Lenville Ball Wins First At Amateur Contest

The winner at the Amateur Contest at Renfro Valley held there last Friday evening was a lad from Morgan County by the name Lenville Ball whose vocal demonstration made the biggest appeal to the listeners. The prize was $50.00. The second place went to Colman Cornelison and son from Richmond who played the electric guitar and violin. Their prize money was $25.00. Third place was the Harmony Four of Science Hill, Kentucky. They were a vocal quartet. Their prize money was $10. Other contestants included: Donald Harper, Brodhead; Bobby Speer, Mt. Vernon; Edolph Thomas, Bloomfield; Jimmie Case, Bardstown; Edith Jennings, Berea; Paris Decker, Lockland; O. Jeanne Roberts, Valley Oak; Charlie Young and daughters Doris and Ann, Stanford; Ernest Helton, Brodhead; David A. Vernon; Bradford; Helen Jean Vaughn; Bradford; Boyd Van Winkle, Clover Bottom; Jack McNew, Berea; Mrs. John Anderkin and two sons; Berea; La Lane Lock Cincinnati; Teen-age Trio, Berea; and L. A. Renner Sand Springs.

The contest was sponsored by the Ves Brown Post of Mt. Vernon for the purpose of establishing a fund to erect a building for the Post. The Post plans to make this an annual event. Clyde Linnville, superintendent of the Mount Vernon Schools acted as master of ceremonies and John Lair of Renfro Valley supervised the final judging of the contest. Decision as to who was the winner was made by the amount of applause the person received. In several instances it was difficult to tell who received the most applause. Persons were placed on the stage in groups and in that manner elimination of the various contestants was more easily accomplished. This process had to be repeated several times before final decision was reached. The winners are later to appear on the Renfro Valley Barn Dance floor. One profitable result of the contest was the opportunity for the Creek Gulley Jumpers of which Carl Deatherage is manager, to appear on the floor at Renfro Valley last Saturday night. These dancers are to appear again later at a trial.

Effort To Vaccinate All Dogs In County

State Health officer meets with group to lay plans to combat rabies in County

Dr. Leslie W. Rowles from the State Health Department was in Mount Vernon last week in the interest of the rabies epidemic that has been prevalent in this and the surrounding counties. At a meeting held last Thursday in the office of Dr. Walker Owens, plans were laid to make a complete vaccinating tour of the county and give every dog owner the opportunity to have his dog vaccinated. Dr. Rowles is an authority on rabies and at his suggestion this six-day tour is being made. Seven counties in this part of the state are considered the "hot spot" of rabies. The counties beside Rockcastle County are Jackson, Lee, Owsley Clay and Knox.

A few weeks ago an attempt was made to vaccinate the dogs of this county, but only about 300 dogs got the vaccine. That was only a fraction of the entire dog population. It is therefore necessary to make as complete a vaccination of the dogs as possible. Seventeen cases have been reported in this county. It is hoped that everyone will cooperate and help eradicate this disease.

Looking Ahead

A Major National Problem

Washington Did you get a grant-in-aid check from Uncle Sam last year? The chances are you didn't. The chances are you paid a healthy slice of your income to the Federal government in taxes and received no grant of any kind. But in your state there was some Federal money paid, in subsidies, veterans benefits, welfare assistance old age payments, and to the Federal government for highway construction, hydro - electric dams, etc.

The trouble is that for every $100 you and the people of your state sent to Washington in taxes, only $6.52 (on the average) came back. This would not be bad if that weren't so many billions going to Washington and if the amount sent in us sends in to Uncle Sam comes, it is almost impossible to estimate local taxes to adequately operate the essential services of our own state and local governments.

Run To Washington

That's, true all over America. We're being drained of our taxpaying potential by Washington. And thus we're tempted more and more to run to Washington for the performance of services we should be doing for ourselves as individuals or through our local governments. The more we do this the more centralized our government becomes, the more power is centralized and the less freedom we have.

President Eisenhower clearly recognizes this danger and he is determined to do something about it. The President wants to turn the trend from centralized government. He has just asked Congress to create a commission to thoroughly study the present abnormal relationship between Federal, state and local governments as regards responsibilities, tax sources and grant in aid. He told Congress the present situation is a major national problem.

The Biggest Threat

His message to Congress was but a restatement of his declaration made three years ago while President of Columbia University and when he apparently had no thought of running for the presidency.

"I firmly believe," he said at that time, "that the army of people in America urging greater and greater centralization of government and greater dependence upon the federal treasury constitute a greater threat to this government than any combination of foreign forces that may be arrayed against us."

It has been by privilege recently to work with a national organization dedicated to eliminating this trend by stimulating self reliance at the grass-roots and thus cutting down on centralized government. The organization is The National Council for Community Improvement. Its chairman is J. C. Penney, the name of the department store chain bearing his name. He is one of America's outstanding citizens. As a member of the Council's board of directors, I spoke on the platform with Mr. Penney at the Council's recent annual meeting in St. Louis, and again at New Orleans at a regional meeting.

Rebirth Needed

In his speeches, Mr. Penney warned against the "slow but steady invasion of the states by the federal government, accomplished first by seizing sources of taxation traditionally held by the states and local communities, then by handing back part of the money in grants in aid. The effect," he said "is substantially to put the states on a federal dole with resultant steady loss of sovereignty." The Council contends that federal economy must begin at home.

In his formal objectives are: (1) To encourage more responsibility and self-reliance in local communities and the states; (2) to check the tide toward centralization of power in the federal government; (3) to reduce pressure upon Congress exerted by communities to obtain Federal aid for local improvement projects; and (4) to urge greater economy in government spending. In his announced policies and in recommending action of a commission to study the Federal State local division of tax sources and responsibilities. President Eisenhower recognizes the problem. Its root cause can only be removed, however by a rebirth of the great American spirit of self reliance - from the grass roots up!

Funeral services were held Wednesday at the Mount Vernon Baptist Church at 2 o'clock with the Reverends Howard Ray, C. H. Philbeck and George Murphy officiating.

Crops should be good this year. Some grain is already beginning to head and harvest ought to be early. Gardens are looking fine, especially here in Mount Vernon where the lime soil is so friable and warm.

These times of high cost of living, everyone should grow a garden, not only for pleasure but also for economy. A little sunshine for the person who has to sit at his desk all day or who spends his time with formaldehyde is of paramount importance.

Not very far from Mount Vernon is a fisherman's paradise. At least so they say. I mean Cumberland Lake. I was there one time and tried my best to catch a fish. I haven't tried it since. The trouble was that I didn't even get a nibble. Of course they were different. The Rev. Weaver, a fisherman from Rockcastle County has real luck. I would like to take a picture and prove to the world that there are fish in the waters near Mount Vernon.

Revival services will be held at the Liberty Ave. Baptist Church from May 3rd through May 17th.

Perhaps Rockcastle River is a good fishing place. At any rate we ought to capitalize on those wonderful bodies of water which are so near to us and which offers so splendid opportunities for the anglers.

Soil Conservation News

Guy Roberts Jr. is preparing the seedbed for his 12 acres of sericea lespedeza. He will use 30 pounds of scarified seed on a firm seedbed. 300 pounds of 3-12-12 per acre will be applied and disked into the soil.

Sericea is a long-lived legume that is used for hay or pasture. Two cuttings are made for hay each year. Fine quality hay is produced when cuttings are made when plants are 12 to 14 inches tall.

Sericea will last for many years where it is properly fertilized. Mr. Roberts will apply 100 pounds of 0-20-20 and 200 pounds of muriate of potash per acre every year after the first cutting of hay is made.

The monument for R. G. Ramsey has been erected in the Berea Cemetery. It was unveiled by his daughter Mrs. Evelyn Owens and son Mr. B. L. Ramsey.

Freezer space in the home freezer is no economy according to Dr. Earl McCracken, Chief of the Dept. of Agriculture. At this season, food supplies in freezers often run low, but the freezer uses just as much electricity on frozen food that could be occupying them.

Another economy point, freer owners need to understand is that the more food that goes through the freezer, the less the operating cost per pound. It's the cost of running the freezer that pays. Families who arrange to live out of their freezers as much as possible will save a rapid turnover of frozen food make the most economical use of their appliance.

Another way to save on operating costs: Locate the freezer in a cool, dry, well-ventilated place where the motor will not overheat. It may pay to have heat from the motor can escape easily. Have separate electric circuit for the freezer to avoid overloading with other strains and heats up the motor. Don't open the freezer too much. If possible, open just once a day to put in and take out food. It may pay to have the freezer far enough away from the kitchen so it won't be handy to open it too often.

Willie Jean Stevens and Hazel Vanjankie were Wednesday evening officers for the County. Evelyn and Betty Evelyn Barnett spent Saturday night with Loretta Bond.

THE BIBLE SPEAKS BY DR. KENNETH J. FOREMAN

A Minister

GOING up in a canal-boat to the interior of China or somewhere, stopping now and then to preach a sermon and distribute some Testaments. He is standing along to the next stop—this is some people's idea of foreign missions. But it isn't that.

Minister All sorts of names are given to ministers. Some call them "Rev."; a title hanging over from the Middle Ages.

Teacher If you get out of church is a "good feeling," you don't get what was intended, or else your minister isn't quite up to his job.

CHILD HEALTH DAY
Governor Lawrence W. Withers has proclaimed today as Child Health Day, following a similar statement by President Eisenhower marking the twentieth anniversary of the Child Health Day observance.
The Governor's Proclamation urged all parents and agencies to "aid the child to become a well-adjusted, mature individual, capable of facing the citizen's duties and responsibilities with wisdom and pleasure."
The first proclamation of Child Health Day, according to Lad R. Mezera, M. D., Director of the Division of Maternal and Child Health, Kentucky State Department of Health, stressed the "fundamental necessity of a year-round program of protection and development of the health of the Nation's children."
Parents should understand the effect of today's unsettled times upon their children. There is considerable stress and strain upon the child's personality development," Dr. Mezera went on to say. "An unhappy child is an unhealthy child and today's children are tomorrow's citizens."
Parents should strive for a better understanding of the way children grow emotionally and should cultivate happiness and love in their children. Some day it will pay in healthier happier citizens and perhaps a more secure, less troubled world.

NOTICE TO LOCAL HOMEOWNERS
Don't you want to have sharp knives and scissors? Women often use dull knives and scissors when sharp ones would do the work better with less labor and less time, and would save material. Improper care of these tools more often than their use, dulls their edge.
The Quail Homeowners Club will give a demonstration on "Keeping Knives and Scissors Sharp" at the Quail school house, Tuesday May 5th at 1:30. Every body is invited and urged to come. Come, watch us work, join with us in our recreation, then join our club.

A Child shall lead them
During the past year among the many articles written about cancer one included the statement, "Cancer is not an incurable disease in the younger age brackets."
But, according to Mrs. C. G. Stewart, chairman of the Rockcastle County Fair Drive of the American Cancer Society, cancer today kills more children from 3 to 15 years of age than does any other disease. Last year some 3,200 children died of cancer.
How can we measure "important" cancer must seem a practically important cause of death to 3,200 families who last year lost a youngster to leukemia, or cancer of the bone or soft-tissue form of malignant growth.
This one thought certainly should be enough to arouse any of us to do whatever we can to ward off cancer from our land. It is our sincere hope that all our readers will give generously to the 1953 crusade. Soon you will be contacted by the worker in your community.

STATUTE TOURISTS
Kentucky's 1953 tourist season will be the largest ever, if requests for tourist information coming into the State Division of Publicity are any indication.
Requests that are directly attributable to advertising placed by the division are currently averaging more than 1,000 a day, and requests from all sources totaled 117,121 in the year ending April 5.
There have been 26,417 answers to advertisements since January 1, with some 12,500 coming during the first half of April. The total for 1952 was 58,391.
Total requests for the first three and one half months of this year were 50,116. This figure includes, in addition to requests resulting from advertising, inquiries from automobile clubs and other organizations.
Coupons from ads placed by the division have been received from every state and many foreign countries. The largest number from a single state have come from Illinois, with Ohio, Indiana and Michigan next in line.
Kentucky is currently running advertisements in 24 metropolitan newspapers and nine magazines throughout the nation.

A GREAT RECORD
The following excerpts from Gould Lincoln's column in the Washington D. C., Evening Star, give a summary of reports on F.A.H.'s activities. The article was also reprinted in the Congressional Record.
"In these days of uncertainty and of some falling farm prices, the Farmers Home Administration of the Department of Agriculture looks like a good standby organization, capable, in a pinch, of meeting some of the vital needs of some American farmers. For six years, this agency has made a remarkable record. Among other things, it has demonstrated that American farmers are a good gamble, they pay their debts."
"Take a look at the record. This Federal Agency, which makes real estate and operating loans to farmers, has put out a total of $2,676,000,000. It has collected on principal $1,551,000,000, and in interest $253,196,000, or a total of $2,214,196,000. The farmers keep right on paying their debts, an agency which literally made it possible for thousands of Americans, a great number of them veterans, to take up or continue farming. Here is an interesting angle. The loans by the F.A.H. have been made only to farmers who have been helped where, for example, from banks and insurance companies. The farmers had to prove this before the agency would grant them loans.

These government loans have not impinged upon private enterprise, there has been no competition with private enterprise. Indeed private enterprise handles over 95 per cent of all agricultural loans. In addition the real estate loans have been made to buy farms and to make a success of them through the loans of the F.A.H. have in turn become a real credit asset of the banks, thereby still further bolstering the private enterprise system of the country.

The F.A.H. is doing particularly well with young men. Preference is given to war veterans in making loans for farm purchases, and some twenty million dollars have been available for this purpose this year. Individual loans for farm purchases average about $7,000. Applications for loans far exceed the funds available.
The county supervisor for Rockcastle County is Mr. Robert C. Winn, who has an office in the Rockcastle County Educational Building in Mt. Vernon.

Go To Sunday School Day is a red letter day for the Sunday Schools of Kentucky. Again we designate the first Sunday in May as the date for the 39th Annual Observance. This observance was created and sponsored by the Kentucky Sunday School Association. The objectives are as follows:
1. To extend to each individual in Kentucky an invitation to attend the Sunday School and Church of his choice in the community where he is on May 3rd.
2. To advertise to the community that the Sunday School is for all ages, and to stimulate all Sunday Schools to greater activity in bringing in as many visitors and new pupils as possible.
3. To unite the Sunday Schools people of all denominations in Kentucky in a definite program for the extension of the Kingdom of Christ by building larger and better Sunday Schools.
Each School that cooperates receives some blessing. With all every Sunday School and every Sunday School worker in Kentucky to a hearty, enthusiastic and effective observance of Go To Sunday School Day May 3, 1953.
