Kentucky Counties

By Dr. R. G. Webb

Now when the candidates for county offices are taking up a lot of our time, extolling their qualifications, republicanism, citizenship, churches, lodges etc. it brings my mind—and yours—the fact that we as good citizens in order to have a democratic form of government we must vote for our choice in the different races, and that choice would be for the best interest for the county as a whole, but let me beg you—vote! I have had people to tell me, no I am not going to vote this time, four years ago I voted for so and so and they did not turn out and so I am not now I am down on the whole thing, and again I have had those that said their religion would not allow them to mix up in elections, well they have my sympathy—but not my admiration. No man or woman should let their former mistakes of their religion keep them from voting for somebody, all that is required of us is to do the best we can with the material we have, and if we have made a mistake once we should try to improve the next time, I have cast a lot of votes that I was sorry-of later on, but that do not cause me to quit, and it should not you.

Our Towns, Counties, State and now we are run by elective officials and will be long as we have our present form of government, and we hope that will be as long as time lasts, anyway we have and will fight for our form of freedom to the man, woman and child, our freedom by casting our ballot for someone of our choice. Somebody has to be candidates in order that we carry on, give them some of your time, go here—there speak, talk and how we can help you, let us have a secret ballot—vote for the good of the old county and keep your tongue in your mouth you will fair better thereafter.

So much for the candidates they are all my friends and I am for them all, I have run a few races myself, my last one was in 1931 when I wanted to represent Rockcastle and I lauded in the Legislature, but I was defeated and that just about put me out of my politics, and again I felt pretty bad after that Primary and I expressed my feelings in the Signal of August 6th, 1931. Just a tip I still have that old signal and should any of you candidates want it for publication after the election just drop in and I will give it to you. It expressed my feelings and it might yours.

What I wanted to say about Kentucky Counties is this, we have got to get something out of this thing.

When I was 50 years ago, and so was the horse and buggy, but times have changed and we must change with the times or we go backward instead of forward. We all like our old traditions, we like our county homes, we like our old county seats of government, and we look on the fellow from the adjoining county as not one of us, we sometimes hold him in contempt just because he happens and in our county he is not one of our words ten years ago when I ran for the Legislature I was for the consolidation of counties and I am still for it and hope to live long enough to see that take place, for it is our only salvation, regardless of what you may think, ten or twelve years ago I realized that if we were to prosper in our Towns we must have some kind of industry, some small factories to give our boys and girls a job at home, and there is no one in the county that has tried any harder to get something to locate in our county than I have, but I have failed so far and now you want to ask me why I have failed, and I am going to tell you, it is our lack of State officials that will clean these and pass laws that will make it possible for us to bring our boys and girls back home from Ohio, Indiana and Michigan.

Our young people are all leaving us for other places to work when they should stay at home and live in the best climate in the world, if we don't do something those of us that are left will not be able to pay the expenses of our county government, some paying off our bonded indebtedness.

Sunday School—10:00 a. m. Mr. John Hilton, Supt. Present last Sunday 41. Lesson—"The First Jerusalem Conference on World Missions". The date for our vacation Bible School is June 23—July 8. Miss Lorene Hilton will be one of the teachers. Let us all cooperate with her and the others. Let each and every one be much in prayer for this two weeks of meeting and may a great many attend.

What is home without a Bible? 'Tis a place where day is night Starless night for 'er life's pathway very dim and now I am down on the whole thing, and again I have had those that said their religion would not allow them to mix up in elections, well they have my sympathy—but not my admiration. What is home without a Bible? 'Tis a home with Bibles in it, But not opened ones—'twere vain.

Monday comes and goes and Tuesday Wednesday, Thursday, Friday, too, Saturday and even Sunday, Book untouched—the whole week through.

Lost! The Bible, lost; its teachings, Lost! Its holy each day in seven. Lost—to live by, lost—to die by, Lost—what's lost? The way to Heaven.

May each one come next Sunday and bring someone with you? We hope to see the 100 mark. Won't you help us.

Mary E. Singleton, reporter

Mr. C. E. Davis, wife of Rev. C. E. Davis former pastor of the Livingston Baptist Church and children, Mrs. J. R. and Christine of Homer-ville, Ga. spent last week with Mr. and Mrs. W. O. Singleton and family. Mr. and Mrs. Richard Mason and family, and Mr. and Mrs. Koda Lovins and daughter, Edna. There were many of her friends who came to see her while she was here. Mr. Willard Stallworth, Mrs. Richard Mason and children, Mrs. W. O. Singleton and daughters, Miss Ruby and Mary Evelyn all went with Mrs. C. E. Davis to the election on Saturday where they caught 42 to go to Atlanta. There they joined Rev. C. E. Davis and plan to stay there several days visiting relatives. Mrs. Davis reported that Rev. Davis is getting along fine.

Mr. and Mrs. Earl Wilson of Frankfort visited Mr. and Mrs. Phil Wilson last week.

Mrs. J. S. Rowe attended church at Mt. Vernon Sunday.

Mrs. Charlie Prayder and son Elmer visited relatives in Middlesboro last week.

Mr. Flem Rankin was in Lexington Monday.

Mr. John Truitt Bass has returned to work after a few days illness.

We have 120 counties in Kentucky and that 120 should in my opinion be divided by 3 making it 40—then we can get somewhere, some of my friends will say Doc you want to ruin our County seat laws—no, I do not, I want to make them better towns, and make life better for everybody, pay rolls make good towns, not county seats, when we have a pauper county into one, we cut out two sets of officers there by reducing the cost of government and increasing the revenue for taxation and when we do that we will derive the following benefits, pass from a pauper county into one of wealth, lower taxes, better law enforcement and industry at home.

If you like this idea and believe from the bottom of your heart that I have the dope, let me know and if not let me know there are always two sides of every case and I do not fall out with any one that disagrees with me, that is why I have so many Democratic friends because they were born that way, just like I was born the other way, and they are entitled to their beliefs, just the same as you and I are.

There is a lot more that I want to say on this subject, as I have only scratched the surface. I may continue this next week, providing opposition and the weather does not get too hot.

Bill says he has been a subscriber to the Signal for 15 years, and it is the best news that it has ever been in, in fact he has advised the Police Judge to use it now in trying his cases, just like Judge Payne said the Magistrate was doing in his Town of Disputants.

189,136 Farmers In AAA Programs

Co-operating in the Agricultural Adjustment Administration programs of the United States Department of Agriculture, 189,136 Kentucky farmers have signed farm contracts for 1941. This increase is more than 10,000 over the number of farmers in the 1940 programs.

The 189,136 Kentucky farmers in the 1941 programs are 92 percent of the State's eligible to participate. Co-operating farmers make up 95 percent of Kentucky's cropland. Virtually all farms growing wheat, corn, tobacco, cotton and commercial vegetables are in the programs this year.

Leading all counties in the percentage of eligible farmers participating in the programs is Robertson, where 503 of 504 eligible farmers signed up. Other counties with more than 99 percent of their farming in the 1941 programs are Morgan, Anderson, Shelby and Woodford. There are 78 of the 120 counties in the State with 90 percent or more of their farms operated in the programs this year.

All soil-building practices in the 1941 agricultural conservation program are to be completed by June 30. More than 165,000 of the Kentucky farmers in the 1940 AAA programs filed applications showing soil-conserving and soil-building practices carried out during the year. Besides retirement of a percentage of cropland from soil-depleting crops, soil-conserving and soil-building practices included seeding 2,126,723 acres of legumes and grasses, turning under 251,920 acres of green manure crops, planting 1,587 acres of forest trees, improving stands on 1,237 acres of farm woodlands, applying 1,193,212 tons of agricultural limestone, applying phosphates equivalent to 168,719 tons of phosphate fertilizer to pastures, meadows and new seedings of legumes and grasses, spreading 50 tons of fertilizer and building 828,200 feet of terraces.

Teams from Todd and Campbell counties tied for first place in demonstrating the construction of terraces. Graves, McLean, Grayson, Fulton, Hancock and Barren counties won blue ribbons.

Warren county furnished the champion team in demonstrating dairy production, and Todd county the best team in demonstrating the raising of poultry.

Eastern Kentucky Co-ops Cooperate

Three Eastern Kentucky sorghum co-operatives, known as the Johnson County Farmers Co-operative Marketing Association at Paintsville, the Lawrence County Co-operative Growers Association at Blaine, and the Eastern Kentucky Sorghum Growers Association at Sandy Hook, have formed a central agency through which they will blend and sell their sorghum syrup this fall.

These co-operatives have just completed their organization and received their charters from the Secretary of State. The blending plant will be located at Sandy Hook, and sorghum from Johnson County and Lawrence County shipped to this location.

This is the first step of the sorghum co-ops to weld themselves together in a unified program so as to take advantage of mass production prices, lower the cost of processing and thereby bring the sorghum to the consumer in a more acceptable condition.

The blending plant at Sandy Hook will be modern, with 800 gallon tanks and labor saving equipment for packaging and labeling.

Eastern Kentucky is known for its high quality sorghum and the public will soon have an opportunity to purchase it.

The Marketing Division of the Kentucky Department of Agriculture organized these co-operatives and will aid them in the preparation and sale of the sorghum.

Capt. Wm. Jones Addresses Rotary

Former Home Town Boy Makes Good In City

The Mt. Vernon Rotary Club met in regular session last Thursday evening at Renfro Valley. Guests included Rotary-Anns, Mr. and Mrs. O. Dell from Rochester, N. Y., Mr. and Mrs. Hayes from Berea, W. M. Cox, Richmond, and the honored guests of the evening, Capt. W. J. Jones, of the New York Police department.

The local club had intended to meet jointly with the Richmond Club, but a last minute postponement caused other arrangements to be made.

Rev. W. A. Fite was the first speaker in the program and he gave a very interesting talk on "My Friend Bill." You would be surprised to learn of the many interesting things to be found on a dollar bill.

CAPT. WM. O. JONES

The speaker of the evening was Capt. Wm. Jones who left Mt. Vernon in 1899 in search of his fortune. Eventually he landed in New York City, where he became a member of that great city's police force, which numbers 18,000. Today he is Captain, and commands a force of 180 men. The importance of this post can be best explained by the fact that out of 18,000 policemen there are only 100 Captains.

Captain Jones is also a noted expert on safety, and has a regular program over WBCC in New York. He is on the staff of Harvard University and lectures regularly to that student body. For his excellent work in reducing the number of accidents in his district, he has received many awards.

Capt. Jones in his talk told briefly of the immensity of the city, which is his home. The district which he supervises is composed of over 80,000 inhabitants, and is a part of the Brooklyn Navy Yard. This area is now working night and day, and whole blocks adjacent to the yard are being torn down, to make way for extensive improvements. An interesting sidelight was his comment that several of the British battleships were now in the Brooklyn Yard being repaired, and that large holes could be observed in their sides where German bombs and torpedoes had hit.

In talking about his safety campaign, he said that a new system had been worked out, and that his men had been instructed to be courteous to motorists. If they made a mistake, this error was pointed out, with suggestions on how to remedy their careless driving. Many times the offender departed, thanking the officer for telling him of his offense. In this way many careless drivers are converted into safe and sane motorists.

The Rotary Club was honored in having such an outstanding personage present, and a permanent invitation was extended. Capt. Jones to visit the Club again when he returns to his home town.

J. H. Wolf Named Master Farmer

Outstanding Farmer Receives Award

James H. Wolf, of Disputants, was named Master Farmer of Rockcastle county, Tuesday, by a Committee of Three, representing the County Agent's office.

Mr. Wolf is known as one of the better farmers of Kentucky. Last year he received the Master Farmer award for this county and was among the ten best farmers in the State.

Mr. Wolf's farm located near Disputants is a model farm in every respect. Three hundred broad and fertile acres stretch as far as the eye can see, and only the best type of agriculture is used. Crop rotation is practiced, and instead of getting worse, his land is constantly increasing in fertility. Many tons of alfalfa are raised annually, and this, along with corn is fed to purchased Hereford cattle, and Northwestern purebred sheep.

Mr. Wolf, besides being an expert farmer, believes in the betterment of the county as a whole. He is a staunch supporter of the 4-H Club, and his name will be found at the head of the list on anything for the advancement of his home county. A good farmer, a good citizen, Jim Wolf is the kind of man that builds a better community in which to live.

Cam Mullins For Representative

To the Voters of Laurel and Rockcastle Counties, Kentucky, Representative District No. 81

Many of my friends have been asking me to make the race for the Republican nomination for representative in the primary to be held August 2, 1941. I have carefully studied it over, and have decided to make the race. If nominated and elected, I stand for the following:

I believe if a person is fined $300 or $500 or 90 days in jail, and that person stays the ninety days, and then 23 days on the fine, he should be taken before the clerk and take solemn debtor's oath, and if he ever becomes worth the fine, collect it like the government does. That will save the taxpayers money.

Reeves pointed out that the Department withheld rigid enforcement before the licensing period last year because of the short time between the effective date of the law and the licensing period which began on August 1, during which county officials and motorists had little time to become acquainted with its provisions.

CAM MULLINS

I believe all intermediate cases should be settled in the county court's as most of the circuit court's time is taken up by these cases. Trying these cases as petty cases will save the taxpayers thousands of dollars each year, and the fines paid to the county.

I believe all the old age pensioners should all get the same and that they should have $30.00 per month.

I believe that every person that owns a pistol should be required to register the same with the county clerks and pay a license fee of one dollar per year, this money to go to the old age pension fund. It will stop some peddlers from carrying them, and will reduce crime and killing.

I believe that the State should take over the county road bonds, and pay them as this money was spent on the State highways. The State gets the tax on gasoline and mileage, and the county gets nothing.

I believe the county school superintendents should be elected by the people.

I believe that Legislators should be elected every four years with the other State officers, and only meet every two years. These men should be an emergency.

"As a public servant of this county while in office, I am proud to say, that no mothers son or daughter was ever mistreated by me."

If you elect me your representative, I shall not cast a vote that will place a burden on the taxpayers. I favor a fair redistributing bill, according to the Constitution of Kentucky and census of 1940.

Anything you may say or do for me will ever be appreciated. With good will to all and malice toward none, I am as ever,

Your friend,
CAM MULLINS
LONDON, KY.

All Motorists Must Get License By July 31

Frankfort, Kentucky June 22—Kentucky motorists must procure their operators' licenses in the county of their residence under a new law which will be aggressively enforced for the first time this year. It was announced by the Department of Revenue. The present licenses expire July 31. The only exceptions under the Act, passed in 1940, are persons who are temporarily residing in another county at the time they seek to renew their licenses. Revenue Commissioner H. Clyde Reeves, in announcing that the Department would restrict circuit court clerks to adhere strictly to the law, "I shall file another safety measure designed to keep persons whose licenses to drive had been suspended or revoked from procuring licenses illegally. Reeves said that under the old law persons whose licenses had been suspended or revoked frequently went to a county where they were unknown and procured one, and since several weeks are required to process licenses in the Department of Revenue, the subterfuge was late in being discovered.

Reeves pointed out that the Department withheld rigid enforcement before the licensing period last year because of the short time between the effective date of the law and the licensing period which began on August 1, during which county officials and motorists had little time to become acquainted with its provisions.

An affidavit instrument which helps to safeguard the issuance of a license to a person whose right to drive has been suspended or revoked is a booklet, containing approximately 1,800 names of persons whose licenses had been taken away. It is issued at six week intervals and sent to county officials and law enforcement agencies throughout the State. L. G. Triplett, Superintendent of State Officers' Licenses, said that revocations and suspensions for the present license year have totaled 1,835, which is far in excess of the 1,381 during the entire 1939-40 period. About 25,000 motor licenses have been issued so far this year than were issued during the entire 1939-40 year.

Triplett announced that circuit court clerks would start issuing licenses on July 1, and urged motorists to procure them early in order to avoid the last minute rush.

Patriotic Page In Signal

This week's Signal features a full page ad, paid for by citizens of Rockcastle county to show the world that whatever happens this county will continue to serve to the best of her ability.

The fact that our National holiday is only a few days off is a fitting time for this county to show some sort of acknowledgement in these troublesome times.

All subscribers should read the wording in this advertisement carefully, which should help them realize that the responsibility of government rests on the people.

Vote for GREEN PARKER for JAILER

I read in last week's paper

About the dapple grey

and I heard about OLD NOAH

On Whirlaway,

Another good horse, that's in the race

Is old GREEN PARKER, and he's setting

A mighty fast pace.

He's at the turn and he's coming in fast

Watch out boys are you'll all be last.

AREN'T YOU "FED UP" ON SO MUCH
BOASTING AND BOSSING

LET'S COME DOWN TO EARTH AND

ELECT EARL PHILLIPS County Judge

He Will At Least Be A Friendly JUDGE.

ANGLIN FOR JAILER

I am proud to say that Ivory Anglin is absolutely a sober man, and he didn't get this way just to run for jailer.

I am 67 years old, and I say when we have a chance to vote for a sober man, do so. I don't know a better chance for jailer than Ivory Anglin; for he is good to everybody. When his father died he was just a boy and he stayed at home with his mother and worked, and helped to raise the smaller children, not many will do that today. Ivory was waited on Dave for 12 long years of county office pay roll, 4 long years on C. W. Phillips. Wouldn't it be, and it will be right to give Ivory Anglin this next 4 years for he is a man that deserves it, and he will appreciate it, and I hope to, the good Lord he will get it. Most any little cap or hat will fit Anglin's head, for it has never been big like

TO THE REPUBLICAN VOTERS OF ROCKCASTLE COUNTY:

Since I announced as your candidate for county Judge, some of my opponents are circulating and have circulated several reports. One that I am a Democrat. I was here voting and working for the Republican party when my opponents were wearing knee pants. Another report by them is that I am a very rich man. I am a man who, by hard work, saving my earnings, staying at home and tending to my own business, have accumulated a small home and farm of average value for Rockcastle County. It is being told that I did not even do my banking business at Mt. Vernon. My answer is that I have very little banking to do anywhere. These are foolish things to answer. The cause of these reports is to try to get me to arguing which one was the best Republican to take our minds off of the real issue. The real issues are the financial and moral conditions of our county and who can best take us out of these bad conditions.

I will say that as this is a Republican primary, all names on the ballot are Republicans as we must swear and grove by two republicans that we are Republicans before we get on the ballot. I have proven that and will be on the ballot.

I did think that I would tell a few things that I know on my opponents and their henchmen but as we are hearing so much sad news and such turmoil of wars that I will not say anything about my opponents at this time.

There are a few things that should be told so that you may see how things are being conducted. There was $4,000.00 of our taxpayers' money given for a plot of land for a "poor farm". This was Judge Carter's land and he indirectly put it off on the county. There are never more than two or three persons on it at one time. This money was paid indirectly to Judge Carter, my opponent. Below, you will find a copy of that order.

(COPY)

CLAIM ORDERS: ROCKCASTLE COUNTY FISCAL COURT.

JUNE TERM, JUNE 7th, 1938

On motion duly seconded, the following claim orders were entered by the Fiscal Court of Rockcastle County, Kentucky, to wit: That the claim of Chas. C. Carter be purchased to be used as a poor farm, for the consideration of $4,000.00. The county is to have possession of the farm for the purpose of housing the indigent persons on the 1st day of July, 1938. If the said Chas. C. Carter is not able to give possession for the purpose of housing the indigent persons, then in that event this contract will be void. The said Chas. C. Carter is to have the growing crop for 1938. The said Carter is to give complete possession on the 1st day of January, 1939. The county is to have seeding privileges in the fall of 1938.

A Copy, Attest:

T. J. NICELEY, Clerk, Rockcastle County Court.

BY JALETTE G. EGAN, D. C.

It seems that Judge Carter was not satisfied with his salary and the following order raises that salary.

On the motion of Judge Carter, the Court set the salaries for the county officials as follows:

County Judge's salary be set at $140.00 per month and trial judge in criminal cases $50.00 per month. Whole court voting in favor of the raise in salary except F. F. Robbins, who dissented.

A Copy, Attest:

T. J. NICELEY, Rockcastle County Court Clerk.

BY JALETTE G. EGAN, D. C.

This is $200.00 per month — $2400.00 per year. Take that and add to it fees for appointing administrators, executors, and fees in civil actions and marriage fee and various other incomes the county judge receives — all would total more than $3000.00 yearly. Doesn't this appear to you taxpayers to be too much money? I am wondering just how many men in Rockcastle County have an income of $3000.00 annually.

I just mention these two little items. This paper would not contain all the misappropriations that has been made.

This fall you will find out the effects of these wastes when you pay a 30% raise on your taxes or almost one-third more than they were this past year.

I will try and see you all before election. You see two of my opponents get pay for their electioneering out of our tax money as their salaries. That gives them an advantage as I must pay my own expenses.

Yours for a Better Rockcastle County.

J. T. LAMBERT

To The Republican Voters of Rockcastle County:

I have chosen as deputies, Ted Mink and Givins Lear, both good substantial citizens.

He Gave, I Give
Christ gave his life for me, While I was far in sin Because there was a debt to be paid

If heaven I should enter in No tongue can tell the pain before Upon the cruel cross That I might inherit life

Although I once was lost, I regretted his help, I spurned. His love I needed no friend to guide Until I lifted a veil from my eyes, I saw a life, it was mine My Savior, my helper, my comfort, my joy

I give my life to thee Make me more humble a light to the world

A light that sinners can see. H. L. N. Author

Help us to understand that Christ gave His life for us and now we must give our life to Him. So come to Church.

Selling By Grade Helped To Market Strawberry Crop

By grading their berries strictly according to government standards, with the assistance of the Federal-State inspection service, Kentucky strawberry growers were able to fairly good price, according to reports to the State College of Agriculture and Home Economics. Due to the market at the time the Kentucky berries were being sold.

Strict cooperative strawberry associations have been formed to promote private, fruit and vegetable concerns used the Federal-State inspection service this year. Inspectors saw to it that berries were properly graded and labelled at the following places: Louisville, Paducah, Bowling Green, Beaver Dam, Oakland, Franklin, Mayfield and Sharpe.

G. P. Summers of the markets department of the College of Agriculture who supervised the State end of the inspection service, estimated that more than 85 percent of the commercial strawberry crop was inspected and sold according to the grades of U. S. No. 1, U. S. No. 2 and unclassified. Most of the unselected berries were sold directly to processors.

It is the opinion of most growers, according to information reaching the College of Agriculture, that strict grading materially increased selling prices, and helped Kentucky growers meet competition from other states.

More than 3,000 tons of agricultural limestone were trucked into Jackson county in May.

About 50 acres of cucumbers are being grown in Edmonson county for a Louisville cannery.

Sheep are being dipped in a portable vat in Carroll county at a cost of 10 cents a head.

Eighty-two Knox county farmers visited the Fariston Experiment Field, the largest tour ever made out of the county.

Grasshoppers Work On Kentucky Crops

Grasshoppers are abundant in some sections of Kentucky, according to reports received at the Agricultural Experiment Station at Lexington. A statement issued by the department of entomology says that grasshoppers, content to feed and remain in the meadows and along the road sides as long as the grass remains green, are now leaving the tough, dry grass in many parts of the state and moving into fields of corn, tobacco and vegetables where the plants are green and succulent. The migration is comparatively slow. The insects usually start feeding on the edge of the planting and gradually move deeper into the field, consuming the plants as they go.

It often happens that there is a fence-row between the field left and the one invaded. In this instance, the grasshoppers, after feeding during the day, return to the fence-row to pass the night. Advantage of this knowledge is taken in applying control measures. Poisoned bait made by mixing, while dry, 100 pounds of wheat bran and 5 pounds of Paris green or white arsenic and then adding and mixing well 2 gallons of ordinary kerosene oil, is broadcast at the rate of 10 to 12 pounds to the acre. Apply the bait to that part of the field where the grasshoppers are feeding and to the space between their bed and breakfast.

They spend the night and the plants upon which they feed.

Do not look for results until about three days after applying the bait. Dead grasshoppers will then be found under trash and litter—few of them die in the open spaces.

CUCUMBER BEETLE

Use calcium arsenate, 1 pound; hydrated lime, 10 pounds—dust often from the time cucumbers come through the ground.

CABBAGE WORM

The Garden

By John S. Gardner, Kentucky College of Agriculture

BLIGHT - Certainly a gratifying sign of interest on the part of Kentucky's home gardeners is the weight of mail that comes, inquiring about blight, and what to do about it. However, not all "blight" is blight, but some is the advance of insect injury. Many potatoes, for example, have turned a "ripe" color. That is, the vines have changed to yellow and then to brown, which should be a sign that the potatoes are ready to dig. Close examination, however, discloses that the leaves are fairly riddled with many minute holes, about which the leaf tissue has been filled. This is the injury of the black fleabeetle, and the control is spraying with Bordeaux mixture. Several instances are on record of potato plantings last year sprayed with Bordeaux four times, that remained green and healthy the summer through, yielding a crop well in excess of 300 bushels per acre, some patches, this year sprayed systematically with Bordeaux will doubtless show the same, despite that this has been not altogether ideal "potato weather." Killed potato tops cannot recover, no matter how favorable a turn the later season may take, but sprayed plantings can keep going on to satisfying fruition. With recognizing how important the home potato patches and the commercial ones are, will not more Kentuckians couple purchase of a sprayer (with brass tank) and undertake regular spraying of potatoes, tomatoes, eggplants and even beans - for many failures are due to early attack by fleabeetles and later by the disease blight. Kentucky Extension Circular 343, obtainable of the County Agent, gives full directions for making and using Bordeaux mixture.

Liberty and justice for all. Those two words—Liberty and Justice, are probably the greatest words in the English dictionary. People strive for liberty and usually justice is associated with liberty.

The American people are great lovers of liberty, due to the hard battle for existence in our early years as a country. You can strip Mr. John Q. Public, commit other and more heinous sins against him but, try to take away his liberties and something happens.

Hitler and his cohorts founded the Nazi regime exactly the opposite principles that our government was instituted, and life to the average American under Hitler's rule would be unbearable. True, we would live after a fashion, but those little liberties that have become so near a part of our everyday life would be gone.

If this country fights, it will not be to save Britain, but to keep our great nation from becoming a vassal state of Hitler's. This country is safe from an invasion, but if the Nazis conquer all of Europe, the danger will not be in invasion, but one of probable internal disension, which could easily happen if a heavy depression occurs in a few years.

Mr. Citizen should study this problem very carefully before he commits himself on whether we should wage war. We are in the most momentous time in the history of the world. Many men have conquered different nations, but usually they have reverted back to their original nationality. Today's conflict will see a permanent set-up that should live for centuries. The speed of travel have made the small countries of Europe as one, and still all speak different languages. The breaking down of this barrier will do much to bring about a lasting peace, to mankind.

Mr. Vernon is proud of her new road system, which is on a par with many larger cities. It will do much toward our future growth. The city fathers, however, will be forced to make stricter laws in regard to speeding down our smooth boulevards. Formerly, it was suicidal to drive over fifteen miles an hour. One citizen in fact complained of a deep rut on West Main that it was possible to slide a car from view. We all know the roads were bad, but now they are too good. The other evening we saw a motorist speeding down West Main at a speed of at least sixty miles per hour. Many small children live in this neighborhood, and many are used to playing on the sidewalks and occasionally cross the streets. Excessive speed causes many deaths on our main highways, and on our city streets it should not be tolerated. Let us hope that the Town Board will take some action on this matter at once.

Baptist Church

By Rev. W. C. Younce

The following is an excerpt from the Baptist Examiner, which we believe is worth passing on, hoping it will help someone. "For the married man who cannot get along without drinks, the following is suggested as a means of freedom from bondage to saloons: Start a saloon in your own home. Be the only customer. (You'll have no license to pay.) Go to your wife and give her $8.00 to buy a gallon of whisky, and remember there are sixty-nine drinks in a gallon. Buy your drinks from no one but your wife, and by the time that the first gallon is gone she will have $32.00 to put into the bank and $8.00 to start business again. Should you live ten years and continue to buy booze from her, and then die with snakes in your boots she will have money enough to bury you decently, educate your children,

Announcing State Nutrition Program

The State nutrition-for-defense program, ranging from large stocks of fish and game to improving school lunches and standardizing recipes to emphasize home-produced foods has been announced by the Kentucky Nutrition Committee headed by Dr. Stacie Erikson, head of the University of Kentucky home economics department.

The committee launched action with a series of district conferences to form county councils to assume local responsibility. The 14-person Kentucky committee will direct a program designed to raise the health of all Kentucky's 3 1/2 millions by an approximate figure of one-third.

Action is to be taken on the basis that 16 percent of the army draftees have been found unfit for service because of nutritional deficiencies, and that a much larger percentage is under par though not actively ill.

The importance to the nation of having people of "optimum health" is just being realized. Many types of illness, from pelegra and scurvy to skin troubles, poor eyesight, and severe nervousness, may be caused by poor nutrition, it is emphasized. Consequently the committee is urging maximum action on the program by local groups.

Among specific and immediate goals are the following:

To produce more game and fish for home consumption; by improving farm ponds and lakes and stocking them with bream, crappie and bass; and by providing a suitable habitat for game such as quail, doves, squirrels and rabbits.

To encourage greater home-production and home use of poultry, dairy products, vegetables, fruit, lamb and beef.

To carry on a campaign for more planting of food producing trees and shrubs.

To encourage more and better home preservation and home storage of food.

To develop and extend knowledge of better methods of food preservation in order to encourage greater variety in use of foods and better use of common foods.

To develop standardization of recipes with emphasis on home production.

To extend knowledge of the simple fundamental facts of nutrition.

To encourage improvements of school lunches.

To encourage better food habits by providing better facilities for preparing food and eating more and better quality of food.

To expand the nutrition teaching program to include men and women, boys and girls, in the schools, in extension, boys' girls' clubs, through the National Youth Administration, Farm Security Administration, Works Progress Administration, public health, social service agencies, and through the agencies, and through the interest of such organizations as Parents-Teachers Associations, women's clubs, churches, homemakers' organizations and men's clubs.

The county councils and the state organization will disseminate information on individual nutrition through the press, radio, by lectures, posters and exhibits, and by projects. The state committee will give recommendations affecting supply and distribution, as well as the more individual matter of personal nutrition problems and ills.

Portable Vat Helps Small Flock Owners

Because a portable vat was available, many Scott county farmers dipped their sheep this year for the first time. The portable equipment was especially appreciated by owners of small flocks.

The loss of wool in many flocks stimulated interest in dipping, according to County Agent H. S. Long, who believes dipping may increase the production of wool at least a half-pound per ewe. This half-pound would more than pay the cost of dipping. It is estimated that at least 10,000 sheep will be dipped in the county this spring.

MR. FARMER

Rockcastle Farmers are using more and more Lime.

THE REASON IS SIMPLE:

Soil to be productive must have lime. Lime supplies the necessary food for growing plants. Lime makes sour soil sweet. It neutralizes harmful soil acids that retards plant growth and makes the soil easier to cultivate. It hastens crop maturity, increases yields, builds up humus and nitrogen, melows clay soils, and facilitates drainage.

A government experiment carried out near Berea, indicates (at present prices) that $1.00 spent for lime will return to the farmer $16.00 in increased yield.

Where else can your soil-building dollar be spent so wisely?

We are fortunate in having an exceptionally high grade limestone. The vein we are now working tests above 98 percent (calcium carbonate) pure. This lime is finely ground, making a soft, snow-white product which readily dissolves when used. One application being sufficient for several years.

This lime is a product of our own good county - - - owned, manufactured and delivered by Rockcastle people.

A NEW LIME YEAR IS NOW BEGINNING.
