Fertilize Pastures This Spring; Cut Feed Costs, Up Net Income

Cattle make profit-building weight gains on fertilized pasture.
FARMERS can boost forage yields, cut feeding costs and get higher net returns on beef and dairy cattle by fertilizing their pastures this spring. Reports the Middle West Soil Improvement Committee.
"Fertilized pastures can add many days to aig grazing season," says the committee, "and produce more and better forage."
How much fertilizer to add and what grade to use, "will depend on the soil's need for nutrients," the committee points out.
"On improved pastures," says the committee, "some Midwestern agronomists advise putting on 300 or more pounds of phosphate-potash fertilizer and then adding needed nitrogen at the rate of 30 to 60 pounds per acre."
"For rotational pastures or haylands, they suggest using about the same amount of fertilizer as on improved fields."
Farmers are advised to wait until the ground is firm and the pasture stand is four to six inches high before turning cattle into the fields.
"Good management is essential to keep legumes in a pasture stand," says the committee.
"Agronomists emphasize that good management protects the investment a farmer has in good seed, liming, fertilizer and the work involved in getting a good pasture stand established."

IN MEMORY OF OUR MOTHER

MRS. MARY T. STEWART
A precious one from us has gone,
A voice we loved is stilled,
A place is vacant in our home,
A vacancy that can never be filled.
The loneliness in our hearts is all we can bear,
We miss you more each day,
Mother,
Since God called you to His care,
You are now sleeping with Jesus,
You live with us in memory,
And will for ever more.
God needed another Angel
To worship before His throne,
So, He looked down from heaven
And called our loved one home.
God took you, it was His will,
Time has passed since that sad day,
But the memory lingers still
Of the day that you went away.
More and more we miss you,
Friends may think the wound has healed,
But they little know the sorrow
That lives in our hearts concealed.
Yes God took you home, it was His good will,
We often have visions of you in our sleep,
And see a guiding star over your grave,
The one we loved dearly but could not keep.
Now the rest is left to you,
If in heaven your face we expect to see,
We will have to make our "calling clear"
If we expect to live with you in eternity,
The Stewart Children 3011

This is my last year with you, but I advise you to merge Mt. Vernon High School with Rockcastle County Schools," Clyde Linville, superintendent of Mt. Vernon Grade and High School, told the Board of Education—PTA meeting Monday night.

Mr. Linville did not speak for very long. Most of his time was spent on reading a letter from the state and reciting the 10 reasons why the State believes it would be to advantage for Mt. Vernon High School to merge with county schools.

Mr. Linville stated he had heard countless rumors since news of the merger became public knowledge. He advised parents and teachers to take the rumors lightly and to seek the facts.

- Below is listed the 10 reasons given by the state:
1. A better long range program of public education for all children concerned, especially at the high school level.
 2. The merger is strongly recommended in the School Facilities Survey of 1952-53 which is the basic guide for all school planning in Kentucky.
 3. Assures a high school center for Mt. Vernon and also calls for the construction of a new elementary school center. This means Mt. Vernon would ultimately expand as a school center after a merger.
 4. The good influence of citizens in Mt. Vernon when unified with that of the County would be most helpful to public education as it serves all the children.
 5. The Mt. Vernon Independent District is small and its future is uncertain. It is most likely that it will become more and more difficult for Mt. Vernon High School to meet present day standards for adequate secondary education.
 6. The people of Mt. Vernon and Rockcastle County are dependent and closely associated with each other in business, industry, religion and in social affairs. To become merged in education would unify the people in almost all respects in a county that realistically has a population too small for two separate school districts.
 7. There are many Chamber of Commerce aspects to a merger. New industry as well as good families tend in practically all instances to locate in communities with good schools.
 8. There is presently a state of good-will and a spirit of cooperation existing between the two school districts.
 9. A merger would solve many of the transportation problems that are presently beginning to develop in the Mt. Vernon District.
 10. There is a definite state and nationwide trend toward the merger of school districts and consolidation of small school centers within a district solely for the purpose of providing more adequate educational opportunities for the children. Much of the present day adverse criticism against the public schools is actually based on especially small high schools. The average enrollment for high schools in the U. S. is less than 200, but we need at least 300 enrolled to provide adequate Curricular offerings.

At that time a general proposal was made that the Mt. Vernon High School become a county high school; Livingston High School become an elementary school with high school students attending school at Mt. Vernon. It was also proposed that an elementary school be built at Mt. Vernon for Mt. Vernon children.

The State's proposal is nothing new. In annual reports for the last three years the State has suggested the county look to the day of a centrally located high school.

Orlando Students See Mt. Vernon First TWO CAUGHT IN THEFT ATTEMPT

The four upper grades at Orlando Grade School toured Mt. Vernon last week, and glimpsed the mysteries of their county seat.

Mrs. Isabel Mason, their teacher, arranged for the children to visit the courthouse. Bro. George Murphy conducted the children through the courthouse and each official explained his duties. Mrs. Mason said, "Some of the children have been in the courthouse before but none of them knew what happened there." They were astonished by every office, she added.

At the Bank of Mt. Vernon, the children went through the vault, learned about the value of money, saw pictures being made of each check that comes to the bank, saw several $100 bills and a very old $1 bill, the type that is extra large. Before they left, each child was presented a pencil.

How to Grow Top Corn Yields

Crib-busting yield (right) comes when corn crop gets heavy pre-planting application of fertilizer, plus starter and plenty of additional nitrogen.

SEVEN steps for getting top yields of corn this year were listed by the Middle West Soil Improvement Committee, based on suggestions by University of Illinois agronomists:

- 1—Get the soil tested now if this hasn't been done recently. This will allow plenty of leeway to order fertilizer in time for spring planting.
- 2—If the test indicates the soil is low in phosphate and potash, you will need large amounts of these nutrients. These large fertilizer applications should be broadcast and plowed or worked into the soil before planting. Nitrogen is needed, too. Where corn does not follow a plowed-down legume, add anywhere from 80 to 150 pounds of nitrogen fertilizer per acre.
- 3—If the soil test is high, use maintenance amounts of fertilizer to keep it that way.
- 4—Plow and prepare a good seedbed, but don't work the soil to death.
- 5—Plant 16,000 good kernels per acre of an adapted hybrid.
- 6—Add a starter fertilizer in the planter attachment as a matter of insurance. In cold, wet weather this can be particularly helpful in increasing yields. The starter fertilizer should include nitrogen, phosphate and potash. This should be applied with the fertilizer attachment a few inches to the side and either at seed level or below seed level.
- 7—Cultivate only enough to control weeds. Avoid deep cultivation.

F. L. Kurtz, University of Illinois agronomist, points out that a loose, well-drained soil with good water-holding capacity is essential for 100 bushel corn yields. Other essentials include sufficient rainfall, warm days with lots of sunshine and an absence of scorching, dry weather, particularly at pollinating time.

Observe Safety Rules Children Admonished

Kentucky State Police Director Paul M. Smith recommends these safety rules for children to obey on the highway:

Obey—all-traffic-officers, school patrols, traffic signs and signals and pavement markings. Use roller skates, tricycles, wagons and scooters on the sidewalk only.

Practice rules learned in school about crossing streets and playing only in safe places.

Always take the safest route between school and home.

Walk on the left side of the road, facing traffic, if there are no sidewalks.

State Orders Crackdown On Reckless Drivers

The State has ordered a new crackdown on reckless drivers to halt "mass highway slaughter."

Safety Commissioner Dan Sturgill noted an "alarming increase" in traffic fatalities lately and said he had instructed State Police to take "severe preventive action."

This will include, he said, "a large scale use of highway roadblocks which will operate day and night."

Sturgill added: "Also, if in the course of checking for driver's license violations, persons should be observed driving under the influence of alcohol, such persons will be cited under the drunk-driving statutes of our state."

Addition of State Police personnel over the last 12 months will enable him to set up an increased number of roadblocks, he said.

The Signal Says--

NO MERGER, WE CAN'T AFFORD TO BE WRONG

Monday night, some 300 parents and teachers interested in Mt. Vernon Grade and High School turned out for a meeting with the Mt. Vernon Board of Education to hear a discussion on merging Mt. Vernon Grade and High School with Rockcastle County Schools.

We have known for at least two years that the State Department of Education has wanted to merge the schools in the county for reasons recounted by Clyde Linville at the Monday night meeting. Those reasons are enumerated in a story on the front page of this issue.

Basically, merger boils down to a couple of three points. 1) It is getting to the place where small school districts cannot survive for very long, especially in areas where populations ordinarily decrease. (See Point 5 in other story) Apparently, the state sees this in prospect for Mt. Vernon High School and has more or less ordered merger. The State says, in so many words: If you people want a high school at Mt. Vernon you'd better take it while you can get it. The day may come when what will be merged and your students may go to the school that's available at the time.

2) On the other side, if there is merger it is within the realm of possibility that when another Board is voted that Board could change its mind on whatever contract the original Board made. But this is most unlikely since any change in schools for Mt. Vernon children would mean taking students from a heavily populated area to a rural area. That is not financially feasible.

These are the prospects we must face in deciding to merge or not to merge. On the surface, it appears we have no alternative but to merge. If the State has merger in mind and this is the first step, then we cannot stop that merger without sacrificing the education of our future citizens.

Our problem is a great one. We know of no other problem so important to face this community, because it concerns our future citizens.

We urge the public to forget personal feelings, politics, convenience and prejudice, and approach the question with open mind and reliance on statistics. Rockcastle children deserve our best thinking and their welfare and education demands our best decision. We cannot afford to be wrong.

Reasons For School Merger

Mr. Linville also read a letter from Ted C. Gilbert, Head, Bureau of Administration and Finance, State Department of Education. That letter is as follows: April 25, 1958

Mr. Clyde Linville, Superintendent
Mt. Vernon Independent Schools
Mt. Vernon, Kentucky
Dear Clyde:

O. B. Wilder and I certainly want to express our appreciation for the gracious hospitality you, your wife and members of your board of education extended to us last night. It certainly was a pleasure to be with all of you. The dinner was a real treat so please convey our thanks to the teachers and girls who did such a nice job in preparing it and serving it.

Clyde, I am sorry we were not in possession of the correct figures concerning the present outstanding bonds in the Rockcastle County School District. Mr. Roschi was out of the office yesterday afternoon, so we didn't get to check his figures before we left for Mt. Vernon. We have rechecked this morning and find the following financial status we would have if the two districts merged.

Combined Assessment	$2,295,830.00
6% of Combined Assessment	$ 557,749.80
Outstanding Bonds 6-30-58	$ 441,000.00
Amount of New Bonds That Can Be Issued	$ 1,167,749.00

Checking further, I find that the capital outlay allotment for the combined districts would be about $58,360.00, with only $406,406.25 of the $58,360.00 needed for the financing of the present outstanding bonds plus a new issue of about $115,000, which I assume would be issued for construction of a new ten-room elementary center in Mt. Vernon. This leaves about $17,953.75 still unencumbered in the capital outlay fund which could be used to help piece out the new construction and also be applied to purchase of equipment.

With Roy Smith working on site selection and good planning of the new elementary school, I believe the new elementary school could be provided in a merger. If your board so desires, I could send Roy down for an early thorough exploration of all possibilities related to this matter.

Thanks again for very courtesy. Best personal regards to your good wife and board.

Sincerely yours,
Ted C. Gilbert, Head
Bureau of Administration and Finance

Former Principal Discusses Merger

located high school at Mt. Vernon.

Mr. Amis told his audience: "The welfare of all the people and the quality of citizenship will be affected for years to come by your decision. You should by all means give the question of merger your most serious consideration."

"I have found," Mr. Amis said, "through years of study and work in the school system, that the small-school unit cannot do an adequate job of educating the young people of the merged with larger units. Mt. Vernon is faced with this prospect. At this point, Mt. Vernon High School still has a half a million dollars. Mt. Vernon's bonded indebtedness of $200,000."

He explained that it is necessary to have an adequate number of students in high school in order to obtain financial aid (last year Mt. Vernon High School got $75,000). If the State should decide to raise the total high school students to 250, in order to receive State aid, and Mt. Vernon High School has 180, it would be forced to merge to claim its State benefits. "Sooner or later you have to merge. That is the point. You had better try to work out an agreement now that is to the advantage of Mt. Vernon, Mr. bonds that could be issued under state law. Therefore, when you decide, put all there could be little change made in the plant at Mt. Vernon for a few years.

Dr. John D. Henderson, Mt. Vernon dentist, summed up the meeting by urging everyone to consider all the facts in question and to decide on a sane, sensible approach to solving the question. He also urged everyone to rely on the Board of Education which is the only group that can vote to merge the school. Mrs. Ann B. Farris, president of the PTA was in charge of the meeting. She introduced Clyde Linville, superintendent of Mt. Vernon High School. His remarks will be found in another story on this page of the Signal.

On the speakers platform besides Mr. Bryant and Mr. Linville were J. M. Smock and Bill Dowell, board members. Present were board members, Gene Shokes and Gordon Graham.

Meridian Club Sees Exercise Demonstration

Meridian Women's Club members saw a demonstration Monday night, of exercises which were designed for "spot reducing, gaining weight and losing weight, but most of all for suppleness and a feeling of general well being," according to Mrs. Dorothy Christian of Berea.

Assisting Mrs. Christian in the demonstration were Mrs. Helen Williams, Mrs. Ross Wheeler, Mrs. Dorothy Byrd and Mrs. Ozella Gilbert.

The Meridian club is considering sponsoring a class of this type in the fall. The cost of such a course was not revealed.

The Club voted to sponsor a course in dressmaking this summer. Details will be given later.

The Club also voted to petition the Mt. Vernon school board for the purpose of having a course on driving taught in conjunction with Civics in the high school. The course would stress the hazards and safety practices of driving.

Mrs. Joyce Henderson gave a talk on civil defense and exhibited a first aid kit which should be kept on hand for any emergency and especially in the case of emergencies.

The meeting was held at the home of Mrs. Earl Hammons. Mrs. Ann Farris and Mrs. Clark Brown were co-hostesses.

Devotional was given by Mrs. Ann Farris.

County Capers tickets are now on sale and can be bought from any member of the Meridian or Jaycee Clubs.

Let's Talk About YOUR ROCKCASTLE RIVER DAM PROJECT

The Rockcastle Development Association has worked tirelessly on the Rockcastle River Dam, but you have not received the support in your Congressman. You need a Congressman who will work to give his time and talents to your project -- and know what is going on at all times in Congress -- a Congressman who will report to you.

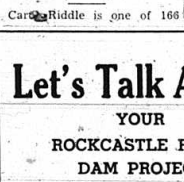

It will mean industry to expand the future business, provide jobs, attract tourists, and increase the value of your land and business places. I pledge my full support, time, effort and talents to get this project started and completed as early as possible. I will see it through.
