Why So Many Farmers Choose the JOHN DEERE '40'

Have you ever had a chance to really become acquainted with the new "40" General Purpose Tractor?

You have read about these modern 2-plow tractors... you've probably heard owners remark about their amazing power... their wide selection of plowing tools for the 3-point hitch... and the way Touch-a-matic hydro-pneumatic valves hand work easy.

But we say more... one way to really get to know the many John Deere advantages, and that's by actually driving one of these good-looking, good-performing tractors on your own place.

Just ask us for a demo—that's all you have to do. There's no obligation on your part.

RAMBLINGS

TO ALL OUR GOOD READERS WE EXTEND A HAPPY AND PROSPEROUS NEW YEAR FOR 1955.

I think the past year, which is just closing its pages as it were, has been a good one. Fighting wars have ceased. No more lives are lost in battle. Our boys are returning home and prospects for the world peace are better now than for many decades. There is still plenty of world tension and some unforeseen events may happen to create world disturbance. But the swiftness of international communication is now so overwhelming that the influence of any one nation is so strong, that few nations care to disturb the equilibrium for fear of immediate retaliation from other nations. The only sinister and fearful influence is that of the Soviet bloc. Because of that, an atomistic system, by which the world must constantly be on the alert to counteract that influence. What method to use for that purpose has not yet been left to the statesmen of the free nations. This is not an easy task. The one man who cannot be ignored is our own Secretary of State John Foster Dulles. Incidentally you will be interested to know that TIME magazine has chosen him as the man of the year.

Several other men have worked mightily towards achieving this goal for a better world. In India, Anthony Eden of England, a Konrad Adenauer of Germany. I believe if Mendel-France could have had a free hand and been allowed to wind the French clock in such a predicament today. What France will do today on the question of returning Germany will be known before this paper is in the mail. Will France reject this resolution? If so France will have broken the friendship which she has offered to her by others. She will isolate herself and become a political football. Poor France!

Winter weather has blanketed much of the Mid-West and this region with an early start to weather, but on Thursday morning neither snow or rain fell and the thermometer stood at 45 degrees. Farther north in Illinois, Indiana and Ohio the storm must have been severe, while in Oklahoma and Kansas the snow marksmen of farmers and motorists. The rainfall in this region was approximately 1.59 inches.

Continuous tobacco and cotton crops land should be tested each year.

Tobacco land in rotation should be tested in the fall or spring just prior to the tobacco crop.

Permanent pasture and rotation land should be tested every 3 or 4 years, or once during the rotation. It is preferred that a soil test be made just before the small grain crop.

If the initial test indicates a need for either phosphorus or potassium, but not for both, the soil should be tested every 2 year for the nutrient not applied at seeding.

If the initial test indicates a need for phosphorus and potassium, this need should be supplied; if followed by the results of P2 O5 and K2 O per acre annually, no further test is needed as long as the crop produces.

Where alfalfa is now growing but no soil test has been made, a test should be made to determine which of the above categories the field falls into and the field should be manured accordingly.

Strawberry land should be tested before setting the plants. New Brussels Accelerated Program
The brucellosis accelerated program is now in effect in Kentucky. This program is no different from the program we have had in Kentucky for the past 20 years, however, we are discontinuing the vaccination on Plan C and only Plans A and B will be recognized by the Agricultural Research Service of the Federal Government.

Four Plans have been used in the program according to the varying conditions under which brucellosis is found. Plan A calls for testing the herd, immediate slaughter of reactors, cleaning and disinfecting of premises, retesting at 30 day intervals and possible vaccination of calves.

Plan B requires herd testing, calf vaccination, marking reactors and keeping reactors under quarantine until they can be marked without heavy losses. In Plan C suitable for range herds, calves are vaccinated but the herd is not tested. Plan D used only as an emergency measure provides for vaccination of nonreacting adult cattle. The testing will be carried on by local graduate accredited

Keep 1954 Corn Profits High With Good Soil Management

"You Shall Not Kill" I heard a story on the radio that truly shows that life is simple and that no matter how complicated science becomes the basic truths remain the only ones.

The story was about a scientist who had perfected a machine which would give highly scientific electrical gadgetry that is supposed to do everything, including the truth. At the time of the story the two greatest nations on earth are ready to go to war with each other. A silo containing nitrogen, phosphate and potash, such as 10-10-10. At planting time they suggest applying 25 to 500 pounds of a starter fertilizer. Then when the corn is 12 to 14 inches high, side dress with 50 to 100 pounds of a nitrogen fertilizer.

Such a system paid off with yields ranging from 100 to 160 bushels of corn and many Wisconsin farms last year, reports C. J. Chapman, University of Wisconsin extension soils specialist.

ACHIEVEMENT PAYS OFF for Kentucky 4-H's
MERITORIOUS achievement records in the 1954 National 4-H Leadership, Meat Animal and Soil Conservation programs have brought 23 winners to the state level, where they were awarded the state trophies.

Two 4-H Club members in Kentucky have been named boy and girl state winners in the 1954 Meritorious program for outstanding guidance of club and community projects. They are Robert Lee, Jr. of Clinton, and Marilyn Elaine Moore, 19, Alexandria.

From his profits, Robert buys his own clothes and school books and helps finance college education. This year he sold a variety of items to earn money to help finance a trip to Michigan for club members. He has made 22 exhibits and was county beef champion six times. Robert is assistant leader of the club led by his father.

In recognition of his accomplishments, Thomas E. Wilson presented him with a 17-jewel watch award.

Robert has managed 21 beef animals in seven years. When he was born he was given a calf. His father invested in profit bonds, which financed Robert's profits.

Marilyn Moore, 18, of Lexington, has been president of the county club. She is serving as a junior leader having taught 4-H tractor maintenance at Clinton, and was chosen to instruct a class of 50 boys in Ballard County. Bobby Slayden, 16, of Cynthiana, is the county club vice president and has 12 projects. Bobby's mother, Mrs. Slayden, who is his 4-H leader, presented her with a watch award.

WHEN The World Council of Churches was meeting in Evanston, Ill., last August, the representatives of the more than 200 churches present were working and praying and planning together naturally did not agree on every detail.

They did agree on the need to get together 600 outstanding members of even one denomination in order to get together and expect them never to argue about any issue. But—there was one point on which all were Dr. Foresman agreed that it was through their representative accepts the authority of the Bible as the Word of God.
