Split Squirrel Season

A split season on squirrels this year was decreed for Kentucky hunters by action of the Fish and Wildlife Resources Commission in regular quarterly session yesterday at the offices of Commissioner Earl Wallace. The first part of the season will open on August 15 and extend through September 30. The season will then be closed until November 20 when it will again be opened and will extend through December 31. The bag limits of six a day on a possession limit of 12 will remain. Last year the season opened on August 20 and extended through November 5. Commissioner Wallace explained the split season action to the hunters, a chance to hunt squirrels when they are cutting hickory nuts, and by the late closing date affording an opportunity for hunters to use their dogs. He also pointed out that the season is closed during October, the month during which forest fires are usually more prevalent.

Another change in the regulations pertained to raccoon hunting. This year owners of coonounds will have from September 1 through October 20 to train their dogs. No coons or possums may be taken during this period. Then there is another hunting season, from October 21 through November 19 during which coons or possums may be taken with dogs only. During this period the hunter may not carry a gun. The third phase of the coon season opens on November 20 and extends through January 18. During this period coons may be taken by the dogs, with or by trapping.

Other seasons, which remain the same as for last year are Quail November 20 through January 18; rabbits, November 20 through January 18; ruffed grouse, November 20 through January 18. The bag and possession limits remain the same as for last year. The season on waterfowl and doves is set by the U. S. Fish and Wildlife Service, usually in August.

Yesterday the Commissioner tentatively approved the construction of two more lakes, one in Caldwell County and the other in Grant County. The approval is based on the granting of easements for land to be inundated. It is pointed out, Mr. Wallace said, that these lakes cannot be built, even with the granting of the easements, until money for such work becomes available to the Department. The lake in Caldwell County would impound 1350 acres of water along Clifty Creek. The dam would be 45 ft. high and 700 feet long and would back water into the Pennyrite State Park and on part of the Oakwood preserve. A total of 640 acres would be impounded by a dam across Grassy Creek. This dam would be 70 feet high and 850 feet long.

Action of regulations affecting the pay lakes in Northern Kentucky was deferred pending a survey of the lakes now being conducted by Conservator Officers.

These trees will put me through college! Just a bunch of trees? Uh-uh, for me they mean something. Dad planted these trees. They grow fast. When I'm ready for college, these trees will be ready for a harvest. The cash they bring will put me through school. Farm woodland owners of the United States sell $700,000,000 worth of wood a year. They have bright opportunities in the business of growing timber crops. That's why forest industries urge woods owners everywhere to become Tree Farmers. Blanket Raising of Assessments Not Abandoned

Mount Vernon real estate to be raised 10% and county assessment to be upped $122,220.00

A telephone message to this office yesterday from the state capital informed us that the tax assessment for the entire county of Rockcastle is to be upped $122,220.00 and equalize the county's assessment to 31% of the present total assessment of the county is $9,314,735.00. This extra assessment will bring in an extra revenue of $111,111.11. The Fiscal Court refuses to accept this total raise they can lower the tax rate to 49.4% or lower it by 6% of a cent.

In a telegram received from the governor's office last Monday the chief executive had this information to give out: Mt. Vernon Signal, Mt. Vernon, Ky.

John press statement Governor Lawrence W. Wetherby, revenue commissioner Robert H. Alliphan, June 21, 1954.

It was decided today that the policy of equalizing assessments among counties by blanket raises will not be abandoned. The support that has been received since our statement of June 11, 1954, indicates to us that the program will be accepted as it was intended when it was originally proposed.

The reason for the original action to equalize assessments was to implement the program of education for Kentucky, which program was enacted after the adoption of the constitutional amendment in November, 1933, by the tremendous majority which it received.

We would like to make the point that this action by the state tax commission does not mean that the tax rate will be raised in local taxes. A further consideration should be taken into account by every property owner regarding the tax rate which in final essence determines the dollar and cents taxes he pays.

Between now and July 1, the Fiscal Court of the County school board of any county in which a blanket raise has been ordered may reduce their tax rate so that no more taxes will be paid locally than would have been paid on the original assessment. As a result of the hearings and the close study we have given to this whole problem during recent weeks, we have been impressed by the fact that no one has questioned the fairness in the State's effort to equalize among counties general property assess-

Johnny Cornett Receives Bullet Wound in Heel

Johnny Cornett 23, received a bullet wound in his right heel when he resisted arrest from police officer McKinley Arnold last Saturday at about three o'clock in the morning. According to reports Johnny Cornett who lives at Horseshoe bend just north of Mt. Vernon was chasing his young brother Earl with a boom pole. He was pursuing him up Richmond Street and when they came on Main Street the night policeman McKinley Arnold noticed Cornett carrying a large boom pole and that he was threatening his younger brother Earl. When Johnny resisted arrest the policeman fired a shot from his pistol. The bullet entered the sole of the right shoe just about at the arch and then at the heel the bullet was deflected upward and entered the young man's heel. Cornett was taken to Berea where the bullet was extracted. Cornett was placed in jail here in Mt. Vernon where he is awaiting trial.

The Bells Are Ringing Again!

The bells are ringing again! Seven "retired" engine bells removed from as many scrapped locomotives have just been donated by the Louisville and Nashville Railroad to seven small churches located along its lines. These bells went to the following:

- Skaggs Creek Baptist Church, Mt. Vernon, Ky.; Calvary Free Will Baptist Church, Dryden, Va.; West Side Methodist Church, Bowling Green, Ky.; Coahoma Christian Church, Stanford, Ky.; Mt. Pleasant Baptist Church, Clanton, Ala.; Big Creek Baptist Church, Big Creek, Ky.; Ebenezer Baptist Church, Ellijay, Ga.; The Louisville and Nashville Railroad has now donated a total of 107 scrapped engine bells along its lines, chiefly located in rural areas, since it initiated the practice more than three years ago.

JOHN W. GRIFFIN

John W. Griffin, Master Commissioner of Rockcastle County for the past four years and prominent business man at Mount Vernon, was selected as the district chairman of the Republican District of Kentucky to replace T. J. Nicley who resigned. The meeting of the members of the committee was held at Somerset last week Saturday.

In his resignation Mr. Nicley gave health as the reason for his resignation. The members of the committee then passed the following resolution: "Whereas by reason of his health it has become necessary that our friend and comrade, Hon. T. J. Nicley of Mt. Vernon, Ky., has found it necessary to resign his position as Chairman of the Executive Committee of the Republican party for our Eighth Congressional District; and whereas we are all mindful of the long years of valued work and struggle expended by our friend, Mr. Nicley, many years of which were being undertaken under adverse circumstances when our party was at its lowest ebb; and whereas we feel that much of this present success now being enjoyed by the Republican party in this district is directly due to the effort and hard work expended by our resigning chairman.

"Now therefore, be it resolved that at our meeting here assembled we not only feel that it is highly proper and fitting but feel further that we would be derelict of our duties if we did not extend to our friend and resigning Chairman, Mr. T. J. Nicley, our wholehearted thanks and appreciation for the fine service he has rendered to the great Republican party in this district and extend to him our sincere and best wishes for a speedy return to better health and wish him many years more service to our party."

Several speeches were made by our Kentucky Republican National Committee woman, Mrs. Stanley D. Pace; Judge C. I. Ross; the newly elected District Chairman, Hon. T. J. Nicley; John W. Griffin; Judge James C. Carter, Jr., and a number of others.

Mr. Griffin was elected by acclamation and he then became the legal chairman of the Republican Party of the Eighth Congressional District which includes 18 counties in south eastern Kentucky.

Mr. Griffin has long been interested in local politics and has been a staunch Republican all his life. He is at present Master Commissioner of Rockcastle County.

Several of the political affairs of the county as well as the state. From now on he will spend most of his time with the Republican Party and the public leaders in this district and help affect an efficient organization in every county prior to the fall election of congressmen.

Mr. Griffin has been in business all his life and for many years he has managed the purchase of a great amount of pulwood which he sold to the Philip Carey Roofing Co., which was purchased by Mr. Griffin. O. Some time ago he shipped as many as 30 to 45 cars a month. Today most of the pulwood is transported by big trucks.

Several years ago Mr. Griffin went into the building supply business which he owns and operates at present and still continues the purchases, and shipment of pulwood.

Mr. Griffin is a member of the Baptist church, a thirty-second degree Mason, is married.

Governor Will Dedicate Road Built on GOP votes

The Ashers Fork Republicans who decided to vote Democratic for a change—and got the road they wanted so badly as a result—will be visited by Governor Wetherby.

The Governor is to speak at the dedication of Wetherby Trail, a five-mile route that will connect Clay and Bell Counties and will not only provide a direct link between Manchester and Pineville.

Ashers Fork is 19 miles south of Manchester in the north of Clay County, its Upper Red Bird Precinct. But when Wetherby, Democrat, was running for Governor three years ago, it gave him all but one vote. It was the first time in more than 100 years that the Republicans hadn't swept the boards.

Ashers Fork didn't mention the road it wanted before the election. But when its delegation went to Frankfort later, it was able to make a very solid impression on the Governor.

He was so impressed, in fact, that he wanted to build their road. The citizens themselves decided to name it the Wetherby Trail.

Appearing with the Governor at the dedication will be State Highway Commissioner William F. Carlin, Lieutenant Governor, and other State and local officials.

Committees Appointed By New Organization

A Tourist Promotion Committee, a Publicity Committee, and an entertainment committee were appointed for the newly formed Rockcastle Co. Junior Chamber of Commerce.

These were selected by the Board of Directors at their first regular Directors Meeting held over The Bank of Mt. Vernon Monday night.

Earl Teater, Jr., of Renfro Valley was appointed chairman of the tourist promotion committee with G. A. Winslow and Floyd Owens. Johnny Allen was made chairman of entertainment committee. See also Wayne Stewart and Ed Teater. Mr. J. White Floyd Owens was appointed chairman of publicity committee with Elmo Anderkin and B. H. Hamm.

Jaycee President Gordon Gordan pointed out that the tourist promotion committee would have the biggest job, since Rockcastle County as a whole receives a large part of its income from the tourist trade, and that more tourists should be encouraged to stop in Rockcastle County.

The directors consist of Johnny Allen, Dr. Jack Henderson and Eddie Hurt, also made up of the other officers of the organization. Pres. Graham, Vice Pres. John Cox, Sec. Henderson, Baker, and Treas. R. H. Hamm. It was brought out at the meeting by President Graham that any anyone is entitled to attend the directors meeting and are encouraged to do so.

Mid pleasure and palaces wherever we may roam

Rockcastle County, Ky., will always be home.

For the first time in twenty-one years the four sisters of Mrs. E. B. Cox met at her home here last week. They are the daughters of the late Mr. and Mrs. A. H. McFerron. Fannie, who lives with Mr. Cox, Georgia who has been in Florida for the past winter, Rose, from Montreal, N. C. and Christine, whose home is in Cambridge, Ky.

It was a sort of a "teachers meeting" as well as a family reunion as they had all taught in Rockcastle County schools.

"Miss Georgia," as she is affectionately known by her many former pupils holds the family record of twenty-four years of service as primary teacher in Kentucky and fourteen years more in Florida. Later she was married to D. Bryant of Lebanon Junction, Ky.

Fannie taught five years in this county and was married here to Dr. William J. Childress. They were living in Greenwood, Ind., at the time of his death. She has four children.

Veron of Detroit, Mich., Mrs. C. A. Adams, Kansas City, Mo., Dr. H. M. Childress, Jamestown, New York and Mrs. Kenneth Beckwith, St. Louis, Mo.

Kentucky taught seven years. She was married to the late Ed. Cox, a much loved citizen of Mt. Vernon, where they made their home. They had two sons, Edward of Victoria, Texas and Henry, who is superintendent of the water plant here, and Christine of Florida and her Henderson Insurance Agency.

Rose taught in Oklahoma, Kentucky, and Idaho. She was in Japan and Charwick at Camp Edward of Victoria, Texas and Henry, who is superintendent of the water plant here, and Christine of Florida and her Henderson Insurance Agency.

Christine taught in North Carolina and Florida until her marriage to Herman S. Delano, Lincoln, Nebraska. She has two sons in the Army; Steven in Japan and Charwick at Camp Gordon, Georgia. Clarissa at Boston, Mass.

RAMBLINGS GENE SILER FOR CONGRESS

I hope I can give a somewhat graphic account of the reconstruction of U. S. 25 as it now locks between Roundstone and Berea. Perhaps I can say something more next week or a little later. Reconstruction is now in full swing. The hill at Boone Gap has lost its top and now the wash through it is almost level with the highway. Fills are being made all the way from the Gap northeast to the Sasser curve. The straightened out and at other places high sides are gouged out. Three bridges are completed and are passing traffic. The bridge at Boone and one near Snider. Two other bridges are almost finished but still are not passable for traffic. The last bridge to construct is the one next to the Rucker farm near Roundstone. The concrete is so heavy that drilling and dynamiting is necessary to break down the old concrete.

At Snider the Breslin Concrete Company is getting ready to do the resurfacing. A large mixer and elevator have been erected there. Grading at this point is almost finished. At the small rise here, all the old concrete was broken and removed and the grade has been raised several feet. Dynamiting will begin very soon. Traffic at this point and traveling is somewhat inconvenient because of check-backs and dust.

Rockcastle County is one of seven counties of the state on a ready-for-approval list. So far only seven counties have qualified. Twenty-two counties are on the list. The program. The Federal Government is placing the responsibility of determining who is "in a position to accept" the shoulders of the County judges and the fiscal courts.

It also requires each county to rescreen its food stamps. Another list of food receipts, issue identification cards to all eligibles, and prepare distribution lists. Each week surplus foods are handed out. The regulation also requires each county to operate on its own lists all persons receiving public assistance, such as old-age assistance, aid to dependent children, and aid to needy blind.

Gentry's Furniture and Appliance Store at Brodhead was a busy day and an exciting place Saturday. Each person entering the store 18 or married was given five keys or married was given five keys to try his luck at getting one of the ten nice and useful gifts given away. There was a box of some 5000 keys with the winning keys among them. There was a sealed envelope containing a certificate of what each person won.

The winning people were Dwight Hubbard, a G. E. Automatic iron, Ethlene Gass a $50. certificate good on any home point appliance. Alfred D. Parrott $100.00 certificate. Eva Lafevers, $100.00 certificate. Rose Hubbard R. C. A. table model radio. Mrs. Aliza Shatts a $50. certificate. Charlie Scott $50. certificate. Garvin Scott $50. table lamp. Bobby Lay, sunbeam automatic iron. Ben J. Jamn Franklin won the hotpoint range.

Mr. Harold Smittie hotpoint sale man from Somerset was over to help with the occasion.

THE BIBLE SPEAKS

By Dr. Kenneth J. Foreman
Bible Study Series
Scripture: II Kings 17
Devotional Reading: Psalm 107:1-7

Here Lies Israel

IN THE graveyard of nations there are many names very names are strange to us. But among all the unfamiliar names - Phis, Lydia, Elam and many another - there is one that we know. Here lies Israel. It was a going nation for about 2000 years. Seen from the eyes of other nations it was "small potatoes". We know from inscriptions which have been dug up in recent years by the archaeologists that the Hebrews spades it covered no more of the earth's surface than New Jersey.

But in its Dr. Foreman's own eyes it was important. When Israel was a little more than the United States it was not craved to nothing and since that time has been only an ungrateful memory, a dead nation. The writer of II Kings 17 wrote its obituary.

The Nation Forgot God
The nation did not die of old age. For 2000 years is not a very long time for a nation to exist and prosper. Something had happened. It might be said that it committed suicide - but what was it? It was that it forgot God.

What disease? What sin? Looking over the record as II Kings has related it, we find a serious sin which was the root of most others: forgetting God. The nation forgot what God had done for it in the past. It forgot that it was God's people.

Can God Be Despised?
Highlighted in the sad history of a dead and gone nation is the fact that as a nation they despised the law of God. How is it possible to despise the Almighty? Nations and nations are not equal in contempt for God by paying no attention to what he has said.

Millions of people in America today just as if the Ten Commandments (for example) were only a set of by-laws for Sanatrol churchmen, or worse still as if they were an outdated set of rules from a primitive civilization to judge from what you may read in any newspaper.

Paradox and Parallel
A nation can be simply prepared with religion and yet see the exit of morality. In ancient Israel the name of God was everywhere. Religion observed was everywhere. There was even green trees as the prophets said. But the more religion they had the less morality they had. The more they professed in the midst of their worship with out number. Dr. H. P. Van Dusen has recently made this observation: "The more they professed, the less they did."

On the one hand since World War II has been a time of religious revival. Increased today it is at an all-time high. Church attendance is also at an all-time high. Religious revivals are everywhere. It is a sign of a lower level. Can it be that in America as in Israel we fail to give our religion into our behavior? Can it be that perhaps for all our religion we really have made an idol of the Dollar?

High Organic Matter Supply Helps Soils Soak Up More Water

CROPS will have more water to help build higher yields, if your soil has a regular turnover of active organic matter. Dr. W. P. Martin, Ohio State University agronomist, points out that rotting organic matter improves the soil structure and makes it more porous. Water percolates in more easily. Rain soaks up and held by the soil, instead of running off or ponding on top.

In the soil building process millions of tiny, invisible microbes play an important part. As they feed on organic matter and break it down, they produce a gummy jelly-like substance. This sticky material glues tiny soil particles together into clumps or aggregates. These aggregates in turn increase the size of the soil pores and allow more water to enter. As organic matter breaks down, it releases crop feeding nutrients. More soil phosphate is made available to plants.

Soil organisms need extra nutrients when their diet is plowed under.

Teacher Shortage Still Critical

The State Department of Education reported today that there still remains a definite and critical shortage of teachers in Kentucky, with the greatest shortage at the elementary level.

State Superintendent of Public Instruction Wendell P. Butler today disclosed results of a survey made by Dr. Adron Doran, former director of Teacher Education and Certification, disclosing that 2,408 emergency positions were approved during the year for those who would meet minimum requirements for certification. More than 19,800 teachers were employed altogether.

The number of emergency certificates is some 400 fewer than a year ago when there were about 2,800 emergency teachers employed for the year. Some 15 per cent of the teaching positions at the elementary level were filled by teachers holding an emergency certificate.

In addition, Dr. Doran's study showed that 816 teachers who entered school rooms for the first time in 1953-54 began teaching on emergency certificates. This is 43 more for the previous year - a fact that "indicates there are not enough teachers being trained to fill the additional positions available each year."

"It is significant to note that about six per cent of the teachers serving on emergency certificates have not earned any college credits, while nearly 58 per cent have completed fewer than four semester hours of college, and about 15 per cent hold an A, B, degree or above."

Every person who purchases a Kentucky motor vehicle registration or license plate is now affected by a law which was passed by the 1954 General Assembly which requires that evidence be shown the county clerk that personal property tax was paid or that no tax was due before vehicle registration may be issued.

Evidence of payment may be shown by presenting the personal check with a receipt or a signed statement from the sheriff or tax-collecting official indicating that tax was paid. Individuals who failed to list such omitted property with the county tax commissioner immediately.

Persons who did not own taxable property as of the assessing date are required to obtain a signed statement that they own no property from the tax commissioner before registering their vehicles.

The law applies to city as well as county and state property. The tax commissioner's orders are necessary from city officials as well as county officials in such instances.

Receive Certificate

Mr. Calvin Webb of Livingston received a certificate from Governor Wetherby making him an "Observation Post" Supervisor in the ground observer corps of the United States Air Force.

Evan McKinley of Morristown, Tenn., who are also known as the "Gospel Bell Ringers," play a number of different instruments including bells and glasses. Rev. and Mrs. McKinley were in Mt. Vernon about one year ago and presented a program at the Baptist church which was much appreciated by all who attended.

State Senator Ed P. Warriner, Albany, in talking with the Republican members of the Eighth Congressional District, said that the new taxes will have an effect on the bad influence they would have upon the state's economy.

Warriner, candidate for the Republican nomination to Congress from the Eighth District, said the tax program adopted at Frankfort would further unbalance our present inequitable tax structure. He said that they do not solve the fiscal problem of the state, but merely prolong the reckoning he added.

This kind of operation causes serious apprehensions in the minds of industries considering coming to Kentucky, since these new taxes are directed toward industries and the people they would employ. Factories need an open door in Kentucky, most certainly not a barrier. Location of factories and industry in the mountains of Kentucky would solve many of our problems, particularly in the coal industry.

Warriner recalled his vote against specific tax measures, including the increase in the tobacco taxes and the 50 per cent increase in the state income tax.

He said the income tax increase was presented as an enforcement measure to withhold the income taxes at the source, when in reality everyone in Kentucky will pay 50 percent more taxes during the years 1954 and 1955 than they paid in 1953, because of it.

Warriner cited examples of tax liability of a person owing $100.00 in taxes in 1953. Just one way you figure it, Warriner pointed out, it amounts to a 50 percent increase in state taxes for the next two years.

"I voted against this because it is wrong principal to put that much extra taxes on the wage earners of the state. It is quite a shock to the individual's purchasing power."

The withholding tax becomes effective with the first pay day after July 1. Then the wage earners, business men and all people of Kentucky will begin to realize this fatal mistake.

Warriner said this system which has no forgiveness feature such as the Federal income tax had when withholding was started, would produce a windfall of some $10,000,000 a year for the state. This will not be recurring in 1955, as they are going to have to go out and get the extra money someplace to support our ever increasing cost of the government. Which means more taxes.

Warriner called the State administration's tax program "a mad scramble to pile more money upon the people of Kentucky."

He asked support in his campaign for Congress on the strength of his record of two terms in the State Senate in which, he declared: "I have fought for the people of Kentucky."
