County Agent Notes

By Robert F. Spence, County Agent. The County Agricultural Extension Committee met with the County Agent at the Dixie Boone Hotel in Mt. Vernon last Saturday, April 26...

The County Agent made a report from the Department of Agriculture, which is in cooperation with the Government in the National Defense...

Our program has always been "Home Production for Home Consumption." This appears to be our most important problem and it is so recognized by the committee...

The following article on "Food for National Defense" will give full information concerning the farmer's part in National Defense.

FOOD FOR NATIONAL DEFENSE. All patriotic Americans are eager to do something to strengthen them and our country...

The United States Department of Agriculture is asking that the food be produced for defense...

To help reach the first objective, farm people must grow larger gardens, with a greater variety of vegetables and with surplus...

To reach the second objective, it is urged that farm people produce beyond their own needs...

The foods needed for defense abroad are pork, poultry and dairy products, it is announced that prices will be supported by Government...

Hogs, $9 a cwt; Dairy products, based on 31 cents a pound for butters; Eggs, 22 cents a dozen; and chickens, 15 cents a pound...

The Department of Agriculture asks that hogs be held on feed until they weigh more than the customary marketing weight...

grain to dairy cows where such feeding will bring increased milk production. Desirable heifers should be retained in the herd and bred for milk production...

Increased chick production is urged this spring. Hatcheries are said to be in a position to furnish the chicks. More chicks should be hatched either in incubators or under hens on farms...

Preserving eggs in water—by other methods, for home use should be considered on many farms. Eggs thus preserved can be used next fall and winter when eggs are scarce and prices are high...

Freezer locker service is in use in Fulton, Glasgow, Hickman and Lexington. Freezer lockers will be established in Clinton, Frankfort, Mayfield and Nicholasville...

Freezer locker service provides for freezing and storing of meats, vegetables and fruits for families. It also provides for chilling meat, thereby making it profitable for farmers to butcher in summer...

The Kentucky Agricultural Experiment Station, in a bulletin on tobacco diseases, says cured tobacco is the source of most of the insect infection of tobacco plants before and during transplanting...

Storage locker rent for $10 to $15 a year, depending on size, type and location in the plant. For a family using 600 pounds of meat a year, the cost averages about 2 cent a pound for freezing, wrapping and other services...

Ky. 4-H Club News

To hold make Tobacco Day a success in Todd county, 4-Hers have sponsored a beauty contest in connection with a play to select Miss Todd County. The young lady will be 16 to 18 years old, and a competent homemaker...

Carroll county club members are "doing their bit" by showing adult farmers the value of certified seed potatoes and of the scab treatment. Sixty youngsters planted a 100-foot row with the certified seed, and will carry through with necessary treatments...

A giant 4-H conference was held recently in Bell county, with leaders present from every community. Among aspects of the work having special emphasis is the hybrid corn project, sponsored by local service clubs...

Fleming county girls studying foods recently gave a breakfast for their parents, when a "model meal" was served. Also planned as a summer feature will be a dinner meeting, when club members will prepare and serve dinner and put on a program...

William Wheeler, Hart county, has bought two registered ewes to raise breeding stock for sale. He plans to engage in a "4-year plan" of purchase, steadily increasing and improving his stock by regular buying, especially in the fall...

In Allen county, it appears that 2,000 acres may be planted to hybrid seed corn. Part of this is due to the 4-H club examples, and effort is being made to enable the boys and girls to keep up the good work. Seed will be furnished them, to be repaid in kind in the fall...

Lamb Producers To Meet In Kentucky

Leaders in the sheep industry, in 12 to 15 "native" lamb states, livestock specialists of agricultural colleges and experiment stations, and representatives of the meat industry and the United States Department of Agriculture will attend the sixth annual lamb conference at the University of Kentucky May 15-16-17...

Speakers represented by speakers include Virginia, West Virginia, Tennessee, North Carolina, Kentucky, Ohio, Mississippi, Indiana and Illinois. Other states expected to send representatives are Iowa, Missouri and Arkansas...

The meeting will be concluded with a tour of Kentucky flocks.

Cured Leaf May Carry Diseases

The Kentucky Agricultural Experiment Station, in a bulletin on tobacco diseases, says cured tobacco is the source of most of the insect infection of tobacco plants before and during transplanting...

Therefore, men working around the plantbed should not use "natural leaf" for chewing or smoking. Cured leaf should be brushed out, if natural leaf has been carried in them, and plug or twist tobacco substituted. Pipe smokers should use canned smoking tobacco rather than natural leaf. Manufactured cigarettes probably are safe. It is preferable, however, to use no tobacco whatever, when working in plantbeds...

Rotary To See Superhighway

Pictures To Be Shown May 1

A sound film depicting America's pioneer tunnel superhighway—the Pennsylvania Turnpike—stretching 160 miles over concrete divided lane roadway between Pittsburgh and Harrisburg, will be shown before members of the Rotary Club of Mt. Vernon on May first.

The $70,000,000 project, ranking with Boulder Dam, Fort Peck Dam and Grand Coulee Dam as one of the marvels of modern engineering, is the nation's first self-liquidating superhighway and is operated by the Pennsylvania Turnpike Commission. Privilege fare tickets are sold all motorists using the highway as a means of paying off a construction bond issue.

Completed in 1940, the Turnpike is regarded by highway engineers as the safest road in the nation. No other highways are permitted to cross the Turnpike at grade, engineers having constructed 160 overpasses and underpasses to carry cross roads over or under the express highway. Spanning rivers and streams along the route are 139 bridges ranging from a six-foot culvert to a 600-foot viaduct.

Cutting through the formidable mountain ridges of the Appalachians over an abandoned railroad right-of-way, the Turnpike is a modern four-lane concrete highway with east-west traffic divided by a 10-foot parkway. Opposing streams of traffic flow over 24-foot roadways free from the dangers of collisions, double-sweeping and intersecting highways.

Traffic passes through seven well-lighted and ventilated tunnels, totaling about seven miles in length. Motorists enter or leave the Turnpike at 11 points enroute. More than two-thirds of the mileage, about 110 miles, is on a straight line, and the maximum grade is only three feet of rise in every 100 feet. Curves have ample sight distance and all are "banked" for greater driving comfort, convenience and safety.

Old Time Resident Visits Signal Office

Lonie Brown, former resident of Wildie, and now of Columbus, O. was a pleasant caller at this office Monday of this week. Mr. Brown is an employee of the Pennsylvania railroad and was returning to his home after a six month's vacation in Texas.

While here Mr. Brown showed us an old photograph which appeared in The Signal in 1901. The photo showed Joe Purnell, an old Frenchman, holding a milch cow which he worked to a plow and wagon during the day and milked her at night. The picture was made in front of the depot at Wildie.

We are glad that Mr. Brown stopped in to visit us and are sure he will have many friends in his home county who will be glad to know it is still circulating.

Tobacco Crop Brings $224,957.94

Growers In County Average 16.3c Lb.

A V. Lee, Conservation Clerk for this county has released the following data, which shows conclusively that Rockcastle is a tobacco producing county, and that the quality is above the average.

The 1940 crop harvested totaled 121,188 acres, with 1451 growers being represented. These growers sold 1,376,490 pounds and received $224,957.94 in cash. The price averaged 16.3c per pound, and the average yield was 1125 pounds per acre. All these figures might not mean a thing to some people, but the farmers of this county can point with pride to them for it proves that agriculture is showing a marked increase in Rockcastle county.

Since 1934 a remarkable increase has been going on. In that year the average yield of tobacco was only 598 pounds. Contrast that with the present yield of 1125 pounds. The yield has almost doubled in six years. Slowly but surely the farmers of this county are learning that it pays dividends to use the proper fertilizer, and also they read and listen to the latest methods to increase yields.

Rockcastle farmers have had a tough battle to make ends meet through the years and they deserve credit for their efforts can produce. The point to remember is: increased yields per acre means more money per acre. That's what we all after.

Small Fire At Mattress Center

The Mt. Vernon Fire Department was called to put out a fire in the Mattress Center in Mt. Vernon located in a frame building in the rear of Dr. Pennington's home and belonging to him. In some manner cotton became ignited and although a lot of smoke resulted very little damage was done. Water will not put out cotton fire, and it must be allowed to smolder until it die out of its own accord. This the first fire reported since the mattress making project was taken up in this county.

Scripture Gleaners Circle Met

The Scripture Gleaners Circle of the W. M. U. met Monday evening at the Baptist Church.

The theme of the program for the evening was "Training youth in Service for Christ." In this connection Mrs. Leonard Dowell gave the devotional; Mrs. E. R. Denney gave a very interesting discussion on "The Love of Youth" which was followed by two educational discussions by Mrs. Ed Banks and Mrs. Younce on "Helps along the Way" and "Margaret Fund."

The meeting was enjoyed by all and will meet next time at the Baptist Church on May 29th.

Directory To List Leading Farmers

Work is progressing on the County Directory, which is scheduled to be published sometime in June. Ninety percent of the business firms in Mt. Vernon have already contracted for advertising. Livingston has also cooperated in fine style. Broodhead has a fair representation.

The people of the county will be pleasantly surprised when they see this fine directory. Eighty pages in length, on book paper and possessing a high quality leatherette cover, it is a book that all citizens will be proud to own. All farmers will get one of these books absolutely free.

Again we warn merchants of this county that unless they get their reservation in by May 15 it will be too late. Their friends will wonder why they failed to be at least represented when the cost of a listing is only fifty cents. Merchants at Willalla, Quail, Burr, Calloway, Orlando and others should all be in this book because you are a part of the business life of the county.

A real feature of the directory will be the names of at least three hundred leading farmers of the county. Pictures of prominent scenic spots over the county and interesting stories of people, you know, will make the Rockcastle Directory a book that all will want to keep and read in the years to come.

The time is drawing near when we must close the forms and start printing. In case your home town merchant failed to see this write-up, take upon yourself to show this paper to him. We feel sure he will want to be listed.

Mt. Vernon 4-H Club News

The Mt. Vernon 4-H Club held its regular monthly meeting Friday April 25, in the high school playground.

There were 58 present with 16 new members. They are as follows: Betty Jean Miller, Mary Otis-Petty, Doris June Murphy/Tabitha Perkins Craig, Eugene Ferguson, Cora Anna Bullock, Evelyn Weaver, Margaret Smith, Margaret McClure, Glenna Barnes, Glenna Mae Carter, Jean Banks, George W. Griffin, and John Harmon. We welcome these new members and we want them to feel that they are a part of this great organization.

The program was "How To Eliminate Common Health Hazards." Wanda Wright gave a talk on clean milk and Mattie Slavenon gave some good suggestions on pure water. Anna Lee Blanton gave a few points on "Cleaning up Debris around the home". Mr. Kermit Mills gave some explanations on "An Ounce of prevention is worth a pound of Cure."

After the program was finished we had a game of base-ball. The girls played the boys and we greatly enjoyed ourselves.

After the baseball game Mr. Kermit Mills and Mr. Lester McHargue held a conference for the boys. At which two demonstration teams were chosen to represent the Mt. Vernon Club at the 4th Spring Rally Day to be held in Mt. Vernon, May 24. Jack Lyons and Jack Bullock were selected to give a demonstration on "How To Make White Wash", and Jack Hansel and J. W. Southards were chosen to demonstrate "How To Make Borden's Spray." We hope they make a good success.

We regret the loss of a good member, Miss Elizabeth Hamilton. We hear she has gone to Cincinnati, Ohio. We hope she will return soon.

Christian Endeavor State Convention

The Fifty-first Annual State Convention of Christian Endeavor will be held on May 2, 3, 4, at the Harrodsburg Christian Church in Harrodsburg, Kentucky. This old, inter-denominational youth movement most cordially invites all young people from nine years of age on up to come and join with them in these three great days of Fun, Fellowship, Inspiration, and Spiritual Blessings.

The general theme for the Convention is "Christ Calls—Will Answer" and around this theme has been built a program that will prove most interesting and most helpful and inspiring. The chief speaker will be the Rev. Albert P. Shirkey of the great Travis Park Methodist Church of San Antonio, Texas, who was with the National Christian Mission in Louisville in January of this year.

Other speakers and conference leaders include such outstanding Christian leaders as the Rev. Bruce McCullough of Clinton, Iowa; Dr. Frank P. Anderson of Louisville; Rev. F. C. Symonds of Hyden; Rev. F. H. DeLong of McKee; Rev. and Mrs. Lester Soerheide of Manchester; Rev. and Mrs. H. C. Berea College, Berea; and Rev. T. Hassell Bowen of Harrodsburg, Kentucky.

Plans are all complete for a great convention which will include, in addition to the addresses and conferences above mentioned, luncheons on Saturday noon, a banquet that night, and that afternoon three hours of sight-seeing around this old historic town.

A most cordial invitation has been sent out by the people of Harrodsburg to come and enjoy the hospitality of their charming city. A large number of delegates from all over the state will be there.

Small Farms Present Problem In Kentucky

Because of the large number of small farms in Kentucky, the State College of Agriculture, in its "Food for Defense" program, is stressing food production of food and feed for home use.

Figures gathered by the Agricultural Conservation Administration show that in Barron, Edmonson, Hart, Meade and Warren counties, 74 percent of the 15,688 farms contain less than 100 acres, with only 3,658 of them having 100 or more acres.

Of the 2,037 farms in Trigg county, 853 are less than 50 acres, and 1,879 are between 50 acres and 100 acres. In Christian county there are 2,541 farms, but 1,066 of them have less than 100 acres.

Tobacco allotments and incomes are small. The 50-acre farms grow less than an acre of leaf, with an average tobacco income is about $125 in Warren county. Fifty-one percent of the Christian county farms produce tobacco worth $150 or less. Two hundred and thirty Christian county farms have no tobacco allotment. The average allotment in the county is slightly over three-quarters of an acre each of burley and dark tobacco.

Christian Endeavor

The Christian Endeavor Society was held Sunday evening by their president, Jack C. Crawford and Leader, Mary Ann Davis. A good number of members were present and the meeting was taken up in the discussion and plans for the convention. Registration fees were sent Monday for eleven delegates, who will leave Friday evening in the cars of Mrs. B. N. Egan and Mrs. M. R. Maggard, who intend to return to Harrodsburg on Sunday for the delegates.

There will not be any Christian Endeavor meeting next Sunday night, as the leader, Mary Otis-Petty, and other members will be at the convention. They will not return until after the Harrodsburg Christian Endeavor program at 6 o'clock.

Publicity Chairman, Doris June Murphy.

Two Forest Service Men Get Medals For Heroism

Winchester—April — Medals for bravery while fighting forest fires were awarded Wednesday night (April 18) by the American Forest Fire Foundation to two members of the Forest Service organization, the Forest Service of U. S. Department of Agriculture, said today. The awards, one posthumous, were made at the annual banquet of the American Forestry Association in convention at Los Angeles, California.

Those who received the medals were Clarence B. Suttiff, assistant supervisor of the Bitterroot National Forest Montana, for saving the life of Dick Johnson, pilot of an airplane which crashed while Suttiff was scouting the spread of a forest fire and Andrew D. Lindgren, foreman of a CCC camp on the Huron National Forest, Michigan, who lost his life May 8, 1937, while directing the escape of a CCC crew from on-rushing flames. John M. Egan of Escanaba, Michigan, received the medal for Lindgren. The medals were presented by J. P. Kinney, chairman of the Foundation.

These awards bring the number of forest fire medals presented to seven since the Forest Fire Foundation was formed in 1937. Forest Service officials said. To merit the award, the recipient must have performed an act beyond the call of duty on an actual forest fire; the act must have been outstanding and authenticated with affidavits of witnesses or those thoroughly familiar with the act.

Suttiff's exploit was during the Boaring Lion Canyon Fire on the Bitterroot National Forest on August 22, 1939. When the flames in which he and pilot Johnson were scouting crashed on the edge of the spreading fire in a deep canyon, Suttiff, although badly hurt, extricated himself and dragged the injured pilot away from the gasolene-soaked wreckage. Suttiff covered the pilot with his own coat and shirt, and darkness fell, blazed with a pocket knife's path through dense undergrowth and down timber to a pack trail, where he met two CCC boys fleeing from the same fire. Suttiff sent 'one boy back to care for the pilot and dispatched the other for a rescue party.

World War veteran and CCC foreman Andrew D. Lindgren was in charge of a CCC fire crew of four at the Welcome Lake Fire on the Huron National Forest in May, 1937. They were backtracking to keep flames from crossing a road. The wind shifted suddenly, "crowning" the fire across the road to the tops of the timber behind them and threatening another crossing in front of them.

Lindgren, in the rear of the group, ordered the boys to run. After running for approximately a mile, still keeping behind the fleeing boys, Lindgren fell and was caught by the flames.

Kentucky Youths Report For Air Corps

Eastern Kentucky's addition to the Air Corps Cadet training is steadily increasing, according to Lt. Col. William L. Blanton, Executive Officer of the Lexington Military District, an area which embraces all counties east of Jefferson.

Twenty-four young men, between 20 and 27 years of age, reported to Fort Thomas this morning for reception into Air Corps Training School, where, after nine months of study, they will be commissioned as Second Lieutenants in the Air Corps Reserve, and serve their Nation for the next three years as aviators in Uncle Sam's service.

Due to the increasing large enrollment, it was necessary to divide the April class into two groups, as follows: To Spartan School of Aeronautics, at Tulsa, Oklahoma; General Pershing Bishop, Conking, Ky.; Edward Arnold Cave, Jr., Lexington; Corneil, Hindman; Varge Connet, Lexington; Melvin Nelson Duke, Corbin; Charles S. Thomas Parker, Winchester; William Nelson Gordon, Richmond; Thomas Champs Greis, Lexington; Charles Addison Smith, Lexington; William Boudie Wallin, Lexington; Allen Stern Webb, Winchester; Robert J. Gentry, Lexington; Gordon Harold Wilson, Covington; Clyde Woodrow Wooten, Louisa, Ky.; Gilbert Osborn Wymon, Lexington. To Oklahoma Air College, Oklahoma, Okla.; Oklahoma Jess Bishop Allen, Berea; Artie Fields, Aarwam; Buckner W. Hamilton, Lexington; Anthony A. McCord, Ewing; William Paul, Williamsburg; Donald M. Roser, Greendale; Lewis Earl Sutton, Berea.

Anything from between 20 and 27, unmarried, who desires an education of approximately $15,000 to $25,000 in value, and who receives $75.00 per month during his course of instruction, and $205.00 thereafter, with an opportunity for advancement in the Air Corps, or later entrance in any of the large civilian airplane companies, is urged to write Colonel Blanton at his office in Lexington.

While applicants under two years of college are exempted from the required mental tests for admittance, high school graduates are welcome to apply and free tuition in the scholastic requirements. Schools are also operating at Lexington, and in other Kentucky towns, hence the lack of the two-year college work should, in no wise, prove a deterrent in entering this field of National Defense, it was stated.

Graded School Program Given May 8th

It has been the custom for years to present this program free to the public. This year, however, due to the P. T. A. sponsoring a garden project which will necessitate the purchase of a large number of fruit jars in which to store products, we feel that an admission charge should be permissible. Now, all adults will be admitted, i.e. bring one half gallon fruit jar of its equivalent. Each minor should bring one jar not less than a quart in size or its equivalent. Admission at the door will not apply to those people that have already so graciously donated many jars. The school thanks you very kindly for the ones already received. Come to this program and bring your jar and help us to feed the undernourished children of your community. Brodhead definitely is going to have a hot tech program next year.

The Garden

By John S. Gardner, Kentucky College of Agriculture
The vanguard of the insect hosts has started coming. Some, as for example, the lice and worms on cabbage and on greens are already here in force.
The lice make their presence known by cupping up or cupping down the leaves, by causing "scalded" spots on the leaves or by stunting the whole plant.
As sucking insects, no arsenical poison is of any use, but a spray or dust that kills by contact must be used.
An effective spray can be made steeping trash tobacco in lukewarm water (NEVER boiled), adjusting its strength to kill the lice within 15 minutes of spraying. Lacking tobacco, commercial nicotine extract may be used. Its name is "Black Leaf 40" and directions are on the bottle.
If dusting is the means used for combating insects, an effective dust is one containing rotenone or pyrethrum. Several forms of such dusts are on the market, offered primarily for the control of the Mexican bean beetle. Both rotenone and pyrethrum are tasteless and harmless to humans. They kill insects by contact, which means that the dusting must be so done as to hit the insects themselves. This is true of tobacco-spray, too.
Another insect now started is the green worm on cabbage. This is a chewing insect and as such is killed by poison dust or spray. The best material to use is arsenate of lead, a heaping tablespoon to a gallon of water, as a spray; or as a dust, one part of arsenate to five parts (by weight) of fine lime. The finer the material the spray does the better. Though some gardeners add a wheel flour, two tablespoons per gallon, as a "sticker." Four weekly applications of dust or spray should keep the worms in check. By that time heading will have begun, after which a switch should be made to rotenone or pyrethrum.
The green worm attacks also mustard, seven top, cauliflower and broccoli. On these, arsenicals should NEVER be used, but only rotenone or pyrethrum. These, by the way, may also be purchased in extract form of which to make spray. The directions are on the bottle.

Safetygrams

By Fred W. Braun
Again I say, the importance of individual responsibility in accident prevention work cannot be over emphasized. Safety education, driver's license laws, vehicle inspection, and many other worth-while safety promotional campaigns are important, but they are not the answer to the accident problem in our traffic work.
The answer lies in the driver himself. If you do not follow the rules of the road, if you do not obey the laws of your state, and if you do not exercise caution in your driving, then you will be responsible for accidents to yourself and others. Reason it out for yourself. You cannot prevent your cutting in unnecessarily and dangerously, nor will they prevent you from passing another car on a hill. It's you only who can prevent your doing that.
Establish yourself as the best and safest driver in your community.
Let me repeat again—you are the answer to the prevention of automobile accidents.

Times have changed a lot since 1930. Not only in inventions but also in our trend of thought. The change has been so rapid that many people fail to grasp the fact that we are living in an age of miracles.

The American ten years from now is worth considering. If the advance is as rapid as the preceding ten years, and it might even be more rapid, this country has only to believe that conditions will be better in 1950 than in 1940.

The airplane is the coming method of transportation. Coast to coast in 8 hours is not a dream but reality. Distance will mean little or nothing to these planes of the future.

Economists have predicted that city dwellers will gradually move to the smaller communities, two or three hundred miles from their work. If a man lived fifty miles from his work, this would mean less than an hour in this modern sky buggy.

Such distant points as Miami, Fla. or Denver, Colorado would make nice places to go over the week end. The European has only speeded up the coming of the airplane as a mode of universal transportation. With mass production just around the corner and thousands of young men being trained as pilots, it is only a question of time before every town will have airports.

We noticed the other day where Danville had been put on an air-mail route and mail will be picked up there without landing. This is made possible by a new device only recently invented.

Mt. Vernon must look toward the future. Sadly enough the horse and buggy days are gone forever. The towns that keep pace and have visitors have ever right and a new vision in living and a new perspective.

Some famous writer once said, "Don't look down, look up." In this case we should look at our neighboring cities, and see the advancement they are making. London, Stanford, Berea, Richmond, Somerset, Danville. Shall we keep pace or shall we be a small village that helps feed these more progressive cities?

Mt. Vernon is fortunate in having a large trading territory and in being the county seat. Highway 25 and Renfro Valley bring many hundreds of dollars here every week. The State Fox Hunt being held at Renfro in October will draw at least ten thousand visitors to this trading area. Are we ready for this business?

We lack some, or a few dollars having funds sufficient to fence the Grove Cemetery. If there should be some having friends and relatives buried here who wish to donate for the up-keep of this cemetery, names of all who give any amount each donated will be announced later. I am keeping treasurer for this fund, and any amount will be appreciated, and given careful consideration. As this is a large cemetery it needs care and attention every year at least, with only a few interested in giving free work. So those living at a distance, who wish to contribute to this cause may do so by donations. We have the graves of five Soldiers in this cemetery.

Announcement of memorial services for Whiteaker and Bustle grave yards will be given when date is announced for the same. Mrs. Alice Bustle remains in poor health.

Card of Thanks
We wish to thank all who were so kind and all who helped in any way during the illness and death of our father.

A meeting was held last week to organize. Out of the forty-four active firms only eight men turned out. The men that were there were vitally interested. This is a town without co-operation and unification the town could not progress.

This is really something to get excited about and literally the whole thing fell in our laps without solicitation.

Other industries of a like proportion could be attracted to Mt. Vernon. The only drawback is that the business men are not uplifted.

No Kentucky city needs a shot in the arm more than does our community. The man-power is here, opportunity is knocking. The question is, whether we will continue to sit idly by, content with what we have, or to branch out on a new line of endeavor to try and get the thousands of dollars of business that are annually going to some other locality.

Baptist Church

By W. W. C. Younce

The Missionary Service last Sunday afternoon was the best in many a day. A good number was present to welcome Rev. Leo Eddleman. Some heard him at Brodhead Sunday morning. We wish that more of our people in and out of town could have heard "the modern Apostle Paul". He is truly a man with a message. We seldom have the privilege of hearing such a man.

Many of our good people take pride in being Missionary Baptists when at heart they are extremely hostile toward our Baptist program, even the Great Commission itself. Without further discussion let us say that the Missionary cause needs prayerful consideration.

Church work would much easier and more effective if every church member would attend regularly the services of his church. We can understand why any individual joins the church of his choice but we cannot understand why he is not willing to support his church in every way possible. Without further discussion we plead that all who "name the name of Jesus" will be faithful to the church and its program regardless of circumstances.

The man who is perfectly honest with Jesus will not evade his responsibilities to be true to his highest and best by raising excuses or objections which are not real and sincere. He knows that the first thing for an honest man to do is to face his sin, especially the sin of selfishness, with an honest confession of his need of help beyond himself.

Sunday School—9:45 A. M. Chas. Brown, Supt. Lesson: "The church enlarging its fellowship" or "Sharing Christ with Others—Acts 8:1-8, 14-17, 25. The high points in the lesson are: Every Christian telling the good news everywhere; persecuted Christians and a revival in Samaria; a fresh outpouring of the Holy Ghost. This lesson merits prayerful study. Present last Sunday, 228. Average attendance during April, 200.

Both Rich And Poor Are Undernourished

Poor nutrition is by no means confined to those in the lower economic brackets, according to the home economics department of the University of Kentucky.

In fact, the share-cropper may be better nourished than the banker. For instance, in cooking eggs the poor are more likely to consume the "pot liquor" than the more wealthy do discard. And virtually all the vitamins will be in the pot liquor.

Though one-third of the population is adequately nourished, it isn't for lack of calories. In a way, everyone has enough of those. The injurious thing is that the diet may lack vitamins and minerals to such an extent that health is impaired.

Most of the vitamins and minerals are to be found in a natural, well-balanced diet—meats, vegetables, fruits, dairy and poultry products, supplemented by cod liver oil for children. Use plenty of rick milk, eggs, cheese, liver and pork, whole wheat bread or the new "enriched" bread. Don't forget that salads not only are healthful, but they can be made supremely good-tasting if made with a little imagination.

If the diet is very restricted, discard non-essentials and spend every spare penny on health-giving foods. Since store-bought people are the backbone of the nation, to do so is a patriotic service, suggest the home economists.

Lambs Bring 15 Cents
One of the largest consignments of pre-Easter lambs sold in Kentucky in recent years—consisted of 300 lambs originating from Danville, raised by James Sharp of Fayette county, and weighing 212 pounds, 15 cents a pound. Their meat went to New York for the Easter trade. They were out of western ewes and by South-down rams.

Old Chestnut Ridge 4-H Club Met April 25

The Old Chestnut Ridge 4-H Club held its regular monthly meeting at the Old Chestnut Ridge school Friday, April 25 at 4:00 p.m. We elected S. H. Lovell as project captain. Most of our members were present. Mr. Mills made a talk on health. Jarvis Lovell talked about pure milk. I told about pure water. LeeRoy McClure the president called the meeting to order and led the club in saying the pledge to the club flag, the American flag, and the Christian flag. The secretary, Ruth Halcomb called the roll and read the minutes. Jarvis Lovell the song leader led us in some songs and yells. Our next meeting will be held Friday, May 23, at the Old Chestnut Ridge school at 6:00 o'clock. We will play games until dark and then hold our meeting.

or about 10 million cases of 30 dozen eggs each. Flock owners are urged to begin immediately to feed hens better, and to enlarge hatchings and thereby the number of layers for next fall and winter. Feed supplies are plentiful, and prices of feed are considered moderate.

The Department of Agriculture has announced it will support egg prices at an average of about 22 cents a dozen, based on Chicago prices, until June, 1943. This, it is said, should mean higher summer prices to farmers.

An increase of 15 percent in chicks raised, over the 1940 numbers, also is urged. "The hatchery industry is said to be in a position to take care of this increase.

According to the Department of Agriculture, supported prices should enable producers to go ahead with plans for feeding for maximum egg production and increasing the size of flocks.

A program also is announced for expanding the production of tomatoes for cannabing by 50 percent, to meet the probable domestic and foreign demands.

FOR SHERIFF

To The Voters Of Rockcastle County:

I wish to take this opportunity to announce my candidacy for the nomination for Sheriff of Rockcastle county, subject to the action of the Republican primary on August 2, 1941.

I PLEDGE MYSELF TO THE FOLLOWING:

1. I understand that throughout the county there are considerable disturbances at the Churches and other public gatherings. I realize that it is impossible for the Sheriff and his two deputies to attend all such gatherings. With that in mind, I will, if elected, recommend and appoint any responsible person the church members of any church recommends to me for a special deputy to keep order at the churches throughout the county, and will see that deputies appointed for that purpose will fully carry out these duties.

2. If elected I will be in my office or have a deputy there during office hours every day, and will assure you that when you call at the Sheriff's office, you will find some one there to take care of your needs in a pleasant, business-like manner.

3. If elected I will attend to all duties of the Sheriff's office and will see that all duties are carried out according to law.

4. I believe I am qualified to fill the office of Sheriff, having been elected, and served as Jailer of this county, and during that time I was closely connected with the duties of the Sheriff's office, and know the duties of said office and how to perform same.

5. I have selected one deputy to run with me. MR. JOHN LAKES, of Livingston. Mr. Lakes is 58 years old and has been Marshal of the town of Livingston for the past eleven years. Mr. Lakes makes a splendid officer, and will make a good Deputy Sheriff.

6. I will name and publish the other deputy before Election Day, or if I do not I will leave the selection up to the good citizens of Rockcastle county to help me pick out someone, either a man or a woman, who has education enough to take care of the office and keep the books in an efficient manner. Mr. Lakes and myself will be the only arresting officers; my other deputy will stay in the office at all times to take care of the public.

7. This is a busy time of year and I am working on my farm, but we will try to be around and see each voter before Election Day. If we don't see you, we want you to know, we will sincerely appreciate your vote and influence.

I thank you all for past favors, and your support in this race.

I remain Your Friend,

James Winstead

Parity Payment Rates Announced

Rates of parity payments to be made of Kentucky crops who plant within their acreage allotments are announced as follows:

Corn, 5 cents a bushel; wheat, 10 cents a bushel; fire-cured tobacco, two-tenths of a cent a pound, and cotton, .138 cents a pound.

The payments will be based on the normal yield of each producer's acreage allotment, and will be in addition to the regular agricultural conservation payments.

The only change in the procedure for determining rates for 1941 parity payments, as compared with the 1940 program, is that the "75 percent rule" formerly applying has been eliminated. This rule provided that payments could not be made on crops which already were at 75 percent of parity and specified further that if farm prices of commodity were less than 75 percent of parity, the payment could be large enough only to make up the difference. As a result, the parity rate for rice is higher than in 1940, and payments are being made on tobacco for the first time.

The 1941 parity rates will be applied to approximately the same production of wheat, corn, and rice as were the 1940 rates, and to about 4 percent more cotton production, because of an increase in the normal yield of cotton.

Hens Make Money

County Agent R. B. Rankin reports good incomes from several Adair county flocks in March. Mrs. Audrey Jones, to White Loughorn laid 1,101 eggs and cleared $21. Mrs. Ira Branham's 78 White Loughorns laid 1,578 eggs and made a net return of $18 for the month. From 102 Rhode Island Reds, Mrs. H. H. Allen gathered 2,042 eggs and cleared $20. The Linsley Wilson College has a flock of 112 hens which produced 2,173 eggs in March, with a net profit of $19.

Defense Program For Homemakers

How can every homemaker cooperate in the 1941 better nutrition program?

The following 10-point personal program is suggested by Dr. State Erikson, chairman of the Kentucky Nutrition Committee for national defense and head of the University of Kentucky home economics department:

- (1) Collect accurate data on good nutrition.
- (2) Spread this information—be a 1-man unit of publicity for better health through better nutrition.
- (3) See that your family has the right diet, including plenty of fruits and vegetables, meats, a pint of milk daily per person, several eggs every week, etc.
- (4) When the income is very limited, spend every available penny on the basic thing, good food—exclude non-essentials.
- (5) Find out about the school lunch in your community.

(6) Learn how to evaluate the school lunch; if it isn't up to standard, assume responsibility for getting it improved.

(7) Learn what local agencies will cooperate gladly in improving the school lunch program.

(8) Take advantage of every easy way to improve nutrition; as enrichment bread or flour or else whole-wheat bread, the State's dairy industry that makes dairy products inexpensive, the fact that codliver oil is available.

(9) Remember that well-fed, well-balanced people as a whole are not easy prey for subversive interests.

(10) Help improve the health of Kentuckians by 33 percent, as a goal.

An Interesting Case Report

The year 1938 Christmas came on Sunday, but Monday was used as the legal holiday for celebrating, on that day Dec. 26, 1938, one of our townsmen decided he would celebrate in the way that a great many of us want to on Christmas, and he did; but he got too much white male, and after being out all day in the cold he decided he would try to get home and by the hardest he finally made it, arriving about 5 o'clock. The house in which he lived had an open fire place, he sat down in front of the grate, the warm heat naturally made him sleepy and drunker, his son and daughter went out and left him in the room alone, some time after they left he fell out of the chair his head resting in about two feet of the open grate, and there he laid close enough to singe all the hair off the top of his head and to roast and cook the scalp, he was so completely intoxicated that he could not move and did not feel the burning. Finally his son arrived back home and found him in that position, pulled him away from the fire and carried him to bed. The next morning he awoke neck another nip, ate breakfast and figured one day was not enough to celebrate, so he kept it up until Dec. 29 and on the 30th his face began to swell and his head hurt and on the morning of the 31st he came to my office to see what was causing his face to swell, all this time not realizing that he had any burn on his head. I got the above history from him, and on examination I found that the hair on top of the head was singed off and the scalp was cooked and fused to the skull, as the days went by I cut and removed all the dead skin on top of his head and exposed the sides to the live skin, around the entire scalp.

The first treatment began on Dec. 31st, 1938, and ended on April 29, 1941, time two years and four months, all healing was by granulation, no skin grafting, during this healing process it was necessary to remove several inches of dead skin, and no single treatment is responsible for the fine results obtained in this case. In fact I used and tried everything that has ever been recommended or used for burns. So do not ask me what remedies will heal burns or make new skin grow, but the surprising thing about this case was the fact that I was able to grow new hair over most of the head. This man never spent one day in any hospital, he was treated at home, and never spent one day in bed, he came to the office for the most of his treatments, and that was some treatments when you stop to figure the time and that we had to dress it every other day. He worked a great deal of the time at manual labor. You will ask me did he stay sober during all of this long treatment? No, he did not, nearly every Sunday he got on one, and at one time had his eyes nearly cut out, and another time got so close to the fire again and burned all the skin and flesh off of his right arm down to the bone, he didn't mind the head much, but this one came very near getting him, as a large blood vessel was so badly burned that it broke through one night and he nearly bled to death. This complicated the head condition and had to be treated at the same time but the poor fellow can not get anything to drink. No, that is not the way and in closing I will try to best I can to prove it.

If you are a good citizen and claim religion, or if you are down in your heels like a true follower of the Holy Nazarine you do things to help others when sick or in trouble, "Bear ye one another burdens", is a beautiful and broad command, we need understanding of the divine word in this world of care-to-day more than we ever needed it before (Rom 15:19). The strong should help the weak. Christ the great Physician did not heal for money, but for the glory of God and to demonstrate the powers which he possesses and the same rule applies to all physicians to-day who have been called, and right here I want to say, not all have been called who practice, preach or teach, but those that have will not want for anything here on this earth, and when they close their eyes in death, the first message will be "Well done thou good and faithful son—enter thou into the kingdom of heaven."

Gives Control For Tobacco Disease

Angular leafspot, or rust, and wildfire, diseases of burley tobacco plants, can be controlled by two applications of bluestone-lime mixture, applied first when the plants are just established in the bed and producing the first true leaf, and then again in 10 days, according to W. D. Valleau and E. M. Johnson of the Kentucky College of Agriculture. Their recommendations are given in a leaflet which may be had from county agents.

The mixture is applied to the bed without removing the cotten cover. An ordinary 10-quart sprinkling can is used. Logs or boards used to frame the bed should also be sprinkled. The mixture is used at the rate of a quart to the square yard of planted. Complete instructions for preparing the mixture are given in the leaflet.

In an average year plants from a bed treated with bluestone-lime will remain free or nearly free from leaf spots until cutting time. Drs. Valleau and Johnson estimate, "Therefore, use bluestone-lime on treated beds. Crop set with clean plants from a treated bed have been ruined by resetting from an untreated one."

It has been the observation of these scientists that the most severe outbreaks of leafspot and wildfire in the field occur where the soil is not very fertile. In very fertile soils neither of these diseases is destructive, as a rule. Consequently, selection of a fertile piece of land for the tobacco field will help prevent leaf injury and increase the yield and quality of tobacco. If the land is not fertile, a moderately heavy application of manure or of a high-grade fertilizer, or both, will help, it is declared.

Public Invited To Experiment Fields

Effects of years of soil building and of different methods of maintaining fertility may be seen by farmers and other persons who attend the annual field days at the outlying fields of the Kentucky Agricultural Experiment Station this spring. Dates of these are: Greenville, May 27th; Campbellville, May 28th; Fariston, May 29th, and Berea, May 30th.

Among crops to be seen are wheat, legumes and grasses, alfalfa, bluegrass and other crops, on treated and on untreated land. One source of fire blight will be more than one in preparation for tobacco. In other places, alfalfa and grass seeds will be seen.

Craving and love for strong drink has been his downfall, just like it has for thousands of the biggest hearted, lovable men you and I have ever known. Chronic alcoholism is a disease and should be treated as such, unfortunately it is seldom cured, and if it is cured, it is through kindness, patience, co-operation and religious teaching, not as the most of us think by law and through our courts and legislation. We think that the good people should ignore them, pass 'em up, shun them just as we would a dog lying in the street, saying he is old sorry so and so, no good for nothing, why waste our time on a drunkard, put him jail, work him on the streets, vote liquor out and shoot the bootlegger and fix it so free poor fellows can not get anything to drink. No, that is not the way and in closing I will try to best I can to prove it.

If you are a good citizen and claim religion, or if you are down in your heels like a true follower of the Holy Nazarine you do things to help others when sick or in trouble, "Bear ye one another burdens", is a beautiful and broad command, we need understanding of the divine word in this world of care-to-day more than we ever needed it before (Rom 15:19). The strong should help the weak. Christ the great Physician did not heal for money, but for the glory of God and to demonstrate the powers which he possesses and the same rule applies to all physicians to-day who have been called, and right here I want to say, not all have been called who practice, preach or teach, but those that have will not want for anything here on this earth, and when they close their eyes in death, the first message will be "Well done thou good and faithful son—enter thou into the kingdom of heaven."

Planning Committee Wants More Gardens

A survey made by members of homemakers' clubs indicated that most farm families in Hopkins county, Kentucky, produce enough pork, eggs, milk and butter to supply their minimum needs, but only a fourth to a third as many vegetables as needed. Based on this survey, the county land-use planning is continuing its program, launched last year, to encourage the production of bigger and better gardens.

Community garden committees cooperate with the county home demonstration agent in suggesting the use of good land, good preparation of the soil and proper planting and cultivation of vegetables. Tours are to be made during the growing season, so all may see the gardens. Canning demonstrations are a part of the program, and storages are provided for potatoes and other products.

The program last year is said to have increased the number of quarts of vegetables stored from 100 per family to 220, where special attention was given to the garden. Further increases are expected this season.
