Invest In Rockcastle County's Future Support the Bookmobile

A CHALLENGING MOVEMENT

One of the most vital and challenging movements launched in Kentucky in many years is the Bookmobile project—to bring a treasure house of literature and learning to our many thousands of children living in rural and remote mountain areas. It is difficult to imagine any activity which will have the far reaching and long lasting benefits that traveling Bookmobiles will bring to the youth of our State. Repeated reading and study of just eight books—formed the basis on which Abraham Lincoln advanced himself to the Presidency of the United States—and to one of the greatest figures in the history of mankind.

Last Monday afternoon Mr. Joseph Getzow, chairman of the state bookmobile project visited in Mount Vernon and told a committee what this bookmobile means, how it is operating, how much it costs, how it can be maintained and how much it will contribute to the educational uplift of every community where these traveling libraries are operated.

Plans were laid at this meeting to secure such a traveling library for this county. The work requires the cooperation and support of everyone. What a chance and what an opportunity to bring knowledge and light into every nook and corner of this county.

An Appeal To Rockcastle Citizens

During the past few weeks you have heard much of the Bookmobile Drive for Kentucky. During the ensuing two weeks you will read and hear much more.

The Drive is a success. It can now be stated with assurance that enough funds are going to be raised to purchase around 100 of these traveling libraries for use in the Commonwealth and they will all be stocked with excellent books.

These Bookmobiles will be assigned to those counties which do not already have access to libraries and that includes Rockcastle. Just think of the pleasure and educational benefits which this will bring to our school children, as well as to their parents.

The chances are that Rockcastle will get a Bookmobile, even if we made no financial contribution to the Drive. We don't want it to be that way. We want to do our part. All over Kentucky the contributions are pouring in, swelling the fund toward the necessary $300,000. One industry operating within our borders gave $15,000. The rubber products factory in Berea gave a Bookmobile this week. This is happening all over. Since we have no big industry to do the job for Rockcastle we will have to do it for ourselves.

The Drive closes officially Sept. 30th, at which time Governor Wetherby hopes to announce to the world that Kentucky refuses to be longer listed as educational-ly backward. You will see that there is no time for us to make a house-to-house canvass for funds, even if that were desirable.

John Lair is making an appeal for funds on his Sunday morning broadcast. Be sure to listen to his 'Gathering' program the next two Sundays. Outside contributions will come and be credited to Rockcastle but they won't save our pride—we want to do something ourselves!

It is hoped that each county teacher will make a drive for funds in her district. If your school is making such a drive turn in your contribution there, so that your school may get credit. Or mail it to John Lair's program if you prefer. Finally, you may turn in your contribution to the Signal office or to any member of this Committee.

The Signal has very kindly agreed to publish a list of all contributors who donate to this Drive during the next two weeks.

Bookmobile Drive Committee for Rockcastle: John Lair, Clyde Linville, John L. Saylor, Mrs. Audrey Smith and Ralph Griffin.

The Torch Of Human Progress

The successful launching and operation of 100 Bookmobiles throughout Kentucky will pay handsome dividends not only to the many children and adults of the areas directly benefited—it will pay continuing dividends into the unlimited future—for the torch of human knowledge and progress is passed from one generation to another. And needless to say, the education and training of our youth through Bookmobiles today—will provide sound and solid leadership for our Commonwealth tomorrow.

Friday evening Sept. 18 a big dinner will start the ball rolling. The dinner will be attended by many of the leading citizens of this county who are vitally interested in this project. Committees will be appointed and officers elected to make the project permanent and workable. Much enthusiasm has already been expressed in favor of the movement and there is every possibility that this county will soon have a bookmobile so that the hundreds of children who are now without books, can read.

This new rolling library—first of 100 the Kentucky Bookmobile Project expects—is shown in Louisville by Donald P. Brown, Project executive director, to Mrs. M. S. Burks, Camp Taylor teacher, and Jerry Erickson, banker from Boston.

Governor Lawrence Wetherby, center, receives checks for Bookmobiles from B. J. Leunhan, Louisville, right, and Joseph Getzow, Harrodsburg, on behalf of their companies.

Bookmobile For Rockcastle County To Be Considered

Interested citizens to discuss plans at dinner tomorrow night, Friday and make permanent organization.

A bookmobile for Rockcastle County seems to be a certainty to a statement made by the local chairman Ralph Griffin. At a special called meeting last Monday afternoon Mr. Joseph Goetzow of Louisville was present to explain in detail how the plan works. He stated that there are three distinct phases to the Bookmobile project. First the purchase of a Bookmobile then its operation and finally the upkeep of the mobile. Mr. Goetzow stated that some communities are able to purchase several of these bookmobiles and then will turn them over to other counties where they are unable to make the purchase. It is believed that Rockcastle will get one donated or at least most of it so that the expense of operation would be the only cost to the county.

Mr. Ralph Griffin, who presided at the meeting stated that interest in the project is very favorable. On the Bookmobile Fund Drive Committee were placed Clyde Linville Chairman, John Lair, Mrs. Audrey Smith, John L. Soper and Ralph Griffin, ex-officio.

The Bookmobile Maintenance Committee is being headed by Mrs. Joyce Henderson. Other members of this committee are Clyde Linville, Mrs. Ruth Blazier, Mrs. Neureul Miracle and Albert Schumacher. A dinner is being planned for tomorrow night, Friday, at the high school cafeteria. At least 100 invitations have been sent out.

Governor Wetherby has appointed Ralph Griffin of Mt. Vernon to head the Bookmobile project for Rockcastle Co. A bookmobile is, as the name implies, a library on wheels. It is simply an enclosed truck carrying book shelves filled with books. This bookmobile travels through the rural areas stopping at schools, stores and other places that are convenient of community gathering points and loans books to people of that area. At the same time the truck driver and librarian will pick up books loaned on a previous stop in that community so that they may be moved on to be read in another area.

GRADUATES FROM LIBRARY SCIENCE

Mrs. Ruth M. Blazier, Mt. Vernon, is one of 12 recent University of Kentucky library science graduates who have accepted library posts in Kentucky.

Mrs. Blazier, recipient of an A. B. degree in library science from UK in August, will continue as teacher-librarian at Mt. Vernon High school, Mt. Vernon.

Information that she is a home-grown graduate remaining in Kentucky was included in a report issued this week by the UK Department of Library Science. The report also disclosed the number of students majoring in library science.

A total of 27 students were graduated in library science at the University's July and August commencements. Since the Department of Library Science was established 27 years ago, 272 persons have been granted degrees in that field.

Mrs. Blazier is a graduate of Mt. Vernon High school.

ENROLLS FOR BUSINESS COURSE

Miss Betty Jo Dailey, R. 4, Richmond, Ky., has enrolled in the Fugazzi school for a secretarial course. Miss Dailey will commute to our day school. She is a 1953 graduate of Mt. Vernon high school.

ATTENDS CONVENTION

David Craig left Sunday for Huston, Texas, where he will attend the National Outdoor Advertising Convention. Mr. Craig is scheduled to appear on the program's J. He will stay there for a whole week.

They Call Him The "Goat Man"

Last Friday, Saturday and Sunday, the "Goat Man" visited Mount Vernon and Renfro Valley. The wagons, two of them, looked bizarre with all kinds of trinkets hanging on the sides and top and everywhere. Goats pulled the vehicles and a dozen or so behind the wagons were more goats. The owner, Charles J. McCartney, walked beside the animals and with a line and whip moving the grotesque caravan slowly down the highway. For a while the "thing" stopped at Mount Vernon and attracted considerable attention. Then the goats and wagon moved to Renfro Valley and the owner let the goats rest and feed beside the highway. Crowds of tourists stopped to see this unusual caravan and bought cards. One card for 25c, four for 55c. They were just photographs of the wagons and the goats. That is the way the man makes his living. He travels all the way from Shepherdsville, Ga. to his mother's place, to the north states. In the winter time McCartney moves south again because the climate is more pleasant.

McCartney passed through here eight years ago. I saw the real goat man with his pictures and wrote a brief story for the paper, never dreaming that he would pass this way again. And who is this man? In an interview Monday I learned that he was born in Iowa fifteen years ago. He was married and had one son 17 years of age. His mother now lives in Shepherdsville, Ga. Later he was divorced. Some years back he had an accident when a tree fell on him and crippled one arm. Since then he has been traveling over the highways, attracting attention to himself by his grotesque make-up. He has made enough money to buy a new car and to contribute to his church.

The second phase of the project will be an all Rockcastle County affair. We will receive the bookmobile equipped but we must operate it. This means that we must hire the librarian who is also the bookmobile driver. We must also furnish the oil, storage and all maintenance.

SCHOOLS WILL RECEIVE

School districts in Rockcastle County will participate in the $5,573,000 equalization act for educational purposes. This was announced today by the Superintendent of Public Instruction, Westell P. Butler. The equalization act, a supplement to the common school fund, is distributed on a basis of need to school districts in the state. The act provides for either for teacher salaries or other educational purposes approved by the school authority. The act provides that the school fund is distributed on a census pupil basis and must be spent for teacher salaries.

BUILDING A HOUSE

Mr. and Mrs. Jack Dailey have begun the construction of their new residence on U. S. 25 just beyond Sigman and Green Fish Hill. Mr. Dailey purchased two acres of land from his grandfather and built a two-acre, residence on it. The basement has already been dug and the frame work of the building is well advanced. The lumber has been hauled. Mr. Dailey and his father, will do the building. Both are carpenters.

Those from out of town that attended the funeral of Mr. J. C. Taylor were Mrs. R. Taylor, Lawrence, Kansas, Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Hopkins and daughter, Loggall, Ky., Mr. and Mrs. Holt Chestnut and son, Detroit, Mich., Mr. and Mrs. Aubrey Chestnut Jr. and sons, and Mr. and Mrs. A. Chestnut, Barboursville, and Mrs. W. App Taylor, Beechey, Mr. J. W. Kreuger, Independence, Ky., Mr. Charles Ricketts, Anderson, Mrs. Galtie Coffey of Indianapoli, and Henry Ranmer, Waynesburg.

KINDERGARDEN COURSE TO BE OPENED

All parents interested in a Kindergarten class will please contact me at my home located near the school building. Date and place for the opening of the class will be announced later. Children 4 and 5 years of age can enroll. Mrs. Speedy Blank.

Mrs. Holt Chestnut and son of Detroit, Mich., are spending two weeks with her mother, Mrs. John Taylor.

LETTER FROM KOREA

SGT. ELI CHASTEEN

The following letter was received here from Sgt. Eli Chasteen of Korea, together with a poem that he himself has written. The title of the poem is the Light of Panmunjom. Says Sgt. Chasteen: "I have received two of your papers since I wrote you. It has been a great help to me just to read the news from home. I can never thank you enough."

"I'm enclosing a poem and a photograph of myself. The poem was written on the first day of June and only a few miles from Panmunjom. It is true, because I wrote it myself. Thousands of other soldiers would greatly appreciate it with all the other GIs everywhere."

"Thank you very much for the Light of Panmunjom. Somewhere in South Korea in the land of the morning calm. Stands a little village, with the name of Panmunjom. There's a great light shining over the huts of Panmunjom. Our leaders are all talking of the peace we hope will come. While the boys are fighting, through the night, upon the western front. They think of the men who fought for peace they knew someday would come. The boys all sit and wonder, if the great bright light goes out. Will they get to go back home or stay and fight it out. Like a beacon light upon the shore, to guide the last ships in. The light of Panmunjom, guides the thought of men. Oh, the great light is shining over the huts of Panmunjom. I wonder if it will be much longer before the peace will come. Dear God, please guide our leaders in the peace they say is just around the corner. And may that light be a banner of peace, through out the coming years."

Mr. and Mrs. Curtis Thomas and family from Maple Grove spent the week-end with Mrs. Thomas' parents Mr. and Mrs. Luther Kirby.

Mr. Wm. R. Taylor of Lawrence, Kansas returned home Thursday after spending a week with Mrs. John Taylor.

Monday dinner guests of Mrs. Raymond Reynolds were Mr. and Mrs. Charles Shepard and son Chas. Jr., Mrs. Zona McClure and Mag McClure. The many friends of Mr. Charles Cummins will be glad to know he is convalescing from a prolonged illness at his home on Serrano St., in Ocean-side, Calif.

When the 'Goat Man' parked his grotesque outfit on main St. in Mount Vernon last Monday. Curious spectators were entertained by the unusual sight.

Thieves Break Into Filling Station

Thieves broke into Helmers Filling station on U. S. 25 just north of Mount Vernon. The break-in was made last week Thursday night at about 10 o'clock. The Helmers live just to the rear of the station and therefore able to hear some of the noise that the thieves made during the break-in. Mrs. Helmer had suspected a stranger who had hung around the station that evening and about the time of the theft thought that she heard something drop. However the noise soon subsided and she did not give it any further thought. Early next morning the errand boy who works for the Helmers, Mr. Miller, noticed that the front door was wide open when he came to work and immediately gave the warning. It was discovered that the lock of the front door was picked off. This was later found on the highway a short distance from the station.

The thieves took six full cartons of cigarettes, a large white plaster dog and goose. Approximately $5.00 worth of merchandise was also included of the thieves have as yet been found.

BIBLE SOCIETY FILM TO BE SHOWN

Authentic scenes of Bible distribution to the U. S. Armed Forces are featured in 'The Whole Armor' a 20 minute sound motion picture, in color to be shown by the Nazarene Young People's Society of the Church of the Nazarene, Mt. Vernon according to Dr. Harold Noble. The public is cordially invited to attend.

The picture was produced with the cooperation of the Department of Defense, U. S. Army Signal Corps, Commanding Officers of Military and Naval and Combat Zones, Chaplains of the U. S. Army, Navy and Air Force, and the Veterans Administration. It is of interest to families and friends of men and women in military service. Its central character is the Service New Testament, and the picture shows how these are produced by the American Bible Society and distributed by chaplains and individuals.

The American Bible Society is the recognized agency for Scripture distribution in many languages around the world. Since 1820 this Society has supplied more than 33 million Scripture volumes to U. S. Armed Forces. It is the Whole Armor gives evidence that many men and women in military service read these Testaments and receive spiritual strength.

The accident happened about 9 o'clock Tuesday evening. The damage to the building was small, since the flames were confined to the inside of the car.

Ben Wilson, operator of the Conoco Service Station, on Richmond Street had a narrow escape from death when a jeep which was stored in the garage at the night caught fire. Mr. Wilson was just closing the station when he noticed some smoke coming from the storage part of the service station. When he hurriedly surveyed the situation he saw that the jeep was ablaze. He opened the door of the jeep and when he did so the flames rushed through the door and ignited Mr. Wilson's clothing. Apparently there was some kinnor explosion, although the gas tank remained in tact. Mr. Wilson was overcome by the smoke fumes. Mrs. Holla Cornelius who lives across the street from the service station saw the smoke and gave the alarm. The fire department was called and the jeep was removed from the raging flames. Dallas Anderson is credited to have had the rescue. Mr. Wilson was immediately taken to the Berea College Hospital by the Cox Ambulance. Twice while on his trip to the hospital oxygen had to be administered.

THE BIBLE SPEAKS

BY DR. KENNETH J. FOREMAN

The Christian Line

EVERYBODY knows the phrase, "party line," meaning a kind of ideas, arguments, plans and policies which are approved by a central authority.

Christianity Is Respectable

The letter to Titus in the New Testament comes right to this point. Titus was a fairly young missionary in a very tough area, the island of Crete.

Titus may have wished he were in an easier field. "Lions, evil beasts, lazy gluttons" - that was the reputation of Crete.

Propriety Without Pride

So the Christian line does not go off in some other direction than respectability; but it is by no means the same thing.

Mercy and Renewal

This brings us to the other point at which the Christian line is on a different plane from ordinary respectability.

It Pays to Fertilize Fall Seeded Wheat

Above, pile-ups of waiting trucks at fertilizer factories and last-minute scarcities of supplies can be avoided if farmers order plant food early. Left, big wheat yields come from plenty of plant food.

says the committee. "Top yields per acre are just not possible on most farms without the use of plant food."

Farmers aiming at high wheat yields per acre were advised by the committee to contact their fertilizer dealers now to make arrangements for delivery when it is advisable.

That's the surest way to get the exact grade and amount of plant food you want," says the committee. Waiting until a four-week period will see the wisdom of ordering early for this fall's needs."

The committee points out that manufacturers report that it is most desirable to produce and deliver all the fertilizer farmers can profitably use on wheat in a four-week period. The movement of fertilizer will have to be stretched over a longer period from 300 to 400 pounds of fertilizer per acre on wheat."

Crop Rotations Need Full Fertilizer Feed For Top Crop Yields

CROP rotations can't carry the whole load of growing top crop yields. They have to be supported by a full feed of fertilizer, reports the Middle West Soil Improvement Committee.

"Rotations are vital in slowing down erosion, building up the soil, saving topsoil and water," says a statement issued by the committee. "But a rotation that is only partially fertilized will produce only half to two-thirds as much wheat or corn as continuously cropped land that has been fully fertilized."

The Missouri and Illinois specialists got corn yields averaging 97.6 bushels per acre on corn fertilized in a rotation where corn was grown three years in succession. Wheat yields averaged 39 bushels. But made only 76-bushels in a rotation that had lime and a full fertilizer. Where averaged only 13.3 bushels.

Yields zoomed to 111.3 bushels per acre when corn in rotation got a full fertilizer treatment that gave the crop all the balance nutrients it needed for the entire growing season.

The Missouri agronomist reports that well-fertilized farms in the rotation add organic matter, mellow the soil, and condition it to make maximum use of the full fertilizer treatment for corn.

Kentucky Farmers Up Fertilizer Use to Get Extra Yields per Acre

KENTUCKY farmers used 130,118 tons of fertilizer last year to boost crop yields per acre, cut production costs and increase net profits, reports the Middle West Soil Improvement Committee, in a statement based on compilations by the U. S. Department of Agriculture.

This was an increase of 12 per cent in fertilizer tonnage used on Kentucky farms in 1952 compared with 1951. The increase year and also an increase of 17 per cent in plant nutrient content, says the committee.

The United States as a whole used 22,428 tons of fertilizer last year. This was a 12 per cent more in tonnage and 10 per cent more in plant nutrients than in 1951.

Farmers are buying higher analysis fertilizers, the committee says. They are getting more crop feeding power per ton. In the past five years the percentage of primary plant food content in an average ton of fertilizer has increased from 19.6 per cent to 24 per cent.

"The steady rise in fertilizer use," says the committee's statement, "indicates that farmers realize that plant food is not an expense, but a high-yielding investment. It is a part of Agriculture economic estimate that each dollar spent for fertilizer returns farmers at least $4.83 in additional income from crops."

Other factors influencing the greater use of fertilizer are:—Recognition by farmers that fertilizer is still one of the best buys they can make. Fertilizer prices have risen less than those of virtually any other production item a farmer buys;—Realization by farmers that plant food reserves in the soil are declining and must be replenished if long-range high production levels are to be maintained."

cent more in plant nutrients than in 1951.

Farmers are buying higher analysis fertilizers, the committee says. They are getting more crop feeding power per ton. In the past five years the percentage of primary plant food content in an average ton of fertilizer has increased from 19.6 per cent to 24 per cent.

"The steady rise in fertilizer use," says the committee's statement, "indicates that farmers realize that plant food is not an expense, but a high-yielding investment. It is a part of Agriculture economic estimate that each dollar spent for fertilizer returns farmers at least $4.83 in additional income from crops."

Other factors influencing the greater use of fertilizer are:—Recognition by farmers that fertilizer is still one of the best buys they can make. Fertilizer prices have risen less than those of virtually any other production item a farmer buys;—Realization by farmers that plant food reserves in the soil are declining and must be replenished if long-range high production levels are to be maintained."
