Banked seed alfalfa makes thick stand.

Mr. Clinton R. Allen of Richmond, Ind., spent the Christmas holidays with his parents.

Mr. and Mrs. George W. Allen, of Ottawa.

The soil's overall fertility backlog can be built up with broadcast applications of heavy amounts of plant food. Then at seeding time, fertilizer can be placed within easy reach of the seedlings for their immediate growth needs.

Band seeded alfalfa makes thick stand.

Two essentials for sturdy vigorous growth. Says the committee: 1 - A good seedbed and careful planting methods. 2 - A full foot of nutrient application that gets the young seedlings off to a quick start.

Success of this method depends on placing the fertilizer directly under the seed, but not in contact with it. Then the seedlings can grab the plant food and grow.

Alfalfa and birdfoot trefoil grow 21 per cent better stands in Michigan stands than from broadcast alone, according to Milo B. Tesar, Michigan State University.

Ohio soils men got full, quick growing stands of birdfoot trefoil the first year when it was broadcasted with oats as a nurse crop. The soil had been plowed, disked and packrolled to get a firm seedbed.

J. L. Haynes, Ohio State University agronomist, reports that at oats harvesting, the trefoil was 8 to 12 inches high with a thick stand across the field. He estimated the oats would go to 50 bushels per acre.

Quarry Closes Rock Crusher; No Reopening Date Known

The Kentucky Stone Co. closed down part of its operations in West Mt. Vernon Wednesday for an indefinite period.

Roy Cummins, who is in charge, reported the quarry crusher was closed because of winter weather. He reported it is still being sold. Closing down threw about 16 men out of work.

Mr. Cummins stated a report which circulated through Mt. Vernon Wednesday that the quarry was closed as a protest move was not true. It had been said the quarry closed because the Louisville & Nashville Railroad refused the company a permit to construct a conveyor belt over the railroad. The belt would convey rock from the new quarry diggers on the south side of Route 150 over the highway and railroad to the crusher on the north side.

Mr. Cummins declared the Railroad was just holding up the permit and that it would be issued in the spring when the conveyor belt was to be built.

He said Railroad company officials had indicated the permit would be issued.

Frank Dees In Telephone Suit

If Rockcastle County telephone subscribers expected to get a telephone system run by the Rockcastle Rural Telephone Co-operative Corp., their expectations were doomed this week.

Special Franklin County Circuit Judge Marion Rider reversed a state order which granted the Co-Op a permit to operate in territory served by the Mt. Vernon Telephone Co.

The decision reverses the Public Service Commission's order which denied the Mt. Vernon Company's application for authority to extend and improve its facilities.

The reversal means the application will be sent back to the Public Service Commission which will study the application again. This time, however, a new Public Service Commission will make the ruling.

Gov. A. B. Chandler recently appointed a new Commission. In his opinion Judge Rider wrote:

"The court feels the commission went far afield in denying to the plaintiff the right to improve its system or to construct any additional lines. Clearly, such a restriction is beyond the power of the Commission and does not fall within the purpose or intent of the Rural Telephone Act. The effect of the Commission's order, in this respect, is to preclude plaintiff from maintaining, extending or adding to its plant in the manner necessary to render adequate telephone service. Such a restriction would compel plaintiff to stay idle and watch its telephone plant depreciate to the point where it would be valueless and completely unable to render the service for which it was constructed. This results in confiscation of the plaintiff's property as well as gradual, though ultimately total, deterioration of service to plaintiff's subscribers. It likewise would effectively result in giving to Rockcastle County an unconstitutional privilege to render telephone service in Rockcastle County because plaintiff's property would, under the Commission's order, be taken from him."

Raymond Lawrence, pastor of the Mt. Vernon Baptist Church, was elected president of the Board of Directors of the Rockcastle County Hospital, at a meeting Monday night at the Baptist Church.

R. H. Hamm, Ottawa, was elected vice president. Clarence Carter, Mt. Vernon, clerk and Earl Turner, Pine Hill, treasurer.

Elected to the executive committee were: Carl Williams, Conway; Fontaine Jones, Freedom; Clyde Barnett and Roy Winstead, Mt. Vernon.

The president was authorized at the meeting to appoint two other persons, yet unannounced to work with him on a committee to seek a hospital administrator.

Mr. Pike declared many of his men had worked long and hard for the state and now they "are going without so much as a 'Thank You.' This is one of the worst things I've ever seen pulled," Mr. Pike said.

Mr. Pike went further: "I heard Happy say yesterday in an address before the assembly that he would take state employees out of politics and put them under a merit system. Now this has happened. He's 'Happy' sure making a good start."

At the time the state did a little firing, it did a little hiring. Appearing on the "list," as Mr. Pike handed it to the Signal, were:

Lee Faulkner, foreman W. D. Gentry, inspector; Walter Hasty and Corbett Smith, gas operators; Ben Wilson, Basil Moore, Frank Owens, Everett Purcell, Arthur Norton, Carl Edenton, L. E. Cash.

Skids are less likely on CONCRETE. The difference between a deadly skid and a safe, quick stop is often the pavement. You can stop faster, even in the rain, on concrete. That's because concrete's gritty surface gives your tires a firm, tight grip, wet or dry. Besides permitting better vehicle control, concrete makes nighttime driving safer too! Concrete's light-colored surface reflects up to four times more light than dark colored pavements. You can see farther and have more time to slow down or stop to avoid danger. Concrete roads also are safer because they're free from hazardous ruts, washboard wrinkles and raveled edges. It's worth remembering that when the weather is rough you're much safer on skid-resistant concrete. REMEMBER, YOU PAY MORE FOR POOR ROADS THAN FOR GOOD ROADS. KENTUCKY DESERVES THE BEST. The Signal Says—

PROGRESS AND VIOLENCE MARKED 1955

On the front page of the Signal we take a look at Rockcastle headlines of 1955 and find it a year marked with progress and violence.

On the asset side, Mt. Vernon can look back on 1955 and see a new hospital under construction. In scenic Cumberland In the area has an organization dedicated to bringing more business to Kentucky.

Agriculture-wise, Rockcastle residents can give thanks that rain was plentiful for their crops, and their farm produce and tobacco prices soared to new records.

In the area of education, there were more children enrolled in county and city schools, and school officials were making ends in most schools though it nearly emptied the state and county purse.

In another area, politics, Mt. Vernon did well. Republicanism in Kentucky nominated a former resident, Edwin K. Denney, for governor. Though it was not Mr. Denney's fortune to become governor, his candidacy helped Mt. Vernon into the center of the spotlight.

In another area, sports, Mt. Vernon High School, at the end of 1955, was headed toward statewide recognition in basketball, and was bringing the name, Mt. Vernon, more and more into state newspapers and radio headlines.

At Livingston, mindful of recreation as an important phase of county life, Dr. R. G. Webb and Livingston officials began work to establish a recreation center to get young people off Livingston's streets and give them something to do.

Though the county fared well in many respects, in one respect it did not. By the end of the year, it had become obvious that the automobile was more and more becoming a machine of destruction rather than a machine of business and pleasure. It had cost the county upwards to 16 lives, and very nearly eight more.

As 1956 makes its appearance, there is no relief in sight for countians from the useless slaughter on the highways. National laws remain too few and contradictory; fines too light; jail sentences too scarce; driver's licenses too easy to acquire; highways too inadequate; horsepower too high; and motorists themselves, too careless.

So again in 1956, Rockcastle County must share the highway death list with the rest of the nation. We are pleased we can look forward in 1956 to more material improvement. We only wish we could look forward to more physical safety.

"DOC" MAGGARD'S PRESCRIPTION FOR LIFE WILL BE HARD TO FILL

The untimely death of Druggist Marcus Maggard of a heart attack takes from our community one of our town's most illustrious citizens and staunch backers.

Since "Doc" came from Manchester years ago he was always active in projects which he believed would help bring recreation to the town. He always contributed financially and physically to its betterment.

Young people also looked with confidence to "Doc". To the young people he pointed out their attributes and encouraged those attributes. He also observed their weaknesses, but pointed them out sympathetically, always mindful of their changing fortunes in a fast world.

In sports, "Doc" set a hard pattern to follow. Through the years he gave Mt. Vernon basketballers, and other students, after school jobs and he always followed Mt. Vernon teams even when, as "Doc" often said, "They couldn't roll one into a bushel basket."

Though he had been plagued with illness since last summer, he never openly lost his sense of humor and as late as two nights before his death, he spoke optimistically about business, the town and youth.

His sudden death leaves a prescription for life that will be difficult for Mt. Vernon to fill. We believe it will be a long time before the "likes of Doc" will pass this way again.

HIGHWAY CREW (Continued from page 1) stronger in our area. When contacted at the State truck drivers, Ellis Marshall, Highway garage in Mt. Vernon, O. V. Smith, Estill Gentry, Mr. Faulkner stated he was not authorized to give out information about changes in the department and referred the signal to the Somerset office.

There was one other change in state personnel: Claude Dees, Brodhead, became the state's weighman at the Kentucky Stone Co., replacing Norton. The state buys rock from the company and keeps a man, employed by the state, to do weighing and to check the quality of the rock.

Mr. Pike related, as most consultants knew, he was for Bert Combs in the August primary election. He voted for the Chandler in the November election.

The former road boss, stated he and Mrs. Pike would take a trip or two to visit their Bradley Saylor, chairman of the committee for the Co-Op stand service, and then come back here to do work in politics again.

"My wife and I have always been Democrats and will continue to be Democrats. I am not sure Democratic county chair-ready to take the case to the man and will be for another Court of Appeals, that's where we will continue to work." We will continue to work to make the Democratic Party Frank Dees, president of the telephone company, declined to comment on the decision, other than to say "the court has made its decision and there isn't much more to say about it."

Two out of the three county teams shared the tournament spotlights as they won consolation honors. Livingston, host to their own tournament, allowed the Tyners to open the opening game of the tournament jumped back the next night to walk away with third place over Annville, who they have won two of their three victories. Oneida won first place in the tournament over Tyner in what proved to be a highly profitable and enjoyable tournament. Mt. Vernon, on the other hand, after falling before the very determined Harlan team, bounced back to win third place in the Clay County Tournament over London who had beaten them earlier in the season and in the tournament was the only defeat on the Red Devils slate. Harlan, who I had picked to finish last in the tournament, went on after defeating Mt. Vernon to win the championship game over previously unbeaten Clay County.

The Harlan team, who had beaten for the year, Brodhead, who drew a bye in the first round of play in the Memorial Invitational, being eliminated from the tournament's "their first game by Memorial in a one-sided contest, finishing at 27. The Tigers were anything but hot, on field goal percentages. Ronnie Stout and Kenneth Thompson, the first and two scorers for Brodhead scored 6 field goals between them out of 32 attempts. The Tigers will try to make it back in 1956 at the Memorial Friday on Memorials Court. The game should be a good one.

Results of Livingston Invitational Tournament
Oneida Trips Tyner 72-62 For Livingston Invitational Tournament: Championship
Oneida going into the tournament with a 6 won 0 loss record emerged as champion of the first Livingston Invitational Tournament as they downed the Tyner cakers 72 to 62. Flying in championship form, Oneida came from behind in the second half before subduing a stubborn Tyner five. Starting slow and trailing at intermission by 25 to 1 Oneida came back in the second half and poured it in as they pulled away in their victory march.

That was the second invitational championship for the Oneida team as they previously won their own invitational tournament in December 1955 and Hornsby shared scoring honors for the winners as they collected 23 and 21 respectively.

As a whole the tournament proved a big success. I am sure, the fans will be looking forward to next year when they will undoubtedly be attending the Livingston Invitational Tournament and who can tell but what the Livingston Blue Devils might reign as Champions. Let's hope so.

Tyner Drops Livingston's Blue Devils 71 to 59
Tyner got off to a fast start in the first quarter in the opening game of the Livingston Invitational Tournament and set back a determined Livingston quintet by the score of 71 to 59. Outscoring their opponents 18 to 10 in the first stanza, and never relinquishing that lead, the Tyner cagers fought their way into the final quarter of the holiday tournament.

Led by Paul Sturgill 34 points the Livingston Blue Devils were able to keep in control of the game, and they led by 15 points in the second quarter and outscoring their opponents in the third quarter by 16 to 10. The Blue Devils pulled to within 5 points of Tyner. Tyner in the last quarter broke loose though and poured 21 points through the Tyner defense, ending the scoring 14, to win going away Tyner was the victor over Livingston by 2 points in the first game for the Blue Devils this year.

Sturgill Scores 34
More than half of Livingston's numbers were contributed by Paul Sturgill the Blue Devils' flashy little guard as he tossed in 15 field goals and connected on 4 charity tosses. Box Score:

Memorial Bows To Mt. Vernon 72-64
"Is there a doctor in the house?" That was probably the thought on the minds of Memorial players as they fought the Memorial basketballers down to the last buzzer in a real tight game on the night of Monday night. Fighting an eye for an eye and a tooth for a tooth, throughout most of the contest left two of the Mt. Vernon players in the hospital. Some players were limping to remind them of this contest. Although there were only 25 fouls called in the game, the officials were on the job.

The officials, who seemed to be as mixed up as the players and more so had the game hanging at two times before it ended. Sometime during the second quarter one of the officials called a personal foul and a technical foul on one of the Mt. Vernon players. A time out was then taken by one of the teams.

When play resumed the officials were apparently for the moment was to shoot the foul shots, and awarded them to the wrong person. This was where the coaches came in. After approximately five minutes of arguing and the smoke cleared, Memorial had gained one point to their total and Mt. Vernon salvaged two points which had been counted against them.

Mt. Vernon came back in the second half after trailing at intermission 36 to 33 and employed a very effective defense. The Memorial Memorial standing cold. Billy Gregory playing his best offensive game of the year came through with some very timely baskets and eight points in the second half to help spearhead the Mt. Vernon attack. John Dale Helton held break loose with some beautiful jump shots and tips and controlled the rebounds the second half while piling up 18 points for the night. Kenny "Cory" Cornelius came through with his usual share of points by contributing 28 points but Memorial held on by Helton while his opponents were rolling on. Tightening up in the second half though with his fast Mt. Vernon team to break the Memorial team.

Individual scoring for Mt. Vernon:
Cornelius 28, Helton 18, Chaney 12, Dunn 2 and Gregory 10.
Mt. Vernon's B team squeezed out an exciting victory over Memorial by the score of 45 to 14.

State Gets $48,517 In Forest Money
United States Senator Earle C. Clements announced today that he had been advised by the U. S. Forest Service that a total of $48,517 has been deposited in the State Treasury to the credit of Bath, 1955.

The money, known as McCauley, Menifee, Morgan, Owsley, Pike, Powell, Pulaski, Rockcastle, Rowan, Wayne, Whitley, and Wolfe County money, represents the county's share of the receipts collected by the United States Forest Service for the forest products sold from and the commercial uses made of the Cumberland National Forest over the year which ended June 30, 1955.

The amount is 25% of the total collection of the Forest's receipts and is the annual payment to the counties in which the federal forest land is located. It is based upon a law passed in 1908 and is specifically intended for the support of schools and roads.

The Cumberland National Forest is relatively young as a national forest. Its first sale of timber was made in 1938. During this initial year of timber sale business, the money to counties amounted to but $383.99. Ten years later in 1948 the payment to counties was raised to $273,776.

The payment to counties amounted to $48,517.36. Senator Clements points to this growth as an object lesson in how the Woodlands of Kentucky placed under proper land management can be made to produce a sustained crop of forest products.

Mr. Clements says the U. S. Forest Service figures show the Cumberland National Forest has only begun to reach its normal rate of growth and production. He says that the forest can be expected to show greater increases than the last ten.

Cure for Worry
Lesson for January 8, 1956
"I have no thought for you or for the body, what ye shall put on. Did I say so? No. But how foolish it sounds! Christians do take thought for what they eat, they plan meals, they eat in great quantities, it is possible they make out grocery lists, they store food in freezers. They take thought for their bodies, too, didn't you get out your winter underwear, coats, sweaters, overcoat, and didn't you store those last summer when the weather was so good? So what's the matter? You couldn't get it. Dr. Foreman says, 'Very good Christians act as if they never said, 'Take no thought for the body, for ye have a Father who careth for you. In fact, the instinct of such Christians has always been right. Jesus never did say this. The Bible has always been clear. The word of Jesus the Right Teacher, which Greek scholars have always known was, 'Do not be anxious. Thought for the future is not wrong, anxiety about the future is wrong for a Christian, and not good sense for anybody.'"

"Fear Father Knows ..."
"Worry is a kind of disease and Jesus offers a cure for it. He had tested it in his own life first, and those who trust in God discovered that it will work. First, and most important ingredient in this cure for worry is trust in God. Many people believe in God, after a fashion, without trusting him. Jesus reminds us that God is our Father, and that he knows our hearts and minds. He will not see to it that we shall get what we need without our having to lift a single weight of care upon us. As all we want, but we can be confident that our Father in heaven is no more other than the Father who is in heaven. He knows every hair on your head, however small. The seeds of the flowers in the meadow, the nests of the birds on the hills. God knows these things, and he will take care of them. He will not depend on him. Worry is a sign we have forgotten God. Do not worry about anything, for he is strong enough to do what is right."

Neutane and Molehill
Most human minds are pretty active. They are like a sweet pea vine. They don't find a flower or a trellis they will climb up the nearest weed. So our minds go right around around weeds and trellises. The best of us when this should be climbing into the sunshine. A second ingredient in Jesus' cure for worry is faith. Faith is the first thing that we must have. Faith is the things that are least important. Jesus picks out bread, dried grapes, and things which all the nations of the world are seeking. Now these things are important. It is not wrong to be greedy for these things. But when they take first place in our minds, when we are anxious about these things forgetting other things, we are wrong. We are all the trouble our worrying causes us. The preacher who worries more over how he says a thing than about what to say, the mother who worries more over her children's clothes than over their minds, the Martha of the world who worries about "Worry so simply." You can't even pray it away, though prayer does help enormously, and 'as was said, 'Worry so simply.' Worry so simply is inevitable. Worry has to be worked away. Jesus' cure for worry includes this: 'Seek God's kingdom, and he will give you next to nothing. God is not mean food and drink but righteousness and peace and joy in the Holy Spirit.' (Rom. 14:17) Any man who has more 'appas and trellises' in this world, working to make this earth more like heaven, will find that his worries have mostly evaporated."

(Rom. 14:17) Any man who has more 'appas and trellises' in this world, working to make this earth more like heaven, will find that his worries have mostly evaporated."

Worry is Not to be Got Rid of simply by sitting down in an easy-chair and saying, 'Worry so simply.' You can't even pray it away, though prayer does help enormously, and 'as was said, 'Worry so simply.' Worry so simply is inevitable. Worry has to be worked away. Jesus' cure for worry includes this: 'Seek God's kingdom, and he will give you next to nothing. God is not mean food and drink but righteousness and peace and joy in the Holy Spirit.' (Rom. 14:17) Any man who has more 'appas and trellises' in this world, working to make this earth more like heaven, will find that his worries have mostly evaporated."

SOIL CONSERVATION NEWS

Woodland conservation in one practice that is important to the Rockcastle County Soil Conservation District. Approximately one-half of the area of the county is in woodland. A few acres that have been cleared in years past need to be set back in trees. The district supervisors pooled orders for trees for this county last year and sent them to the State Division of Forestry.

A total of about 45 acres of trees were set in the spring of 1955. Willie Bullen, W. S. Stewart and Dr. George Griffith have expressed their intentions of setting trees in 1956. Farmers should get orders in early as the Division of Forestry usually runs short of trees and can't fill all orders.

Earl Roberts of Ottawa has had the district forester, Walter Disney, to cruise his woods and mark the trees that need to be cut and he estimated the board feet of each kind of timber. This enables Mr. Roberts to sell his timber to better advantage and not have his woods "butchered" where cutting begins. He can manage his timber as a crop and have a continuous income from the woodland.
