Mechanical Pump Aids Heart Surgery

Performs Work of Heart While Surgeons Operate

The pump shown here in action is an artificial heart. Made of stainless steel plates and rubber, it takes over the function of pumping blood to the body during heart surgery. The heart is temporarily replaced by a pump which is bypassed around it. This is a great advantage to the surgeon since it permits him to open and operate on the almost bloodless heart by direct vision. If the mechanical heart is not used, he must depend on sense of touch alone. The development of the mechanical heart marks another milestone in the forward march of surgery which has advanced rapidly since the first successful heart operation only 15 years ago.

Contributions to the Heart Fund will help support the kind of scientific research that made this mechanical heart possible. Gifts to the Heart Fund can be sent to your "Heart" section or to "Heart, care of Post Office."

HUMMEL

Maxwell D. Taylor as commander of the Eighth Army in Korea by President Eisenhower.

Gen. James A. Van Fleet was not a surprise to Washington observers. Van Fleet had been mentioned during the presidential campaign, upon a letter he wrote to his wife which was quoted by the President in a campaign speech, that he planned to retire from active duty when he became eligible. His retirement date was extended to March 31 by Secretary of the Army Frank Pace.

President Eisenhower said Van Fleet was probably the best qualified combat officer in the armed forces. He added he regretted that the "passing of time, and time again," has resulted in the loss of Van Fleet's services in Korea.

Van Fleet is retiring almost two years after he took over command in Korea—the assurance that earned him the rank of four stars followed the recall of General Douglas MacArthur as supreme commander in the Far East.

Although Van Fleet is retiring, he is to be called back into uniform by the President. In this connection, there is considerable speculation in Washington that Eisenhower might promote him to chief of staff.

The reorganization of federal government bureaus and agencies is a low number, but is growing in volume every day. In the Department of Agriculture, for instance, of major concern to most small growers of the nation, the process has begun.

Secretary Benson announced the regrouping of the department's 29 agencies in a move for greater operating efficiency. Instead of 20 there are now four.

The major result of the regrouping will be to reduce the operating scope of the Production and Marketing Administration which was the dominant agency in the department. The action leaves an unanswered question of great importance: What will the new administration do about the system of farm "committees" that was established to help administer farm programs?

Observers paid particular note to this part of Benson's announcement that said he expected employees of the department to give a full "day's work for a day's pay."

Two men, much in the news, opened offices as Cabinet look over the control of the federal government. One was private citizen Harry Truman who opened an office in Kansas City. It was thought that he felt like a cowboy, hog in the big city and added he had plenty of work to do, but did not indicate its nature.

The other was Adlai E. Stevenson who opened an office in Chicago. He too is now private citizen Stevenson. His activities will include completing a book now in progress, a journey to the Far East and Middle East, and last but not least the role of "constructive opposition" to the Eisenhower administration.

Charles E. Wilson made the biggest financial sacrifice in the nation's history to become a public servant. By selling his General Motors stock he will pay between $500,000 and $600,000 in capital-gains taxes. In addition he will sell 1,900 shares of G. M. stock which he would receive during the next three years as part of his retirement plan. Besides the capital-gains taxes Wilson will lose thousands of dollars in income that his stock was earning.

Shopping For AUTOMOBILE Insurance???

See G. W. Murphy, at Circuit Court Clerk's Office, Court House, Mt. Vernon, Ky. You can save the difference between $55.00 and $27.40 which is $31.60 per year, on PD and Liability Insurance on $5,000. Prop. Damage, up to $20,000 on Liability, this also includes Hospital expenses and in case of death up to $500.00 each person in the insured car. A farmer can get the same as above for $22.00 per year. I can save you much money on your insurance when buying a new car, say on a Plymouth 4 dr. Cambridge full coverage with $50.00 Ded. fire $10.00 per year, on Ford's Chev. etc. On 1953 Dodge Comet, $10.88, why pay so much for your insurance, just because the Finance Co. says we'll carry your insurance for you. My advise is borrow the money from your Bank, get your insurance from Murphy, and make your loan safe by Mortgage on your car to the Bank, and in your policy the Bank will be protected for the equity they have in their loan to you. I represent the largest Automobile Insurance Company in the world.

NEVER before has radio been bigger, more ubiquitous, more effective than today. Today it is everywhere, pursuing its long established role of entertaining and informing; of helping people understand the world they live in.

Radio, 106 million sets, is in the kitchens, bedrooms, living rooms and on the lawn. It is in 27 million automobiles and trucks. It makes itself heard on weekdays in thousands of workshops, and provides the leisure of millions more at the beaches and alongside the picnic baskets out of doors.

Radio is comedy, drama, music, sports, news, public affairs, talks, discussions, science and literature.

Radio is a metronome which marks the rhythm of American life in the day's activities and activities. And its audience listens not through mere habit, but by conscious preference. Significant indications of the industry's soundness and vigor were to be seen in the following: CBS Radio Network starts 1953 with 44 stations, 10 more than at the beginning of 1952.

The number of FM stations, 93, remains unchanged.

There are more sponsored programs than ever before.

RADIO MARCHES ON

Radio set production during the year totaled an estimated 10 million sets and researchers predict the nation now has 43,850,000 radio homes, or 1.1 million more than in January 1952.

That virtually every home in the United States has at least one radio set. During the 15 months between October 1951 and October 1952 evening radio listening in TV homes of the 18 leading TV cities has increased 13 per cent, according to a survey conducted by Tele-pulse.

New York is the city that has had the most television in the longest time, seven channels having been activated over a three-year period.

25 YEARS

25 Years is a long time in the life of a tractor. Yet, right here in Rockcastle County you will find many International tractors that have been serving faithfully and well for 25, 30 and even 35 years.

After all these years the paint may be worn off, the fenders crumpled or gone and its outward appearance not too impressive. But it still remains the owners pride and joy.

If you divide the cost of an International (Farmall) tractor outfit by the number of long trouble-free years it will serve, you will be surprised at just how little it will cost you.

You can buy a new International tractor fully equipped, a plow, a disk harrow, a cultivator and a mower all for as little as $1358.

Hog House on Skids

MOVABLE hog houses can be inexpensively built right in the farm workshop. One that has been popular is the individual house. For easy moving, the units are built on skids.

A sturdy-constructed hog house will last a long time, despite frequent changes of location. The one pictured is of this type, its lumber framework is covered with Masonite quarter-inch Tempered Presdwood, an all-wood panel that defies wear and weather.

Hog houses like this provide for effective sanitation and disease control when they are kept clean and moved periodically to clean areas or placed next to a concrete feeding platform.

A working drawing for the construction of either a single unit six feet long or the double one of twice that length may be obtained by writing Farm Service Bureau, Suite 2039, 111 West Washington St., Chicago 2, Ill., and requesting free plan No. AF7-123. The bureau also has several other plans available for easily-built hog houses and other farm structures. All are free.

for MORE PROFITS to DAIRYMEN!

Recognized nutritionists repeatedly stress the importance of bulk, the importance of minerals and of molasses in dairy feeds. All three of these factors are included in Tuxedo Dairy Feeds in their new form, in which over one-third of the feed is in the form of pellets.

The pellets in Tuxedo Dairy contain all of the fine ingredients possible to incorporate in them, including the common and trace minerals. Pellets increase the bulk and give the feed a rougher texture. They also prevent the sifting of fine ingredients to the bottom of the feed box and loss of any essential ingredients. The use of crimped oats instead of ground oats also adds to the bulk of the new Tuxedo Dairy Feed. Palatability is increased, as molasses is included in the pellets as well as for coating the feed.

Ask for the new Tuxedo Dairy containing pellets, and watch your milk checks climb.

Man Takes Own Life On Old U. S. 25

Money Trot Cummins of Withers is found dead on old U. S. 25 near Mt. Vernon of self inflicted wound

Money Trot Cummins, 44, was found dead early Tuesday morning on the old U. S. 25 road just beyond Mount Vernon in front of Tom Hansel's place. According to a verdict from the coroner, W. L. Lively, Mr. Cummins died of a self-inflicted wound made by a .38 special. The weapon was being close to the head letting the pistol fire at close range. Death was instantaneous.

Cummins was alone when the tragedy occurred. He was apparently walking south on the old road and stood near the middle of the highway when he fired the shot. Mrs. Tom Hansel heard the shot and immediately looked out of the door of their cottage and saw the body of a man slumped on the road. They rushed out and notified sheriff Arthur Payne who, in company with Police-Clifford Pittman, went to the scene of the tragedy. They found Cummins lying in the middle of the road, his pistol at his feet and his head in a pool of blood. The body was taken over to the Cox Funeral Home by the ambulance.

Mr. Cummins was the son of W. L. Withers where he was a farmer and a trucker. For some time Cummins had not been seen and was reported to have been the victim of intoxicating liquor which may have been one reason for his rash deed.

It is reported that last Saturday he lost his truck through a wreck.

Mr. Cummins is survived by his widow and eleven children. His wife is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. F. Mink of Withers. The surviving children are Money Edward with the paint gang of the L. & N., J. D., a bridge carpenter with the L. & N., Henry Fortner in the army now stationed in France, Mrs. Vivian Saylor of Stanfords, Verna with the paint gang of the L. & N., Elsie, Garland Lulu Marie, Nancy Catherine, Linda and Ruby. All are at home. Four brothers and two sisters also survive. They are Clويد in the Veterans Hospital in Dayton, Mary Frances Doybarger, Hamilton, O., Elizabeth Wheeler of Hamilton, O., Sam of Withers, Burdette with bridge gang of L. & N., and Roy of Hamilton, O. His mother and father, J. H. and Margaret Cummins of Withers also survive.

Vernon and Delmas R. Sowder of Bristol, Tenn., Sarah Hoskin of Seitz, Wash., and Mattie Seales of Rockcastle County. She also leaves five grand children and her sisters and brothers: Mrs. Ellen Brown of Rubank, Ky., Mrs. Bessie Cummins of Wabed, Mrs. Asher Cummins and W. D. Payne both of Mt. WINS $25.00 WAR BOND

Judy Gaines, seventh grade student of Ft. Thomas, Ky., won a $25.00 war bond for writing the winning essay on "Soil Conservation" in Campbell Co. Miss Gaines was a former pupil of Broedhead Graded school. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John I. Gaines who are former residents of Broedhead.

Twenty-one members of the Rockcastle Co. U. S. Advisory committee, appointed by the governor state, met for their first meeting at the office of Mrs. Neuraal Miracle to discuss the educational needs and problems of Rockcastle County. A long questionnaire, listing at least 37 questions which the state department of education state to the members of the committee for study and action, was discussed.

Every one of these questions were taken up separately and voted on. On some of the questions there was a division of opinion but in the majority of questions there was agreement.

Some of the leading problems taken up and on which there was much attention given was that of lack of proper school facilities and inadequate pay for qualified teachers. Today Rockcastle County has over 70 rural schools. Most of these are one-room buildings with one teacher. There are a few two-room schools where more than one teacher is employed. Because of poor roads and poor transportation for school children these one room schools are being continued.

The committee believed that a better opportunity should be given to these rural children and let them have the same opportunities that the children of the consolidated schools are privileged to have.

Today the average salary of the school teacher in the rural districts is approximately $18.00 per year. This is less than the garbage collector makes in the city of Louisville.

On Wednesday morning Mrs. Miracle and another member of the committee went to Louisville to attend a special education conference held there.

Those present at the first meeting here at Mt. Vernon included Neuraal Miracle, Clell Pike, Dr. R. G. Webb, Henry Brantley Bradley, Mrs. Mrs. Bill Stewart, Nathan Mullins, Bulah Stewart, Daisy Swinford, Oscar Barnett, Henry Brown, Roy Brown, James Lambert, John L. Saylor, Prof. Pat Wear, D. A. Robbins, James Baker, L. B. Elder, Everett Watson, W. P. Wright, Edna Peters.

The officers for the year were also elected at this first meeting. James Lambert is chairman, Henry Brown vice-chairman, Melinda Randolph secretary and Mrs. Neuraal Miracle, assistant secretary.

The next meeting is to be held on March first and will be announced and will probably be held on a Thursday evening.

Red Fox On Top of Roof

A big red fox was seen on the roof of the home of Mrs. and Mrs. Emmett Mullins last week near Withers. Mrs. Mullins was preparing a steak dinner and she heard a peculiar sound on the roof. When she went out to make a survey she saw the beautiful red fox playing on the roof top. Mrs. Mullins then quickly slipped to the barn to tell her husband but by the time Mr. Mullins was able to get the gun, the fox had scampered away into the woods. The fox got on the top of the roof by leaping from the outdoor cellar which is built into the side of the hill, to the top of the residence which is practically on the same level and only a few feet removed. The fox could easily leap across the gap.

Mrs. J. M. Coffey is still on the sick list.

Tax Payers Rockcastle County
The law requires that all tax payers come to the tax commissioners office and give in their tax list. Many have already done this for 1953. We only have to March first to finish this. Only about sixty taxpayers. If you have not listed your property drop in when you come to town.

By law we are subject to 10 percent penalty if we fail to do this.
Yours very truly,
S. E. Chandlee, Tax Commissioner. 1613

LAFF OF THE WEEK

"You've probably been led to believe this is a man's world, Gerald—but now I'm going to prove it isn't."

DESTINATION OF WICKED

By a Witness of Jehovah

Rose Jasper writes: Last week we found that the penalty for sin is death and the way to eternal life was through Jesus Christ Our Lord. (Rom. 6:23)

We also found that Jehovah sentenced Adam back to the dust of the earth from where he was taken. (Gen. 3:19)

Adam was not deceived. (1 Tim. 2:14) Would we not receive the same sentence seeing that God is no respecter of persons? (Acts 10:34)

Jehovah said to Daniel, "The wise shall understand but the foolish shall never understand." (Dan. 12:10)

Now why divide? Those who really are approved into God will rightly divide it. The Bible is written not only literally but figuratively, symbolically and in parables and without a parable spoken he is not to them. (Mat. 13:34)

A parable is a symbolic statement picturing some reality. When the apostles asked Jesus why he spoke in parables, what did Jesus answer them? "I speak unto them in parables because they seeing see not and hearing, they hear not, neither do they understand." (Matt. 13:10-13)

Now symbolically speaking, God calls the second death a lake of fire burning with brimstone. (Rev. 21:8)

Why? Because this is the death they die without the hope of life through Christ's sacrifice, falling under Jesus' wrath as it is written: "He who believes the Son has life and he who does not believe the Son will not see life but the Wrath of God abides on him. (St. Jn. 3:36)

For our God is a consuming fire and as a consuming fire he will utterly consume the wicked forever and ever. (Heb. 12:2)

He also will cast death and hell into the symbolic lake of fire. (Rev. 20:14) or second death. Death and hell are conditions and could never be cast into a literal lake of fire. And why cast Hell into Hell. God explains the matter himself.

"Behold my anger shall be kindled against you and I will burn you and cast you into the fire that shall burn and not be quenched." (Deut. 32:4)

"Ye have kindled a fire in mine anger which shall burn forever." (Deut. 17:4)

"Ye have kindled a fire in mine anger which shall burn forever." (Deut. 17:4)

"Behold my anger shall be kindled against you and I will burn you and cast you into the fire that shall burn and not be quenched." (Deut. 32:4)

"Ye have kindled a fire in mine anger which shall burn forever." (Deut. 17:4)

"Ye have kindled a fire in mine anger which shall burn forever." (Deut. 17:4)

"Ye have kindled a fire in mine anger which shall burn forever." (Deut. 17:4)

"Ye have kindled a fire in mine anger which shall burn forever." (Deut. 17:4)

"Ye have kindled a fire in mine anger which shall burn forever." (Deut. 17:4)

"Ye have kindled a fire in mine anger which shall burn forever." (Deut. 17:4)

"Ye have kindled a fire in mine anger which shall burn forever." (Deut. 17:4)

befall Great Babylon in these last days and all who have not the seal of God in their foreheads. (Rev. 9:4) (Rev. 18)

They will do not receive the love of the truth when they have had ample opportunity shall be cast into outer darkness concerning Jehovah's purposes through Christ Jesus and there shall be weeping and gnashing of teeth. (Mat. 25:30)

Because they received not the love of the truth that they might be saved the truth will become a torment to them as it is written, "These two prophets tormented those who dwell on the earth." (2 Thos. 2:10-12) (Rev. 11:10)

The devil at the present time is in a tormented condition because Christ Jesus has cast him from his stronghold in heaven and has cast him into the earth. (Rev. 13:12)

The Devil sees his challenge made to God defeated and he brings woes on mankind. The Devil made brags that he would build his throne above the stars of Jehovah and that he would be like the Most High Yet Jehovah says, "You shall be brought down to hell to the sides of the pit." (Isa. 14:12-15)

So out of Jehovah's favor and in outer darkness concerning Jehovah's Kingdom under Christ weeping and wailing over the plagues that befall Great Babylon there is being prepared the instruments of death by Jehovah that will completely annihilate the wicked once and for all time. (Psa. 7:11-13)

The Bible indicates one of his instruments will be literal fire. And as Malachi says, "They shall be ashes under the soles of the righteous." (Mal. 4:3)

There is reserved for the plagues that befall Great Babylon forever. (Jude 1:13) out of Gods favor. Imperfect creatures would not torture a mad dog eternally so why should we accuse God of eternally and forever torturing humans. God is love. (1 Jn. 4:16)

And as he said, "I set before you death and life, choose life that thou and thy seed may live." (Deut. 30:19)

ness, sin-and-death. Isn't it a pearl of great price? Is anything we have in this sinful world of sorrow worth as much to us. Even multitudes of our dead raised to life again. Study your Bible. (Psa. 96:10) (2 Pet. 3:13) Choose life and receive the many blessings that shall come. Jehovah has no pleasure in the death of the wicked. (Ezek. 18:31-32)
