $25,872,000 in 1939.

In 1939, Kentucky's wholesale establishments numbered 2,174, compared with 2,057 in 1935, and 2,034 in 1929.

As a result of a campaign conducted by County Agent R. T. Faulkner, farmers in Grayson county, Kentucky, are producing approximately 28,600 broilers, which they expect to sell for about $8,000. Farmers who have been producing in Grayson county in past years made money, according to the county agent.

The Livingston folks that attended the funeral of Mrs. John Mullins at Wild Cat Mountain Friday were: Mr. and Mrs. C. J. Rice, Mrs. John Ball, Mrs. Bill Singleton and Mr. Shellie Clark of East Bernstadt.
Mrs. John Ball who was called to Corbin last week on account of the illness of her sister, Mrs. Joe Kelley, has returned and reports her sister some better.
Well the weather is sure playing some funny tricks. Sunday we had about four inches of snow, and today (Monday) the snow is gone, the sky is clear, the sun is sending its warm beams earthward, the birds are making melody in the trees, and it feels like spring is just around the corner. Perhaps that little varmit the (Ground Hog) has turned another leaf in its calendar.
Misses Pauline and Almeda Mullins spent the week end with home folks at Withers.
After forty some years writing for the Signal, I now step down and out, and this will be our last letter. We don't know who will follow us as correspondent but we wish them well, and to the Editor, Correspond-

SLANTS

By W. L. S.

Better times are on the way. Although this county has no defense industries the fact that factories in nearby towns are working to capacity will help sooner or later. Everywhere you go people tell you that things are looking up.

For a while people thought that the war would be over in a few months, but the feeling is general now that the war will be a long drawn out affair. It is a time which all must try to think clearly and act wisely.

The business that will help this county more than any other is the tourist trade. This mountain country is ideal for the tourists and is a different picture from the level stretches in Illinois and Ohio.

A tourist entering this county on Highway 25 has to journey over thirty miles before he leaves Rockcastle. In that time over half stop to buy gas, food or other needed necessities. Nobody knows the exact amount spent by these strangers but a large amount of coin is left here each year.

Our county is much more fortunate than other mountain counties due to the fact that we are on the edge of the Blue Grass country. After leaving the rolling Blue Grass this mountain terrain is much different and needs the attention of the traveler.

The fact that we have what is known as tourist territory is worth many thousands of dollars. The thing to do is to cultivate the tourist trade to be friendly and don't charge outrageous prices. Most tourists will pay a good price for what he buys, but when he is held up he tells his friends and that hurts Rockcastle county.

We have one of the biggest tourist attractions in the entire state by having Renfro Valley at our back door. This big enterprise is only in its infancy and already is known from coast to coast. Many counties and States would like to have thousands of dollars to move to this locality, for besides the money spent here it is one of the biggest advertisements a community could have.

True, we have many disadvantages in this county, but after all, should be thankful for what we do have. The advantages of Rockcastle property used would rapidly take us out of the "pauper" class. It is a true saying that most paupers have no one to blame but themselves.

Rumors, rumors, and more rumors. Now it's happened. Yes, the Commercial Club is playing the faculty. Those great, "All American," "All State," "All Business," "All Fouting," "Gymless Wonders" are on the rampage again. They meet the faculty Monday night 7:15, at the high school. Also on the same program the Seniors will play the rest of the High School. If you remember the Junior-Senior game last year it was the best of the season. The boys went into two overtime periods and the Seniors won by a 2 point margin. Come out and see a good game.

Home Ec. Notes

This week's "Do You Know That" column was prepared by Revs. Clontz, Daisy Mason and Sadie Owens.

1. Bananas and apples for salads will not discolor if dipped in lemon juice.

2. Meat, vegetables, and fish for salads are improved in flavor if they are "marinated," or allowed to stand a few minutes in French Dressing. The Dressing is drained.

3. A good test to determine if a material has too much sizing is to rub the piece of the material between the hands, if there is much sizing there will be a white dust and the material will show an open weave.

4. The scale of approval of the American Medical and the American Home Economics association are dependable as guides to good buying.

The girls in Home Ec. 1 are starting their luncheon unit by learning the rules for having well-balanced meals. The third year girls who have already learned this are ready to start a unit for the study of meal planning for moderate and low income levels. They will plan menus and prepare foods, (potatoes, for instance) in as many different ways as possible. This unit is designed to be in with the State Home Economics Program for National Defense.

The second year girls are anxious to start their summer dress unit so they can be through by Easter.

Money Talks

By Frederick W. Stamm, Economist and Director of Adult Education University of Louisville

Want to save money on your income tax.

To save money is simply to know all the deductions to which you are entitled. Before pointing out some of the deductions that many people overlook, let me remind you that every single person receiving a total yearly income of $800, or over and every married person receiving a total yearly income of $2000 or over must file a return, even though he pays no tax. And remember, these returns must be in by March 15.

Now for some deductions. First, taxes. You can deduct all state, county, and city real and personal property taxes, state income taxes, gasoline taxes in Kentucky, Ohio, Indiana, Illinois and West Virginia, and amusement taxes. You may also deduct automobile license fees and driver's license fees. You cannot, however, deduct Federal income tax paid last year.

If you are a lawyer, dentist, doctor, or clergyman, you may deduct dues to professional societies, cost of professional journals, and depreciation on your library.

Clergymen may deduct automobile expense when automobile is used for official duties and also traveling expenses to church convocations. Lawyers, dentists, and doctors may deduct traveling expenses to professional meetings as they attend.

Workmen may deduct labor union dues. Policemen and firemen may deduct cost of rubber coats, boots, helmets, etc. which are necessary in the performance of duty. We can all deduct the interest we pay on loans and contributions made to religious and charitable institutions.

Business and professional men may deduct all business costs including bad debts, depreciation, and all repairs to business property.

And do not forget to take off the 10% earned income deduction allowed on all wage earners. This is the deduction most overlooked and a large one, too.

There may be many more deductions to which you are entitled. There are a number of inexpensive books published on this subject which should help you prepare your tax return and also save you money by informing you of all your allowable deductions.

And, above all, be sure and file your return on time.

Game & Fish News

Frankfort, Kentucky
By James J. Gilpin

Frankfort, Ky.—The Conservation Officers of the Division of Game and Fish made 42 arrests during the month of January for violation of the Game and Fish laws. The Officers received 29 convictions and checked 791 hunting, trapping and fishing licenses.

The Officers reported confiscating a large quantity of contraband such as steel traps, dead falls, quail traps, fish traps, fish gigs and one gun.

Approximately 160,000 ducks are now feeding within a radius of 30 miles of Henderson, Ky., according to information received by the Division of Game and Fish from R. C. Soaper, U. S. Game Management Agent, who has headquarters in Henderson.

Soaper stated that most of the ducks were feeding on the Ohio river and on the tributary streams and also on several lakes in the neighborhood.

The concentration of ducks will probably be broken within the next 60 or three weeks when they begin their flight north in the summer nesting grounds. The species found most numerous at the present are the mallards and pin-tails.

Soaper, in conferring with officials of the Division, pointed out that practically every species of the migratory waterfowl are increasing very rapidly, due to protection by state and federal game agents and to increased restoration of feeding and nesting grounds by the Federal government.

The Bob White Quail, a game and insectivorous bird in Kentucky, is showing up in abundant numbers in practically every section of the state, according to reports which have come in to the Division of

Game and Fish officers here from interested farmers, conservation officers and the general public.

After putting all the information together and sifting out the most important item it was learned that more quail were seen after January 1, 1941 than had been located during the entire past hunting season by the nimrods.

With this encouraging news and with ideal winter weather for wildlife this bit of news should mean that there will be a big quail population to carry on the reproduction and restocking program in Kentucky this spring and summer.

Brodhead Places Two On All-Stars

Sturgeon, Robbins, Get High Honor

Now that the 45th and 46th district high school basketball tournaments have been played, the Advocate-Messenger sports department today announces names of 16 players, eight from each district, selected for all-tournament honors.

After carefully watching both tournaments, representatives of the Advocate-Messenger compared the playing ability of each participant before naming the select group.

Each player selected for the all-tournament teams will receive an honor certificate signifying his outstanding ability as a basketball player, good sportsmanship, and his ability to take victory or defeat in stride.

The 46th District

In making these selections, opinions of several persons well known for their basketball ability and judges of material were solicited and their consensus is respected.

No attempt was made to select men for various positions, each man being selected as an individual player. The listing does not place any man's ability over any other on his honor team.

Lloyd and Roy McGuire, Highland. These two boys, twins, are the Highland team. They look alike, play alike, and work together in a manner that bewilders their opponents. Both are deadly shot and throw the ball at the goal with either hand. They paired together to walk out with all scoring honors at the 46th tournament.

Merrill Singleton, Wayneburg. Singleton was perhaps one of the best rebound artists of the tournament. A tall boy, Singleton constantly kept his team in the running with his fine shooting and rebounding.

Some fear that these three best players as a result of some sort of disease, Bussell took control of the squad. It was his matchless handling of the ball that contributed so much towards the success of the team's victories.

Marvin Sturgeon, Brodhead. Sturgeon was in the opinion of many the best basketball player in the tournament. He made the Advocate-Messenger's honor team last year. He is a smart all-round player.

Byron Robbins, of Brodhead, smooth, smart and aggressive, this young man handled the ball like a veteran. He shot from any position of the floor with accuracy, and he played every game in a systematic manner.

Tom Blankenship, Broughton. He appeared to be after tournament scoring honors before his career was cut short when Brodhead whipped his team. Shooting with either hand, Blankenship amazed the spectators with the ease in which he made the ball drop through the hoop.

Jim Kelley, Stanford. An unheard player, Kelley appeared in only one game but made a fine impression on the coaches and fans with his playing. Kelley can shoot from wherever he happens to be in the playing floor and most of the time, he registers a good percentage of his shots.

And there you have the Advocate-Messenger's second all-tourney teams. Many will disagree of some selections. However, we believe the teams, selected upon the basis of our requirements, come as near being representative as any other combination.

In both tournaments, players displayed a great deal of sportsmanship, and officials believe that this year's 45th and 46th tournaments were the best that have been held for some time—Danville Advocate-Messenger.

A number of representatives from Mt. Vernon, Livingston, Brodhead, Fairview and Conway attended this conference. Mrs. Frances Brown, State worker from Louisville who has headquarters in Danville was main speaker. Plate lunch was served by Ladies of Brodhead Church. All reported a good meeting.

Brodhead Baptist Church Notes

Using visual methods popularized by such Old Testament prophets as Isaiah, Jeremiah and Ezekiel, and adding to them a touch of sleight-of-hand at which he is proficient, Western Filkin, pastor of the Brodhead Baptist Church, delighted the children in his service last Sunday morning with another of his interesting object lessons. This time he used his own adaptation of the famous trick known in his "Grandmother's Necktie." Originally, the trick was done with three wooden beads. For his use in an object lesson in the church, however, Brother Filkin used three large colored blocks, with a hole through each one, which he threaded on two pieces of red silk ribbon ten feet long. The blocks were S-N-I, and the block with the "I" on it had an "O" on the opposite side. Brother Filkin graphically pointed out the difference between men in their SIN or in his SOY.

For next Sunday Brother Filkin announces that he will attempt to stretch a piece of rope not more than a foot long until it reaches clear across the front of the platform. It should be understood that Brother Filkin uses these magic tricks in a simple, plain manner, and makes no fundamental gospel truth vivid to the children in his services.

The Sign of a Decent Religion" was the subject of his morning message. In the evening he borrowed an idea from Rev. Vance Havner, Baptist preacher and Bible teacher of Tennessee, and preached on "Lost Chords For a Lost World." He pointed out that there were certain notes and chords missing from much modern preaching—and modern Christian living and modern church life, such as the fearless exposure and condemnation of sin; the clear revelation of the way of salvation; the person and work of the Holy Spirit; the blessed truth of the Return of Christ, and the note of joy in personal Christian experience.

These chords, he declared, must be found by every preacher, Christian and church, to meet the present world spiritual crisis.

Sermon topics for next Sunday are: "The Valley of Dead Bones," in the morning, and for the night service, "In Jesus Christ the same yesterday, and today, and forever."

Brodhead started the second quarter with a field goal, and scored Highland by scoring 8 points to their 7. Hurt scored 4 points, Robbins 2 points, and Sturgeon 2 points. The score was 24 to 18 in Highland's favor.

In the final quarter, Highland gained on Brodhead in spite of all the boys could do, and when the final whistle blew, Highland was the victor by a score of 37 to 29. Robbins scored 6 points, Sturgeon 1 point, and Owens 4 points.

After the game, the presentation of the trophies was made, and Capt. Miss Percy McWilliams who is attending Bryant-Stratton Business school in Louisville was the guest of her parents Dr. and Mrs. W. E. McWilliams over the week end.

Mrs. Henry Crawford who works at Charleston, Ind., was at home with his family.

Paul Owens received the runner-up trophy. All the members of the team received miniature silver basketballs.

Brodhead had two men on the all tournament team, Marvin Sturgeon and Byron Robbins.

Brodhead will go to Somerset to compete against East Bernstadt in the 12th Regional Tournament. Johnny Allen.

Ruby Sturgeon, Lucille Derman and Mable Payne were in Mt. Vernon Friday afternoon visiting the school.

Can those Stanford girls make Eddie Hurt blush. Our boys are to be complimented on their clean playing in the tournament.

Coach Mounjley was favorable impressed with some of our players—He is Murray's new coach, you know.

One of our cheer leaders seems to have fallen for one of the Wayneburg boys. Could his name be Ronnie.

If you want to order a cream and pie, then just ask Sturgeon how to do it.

"Believe it or not," Mr. Robbins drove the basketball boys to Stanford and back without side-swiping car.

Elizabeth Brown and Verla Albright have new permanents. William Bordes did not win the scoring record for the tournament, but he captured the eating honors.

One of our substitutes, in a recent game, held one of the all-tournament men to field goal—so our prospects for next year are not so bad.

Why does Vernon Taylor hold that extra seat on the bus everyday? Dewey Saylor says that he wears a necktie to keep his feet warm—now Dewey we have our own opinion.

We are very proud of our basketball boys. They have gotten runners-up trophy for two years out of three. Could there have been 'ten thousand' people at the tournament Friday night? Eddie Hurt said it looked that way.

Elizabeth Reynolds was in McKinney Thursday night to see a donkey basketball game.

The Taylor girls are sporting new permanents. Look out boys. Marvin Sturgeon was in such a hurry to leave the room Thursday, that he thought he could make better time by going through the door glass instead of opening the door. The results were a broken glass and a skinned head.

Seems like Leo can't keep his eyes off of some little freshman girl. One of our cheer leaders is wearing a maroon and white emblem with L on it—that wouldn't by any chance mean Liberty would it Amanda?

"Victory" seemed to be the favorite yell of the tournament—Or was it the cheer leaders? Wonder why Blankenship was waving at Sturgeon at the game Friday night? Was Sturgeon leaving him?

We were surprised to see Edward L. Elder remain in Brodhead Sunday afternoon. Virginia Phillips, editor.

The cheerleaders wish to thank everyone who helped support the basketball team during the basketball season and during the tournament. We hope a large crowd will go to Somerset to cheer the boys on to victory over East Bernstadt.

We are expecting you to keep up the good work boys.

Homemakers Held Regular Meeting

The lesson on Better Speech was given by Mrs. W. H. Anderson and the lesson on Style Trend by Mrs. Katie Roberts. Games were played and delightful dinner was served. Our next meeting will be with Mrs. W. H. Anderson.

Brodhead Outshoots Highland Team

It is worthy of note to all fans from here that our boys made one more field goal than Highland, and had five more free shot but due to a slow start were unable to overtake Highland. Brodhead was lucky in their draw in the regional, as they play East Bernstadt—We feel sure our boys will be the victor this time. O. J. Collett; E. C. Watson

Baptist Church

By Rev. W. C. Younce

In view of the fact that the Signal has been so generous in giving to our church free space for our church notices, and inasmuch as Mr. Simpson is not here to bring to gain new subscribers, we take this opportunity to commend Mr. Simpson to the readers of the Signal for the work that he is doing. Surely we all appreciate his efforts in trying to make the paper bigger and better. Since a special offer is being made at this time to new and old subscribers, we suggest that every subscriber speak about this matter to those who might be interested.

The Week of Prayer for Home Missions held at the church last week will long be remembered by the women who attended. At each day's service reports of work done by missionaries were given and prayers on their behalf were offered unto our great God. It was indeed a glorious week of work and prayer. The average attendance each day was 18. The Annie Armstrong Offering taken at the close of these services was $20.00 with prospects for more.

We are glad to know that there are still many who are active in the Breakfast Association that observes the Week of Prayer for Home Missions. An association meeting last week held at Broadhead on Wednesday five societies were represented—Broadhead, Conway, Fairview, Livingstone and Mt. Vernon. After the splendid time of fellowship, instruction, and entertainment on the part of the Broadhead society, we feel that the W. N. U. of our association is more united and better prepared to face a Master's than ever before. There is much to challenge us to fidelity.

Many of our readers will be glad to know that Sand Springs Baptist Church, recently organized, has talked about $900.00 for the new building. However, we are sorry to say that none of our churches has yet made a contribution to their building fund. We would like for this matter to be considered more prayerfully. Although the membership is small and their means limited, we believe that our churches are securely established. They are at present holding services in the School House but hope to build as soon as possible. Those who would like to have a part in this work may send their gift to pastor Eugene Bradley, Sand Springs, Ky.

The weather being so bad last Saturday, we were unable to have the Executive Board Meeting. We had hoped to plan for the fifth Sunday meeting at that time. In order that we have a fifth Sunday meeting somewhere, we would like for the churches interested in having the meeting at their church to let us know immediately. Full information will be given in our next writing.

Sunday Service

Sunday School—9:45 a. m. Chas. Brown, Supt. Present last Sunday, 145. Lesson: "An enduring memorial"—Luke 22:14-30. We urge every member of the church to give this lesson diligent study. Power, usefulness and happiness are determined by one's attitude towards this memorial.

In behalf of the Sunday School we want to thank Mr. Dece Ramsey and Mr. Ltee Wood for their services in making fine more benches for use in the basement.

"Public Worship—11:00 a. m. Text—"Will a man leave the snow of Lebanon which cometh down the rock of the field? or shall the cold flowing waters that come from another place be forsaken?"—Jeremiah 17:14.

Training Union—6:00 p. m. Mrs. Fred Baker, Director. Present last Sunday, 95. Theme for the month of March: "Learning in the School of Christ."

"Public Worship—7:00 p. m. Text—"What profit is it that we have left the ordinance, and that we have bowed ourselves before the Lord of Hosts?"—Malachi 3:14. There are great texts. Everyone who can read is urged to give them prayerful study and to present for the preaching.

Prayer Service
As a basis for our praying at home and at church, we are using as our theme: "The place of prayer in the program of Jesus. Probably the best indication of the spiritual condition of a church are its prayer meetings. They denote the condition of the reservoir which supplies the spiritual forces."

The Garden

By John S. Gardner, Kentucky College of Agriculture

SOIL PREPARATION

Those gardeners who have their gardens broken are indeed fortunate, for the few freezes that have occurred have done much to make the soil friable and looser. A stiff clay garden should be turned as soon as possible, but if manure or cover crop growth is to be turned under, a thorough disk should be given, "before." This is to be recommended because if this material were turned under as it lies, it might form a layer that would cut off deeper soil moisture, and make the garden "drouthy."

Many complaints are heard each year about garden soils "running together." To some extent, this may be attributed to the soil being of a clayey nature. A stiff clay tends to run together, of course, but this condition may be much improved by turning under matter of a strawy nature, or to rot down to form what is called "humus."

On the other hand, some gardens perform well as long as there are rains plenty, but "burn-up" when warm, dry weather starts. By strange coincidence, the remedy for such a soil is the same as for one that "runs together," namely: humus. For humus makes sandy soils "stick" enough, enabling them to better hold moisture.

Again, of soils that "burn up" often at least some of the blame lies with the gardener who "burns" his attempt to "lighten" his soil, has been spreading cool ashes over his garden. Wood ashes are all right to use in moderation, for they contain potash and lime, but coal ashes are absolutely devoid of plant food, and may contain substances that are harmful, as for example, sulphur. The sulphur changes sulphuric acid, to make the soil, some-times, so sour that plant growth may be unsatisfactory, no matter how much commercial fertilizer is used.

The best humus material is of course stable manure. Of the two commonly used, horse manure is better than cow manure, for the latter, used alone and over long periods, tends to "bind" soils that are composed largely of clay. On the loose same soil, the horse manure makes the soil more porous, and increases the moisture. A mixture of the two can be recommended, generally.

Another good humus source is a cover crop, which is "green manure." The cover crop will have valuable results in other ways, too, to hold the soil against winter washing, and to store within itself the gardener's plant food that might otherwise have leached too deep for the vegetable roots to reach it, next season.

What to do now. If manure of a cover crop can be turned under, excellent, for many reasons, but if not, the gardener must do the next best he can, this year. However, if his garden soil tends to run together, or if it is excessively loose, and "burns up" when hot weather comes, he should keep in mind, in August, to sow down at least the "early" portion of this garden in rye, wheat, turf sods or even in greens to have humus matter for turning under next year.

Safetygrams

By Fred W. Braun

Public opinion is a strong factor in shaping a safety program for any community. Any honest and sincere police department wants to do the right thing in protecting the public but is frequently prevented from doing so by influential citizens or politicians. This practice on the part of a few will ruin any safety program.

Public education is necessary to correct such conditions. Fearless leadership on the part of honest officials, judges especially, must predominate to help people who want to live in a safe community.

We urge every citizen to investigate conditions in his own community. If the courts and police departments are not operating as they should but are giving protection to a few to the disadvantage of the majority, then that fact should be publicly aired and corrected. It's Smart to Drive Carefully!
