County Extension Council:
A new approach in determining problems and needs of Rockcastle County will be taken up in 1959.

A meeting was held in the Mt. Vernon High School on Jan. 22 for the purpose of organizing a County Extension Council.

The overall purpose of the council is to assume major responsibility for developing a County Extension Program and to help inform the people in the county about the cooperative extension work.

The council has as its objectives: to recognize the problems and opportunities relating to agriculture and home economics in the county; to assume leadership responsibilities for developing a long-time extension program in the county; to provide major assistance in formulating the annual plan of work; and to establish committees and provide leadership for implementing the extension program. Committee members will represent clubs interested in agriculture and home economics.

Those attending the initial organization meeting of the county were: Clyde Linville, Clay Colson, Leonard Powell, Madison Graves, Burt McWhorter, Andrew Schiff, Mrs. Mary Rita Schiff, Mrs. Flora Mae Brown, Roy Brown, R. H. Hamm, Rev. Dean Davis, Rev. Lee Hopkins, Wallace Proctor and John Houston.

Officers elected for the council are: Clyde Linville, Chairman; Roy Brown, Vice-Chairman; and Mrs. Mary Rita Schiff, Secretary.

Representatives from various organizations in the county will be asked to serve on this council. It is hoped that the following organizations will be represented after the council has been completely organized: R. E. A.; Lions Clubs; Homemakers Clubs; Chamber of Commerce; Junior Chamber of Commerce; Press; Radio; Farmers Home Administration; Highway Department; Farm Bureau; Rockcastle County Development Association; Mt. Vernon Board of Education; Rockcastle County Board of Education; Churches; State Representative; Division of Fish and Wildlife Division of Forestry; Telephone Company; Welfare Agency; Health Department; A. S. C.; Recreation; Fiscal Court; Bank Representative; Soil Conservation Service; and 4-H Clubs.

At the next meeting of the County Extension Council, Feb. 26, it is hoped that all the members of the council will give consideration to the major problems and needs of the people in Rockcastle County. The problems brought out at this meeting will be placed in various categories and a study committee will be set up for each problem area to try to determine who holds the problem, whose responsibility it is for solving the problem and a plan of action for solving some of our major problems.

After a study has been made for each committee, the committee chairman will report the results of the study back to the overall Extension Council. It is hoped that this County Extension Council, along with the study groups will come out with a long-time program of work based upon the needs and wants of the people of Rockcastle County and one that can be carried out through the cooperation of the Extension Service and other organized groups in the county.

Farmers Tax Guide:
We now have in the County Agent's Office a supply of the 1959 edition of Farmers Tax Guide, put out by the Treasury Department of Internal Revenue.

You may have a copy of this booklet by calling at the County

Agent's Office—first come—first served.

Some of the information contained in this publication is as follows: A Sample Return; Filing Requirements—and Return Forms; Accounting Periods and Methods; Importance of Good Records; Income to Be Reported; Farm Business Expenses; Other Deductions and Personal Exemptions; Completing Your Return; Farm Inventories; Depreciation and Depletion, Capital Gains and Losses, Determining Basis for Gain or Loss, Casualty Losses and Thefts; Trades, Condemnations and Disposed Livestock; Soil and Water Conservation and Self-Employment Social Security Tax.

This is a very important publication to have if you are a farmer and are making an income tax return for 1958.

Brucellosis
Brucellosis is slowly, but surely, being eradicated in the United States. Thirty-three per cent of all counties in the United States, including 15 states, are now Modified Certified Brucellosis-free. Kentucky is in this group; 21 have finished petitioning and are on the waiting list; 29 are circulating petitions. This leaves only 38 counties without an organized program for Area Testing.

Are You An Average Cattleman?
Kentucky has more than doubled her numbers in beef cattle in the last 17 years but in the rush for numbers some have sacrificed quality. Of the 6,159 calves sold in 16 feeder calf sales throughout the state in '57 only 12 per cent graded choice and fancy, 44 per cent good and 23 per cent medium, 16 per cent ungraded while Tennessee had 23 per cent choice and fancy, 37 per cent good and 30 per cent medium. Virginia and West Virginia rated even higher in choice and fancy calves and lower in medium. How many calves do you sell each year that grade below average? The average weight of 1300 pounds of milk below steer calves sold in the 17 feeder calf sales in '58 was 500 plus pounds. Medium steers averaged only 14 per cent of her 23.44, good 23.03 and choice and fancy 29.90. If by using a better breed the owner could have raised the quality of the steer from medium to good he would have increased his income per calf prove the inheritance of the dairy cow population of the state by increasing the number of cows being bred to outstanding sire—artificial breeding.

We also need to weed out the average) would increase the $65 cows through the use of Weigh-A-Day-A-Month or D. H. I. A. records. If interested see your county agent.

Attention dairymen! An increase in production of 1300 pounds per cow (the national average) would increase the gross income from dairy cows in Kentucky approximately $24,000,000.

But you say, "I'm a dairyman, these figures don't apply to me." In that case, here are some that may—if you are higher in choice and fancy calves and lower in medium. Kentucky cows ranked 40th in production of milk in '56. The average Kentucky dairy cow choice? The average weight of 1300 pounds of milk below steer calves sold in the 17 feeder calf sales in '58 was 500 plus pounds. Medium steers averaged only 14 per cent of her 23.44, good 23.03 and choice and fancy 29.90. MOUNT VERNON, KENTUCKY

L & N Railroad Move To Abandon Livingston Station Meets Determined Opposition As Residents Protest

Petitions Circulated In Rockcastle County

Although two petitions were circulated in Rockcastle this week by different parties, and in spite of the fact that one, one thought—that Rockcastle Counties want to keep their railway stations—was apparent.

The latest petition, circulated by a group in Mt. Vernon and endorsed by former Railroad Commissioner Pleaz W. Mobley, was signed by more than 100 county officials, businessmen, and ordinary citizens.

The petition reads: "We, the undersigners of this petition, protest the closure of the agency and removal of the building at Livingston station."

"Having the inconvenience of railroad tracks throughout our county, we feel we are entitled to the agency and building at Livingston station."

"The Livingston petition, originated by City Clerk Robert Waddie and also addressed to the commission, reads:

"Gentlemen: "During the week of November 17, 1958, officials of the Louisville and Nashville Railroad Company visited a few of the business houses in our city and made known their intentions to abandon all railway freight facilities here."

"We, the undersigned citizens, businessmen and city officials of this county, are respectfully request that your office make a complete check of the demands of the L & N Railroad and set out the following reasons for our action:

Livingston Officials Refuse To Surrender

A move by the Louisville and Nashville Railroad to abandon its station at Livingston was the circulation of two petitions within the county.

The company's request is slated to be introduced before the Livingston Railroad Commission at Frankfort in the near future. A similar request, made by petitioners similar to those circulated this week.

The Livingston depot, slated to close at a time approved by the commission, is the only transfer station in operation before 9:30 a. m. between Winchester and Corbin, a distance of 101 miles. As such, it keeps posted on the location of trains operating within that area.

Once a bustling center of commerce, the Livingston depot now maintains only one full-time employee. Its commerce is derived primarily from these companies flow using the company's service, but is bolstered by individual railway express shipments.

If the L & N is successful (and without protest, it will be), the shipment of less than a carload in volume would be allowed through Livingston. Residents would then use the city offices of the railroad.

The petition was signed by 23 city officials and over 200 other people who use the railway station for shipments at periodic intervals.

Refugees To Surrender

The Red Devils of Coach Jack Laswell got off to a slow start Friday night and overpowered the invaders took a 71-55 verdict over the local team.

Wayne Taylor, making his third appearance of the season, hit 16 points for the host team, but a 16-point deficit handed the Devils in the first quarter of play provided the Blue Devils of Livingston eked out an 82-80 squeaker over host team Parkersville.

Broodhead's Tigers made a clean sweep for county teams Friday night by turning away Hustonville 77-42 in their only engagement during the past week. Broodhead's 'B' team won't hit Hustonville counter-punch 38-24.

Five players hit in double figures for the Tigers in leading them to victory. VanDusen was the game's most prolific scorer with 19 points, followed by Singleton with 17, Lawson with 15, Stevens with 12 and Parkerson with 10.

Hustonville's starters also made the double-scoring column. Sturgis, nearing the close of his high career, bagged 29 points Tuesday as Livingston entertained Oneida at home, but the visitors managed 19 out.

Mothers' March Tonight For Dimes Donations

A Mothers' March For Polio in Mt. Vernon and Broodhead this afternoon and tonight and a Boy Scout's March For Polio in Livingston tonight put the finishing touches on this year's special projects for the March of Dimes.

Profess. Nunnally, chairman of the Dimes drive, said that the Broodhead march will begin at approximately 4 p. m. and that the Mt. Vernon and Livingston marches will begin at 5 p. m. The fire siren here will be sounded to signify the start of the drive.

A sock hop at Mt. Vernon, High School last Thursday night, Hayes for the fund after lunch, and the Rockcastle Jaycees collected $200 in a Sunday afternoon roadblock on Highway 25 north of Mt. Vernon. A Points For Polio basketball game brought in pledges of $80 in contributions, giving the campaign, which relies heavily on special projects such as these, just over $360 in donations.

Nunnally said that mail solicitations have not brought the response that it had in the past, and asked that those who have received letters send in their contributions as quickly as possible.

The Dimes drive last year netted more than $900, while this year's response has led to speculation that a lower sum will be collected, although the National Foundation parent of the March of Dimes, has undertaken research into three new diseases.

Burial was in Elmwood Cemetery. Arrangements were handled by Cox Funeral Home.

High School Buys Uniforms

A special project that had more than two years ago was essentially terminated Tuesday when Mt. Vernon High School's band members measured for new uniforms.

The order, for 37 uniforms costing $54 each, was sent Tuesday to Frechinger Brothers of Cincinnati, exclusive makers of uniforms, and delivery is expected to be made in eight days.

Total cost of the uniforms when delivered will be $2,011, or $19 more than the uniform fund has in its treasury. This money has been raised through cake sales, broom sales, candy sales, a cow sale, concert, class PTA and from individuals. The band also sponsored a banquet for the Masonic Hall here.

The new uniform will consist of a cadet-type coat of red and white, with contrasting grey trousers. A military hat will be worn, and all members will wear white bucks for their performances. Director Jack Adams, rates the uniforms among the sharpest he has seen.

Although the uniform drive has ended, he thanked all those concerned with the success of the drive, but added that the fund will have to be kept up in order to buy additional uniforms when necessary.

Adams said that the band will appear locally in its uniforms for the first time at the annual spring concert in mid-April. The uniforms will also be worn when the band makes its annual trip to the music festival in Richmond in the spring.

Mrs. Stanley, 62, Dies In Rest Home

Mrs. Lula Jane Stanley, 62, died Friday, Jan. 23, at the St. Joseph Rest Home in Broodhead. A former teacher in this county, Mrs. Stanley was a member of the Freedom Baptist Church.

Next Issue Begins Church Page Feature

Beginning Thursday, Feb. 5, the Mt. Vernon Signal will begin publishing a full-page church page, listing the names of the pastors of all churches in the county. This page, which will run for six months, has been paid for by your local merchants.

If no one has contacted you, please send it to the Signal as soon as possible. Try to limit the information to the principal services and the time that they begin.

Any merchants wanting to sign as a supporter for this church page are asked to do so immediately, in order to sponsor the page for the full length of time.

Together with Claude Williams, an Alcoholic Beverage Control agent, and ATU agents Paul Tatter and Doug Hutton, Deputies Hoskins and Abney raided a still being operated by Bill Hayes and confiscated 200 gallons of mash and assorted pieces of equipment at 1 p. m. Friday.

The still had been discovered earlier in the week and the officers were returning to trap the operator, when they came upon Hayes. One officer said that the still had been in operation for an extended period of time.

Our preachers are doing a mighty good job givin' us a UP LIFT when we need it and our Uncle Sam is also doing his part, taking a good part of our wages whilst we are young and dribbling it back when we get to be 65 so we won't have to go to the pore house and be fed for free. But there is something lacking. WHAT are they doing for our Lonely People? Nothing! Pret nite ever day we hear someone say, "We uns are so lonely wee uns could skin a skunk." Now buddy ain't that lonesome? Reckon wee uns will have to do something about it, so to the Country Juges office wee uns are again to see H'n wee uns can start a "Lonely-some Hart Club." Don't reckon we will try to marry off anybody but if'n they won't be so lonely-some mebbe this ole world will be a better place to live.

Deductions Lower Tax

(Ed. Note: This is another of a series of articles on federal... income tax filing. The interest... are based on information pro-... the American Institute... of Certified Public Accountants... and the Kentucky Society of... Certified Public Accountants... in cooperation with the Internal Revenue Service.)

The big question facing the small taxpayer at this time is whether to itemize deductions or take the standard deduction. Before you give up and file a "short form," take the time to add up the family expenses that could be deducted. If the deductions that can be itemized total more than 10 per cent of your adjusted gross income, it will pay you to file a "long form 1040."

Here is a list of the more important items to watch for while you compile the list of family deductions:

INTEREST ON LOANS—The interest you paid on loans is deductible. This includes any mortgage, automobile, appliance, home improvement or personal loans you may have had. Interest on installment purchases is also deductible. Evidence such as a statement from the seller, should be obtained to show the amount of interest that you paid during the year.

STATE AND LOCAL TAXES—Most taxes, other than federal taxes, are deductible. These include state and local real estate, personal property, income, retail sales, gasoline, and poll taxes. You can deduct auto inspection fees, but not auto insurance fees. If you don't have an exact record of some of these taxes, you can make a reasonable estimate.

CHARITABLE CONTRIBUTIONS—Gifts to charitable, religious, educational, scientific or literary organizations are deductible. Generally, these contributions are deductible up to 20 per cent (in some cases 30 per cent) of your adjusted gross income. In adding up your donations, don't overlook the old clothes, toys, books or furniture you may have contributed to a local charity or church. The fair market value of these gifts is deductible.

MEDICAL AND DENTAL EXPENSES—Unless you or your wife has reached the age of 65, your medical expenses are deductible only to the extent that they exceed 3 per cent of your adjusted gross income. Include in your medical deduction the cost of doctor, nursing, dentist's X-rays, and hospital services. You may also deduct premiums for health, accident and medical insurance.

CASUALTY LOSSES—You buy, named James Madison.

Baker is a 1954 graduate of Livingston High School.

Whiteaker Graduates From Berea College

A recognition service for mid-term graduates was held at 3:45 p. m., January 18, in the college's Gray Auditorium. Berea College President Francis S. Hutchins was in charge. Dr. Thomas D. Clark, chairman of the University of Kentucky Department of History, was the speaker.

New Auto Licenses Mandatory By March

State Safety Commissioner, Don Sturgill, has reminded motorists that Kentucky registration plates for 1959 must be purchased before March 1. He emphasized that plates must not be obstructed from view and must be illuminated by lights.

"Kentucky law requires that car owners have their registration receipt in their possession at all times, and that plates be legible," Sturgill said. He added that statutes require that the rear plate be illuminated when the car is being operated at night.

"The license plate light and other vehicle lights must be turned on when driving prior to one-half hour before sunrise or when atmospheric conditions make visibility as low as or lower than is ordinarily the case during that period," Sturgill stated.

The five-dollar registration plates can be purchased at the office of Clarence Carter, Rockcastle County Clerk, in the courthouse here.

Vets Cannot Waive Social Security

No part of benefit payments from Social Security can be waived by veterans or their widows who must meet certain income limitations to be eligible for non-contributory disability or death pension from the Veterans Administration.

This statement was issued today by Ray R. Adams, Manager of the VA regional office in Louisville, who said he is receiving many queries on the subject.

Adams said a boost in Social Security payments which will be reflected in other income delivered during early February, may cause some persons to become ineligible for VA pension because their "other income" will exceed $1,400 annually (if without dependents) or $2,700 (if with dependents).

Many of the affected pensioners mistakenly believe they may waive part of their Social Security contributions and bring their "other income" below the annual limitations established for VA pension. Adams added that the rules for VA pension purposes apply to veterans of World War I, World War II, and the Korean conflict.

He also pointed out that until the person receiving Social Security has actually received the amount equal to the total Social Security contributions taken from his salary or wages in the past, the monthly Social Security check will do no count as income and he will not have to be reported.

score Rockcastle's winningest team, giving them their fourth defeat of the season. Only Monticello has beaten the Blue Devils twice this year.

The next eight days will be busy ones for Jack Laswell's Red Devils, who play twice this week end in the London Invitational Tourney. The Mt. Vernon cagers meet host team London in the second game carded for Friday night, then take to the hardwood again Saturday night in a tussle for either consolation or championship laurels. Mt. Vernon's only other win came in the opening game of the Brea Invitational Tournament and the Devils almost walked away with the championship game, too.

The Red Devils host Stanford at Home Tuesday, visit Paint Lick Thursday, and entertain Estill County Friday in a home engagement.

Brodhead could gain some prestige Friday night when the Tigers defend their home court against Wayne County, one of the most-respected teams in the region. In their only appearance during the next week.

Paul Sturgill, who, with teammates has accumulated a record of 71 wins and only 19 losses in the past three years, has only two more appearances to make before local basketball fans.

Sturgill, the smooth-playing senior forward who will be ineligible for the last three games on the schedule and for tournament play, will be in action against Shopville Friday and will play his swan song engagement Tuesday night against Annville.

Sturgill, whose game-high total was 48 points, and whose lowest-scoring performance netted only 4 points, will be trying for his 3,000 points in his last game. His low yield came in a contest against Memorial in which he played, on two minutes, forty-eight seconds.

road is the result of its own negligence. Waddle said that relations had been strained since the construction of the Livingston school building, an action he said the railroad indirectly opposed.

Livingston last November bought a lot for $2,000 from the railroad, on which a water filtration plant will be built next year. The city also purchased the old pumping station of the railroad, a facility badly in need of repair, and obtained a 99-year lease on a right of way over railroad property to the giver. For the right-of-way the city will pay $2 annually.

In Livingston last year collected $423 from the railroad on its property holdings in that city. Property there is assessed at a value of more than $50,000.

Taxes paid inside the county by the railroad last year totaled in excess of $60,000.

Abandonment of the Livingstone station is expected to be only a part of a vast operation to reduce property and taxes within the county. Representatives recently visited Mount Vernon and talked to merchants and citizens here, telling them it was losing money and sounding out opinions on removal of the station here, which is expected to be in the near future.

In the words of one partisan observer, "We either beat them or lose out altogether, and we don't plan to be the losers."

Officers Arrest Two With Stolen Car

Two youthful soldiers, both A. W. O. I., for the second time from Ft. Knox military reservation and wanted in five different counties on various charges, were apprehended at the southern city limits of Mt. Vernon early Tuesday night by night policeman Earl Rader and State Policeman Willis Martin.

The soldiers, Pvt. Earl Douglas Tipton, 18, of Hamilton, Ohio, and Pvt. Arvid Ray Cornett, 17, of Dunham, Ky., were arrested at 7:20 in a 1957 car reported stolen at 6 p. m. from Columbus Martin of Barbourville. Tipton was driving the car when it was stopped.

Trooper Martin said that the two, who allegedly found the car with the key in its ignition, admitted a Jan. 17 theft of a 1956 model car from Louisville, which they said they had abandoned at Line Springs in Letcher County.

Although the two were driving a stolen car, police took up the chase only after the pair had stopped for gas at a Dogpatch filling station and had left the station without paying. When the incident was reported, it was discovered that the car involved had been stolen, and the information was relayed to Martin.

Martin chased the car from a "pump" near Chestnut Ridge until it was stopped by the roadblock here.

Martin said that the two had returned to Ft. Knox recently after being absent without leave, and that they had remained there for only a few days before going A. W. O. I. again and reportedly stealing the car in Louisville.

Previous to their Tuesday night actions, the youth wanted on warrants issued in Letcher, Harlan and Perry Counties, were taken to London Tuesday night by Tipton and Cornett.

and were released to Knox County authorities, who escorted them to Barbourville for indictment there. Civilian courts have jurisdiction over the military, which wants them for being absent without leave.

The great cause of the decline in Kentucky's hemp industry was the replacement of sailing ships with steamships in the final decades of the 19th century. Even in the 1860's American sailing ships were equipped with hemp rope from the Blue Grass, and Great Lakes schooners provided a market for some time after.
