Then came the supper, on which the women had been badly employed, and which always included a "pot pie." TO THE DRAFT DODGER I'm writing this short letter Every word is true, Don't look away draft dodger, For it is addressed to you. You feel at ease and in no danger Back in the old home town, You cooked up some pitiful story So the board turned you down. You never think of the real men, Men who lived there day by day. You just think of their girl friends Whom you get while they are away. You sit at home and read your paper Or jump up and say, "Well! Win." Just where do you get that? This war will be won by men. Just what do you think? Draft dodger! This free nation would do If all the men were slackers, And scared to fight like you. Well I guess that's all, Mr. Slacker, I suppose your fee is red. America is no place for you kind, And I mean every word I said. So I'm closing this letter Draft Dodger, Just remember what I said, Say stay away from my girl, Draft Dodger, I'll be back someday. This poem was sent to us by Pvt. Robt. Ford, who is stationed at Carlisle Air Base, Carlisle, New Mexico.

ALLIED ACTION: Renewed Demands

Renewed demands in London for a second front came from two sources on the heels of Joseph Stalin's warning that the enemy has not yet been defeated.

Ivan Maisky, Soviet ambassador to London, in a fighting speech declared that Russia expects "an early realization of the military decisions taken at Casablanca."

While acknowledging that the successes of the Soviet army were "very encouraging," Maisky lived out that they were being achieved at a tremendous cost of Russian lives and property.

FINLAND: Need of War

Ever since the re-election of President Risto Ryti, Finland has wondered whether Finland would make a deal for separate peace with Russia.

When Finland denied German ministers to the Vatican and Germany the rumors of a separate peace bid were given impetus.

In three places American and British forces checked the pace of a German advance in Tunisia. One Nazi column, attempting a desperate push on to Thala, was stopped four miles south of the town.

The Nazi column moving toward Tebessa was bombed by continuous waves of American warplanes.

Washington Digest: Civil Pilots Eagerly Await Army Assignments

Rapidly Expanding Air Force Will Be Need Of 400,000 Aviators; Good Future in Skyways Seen in Time of Peace.

By BAUKHAKE News Analyst and Commentator.

WNU Service, Union Trust Building, Washington, D. C. Washington of late has become increasingly air-minded and although the war has caused it, peace will bring it.

A recent advertisement expressed the idea strikingly. It said: "We exist upon one globe and inside another. Our planet earth is the cockpit of a larger air-globe."

It is our activity in that larger globe, the heavens, which is going to be vital to America when the war is over. Now we are concerned with small sectors of the sky, our scattered air fronts.

In recent weeks, many members of congress have been giving thought to preparation for that day, and "400,000" (the number is a military secret) our planet earth is the cockpit of a larger air-globe.

Train Civil Pilots America is planning a military air force of some 400,000 men.

Many pilots like these, who have been trained under the Civil Aeronautics Authority program, are eagerly awaiting a call to regular military service.

Some of these civilian trained pilots are enlisted in the United States Army Air Force Reserves.

The army in January called all of its enlisted reserve except those who were in the midst of a college term (they will be called when the current term is over).

Some of these civilian trained pilots are enlisted in the United States Army Air Force Reserves, those who passed the physical and age requirements for combat flying.

HOUSEHOLD MEMOS... by Lynn Chambers

Fish Fulfills Protein Needs of the System

Fish filets served with juicy lemon wedges and generous garnishes of radish roses and parsley make an attractive main dish.

Fish Is Flavorful

One very direct and effective way of meeting the meat shortage in the many delectable ways. Few families have been initiated into the many ways of preparation for fish, few know how succulent are their steaks when baked, or how tart and crisp are filets when fried. Bones have been removed from many types of fish so this need concern the cook little. If they have not already been removed, this can be done easily since they are usually together.

French Fried Fish Filets.
Desired number and kind of fish filets
1 egg, well beaten with 1 tablespoon water
Crumbs, corn meal, flour or potato meal
Salt and pepper
Saute oil for frying
Wash filets in cold water, drain on absorbent paper. Sprinkle with salt and pepper; dip first in dry coating (crumbs or other if preferred), then in egg mixture and again in dry coating. Place in deep sauté oil—375°—and fry until hot enough to brown a l-inch cube of bread in 40 to 50 seconds.
Fish is good when baked—especially with tomatoes and green pepper.

"Baked Whitefish, Creole."
(Serves 5 to 6)
2 1/2 pounds whitefish, cleaned and boned
Salt and pepper
1 small onion, chopped
3/4 cup green pepper, chopped
1 tablespoon flour
1 1/4 cups tomato soup
3/4 teaspoon salt
3/4 teaspoon Worcestershire sauce
Place fish in greased baking dish, skin side down. Sprinkle with salt and pepper and brush with one tablespoon of the melted butter. Bake in a moderately hot oven (400 degrees) for 15 minutes. Melt 2 tablespoons of butter in saucpan and add chopped onion and green pepper. Simmer five minutes. Add fish and blend thoroughly. Then add tomato soup, salt and Worcestershire sauce. Cook until mixture thickens, then pour it over the partially-baked whitefish. Return to oven for 20 minutes, more or until fish bakes easily.
Halibut is another good, substantial dish. Mild in flavor, it needs a tart sauce to pick up its delicate flavors.

Lynn Says:
Sauces for Fish: They're a must with fish because they make the most delicious dish. You'll like browned-butter with lemon juice and Worcestershire sauce. Or, just cream the butter and season with lemon juice.
Horseshadish is popular with fish. Take 1/4 cup drained, prepared horseshadish, season with salt and pepper and one tablespoon vinegar, then fold in 1/4 cup of whipped cream.
Tartar is not just another name for sauce, it's actually fish filets. Make it by adding 1 teaspoon minced onion, 2 teaspoons chopped, pickled, 1 teaspoon chopped green olives, and 1 tablespoon vinegar to 1/4 cup mayonnaise.
Make a cup of medium-thick white sauce and add to this 1/2 cup grated cheese and let the cheese melt. Or, 2 chopped, hard-boiled eggs added to white sauce make a golden crown for baked or fried fish.

This Week's Menu

- Paralyzed Potatoes, Broccoli
- Watercress and Endive Salad
- Oatmeal Bread Butter

Halibut Steak.

Have center cut slices of halibut steak cut one inch thick, salt and pepper them and dredge lightly with flour. Fry to a light brown in butter. Remove to a platter and cover with sliced sauteed mushrooms, using about a pound for a steak. Over this pour the following sauce:
Stew 1 No. 2 can of tomatoes with 1 cup of chopped celery, 1/4 chopped green pepper and 1 large chopped onion. When vegetables are tender, run all through a coarse sieve. Into this melt 1/4 pound of butter, and salt and pepper to taste. Heat fish thoroughly in oven and just before serving sprinkle with cheese and run under flame to brown.

There's distinction in salmon when it's combined with discreet seasoning—lemon juice and tomato:

Baked Salmon Fillets.
Salmon cut in individual servings
2 tablespoons oil
2 tablespoons lemon juice
1 teaspoon salt
Dash pepper
1 onion
1 tomato
Bacon strips
Brush slices of fish on both sides with the oil. Place in a baking dish, sprinkle with the lemon juice, salt and pepper. Then lay a thin slice of onion on each piece. Cover onion with a 1/4-inch slice of tomato and top with a strip of bacon cut in two. Place in moderate oven (350 degrees) for 45 minutes.

Salmon Fondue.

(Serves 6)
3 slices bread
1 cup milk
2 tablespoons butter
1 cup flaked, cooked salmon
3 eggs separated
1/4 teaspoon salt
3/4 cup grated American cheese
Trim crusts from bread and cut into 1/2-inch cubes. Heat milk in double boiler, add bread cubes, butter and salmon, and well-beaten egg yolks. Season with salt and cook until thickened, stirring constantly. Remove from heat and stir in cheese. Cool for 10 to 15 minutes. Beat egg whites stiff and fold into mixture. Pour into greased baking dish. Place dish in pan of warm water and bake in a moderate (350-degree) oven for 1 hour or until a knife when inserted comes out clean.
Note: Chopped shrimp, flaked tuna or minced clams or oysters may be used in place of the salmon.

A platter of fish with broccoli and corn filets a good portion of daily dietary requirements.
An early touch of spring goes into the menu with a fresh green salad:
Toss-Up Salad.
(Serves 6)
1/2 head lettuce
1 cup sliced celery
2 fresh tomatoes
2 hard-cooked eggs
1 olive garnish
1/2 bunch radishes
1/2 bunch watercress
1 cup raw spinach leaves
Shred lettuce, dice celery, cut tomatoes and slice radishes. Cut eggs into slices. Rub salad bowl with garlic and add vegetables. Serve with French dressing.

Eggs by the Pound Instead of Dozen

Trend Favors Both Buyer and Seller

A trend toward selling eggs by the pound instead of by the dozen is becoming evident in some sections of the country, and this is profitable both to the producer and the consumer, in the opinion of Myrtle Murray, home industries specialist of the Texas A. and M. college-extension service.

Under present marketing practices, the consumer pays as much per dozen for extremely small eggs as for standard eggs which weigh two ounces each, or a pound and a half per dozen. Elizabeth M. Murray explains, the producer who markets standard size eggs or larger receives no price advantages for a higher product.

Until the public and the trade accept the change from the dozen to pound basis, producers will have to obtain their premiums by offering high quality clean, infertile eggs correctly prepared for marketing.

An Indiana farmer hitches up his team of mules. There's plenty of use for a team these days.

This means that eggs should be gathered at least twice a day and kept in a clean wire basket until they are cool and ready for packing. They should then be graded as to size, putting the uniformly small eggs, the medium (24 ounces) or large, and the large ones in separate containers. They should also be candled, and sort out the defective eggs.

Eggs should always be packed with the pointed end down. If packing materials have been used previously, care should be taken to see that they are clean. Avoid wrapping eggs in newspapers.

Miss Murray recommends that eggs be marketed at least twice a week so that consumers can be assured of fresh produce.

Agriculture in Industry

By FLORENCE C. WOOD

Rabbits

California is the leader in rabbit production although no complete figures for the nation are available. It is known that in the Los Angeles trade area, 1,600,000 pounds of rabbit meat have been sold in one year. The U. S. Department of Agriculture is located at Fontana, Calif., where studies are being made in breeding, fur and wool production and marketing. Rabbit raising has thrived in the West because the mild climate permits open air hutches.

Most of the income is made by selling rabbits for meat. This compares favorably with other meats in protein. It has less fat and costs less per pound than expensive cuts of beef and lamb. This country has imported an average of nearly 91,000,000 pounds of dressed rabbit pelts and it would seem that there might be a bright outlook for selling fur and skins. Efficiency studies show, however, that meat is the more dependable outlet. Because of the cost of stock, it requires more money to raise rabbits than poultry.

California raises more Angora rabbits than any other state. Much rabbit wool is imported and some California people have obtained a better price per pound for wool when it was spun into yarn at home and then sold to department stores.

Minerals for Hogs

Feed proper minerals to hogs at all times. Market hogs make cheaper gains, brood sows raise more thrifty pigs; and healthier hogs are produced when minerals are used. By using a protein supplement such as a mixture of equal parts of cottonseed, peanut, or soybean oil meal with tankage, or shrimp meal, farmers can grow out their pigs and fatten their hogs with about half as much corn or sweet potatoes as when these feeds are used alone.

There Are Dragons

There are real dragons today, but naturally they are not quite all that fairy stories say about such beasts. In the Dutch East Indies still lives the Komodo dragon, a fearsome-looking lizard ten feet long. It does not breathe fire, but it is quite a nasty customer when roused.

All kinds of extinct lizards and reptiles, some of which may not have been extinct for so very long, no doubt helped to build up the legends of the dragons against which the heroes of every land have fought.

Trotsky Was Not Prince

Leon Trotsky was not a Russian prince who changed his name, as has been reported time and again. He was a Russian Jew who came from the middle-class. He had a university education, and he changed his real name—Bronstein—to Trotsky because it was as L. D. Trotsky that he fled to England with a forged passport at the beginning of this century.

Our Monroe Doctrine

In the days of President Monroe there was considerable apprehension that European interests might so interfere with South American states as to menace the security of the U. S. So Monroe declared that, in the American continent, any attempt to exploit any territory for European colonization would be held an unfriendly act.

Spain, the only directly concerned, because of the South American Spanish colonies that had revolted, any attempt to exploit Spain might transfer her claims to a "Stronger Power."

So the Monroe Doctrine has come to mean that Europe must never interfere in the Americas.

THE EAGLE'S WINGS
By A. F. Hoffman
As the Northwind turns and comes from out the South Are faithless words drooled from the Viper's mouth: "Come, follow me and let us take the land Where lives the Eagle and his powerful band; Where graze the finest of the herd and birds. We'll take the cream and leave to them the curds. We are the chosen ones—the super-race: We have the purest blood, the finest of the breed. We are the gold, the rest are slag and dross. We rule by might and take at any cost. We are oppressed; we are misunderstood; We must have room to do the world more good."

So lies the Viper to his trusting brood. The dream he represents so strikes the mood. All reason is forgot and fervish haste— Is made to rule and ruin—rife with hate— Ignoring all the laws of God and man. The irek is started to the Eagle's land. To drive the rightful owners to the sea. To kill and plunder—to enslave the free. And in the night the silny vipers creep Upon the Eagle while he is asleep. Amid the pained and restless slumber form, Far from his craggy mountians and his home.

The Viper strikes! Deep are the poison stings! Deep in the Eagle's back—but not his Wings! These shall return to liberate the just! The Viper's head shall canker in the dust!

County Agent's Notes
(By Robt. F. Spence)
FAIRM SUGGESTIONS. Food production should be uppermost in our minds this year. Now is the time to make plans for the results.
POULTRY. We must plan to have at least 10 per cent more pullets than we had last fall. Now is the time to buy baby chicks. Early chicks grow up better. If chicks are to be raised by hens "set" them as soon as they want to set.
GARDEN. Now is the time to prepare for a food garden. Everyone who has a garden should plan to make it produce as possible. Use plenty of manure and fertilizer on the garden. Buy good seeds. Try "Yellow Resistant" Cabbage and "Wilt Resistant" tomatoes. Ask your seed dealer to get the Resistant varieties. Plant all of canning beans early so as to get crop off before Bean Beetle hatches.
POTATOES. Stick to certified potato seed. It pays to use certified seed even though the cost may be a little more. Buy seed now. Don't wait.
PRUNING FRUIT TREES AND GRAPE VINES. All fruit trees and grape vines should be pruned between now and March 15. Fruit trees can be pruned later than grape vines. Right now is a good time to work on the grape vines. Cut last year's growth back leaving one to two joints on the canes of last year. Anyone wishing a bulletin on pruning can get it at the county agent's office.
Every effort should be made to protect the fruit trees and grapes. Plan to spray as soon as pruning is done. WILD CORN. Wild corn is a pest. It will soon be here. Have you brought your seed corn and fertilizer? If you should it should be done now. Don't wait.
If hybrid corn is to be used on your farm note the varieties which have done the best in Kentucky and this year Yellow 100 is desired. Buy No. 102 or 108 or U.S. 102 and 108 has been successfully grown by our farmers. Hybrid produces more corn per acre than any other corn.
If white is desired get Ky. 69B or Ky. 72.
TORRACCO. Stick to Root-Rot-Resistant varieties. Ky. 15, Ky. 32 and Ky. 41A are all good varieties and produced over one ton per acre last year on the county agent's farm at Lexington. Put one level teaspoonful of seed on bed, 9 by 40 to 50 feet. Most farmers get their plants 700 on bed.
HEMP. Have you decided to grow any hemp this year? If not, why not? If you have land that will produce 35 to 50 bushels of hemp per acre, you can grow hemp. Hemp does better on first and second bottoms. The Government wants us to grow what we can. Farmers will be paid $10 per bushel for the seed this year.
CASPER BEANS. The Government wants to grow some Casper beans. If you are interested call at the County Agent's office and get information.
VICTORY CLUBS. Our country is calling for all boys and girls between the ages of eight and 20 to join the 4-H Victory Club and help produce this year. Rockcastle county's club is 2,000 boys and girls. Southern Madison 300. Enrollment cards can be gotten from the county agent's office. We have 1100 already enrolled. We need 1200 more. Get in now and do your best if you are between 8 and 20 years of age.
IMPORTANT: Food Production is our biggest job for 1943. If we don't produce it our war effort is lost. In our garden we may not be able to get it all. At all money we must buy what is used or wanted. Food ration will get tight. To make the most of it, produce it at home and be sure we have enough for our money.

RECRUITING OFFICER TO BE HERE FRIDAY

This representative will also have application blanks for WAVES and SPAN.

YOUR FEDERAL INCOME TAX
No. 8
WHO MUST FILE A RETURN
Every single person who has a Federal income tax return whose gross income for the year from all sources was $500 or more; that is, as much as $362 per week. Widows, widowers, divorcees, and married persons separated by mutual consent, are classed as single persons.
Every married person, living with husband or wife throughout the year, must file a return if his or her gross income, together with any income of the spouse, was as much as $200 for the year; that is, as much as $26.66 per week. If husband and wife both have income, they must make a return. Should either be unable to separate, or, if they are both citizens or residents, they may make a joint return. A joint return may be made if husband and wife even though one has no income, and a joint return is advisable in the case of persons, one of whom has no income, who marry during the year, since the personal exemption attributable each spouse during the period of marital status is allowable in a joint return.
A "separate" return may be made by both husband and wife, and verified by a written declaration that is made under penalties perjury.
Where separate returns are filed by husband and wife on Form 1040, the joint personal exemption allowable (200) which the married status has existed throughout the year) may be taken by either, or divided between them in any proportion desired upon. If separate returns are filed one may not report income which belongs to the other, but must report only the income which belongs to himself.
No person is exempt from filing a return if his gross income is equal to or greater than the amount specified by the Internal Revenue Code, the President of the United States, nor the Vice President, nor Federal judges, nor Members of Congress, are exempt from filing a return.
Moreover, all income from whatever source, unless specifically excluded by statute, must be reported on a return. The types of income specifically exempt are listed in the instructions accompanying the return form.
Persons whose gross income does not exceed $300, and consists wholly of salary, wages dividends, interest, or annuities, may make a Simplified Return on Form 1040A, which the Tax due may be readily ascertained by reference to a table contained in the form.
A husband and wife living together on July 1 of the taxable year, may file separate Simplified Returns, if the income of each is less than $100, and their separate sources and does not exceed $3,000, or they may file a single joint return on that form if their combined income from the preceding business year does not exceed $3,000. A taxpayer may not however file a Simplified Return if the other spouse files a return on Form 1040.

No. 8
WHO MUST FILE A RETURN

Every single person who has a Federal income tax return whose gross income for the year from all sources was $500 or more; that is, as much as $362 per week. Widows, widowers, divorcees, and married persons separated by mutual consent, are classed as single persons.
Every married person, living with husband or wife throughout the year, must file a return if his or her gross income, together with any income of the spouse, was as much as $200 for the year; that is, as much as $26.66 per week. If husband and wife both have income, they must make a return. Should either be unable to separate, or, if they are both citizens or residents, they may make a joint return. A joint return may be made if husband and wife even though one has no income, and a joint return is advisable in the case of persons, one of whom has no income, who marry during the year, since the personal exemption attributable each spouse during the period of marital status is allowable in a joint return.
A "separate" return may be made by both husband and wife, and verified by a written declaration that is made under penalties perjury.
Where separate returns are filed by husband and wife on Form 1040, the joint personal exemption allowable (200) which the married status has existed throughout the year) may be taken by either, or divided between them in any proportion desired upon. If separate returns are filed one may not report income which belongs to the other, but must report only the income which belongs to himself.
No person is exempt from filing a return if his gross income is equal to or greater than the amount specified by the Internal Revenue Code, the President of the United States, nor the Vice President, nor Federal judges, nor Members of Congress, are exempt from filing a return.
Moreover, all income from whatever source, unless specifically excluded by statute, must be reported on a return. The types of income specifically exempt are listed in the instructions accompanying the return form.
Persons whose gross income does not exceed $300, and consists wholly of salary, wages dividends, interest, or annuities, may make a Simplified Return on Form 1040A, which the Tax due may be readily ascertained by reference to a table contained in the form.
A husband and wife living together on July 1 of the taxable year, may file separate Simplified Returns, if the income of each is less than $100, and their separate sources and does not exceed $3,000, or they may file a single joint return on that form if their combined income from the preceding business year does not exceed $3,000. A taxpayer may not however file a Simplified Return if the other spouse files a return on Form 1040.

MT. VERNON BAPTIST CHURCH
W. G. Younce, Pastor.
There is nothing church in our Christ, and we believe that we all should attend religious services. One of the noblest Christian statesmen this world has ever produced said to his countrymen: "Angels not the assembling of yourselves together as the manner of some is!" In days such as these when many are perplexed and troubled the church should be attended. To the person who questions the profitability of religious services we can only answer: "Come and see."
— Sunday Services —
Sunday School: 9:45 A. M. Present last Sunday, 171. Every church member should be enrolled in one of our classes and trying to learn more about God's will concerning his life. More every Sunday School teacher should encourage his or her pupils to remain for the preaching service, keeping in mind that the supreme joy of heaven is to be seen in the Morning Worship - 11:00 o'clock. Sermon: "Speaking the Word Of Truth in Due Season."
Prayer Meeting: 6:30 P. M. Present last Sunday, 72. We urge every person who is anxious to use his talents for the glory of Christ to attend this service. "Come and see" what is being done.
Evening Worship - 7:30 o'clock. Sermon: "Fighting Our Wishes to God's Will."
We thank Rev. J. A. Bass for his services of last Sunday. Words of praise have reached our ears concerning his sermons and we are glad to make mention of same.
Mr. Carl Owens is in the London hospital, having undergone an operation, and is reported doing nicely. Also Mr. Harmon Helton is in the hospital in Virginia for treatment.

2. Do not fly your kite with wet string or in damp weather.
