To The Voters of Educational District No. 3:

I noticed in the paper Carlo Saylor is running on his past record. Here is your record, Carlo and Boone: First, you voted to increase taxes from $75 to $120, and placed a two and one-half cent local property tax on the people. Second, I see the county school system is in debt $32,000.00. Third, at the beginning of this present administration there was a surplus of $15,000.00, the state equalization money has increased from $1,100,000 to $49,000,000 plus an increase of 100 per capita money from the State, and yet the Rockcastle County School System is heavy-

ily in debt and the teachers are receiving about the same pay they were two years ago. Now, I wish you would show the people what you have done in the way of improvements and repairs in your school district. In the October 5 issue of the Mt. Vernon Signal, 1946 you stated as follows: "This present Supt. was charging you taxpayers $2.00 for poll tax, relieved you of that burden as well as we had sufficient funds to operate without a poll tax. I am not in favor of taxing the taxpayers any more. I would like to see our rural school buildings improved in every modern respect so that our children and mine could study in comfort for the Co. Supt. in her fine Adm. Bldg. Yes, in short, I stand for spending some to improve the Little Red School House on the hill instead of spending it all on the fine Ad. Bldg. I think if the taxpayers will bear with me in passing the little red school houses beside the road they will agree with me that there is something lacking in our Administrative Branch of our school system or these Bldgs. would be in much better shape. It will get out in the rural sections more than a year in fact I feel as if the Supt. should visit each rural school four or five times during each school year." Daniel Boone Saylor is circulating a rumor in Brodhead that if Givens Lear is elected he will move the Brodhead School to Mt. Vernon. This is for the Brodhead School to stay where it is. Boone what are you telling the Mt. Vernon people? Are you telling them that you'll move the Brodhead School to Mt. Vernon? Now come clean with the people Boone and tell them what is your interest in this race. If you don't have some personal interest, why do you spend your time and energy? I believe the schools of the county should be restored to the children and taxpayers where they rightfully belong. Instead of being dominated and controlled by one individual, earnestly solicit your support in this campaign. GIVENS LEAR

Doings In NEWS

By Betty Jo Childress

School started off this week with the representative from the Crowell-Coller Company making his annual visit to the Senior Class. We now have 48, however, many are coming going from door to door. To make it more interesting the class is divided into two teams, The Hot Shots and the Slick Chicks. The losing side will give the winning team a hayride. But of course, the main purpose is to help put the Senior Class on Washington at the end of the year.

Basket-Ball practice started off Monday with 13 boys coming out for first team. The second team is scheduled to report for practice next Monday. We have high hopes for the team this year.

The children in the grades are enjoying their piano, which is being moved around from room to room for group singing. Our Library is progressing rapidly; forty new books were received last week and are being thoroughly enjoyed by all. Due to the fact that Friday is C. K. E. A. day and also the School and Agriculture Fair to be held at the High School on Oct. 6 and 7, there will be no school Friday. Of course all the students were deeply grieved to hear of this.

That's all the news in the at so bye for now.

SAVE THE CHILDREN MEETING PLANNED

The Save the Children Federation committee will meet at 7 o'clock Monday night in the County Education Building. Everyone is invited.

ANNOUNCEMENT

Carlo Saylor for member of Board of Education for District Number 3

I was born and raised in Rockcastle county and have lived here all my life. The reason I am interested in our school I have six children; one of them is in the high school four years ago; one finished high school this year and three more of them are in school. I have a son in school. I have one child not old enough to attend school yet. The voters in my district can see why I am interested in our schools.

I have served you on the board for the past 8 years and am willing to make the race on my past record. When I took the office of board member there was scarcely any bus service to transport our children in Rockcastle county. At the present time we have a school bus on nearly every mile of road that can be traveled by bus in any part of Rockcastle county. There have been many improvements in my district since I have been a member of the Board of Education. We have built a new agricultural building at the Brodhead School, added sufficient playgrounds for the children, in fact I have done everything in my power for every school in my district. If I am re-elected there are many more improvements for which I am in favor.

I hope to see all of you and talk with you before the election on November 7th. I will appreciate your support. Vote for

The Mt. Vernon Baptist Church drew an attendance of 500 Sunday, as Homecoming was observed with new pews and the return of two former pastors.

A total of 314 attended Sunday School, a full house was reported for church, and the entire Homecoming dinner in the church basement. The dinner was prepared by the women of the church.

A group of 40 came in from the Gum Springs Mission to hear the former ministers, Rev. T. W. Mahan, who spoke at the morning service, and Rev. W. C. Woychik, who delivered the afternoon service. The present pastor, Rev. Wendell Blevins, delivered the evening service.

The new pews were installed Thursday in readiness for the homecoming and represent a financial investment of $2100. The new pews were donated by various members of the church, some of them in memory of their parents and relatives of those making the donations.

Three church choirs were heard during the day, the Adult Choir and the Youth and Junior groups. Chairman of the homecoming committee was Mrs. Ashby Cummins.

After his arrest Leger charged that he entered the store in the company of Mrs. Baker's son, Floyd, and a warrant has been issued for the arrest of the Baker boy.

County Has Many Sources of Income

If the state of Kentucky as a whole can be used as any criterion, Rockcastle county farmers are faring much better than those of many states.

Although prices have shown an increase since the start of the Korean War, cash receipts were down for the first seven months of the year. The national drop was reported as 7 per cent, with receipts of Kentucky farmers down only about 2.5 per cent for the same period.

The figures were reported by the U.S. Department of Agriculture. The tobacco crop is expected to raise the total cash receipts for Kentucky farmers. As the crop is smaller this year, prices are expected to be higher.

Rockcastle county farmers received $1,280,561 for tobacco last year, while other crops brought a total of $1,272,000. A large increase also has been reported in meat-animal prices.

Rockcastle farmers received between $200,000 and $250,000 for beef cattle last year, while the income from dairy cattle was between $600,000 and $700,000.

Eggs and Poultry Receipts The income from eggs was between $124,000 and $300,000 and poultry brought $800,000 in cash income, and sheep showed cash receipts of $30,000.

Receipts from farm marketing jumped 64 per cent between the middle of June and mid-July, and another 124 per cent between mid-July and mid-August. The average of prices received by farmers has gone up 12 per cent so far this year, with two-thirds of that total a result of increases in meat-animal prices.

Rockcastle farmers had between 75,000 and 85,000 acres in cultivation last year, with corn averaging 45 bushels per acre and tobacco, 1500 pounds per acre. High yield of tobacco was 3300 pounds to the acre, while the high yield of corn reached 157 bushels.

Timber Possibilities In addition to land under cultivation, Rockcastle County has between 118,000 and 128,000 acres of woodlands, which (Continued on page 8)

$95,250.00 Asked In Damage Suits

Damages totaling $95,250 were being asked by the Belcher family of Mt. Vernon as a result of an accident July 23, which claimed the lives of four members of the family.

The suits have been filed in Lincoln County Circuit Court in Stanford against Frank Lay, driver of the cream truck which the Belcher car collided against William P. Lay, owner of the truck and against the Merchants Creamery Company.

Those dead as a result of the wreck are George W. Belcher, his wife, Mrs. Nancy Belcher, the couple's daughter-in-law, Mrs. Helen Faye Belcher, and a granddaughter, Hensetta Carter.

The child's mother, Mrs. Jean Carter, daughter of the Belcher, was seriously injured in the wreck. She is asking $23,000 damages.

Arnold Belcher, an older brother, is acting as administrator of the parents' estate. The suit in behalf of Mr. Belcher is for $25,000, while $22,250 is being asked for Mrs. Belcher. Howard Belcher, acting as administrator of his wife's estate, also has filed for $25,000.

The cases will be heard in November court scheduled to start the 10th.

Tom Blackburn Hurt In Auto Accident

Tom Blackburn received a broken leg in an accident Friday night, and two others received lesser injuries. A 1950 Chevrolet was wrecked.

Others injured in the mishap were Howard Belcher, owner of the car, and Henry Carter, Belcher's brother-in-law. Belcher was reported to have suffered a sprained right wrist, while Carter received a sprained shoulder.

The wreck occurred on U. S. 25 near Horse Shoe Bend. According to a report by Deputy Sheriff Len Davis and the State Police, the Belcher car hit a truck driven by Lee Coon, also of Mt. Vernon. The State Police reported that the truck had started to turn off U. S. 25 toward the old road around Horse Shoe Bend when the Belcher car came around the curve. After hitting the truck, the car skidded over 100 feet and then turned over. Carter was driving.

The car rolled over an embankment and was almost completely demolished, and a passenger in the car, Gene Phelps, escaped injury.

The wreck occurred at 6:15 p.m.

City Council Votes On Telephone Issue

City Council again has voted no to a request by J. F. Dees of the Mt. Vernon Telephone Company for permission to install telephone poles on Main Street.

The question came up again Wednesday night at the regular council meeting. Dees has promised to construct a dual system if poles could be erected on Main Street.

While the City Council was reconvening in the morning, the Rockcastle County Telephone Co-op was busy working on the map to accompany application for a new telephone system. The spotting of the map is being done by Civil Engineer Bob Snodgrass of Ottawa, asked by Bradley Saylor to examine 500 applicants for a new telephone system, have signed with the Co-op, and the committee has announced that the formal application should be ready to file next week. Application will be made through Washington.

European War Unlikely

SECRETARY of State Dean Acheson told a light dinner conversation of house and senate foreign relations committees that he did not expect Russia to make any move toward Europe in the near future. He said our announced policy of reinforcing Europe with arms and men.

One of the toughest problems the U. N. faces, Acheson reported, is bringing western Germany into the program. The German people, he said, were overwhelmingly in favor of an armed police force of their own unless it is part of a "well-integrated" task force of all Atlantic pact nations.

A separate police force, he admitted, would be no help for the Soviet military machine in east Germany and might actually invite Russian conquest of all of it. This, Acheson warned, would be very difficult, if not impossible, to prevent.

At the same time, Acheson said, France probably would be making western Germany a full-fledged member of a mutual defense pact, since this would include rebuilding its steel and potential war industries to full capacity.

The final decision will be up to the United Nations general assembly, Acheson explained, and another question to be decided by the U. N. was "who owns Formosa?" The secretary of state pointed out that while both the Chinese Nationalists and Communists claim Formosa for China, the important thing was to keep the island "neutral" in the conflict with Russia.

Since any decision should take into account the sentiment of the Formosan people themselves, Acheson reported, the U. N. should hold a plebiscite in Formosa before determining its future status.

Follow Missouriian

When President Truman met privately with leaders of the AFL and CIO recently, it was suggested that each leader rise and introduce himself to the honor of the occasion.

Most of the leaders gave their own names, names of their unions and the office which they held.

But when it came the turn of Charles McGowan, head of the Boilermakers Union, he rose and merely said: "Charles McGowan of the Missouri, Missouri."

Truman seemed to get a big kick out of this.

Two Wyoming Senators

There's an interesting contrast between the two senators from Wyoming, both able, conscientious men.

Sen. Lester Hunt, former governor of the state and recently elected to the senate, has just introduced a resolution to abolish congressional immunity from libel suits by a member of congress makes defamatory and untrue statements.

The founding father, Senator Hunt indicated, never came to congress to be a sounding board for such men as McCarthy of Wisconsin and Schoepfel of Kansas have put through. Both senators have been challenged to repeat their libels off the floor of congress and both columnists offered to pay for Carthy's legal expenses in case he was sued. Neither accepted the challenge.

The newly elected Senator Hunt proposes to rectify this.

On the other hand, Senator O'Malley, also of Wyoming and in the senate for 17 years, has been presiding over a committee examining Senator Schoepfel's attempted libel smear of Secretary of the Interior Chapman. And O'Malley has become so steeped in the senatorial idea that a fellow senator should be permitted to talk indefinitely that he has let the Senate hearings become a filibuster in which Schoepfel, with no facts and no proof, continues to talk for the purpose of saving face.

Under the American system a man is innocent until proven guilty. Yet Senator O'Malley in Kansas is to be fair to his colleague. He said that he seems to think a cabinet officer is guilty until proven innocent.

Merry-Go-Round

After seeing the early-American pageant, "Fathers of the Republic," in which Martha Washington presided with George to take a rest, Mrs. Oscar (secretary of interior) Chapin remarked, "the life of a cabinet wife hasn't changed in all these years. I've been after Oscar to take Saturday off, but he doesn't pay any attention."

Supreme Allied Commander

Not disclosed in recent news stories about a supposed supreme commander for Europe is the fact that the joint chiefs of staff have been vigorously opposed to the appointment of an American.

Reason for their lack of enthusiasm is simple. If an American is set up as supreme commander in Europe, the United States will be the one to supply the troops in his command. If there is a French or British commander, they might furnish men.

U. N. Forces Surprise Communists With Amphibious Attack at Inchon; Ministers Plan European Defenses

EDITOR'S NOTE: When opinions are expressed in these columns, they are those of Western Newspaper Union's news analysts and not necessarily of this newspaper.

KOREA:

Now The Offensive

With unexpected and dramatic suddenness the war in Korea turned from the defensive to the offensive.

It was sudden in that the American people were surprised that United Nations forces could be mustered to launch an offensive. And it was dramatic in its conception and execution by Gen. Douglas MacArthur.

From June 25, when the Communist struck with surprising force and generalship, the people of America watched one continual withdrawal. They heard of one Communist advance after another and the fall of such cities as Seoul, Suwon, Kumsan and Taegjeon. Further and further the Communists advanced until U. N. forces held a beachhead on the southeast corner of Korea that offered little or no room for further retreat and little possibilities for an offensive.

When on June 25, Gen. Douglas MacArthur launched an invasion of Korea over 100 miles behind the Communist lines at Inchon. Other forces landed at Yangdok and at points on the east coast.

The main invading force on the west coast at Inchon had one objective—the capture of Seoul, forcing the Communist to cut Korea into two halves and to retreat to the east coast.

The initial invasion was successful. U. S. marine and army divisions captured Wonsan Islands less than an hour, overran Inchon and advanced on Seoul. Kimpo air field, the best in Korea, was captured. The Communist troops stood at the outskirts of Seoul.

The southern offensive progressed slowly against stubborn Communist resistance. There were indications, however, that Communist defenses were crumbling.

The U. S. idea was that German troops would be included in the western European army. The United States was to lead the North Atlantic council to reach agreement in principle that western German forces should become part of the projected western European army.

SPYING:

Slack Admits Guilt

Alfred Dean Slack, a former chemist at a Syracuse, N.Y., plant admitted in federal court at Greenville, Tenn., he was guilty of wartime spying for Soviet Russia.

Slack admitted he supplied Russian agents with a sample of RDX, a high explosive, and the formula for its manufacture.

U. S. attorney James M. Meek told the court there were "extenuating circumstances" in Slack's case and accordingly reduced three times to give Gold the information, but when threatened with exposure as a "Soviet spy" obtained a formula, and turned them over to Gold.

JAPAN:

Ready for Treaty

Since the end of the shooting war progress toward a Japanese peace treaty has been blocked because the big powers were divided over the terms of the treaty and the procedure for drafting it.

Now, however, the United States has announced it is ready for a treaty and the state department representative John Foster Dulles is instructed to begin "informal discussions."

Follow Through

A second offensive against communism began shortly after the invasion of North Korea by the forces of American General Douglas MacArthur to the far east describing the exploit.

Recent reports of the daring maneuvers topped all previous ones to the far east and near east and shared first attention with the far east military meeting in broad casts to Europe.

MARSHALL:

Anger Close to Tears

In an atmosphere of bitterness that at times brought senators to their feet in anger that bordered on tears, Congress cleared the way for General of the Army George C. Marshall, a soldier for 40 years, to serve as secretary of defense.

The war in Korea, which just forbids the office of secretary of defense to a commissioned officer within 10 years of the end of the conflict, was approved by the house 220 to 105 and by the senate by 47 to 21.

But before the vote in the senate, William E. Jenner of Indiana took the floor and for the whole the senators sat in silence and a d shame, launched into an attack on Marshall's honor that astounded foes and friends alike.

It was the reappearance of the bitter core of isolationism and Sen. Jenner of Ohio and Sen. Kenneth Wherry of Nebraska immediately made it plain that they were not going along with Jenner's attack on Marshall as a soldier and a man.

Taft opposed the waiver on the grounds that it would put a military man in the cabinet as head of the executive branch and the whole would strike at the old American tradition of civilian control of military affairs. Taft also contended that the waiver was an unconstitutional act of the secretary of state "in relation to the Chinese Communists."

It was as far as he would go. Jenner, however, attacked Marshall as "either an unsuspecting stooge or an actual conspirator with the most treasonable array of political scoundrels ever turned loose in the executive branch of the government."

Sen. Scott Lucas of Illinois called Jenner's speech "reprehensible." Responsible for the most disabbling speech in the halls of congress that I have ever heard in 16 years here," the Indiana senator in the senate were inclined to agree.

Most observers said that Jenner's attack on a man who has served his country for 40 years and is great respected by the American people in every walk of life, will have further and deeper repercussions.

The Indiana senator is known as one of the most consistent isolationists in congress. His attack, although denied by such men as Taft and Wherry, still carries the seeds of distrust and suspicion which may be reflected in the coming elections.

CONTROLS:

Curbs on Credit

With the restoration of government curbs on consumers' easy payment credit, the Federal Reserve Board and the Federal Reserve Bank of New York are expected to develop, but the move was made to prevent overbuying by businessmen.

N. P. A. administrator William H. Harrison said: "The purpose of the order is to curb the national interest demands that are not accumulation of materials beyond what is needed for immediate production."

The new defense production law provides a $10,000 fine and one year in prison as maximum penalty for violation of the order. The order is industry is "cancel, reduce, defer, promptly any orders which already may have been placed, if they would bring stocks to an illegal level."

CIVIL-DEFENSE

Plan Handed Congress

A blueprint for a vast civil defense program, greater than that of World War II, was placed before congress. It was designed to rally the nation from an atomic attack and enable it to strike back swiftly and destroy the aggressor.

W. Stuart Symington, chairman of the national security resources board, drafted the plan and the program was needed because of the first time since the war of 1912 "an enemy has the power to attack our cities for the first time in our history that attack may come suddenly, with little or no warning."

The board's report said, "Granted a few minutes' warning, casualties could be reduced by over 50 per cent through proper organization and training in civil defense."

The program outlined a mutual-aid system reaching into every town and city, but several agencies of hundreds of thousands of paid and unpaid workers at the federal, state, and local levels.

CONTRACTOR:

Top Was Too Long

On the lighter side of the news, Michael O'Malley, a Chicago masonry contractor, sued P. W. Woolworth company and the Waterbury Lock and Key Co. for the first time in our history that attack may come suddenly, with little or no warning.

O'Malley claimed the extra foot of masonry he built several garages and a house a foot too big and he is being sued for not filling his contract.

Plant Starvation

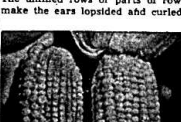

Lowers Corn Yield

Lack of Phosphate May Be Factor in Failure

By checking signs of plant food starvation on the corn you harvested this fall, you can take steps to increase yields next year.

For example, if the corn in your field has a lot of ears like those in the accompanying illustration, the crop was starved for phosphate.

The reason for this was that part of the silks came out too late to catch any pollen. The kernels were not fertilized and so failed to fill out. The unfilled rows or parts of rows make the ears lop-sided and curved.

USDA Recommends DDT For Termite Control

The U. S. department of agriculture has come up with the answer to one of the farmers' serious problems—termites.

The USDA says a single treatment of DDT will prevent termites from attacking woodwork for at least five years and anyone can apply the treatment. Here's the mixture to use: 3 per cent DDT in No. 3 fuel oil. It will give wooden structures complete protection from termites.

Entomologists suggest digging a trench along the building's foundation—about 30 inches deep and about the width of a spade. Then the earth should be saturated at the bottom with the DDT preparation. The soil which is used to fill up the trench also should be saturated. Apply the treatment at the rate of one quart per cubic foot of soil.

WOMAN'S WORLD Many Small, Fashionable Tricks Round Out Winter Wardrobe

By Eritia Haley

MOST WOMEN AND school girls have their basic fall and winter wardrobe completed by this time, but they are still searching for those extra special, certain effects that will give their clothes distinction for just the right bit or button to complete a certain costume.

In many cases, it's not money that's involved. It's just a matter of finding a certain item that will turn a dress or suit from something ordinary to something distinctive. It's wise to investigate what you already have for you may have some lovely things that you can use as altered into something with a lot of service.

Before you buy, investigate what you have. It's often surprising what you can find, a nice piece of plaid that makes just the right belt, some old ribbed sweater that can be turned into buttons or that might be made into costume jewelry, so correct for the current fashion picture.

Belt, Cumberbunds
Are distinctive. Skirts and blouses of luxury materials are an important part of the fashion scene. If you're tall and slender you'll want to put them together in a single costume with a cumberbund effect at the waist.

Cumberbunds can be made from all sorts of old, luxurious pieces of material such as old dresses, scarves, or a wide ribbon trimming of an old skirt.

Many of the pieces of fabric you find will need only a light cleaning and pressing to bring them into condition. Wash only those materials which are washable. If you're in doubt, simply cut a piece for laundering before trying out the whole piece. After recon- ditioning, cut and finish the material to fit the waist, cumberbund fashion.

Plaid belts and cumberbunds are high fashion, too, for long shorts or slacks whether you're at home or on campus. Sources for the plaid might be a remnant tucked away in a scrap bag, an old wool dress, or even the lining of an old coat.

Cumberbunds or belts for tailored clothing should be neat and clean-cut. For wearing with tailored clothes, the plaid cumberbund or belt should go around the waist. It's flat, and high and rounded in front, and may be fastened with snaps, buttons or ribbons. Sometimes a huge ornamental pin is attached to the front.

Search for Remnants
To Use as Neckwear
Plain, classic neckwear, tailored dresses as well as coat and jacket fashions all demand some sort of ornamental scarf at the neck. Scarves, ties, or neckties, tied in a knot at the front of the neck, and then ornamented with a single decorative pin.

Remnants are good sources for these scarves, whether you buy them at a bargain counter or find the material in the attic or scrap bag. Little or no sewing is required for these have simple hemstitch or pascuiter give an excellent background for scarves made of luxury materials such as taffeta, crepe, tulle, faille or chiffon.

For drassy sweaters, a bit of chiffon to which is attached a flower of crushed velvet, is excellent. For the more rugged, the tweed, plaid, striped or plain wool scarves.

Old Fabrics Yield Excellent Trimmings
Many not quite new dresses can be easily rejuvenated with just a touch of two of luxurious trimming to bring them right back into the fashion spotlight. For those you need mere strips of satin or velvet, velvet or faille. Take for example, a good dress that needs a bit of brightening. You might trim the small collar and cuffs with velvet or satin. This trimming is easy to apply and will take but about five minutes if the dress is brown, try a black trimming. If you want to be right up to the minute in the fashion-wise details. Other good choices include orange, rust, purple or a deep bright shade of red.

Do you have an old skirt that can be converted to use as a waist for the college or high school-age daughter? She can wear it with long shorts, slacks or a skirt if she already has a waist. It can be made even smarter with an all-around piping of velvet or velveteen.

Since reefer coats are back, you may try remodeling an old one with touches of velvet at the neckline, or putting on velvet buttons. These are simple changes, but very effective ones.

Old dresses and formal frequently yield excellent buttons. If you have some with rhinestones, remove those and substitute buttons down the front of a classic button-front dress for a very smart look. The same kind of buttons can also be used on sheer wool or velvet suits.

Last year's suit with a plunging neckline can be trimmed with velvet or rhinestone buttons substituted for old ones. Add a bunch of soft velvet flowers, from an old formal, possibly, and you'll have a costume such as is being widely shown.

Skirts, Waist Make Wardrobe Extenders
Skirts, blouses and waists to go with them make excellent wardrobe extenders since the three together may be worn to make a good casual costume.

Then, too, the skirts may be worn with sweaters and jackets, while blouses will go with the other skirts and waists may be worn with other skirts, as well as slacks and shorts.

Tubular Jersey is a popular material that may be substituted by the yard for making skirts.
— Corduroy and velveteen may be used for the waists, and, if you have a skirt or waist for them, you can easily get together enough material for them from old dresses or coat linings.

Skirts are made in two popular styles, the small, men's type with a V neckline, and the other, a hux-don front that shows small tucked buttons or so well.

If you have any long-sleeved old white blouses in your wardrobe, these can easily be brought into use again. Dye them, in the rich fall shades, if you want to spice the costume with color, or bleach them to snowy whiteness if you prefer.

Robes, Gowns, Pajamas Should Yield Warmth
You can cut the corners on your clothing budget by serving pajamas, robes and gowns at home, especially when you use easily managed cotton muslin. Easy to make, and sewing are easy, and the flannel is modest in price.

Classic two-piece pajamas are still being used extensively, but a new favorite style currently is the one-piece which is gathered at the wrists and ankles. It has an attractive Peter Pan collar and front opening, with the waist nipped with a narrow self belt.

Field and flannel nightgowns that are made in the large men's shirts, with long sleeves and large upper pockets are also being favored. For robes, there are two good choices. The first is a short, full style coat frequently styled in a large bold plaid, much after the style of the "backed coat." Gowns were being worn with dresses and suits some time ago.

The second is the regular full or short length robe, either in plaid or the very popular solid colored flannel wool. It may be trimmed with plaid or a contrasting solid color.

Giving Yourself

Lesson for October 2, 1936.

"WHEN a girl throws herself away on a man, she generally takes pretty careful aim."

That may be so; but more than a few personal demerits clear away without taking aim at all. They amble through life, they do not march. They have no personal five-year plans, not even five-week plans. They stumble from one day to the next, they live from hand to mouth, they are for nobody and few. Dr. Foreman care for them. They may be found on the Bow, living from one handout to another, or they may be found in the Silver Spoon Club, with plenty of money but no idea how to spend it and hardly enough energy to waste it.

A Man Gives Himself
MOST people, however, do give themselves to something. Every man who amounts to something, gives himself in one way or another. There was a college student once who practiced stenography. He was a very good one. He might expect, in one of America's finest orchestras.

If you want to succeed in music, give yourself to music. If you want to succeed in a law course, give yourself to law courses. Men usually give themselves to what they do best. It is not great value. Some give themselves; that is to say, they devote themselves to their own careers and happiness.

That is cheap and selfish, of course, but there is a kind of transfer selfishness which is almost as common; giving oneself to one's family to the exclusion of every other and every one else. A good mother will give herself to her mother her children; but there is a kind of ingrown family affection and mother-love which is blind to community needs.

Down the River
WHERE are bad ways of giving a oneself? A prophet once said of King Ahab, he sold himself to do evil, and he sold himself to himself to liquor and gambling.

There have been quite selfless and tireless advocates of atheism, and communism, and fascism, and bad religions of the world. Men have given themselves this in the service of Hitler and of other tyrants.

If the energy and persistence, for the sake of the world, when the present the humane use of unwanted animals in medical research, were spent in intelligent search for preventive medicine, how much better the world would be.

Say Yes to Christ
DO the question is not so much, "Should I give my life?" The question is, "To what? To whom?" For three centuries, the Christians consider "Growth in Christian Living." All growth starts at some point; and Christian growth starts at the point where the Christian gives himself to Christ and his cause.

Consider what "commitment to Christ" means. It is not sentimental devotion to his memory. It is not stinging songs about him or to him. (Not that such songs are wrong!) It is not following a historical character, though Jesus was and is a historical character. It is giving oneself to Jesus Christ. It is giving one's highest devotion, one's first loyalty to the Son of God.

It is devotion to Christ, as ever-present; to the One whose reign is destined to be over all; it is devotion to Christ's cause; to his Kingdom. His country is the world of life. It means giving to his mind; it means becoming more and more like him, wanting to be like him till last Paul's words come true again: "For me, to live is Christ."

You Get More Than You Give
IT is a mistake to think that if one gives his life to Christ, then he cannot give his life to anything else. The answer is, when a person first gives himself to Christ, he finds that Christ gives back far more. Christians can be, and are devoted, cheerful and busy men and mothers and doctors and farmers. The more truly he is committed to Christ, the better he is likely to be to his job, whatever it is.

Help Family Health By Fortifying Meals With Nourishing Milk

AS EVERY MOTHER knows, children go through spells when they will not drink their quota of a quart of milk each day. It's smart of her at these times, especially, to get milk into foods that will be eaten. Since desserts are bound to appeal to the young ones, make them extra nutritious with milk. If you're budget-conscious, you can use nonfat dry milk which has only water and fat removed, and all calcium, protein, riboflavin and lactose left in.

Since desserts are readily available, there are many ways in which to use this in the diet, especially in milk desserts.

HERB'S A LEMON Fluff Pudding which gives you just the right milk-rich dessert you want for a hearty meal. Served with custard, fruit and sauce, you'll have no problem serving seconds.

Lemon Fluff Pudding (Serves 6-8)
1 tablespoon unflavored gelatin
1/2 cup cold water
1/2 cup boiling water
1/2 teaspoon salt
1/2 cup lemon juice
1/2 cup nonfat dry milk
1/2 cup water

Soften gelatin in cold water for 5 minutes. Pour boiling water over softened gelatin; stir until dissolved. Mix in sugar and salt; until dissolved. Stir in lemon juice. Chill until mixture begins to thicken. Mix in sugar and salt; until dissolved. Stir in lemon juice. Chill until mixture begins to thicken. Mix in sugar and salt; until dissolved. Stir in lemon juice.

Butter Scotch Sauce (Makes 1 cup)
1 cup brown sugar
1/2 cup milk
1/2 cup corn syrup
2 tablespoons water
1 tablespoon butter
1/2 teaspoon vanilla
1/2 cup cream

Combine all ingredients except vanilla and cream and cook to soft ball stage (235° F.). Do not stir. Remove from heat; add vanilla. Cool and add cream gradually.

SPICED CUSTARD custard is appealing to look at and good to eat with its cottage cheese, apricots and meringue topping.

Spiced Custard Sauce (Serves 6)
2 cups milk
2 eggs
1/2 teaspoon sugar
1 cup sieved cottage cheese
1/2 teaspoon salt
1/2 teaspoon grated lemon rind
1/2 teaspoon vanilla
1/2 teaspoon cinnamon
Cooked, drained apricot halves.

Heat milk in top of double boiler. Beat 2 eggs and 1 yolk, reserving extra white for meringue. Add 1/4 cup (4 tablespoons) sugar, cheese, salt, lemon rind, vanilla and cinnamon, stirring to blend. Slowly add hot milk, while stirring. Place 2 or 3 apricot halves in each of 6 buttered custard cups and pour custard over them. Bake in a slow water and place in a pan of hot water (300° F.) oven for 35 to 40 minutes or until custard is set. Turn out and lightly brown.

Maple Custard (Serves 10)
4 eggs, separated
1/2 cup maple syrup
1 tall can evaporated milk
1/2 cup vanilla
1/2 cup walnuts
1/2 teaspoon salt

Beat egg yolks with maple syrup. Add evaporated milk, water and vanilla. Stir until mixed well. Beat egg whites with salt until stiff and fold into custard. Pour into individual cups and place in a pan of hot water (325° F.) oven for 45 minutes until custard is set.

Try these hearty open-faced sandwiches for lunch: spread baked beans on buns or bread, top with a dash of ketchup, add a slice of ham and a strip or two of bacon. Broil until bacon is crisp. Serve with cold slaw.

Processed cheese melts quickly in the double boiler if a little milk is added, and can be used as a sauce for hot meat or with the rabbit and serve with small slices of smoked butt or Canadian bacon which are pan-broiling as the cheese melts.

BROADWAY AND MAIN STREET 'Israel Revisited' Answer to What New Nation Is Like

By BILLY ROSE

Early in 1949, my missus and I took a trip around the world, and one of the countries we got to see was Israel. At the time, many of the streets of Tel Aviv, Haifa and Jerusalem were still criss-crossed with barbed wire...

When I returned to New York, my old boss, Bernard M. Baruch, asked me to put my enthusiasm in my pocket and try to estimate Israel's chances of survival...

Recently a copy of a new book by Ralph McGill, "Israel Revisited," published in Atlanta, Ga., has come to my attention...

Classed as good objective reporting. Most of the favorable stuff was too favorable—obviously the work of men who were out to make as good a case for the new nation as possible...

As a business or a nation with those qualities usually gives a good account of itself. I said Mr. Baruch.

SINCE MY VISIT, I've heard nothing to change my snap appraisal of Israel's chances. On the other hand, I've read darned little on the subject which could be

THE FICTION CORNER

DAFFY ENOUGH By Richard H. Wilkinson. ONE DAY last spring a transcontinental air liner got off its beam over the Rocky mountains and smashed up against a rocky peak...

On an improvised sled, Glen pulled the injured man to the nearest town and doctor. Glen Orent not only received a reward, but he became, overnight, a figure of national reputation.

They days after this a man from Hollywood, Calif., arrived in Crest, looked up Glen and offered to pay him $500 a week to make a moving picture.

Glen smiled and shook his head. "Nope," he drawled, "I always wanted to be a legend-makish, and now with this reward money I reckon I got my chance."

"Good gosh, man, it will take 20 weeks to make this picture. That's $10,000. Do you realize that?"

"It's a lot of money," Glen agreed. "The next week three movie producers arrived on the scene. One of them offered a flat price of $25,000 for a single picture."

Leah Conroy was almost in tears. "Glen, for goodness' sake, try and understand what this means. In another month you'll be forgotten. It's your chance. Do you want to be a trapper all your life?"

"Thirty thousand!" said the movie magnate desperately. "Glen heaved a deep sigh. "O. K. If that's the way you want it, Leah!"

So Glen Owens went to Hollywood and made a moving picture. Glen returned to Crest, bearing his $30,000, and the next day he and Leah journeyed down into Arizona. Within a week they had purchased a ranch.

They were married in the ranch patio, and left immediately for a honeymoon to Honolulu. It was while they were on the boat that Leah asked the inevitable question. "Well, honey, it was like this: Glen replied, "That offer of $10,000 was good, but I needed $15,000 to buy a ranch of my own. So I figured it I turned down the first offer, folks would think I was daffy enough to make me more famous, and the movie folks would offer me more money. Which they did."

"Glen Owens, what is a leger—?" "I dunno," Glen grinned. "And I figured nobody else would, either. All I know is I'm a meticulous and once and copied if old boy's I'd be sure to get the spelling right in case I wanted to use it."
