Your Community And You

By Dr. R. G. Webb

Some of you have been wondering why I did not write on some subject last week, well here is the reason, I do most of my writing on Sunday and Monday nights and on those nights I was in Louisville attending our "state" convention of Lions Clubs, so did not have any time to write. However, I am going to try and make up for lost time by writing on the subject that you should be interested in — "YOUR COMMUNITY" where you live, eat, sleep and breathe, how about it. Do you like it? Does it like you? What has it done for you? And who has it done for you? Now if you can answer the above questions in the affirmative, I want to talk to you about your town and community. Tomorrow I would like for you to go to some bank in your community in which you have an account, write out a check and sign your name to it, then present it to the cashier for payment. If he gives you money on that check, it is a sure sign that it will be a matter of only a short time until that cashier will be looking for you.

Bank clerks and common sense, tells you that you cannot take money out of a bank unless you have first put some into it. This same thing applies to your community. You must put into it in order to take out of it, if you do not, your community will go just like the bank.

One of the big problems in community service today is the one of bringing the business and professional men of the community to the realization that their town is a business and that they, as well as all citizens have a responsibility to keep that town in business. Any business that does not keep pace with the progress of its particular time is not going to stay in business very long. So it is with every town. Problems of many kinds are confronting all towns today, and some one individual or some organization — must give the time and the energy to meet these problems and solve them for the best interest of the community, or your community is not going to stay in business.

Now my friend if you really and truly want your town to stay in business and prosper, look up your business and organization and make a deposit in your community bank, then when you write a check on it you can draw something out. Right here you may say how can I make a deposit? I have no money to join in. — we will accept that and tell you that you can do, boost your leaders and community try every man that you live in the best town in the United States, some of them will be very crazy and will tell you some things you will believe you and will become interested, he will ask others and if they should give him the same dope, making their deposit the same way, this man finally becomes convinced that he is in a healthy community, looks up the Clubs' President and then he can't get away, for he calls in the real estate man who is a member of his club and together they sell him something in your community and add another club member and leader, this man that you helped sell your town to may start some business in which you can get a job and if he should you see you would start to draw out of the bank in which you had made a deposit. "Believe me it works."

Now to those men and women that answers my questions in the negative you say you don't like it — well I say you should mind and do it and you will feel better and the community will be better off. Naturally the community is not going to like you, or do anything for you when you are all the time knocking it, and never saying anything good about it, fortunately we have this class of citizens in all of our towns and the sad part is they do not move to a place that might suit them, but stay right on with you and continue to beat about their town and everyone in it, and they live and die in the community without ever being converted to the fact that it was not such a bad place after all, and that there were some good people in it.

In closing I want to say to you my friend, you get out of life just what you put into it, and you get out of your community just what you put into it, so do not blame me or anyone for your failure in this

"Go out into the highways and hedges, and compel them to come in, that my house may be filled" (Luke 14:23).

"For the son of man is come to save that which was lost" (Luke 19:10).

"As my father hath sent me, even so send I you" (John 20:21).

"Not forsaking the assembling of ourselves together" (Hebrew 10:25)

There took this time, and the light into the far-way land of night. Out from the Bliss of worship song into the pain of hatred and wrong. Out from the holy rapture above into the grief of rejected love. Out from the life of the Father into the death of the Crucified. Out of high honor and into shame The Master Willingly, gladly came. And now, sin the may not suffer anew. As the Father sent him so sendeth the Son.

L. & N. Purchase Freight Equipment

The purchase of $5,500,000 worth of new freight equipment has just been authorized by the L. & N. Railroad, it was announced by the general offices at Louisville, 2,100 new units of freight car equipment are involved and work on the order will commence immediately, with complete delivery expected by early fall.

The order has been divided between the Pullman Standard Car Manufacturing Company and the American Car and Foundry Company, each of these having an order to manufacture 500 all-steel hopper coal cars, 50-ton capacity, and 500 all-steel box cars, 50-ton capacity; the former also furnishing 100 steel-sheeted double-door box cars, 50-ton capacity.

Last fall the Old Reliable purchased 3,825 freight cars for the sum of $9,800,000, practically all of which have been delivered. Thus, by the fall of this year, the Louisville & Nashville Railroad will have increased its freight equipment by 5,925 cars within the span of one year, the total cost being $14,850,000.

There are 130 Class I railroads in the United States operating 232,719 miles of road.

THE ZIEGFELD GIRL-OF-THE-WEEK

ALAINE BRANDES

Alaine Brandes, who seems to have more than her quota of masculine admirers in this case, is a Chicago contribution to "Ziegfeld Girl" publicitry. After going to school, her posing her ability at modeling and radio work she demonstrated her acting talent with a Little Theatre group and was urged by friends to go out to Hollywood. She made rapid progress in the cinema capital, and had parts in "Turnabout" and "The Boys from Syracuse." She's five feet six, with jet black hair, and her two hobbies are water-coloring and woodcarving.

Patriot Quotes

WAR is hell! Gen. William Sherman

This phrase is inseparably linked with Sherman's name, although he could never remember having uttered it. It was recalled for by John Koolback, side-de-camp to General Winfield Scott. Koolback claimed he overheard Sherman say it while watching his fifteen-day march across a pontoon bridge over Pearl River.

They're Saying No!

Beer retailers are frequently asked to violate the law. But they're saying "No" because they realize that a clean, law-abiding establishment is the best "insurance policy" their business can have.

This is why most beer retailers want to, and do, co-operate with the Kentucky brewing industry's self-regulation program. They want to be among the great majority of reputable retailers who know that good conduct is good business.

You can help us — by patronizing only the reputable places where beer is sold and by reporting to us any objectionable conditions you may observe.

Tax Commission Levies Blanket Raise On Rockcastle Property

Taxpayers To Have Hearing At Frankfort Wednesday, May 28; On 40% Increase

Charles C. Carter, County Judge of Rockcastle County received a communication Wednesday of this week from H. Clyde Reeves, Chairman of the Kentucky Tax Commission, informing him of the fact that the Commission had increased the assessment on town lots, lands, household and kitchen furniture, livestock and tangible personal property other than motor vehicles forty percent.

The assessment this year on the above items was $2,313,621.00. A 40% increase would mean that Rockcastle taxpayers would be forced to pay more than a million dollars more than the assessed valuation made by the local assessors.

The assessing of property in all the counties of the state is a difficult job. Most property is assessed low. If a taxpayer puts his land in at a fair figure, his neighbor might put in a ridiculously low assessment, and pay only a small amount of tax. Only recently a piece of land that was assessed at $700 sold for $5000. It is natural for all citizens to beef about taxes, and to do everything in their power to keep them down, but expenses of State and local government must be met, and the means provided are taxation.

Any county official or taxpayer desiring to protest this action may be heard by the Commission on May 28, 11:00 a. m. Central Daylight Saving Time at the offices of the Department of Revenue in the State Capitol Building in Frankfort.

Crippled Children's Drive Nets $55.00

N. M. Smock, county chairman of the Crippled Children's Society, turned in $55.00 last week to the State offices of the Society.

No more organization in the county is more worthy, but for some reason, many persons, who should have given failed to donate, and the quota for the county or $100 was not reached.

The money realized from the drive will be used solely to send crippled children to clinics and to give treatment at hospitals. More than $40,000 has been subscribed throughout the State.

Chairman Smock and the committee wish to thank those who donated and assisted in any way to make the drive a success.

City Road Work Started Tuesday

Herbert Johns, contractor from Nicholasville, who has the contract to repair and oil the majority of the road system in Mt. Vernon commenced operations Tuesday morning.

It is estimated that at least six weeks will be required to finish the work.

The side street leading off 150 has already been oiled and repaired, and the work is moving forward at a fast rate.

Due to the extremely dry weather, dust conditions over the city have been almost unbearable and the majority of the residents are breathing easier now that the work has begun.

Bond Five Quartet To Sing At Renfro

The Bond Five Quartet, who sing regularly over a Knoxville radio station have been engaged to give a performance on the Renfro Valley Barn Dance program this Saturday night. The boys have made a fine reputation in the Tennessee area and are ranked as "plenty good."

Glenn Pennington, nephew of Dr. M. Pennington, is a member of this quartet.

You Gotta Tell 'Em

The other day a merchant in a nearby town saw a farmer receiving goods at the station from a mail order house. The goods were in his line, and the same he had carried in his store for years.

He approached the farmer and said: "I could have sold you every article you have there for less money and have never seen a line about you selling these goods. The Chicago house sent advertising matter to me asking for my trade and they got it—Big Sandy News."

Rev. Younce Delivers Baccalaureate

Rev. W. C. Younce delivered the baccalaureate sermon to the Senior class of the Mt. Vernon High School last Sunday evening. The theme of Rev. Younce's talk was "What Is Life?" He stressed very forcefully the need to lead a Christian life and cooperation instead of competition in your life work.

He was accompanied by Rev. W. A. Fite former minister of the Christian Church, and Mr. Aubrey Russell present Pastor of the Christian Church.

Two lovely songs were sung by the girls choir, "To Thee Be Praise Forever" and "Lest We Forget."

Music on the Program was furnished by Miss Kathleen Rowe and Miss Ruth Mullins.

There are twenty-seven Seniors in the graduating class of 1941. They are: Miss Nancy Watkins, Grant Banks Jr., Virginia Bray, Lee Bryant, Oren Bussell, Geneva Carpenter, Frances Brown Cox, Jim Cox, Mable Dooley, Opal Gill, Kathleen Hansel, Robert Harmon, Earl Harmon, William Harper, Dorothy Lambert, Ella Jean Lawson, Ray McMillan, James Miller, Margaret Virginia Mullins, William Noe, Bob O'Mara, Dellard Payne, Lewis Percival, Fannie Riddle, Kathleen Rowe, Evelyn Taylor, Loraine Taylor.

Thursday night the Commencement address will be given by the State Superintendent of Public Instruction in Ky. Mr. John W. Brooker.

CORRESPONDENTS ATTENTION

The Signal is published every Thursday morning barring unforeseen circumstances. To insure your items being published all news MUST be in not later than Monday evening. We know it is hard for many to get their news in that early, but if all will try to either mail or bring in items by Monday it would certainly be appreciated. Sometimes it is possible to print a few that get in later, but many will have to be left out. We want every correspondent to be represented each week. When your news is not published your district is not represented. The more news the better, and we know you will do your best to be early.

Mrs. D. C. Craig and children, Elizabeth Ann and Jack Reed spent the week end in London with Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Williams. Mr. Craig drove to London Sunday to bring them home.

Mrs. W. L. Martin and Miss Lillian Day returned home Wednesday after spending several days with their father, James Day and family in Knoxville.

"WHERE THE BOONE WAY JOINS THE DIXIE"

Dry Weather Getting Serious

Unusually dry weather for this time of year has already begun to be felt in this county. Rain is needed badly and at once. April and May are the rainy months for this section, but this year very little moisture has fallen.

Other parts of the country are also beginning to feel the drought. Atlanta, Ga. reports the dry spring months in twenty-five years, and the majority of the Atlantic seaboard states are in dire need of rain.

An old editor who ran a newspaper in Missouri used to run a small ad when rain was needed. It ran as follows: "WANTED: It is requested by our many subscribers that the Lord send us a dollar gully-washer, if at all possible avoid sending a dry drizzle."

Believe it or not this little ad got the desired results, in fact it was too good. The next day a tremendous thunderstorm broke on the county-side. Three bridges were washed out, and many farms were flooded. The helpful editor lost 25 subscribers. We're not advertising for rain, but a real gully-washer would certainly be appreciated.

Commissioner Sales Bring Good Prices

Melvin Hughes, Master Commissioner for Rockcastle County, held six land sales in front of the Court-house Monday afternoon. The results follow:

My Temple vs Bessie Bishop—$475.00 and was bought by Robert Temple.

F. G. Hamerick, Guardian vs Mollie Mattingly Bales, Pine Grove Tourist Camp—$650.00 and was bought by Mrs. Winstead.

Nancy J. Ball vs Betty Fee—$3610.00 and was bought by Jeff Stigall.

Ruby Adams vs Jaunita Adams—$500.00 and was bought by Herman Adams.

Mary Emily Proctor vs Alice Proctor—$1525.00 and was bought by Hiatt Mink.

A. J. Simpson vs J. J. Anglin—$300.00 and was bought by Talmadge Phillips and Lloyd Phillips.

Leap Year Twins To Vote 1st Time

Con and Edgar Wagner, twins of Livingston are twenty-one years old and have registered to vote for their first time. The unusual thing about this, is that the boys were born on February 29th. When kidded about having had only five real birthdays the boys said, "Oh, no we have a birthday every year. We celebrate on the 1st when there is no February 29th."

Contract Let For Surfacing New Highway. Cost To Total $207,247.70

High-type Concrete To Be Used On 6.249 Miles Of U. S. 25 Out Of Mt. Vernon

The contract for surfacing the new stretch of highway connecting 150 with U. S. 25 and extending 6.249 miles from Mt. Vernon to a point approximately one mile south of Pine Hill, was let last week to the Carey Construction Company of Lexington. Cement concrete pavement will be used.

The successful bid was $207,247.70. The Lexington contractors have built many miles of concrete pavement in the State; one of their most recent projects is a section of the divided-lane concrete paving on U. S. 31-W between Louisville and Jefferson County.

The pavement to be constructed in Rockcastle County of modern design, 22 feet in width; it is 7 inches thick except at the outer edges where the thickness is increased to 9 inches.

The project will require 82,226 square yards of paving; this item was bid at $2.20 per square yard, including the steel mesh reinforcement, expansion and contraction joints and other miscellaneous items

Read Your Signal And Save Money

Every once in a while we hear the remark that Mr. So and So would like to take the Signal, but can't afford it. We doubt very much if the Signal really costs more subscribers one cent. We know it doesn't if they read the advertisements.

Many times a farmer will be in the market to buy some used machinery or some live stock. If he is able to buy his wants through a classified ad, he usually saves himself a dollar or two.

Grocery stores who advertise, usually run specials. A store that sells corn or tomatoes for 10c a can, advertise these regular 10c items, 3 for a quarter. Many times a half a dollar is saved by reading this man's ad in your Signal.

The merchant who advertises, not only wants your business, but he is trying to meet outside competition by giving good prices.

It will pay every subscriber to read every ad each week. Keep an account of the money you save, and if you buy any quantity at all, your Signal will be a worthwhile investment.

Woman's Club To Hold Final Meet

The Mt. Vernon's Woman's Club held their final meeting until September, Tuesday evening, May 22, at the Christian Church.

This gathering will be open to everybody. Special music has been planned, and the District Governor is expected to attend.

Refreshments will be served. Everyone invited.

All Day Meeting Rose Hill Cemetary

An all day meeting will be held at the two cemeteries at Rose Hill, May 30th. Memorial Day, for the purpose of clearing the graves and beautifying the lots.

All who have loved ones buried here, are requested to bring their lunch and spend the day.

Letters From Boys In Camps Requested

The Signal will be glad to print stories or letters received from boys in the army or navy. The men can send letters direct, or their relatives can forward. People in the county are interested in the life the recruits are leading, and many good letters could be written by many of our home boys. Send 'em in, we'll print 'em.

Farmers Of Rockcastle County To Give Banquet For Business Men, Next Wednes.

More Than Two Hundred Persons Expected To Be Present. T. R. Bryant To Speak

B. N. Egan Heads Sorghum Co-op

Other Officers Named At Meeting

B. N. Egan, one of Rockcastle county's most enterprising citizens was elected president of the Rockcastle County Sorghum Co-op at a meeting held last Saturday. The term of office is for one year.

And T. Jones was named vice-president, Kearney Campbell, secretary and N. M. Smock, treasurer. All the men are exceptionally capable, and all have worked untiringly to put sorghum proposition over.

The Sorghum Co-op directors elected are: Robert Snodgrass, Bill Stewart, George Mullins, Wallie Phillips, Art Gilliam, G. C. Sutton, B. N. Egan and Joel Jones.

Many farmers are still signing contracts and the final date for signers this year will be July 1.

Every farmer who possibly can should experiment with at least a half-acre of cane. If enough volume can be realized this year, it will mean that this county will be known as a sorghum producing center of the State. Instead of one cash crop, we will have two, which will mean considerable in the event of a failure of one of the crops.

The contest to name the Sorghum Co-op is already underway. All entries must be in not later than June 21. Think of it, you name our Co-op should be called and sent to T. R. G. Webb, care of The Mt. Vernon Signal. A cash prize of $5.00 will be given the name selected by the judges. The directors have selected Dr. R. G. Webb, of Livingston; O. C. Yaden, of Brodhead and W. W. Simpson, of Mt. Vernon to act as judges.

Twenty Counties On Fast Time

Times have changed—by exactly one hour—in at least 20 Kentucky counties this spring.

Following the example of Louisville (Jefferson county), 19 other county seats have adopted daylight saving time called "fast" time and summer time—since April 27, when Louisville moved its clocks an hour ahead for the period to Sept. 26.

Most of the communities which took this action have adopted the middle longitudinal section of the county from Owensboro (Davies county) on the west to the eastern fringe of the Bluegrass and south to Bowling Green (Warren county) and Glasgow (Barren county).

However, much of northeastern Kentucky and the northern Kentucky sections across the Ohio river from Ohio—notably Covington and Newport—have operated the year around on eastern standard time for years, making their clocks conform with those in neighboring states. Eastern standard and central daylight saving time are the same.

The result is that probably the greater portion of Kentucky in point of population, if not geographically, now is on "fast" time either permanently or for the summer.

In many counties all urban communities followed the daylight saving suit of their county seats but some declined to do so, at least immediately.

County seats which have adopted daylight saving, with county names: Louisville, Jefferson; Lexington, Fayette; Frankfort, Franklin; Bowling Green, Warren; Richmond, Madison; Owensboro, Davies; Elizabethtown, Hardin; Bardonia, Nelson; Hodgenville, Larue; Versailles, Woodford; Lawrenceburg, Anderson; Glasgow, Scott; Winchester, Clark; Nicholasville, Jessamine; Glasgow, Barren; Somerset, Pulaski; Cynthia, Harrison; Paris, Bourbon; Harrodsburg, Mercer; and Lancaster, Garrard.—Danville Messenger

Leading farmers and business men of this county will rub shoulders next Wednesday evening when the agriculturists will act as hosts to an elaborate banquet. The affair is scheduled to start at 7:00 p. m. and will be held in the library of the Mt. Vernon High School. The Willing Workers of the Christian Church will prepare and serve the food.

Robert F. Spence, County Agent, A. V. Lee, Conservation Clerk, Chas. Gibson, of the Farm Security office have worked with members of the County Committee to make the banquet possible.

All business men of Brodhead, Livingston and Mt. Vernon have been invited as honored guests. It is expected that at least one hundred will attend, and possibly many more. One hundred eleven invitations were sent out in Mt. Vernon alone.

Arrangements have been made for a fine program, which will precede the banquet.

The complete program follows:

- Chairman R. B. Smith
- Invocation American
- Invocation D. R. Rentry
- Toastmaster John Payne
- Welcome Dr. R. H. Lewis
- Response
- Brodhead W. O. Yaden
- Livingston Dr. R. G. Webb
- Farmers' Quartet
- Musical Musings
- Special Music

Assistant Dean and Director State College of Agriculture, Lexington.

It is rare indeed that such a large body of our citizens get together on a common footing of fellowship, without some subject of paramount importance being the object. This meeting is of great importance for it brings together the two parties that ultimately will decide whether this county is to grow stronger and better or decrease through co-operative effort.

It has been said many times here, "Lick away foolishness that the farmers bring to all three towns, and the county as a whole would dry up overnight." For many years the merchants have taken the good-natured farmer to task, but he has appreciated his business, but couldn't see how they could help the poor fellow.

Modern agriculture has changed all that, and today, we have an educated tiller of the soil, one who knows the business men and one who knows that sending their boy to high school pays big dividends.

We know that if these two main organizations or bodies of men, can meet, talk over problems of both the towns and rural sections that nothing short of a miracle can keep our county from advancing.

Every farmer in the county who lends any effort whatsoever to make this banquet possible is to be commended for his foresightfulness. Usually the business men are the ones who sponsored such affairs usually for selfish reasons. Yes, the Rockcastle farmer has suddenly awoken, and we believe that this awakening will see the dawn of a new era of prosperity in the years to come.

Burglars Ransack Chas. Brown Home

Last Sunday evening while Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Brown were attending the Baccalaureate program at the Christian Church, thieves forcibly entered their home located three miles north of Mt. Vernon, and stole several articles of clothing valued around $75.

The Browns discovered the theft on arriving home and immediately notified authorities, who as yet have not located the burglar or burglars. Mr. Brown is offering a reward for information which will be found on another page of this issue.

Farmers Turn Under Vetch

Vetch is one of the newer cover and green manure crops successfully tried in several Kentucky counties. W. S. Anderson of Bath county reports that under vetch and rye 40 inches high. The job was performed with a tractor. Hugh Hurst, Letcher county farm agent, says farmers prefer a combination of vetch and rye grass—prefer it two to one over crimson clover. In Ballard county, vetch sowed late last fall made a good spring growth and a good green manure crop, according to County Agent S. C. Bohannon.

The Leslie County Farmers' Cooperative Association bought a carload of certified seed potatoes, distributing them to farmers, 4-H club members and Future Farmers of America. The fertilizer also was furnished for the potato land.

Negro Creek

By Mrs. Rose Chandler

John Barnett has moved his family to a house here owned by Gus Chandler.

Mrs. Marie and Teddy Chandler have been sick but are improving at this writing.

D. B. Chandler and wife, Mrs. Naomi Chandler and Jessie Atkinson, Wm Carson and Mary E. Chandler were in Danville shopping last Thursday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. Marshall McKinley and baby Joyce Arlene, of Fort Knox were visiting their parents. They spent Sunday afternoon with her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. D. B. Chandler.

Mr. Johnny Brock brought his son, Daniel home Saturday night from Los Angeles, California. This boy was in an auto accident Feb. 6th. He is in a hospital there unconscious from brain concussion one day, now he is gradually regaining his health, and to his parents he has been snatched miraculously from the grave. They wish me to report the sympathizing friends and relatives who gathered at their home Sunday to welcome Daniel home, and to assure him of their wishes for his speedy recovery. Guests were as follows: Mr. and Mrs. Jessie Profit and family, Mrs. Mattie Brown and children, Mr. and Mrs. Daniel Neal and family, Mrs. Ila Neal and family, Mrs. Lillie and Miss Eula Helton, Myrtle Middleton, Ezra Howard, Mrs. Laura Helton and family, Mr. and Mrs. Virgil Helton, M. M. Osborne and sons, James Bradley, Floyd Brock Jr., Sherman Brummitt and Sherman Williams, Mr. and Mrs. Earl Brock and Mrs. Henry Bryant and baby, Leona Thompson, William Rice, Mrs. Adria Gibson and family, Mr. and Mrs. George Brummitt and family and Misses Ida Brock, Beulah Bishop, Edna and Myrtle Bailey.

By Bonnie Berry

Mr. and Mrs. John Armstrong, Mr. and Mrs. Hugh McEee and children, Barbara and Eugene spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Cy Fox at Richmond, Ky.

Mr. and Mrs. B. H. Smith spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Mink of Brindle Ridge.

Misses Iva Faye Lear, Bonnie Berry and Ruby Lee Lear spent Sunday evening with Miss Anna Reed Sowder.

Miss Louise Holbrook spent Sunday with Miss Faye Cromer.

Mrs. S. R. Cromer is spending a few days with relatives in Ohio.

Mrs. Mollie Hiatt of the Hiatt section had the misfortune of losing a fine milch cow last Thursday.

Her cow had been sick for about three months and hadn't eaten much for quite a long time.

After the cow died, two neighbor men cut her open finding two rubber balls in the cows stomach.

The cow had been on pasture near the Oak Hill school house. The neighbor men came to the conclusion that school children had lost these balls.

This being the only cow Mrs. Hiatt had, she has the sympathy of this community.

Jack Boyd who has been sick all winter is no better.

Chint Lear and Edd McWhorter is on the Pett Jury at London this week.

Mrs. Ila Parkinson of Conway was with her daughter, Mrs. Tom Smith last week.

Mrs. John Levins was taken to Lexington to the Hospital last Saturday.

Mrs. John Levins has been suffering sometime with something like rheumatism.

The good men of this community will make up and get Aunt Mollie Hiatt another cow. Anyone interested in this fund see R. L. Smith, G. H. Berry or John McCracken.

Mr. and Mrs. Charlie Hasty spent Monday with Mr. and Mrs. Roy Brown.

Mrs. Arthur Brown and daughter, June spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Taylor.

Mrs. Roy Pope is numbered with the sick.

Mr. and Mrs. Allen Hiatt spent Saturday with Mr. and Mrs. Russell Albright.

Forest Norton and family visited relatives here Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur St. John are rejoicing over the arrival of a son, born May 19th.

From here and there comes word of the first insects arriving; warm weather will bring them out in full force, and the years' old gardener vs. pest duel will begin.

In their usual order of emergence, the early insects are: flea beetle, cabbage worm, Colorado potato beetle and the several general feeders that keep consuming the garden vegetables until their favorite weed diet becomes available.

Flea beetles are small black chewing insects responsible for the many minute holes in leaves of potatoes and tomatoes. They can be curbed by spraying or dusting with any of the arsenicals, but Bordeaux mixture controls them too. It is much as Bordeaux is the control for blight, which strikes both these crops later, it is used to be recommended, now to control both.

The cabbage worm is a chewing insect and may be poisoned by dust or spray containing lead arsenate, but it is not so effective against it. The signal to begin application is the presence of the white and yellow "butterflies" loying about among the cabbage, laying eggs. However, applying poison should be stopped a month before cabbage harvesting is to be done, and rotenone substituted.

The Colorado beetle, also a "chevyer", is perhaps the most guileless of the insects, requiring only that arsenical spray or dust be placed across its path. A voracious eater, however, control should be started early when the familiar orange-colored egg clusters are first seen.

The "general feeders"—names unimportant—are chewing insects, too, and attack all the vegetables as are most noticed on beans, in whose foliage they eat roundish holes (in contrast to the angular ones the Mexican beetle leaves). Calcium arsenate dust or magnesium arsenate spray recommended for the Mexican beetle controls them, but application may be made from above as the holes the "general feeders" make are eaten through the leaf. Kentucky Circular of Agriculture extension circular 359, just out, gives the control of all garden insects. Copies may be had from county and home agents or by writing to the college.

Two Crops To Help In Galloway County

Two crops expected to add to incomes in Galloway county this season are green wrapped tomatoes and peaches. One hundred and five farmers have contracted to grow 86 acres of tomatoes to be picked green and wrapped for shipment.

Almost 100 farmers are having their first experience with tree fruits. County Agent J. T. Cochran sees prospects of a crop of almost 10,000 bushels of peaches.

Behind your wall switch

Most people take electric service for granted. You flick a switch and the light comes on. It's as simple as that.

But to make electric service always available—to have the "juice" there when you want it—is not so simple. It takes the constant efforts and ceaseless vigilance of trained employees. It requires a huge investment in costly generating equipment, transmission lines and substations. It takes forests of poles... miles of wire... large numbers of transformers, meters and other delicate and expensive equipment. It involves the expenditure of thousands of dollars annually to keep this equipment in good working order... to make sure that you will have dependable electric service.

Good Electric Service Doesn't Just Happen

It results from the happy combination of a trained personnel, modern equipment and experienced management. In Community Public Service Company, these three factors are blended to form a smooth-functioning organization that has one main object—to give you the best possible electric service at the lowest possible cost.

SLANTS

By W. L. S.

It is a good idea sometimes to look into the future. No man can foretell the happenings to come within the next year. Business should be even better than now, and all prices should be higher. If that is so, we have little to worry about.

War is a queer sort of animal. Sometimes the pinch comes so quickly that the people are not prepared, and then starvation and want follow. Look at some of the countries of Europe.

The body can subsist indefinitely if sufficient food and water is furnished. When you get hungry it is natural to think of food.

Although this country is not in actual war, we are faced with the probability. Now is the time for all citizens to prepare. Farmers should plant what is much regarded as formerly, and here in the year 1941 we can expect a 100 percent, would be wise to double that amount. A full supply of food gives a family a feeling of security.

People who are on relief should think about what would happen if the government finds it is unable to give out food. That time has not yet arrived, but it might be soon.

In the olden days, the rule was every man for himself. When a crushing war comes, usually people are too concerned about feeding themselves, without caring for others.

We sincerely hope that such a day never comes to this country, but now is a mighty good time to be thinking about the possibility.

Better gardens and more canned fruits and vegetables this year, will be a big help, if America is forced to fight.

Baptist Church

By Rev. W. L. Simpson

Many of our readers will be glad Vacation Bible School work in our association is in progress. The Ottawa Church is in the charge. The Westwood Church is in charge. The Freedom Church began their school Monday of this week with Miss Mary Booker in charge. The attendance at these schools is good considering the busy season.

We consider it an unusual privilege to have Bro. Lea and Miss Booker to help us carry on the Vacation Bible School work. Bro. Lea is pastor of the Baptist Church at Graefenburg, Ky. Miss Booker is a school teacher at Lawrenceburg, Ky. Both of these have worked for the State Board during the summer months for several years. Their services in this association will mean much to our young people.

The date for our Vacation School is June 2-13. We are hoping it will be the best school yet. Children above four years of age and the adult men and women are welcome. Although this school is designed for children, we believe adults should be included. Therefore, a series of studies in Paul's Missionary Journeys is being prepared for an adult class and will be taught by the pastor, using the New Testament as our textbook. The class will meet daily except Saturday 9:30 to 10:30, each morning. Further announcements will be made later.

The importance of Bible study can hardly be over-emphasized considering the many problems which confront us in every sphere of life. Our people will do well to take advantage of the opportunities afforded them in Bible study.

With the coming warm weather, when we are tempted to remain at home all day in the shade, or take to the highway of sight-seeing and pleasure, let us not forget the claims of God on our lives, especially after we have taken Jesus as our Saviour.

Ky. 4-H Club News

The Henry County Farm Bureau furnished a gallon of U. S. No. 13 hybrid seed corn to each of 45 boys. This is enough for each boy to grow an acre. The value of the gallon of seed will be returned in corn next fall.

Ninety-one club members in Lincoln county will grow two-tenths of an acre each of Kentucky No. 16 burley tobacco, to demonstrate the superior value of this type. Fifty-six club members also will grow hybrid corn.

Montgomery county club members are planning to exhibit 60 lambs at the district show and sale. Cheep feeding is being used by most of the members. Other livestock projects in the county include beef calves and dairy calves.

To improve and increase home garden production, 40 club members in Lewis county set approximately 4,000 strawberry plants, 500 raspberry plants and 100 Boysenberry plants. They were contributed by local farmers.

Tests of 2,322 mice, 571 rats, 308 snakes, 192 sparrows and about 400 crabs. Four banks gave flags to winning clubs, and the Richmond Chamber of Commerce gave a watch to Jimmie Masters, tobacco champion.

In Pike county, 4-H club members have joined with farmers in the defense garden program. Effort is being made to have enough vegetables for spring, summer and fall, and some to eat for winter. "Buy no food you can produce at home," is the 4-Hers slogan.

Be Careful Protect Forests

Winchester, May 14.—District Ranger K. W. McNasser announced today the fact that several forest fires have occurred of late on the Sublimity Ranger District of the Cumberland National Forest. Laurel County has been enjoying an enviable fire occurrence record for some time but various people residing near National Forest lands have become careless during the recent high fire hazard periods and fires have escaped as a result. A large part of the trouble has been brought about through children playing with matches. This condition is a natural consequence of lack of proper instructions on the part of the parents.

On April 14, at the Williams Coal Mine on Route 80 west of London, fire resulted from a boy's setting some leaves afire and going away and leaving them burning. This boy has been apprehended and will be brought before the Laurel County Judge within the next few days. On April 15, another fire occurred on National Forest lands in Laurel County and evidence leads to two boys as being responsible for the fire on this date.

On May 6, Roy Farrington allowed fire to escape from burning brush piles along Sublimity Road, and about one acre of Cumberland National Forest lands was damaged. This fire was caused by carelessness and lack of careful planning on the part of one of Laurel County's respected residents.

Also on May 8, fire escaped from a new ground on land owned by Sey Turner on Lick Branch and 100 acres of forest lands were damaged. High winds and long-continued dry weather made control difficult and 25 men were still working on this fire on May 9.

One second's carelessness on the part of one person makes it necessary for many to battle the fires for days at the taxpayers' expense.

Blue lice injured red clover in Muhlenberg county, before hot weather stopped their activities. Sixty-six men in Union county are keeping complete farm accounts for the year.

Hell in Texas

J. Green Riddle of East Bernstadt presented us the following poem which he secured some years ago while in Texas. Mr. Riddle said that from what he could learn their author is unknown.

By the Author of "Texas a Paradise"
The Devil in hell we're told was chained,
And a thousand years he there remained.

Where he could torment the souls of men
Without being chained in a prison pen.
So he asked the Lord if he had on hand
Anything left when he made this land.

The Lord said "Yes" I have plenty on hand,
But I left it down on the Rio Grande;
The fact is, 'old boy,' the stuff is so poor,
I don't think you can use it in hell anymore."

But the Devil went down to look at the truck,
And said if he took it as a gift he was stuck,
For after examining is carefully and well,
He concluded the place was too dry for a hell.

So in order to get it off his hand
The Lord promised the Devil to water the land.
For he had some water, or rather some dregs,
A regular cathartic and smelled like bad eggs.

Hence the trade was closed, the deed was given,
And the Lord went back to his home in heaven;
The Devil said to himself, "I have all that is needed,
To make a good hell," and hence he succeeded.

He began by putting thorns all over the trees,
And mixed up the sand with millions of fleas;
He scattered tarantulas along the roads,
Put thorns on cactus, and horns on the toads.

He lengthened the horns on the Texas steers,
And put an addition to the rabbit's ears;
He put a little devil in the branch of a tree,
And poisoned the feet of the centipede.

The rattlesnake bites you, the scorpion stings,
The mosquito delights you with his buzzing wings;
The ants,
And those who sit down need half-soles on their pants.

The Devil then said that throughout the land
He'd arrange to keep up the Devil's own brand,
And all should be Mavericks unless they bore
Marks or scratches, or bites and thorns by the score.

The heat in the summer is one hundred and ten,
Too hot for the Devil and too hot for men;
The wild bear roams through the black chaparral;
'Tis a hell of a place that he has for a hell.

Tomato Growers To Get Higher Prices

A plan worked out by the United States Department of Agriculture and canners provides for paying about $3 a ton more for the crop this year than growers received last year. An increase of at least 50 percent in production is wanted, so that plenty of canned tomatoes may be available for the American army and navy and for shipment to England.

In order to have more plants for setting, it is suggested that the plants in the bed be sprayed or dusted to control leaf-spot diseases. After the largest plants are pulled, give the bed a shot of nitrate dissolved in water. This will bring on the other plants about a week.

Use of a starter solution of fertilizer added to water may be necessary to get the plants started after they are set. See a county agent for details in handling plants in the bed and in the field.

High Prices Not Necessary In War Declares Economist

By Dana G. Card, University of Kentucky College of Agriculture

Although in the past our periods of extremely high prices of both agricultural and non-agricultural products have been associated with war, they are not a necessary part of war-time activity. Memory of the hardship suffered by many farmers from falling prices following the World War of 1914-18, stimulates interest in avoiding similar hardships in the future. If prices can be kept from going up, they will not have to come down.

Rising prices in times of war come largely from three causes: (1) Competitive bidding for goods and raw material between private citizens and their government, (2) Disrupted supplies as a result of decreased production, interrupted shipping, or greater risk in transportation, (3) Depreciation of currency as a result of extended government credit, or the attitude of the people.

Already competition between citizens has started in automobiles, equipment made from aluminum, etc., but steps are being taken to minimize its effect. The placing of heavy taxes upon the average citizen in times like these not only provides for expenses of defense, but decreases the power of individuals to compete with government in the open market. Patriotic citizens can do much to aid in national defense by refraining from purchasing commodities which require the raw material needed for armaments.

Disruption of supplies is an almost inevitable result of war in these times when countries of the world are so interdependent, but the use of substitutes and plans for domestic production of goods which normally are imported can do much to alleviate the situation. Munitions, armaments, and military supplies, however, require unusual quantities of special products without corresponding decreases in consumption by private citizens. This creates shortages which are apt to start an upward spiral of prices. Disruption of normal food supplies for England, is now placing special demands upon the production of such products as pork, dairy products and eggs.

In other wars currency depreciation played a vital part in raising prices. Supplies of money alone do not create higher prices, however, as illustrated by the fact that money in circulation in the United States now is nearly 60 percent greater than in 1935, and bank deposits are about 80 percent larger. If the other causes begin to take effect, however, plentiful currency and credit make it easier for prices to rise.

While many conditions now are favorable for rising prices of industrial products, the Federal Government is making definite efforts to prevent runaway markets. The price of such commodities as tobacco, and cotton make sharply rising prices of agricultural products particularly improbable in the near future. These farm products most likely to benefit are the ones which laboring men, whose incomes are sharply increased by higher wages and full employment, will purchase, such as fresh fruits and vegetables, poultry and the better cuts of beef, pork, and lamb. Dairy products, eggs and pork also are likely to benefit from purchases for England. Cotton, tobacco, and wheat, on the other hand, continue to face lost foreign markets and excess supplies in the democratic world.

Bankers' Circular Discusses Changes

"Farming Under Changing Conditions in Todd County" is the name of an eight-page circular written by County Agent Stuart Brabant for the bankers of the county. Two thousand copies were distributed to farmers.

"We are realizing that tobacco, with or without production control, will not support the agriculture of Todd county," says a statement in the circular. "Many farmers will have to change their methods and enterprises. We believe it will pay every farmer to check closely on his plans for the next few years."

Attention is called to dairying, poultry keeping, the raising of beef cattle, sheep and hogs, and the growing of various crops, in addition to tobacco. The need of vegetables and other crops for home living is stressed.

"MR. AND MRS." CELEBRATE

William Powell, who believes in wasting no time in dissecting a birthday cake, celebrates the spring anniversary of his first "Thin Man" picture with his charming co-partner, Myrna Loy. Studio officials provided a cake for the pair on the set of their new M-G-M production, "Love Crazy," which will be a May release.

All America has welcomed the Powell-Loy combination as its favorite husband and wife combination of the screen. In playing the roles of Nick and Nora Charles in the famous detective stories of Dashiell Hammett, Powell and Miss Loy proved that husband and wife combinations can be fully as popular in films as any unmarried duo. They set a completely new vogue in their deft delineation of the Hammett characters, and have repeated their initial "Thin Man" success in several sequels to the first story. A new "Thin Man" picture is now in course of preparation for the 1941-42 M-G-M season.

One of the most high water points of the collective film careers of the two stars was attained last year in "I Love You Again," which carried on the better half tradition in rollicking fashion. "Love Crazy" is described as even more uproarious.

Annual Junior Week To Attract 800 4-H Club Boys And Girls

Approximately 800 4-H club boys and girls are expected to attend the annual Junior Week at the University of Kentucky June 9-14.

County and district elimination contests are being held to select 12 agriculture teams to give demonstrations at Junior Week. Also a number of teams will demonstrate soil conservation methods.

The boys and girls will attend classes throughout the week, hear prominent speakers, teach-making, and attend vesper services each evening. Speakers will include Gov. Keen Johnson, Dr. H. L. Donovan, the new president of the University of Kentucky, Willie Snow Ethridge, Louisville author, and Dean Thomas P. Cooper, acting president of the University.

To help meet new citizenship demands, a group of older club members will receive special training in leading discussion groups. One of their instructors will be A. H. Benton of the United States Department of Agriculture.

Officers of the Kentucky Association of 4-H Clubs are Elmer McBride, Barren county, president; Mildred Ray, Garrard county, vice president; and Lyda Mae Sutherland, Graves county, secretary.

NATIONAL FOOD DEFENSE

Last week there were two very important meetings held. One in Berea and one in Mt. Vernon. These meetings consisted largely of leaders of groups, organizations and individuals who were vitally interested in the welfare of our country, especially at this time when we are facing a prospective war. A splendid cooperative spirit was shown at each meeting.

All speakers emphasized the importance of the value of more and better food for home consumption as well as for National Defense. Let us not waste any time in preparing and getting ready for the coming winter as well as answering the request made by our Government for National Defense. When we feed our family well at home it aids much to the National cause. We can feed our families and contribute to the National Food Defense by raising a good garden on every farm with a greater variety of vegetables. In order to raise a good garden we must use fertilizer, practice clean cultivation, control insects, continue to plant in order to have a good garden this fall. Then, can, preserve, dry and store all surplus. There are too many families that in this section are going out of tin cans and paper bags.

It should be the ambition of every individual who owns a piece of land to try to produce a good garden. We must realize our responsibility as parents and as children in this crisis, part of which is due to war conditions and part to the lack of ambition and willingness to earn a living by the sweat of our brow.

"We are our Brother's Keeper." Therefore, we who believe in work should inspire others to do the thing that builds up strength in the soul body and mind.

As your county agent I want to insist that we try to produce a good garden, feed our pullets so as to bring them into egg production earlier in the fall, produce enough fat hogs for home consumption, take care of our chickens so they will give more milk and butter to feed the family, can, preserve, dry and store the food this fall for the family supply this winter. These things will stimulate our personal interest and do much to the National Food Defense.

A FARMER'S SUGGESTION

Mr. A. R. Jackson, Berea, Route 2, from the Log Cabin Neighborhood and on the County Agent today, May 20, got information on how to kill potato bugs and beet beetles. While in the office he related the following story:

"I planted 400 lbs. of Irish potatoes. I used plenty of manure and fertilizer as you had suggested. In examining my potatoes the other day I found that the ground was dry and new potatoes, about the size of bird eggs, forming. I decided that if dry weather kept up and it didn't rain I would lose my potato crop. I called the family together and we made plans to haul water in barrels on a wagon. I had some of the children to dig the holes between the hills, others pour a quart of water and others covered it up with dry dirt so the water wouldn't evaporate. I believe by doing this about twice, while the potatoes are forming, that we can save our potato crop in spite of the dry weather. We are going to try to save our crop since we depend a great deal upon potatoes as a big part of our food. The big cost has already been paid in buying the seed and planting. Taking care of the crop and hauling the water is a little cost. I believe other farmers who can get the water should do this in order to make a good crop of potatoes for home use which I think is one way that we can help in our National Food Defense."

Mr. Jackson says that he has never tried this system of watering his potatoes before. He is willing to try it in the face of a threatening drought. Mr. Jackson is very confident that better management and meeting the necessities are important factors in producing food for family consumption.

SHEEP MEETING

The County Sheep Committee has been making plans to get more sheep into Rockcastle county for some time. Plans for financing the sheep have been worked out and ready to present to the farmers who want to buy a few ewes to start a flock.

The committee has also worked out a plan for sheep raisers to organize a Sheep Growers Protective Association. Such an organization will protect sheep raisers from losses by dogs.

A County-wide Sheep Growers meeting will be held at Mt. Vernon in the Courthouse Saturday, May 24, at 1:30 p. m. All farmers who want to buy a few sheep should be present. This is an important meeting because it deals with the cash crop for the sheep men in their sheep raising.

Luner

By Mrs. J. A. Logsdon

Mr. and Mrs. Rescoe Mink spent Friday night at Mt. Vernon with Mr. and Mrs. Roy Wilson. Mrs. Wilson accompanied them home for a few days.

Week end visitors of Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Bustle were: Mr. and Mrs. Richard Robbins, and Floyd Pittman of Wellhope and Mr. and Mrs. Charles Smith of Livingston.

Mrs. Rollie Baker of Sand Springs visited Mr. and Mrs. George Phelps and Mr. and Mrs. Ben Thomas, Sunday.

Clyde Bustle left Monday for Lockland, Ohio to look for work. George Tenner spent the week end with his family here.

Homer Cope of Elletts Ash, Ohio is spending a few days with his parents.

Mac Sturgill has the measles. J. T. Kirby was in Mt. Vernon to see a doctor Sunday.

Elmer Pugh spent the week end with his family. Gienna Boone is ill.

C. L. Eversole worked in London this week.

Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Kinfer and two children spent Sunday train ride, and Mrs. James Boone.

J. T. Kirby is in a serious condition with low blood pressure.

E. L. Kirby fell from a truck while loading some ties last week, and received injuries to the head. He is recovering.

Mrs. Logan Baker was in this part Sunday.

Joe McClure and daughter, visited Mr. and Mrs. Thomas, May Sunday after Church services, at Walnut Grove.

Gerald and Dean Loyins visited their sister, Hester Rowe and family Saturday and Sunday.

It has been announced there will be a working at Walnut Grove Cemetery, May, the 29th, (Thursday) to clean off the cemetery before the decoration, all are cordially invited to come help, as this cemetery is kept up, by free work or donations, and many graves are in need of attention.

If any interested, or have friends and loved ones in this cemetery who cannot come, get a man to work, may send the amt. to pay for a day's work. Some in this community who cannot be at the working are employing a man to work instead. Others, out of the community may do likewise if they wish.

We were informed, Mrs. May Whitaker of Sand Springs formerly of this community, remains in a serious condition. We hope Mrs. Whitaker a speedy recovery.

Mrs. Roy Doan is slowly recovering. Mrs. Matilda Doan is glad to be home after a long absence. "Aunt" Tilda as she is commonly known loves her flowers and garden. The frost and dry weather, have caused great damage to the grass and many gardens are damaged, rain is so badly needed, tobacco plant beds are doing well.

Sunday guests of Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Logsdon, Jr. were: Mr. and Mrs. W. N. Lovins, Misses Evaline and Ivalene.

Farm And Home

"Egg Dishes at Low Cost" is the name of a United States Department of Agriculture leaflet containing a large number of recipes in which eggs occupy a prominent place. Eggs are one of the protective foods needed in every diet.

Modern turkey raisers do not feed cottage cheese, baked corn bread and other delicacies to poults. Such materials seldom give a balanced ration. Good chick feeds also are good for poults.

TVA Dam At Gilbertsville, Ky., Is Largest Federal Project East Of The Mississippi

KENTUCKY DAM FROM THE AIR. The Tennessee Valley Authority's big project at Gilbertsville, Ky., is the largest and most expensive dam in the Tennessee River system. The dam, which will be completed, and will be important for flood control in the Mississippi and other rivers in the center of the valley. A view from the dam, as the Tennessee and lower Ohio valleys.

This is one of a series of articles sponsored by the Kentucky Valley Authority, which is building the dam and the Kentucky of Kentucky, as Kentucky should tell the world in 1942—Seventy-fifth anniversary.

BY JOE LAGORE
Managing Editor, Paducah Sun-Democrat

UNCLE SAM'S big construction project in the eastern half of the country is in Western Kentucky.

At Gilbertsville on the Tennessee river, 27 1/2 miles upstream from Paducah, the Tennessee Valley Authority is in the third year of the construction of its Kentucky Dam, which with its reservoir development will have cost about $165,000,000 when completed in 1945.

Kentucky Dam, largest of TVA's system of nine dams, will be a combined flood control and power project. Its reservoir will extend 184 miles to Pickwick Dam in Tennessee, and will have a shore line of approximately 1,800 miles, providing one of the most beautiful water recreation grounds in the country. Provision is being made for the installation of generators which will provide 128,000 KW of electric power.

The dam is drawing hundreds of tourists daily to watch the construction operations, on which 2,600 workers are engaged. The public has not been barred from the site as from other construction projects.

Paired roads lead to the dam site. It is accessible from Federal Highways 60, 62, 68, 45 and 51.

Frequent close mowing does extensive damage to lawns. Close clippings exposes the crowns of the grass plants to the killing rays of the sun, and also permits weeds to start. Where possible, use a regular mowing machine on the lawn.

For new strawberry plantings, cultivation should begin soon after the plants are set and continue at 10-day intervals until about the middle of August. No cultivation is done in the spring before the berries are picked.

Sandwiches: Cut rather thin slices of bread and toast lightly. Cut thick slices of pimento or other cheese, and lay on top of the pieces of toasted bread. Place in oven under slow fire. As soon as the cheese has melted, cover with another slice of bread if desired. Eat while hot.

It is advisable to have winter clothes thoroughly cleaned before storing them for the summer. If moth-proof bags are available, seal tightly in them, covering with gummed tape every possible opening. In fall, allow to air a day or two before using.

Among Co. Agents

J. K. Moore is preparing to furnish to consumers in Perry county at least 1,000 gallons of strawberries.

Frank Browning is the eighth farmer in Adair county to enroll in the state ton-litter contest this year.

Members of "homemakers" clubs in Johnson county attended demonstrations in making butter and cheese.

Laurel county farmers are growing 175 acres of potatoes and 38 acres of onions for northern markets. Tomatoes are helping replace some of the cotton and tobacco acreages in Hickman county.

Many TVA workers and their families live in the TVA model village at Gilbertsville. There are 80 modern homes, 25 dormitories, and a modern school which the workers' children attend. There is also a mess hall for workers and visitors, a hospital, recreation hall, and numerous office buildings which combine to make a neat and attractive.

The dam will be 850 feet in length at the base and about 150 feet in width at the top and will be 55 to 60 feet high. The dam is the project of a railroad and perhaps a highway.

UNTIL LAST NOVEMBER the area where this dam is working was a part of the Tennessee river bed at the TVA's Kentucky Dam site. One of the greatest works of man created in dam construction this area, which covers about 40 acres. This giant dam removes six cubic yards of material at a bit.

U. S. TRAINS YOUTHS FOR SEA

The United States Maritime Service is meeting the threatened shortage of skilled merchant seamen by training youths who have had no previous seagoing experience. Young American citizens in good physical condition 18 to 23 years of age are being enrolled for a seven months' course of instruction in the duties of the deck, engineers, and stewards departments. Enrollees are paid $21.00 monthly; clothing, food, and quarters are furnished by the Government.

The training course qualifies these young men for jobs on American merchant vessels where pay starts at $72.50 a month with food and quarters furnished.
