Fall Brooding Of Chicks More In Order Than Before

Brooding chicks for profit in the fall and early winter is becoming more in order than ever before, says J. E. Humphrey, Kentucky Agricultural Extension Service.

One reason is that demand for chicks for seasons other than spring is increasing; this is especially important for production of broiler-type layers, as broiler producers are demanding chicks year-round now.

Commercial egg-laying flocks also require chicks more often, many such producers growing two broods a year.

Humphrey says there is little difference in laying ability and profits from fall-hatched and spring-hatched chicks, likewise some producers use fall-hatched chicks to level off production of eggs in commercial laying flocks.

"Growers now have had enough experience with late fall and winter brooding so that weather is no longer a problem in housing and feeding operations; and sunshine is not an absolute must for good growth as feeds now contain all the essentials for steady, healthy growth."

Continuous Refrigeration Best For Egg Storage

Don't leave eggs at room temperature any longer than necessary if you don't want them to lose their good fresh flavor. That happens if eggs warm up to room temperature. Home economists in research at the U. S. Department of Agriculture recommend keeping eggs in the refrigerator for cold storage without their refrigeration is necessary for them to hold their fresh flavor.

In laboratory experiments, newly-laid eggs that were refrigerated for 13 weeks, then were soft cooked, had as good flavor as Grade-A eggs. Eggs refrigerated for 23 weeks in the tests still gave Grade-A flavor to baked custards and angel food cakes.

A Home Business Center Encourages Record Keeping

Every home should have a center where its business can be carried on easily, and where all needed supplies and equipment are kept together in a convenient place. This makes for efficiency and satisfaction in conducting the affairs of the home.

The statement is from Miss Frances Stallard, Extension specialist in home management at the University of Kentucky. Such a center, she says, invites one to keep careful account of receipts and records, with the result that income tax sessions and other financial reports are not the bugbears they once were.

A business center need not be expensive. Some homemakers have reconditioned the old type of kitchen cabinet for the purpose. The top part is fastened to the wall leaving the table top for the writing surface. The interior of both top and bottom sections are then remade for convenient filing and storage.

A chest is a good starting point for a business center. The front of the top drawer is removed and then hinged in place. When it is let down, it becomes the writing surface. Files may be built in by the careful craftsman. This idea is seen in some pieces of modern furniture for use where space is at a premium.

A shallow closet or a doorway can be permanently closed may become a business center. After planning for the drop-front desk at the proper height, shelves may be added above and below for storage of files, needed reference books and a section for recipe books. The center then becomes a convenient place for planning meals, making grocery lists and keeping household accounts.

The well equipped desk has the usual supplies, which are replaced when exhausted—stationery, pencils, pen and ink, blotters, erasers, paper clips, rubber bands, pads and the like. Shallow boxes or wood dividers will help keep the supply drawer in good order. A calendar, dictionary, address book, daily schedule, and waste baskets are also essential. A desk scissors and pencil sharpener are convenient accessories. A comfortable desk chair should not be forgotten.

Large Apple Crop Adds To Menu Variety
The large apple crop is real enough for scores of apple pies and cobblers, but many other apple delicacies will add variety and interest to menus, says Extension home economists at the University of Kentucky. These suggestions for some uses for apples come from the U. S. Department of Agriculture:

FRIED APPLES AND BACON: Pare tart apples and cut into cubes to make a quart. Fry strips of bacon in a heavy skillet until crisp, then drain on absorbent paper. To two tablespoons of bacon fat in the skillet add the apples and two tablespoons of sugar. Cover and cook slowly until apples are tender. Remove cover, turn apples gently and let them brown and become transparent. Serve on hot platter with the bacon. Thin slices of ham, salt pork or sausage may be used in place of the bacon.

GLAZED APPLE RINGS: Cook together 1 cup of sugar, 1 cup of water and ¼ teaspoon of salt for ten minutes. Add two tablespoons of butter. Wash, core and cut into three or four thick slices. Place the apple rings in a single layer in a shallow buttered pan and pour the hot syrup over them. Cover and bake in a moderate oven, 350 degrees, until tender. Remove cover and continue cooking until the syrup is thick and slightly browned. Turn the apples occasionally. Serve the hot apples with the main course of a meal, or chill and serve as a relish.

CIDER GELATIN SALAD: Soak

two tablespoons of gelatin in ½ cup of cold cider. Heat two cups of cider to the boiling point and pour into the gelatin, stirring until it is dissolved. Strain and chill. When the gelatin begins to set, add 1 cup chopped apples, ½ cup chopped celery, ¼ tablespoon finely chopped parsley or green pepper and ¼ cup chopped nuts. Pour into individual molds which have been rinsed with cold water. Serve with mayonnaise on lettuce.

BLUSHING APPLE SALAD: Make a syrup of two cups of water and 1 cup of sugar and cook three minutes. Pare and core firm, tart apples. Cover with the syrup and add enough red cinnamon candies to make the apples rose color. Cook covered, gently, until the apples are tender. Drain the apples.

Four big reasons why FORD IS OUTSELLING ALL OTHER '59 CARS

AT THE BRUSSELS WORLD'S FAIR, the '59 Fords were awarded the Gold Medal for handsome new styling elegance by the Comité Français de l'Édition.

The world's best-selling car is the car with Thunderbird elegance. In the greatest styling decision of the year, the American public has already shown a clear preference for the new Ford. Ford sales are way ahead of all competition. Why? One reason is the classic simplicity of their Thunderbird-inspired design—clean, crisp lines that are pure automobile! And Fords are built for people to in, to drive, to ride in—with comfort.

ANYONE CAN FIT IN A FORD: Our cars are built for people—full-size people who want space to stretch out. And all passengers ride in deep-cushion comfort.

The car in hottest demand across the land has greater roominess and comfort. Thousands of customers have bought the new Ford over all competition for another compelling reason—it's a true six-passenger car. (The only four-passenger car recommended is the Thunderbird!) All six Ford passengers get plenty of every kind of room—from leg and head to elbow and hip. Rear seat passengers don't feel like they're riding with their feet in a bucket!

YOU'LL BE THANKFUL EVERY TIME if you buy the new Ford, for you'll save up to a dollar a tankful with new engines that run superbly on regular gas.

The No. 1 car in sales saves money on gas, on oil, on maintenance bills. A new Ford will save you up to 5¢ a gallon on gas. That's because both standard engines—Six or Thunderbird V-8—thrive on regular gas. And Ford saves on oil, too, with a Full-Flow Oil Filter as standard equipment. Drive 4000 miles between oil changes! And you can forget about waxing your car. Ford's Diamond Lustre Finish stays gleaming bright without waxing—ever!

THE FAMOUS FORD LOW PRICES have already made a hit, because only in Fords will you find value and beauty coming together at down-to-earth prices!

The most popular American car is priced as much as $102.75 lower. Ford costs you less right down the line than the competition. Compare price tags and you'll see that the manufacturer's suggested retail price of a Ford, equipped with radio, heater and automatic transmission, is as much as $102.75 less than the major competition! And on an air-conditioned car, you can save up to $219.85. So compare and save on a 1959 Ford!

Livingston Wins Twice While Other Locals Lose

Blue Devils Suffer First Loss To Tyner

Continuing to take a lead in games played and games won over the other two high schools in Rockcastle County, Livingston High School's Blue Devils won two games in three outings starting last Friday night to run up an aggregate win-loss record of 4-1.

The accurate shooting of Tyner's Rex King gave that team half its points as Livingston went down to its first defeat of the season on the showdown of a 57-60 score. Paul Ponder with 19 points led all scorers on the losing team, followed closely by Paul Sturgill with 18. Other scorers were Walter Ballinger, 7, and Tilmon Milburn, 13.

The Devil's made a comeback Saturday night at Middleburg, where they downed the host team 58-46. Milburn was high for the night with 20 points, while his closest teammate in the scoring column, Ballinger, garnered only 11. Ponder scored 8, William Smith and Alvin Owens scored 6 each, Denny McGuire tallied 5 and Amos Owens rounded out the scoring with 2.

Traveling to Ansville for their third engagement within the space of five nights, the Blue Devils lengthened their current unbeaten streak to two games with a decisive 79-54 victory over Ansville. Paul Sturgill took high-scoring laurels for the night with 22 points. Ponder followed with 16, and Ballinger was third with 9. Milburn scored 8 points and McGuire racked up 6 to round out the scoring.

Mt. Vernon lost its inaugural home engagement to Hustonville, while Brodhead took its second defeat of the season Tuesday night when Tyner made in two in succession against county schools.

Brodhead dropped its second game in as many outings Tuesday night when Tyner made the Tigers their second victim within the county by a score of 58-48.

High-scoring player for the night was Tyner's Rex King, who swished the nets for 25 points. Lawwell led the local team with 22 points, Parkerson netted 12, Brown and Turpin scored 6 each and Bradley tallied 2.

Friday night, Livingston will have a home engagement with Parksville and Brodhead will be host to Crab Orchard, an earlier victim of Livingston. Mt. Vernon plays Paint Lick at home Tuesday night.

Little Time For Diabetes Tests

"Only a few more days are left in which Kentuckians can take advantage of the free urine sugar tests being offered by physicians, hospitals and laboratories in Kentucky," Dr. Robert J. Hoffman, chairman of the Kentucky State Medical Association's Diabetes Committee, said today.

In cooperation with the American Diabetes Association, the KSMA is sponsoring for the eighth year a Diabetes Detection and Education Week in Kentucky, during which time a concerted effort is being made to find as many as possible of the estimated 15,000 Kentuckians who unknowingly have diabetes.

"More than 1,000 persons," Dr. Hoffman continued, "are now leading happier, healthier lives as a result of having taken advantage of the free tests offered during the seven previous campaigns."

"Early detection of diabetes is very important," he said, "because control measures are much simpler if the disease is discovered early."

All Kentuckians, even those who may have had the test a year ago, are urged by Dr. Hoffman to take advantage of the free tests before the week is over, at which time the drive will come to a close.

Every person in the county is urged to have a free test made at the Rockcastle County Baptist Hospital this week.

Remember, one out of every 160 persons has diabetes.

Jaycee Membership Reaches Record High

With a paid membership of 40, bringing the size of the local organization to an all-time high, the local Jaycees met Monday night for the last meeting of their current membership drive and mapped plans for the future.

Chief topics of the meeting were the setting up of the Christmas Nativity scene, planning the annual banquet for Jaycees and their wives or guests, and discussion of the part each member will play in the annual Christmas party for needy children at Renfro Valley.

Also introduced to the group as a possible project was the possibility of joining with the PTA in operating the playground next summer.

David McCauley, who for the second consecutive week had the largest group, brought Clyde Payne as a new member. Chick Newland had the lowest yield for the second week in succession, although he brought the only other new member, Charles Rickels.

Technically, Newland's team would be required to care for the goat for another week, but a squabble erupted as to who would get to buy the goat, and Ossie Yates bought it to auction.

"We have an interest in Rockcastle County and we feel that there are interested people here. As representatives of the Kentucky Chamber of Commerce, which manifests interest in every community, we are trying to hold together those interests."

With these words, W. A. Smith, an executive of the Kentucky Utilities Company, addressed some 25 citizens of Rockcastle County who gathered at the firehouse Tuesday morning to hear an industrial team from the Kentucky Chamber of Commerce lecture on the necessary steps needed to be taken to insure Mt. Vernon and Rockcastle County of an industrial future.

The meeting, which lasted approximately one-and-one-half hours, covered the various points of civic development under two major categories: Community Development and Industrial Development.

"The community development aspect of the plan as explained by Smith, consists of clean-up campaigns, building improvements, cultivation of flowers. Also stressed is the importance of lighting up Main Street and making store window displays appear attractive to consumers."

"Win the local consumer away from other towns and the mail order houses and you are well on your way to improving your community," Smith said. He added that an active development program depended on the existence of an active organization with which to organize all activities.

So says Rockcastle County Conservation Officer Irvin Smith in a special pre-season report on the state's 1958 hunting possibilities. Smith said early reports from biologists indicate rabbit, quail and squirrel populations are steadily increasing and that this should be a banner hunting year on a state-wide level.

There will be minor local fluctuations of game, but he said the overall picture is bright. He pointed particularly to the upcoming gun deer season. The season opens on Nov. 27. (Continued on page 4)
