WILDE 4-H CLUB REPORTS ON ACTIVITIES

The Wilde 4-H Club had an enrollment of 18 members who completed 26 projects. All records but one were handed in. On Achievement Day 13 of these projects received a blue ribbon and 6 were chosen as champions. Of 31 exhibits by the members at the school and Agricultural Fair so far, 11 received first prize and 18 got second prize. We had the highest attendance at the Fair so we received the $200 prize. The two boys carrying the beef cattle project showed their calves at the District Show in London. One of these boys was given a blue ribbon and a medal from Mr. Danforth. We had one exhibit at the State Fair. One of our girls attended 4-H Week at Lexington and two boys went to camp at London. We gave two demonstrations at Rally Day—one individual demonstration and one team. Both of these won and went to the District meeting. All food and clothing girls exhibited products they had made. Twenty blue ribbons were given these exhibits. We had an attendance of 17 at Rally Day. One of our girls was chosen as the most outstanding 4-H girl in the county and won the book I DARE YOU and a medal from Mr. Danforth. Each year we raise money to take a trip that is interesting and educational. We have been to the Cincinnati Zoo and the most outstanding places in Kentucky. This year we went to Mammoth Cave. Through the sale of Christmas cards, favoring magazines, and individual contributions we raised $73.90. We used all but $2.50 of this for the trip to Mammoth Cave. The parents as well as the members look forward to our trip from year to year. We are fortunate in having adult leaders who take an active interest in our club. We have an adult leader for each project. Our sewing leader worked hard and long with the girls. The results were shown by the many blue ribbons and medals received. The cooking leader also worked hard with the girls. The girls in first year cooking finished their projects with a breakfast which they prepared themselves. The girls in advance cooking gave a tea for their friends. The boys' leader helped the boys with their problems and encouraged them in their work. We have six members that have started bank accounts. Each member takes an active part in all church and community activities. They are always there first when anything needs to be done. We feel that our club has done a good job the past year but we want to make it better this year. We enjoy working together and having fun together. All of the meetings and activities were reported to the county paper for publication.

Opportunity Day Draws Big Crowd

The Court House Square was packed Saturday as residents from all over the county gathered for the climax of Mt. Vernon's first big Opportunity Day. The drawing was held at 2 p. m., with prizes won by the following:

Mrs. Eunice Miller, Alice McHargue, Mrs. Everett Mason, Mrs. Robert Smith, Jack Cromer, and Mrs. Lora Evans, five silver dollars each; Mrs. Shade Angel, a rooster; Mrs. Warren Carpenter, an electric iron, and Mrs. Lena Rash and R. H. Burgen subscriptions to the Mt. Vernon Signal.

The whole day was a big event, as citizens visited merchants sponsoring the Opportunity Day and fast old friends and made new ones. And it was only a start. Each Saturday hereafter, until further notice, will be Opportunity Day all over again, through the courtesy of the Mt. Vernon Boosters.

Mrs. Eliza Doan Dies After Year's Illness

The Sand Springs correspondent reports the death of Mrs. Eliza Doan, who passed away April 10 after a year's illness. Born March 17, 1878, she was two years, one month and 23 days old.

Mrs. Doan was the daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. George Bunck and made her home with her daughter, Mrs. Eugene Bradley. She was united in marriage to George L. Doan, for many years. To this union were born eight children, five of whom preceded their parents in death.

Mrs. Doan made a profession of faith in Christ early in life and became a member of the Walnut Grove Christian Church. The humble steps of life and love for others were a true mark of her union with Christ. She leaves to mourn her passing three children, Mrs. Lula Hansel of Mt. Vernon; two sons, Mr. and Mrs. Lamb of Calloway and Mrs. Green Stokes of Ager, Ky.; two brothers, Bob Bussell of Berea and George Bustie of East Bernstadt, 35 grand children and 42 great grandchildren as well as a host of other relatives and friends.

Mrs. Doan was loved and appreciated by all who knew her. We will miss her, but our loss is Heaven's gain.

Funeral services were conducted at the home of Eugene Bradley by Elder W. A. Stokes. Burial was in the family cemetery.

Barn Catches On Fire

Sparks from a trash fire in back of the Jimmy Bowling residence on Highway 150 at the back of the court house early Wednesday morning spread to a tree in the yard of Mrs. Lucy Ferguson's home, causing a blaze which took the Five Department several minutes to extinguish. The fire first spread along the fence, burning off dry brush, but Mrs. Bowling and the neighbors were able to put out the fence fire. Several firemen were needed to put out the blaze in the tree, but surrounding buildings were saved.

Krueger landed the plane at Lunken Airport, unaware of the mishap until after the plane was brought down. The wire had been clipped by the landing gear and caused an electric discharge which brought out firemen as safety measure.

TRUMAN AND MACARTHUR TALKED AT WAKE ISLAND

... but the result was only an uneasy truce...

RED ARMY SPEARHEADS THE MENACE OF COMMUNISM

... would MacArthur's policies have brought total war?

THE GREAT CONTROVERSY

History Shows That the Symptoms Underlying MacArthur's Dismissal Have Existed for Many Centuries

By W. P. SCHOENTGEN WNU Managing Editor

There is a kind of universality about Douglas MacArthur that communicates itself to many men...

priority of Asia, the bombing of Manchuria, the utilization of Chinese Nationalist forces...

Did President Truman take the right action but at the wrong time in relieving MacArthur of his multiple command?

It doesn't make any difference who you are — you undoubtedly have your own strong definite and perhaps impassioned answer to each of those questions...

General MacArthur's dismissal was a historic event...

Whether time and events will vindicate General MacArthur's ideas as fully as they have those of General Mitchell is anybody's guess.

One of the abiding characteristics of many powerful and successful military leaders in the past has been their capacity to capture the imagination and sympathy of the people...

Military Men's Drama That in itself is not unusual. It is, in point of fact, a fairly sound historical tradition...

General MacArthur follows vigorously in that tradition. It has been his destiny to lead this nation in smiling tyranny both right and left within the past decade...

Thus he has become a political symbol, having stood at the spearhead of America's often inept and stumbling but always intense desire for peace that patently will not be had for the asking...

Whether the principles he has advocated are right or wrong, it is MacArthur the symbol that has made Arthur the man, around which the very real, very basic foreign policy quarrel has gathered.

From that point of view, the MacArthur controversy is an old and elemental form of domestic strife that has occurred and recurred within this and that national community ever since man has been able to formulate and defend an opinion.

Without attempting to make any historical comparisons, a number of historic parallels to the MacArthur case become apparent from a quick glance at the records.

There is a superficial resemblance, for instance, between the firing of MacArthur by President Truman and Calvin Coolidge's dismissal of the late General "Billy" Mitchell for defying orders.

ROCKCASTLE FACTS and STORIES
By RALPH GRIFFIN

(Continued from last week) The three men arrested in Crab Orchard and later jailed in Mt. Vernon were Andy Cummins, James Smith and J. O. Gibbs. Still acting upon suspicion, Rockcastle officers decided to trace Kirk Kenk, who was known to be an associate of the three. He was located, arrested and brought to Mt. Vernon. Being told that the others had confessed, implicating him, Kenk is said to have turned State's evidence and to have admitted the crime which the quartet was accused. He further confessed to numerous crimes which he said they had committed over a period of years. Kenk was locked in the same jail but in a separate cell from the other men, for his protection.

The following morning a porter in Saunders' Hotel found a crumpled note which had been placed under his door. He took it to his employer, who found the note to read as follows: "Walter Saunders—Since when have you become sheriff of Rockcastle County, and what sort of hotel-keeper are you to arrest men who stop at your place? You killed my brother Bob and I haven't forgotten that. You put my sister's husband in jail. Now you'll have to square me. I intend to kill you the first chance I get. Jim." Saunders slowly tore the note to bits, as he recalled what he had been told in Mt. Vernon the previous day, that Andy Cummins was a brother-in-law of Bethurum's and that Jim now had a double score to settle. Being what was then known as a "game man", however, Saunders soon dismissed the whole matter from his mind. His recollection was refreshed the following night when a pistol barked outside his window and his arm was grazed by a bullet. An immediate search of the grounds failed to locate the unseen assailant. Saunders depicted the attack as cowardly and appeared to give it little thought. But within a short time messengers were despatched to various parts of Lincoln and Garrard counties and men began to gather at the Saunders Hotel. There was a great deal of drinking and carousing at the bar and a deal of denunciation of the "Bethurum Clan."

This went on until some time after dark, when a body of about a hundred armed men set out on horseback in a southeasterly direction with the fixed idea of avenging Saunders. The road which led to Mt. Vernon also led past the little mountain home where Jim Bethurum lived. When the party arrived there they found the cabin shrouded in darkness and there was no sound from within.

The men scattered and deployed to points of vantage, then a spokesman shouted for Bethurum to come out and surrender. No answer being received, Saunders himself approached the front door and forced it open with one heave from a powerful shoulder.

Instantly rifles blazed from three different points within the interior. Saunders was shot in the arm and a man by the name of Charley Burton was shot thru the heart and instantly killed. It was afterwards claimed that the rifles were handled by Jim Bethurum, his wife and a woman relative, and that the women handled the guns as expertly as any men.

During the excitement which ensued from the unexpected resistance, Bethurum escaped from the house into the surrounding woodland; no further attack was made upon his home. The body of Burton was left at a neighboring house by his companions and the now thoroughly aroused mob proceeded to the Mt. Vernon jail. Jailor James Croucher was aroused from sleep by a heavy hammering upon his door and a confusion of rough voices outside. As he afterwards testified, when he opened the door his astonished gaze fell upon a body of men numbering an estimated one hundred or twenty-five. All were masked and dressed in the robes commonly worn by the Ku Klux Klan. (It was later rumored that such was the case, the Saunders party having been joined by a number of local Klansmen.) Croucher was ordered to surrender the jail keys, which he refused to do until someone called for a rope. Preferring to risk being known as a live coward to the doubtful chance of being remembered as a dead hero, the jailer threw down his bunch of keys and ran.

The jail doors were speedily unlocked and Cummins, Gibbs, Smith and Kenk were seized and dragged from their cells. (To be continued)

How to REMODEL YOUR KITCHEN

Absolutely Free

Be sure to enter this unique "contest-within-a-contest" — co-sponsored by McCall's Magazine and Kentucky Utilities and Old Dominion Power Companies.

McCall's "My Kitchen" contest offers you two chances to win. Your entry may win a national prize in the McCall's contest. Then, regardless of whether or not you win a McCall's prize, your entry is automatically entered in the KU-OD contest.

Winner of first prize in the McCall's contest will have her kitchen remodeled, just as she planned it, absolutely free, and will receive $1,000 in cash besides.

Entries from the 78-county area served by KU and OD will be separated from other entries AFTER they have been judged in the national contest. These entries will then be judged to pick the winners in the KU-OD contest.

Housewives compete with housewives, professionals with professionals. You don't have to be an artist or interior decorator to win.

Here are the three easy steps to entering the "My Kitchen" contest:

- 1) Clip the coupon from McCall's, or pick one up from our nearest office. Mail it to McCall's for your complete official entry kit. Ask at our office, for our four helpful booklets on kitchen planning, lighting, and decorating.
- 2) When you get your official entry kit, follow the simple instructions for laying out your planned kitchen. Choose the appliances you've always wanted, plan the lighting, the decorations, the paneling.
- 3) Mail the completed entry to McCall's. Three competent judges will judge your entry. After the entries have been judged in the national contest, your entry will be set aside for re-judging in the KU-OD contest. If your entry is from one of the 78 counties served by KU or OD, you will be eligible for one of the big KU-OD prizes.

You will be eligible whether you are served by these companies, by the REA, or by others.
