Home Agents Notes

Homemakers Schedule for the week of January 23

Friday, January 28, 1:30 P. M. W. Wallace, Homemakers, Mrs. John Guinn.

Accessories Wise

Ladies, did you know that white gloves seem to "boost" your general appearance? The clothing leaders of the Home-makers Clubs are enlightening the homemakers as to the accessories to choose. How to use them and what to wear when.

So many women ask "How many colors may I use in dressing?" The leaders will tell you that two colors are safe, three are good if carefully done, and four, nearly always, less so.

Every woman is interested in the correct use of accessories because one basic dress can serve for many accessories if properly used.

Recipe—Scalloped Eggs & Peas Good for cooking in only two minutes to make an egg delicately tender, say home economists at the University of Kentucky. Whether the egg is hard-cooked, it should be cooked at low or medium temperature to prevent toughening the white.

4 eggs, 2 cups cooked peas, 3 tablespoons butter, 1 tablespoon minced onion, 4 tablespoons flour, 2 cups milk, 1 teaspoon salt, 1/2 teaspoon pepper, 1 cup buttered crumbs.

Cover eggs with cold water, bring to a boiling point, then reduce heat to simmering for 20 minutes. Cook in cold water, peel and slice. Melt butter, add onion and cook slowly until clear. Blend flour and milk slowly and stir until thickened. Add seasonings. Line greased casserole with half the buttered crumbs. Top with layers of eggs, peas and white sauce, ending with eggs cover with remaining buttered crumbs. Bake in medium oven 45-60 degrees until sauce bubbles and sets.

Make Your Plans

Homemakers should be making definite plans for attending Farm and Home Conventions on Wednesday, February 1 through 4. Plan with other families and homemakers to pool cars and go together.

February Plentiful

Eggs take the top spot on the U. S. Department of Agriculture's plentiful foods list for February. Retail prices are expected to reflect the continuing abundance, and February should be another good month for high quality eggs. As a protein food, eggs are expected to be one of the best buys this month.

over, from the 1954 crop will still be in plenty in February. These big birds are especially suited to restaurant and institutional use, so may not be so much in evidence on retail markets.

Also continuing in plenty next month will be dairy products. There will also be lots of lead for biscuit makers and pastry cooks who favor this shortening.

Fruit items that will continue in abundance are fresh and processed oranges and dried grapefruit, and raisins. More grapefruit is selling fresh than processed this season.

Salad bowls should be busy in February because of the big supplies of lettuce due from California and Arizona. There'll

Rich continues so plentiful that it deserves generous use in soups, company for meats, dishes such as stews, and in hearty puddings, hot or cold. Finally, February markets will offer a variety of fresh choices in fish. Supplies of frozen haddock fillets are very large as are frozen halibut fillets. Shrimp, once a luxury food, was in record high supply in December with prices trimmed to budget meals. It will continue plentiful next month. Canned tuna is another plentiful.

Bobby Sigmon 15, Injured In Wreck On Highway 25

Pick-up truck driven by George Pitman demolished after heading into cliff.

A wreck on U. S. Highway 25 north of Mt. Vernon Monday afternoon, killed a 15-year-old Mt. Vernon High School student, Bobby Sigmon, to the hospital with a fractured skull, and Pitman's companion, George Pitman, 17, was treated at the hospital Monday night for a head injury.

Sigmon also suffered internal injuries, and the truck in which the boys were riding was demolished. The truck, a 1952 GMC Pick-Up, belonged to Pitman's father, City Policeman Clifford Pitman.

The wreck occurred at about 2:30 P. M. in front of Graves Newely-Bland, about a mile outside the city limits of Mt. Vernon. According to Rockcastle County Sheriff, Dewey Ballinger and Deputy T. S. Parsons, who investigated the wreck, the truck hit the limestone cliff next to the road at least two times. The left front bumper of the truck was crushed in the cliff, the officers said.

Pitman was driving and was reported to have lost control of the truck after attempting to pass a car. Officers reported that the truck was heading south when it struck the cliff. Pitman was killed, and the boy was sent to the Beres Hospital in Lexington for treatment of injuries received in the wreck.

Sigmon is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Sigmon and had gone with Pitman to get the truck greased at the request of the Pitman's parents. The youths had attempted to get the truck greased in Mt. Vernon, and had taken the trip out Highway 25 while waiting until mechanics in Mt. Vernon could get to the shop.

Pitman also is a student at the Mt. Vernon High School and was able to resume his school Wednesday. Bobby Sigmon's condition was listed as fair, by the time the Signal went to press this week.

RAMBLINGS

It is with a sense of mixed emotions that I write this column, because it is the last one that I will contribute as editor.

Last week the management of this paper will pass into other hands. My partner, Elmo Anderkin, will then be leaving. I trust that he will receive the same strong support that we as partners were privileged to receive.

During the past three years this paper has made marked progress. We can thank approximately 1200 subscribers. Today we print 2200 copies. The subscription list has increased steadily without any help from our part. We are pleased that if we give our readers the news they want, print a good paper with pictures, that the reader interest will not lack. This we have found to be true. Today, the Signal has a more complete subscription list than it has ever had.

I want to express my sincere appreciation to the good people of Rockcastle County for their support and goodwill. I came here almost a stranger, but you took me in, I learned to know a lot of fine people, and a substantial farm in a business people, without whose help I could not have carried on. My only regret is that I will not be able to continue those trips and visits over the county to gather the news.

I also want to thank the many correspondents who write so faithfully every week from every nook and corner of the county. How did you get so many to write? I don't know. We did not solicit them. They write of their own free will and all the way we give them a subscription to the Signal.

Not so very long ago I talked with a young student who is attending a college and who reads this paper very faithfully. This student stated that she reads it from all over the country including the country correspondents. That was a pleasant surprise to me.

To a loyal student I want to give a word of appreciation. The members carried on during my illness. They put out a good paper and it never lacked the ideals I hoped for.

There is no doubt but that we are now passing through a serious world crisis. The Chinese Reds are stepping up their bombardment of the islands near Formosa. Already they have taken one outpost. That was enough to make the Chinese people believe who is the stronger. What will the United States do now? We are committed to defend Formosa and other islands, and now the President has been given authority by Congress to make whatever moves are necessary for the defense of the Nationalists in Formosa. It is a very delicate situation and may at any moment involve our Seventh Fleet.

NOTICE!

Due to the dissolution of our partnership, effective January 28, 1955 we are asking that all those owing the Mount Vernon Signal will kindly settle their accounts in full as soon as possible.

We wish to take this opportunity to say our appreciation to all the business men and readers for their support and goodwill, during the past three years of our partnership and publishing the Signal. Albert Schumacher and Elmo Anderkin January 27, 1955

A Friendly NOTE

By Alfred Sparks, Jr.

Last week I started to tell you about the career and work I gave up working in favor of taking good care of my husband, a professor. This week I want to explain how, even though unhappy at first, she found inner meaning as the wife of a college professor.

One afternoon, while still working, she saw a plane load of Korean veterans land at the local airport. As the wounded soldiers got off the plane, she recognized a former student of her husband's and ran over to say "Hello" to him and ask where he could see her husband immediately. She wanted to thank him for saving his life. It seems, during a full in town for a gay week end, but he stayed behind to read a letter from her husband, his old teacher. A shell exploded right in the middle of the recreation center and if it weren't for the fact that he preferred his correspondence, he too would have been killed.

It became quiet apparent, at that moment, that her husband must truly be a wonderful man to have his letters be that important to a young man who surely would be more interested in a gay week end than in reading a letter from an old professor.

Skids are less likely on CONCRETE

The difference between a deadly skid and a safe, quick stop is often the pavement. You can stop faster, even in the rain, on concrete. That's because concrete's gritty surface gives you tires a grip that's sure to hold.

Besides permitting better grip, concrete's light-colored surface reflects more light than dark colored pavements. You can see farther and have more time to slow down to stop to avoid danger.

Concrete roads also are safer because they're free from hazardous ruts, washboard wrinkles and raveled edges.

It's worth remembering that when the weather is rough you're much safer on skid-resistant concrete.
