An Indian office, a cliff of yellow pine found on a cliff near Pineville, in 1869 is supposed to be the only thorough complex an undertaking, so filled with items whose overlooking of just one may wreck the whole, a garden needs planning just that much more. On the other hand, the rules of one may call them that are completely chartered for a warcful gardener to follow, to produce his vegetables at a profit of wages and toward of $3 an hour, making his garden a highly profitable enterprise, if it has been planned.

Planning a garden starts with listing the quart or more of vegetables to be canned or frozen for use during the winter, translating them into bushels to be produced then into feet of row and by aid of Circular 376 square feet occupied.

For the summer table produce an equal amount of space is needed, and for the vegetables that cannot be accurately calculated, half that again, arriving at the total space needed.

If it is found then that the garden is too small, and if no more space can be had, the gardener proceeds to give and take basing his garden on the essentials or his special favorites filling the surplus space with second string vegetables.

The vegetables that lend themselves to quite accurate planning are tomatoes, beans, sweet corn, onions, beets, carrots, whit potatoes and sweet potatoes. Starting with canned tomatoes it may be assumed that a quart is a family serving, and that they are served, once a week, November through June, 36 weeks, therefore requiring 72 quarts. For canning 15 quarts, a bushel of fresh fruit is required, a total of five bushels or 300 pounds. A well tended tomato plant should produce 20 pounds, so 15 plants are needed for the winter supply.

Adding an equal number for supplying the summer table and 10 more for some untoward circumstance, the total number of tomato plants becomes 40. Of these 15 could be Valiant or Break O' Day for extra early and the remainder 25 Rutgers

Wildlife News

To increase food and cover for game the Kentucky Department of Fish and Wildlife Resources will give Ispesceda bicolor, multicolor rose and other plants to interest farmers in Rockcastle County.

Multiflora rose will make an effective living fence in as little as three years, with proper care. It is about eight feet high and eight feet wide and does not spread into cultivated or grazed land. It requires no maintenance and is excellent for contour fences. To songbirds and small game it furnishes food and protection against enemies. Bicolor Ispesceda will produce enough seed on one eighth acre to winter a covey of quail. (One-fourth acre is better, especially during unfavorable years like 1952). Much of the seed will fall in January and February when other quail foods are scarce and covered with snow. Bicolor will not withstand grazing, but will grow on very poor soil, and along woods borders.

Other plants include black walnut, Russian olive, and Russian mulberry, which is a good post tree. Most of the plants will be distributed through the Brodhead Soil Conservation District and Mr. Clay Colson Soil Conservation Service Technician will advise farmers on where to make plantings and how to care for them. Mr. Irvin Smith-Conservation Officer for Rockcastle County and Fred Hardy District Biologist will deliver plants to individual farms or to a central location similar to fish deliveries. They will also advise farmers on where to make plantings and how to care for them, or on any other problems regarding wildlife.

E. H. Minnard of Harlan county estimates a damage of $5,000 to his timber land due to heavy snow.

Vandals Loot, Damage Two County High Schools

Schools at Brodhead and Livingston are broken into on same night apparently by same thieves. Damage to Brodhead School high.

Vandals broke into the Brodhead high school building last week Thursday night and damaged it to an amount estimated by Principal D. A. Robbins of $500.00 or more. Every door in the building was pried open with a heavy crow bar or the glass was broken out so that the thieves could reach in and unlock the door. Although the amount of cash taken from this school was small amounting to about $15.00, the damage done to the new doors and locks and windows was extensive. On the same night the thieves broke into the Livingston school and took all the money that had been collected for the Polio Fund as well as the money that the pupils had saved for some school pictures. Also some lunch money was taken. The total amount taken was approximately $200.00 at the Livingston school.

Billy Riddle Wins Trophies

Billy Riddle, son of Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Riddle of Brodhead and husband of Mrs. Carol Jean Riddle of Mount Vernon, is still making a name for himself as a basketball player. He was the champion of 1952 in the navy. Billy won the trophy as high scorer and also won the trophy for the outstanding player and team captain.

Many of the readers of the Signal will remember his outstanding record that he made with his high school at Brodhead in 1949. He won for him a scholarship for Eastern where he also made a record for his athletic prowess. Billy is now at Sangley Point in the Philippines where he is still continuing his playing. Sangley Point entered two teams in the Phil. Com. (AF) and 13th Airforce basketball tournament which was held at Clark Field on Jan. 20-Jan. 25. What the outcome of that tournament was we did not yet learn. Billy Riddle was one of the players-in the team.

Tax Payers Rockcastle County
The law requires that all tax payers come to the Tax Commissioners office and give in their tax list. Many have already done this for 1953. We only have to March first to finish this. Only about sixty days. If you have not listed your property drop in when you come to town. By law we are subject to 10 percent penalty if we fail to do this. Yours very truly,
S. E. Chandler, Tax Commissioner. 1613

Two Couples Captured After Brief Chase

David McCauley and Elmer Hopkins were responsible for the capture and arrest of two couples that attempted to steal some gas at the Hopkins Service Station last Saturday evening between seven and eight o'clock. Now in the county jail are two of the men James Hollifield and Thomas Rollins who claim to have come from Ohio and Tennessee but with no definite address. One of the men pleaded guilty, while the other is awaiting his time to appear before the grand jury which convenes in March. He could not fill his $500.00 bond. The two women with them at the time of their capture were released.

It was last Thursday night when the two men and two women made their appearance at the Sheriff's Station. They entered the rest room and then proceeded to make a careful survey. The operator of the station then had suspicion that it might be well to be on guard. They left the station for a few minutes with the intention of returning to see what the strangers might be up to. Hopkins and McCauley were just in time to see the men attempting to steal some gas. They had already broken the lock and had the hose on the ground ready to use. When the thieves noticed the approaching car they entered their convertible and fled north on route 150. Hopkins followed them and near the Hopkins Machine shop the thieves turned into a narrow lane, evidently hoping to put Hopkins off the track. But Hopkins noticed them turn in and he likewise turned in his car and thus blocked the entrance and kept the thieves from escaping. While Hopkins was giving chase McCauley had come up town in the hope of getting some police officers. No one being immediately available he rushed back and found the two couples. The thieves at bay. The thieves made no attempt to escape. They were seized but no weapons were found on them. They were taken to Mount Vernon and placed in jail where they now await grand jury action.

Nazarene Church Shows Healthy Growth

Substantial gains in every phase of international work of the Church of the Nazarenes were reflected in year-end statistics released today by Dr. S. T. Ludwig, general secretary of the denomination, which maintains its headquarters in Kansas City, Missouri.

Setting the pace of progress was the amount given by members for all purposes, nearly $30 million, or $117.97 per capita. This is $6.00 more than the per capita donations of the previous year. During 1952 membership climbed to 250,000, a gain of 3.3 per cent. The report also lists 3,888 established churches in the United States, Canada, and the British Isles, 151 of these being organized during the year. The Sunday-school organization showed even larger gains, reporting 521,030 enrolled. This is an increase of 4.3 per cent over last year and more than twice as many as listed for church membership. The church now has 262 missionaries and 950 native workers on 25 foreign fields. Fifty two of these missionaries were commissioned this past year.

Flames Destroy Residence

The home of Mrs. Katie Gadd located in the Clear Creek section of the county, near Dupont was completely razed to the ground by flames on Monday afternoon. Mrs. Gadd did not know of the fire until she returned home that night. She lost everything she had. It is believed that the fire started from an open fireplace.

The house was an old one of frame construction and the material was so inflammable that rescue work would have been impossible. The story of the fire was reported to us by John S. Gadd.

4-H CLUB NEWS

The Mount Vernon 4-H Club held its monthly meeting Wednesday Jan. 28. The first thing on the program for the evening was to pledge to the flag. Then followed the song, "The more we get together, the happier we'll be". The roll call was answered by each one telling their project for the year. The main subject for discussion was "Pest Control". Mrs. Hysinger gave everyone some seeds to sell and then said the one who sold the most would get a prize. At the close of the program more songs were sung.

Wildie Church Makes Extensive Improvements

Builds new rostrum and installs new tile floor over entire building.

Ralph Sigmon Candidate For Tax Commissioner

To the Republican voters of Rockcastle County, I wish to announce myself as a Republican Candidate for Tax Commissioner of Rockcastle County, Kentucky, this coming primary election, Aug. 1, 1953. I am 32 years of age, married and the father of one son, a veteran of World War II. Not being known by all of you people, I'm here to see you all before election. I am the minister of the church of Clunie Sigmon. I hope to see you all before election. Anything any of you people can do or say for me will be highly appreciated.

Thanks,
Ralph Sigmon
Mr. and Mrs. Charlie Anderson and daughter visited Mrs. Lucy Thompson Sunday.

The Wildie Christian Church has recently completed "some extensive improvements to the auditorium. A new rostrum has been built that reaches across the entire width of the church. Railings have been placed at the edge of the stage and green hangings will be placed on these as soon as possible. This will add much to the utility and beauty of the church, giving a larger platform for the minister and also make sufficient room for the choir. The floor is of a light tan color. The minister of the church is the Reverend E. C. Simon who has been serving the pastorate for the past two and one half years. He served there for two years as student supply while attending the Johnson Bible School in Tennessee and since last June has been serving as full time pastor. THE BIBLE SPEAKS

International Christian Society

BY DR. KENNETH J. FOREMAN

Scripture: Matthew 19
Devotional Reading: 1 Timothy 6:2-11

Poor Rich Man

Lesson for February 1, 1953

THE MAN had everything. He was young, he was in an executive position, he was vigorous, his health, he was respectable, he was very rich. And still he felt something missing. After all this what? What was there for him and beyond the pleasant and powerful life he was then living? He was spiritually sensitive, he could feel that all he had was still not quite the thing.

Camel and Needle

The man in the famous story (Matthew 19) never did get what he wanted, so far as we know. The reason is, he did not want it enough. The price was high: nothing less than everything he had, and his health was great. So he "went away sorrowful" and that is the last we see of him. What Jesus said as he watched him go has caused a great deal of discussion, both at the time and ever since according to Matthew. Jesus said that it is harder for a rich man to enter God's Kingdom than it is to have a camel to go through the eye of a needle's eye.

Dr. Foreman

All sorts of efforts have been made to show that Jesus could not possibly have meant this. The words translated "camel" and "needle's eye" could possibly mean something else, but they probably don't. We may as well face it. Jesus meant to say that the only way a camel could get through a needle's eye is by a miracle for a rich man to enter the Kingdom of God is as shocking in 20th century America as in first century Palestine.

Riches Are Risky

Actually there are many more warnings against wealth, in the Bible than against poverty. The "haves" are in more spiritual peril than the "have-nots." Why this is, can be shortly stated. A minister who had had many contacts among the super-rich of one of America's Gold Coast remarked to the writer that wealth makes the first generation hard, the second generation soft. The man of wealth may easily trust in his possessions and not in God, in short to make a god out of his own property. He may test right and wrong by what the effect is on his holdings.

Because his friends are mostly among other rich people, he is constantly tempted to habits, diversions, recreations, customs which are not Christian. Further, the possession of wealth tends to make the owner near-sighted, like the rich young ruler who turned his back on Jesus, he can neither see clearly his own best interest nor the needs of men and women in the shadowed ways of life.

Don't Be Ruined by Riches

Now it is not true that Jesus taught that all first-class Christians must be complete paupers. It is not true that Jesus taught that no one with property can be a Christian. It is not true that Jesus laid it down as a rule for all his followers that they must give away everything they have. One of his best-loved disciples was John, who owned a home of his own. We can recall Lydia and Barnabas among the early Christians; we can call to mind Christians who have served God and their fellow-men with their money. When a doctor tells a patient he must get rid of his appendix, he is not telling the all healthy persons must do the same. But when an appendix is a danger out it must come. Now wealth may be a danger, a source of moral infection. The one best way to keep from the dangers of possessions (and these begin as soon as we have as much as one surplus dime) is to learn to think of them, and to use them, as a trust from God.

To be Christian in the earning and acquiring of what we have; to be Christian in the using of it; to spend what we have as if Christ were spending it; to remember that of him to whom much is given, much shall be required; to regard that we own as so much opportunity for doing good, instead of so much insurance against hardships; this calls for the grace of God.
