Livingston By Clara Griffin The StClair Plumbing and Heating Co. have just finished installing a new heating system in our school building, and when they got a few more radiators in, our heating headaches will be over. Sam Halcomb, the genial Sundry clerk, has just been put back on his old job at the coal bins. This job which employed several men closed some time ago, but due to the increased business of the L&N on the Louisville division it was reopened for one man. Mrs. R. C. Webb had improved enough following her plastic Surgery operation some time ago to spend Thanksgiving with Dr. and Mrs. W. O. Preston of Lexington. Jess Tom Pike and family of Atlanta, Ga, spent Thanksgiving with his father and mother Mr. and Mrs. Clell Pike. D. H. Bingham is local manager for the new strip mine coal Co. located on the lands of Walter Gilford and others. This is giving employment to several men locally and to Harrodsburg coal yard. We wish them much success.

Dr. Webb has just about completed the building of two dwelling houses south of Livingston, and one new business building and is now finishing the tearing down of the old Presbyterian church located at the north end of Town. Having settled with the right of way men on the new road it was necessary to remove the old church building, which we think was the first church ever built in Livingston. The age we do not know. O. D. McKinney is visiting friends in Cincinnati. Carl Jones, wife, and daughter spent Thanksgiving with O. V. Hilton and wife. Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Jones are the proud parents of a new baby girl.

Is Your Wife Exceeding the Load Limit? You'd probably be surprised to see your wife driving a truck down the street loaded with 13 tons of clothes—wouldn't you? That's the weight of the clothes the average housewife lifts every year doing the laundry. From washer to wringer, from tub to tub, to basket, to clothesline—it adds up to about 13 back-breaking tons a year. And it's all so unnecessary. Automatic electric laundry equipment—washer, dryer and ironer—do away with lifting and handling of hot, steamy, heavy clothes. It's just a half-step from the automatic washer to the automatic dryer. No more lugging heavy baskets upstairs and downstairs—indoors and outdoors—no more contending with the weather. Let automatic laundry equipment eliminate the laundry "load" in your home. Ask your dealer for a demonstration. KENTUCKY UTILITIES COMPANY Electricity Is Today's Biggest Bargain Philco Refrigerators, radios, T. RAMBLINGS

The Spirit of Christmas is already with us. On every hand one can see evidences of that mysterious influence. Stories are filled to the brim with every conceivable gift that someone may want to purchase for a friend or for some tiny tot. Newspapers are crowded with announcements from merchants. Christmas lights are already glittering through the night, lighting up the streets, and soon they will be bringing the Christmas cheer to every home.

To keep Christmas simple and at the same time beautiful is no longer easy. We have to a large extent commercialized the event of the nativity and instead of becoming the Glad Tidings, it has become one of extravaganzas, and to some a burden.

Why not keep the Christmas Spirit simple, cheerful and unselfish.

The new hospital for Rockcastle Co. is becoming a certainty. With the appointment of the building Committee, Judge Carl Williams has made the first and solid move towards the realization of a cherished dream. The men who are to look after the construction of this valuable building are men in whom the citizens of this county can place their confidence and trust, knowing that the work will be done well. These men are O. V. Hilton, E. E. Bullock and William Stewart. They have already secured an architect who will aid in making application for an additional federal grant, so that a better and larger hospital can be built.
