Dairy Farmers Economic Problems

Dairy farms are the first line of the nation's defense. With government authorities asking for greater production as costs keep rising, dairy farms face a serious economic "squeeze." In the interest of national welfare the spotlight of public attention should be turned on the economic problems of the milk producer.
 "Dairy farmers operate on a small margin always," says Owen Richards, general manager of the American Dairy Association, "and milk production involves great risk and large investment. It involves greater hazards than most other businesses. Dairying faces the ordinary economic risks and uncertainties of the market and it is also subject to the natural calamities of drought, hail, floods, or disastrous snows. Come drought or high-water, cows must be milked daily and the milk marketed. The milk factory can't be switched off like an industrial plant or the fresh milk put in storage warehouses. "Costs of milk production have increased but the price of milk to the consumer is less than the 'all foods' averages. The price of labor has gone up. Expensive new machinery must be purchased if the milk supply is to be increased. The milk farmer is stretching the ends of his rope to make them meet. "As costs of milk production have sold cows or turned to beef raising which requires less care. Farmers are paying up to $325 for average milk cows, and more for mixed dairy feed. If milk prices had increased as much as wages in most sections milk would cost a lot more per quart.
 "Milk is vital to the national defense, health, wealth and security. If the dairy farmer is to be kept in business, his increased costs must be balanced by increased returns, just as in any other business. And if the nation needs an increased milk supply serious attention must be given to the economic situation of the dairy farmer."

LICENSES FORFEITED BY 5,652 STATE DRIVERS

The right to operate motor vehicles was forfeited by 5,652 Kentuckians during the first six months of 1952, according to a report made by the Department of Revenue today.

The report showed 2,268 driver licenses revoked and 3,384 suspended. Licenses are revoked for set periods of time under statutes that make forfeiting them mandatory. Suspensions may be lifted within the suspension period on proof of financial responsibility.

January was the largest month for both revocations and suspensions. During the month a total of 2,066 licenses were recalled, June was the lightest month with 985 persons losing licenses.

Among causes for license revocation are convictions for drunken driving, three charges of reckless driving, leaving the scene of an accident, manslaughter, a felony in connection with the operation of a motor vehicle, assault and battery with an automobile and perjury in connection with motor vehicle laws.

Licenses may be suspended for failure to file proof of financial responsibility, improper registration as a driver, improper application, an unsatisfied judgment and for habitual law violations.

HEALTH NEWS

The best way to combat one of nature's chief vacation spoilers—poison ivy—is to stay aplant, technically known as A. S. M. to 4:00 P. M.

Rhus, redicthas. That is the advice of the Kentucky State Department of Health.

However, if exposed to poison ivy or poison oak (which, like poison ivy causes an itching, burning blistery rash often accompanied by swelling) it is wise to bathe with a strong laundry soap. It is important not to touch tools or clothes that have been in contact with the plant. The sap can even be carried on shoes from the burning plants and by dogs and cats.

To determine treatment for poison ivy it is best to get the advice of your physician. To rid premises of poison ivy and poison oak plants, spray with a solution of 2,4-D or other weed killer available from hardware or general stores. Two or three applications usually are necessary to kill the plant entirely. Salt and kerosene may be used but they are less effective.

Tourist is Victim Of Accident on U. S. 150

Edward P. Browne of South Carolina dies of broken neck on U. S. 150 near farm home of M. G. Doan.

Edward P. Browne of Georgetown, S. C., lost his life in an automobile accident last Friday evening about 7:30 o'clock on U. S. Highway 150 west of Mt. Vernon. The tragedy occurred when the car in which he was riding left the road and turned over on its side. Mr. Browne received a broken neck and other bruises. Death was instantaneous. Mrs. Francis Cribbs, daughter of Mr. Browne received a broken neck and a broken left arm. Her two small children escaped unhurt.

The accident was caused when the car attempted to pass another car checked it. Mr. Browne pulled back and in his attempt to get into the lane behind the lip curb and lost control of the car with the resultant wreck.

Co's ambulance was summoned to take care of the injured and dead. Mrs. Cribbs was taken to the Stanford Hospital for medical care and the body of Mr. Browne was taken to Louisville for burial by the Owens Funeral Home of Louisville.

"These are your sons"

The gallantry and bravery of Pfc. David Monroe Smith of Livingston, a soldier who gave his life in the battle of Yongsan, Korea, was highlighted on the WLW program, "These Are Your Sons" at 8:45 p. m., EST, Saturday, July 19.

The program described how Pfc. Smith received a posthumous Medal of Honor, the nation's highest military honor, for smothering the explosion of an enemy grenade with his body during the fierce battle. He saved the life of five of his comrades.

A news article in the Mount Vernon Signal giving details of his brave actions was the inspiration for the notice given on the WLW program.

The broadcast is one of a series planned to show listeners of the Ohio Valley how their boys are playing in Korea.

Soil Conservation News

Clay A. Colson, Soil Conservation Service July 20th through 27th has been designated Soil Conservation District Week in Kentucky by the Governor's proclamation and County Judge C. Williams has issued a similar proclamation in Rockcastle County. Mr. Bradley Saylor chairman of the Supervisors' of the Soil Conservation District will be chairman of a meeting to which all farmers are invited to see what services are available to farmers in conservation. The meeting will be on Henry Brown's farm Friday, July 25 beginning at 9:30.

A number of farmers have shown interest in seedling fescue in standing corn. Mr. Ed Sanders has seeded about 19 acres of fescue in corn at the last cultivation. It is already coming up but due to the dry weather it is somewhat spotty. Colson Stephens says he is going to sow a field in the next few days and cover the seed with a mow herb. Several farmers have secured good stands of seedling in corn. However it leaves the ground very rough when the corn rows are not worked down and causes some difficulty in mowing weeds from the pasture in later years. Legumes should be seeded with all grasses for best results as pasture. Ladino Clover 1-2 lbs. per acre seeded now and 8-10 lbs. of Korean lespedza and 10 lbs. in the spring have given good results in pastures.

POLIO CASES

The children of Shirley Parsons of Wildie who became afflicted with polio several weeks ago are again at home and are improving. Ballard 11 was placed under an iron lung in the hospital at Lexington for several days returned home last week. The other child "Libby" 8 is also at home.

Thieves Break into Service Station

Thieves broke into Hopkins Standard Service Station on U. S. 150 just west of Mt. Vernon last Sunday night, and got away with considerable merchandise. The only money they found was 50c out of the self service Coca Cola machine.

The thieves drilled several holes through the wooden door that leads from the garage part into the main office. After breaking through the door they reached through the hole and opened the lock.

Mr. McCauley who operates the filling station has only been here for only a few months.

IN MEMORY

In memory of my mother, Ella Mae Scott who passed away June 5th 1952. Mother is so miss me since you went away. It is so loneliness here every day. Everything we look at reminds us of you. But we know you are happy up there in the blue. You taught us love, hope and faith. And there'll never be another place who can take your darling place. You lit up the house with your sweet smile. You made us happy for awhile. Our hearts are sad and broken into. In memory my darling mother of you: Some day when our journey is over, We'll all be happy in heaven once more. You said you were going to heaven to rest. We'll always trust in God the one you loved best;

Hitch Hikers Rob Tourist Near Boone Ky.

Farrel E. Andey of Indianapolis, Indiana, picked up two young hitch hikers on U. S. 25 near Lexington last Friday afternoon. When they reached Richmond, Mr. Andey wanted to stop for the night but the hitch hikers caused him to go on at least as far as Mount Vernon. So they traveled on. At some point south of Boone's Gap Mr. Andey heard a click as if from a revolver. "This is it," said one of the hitch hikers, and pointed a gun at Andey. Andey got so scared that he jumped out of the car and by accident rolled into a passing car. He later said he couldn't explain how it happened. Anyway he had a hard time explaining to the driver what it was all about, but soon made it clear that he was robbed. Andey and his new host rushed on to Berea Valley where they telephoned to the police officers at Mt. Vernon, who immediately went to the aid of the victim. Andey swore out a warrant for the arrest of the hitch hikers who he described as two young men, one blond and the other dark. Both seemed to know their way around in this territory.

Later the way of Mr. Andey was found abandoned not far from the scene of the hold up, it was undamaged. The car was taken to Berea where Mr. Andey picked it up the same night and drove on to Maryville, Tenn. No trace of the hold up men has been found.

Two Men make Jail Break Friday Night

Junior Sandusky and Ernest Henson break through two ceilings to make get-away

Baptist Association To Meet at Macedonia

The Baptist Association of Rockcastle County will hold its annual meeting at the Macedonia Church on the Scaffold. The break through was discovered by his son Charlie. It was approximately 7:30 o'clock in the evening. A young man whose name we could not learn had gone to get a drink of Coca Cola to give to the men in jail when he noticed their absence. Upon investigation it was found that the men had torn loose several four inch boards in the ceiling in the first cell next to the sidewalk. They then crawled through that hole into the cell above. Here they broke through the ceiling in the same manner. From there they broke through the ceiling just above the rear cell. This ceiling was a sheet of tin. They pushed this down and opened it far enough to crawl through it. They were then able to leap on the top of the rear cell. From the rear of the jail and then made their escape through the back door and down the stair way.

First Cases Of Polio

Mrs. Earl Hammons, Chairman of the Rockcastle County Chapter of the National Foundation for Infantile Paralysis today declared that the appearance of the first cases of polio in this county reemphasizes the need for observance of precautions contained in the 1952 Polio Pledge issued by the March of Dimes organization.

"Faithful following of these common-sense rules," the Chairman declared, "does not protect you from the Paralytic, but it does reduce the severity of attacks." During a polio outbreak, there are hundreds of "silent" carriers of the disease. These are people who have become infected with the polio virus but who are not sick.

But there are hundreds of borderline cases among men, women and children to whom the observance of these rules may make the difference between nonparalytic or sub-clinical polio and serious crippling. Mrs. Hammons said, "Basically, the Polio Pledge rules are:

Don't get overtired by hard play, exercise or travel. Don't get chilled by long baths or swims in cool water and don't sit around in wet clothes. Follow your doctor's advice about having mouth or throat operations. Their hands carefully before eating and always after using the toilet.

Should polio strike this county in full force, Mrs. Hammons declared, the local Chapter of the National Foundation for Infantile Paralysis is prepared to provide financial assistance to all of those needing such aid. The chapter has received $1500 from the National Foundation, for use in emergency aid. The local Chapter may be reached by contacting Mrs. Hammons.

Two men broke through two ceilings of the local jail last Friday night and made a clean get away and in this writing the men are still at large. The two men are Junior Sandusky and Ernest Henson. Walter Sowers stated that the first notice of the break through was discovered by his son Charlie. It was approximately 7:30 o'clock in the evening. A young man whose name we could not learn had gone to get a drink of Coca Cola to give to the men in jail when he noticed their absence. Upon investigation it was found that the men had torn loose several four inch boards in the ceiling in the first cell next to the sidewalk. They then crawled through that hole into the cell above. Here they broke through the ceiling in the same manner. From there they broke through the ceiling just above the rear cell. This ceiling was a sheet of tin. They pushed this down and opened it far enough to crawl through it. They were then able to leap on the top of the rear cell. From the rear of the jail and then made their escape through the back door and down the stair way.

Farm Labor Situation Serious

"The farm labor situation throughout the country is becoming more acute and serious," according to C. R. Schohy, President of the American Dairy Association. Mr. Schohy, an Iowa dairy farmer, says growing shortages of dairy farm workers and the heavy investment a dairy farm demands today leads him to wonder if the "can we get a quart of milk?" "Census figures show," Mr. Schohy declared, "that there were about 1,320,000 fewer people working on U. S. farms in 1950 than in 1940. "The decline of farm workers was caused largely by the decrease in the number of farm operators and family workers who are members of the operator's family, resulting from the decrease in the number of farms. There were approximately 500,000 fewer hired workers on farms in 1950 than in 1940. Expenditures for hired labor were 271 per cent greater than in 1932.

"The number of farms in the United States in 1950 was 498,000 less than in 1945 and 718,000 less than in 1940. The average size of farms increased from 174.0 acres in 1945 to 194.8 acres in 1946 and 210.5 acres in 1950. The percentage of farms operated by tenants declined from 38.7 in 1940 to 31.7 in 1945 and to 25.0 in 1950. "Displacement of about 3,500,000 American farm workers by 1970 as a result of labor-saving devices 'revolutionary in impact' is forecast in a recent study made public by a Senate committee." Mr. Schohy said that dairy farmers are using all possible mechanical devices to help them carry on their 865 day a year job of milk production. "Mass production of milk on the dairy farm is not sufficient to take up the loss of labor," he added, "and overcome gradual disappearance of the family type farm. During the five years from 1945 to 1950 there was a decline of 124,000 in farms of from 100 to 219 acres."
