WHY TAKE HARSH MEDICINES?
Why? Because Lemon in Water—

The juice of a lemon in a glass of water, when taken first thing on arising, is all that most people need to insure prompt, normal elimination. No more harsh laxatives that irritate the digestive tract and impair nutrition! Lemon in water is good for you!

Generations of Americans have taken lemons for health—and generations of doctors have recommended them. They are rich in vitamin C, supply valuable amounts of B₁ and P. They alkalize; aid digestion.

Not too sharp or sour, lemon in water has a refreshing tang—clears the mouth, wakes you up. It's not a purgative—simply helps your system regulate itself. Try it 10 days—USE CALIFORNIA SUNKIST LEMONS

IS THERE a limit to speed for a man or a horse? Can the human or the equine frame carry just so much drive before it starts to crack? We put this query to Hirsch Jacobs, one of the finest conditioners in any sport, one of the best horse trainers of any given decade.

"To set a record," Jacobs said, "one must have a fast track—means a hard track. Setting records on a fast track is dangerous. It has wrecked many fine horses. I would say there is a limit on my way to evolution and that I can run before he cracks up. Especially if he is after records over a hard, fast track."

This reminded me of a story that Charley Paddock once told.

"Just at the time," the World's Fastest Human said, "I was at my peak. I had just tied the world's record at 3/5. I knew I could do better. I was set that day at Los Angeles in a Southern California meet. I broke in front. I was flying at the 50.

"Around the 80-yard mark I knew I was headed for at least a 9.1 for the 100 yards. I knew the record was mine. Then the calves of both legs began to shiver. I felt all my leg muscles pulling apart. The thought suddenly hit me that I was on my way to excessive speed. I felt my legs were breaking up over this hard, fast track. I pulled up—and still finished in a 9/5.

"I couldn't run again for weeks. The calves of both legs were extremely sore and strained." And that's what Paddock had in two of the strongest looking legs anyone ever saw on a track star.

Limit on Speed

"I realized then," Paddock told me, "that as we are developed today, we are capable of handling only so much speed. I mean our muscles and our ligaments. In the course of evolution and that means someone will run the 100 yards in 8. But not now."

This was proved when Mel Patton was set on the 100 yards later with cramps. Patton was moving into the danger zone, due entirely to excessive speed over a hard, fast track. He was finding out what Paddock had discovered years before.

"How does this sound?" I asked Jacobs. "It sounds 100 per cent sensible," Jacobs said. "You can't drive either horses or humans ever fast, especially on tracks into records without paying the penalty. Which is a breakdown. What do the owners want—a record or a sound horse?"

Jacobs claimed Styrim for something like $1,500 and turned him into a million-dollar probability.

The racing game is packed with the trainers. We could start with Ben and Jimmy Jones. We could bring up Maxie Hirsch, certainly one of the greatest.

We could call on Sunny Jim Fitzsimmons who knows horses better than anyone else knows themselves. A great trainer. There is Honest John Partridge, who has been a fine trainer for 50 years. Most of these are veterans Ben Jones, Fitzsimmons, Hirsch, John Partridge—able, smart, can take you back more years than you can remember.

Young Trainers Are Good

There are any number of younger trainers on the job—Johnny Gaver of Greentree; S. E. Veitch of C. V. Whitney, one of the best, and several more. But I also like the training methods of Jacobs, who wins his share of races without any $50,000 or $60,000 investments in young talent.

Jacobs is a condition man. Condition to me means so much more than anything else. A champion must have many things. But above all he must have condition. Joe Louis had little condition in either his first or second fight with Walcott. Walcott kept in condition. But he was a second-rate fighter. As a result, Louis, rather than the best of all the heavyweight, was far behind Walcott after 25 consecutive rounds.

When Louis' legs began to put on weight you knew what happened. He was far over the top.

"Condition," Jacobs tells me, "is a matter of pigeons, horses or human beings. I've trained pigeons and horses. Human beings would be just the same."

"What are the main qualities?" I asked.

"Too many things," Jacobs said, "the amount of work he can do. For best. I'll take up horses. You watch a horse. You watch the way he runs. He may be overworked. He may need more rest. These are the things to look for. "No one is ever quite alike," Jacobs said. "I mean a human being, pigeon or horse. Each case must be accorded individual attention."

Has The Merry-Go-Round Broke Down?

By Raymond McClure
Sunday morning saw the end of the Broadhead Fair—1948, and the expression that generally prevailed was "I'm sure glad that's over."

Should one be glad the fair is over—glad that is, from the standpoint of enjoyment? Most people would agree that the expression should more rightly be—"I enjoyed myself this year—awfully glad that's over."

Yes, the accounts will probably read that it was a successful fair, because "they packed 'em in." But if you had taken the time to stop and listen you would have heard that tragic and withdrawn note which beats in the swing records on the merry-go-round.

There were people there, that no one argues, but were they really enjoying the fair? Or were they wandering aimlessly around looking at the "joists"?

It was obvious the shows had lost their attendance and the "look what you can lose" joints sported half asleep proprietors.

What was wrong? As one person told me "This is the slowest season since before the war," and an overheard remark, "You can't get a dime out of nobody."

Here decided to finish a poll of carnival "guests" that was started in Lexington in the spring—if Mr. Gallup will forgive me for I was curious to know if fairs and carnivals were down to the past.

I interviewed two hundred people at Broadhead and computed completely the Lexington figures. The trend in answers was inescapable—the percentage overwhelming.

I asked five questions and got answers from people from twelve counties. Here are the questions and the results:

The first question was: "Why did you go to the fair?"

How Show 84%
Every else did 7%
Miscellaneous 7%

The second question was: "If you passed up an entertainment feature at the carnival, what was the reason?"

Nothing new to see 91%
Not interested 4%
High prices 2%
No opinion 3%

The third question was: "What did you spend your money for?"

Eating 69%
Drinking 22%
Gambling 9%

The fourth question was: "Did you pay to get into the show? If so, did you think the price is high?"

REPORT OF THE REVIVAL FREE PENTECOSTAL HOLINESS CHURCH

Some 18 years ago a revival was held at this church, and many souls were saved, however since then we have not had a successful revival meeting where in people who believe we do, that those who hungry and thirst after Righteousness should be filled with the SPIRIT.

On Thursday, the night of the 10th, 1948, Brother Othal Brown, of London, Ky., began to preach the three works of Grace, saved, sanctified and filled with the Holy Ghost, and at the close of this revival this Sunday Evening, August 8th, there were 115 people who were baptized, and 36 received their Baptism of the Holy Ghost.

Several people have been healed of physical ills, and God's mighty Love and Grace of God. While some of the good citizens of our Community, did not cooperate with us, and neither did they contribute any to help the cause whereby a better community could be had to the benefit of all.

This way of serving Almighty God, this was hundreds of people came, the house was full, there was singing, and God blessed his people. Little children, young folks, and old people alike all with one mind had communion, services were taken the bread and wine, and as many humbled themselves and washed feet. We above mentioned in Children's meeting held on Matt. 21: 16, and every one who attended these services and did not know what to think about it; (now since you have looked into what do you think about it? This committee wishes to thank each person who came and who helped to cause the progress in the services by your prayers and gifts, and we especially welcome Brother Brown back again to our place of worship.

We close with this admonition: Matt. 24: 44; Therefore be also ready; for in such an hour as ye think not the Son of man cometh.

WEEKLY NEWS ANALYSIS

Moscow Talks Provide Peace Hope; Congress Eyes Inflation, Housing; Red Spy Scare Startles Country

By Bill Schoentgen, WNU Staff Writer

EDITOR'S NOTE: The following news items were taken from Western newspapers. Their use is not necessarily of this newspaper.

MOSCOW: Conference Practically all that anyone knew during the initial stages of the Moscow conference was Josef Stalin and the ambassadors of three western nations was that there was a conference.

Then There Was...

Whitaker Chambers, a senior editor of Time magazine and an admitted former member of the Communist party, got the names of Alger Hiss, told the house un-American activities committee the names of a few more higher echelon government officials who had participated in the notorious Washington spy ring of a decade ago.

The talks with Stalin and Molotov were reported to have concluded at least one new suggestion—that prior to another Big Four conference there should be a meeting of the U. S., Russian, British and French deputy foreign ministers.

Such a conference would, theoretically, be accompanied by a gradual relaxation of the restrictions which the Soviets have clamped on the western areas of Berlin and which brought the city to the brink of its return to their present boiling point.

Although it might be the height of optimism, Communist Russia being what it is, there was some faint hope that such a piecemeal lifting of the Berlin blockade might bring about a provisional meeting of the heads of the major western powers to discuss their currency and other irritating issues.

ESPIONAGE: Dragon Seed

The dragon seeds of international espionage sown during the closing of the Berlin blockade might bring about a provisional meeting of the heads of the major western powers to discuss their currency and other irritating issues.

At the worst, such a discussion at least would tend to act as a brake against a drift to war and provide a breathing space for talks with Moscow over more basic controversies.

First stone was cast by Miss Elizabeth Bentley, self-confessed courier for Soviet agents, who revealed that much of her information had come from sources in official government positions.

There was, however, still another interpretation of the discussions between Stalin and the three western ambassadors: Russia, having carried its Berlin blockade virtually to the ultimate point short of war, might be thinking that it had brought the western powers to a position where they would have to accede to Soviet demands if they wished to avoid conflict.

CONGRESS: Unwilling

Probably the only accomplishment of the special summer session of congress called by President Truman was to provide both parties with a bigger and better supply of political ammunition for the election campaign.

There was no visible proof that any of the persons she implicated ever had furnished information to the Soviet espionage ring, although some had Communistic backgrounds.

Democrats would be able to say that the GOP congress simply sat back on its haunches and did nothing about the present inflation, housing and other national issues.

Despite the impression you might have received from the reading newspaper accounts of the Olympics, American athletes were not the only ones who lost part of their games.

Republican congressmen agreed only to string along with legislation serving to reimpose consumer credit controls, with some limitation on bank credits, and to speed action on a watered-down housing program which does little except to ease credit terms for borrowers.

That is the sad story of the Republican regime and that the ultimate solution must lie in the election of a Republican administration this November.

TAXATION: 125 Billion

By the end of this year individual taxpayers in the U. S. will have paid nearly 125 billion dollars in direct personal taxes, according to a survey entitled "Domestic Consumer Markets" prepared by the National Industrial Conference board.

One result of the special session that might be classed as favorable that it served to sharpen the sharp edges of the differences between the two parties over domestic problems and give the voters a more clear-cut, definitive idea of what they will be doing on November 2.

Typical result of mechanization was the experience of a Mississippi farmer who used a flame cultivator to control weeds at a cost of 50 cents an acre at the same time but man choppers were costing $5.

RELIGION

World Council

"To justify the ways of God to man" was John Milton's expressed purpose for writing his epic poem of the Reformation, "Paradise Lost."

This, the problem now is not to justify God's ways to man as it is now to justify man's society in the eyes of God. And if, as many churchmen believe, no such justification is possible, then how to work a reasonable and beneficial change in the society which men have wrought.

Under the conference theme, "Man's Disorder and God's Design," the delegates will attack such questions as: How to infuse the church with spiritual life; how to organize the church as a social body without advocating the destruction of all mechanization?

Most encouraging sign on the horizon was the fact that the Russians now are doing in Saxony. Low-grade uranium deposits are found in this southern Germany.

It is that problem which the World Council of Churches is likely to discuss in its next session.

Heave Ho

While the cost of food to the housewife has zoomed, here is what has happened to the dividends of big corporations.

Despite the impression you might have received from the reading newspaper accounts of the Olympics, American athletes were not the only ones who lost part of their games.

Although the July 18 truce in Palestine put at least a temporary end to the military bloodshed between Jews and Arabs, the struggle for rights and power continues beyond the military scenes in the Near East.

COTTON: Mechanized

Last of the great American farm commodities to remain essentially a man-mule crop, cotton finally is becoming mechanized.

One of the reasons for such optimism is the attitude of King Abdullah of Trans-Jordan, most powerful of the Arab League states.

That Old Oil

Oil is being consumed in the U. S. today at a rate exceeding the total world consumption of only a few years ago, according to no article in recent news columns.

Before the Russians moved in, 75 to 80 per cent of Czechoslovakia's foreign trade was with Communist countries. This has been considerably reduced under pressure from Russia, but even now exports go to Western Europe.

Chance of Revolt

Termed Small

Objective observers admit that the Czechs will have a small chance of revolt. That isn't the Czech method. They are great underground workers.

These persons who predict a crack in the iron curtain are based on their argument on an attitude among Czech leaders which is said to parallel that of Tito's supporters in Yugoslavia. This is the indication of nationalism. There have been recent reports from Europe that Czech Premier Gottwald, who always has been considered a Moscow's right-hand man in Czechoslovakia, is about to fall from Soviet favor.

Greater Problems Are in Prospect

Czechoslovakia is not yet thoroughly communized. There is still a certain amount of open criticism. There has been wholesale purges. Undoubtedly, these will come, but when they do—and are encouraged by the Czech government position is weakening and herein—the prospects are that the harder the Russians crack down, the greater problem Czechoslovakia will present to her Kremlin overseers.

Before the coup that ended in the death of Masaryk, Czechoslovakia was estimated that perhaps 20 per cent of the people had been indoctrinated with communism. Another 10 per cent were sympathetic, only from a theoretical point of view. My Czech informant declares that it can be reliably estimated that the vast of practical communism which has been introduced by the Czech army was anti-Communist. My informant put it this way: "The air forces, many of whose members fought with the U. S. in almost entirely pro-Western. If the Reds hadn't drained the tanks of all the planes before the coup,

Father's Favorite BISCUITS

Made with

Le Grande FLOUR

For better biscuits, pies, cakes and rolls, bake with Le Grande Flour. Milled from pure soft winter wheat. Le Grande has a superior flavor that makes even your best baked goods taste better!

A Product of LOUDONVILLE MILLING CO.

Measure and sift dry ingredients into a bowl. Cut or work in fat until the mixture has a coarse granular appearance. Add liquid and combine thoroughly. Turn dough out on lightly floured board, gather up into a ball and knead lightly until the dough appears somewhat smooth. Roll to one-half inch thickness. Dip cutter into flour. Cut biscuits and place upon ungreased baking sheet. If crusty biscuits are desired place about one inch apart, otherwise biscuits may touch each other. Bake in hot oven (450° F.) for about 10 minutes.

1 2/3 c sifted Le Grande Flour
 4 tsp. salt
 4 tsp. lard or shortening
 1/2 c milk

1 1/2 cups soft water
 1/4 cup salt
 2/3 c milk

Compare the Values!...
 Compare the Prices!...
 —see why

MORE PEOPLE BUY CHEVROLETS THAN ANY OTHER CAR

COMPARE the values: compare the prices; and you'll choose Chevrolet! For to compare the values is to know that only Chevrolet brings you the Big-Car riding-smoothness of the original and outstanding United-Knee-Action Ride... the Big-Car performance and dependability of a world's champion Valve-in-head engine for thrills and speed; the Big-Car beauty and luxury of the enviable Body by Fisher... the Big-Car safety of Fisher Uniastel Body-Construction and Positive-Action Hydraulic Brakes... plus many another major quality advantage still not available in any other major car in its field.

And to compare the prices is to know that Chevrolet prices are the lowest in the field... and that Chevrolet value continues to be the highest in its field.

That's why Chevrolet is America's No. 1 car; that's why it's the car for you!

FIRST in Riding-Smoothness! You just can't beat the greater United-Knee-Action Riding Ride for real riding smoothness—real travelway—over any and all kinds of roads, and remember, this famous "Knee-Action" ride is exclusive to Chevrolet and more expensive cars.

FIRST in Thrills with Thrift! There's nothing like Chevrolet's world's champion Valve-in-head engine for thrills and thrift. It holds all records for miles served and owners satisfied. It embodies that extra-sound, extra-dependable Valve-in-head design, found nowhere else in costlier cars.

FIRST in Testeful Beauty! You will be perfectly sure of your car's beauty-endorsement when you own a car with the world-famous Body by Fisher; and this most desirable of car bodies—beautiful from every angle, inside and out—is available only on Chevrolet and higher-priced cars.

FIRST in All-Round Safety! You and your family will enjoy the triple safety protection of Fisher Uniastel Body-Construction, the United-Knee-Action Ride and Positive-Action Hydraulic Brakes—another combination of features found only in Chevrolet and higher-priced cars.

CHEVROLET — and Only CHEVROLET — IS FIRST!

MERRY-GO-ROUND
One man stood and tossed nickles into glassware that cost, at the most, twenty cents in any five-and-dime store. After ten minutes he won an ash tray. It cost him $1.15. His little ragged boy stood beside him crying for attention. He didn't enjoy it at all when his father sublimently yelled "Look what I won!"

There is no doubt carnivals could be fun. It is overwhelming that people enjoy good original entertainment. All the carnivals need is a little soap and water and a few weeks in jail for gambling.
Another disgusting thing was the traffic problem. This year it was a hopeless mess. Cars were jammed for hours. People from out of the state could not get through route No. 150 into the Renfro Valley show—and those people bring money into Rockcastle, not take it out.

There is no need to discuss other short-comings—they are too numerous. The Brohead Fair has changed hands. The new owner will have an opportunity to bring to Rockcastle a completely successful event. He can bring to the Brohead Fair efficient management and clear decent fun. In such dispairing and uncertain times as these, those things can be useful to the children of Rockcastle. Aren't we justified in asking for such a small favor? It would be sad to see the fairs and their companion carnivals die in America. They have long been a tradition in our realm of make believe. But if they cannot be cleaner more of an inspiration, and something we can point to with pride, then it might be better to seek some other means of expressing the festival spirit. The merry-go-round is slowing down.

LIFE WITH JEAN

By HELEN LANGWORTHY

DORIS WALTERS ran a clean, white sheet of paper into her typewriter. Very determinedly she began, "Susy Cow was out in the meadow, eating the green grass when—"

Jean picked up the check, unbelieveingly. "Did Timothy and Horatio do this? Oh, I love 'em to pieces. What will we buy first?"

It wasn't as much fun as in the books. "A few pages further Jean read the time she had caught the front of her dress on a porch railing at a dance and had torn a strip completely off without noticing."

Religion: Hand-Sewn Lesson for August 23, 1948 THE NEIGHBORS didn't know what Tabitha's ideas were. She never went down in history as a great thinker.

"Can't you forget the seven-year-olds and concentrate on the 17-year-old?" she asked plaintively after finding Doris typing. Beauty, the next she went tearing to the phone. "Gotta tell Peter."

"There's a sandwich," Doris answered shortly and went on typing. Jean munched the sandwich and asked, "Got an idea for dear, dear Horatio's hat?"

FROM then on things were even more hectic than they usually were around Jean. The crowd dropped in often, thrilling with Jean over the movie or mourning that they'd perish if she dared leave.

He had Jean and she was "full of good works." It did not say she was "full of good works." It does not say she was "full of faith or full of love."

"This story is different. Maybe I ought to tell you—" Doris began. But Jean clapped her hands over her ears and ran from the room.

Back home Jean came in with her usual, "Mov, I'm starved!" Munching an apple she sat down at her mother's desk and picked up the top page of the new story. She was curious about the excitement her mother had unrolled for her seven-year-old gang.

What is Service? SERVICE is a word much used in Christian circles. We even have the world around us using the word. Department stores, government agencies, radio manufacturers, filling stations, all offer service.

Elevator Will Serve Many Uses on Farm

Elevators are becoming as common on farms as they are in city department stores. They are, however, of a different kind—and not used for the same purposes.

Full of Good Works

It did not say she was "full of good works." It does not say she was "full of faith or full of love." We can be pretty sure the faith and love, the religion, was there, but it was the good works that people noticed.

Small Farm Units Are Big Implement Buyers

Two-thirds of the one and one-half billion dollars being spent for agricultural implements this year is being expended for small one-family farms, according to a recent survey of the Anti-Friction Bearing Manufacturers association.

TALL WHITE TAPERS. TRUTH and beauty glow from this old Book Like tall white papers set to light the way. O bears distressed and burdened, I've look on you. These are the words of others who have known Great tribulation, whose bright faith was in God in the dark, and then with God alone.

Chains. Every season there's a new jewelry fad that sweeps through the big cool halls. Like an Art Lund recording. A few years ago it was those tummy length pearls; last year it was chateleinae. This year it's the gold metal chains and here's how you're going to wear them.
