2,000 ROUTED AND OHIO RIVER IS STILL RISING

Floodwaters forced thousands of their homes in parts of Eastern and Northeastern Kentucky yesterday.

The Red Cross said it was helping more than 2,000 homeless and had established nine shelters for refugees.

In general the floods in the state were waning except along the Ohio River. At Cynthiahna, where the backing River was some 400 persons, from their homes, the water was falling last night. Some of the executives are to move back into their dwellings.

The same stream stopped its rise at Falmouth at noon and began a slow drop which was expected to continue during the night. Both Cynthiahna and Falmouth were cut off from railroad service.

The waters of Houston and Stoner Creeks began to recede at Paris and at Taylorsville. Branshers-Creek and Salt banks.

The State Highway Department reported there was danger of a serious flood in Ashland on Gatlinburg, Greenup, and Russell, all in Ohio.

Its district engineer at Ashland informed headquarters that he expected the Ohio River was expected to rise another 6 feet in the Mahanoy area. The Ohio also is rising at Owensboro and by today is expected to go to 45 feet.

Circuit Court Now In Session

The April term of the Rockcastle Circuit Court began here Monday and is still in session.

To date the following cases have appeared before Circuit Judge R. G. Baxter: Frank Smith, charged with child desertion, acquitted; Jim Field, selling liquor, not guilty; Carl Gadd, breach of peace, one cent and one year; Robert Johnson, charged with distributing religious worship, both guilty, fined $20.00; Earl Thompson, accused of possession of carrying a gun, fined $125.00 and one year; James H. Williams and Luther Cox, charged with damage of property, Cox appeared before the court and was fined $20.00. Williams failed to appear before the court; Amos McGuire and Ed McCracken, on a nuisance charge, fined $25.00; James Dees, postponed to 27th; James Burns, charged with the murder of one Alvin White, to be tried before court April 27th.

Main Street To Have Parallel Parking

In the special meeting of the Mt. Vernon city council held last night, the old question of congestion of Main Street was again the subject. After a discussion of ways that this main business block might be freed of some of the traffic jamming resulting from the unloading and delivery trucks in front of the businesses, it was voted by the council to allow parallel parking on the Main street between the intersections of Main and Richmond and Main and Church streets parallel and thus eliminate the angle parking now being done on the south side. This, believes the council, will allow delivery trucks to stop and unload their wares usual and still leave enough room to handle two lanes of traffic.

In a discussion following the meeting one member stated that now with traffic being detoured around Mt. Vernon, it was possible to try the several ways of traffic control which endeavor to get some solution that will prove satisfactory to the town.

The State Highway Department has repeatedly called to the attention of the city council to the situation with the congested situation in this city. It is practically impossible to keep the traffic moving satisfactorily through the town.

Judge B. J. Bethurum, who suffered a fractured hip in a fall last month, is making satisfactory recovery at the Somerset City Hospital. His many friends are delighted to learn that he is convalescing nicely.

August Gustafson Dies At Harlan

Death came Tuesday, April 13 to August Gustafson, well known and respected citizen of this community who came here as a stove cutter from Pennsylvania at the age of twenty-eight.

He had been in ill health on a comparatively short time and had been seriously ill about six weeks. He died at the home of his son, Ivan Gustafson at Harlan as a result of a coronary occlusion he had been making his home there since last September.

Mr. Gustafson, better known here as Gus Staverson, was 77 when he died. He migrated to this country from Vermaland, Sweden when he was 23 years old and first made his way to Pennsylvania and later to Mt. Vernon, where he was employed by the Slinger-Hall Stove Co. He later became engaged in farming and dairying and was active in this until recent years.

Mr. Gustafson last year received a fifty-year membership ribbon in the Masonic fraternal organization, the point of his most valued possessions. In the old country he was a member of the Lutheran church. His active life was made Wednesday, April 12, from 9:00 a. m. to 4:00 p. m. (CST).

Harley E. Ritter, Regional Director and Assets Administration, stressed the point that no priorities are needed to purchase property at either of these sales. Buyers lists will be available at the sale sites on inspection days.

Ritter pointed out that April 15 is the last day that sealed bids will be accepted for the miscellaneous machine tool sale being conducted through the W.A.A. Customer Service Center, 2400 Dayton, Cincinnati, Ohio. Such items as riveting machines, rivet setters and lapping machines are included in the offering.

U. S. 25 Will Remain Closed

In contradiction to rumors that there has been passing around Mt. Vernon, and Rockcastle counties, that a section of U. S. 25 would be re-opened to traffic, Engineer S. B. Riddle stated Tuesday that the road will not be reopened to traffic under the contract for this project. However, it is at all possible, the section may be reopened, but the law will not go into effect until June 17th.

L. & N. PLANS TO RECALL 2,500 BY END OF WEEK

The Louisville and Nashville Railroad announced Wednesday it expected that 2,500 employees laid off because of the coal strike would be recalled. The railroad said the end of this week, as coal production rises. The railroad said plans to lay off another 5,000 were cancelled. The Office of Defense Transportation ordered restrictions on steam-train operations. It said all freight train service was being restored to normal schedules.

Lexington Men Die In Plane Crash

Harry Bullock, Lexington, a pioneer in Kentucky aviation, was killed Monday in a plane crash that also took the life of his son-in-law, Carter Thompson, 28, of Westport, Ohio.

The plane struck a 1,000 foot knoll just south of Berea, Ohio, and flipped over.

Bullock, 84, and Thomson were on their way to Berea to consult with a specialist. Bullock had been in ill health for more than a year.

Frank Long, an artist who lives at the base of the knoll on the Scaffold, Cane road gave this account of the crash: "I heard the plane," he said, "and then I lost it for a few minutes."

"I saw it coming in from the southeast. The fog was very thick, a few feet above the ground. The plane was low. I saw the plane circle and then I heard it crash. It wasn't a loud crash, but I saw the plane in the air. Both men still were in the wreckage. The plane was demolished."

The craft did not catch fire. The wreckage was scattered over an area 50 yards long. Both wings were off and the engine was torn from the ship.

Both men were in the wreckage when the dealer who spent much time in aviation.

Vergil Alsip Killed In Auto Wreck

Vergil Alsip of Putlaski county was killed instantly in a motor car accident last Friday evening on U. S. Highway 25 near Brodhead road, when the 1947 Chevrolet panel truck which he was driving left the road and crashed into a tree. The vehicle was completely demolished.

FISHING IN MAY OKAYED BY THE STATE

There will be no closed fishing season in Kentucky in May. The State Game and Fish Commission has announced that fishing will be open in all streams and lakes throughout the State.

The announcement was made by the Division of Game and Fish Commission. The closed season was voted out of the Legislature, but the law will not go into effect until June 17th.

Leaders And Officers Training School

Very good attendance was secured at the 4-H Rally Day Leaders and Officers training School throughout Rockcastle County Monday, April 12 and 13. The day was rainy and swollen streams. The meetings were at Brodhead, Climax, Livingston, Mt. Vernon, Quail and Wildie.

The leaders and officers had many worthwhile questions and discussions at the meetings. Mrs. Dorothy Gentry and Mr. Boyd Wheeler, Field Agents in Rockcastle County, along with the County Extension Agents were on hand to help learn from the discussions of leaders and officers problems in the 4-H clubs.

Some of the topics of discussion were: 4-H Rally Day which will be held April 24, at the county training School, the exhibits and demonstrations at Rally Day, how to keep good attendance in 4-H clubs during the busy months, kinds of programs which are of interest, progress of project work and what is considered a good record and how does it get that way.

4-H Rally Day April 24

Individual and team demonstrations are urged to be given at 4-H Rally Day by each club as well as the clothing exhibits.

There is an old saying to the effect that wise speculators "always bet against the crowd." We will keep to that old saying in the light of the overwhelming faith that business, employment and purchasing power will keep to present levels and possibly higher.

Higher, right or wrong, belief in the continuation of the boom has caused many maniamatics. Forecasts of a "bust" are growing fewer and fewer.

The desire of appearing wise often prevents our becoming so.

Lewis Battles Taft-Hartley Law; Baruch Sees 'Total Mobilization'; Eisenhower Repeats His Refusal

EDITOR'S NOTE: When updates are returned in these columns, they are those of the writer. Editor's copy analysis is in the margin.

LABOR: Lewis Fight

John L. Lewis and the Taft-Hartley law were locked in a mortal struggle. Lewis had appointed a special committee to study the law. The United Mine Workers were still out of the pits in a "voluntary" objection to the companies' alleged refusal to provide them with a $100-a-month pension plan. Most of the 400,000 miners were out fishing. Lewis himself was out gunning for the Taft-Hartley law, enactment of which was largely the result of his activities in the first place.

'Greatest Killer'

Glenn L. Martin, pioneer aircraft builder, revealed that the U. S. has developed an offensive, "radioactive" atomic bomb. He called it "a radioactive cloud—the greatest killer of human beings ever devised." Martin said it is the latest of a series of bombs he has developed since he was a slave to another nation.

Ruminating on Ruminants, Or Cogitating About Cows

By BAUKHAGE, News Analyst and Commentator

WASHINGTON.—The subject of cows recently has been called to my attention.

In the cow press-around days, a cow was supposed to be an animal of the bovine species. Now it is a three-letter word meaning ruminant. There is another three-letter word which also sometimes means a ruminant of which I will speak here.

Before I know that a cow was either a member of the bovine species or a ruminant, I thought it was something fearful which was superstitiously adored as a "Bee," and which I was told would not hurt me. I later learned that the statement was correct, but had grave doubts about the latter. Later I was taught that cow spelled, not basic, but cow and still later I was told that cow was a false information furnished by one's elders.

This is Pat Walker of Woodland, Cal., one of the few rural celebrators at California State Polytechnic College. With her, is one spot of ruminating, is one of the college's letter best men, Donnie Prince 6th. His mother was one of the aristocratic ruminants who even now chew her cud to grade over the elegance of her son.

This house is occupied by the distinguished Mrs. Mary ever ready has done more than rattle about in that palatial mansion.

Need Key Materials

PRESIDENT TRUMAN HAS RECEIVED a blunt warning from William M. Allen, president of Boeing Aircraft Co., that the government must reinstitute allocations of key materials, such as aluminum, if the U. S. is to build airplanes for the war.

Need Key Materials

Allen, who was accompanied to the White House by Sen. Warren Magnuson of Washington, told Mr. Truman that the government is producing a poor successor to the B-29, known as the B-50, at the rate of seven planes a month. The new planes can quickly both the 200-mile range of the B-29 and the 350-mile-an-hour speed. Boeing also is testing a new jet bomber of revolutionary speed and range.

Need Key Materials

"We can't begin turning out these planes until we have the materials needed to produce them, so we can plan our production program accordingly," Allen said.

Need Key Materials

Allen said that the production of B-29's right now to 40 a month, but without material allocations.

Big Loss From Feeds: Losses of stored feed and grain will total 600 million dollars and the equivalent of 300 million bushels of grain unless control insecticides are sprayed early, according to a department of agriculture report.

Dangerous Flame Heaters

Emergency operation of open flame heaters brings a serious hazard into the home, according to the National Board of Fire Underwriters. During heavy snowstorms in the northeastern states, many deaths were caused by gas poisoning through use of unvented open flame heaters in tightly closed rooms. If a house is tightly closed or a room is small, the amount of oxygen in the room is gradually used up, with the result that the products of combustion will contain high percentages of deadly carbon monoxide.

Fertilization of Milk

Floures on utilization of milk generally are in terms of the equivalent of milk containing 3.5 per cent fat. Where cream is included, the figures also are converted to milk of 3.5 per cent buterfat content. To include one quart of cream of 18 per cent buterfat content in a tabulation of milk figures, the cream must be converted mathematically to the equivalent of milk of 3.5 per cent buterfat content.

tions of the contract, particularly as it pertains to the miners' welfare fund. Yet the records show the following:

Mr. Lewis has demanded that welfare fund benefits be given to persons who are not employees of those who signed the contract—disregarding the Labor-Management Relations Act.

Mr. Lewis has refused to join the operator, trustee in order to secure a judge and neutral trustee to administer the fund.

Mr. Lewis rejected the findings of a firm of accountants who was employed to submit a report, causing the firm to be discharged.

Mr. Lewis ignored an actuarial report submitted by the Social Security Board of the U. S. Government which generally substantiated that made by a private firm.

Mr. Lewis rejected a suggestion from a government official that a three-man board of interested private citizens be empowered to look into the whole controversy. The operators accepted that suggestion.

In other words, Mr. Lewis seems bent on maintaining life-and-death power over an industry whose continued operation is necessary both to the economic welfare of this country and to the success of our foreign policy. That is the real issue underlying the coal dispute.

Discover Weapons of Early Man in Southwest Nebraska
 LINCOLN, NEB. — Remains of what probably was man's earliest existence in the Western Hemisphere have been uncovered in southwest Nebraska.

Dr. C. Bertrand Schultz, director of the University of Nebraska state museum, said three campsites of semi-nomadic hunters have been found.

They are estimated to be between 20,000 and 15,000 years old. No skeletal remains of human beings have been located, but there is evidence of ancient man's occupations at the sites, he said.

Findings include stone and bone tools and weapons. Intermingled with the articles were the bones of 20 types of mammals, birds and reptiles, many of which seem different from types now extant in the area.

The campsites were discovered at the base of a high bluff bordering Lymecreek, about 12 miles north-west of Cambridge, Mo.

TO MY FRIENDS IN ROCKCASTLE COUNTY:

Boys, plain talk is what I'm going to give you. Fertilized tobacco, year in and year out, has brought the best money on our market. On my farms, I've tested and tried—all kinds of these fertilizers, and I'm glad to be able to tell you that I've found a wonder tobacco fertilizer that is ten years ahead of anything on the market. If you want money for your tobacco—plenty of it—then put it on your ground.

I've gone to great lengths to get this item so that we may get you more money for your crop. Its cheap, I've got it, plenty of it, and I'm the only man in Kentucky that can supply your wants.

If you want a lot of money for that tobacco, then let me know.

MARATHON

by GOODYEAR

"IT RUNS AND RUNS AND RUNS"

Marathon—the famous money saving tire is back in the Goodyear line—and a better "buy" than ever! You get the economy, long mileage and safety—the extra value for your dollars that made Marathon the favorite of millions of motorists before the war... added to this—more and stronger cords in the rugged tire body give the new Marathon even greater protection against tire failure. Stop in today and trade your worn tires for new Marathons—the money saving, low price tire that has these features...

LONG WEAR—New specially treated cords and newly compounded rubber make Marathon the tire that "runs and runs and runs".

NON-SKID SAFETY—Those famous Goodyear diamond blocks really grip the road. You get safer, quicker stops—especially on wet, skiddy roads.

"COMPACTING TREAD"—Inflation forces the sidewalls out, compacts the tread. This reduces tread wear, punctures, bruises and breaks.

Easily Built Bird House And Feeding Station

If you want to turn your spare time into a useful and productive hobby, make up this birdhouse and feeding station. You'll have the building done in a few days and will be agreeably surprised to see what a professional job you can do using only hand tools.

Measure each component part of the house as represented full size on the printed pattern. All the necessary material associated with working in wood is given. You merely cut the pieces of wood from the pattern, then assemble them into the birdhouse. The finished house is fastened together by means of screws. The feeding station is also made of wood and is fastened to the birdhouse. The entire project is a simple and interesting one.

If you prefer to be instructed in developing a position business, contact the author of this project. He will be glad to send you a copy of the book 'How to Build a Business' by Wm. W. H. Kinsman, Jr., N. Y. C.

MERRY MERRY MERMAID

By MARY LOUISE CHEATHAM

It was gaily and the beach was deserted except for a few lone bathers far around the shore. Merry finished her splashing in the chilly water and climbed on a rock by the lakeside, the only rock in view anywhere on the sandy beach. It made a nice spot to sit and dry as the morning sun grew warmer.

"Well," he persisted. "Like it can go in again." "No," said Merry. "I like it here on the beach." "Okay," Terry shrugged. "Suit yourself. I'm going to take a swim, then I've got to go to the village. Be gone all day. You ought to come along."

"No," said Merry. "Thanks anyway." "She was sorry to see him go, yet happy, too. He would be gone all day! As soon as she was completely out of sight she wedged back into the water. Olga, Mrs. White's cook, came wading out but Merry didn't mind. Olga was plump and comfortable and she was eating an apple.

other, she managed to avoid Terry and keep on with her attempts to swim. "I don't know why I don't let him," she thought. "He probably would teach me himself but he might think I am awfully stupid, the way I don't make any progress. Somehow, I am ashamed to let him know."

"Tell you what," said Bobby. "I'll take the rowboat and row along side in case you need me, and I'll think by now you can easily make it as far as the raft."

"There she goes," said Merry. "It's a wonderful! said Merry. She tried it but sank immediately, and sat up, gasping and blowing water out of her nose. A peal of laughter rang out and she looked into the face of a 10-year-old boy who was swimming about like a porpoise.

"LET'S TALK ABOUT YOU" BY CHARLES B. ROTH

The Return From Exile

Lesson for April 18, 1943

OWPER'S lines, come to mind as we study the dramatic return of the Jews from their exile in Babylon to Jerusalem in the first year of the reign of Cyrus king of Persia, 536 B. C.

And yet it is not altogether strange for if you will turn to Jeremiah 29:14, you will find a prophecy given 50 years before the event that this very thing would occur.

There were two other deportations of the Jews from Babylon, prior to the incident in our lesson—the return led by Daniel, 605 B. C., and the one led by Ezekiel, 597 B. C.

PROCLAMATION OF CYRUS

THE proclamation of Cyrus, Extra 11-8, records the happy word to the Jews that they would not only return, but that the temple would be rebuilt. Cyrus acted upon all the people who would make offerings by which the temple might be restored. Cyrus was acting under divine impulse in this gracious and generous proclamation.

THE DECREE OF ARTABANES THE fourth chapter of Ezra brings to the halting place the work on the temple, after they had raised the magnificent sum of approximately $400,000, and had laid the foundation for the temple, with numerous ceremonies.

STICKING TO ONE'S PURPOSE WE come now to the part Hagai placed in summoning the Jews to their duty and obligation to God to restore the temple. It was in the second year of the reign of Darius that Hagai received the word of the Lord. "It is time for you, O ye, to dwell in your called houses; and this house I will cause to be built."

GOB'S PURPOSE, FULFILLED THE message of Hagai was proclaimed, Ezra 8:13-18, and God's promise was fulfilled. Read Psalm 126.

Anything that appeals to a person's special interests, identifies you with him, will get and hold your attention—and if you can't find anyone's attention he will find you an engaging personality.

As We Achieve The degree of success which we achieve in making effective our Christian education program in the field of his generation will determine whether future generations will be able to enjoy a society free from the distrust of religious intolerance, the selfishness of our prejudices, and the bitterness of class hatred.
