"THERE'S plenty of reasons for not getting married right now," Brad said detestfully. "Name some," Lindsey demanded. "It was a funny sort of argument, this fit between Brad Parker and Yockey Hillery. They were sitting on the sofa in the living room of the Hillery home, and they were laughing the thing out in whispers. "Don't talk so loud or your mother'll hear you," Brad cautioned.

"You just tell me why we can't get married," Lindsey fired back, carefully lowering her voice to a whisper again. "Well, I just don't think it's the right time to get married, that's all," Brad stammered. "He hadn't begun with her to cry, and all of a sudden she was crying and she was doing a mighty good job of it, too."

"You're holding something back," she sobbed, burying her head in his shoulder. "Lindsey cautioned her again about her mother overhearing them, and when that failed, he tried kissing away the tears, but that didn't help either. Finally he said, "Let's slip off to a drive-in movie where we can be alone to talk."

"His suggestion seemed to bother Lindsey. She had a defiant look on her tear-stained face as she turned it to him. "No, I won't go to a drive-in movie with you. I didn't bring up this business about getting married. You started it, but I'm going to finish it. You say you love me, but I'm beginning to wonder. We'll decide this thing out right here and now."

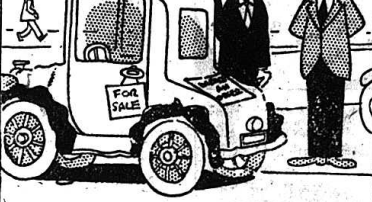

"All right, all right," Brad said, "but please keep your voice down. If you must know, I don't want to get married right now because of your mother."

Lindsey tried to understand the meaning of his words as she dabbed at her eyes. She was a pretty thing, even when her make-up was streaked with tiny rivers of tears. "You mean because you work for mother," she said, letting her voice drift off to a whisper again. "It's not what you think," Brad said. "I get along fine with your mother. She's got the best optical shop in town, and I learned everything I know about the business from her and your dad. It's just family."

RED HILL

There will be a revival meeting starting at Red Hill Baptist Church Sunday night, Sept. 21, with the Rev. Edd Davis of Lexington, Ky., as the preacher. Vernon Monday to see her mother, Mrs. Jane Anderkin.

LAFF OF THE WEEK

Bar Harbor Expects Non-Exclusive Future

BAR HARBOR on Maine's Mount Desert Island, once ranked with Newport as a fashionable summer resort, has surmounted a disastrous fire and is overcoming the current scarcity of millionaires as she builds for the future. Shrewd Yankee town fathers realize that 1,000 tourists, each with $50 to spend, equal one wealthy person with $50,000 in a handy check book. They have encouraged the building of modest vacation cabins on sites from which the great fire of October, 1947, erased glittering hotels and ornate mansions.

With Canada's help, Bar Harbor plans to establish a ferry service from Yarmouth, N.S., and, thus, in a reversal of the usual trend, attract Canadians of ordinary means down to this pine-encrusted Atlantic vacation place. Small sailboats and cruise ships for those who still pocketbooks have all but replaced great yachts that once sailed over the cool blue waters surrounding Mount Desert's rocky coast.

Newport's social pace was responsible for the millionaires' invasion of Mount Desert during the Gay Nineties. Seeking a quieter and more distant environment than was to be found in the Rhode Island resort, men of wealth built great homes to which they came in luxurious steamboats from Boston and New York.

In fjordlike Somes Sound which nearly cuts the island in two, Mount Desert has a scenic asset reminiscent of Norway. The Jackson Laboratory, destroyed in the fire but rebuilt, holds an enviable reputation for medical research. Gloucestermen fish famous redfish grounds twenty miles out in the North Atlantic.

Winters are cold, with snows so deep that year round residents dig tunnels from one house to another. Mount Desert's planners hope to capitalize on the cold by making their island a center for winter sports.

THREE LINKS

Farmers are very busy this week housing tobacco. This crop is much better than was predicted during the drought. Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Lewis from Tuscola, Ill., have been visiting here this week. Miss Mary Ann has just left for Dayton, O., where she plans to work. She will be with her aunt, Mrs. Travis Sparks.

SCAFFOLD CANE

Miss Rachel Cox was with home folks over the week-end. Mr. Dennis spent the week-end at Berea. Mrs. Della Bullens who has been visiting relatives in Miss. returned home Sunday.

Rev. Robert H. Harper
Deborah, Woman of Courage
Lesson: Judges 4: 1-10, 13-15; 5: 1-23
Golden Text: Joshua 1:9

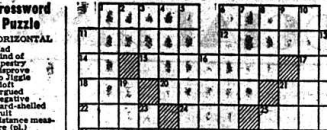

OUR lesson tells of the destruction of a great army of the Canaanites and the death of the mighty leader who had been accustomed to lead 800 chariots into battle against the Israelites at frequent and terrible intervals. Deborah, a judge of the Israelites, determined upon effective resistance. Exulting Barak, a strong warrior, a plan of battle was formed that caught Sisera and his army between two forces on the plain of Esdraelon.

Deborah, a prophetess and a judge in Israel, was a great poet and in her song of victory she spoke of the stars in their courses as fighting against Sisera. There came a torrent of rain upon the plain and bogged the chariots of Sisera down in mud. Sisera soon saw that his own life was in danger, and he jumped down out of a chariot and fled away on foot. At length he reached the home of a paid spy that he had employed to report at all times on the movements of the Israelites.

Sisera was not in the tent, but Sisera thought he could trust the spy's wife. So he turned in, and soon fell into a sleep of utter weariness, and he awoke from it in horror. For Jael drove a tent pin into the man's forehead and he died by the hand of a woman.

Mr. and Mrs. Richard Kates and family spent the week-end with their son and his family, Mr. and Mrs. Johnny Kates. There was preaching service at the Baptist Church Sunday, a young preacher from Berea conducted the meeting. A pastor or is very much needed at the place. Everyone should uphold him with their prayers and support.

Miss Rachel Cox was with home folks over the week-end. Mr. Dennis spent the week-end at Berea. Mrs. Della Bullens who has been visiting relatives in Miss. returned home Sunday.

ONE FAITH
By a Witness of Jehovah
Rose Jasper
There is one body and one spirit even as ye are called in one hope of your calling, one

Lord. One Faith, One Baptism, one God and Father of all who is above all and through all and in you all. (Eph. 4:4-6)
Jehovah is faithful by whom ye were called unto the fellowship of his Son Jesus Christ our Lord.
Now I beseech you brethren by the name of our Lord Jesus Christ that ye all speak the same thing and that there be no divisions among you but that ye be perfectly joined together in the same mind and in the same judgement. (1 Cor. 1:9-10)
Now the God of patience and consolation grant you to be like minded one toward another according to Christ Jesus. That ye may with one mind and one mouth glorify Jehovah even the Father of Our Lord Jesus

Christ. (Rom. 15: 5-6)
Jesus said, "My Father is greater than I" (St. Jn. 14:28)
"And my doctrine is not mine but His who sent me. (St. Jn. 7:16)
"What was that one doctrine Jesus spoke about?"
"It was the gospel or good news about the Kingdom of God His Father. (Mat. 4:23) (Mat. 24:14) (Luk. 9:12-23)
"Now why this doctrine?"
"Because Jesus said, "No man can come to me except the Father who sent me draws him and I will raise him up at the last day. It is written in the prophets, "And they all shall be taught of God. Every man therefore that has heard and learned of the Father comes unto me. (St. Jn. 6:44-45)
It is in this "gospel of the Kingdom" that we hear and learn of the Father and come to Jesus Christ as our Redeemer in faith and love for Paul says "I am not ashamed of the gospel of Christ for it is the power of God unto salvation to every one who believes. (Rom. 1:16-17)

Paul also said if this gospel is hid it is because Satan the god of the world has blinded men's eyes lest their glorious gospel of Christ who is the image of God should shine unto them. (2 Cor. 4:3-4)

Girl Cyclist Killed When Hit By Loaded Truck

Tragedy happens near Boone Gap Thursday afternoon on U. S. 25

Tragedy happened when little Betty Byrd, eleven year old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Wallace Byrd of near Boone's Gap was instantly killed last week.

Thursday at about 3:30 o'clock as she attempted to cross the highway in front of a heavily laden truck. The driver of the truck was Clarence Brock, 29, of near Wildie. Mrs. Marcus Reppert who operates the Gulf filling station just outside the city limits north on U. S. 25 had a rather surprising experience last Monday morning at about 9:30 o'clock when she sold two Ohio tourists a tank of gas. The two men were about thirty years of age, well dressed, and well mannered, drove a club coupe with a Ohio license. The men were hatless. They ordered four dollars worth of gas. Mrs. Reppert filled the tank, and while she was doing this one of the men went into the rest room, the other remained in the car. When the men were ready to take off and they had not yet paid for the gas, Mrs. Reppert asked for the pay. One of the men fiddled amongst the clothing in the back of the car as if trying to find the money, then suddenly turned on Mrs. Reppert and struck her on the chest with his elbow. The men then drove away towards Berea.

Hilton's Lake Under Construction Near Pine Hill

The dream pond of O. V. Hilton, located four miles south of Mt. Vernon on the old U. S. 25. The pictures show the location of the lake-to-be and the construction of the dam. The lake, when full will cover 18 acres of land on the J. W. Hilton farm. Some few months ago O. V. Hilton purchased 25 acres from this farm for the purpose of constructing a lake. A few weeks ago the dam was built by B. H. Parsons of Wildie. The dam is built of earth with a concrete core. The dam is 118 feet in length and has a spillway of 18 feet width and four feet high. The lake when full will be 25 feet deep at dam and will have a length of 1868 feet. Hilton's Branch feeds into the lake. This branch has a watershed of approximately 10,000 acres. This fall the State Fish and Game Commission will stock the lake with brim and next spring the lake will be stocked with bass. Mr. Hilton stated that the lake will be used for commercial purposes and will be open to the public. A good road will be built along side the lake so that it will be easily reached. Most of the lake is already next to the old U. S. 25. All the brush and most of the trees have been cleared out of the area. In the picture top row No. 1 is the dam from a short distance away, No. 2 is a closer view of the dam. The car on top of the dam gives an approximate idea of the size. No. 3 is the spillway.

VETERAN NEWS

The president today signed into law a new GI Bill for veterans who served in the armed forces any place in the world since the start of the Korean conflict on 6-27-50. The new law provides five benefits, all designed to assist veterans in their return to civilian life. Included are education and training, guaranteed or insured loans for home, farms, business, unemployment compensation, mustering out pay and job finding help.

The education and training processes allow a veteran one and one-half days of training for each day in service after the outbreak of the Korean fighting, regardless of where the service was performed up to a maximum of 36 months. However, veterans who have previously trained under earlier veterans' training laws, the World War II GI Bill or Public Laws 16 or 834 for the disabled, may get up to 48 months, minus whatever time they have already spent in training under those earlier programs.

A veteran may train in school or college, on the job or on the farm, so long as the school or training establishment has been approved by an appropriate state approving agency and meets other qualifications of the law. Only one change of course program is allowed, except under certain conditions determined by the Veterans Administration. Veterans in GI Bill training will receive an education and training allowance each month from the government, to meet part of the expense of their training and living costs. Tuition fees, books, supplies and equipment will not be paid by the government, instead they will have to be paid out of the monthly allowance. Rates for full time training in schools and colleges are $110 a month, if they have no dependents, $135 if they have one dependent and $180 if they have more than one dependent. Those in training less than full time will receive lower monthly rates. For monthly amounts for on the job trainees are $70 without dependents, $85 with one dependent and $100 with more than one dependent. The maximum for institutional on farm trainees are $95, $110, and $130, respectively. The law requires that on job and on farm rates may be reduced, at four month intervals as the training progresses and the veterans own earnings increase. The law also specifies that veterans taking institutional farm training must devote full time to their program. The new GI Bill places a $310 a month ceiling on job training, regardless of dependency status. Should a veteran's training allowance plus his earnings as a trainee exceed this VA will reduce the allowance accordingly. There is no ceiling on what he may earn. A veteran will get his monthly allowance some time after the end of each month of training completed. Before the VA can pay him, the law requires a certification that he was enrolled in and pursuing his course during that period. This new method of payment differs from procedures under previous training laws. Under earlier laws, VA paid tuition and other costs directly to the school and also provided veterans a monthly subsistence allowance. Although the new law takes effect today, no training period prior to August 29 allowances may be paid.

COL. WELCH NEW COMMANDER AT BLUE GRASS ORDNANCE

Col. Ray O. Welch arrived at Blue Grass Ordnance Depot today and assumed the duties of the Commanding Officer. Col. Welch has served for the last six and one-half years as Commanding Officer of Mt. Rainer Ordnance Depot at Tacoma, Washington.

He relieved Major Geoffrey J. Lynch, the depot Executive Officer, who has been serving as temporary Commanding Officer since the departure of Lt. Col. Ralph T. Mulvanity on the 25th of August.

Col. Welch was born in Virginia and spent his childhood and youth in Dighton, Kansas. He attended the University of Kansas and was graduated from West Point in the class of 1920. Following graduation, he was stationed at Fort Benning, Georgia and from 1923-1926 in Hawaii. In 1926-1927, he served a short tour of duty at Fort Eustis, Virginia.

From 1927 to 1934, Col. Welch was stationed at Fort-Knox Military Academy. He then served tours of duty at Wards, North York and the Holabird Motor Transportation School. From 1938 to 1942, the Colonel was stationed at Schofield Barracks in Hawaii.

At the outbreak of World War II, he served in Headquarters, Hawaiian Department, prior to being sent to Okinawa as Ordnance Officer. He left Okinawa at the end of the war and assumed command at Mt. Rainer Ordnance Depot in January 1946, which command he held until the present time.

The ladies were mitts to the elbows, carried parasols, and oh, the time spent bathing the face and hands in a mixture of sour milk and grated horseradish! Well, I rejoice now in a good healthy summer-tan.

From S. I. McGinnis, Colleen, W. Va.: I remember how happy my father and mother used to be sitting winter nights around a large wood fire with eight children huddled around it.

From E. E. Meredith, Fairmont, W. Va.: Every family use to save hop vines to the front yard or garden from which the hops were gathered to make yeast for bread, or puddings.

From Amelia Doctor, Denver: I remember when the floors in our house were so cold that the children had to sit around the stove and put their feet in the oven to keep them warm.

From Jack Cox, Larkspur, Cal.: I remember the first rifle I ever saw. I watched Granddaddy make it. He patterned it after the Kentucky muzzle loading squirrel rifle. I learned to shoot it when I was seven, but the barrel was too heavy so he cut off 18 inches. He and Dad would take his big wadches with him. They made a good meal for mother by saving off the end of a log and marking the four directions. He put a stick in the middle to throw a shadow on large nails for the hours and small nails for the half-hours.

Lamp Bulbs

Bulbs and Electricity are about the cheapest and most valuable things you can buy today.

Not many years ago the price of the average bulb was 40c each and electricity was 15c per kilowatt flat. That was in the day of 5c bread, 12c eggs, 11c gas, $15.00 suits and $360.00 Fords.

With these necessities doubled and tripled in price we find the average electric rate is 3c or less per kilowatt and the average bulb is 15c each.

For your eyes sake, keep a good supply of Bulbs on hand and use them freely. We carry a complete stock of G E BULBS and G E FLUORESCENT TUBES - The best that money can buy.

John Sherman Cooper To Start Campaign in Lexington Sept. 13

John Sherman Cooper of Somerset will launch his campaign to regain a seat in the United States Senate at a state-wide Republican rally Saturday night, Sept. 13, in Lexington. State Campaign Chairman Thurston B. Morton of Louisville announced today. Cooper's opening speech will be delivered in a setting familiar to farmers whose votes-ought to be considered today. He will speak in the Clay-Center Arena, a 600-seat air cooled stockyards amphitheatre where livestock sales are held each week-day.

A 14-station radio network, covering the state from Paducah in the west to Ashland, Pikeville and Harlan on the east, will carry the senatorial candidate's first message of the campaign. Supporters and volunteer workers unable to attend the rally in person are expected to gather in county campaign headquarters throughout the state to hear the broadcast.

The rally will open at 7:30 P. M. when the 30-minute state-wide radio broadcast will begin. Stations in the Cooper network are: WTLN, Lexington; WLAP, Lexington; WCMJ, Ashland; WLBB, Bowling Green; WLSW, Paducah; WMTM, Maysville; WOMI, Owensboro; WKYB, Paducah; WSPB, Paintsville; WPKE, Pikeville; WPCO, Somerset; WKIC, Hazard.

Cooper decided on Lexington for his campaign opening because that is the logical place for to start a crusade to renew in the minds of Kentucky farmers the farm-legislation achievements we worked out together during my earlier term in the senate.

Since he is the only Kentucky senator in recent years to write any farm legislation that became law, Cooper said he intended to emphasize in his opening campaign address how he has written and introduced legislation that gave new guarantees of better farm income.

During his earlier term, Cooper also wrote the legislation which appropriated $75,000 to development of new export markets for Kentucky farmers.

Cooper's speech will be the climax to a full day of campaign-opening activities for Republicans in Lexington on the mid-September Saturday.

The Kentucky contest was sponsored jointly by Kentucky Rural Electric Cooperative Corporation and the Tafel Electric and Supply Company of Louisville.

THE GARDEN

The first garden insect this year was the flea beetle on potatoes. It is also on the plants and in some instances, potatoes. It also played havoc with sowings of mustard and greens at their seedling stage.

Even in normal times, this insect is a serious pest, but when the vegetable plants are under the handicap of insufficient moisture, slowed up production resulted and sometimes outright crop failure.

HULLABALOO BY LITTLE HULL IT SELDOM PAYS TO CROW TOO soon The Democrats searched the district for a candidate to keep upon the behavior of the delegates at the Republican convention. The party opened their attack upon the south, they at the time being at least, turned an otherwise unexciting trial into a cheap spectacle. It was dirty politics at its triumphant best; it was the sort of politician this country may expect to see in the years to come. Incidentally the reputations of some of those who engaged this exhibition were definitely not enhanced. Few Americans admire a cheap sport.

It probably would not be an exaggeration to say that regardless of these conventions, 90 per cent of the American people would like to have an ACTUAL opportunity to select the man who is to stand for election to the presidency and vice presidency. It sounds all right to talk about priorities, but what a deadly just how much did you have to do with the selection of the nominees? Did you have any say in the selection of delegates made with another? Did you instruct your delegation to switch to some other candidate? Did you ever hear any of the names of the men who may some day succeed to the Presidency-Senators Nixon and Sprouner?

Under an emotional stress and excitement of these often hysterical meetings, nearly any sort of person could be nominated; and we the people who own this country should not be subjected to even the slightest risk of this sort.

This writer does not pretend to have any special talents. He will give to us citizens the right to choose our nominees; but there are many persons in politics who will do anything to improve the present undemocratic and unsound method.

We believe that a constitutional amendment is due to give to the people the actual right to select the men who are to be the heads of state would pass overwhelmingly.
