Rockcastle County Church Directory

An honest effort at this one first. Jesus' selection of these two commandments shows also the mistake of taking either of them separately. There are those who do not understand what loving God means, and so try to make up for it by loving people. But how is it possible to love people, who are God's children, and at the same time ignore their heavenly Father? Also there are those who are so much impressed by the greatness of God and the littleness of man, the holiness of God and the sinful follies of man, that they give up loving human beings and lavish all their affection on God alone. These see Saint John's reminder: How can a man love God, whom he has not seen, if he does not love human beings, whom he has seen? Then there are the numerous people who love only themselves, period; and by contrast the people who believe we should never love ourselves. (This overlooks the point—love thy neighbor AS thyself. If love of oneself is sinful, so is love of neighbor.) The true ideal is not any one of these with the others left out; but all these three—love which is to say, concern for the good and the welfare of God, our neighbors, ourselves.

God and Neighbor

Lesson for February 15, 1959

SUPPOSE the world had grown so wicked that you could not find any one who could be guaranteed to keep more than one of the Ten Commandments? And suppose you wanted to be married? Which commandment would you feel your future wife or husband simply must keep, regardless? If you can answer that question, you have answered another question: What, for you, is the most important commandment in the law of God? It is a very old question. Dr. Lomena Teniers of the University of Leuven, Belgium, asked the question in 1522: "Which commandment is the first of all?"

How This Works

From the numberless applications of this central law of God, let us select one which is appropriate to Temperance Sunday. Here is a problem: What should be a Christian's attitude to alcoholic liquors? Suppose a man tries to answer that question on the basis of love to himself alone? Then his question will be simply: Is this going to do ME any harm? If the answer is "Yes," then he may be expected to drink like a fish. But suppose he tries to solve his problem on the basis of love to God alone, then he may ask: Is the alcoholic content of my blood, high or low, going to hurt GOD? Well, he thinks, of course not... though he is mistaken, so he again may proceed to drink like a fish. But suppose he opens his eyes wide enough to take in his neighbor—his children, his family, others who have weaker will power than himself. These was love to him as an example, those who will be affected by the righteousness of his mind. Then he will look at his drinking habits in quite a different light. No man lives on an island alone, and Christian love keeps that fact always bright in the mind.

My God, My Neighbor, Myself!

Jesus did not approve the question by giving a simple answer. The "Ten Commandments" is a list of two verses from parts of the Old Testament which to us are less familiar. First from Deuteronomy 6:4-5, and second from Leviticus 19:18. The reader might well look these up and think that in his Bible, for if Jesus could be said ever to have boiled down the whole Old Testament into two sentences, these are the two. The commandment unites the two. "I love," Jesus did not, of course, mean to say anything so absurd as that a single commandment can produce the "Ten Commandments" in the mind. One, two, three. The "Ten" banner can say, "One, two, three. Jump! But not even that. One, two, three. Love! Human beings are not made that way, and one knows it better than the old man made us.

What Jesus did mean is that this is what God requires of us, nothing less. We cannot fulfill his other commandments till we have made

Controversy Forges To Front Again As Mount Vernon School Board Revives Many-sided Merger Issue

STURGILL STARS AGAIN—The Livingston High School basketball ace, Paul Sturgill, who has become too old for prep-school competition, is the center of attraction at a birthday party given Monday night, his birthday, in the Livingston gymnasium—the same gym in which he has thrilled numerous local basketball fans with his athletic prowess on the hardwood. Holding the birthday cake, which shared star billing with the college-bound star, are his parents. Surrounding the table are former team mates. Coach Preston Parson (right rear) and the Livingston cheerleading squad.

Sturgill Receives Athletic Grant And Birthday Party As Prep Career Ends

Two milestones were passed in the life of Livingston senior Paul Sturgill this week as the talented former basketball star for Livingston High celebrated his twentieth birthday night with a birthday party and a full grant-in-aid basketball scholarship from Eastern Kentucky State College in Richmond.

Sturgill wore his Blue Devil uniform for the last time the past Tuesday when his team scored a 97-59 victory over Asheville. Sturgill scored 67 points in that contest to register his highest one-game total in a four-year career, during which he scored 3,047 points.

Sturgill was honored at his birthday Monday night with a surprise party given in the Livingston gymnasium and attended by some 75 students and teachers, who presented him with several gifts.

Among those attending the birthday party were his parents, Coach Preston Parson, cheerleading squad and the group of boys with whom he has engineered many a victory in the four years of his prep apprenticeship.

In another home appearance, his next-to-last game, Sturgill took scoring honors Friday, Jan. 30, with 26 points as the Devils managed a 71-61 decision over Shupville. Paul Ponder with 16 and Bollinger and William Smith with 11 points each provided scoring support for the prolific scorer.

Paul became sick on the eve of his proposed final appearance, a road contest with Oneda, and was unable to give aid as the host team registered one of the few victories against this season over the outlanders with a 63-45 win.

Sturgill has been the subject of concern during his prep career of several different colleges, among them Western Kentucky, the University of Kentucky and Wake Forest, but his decision was probably prompted by Eastern's nearest to home, where his friends and fans can continue to see him perform.

Red Devils' Tigers Clash Friday Night

Broadhead will meet Liberty in the first game of the 46th District Tournament at Memorial Gymnasium in Waynesburg when tournament time arrives March 2. Livingston, Broadhead's neighbor in the upper bracket, and Mt. Vernon are idle with first-round games.

Mt. Vernon clashes with Memorial, tourney favorite and also holder of a first-round bye, in the 7:30 p. m. curtain raiser Wednesday night, while Livingston meets Husteville in the midnight of the second night of tourney play.

With regular basketball rapidly coming to a close, all prep teams in Kentucky will be attempting to perfect their offensive and defensive styles of play. Mt. Vernon Friday night host to Broadhead, is one of these teams which has won with more frequency while in the second half of its schedule, but this is hardly conclusive in view of the record of only three wins in 21 outings.

The Red Devils' owned Estill County at home Friday night while the Tigers of Broadhead were taking a 27-point drubbing from Eubank on the latter's floor. On the road Tuesday night against Memorial and operating without the services of three players, among them Wayne Taylor, the Devils dropped a decision to highly-favored Memorial.

Livingston took to the floor for its first outing since losing Paul Sturgill and was soundly thrumped by host Oneda took a 65-45 victory from the Blue Devils. Paul Ponder with 14 and Timon Milburn with 11 points paced the Devils.

Broadhead, in the Tigers' last appearance before taking the short trip to Mt. Vernon, edged night, despite a 26-point outburst by the Lincoln County team's Barbour. Mission Lawwell led the Tigers with 21 points and was backed up in the scoring column by Buford Parkerson with 15.

After their Friday night meeting, the Red Devils have four regular games on their schedule while the Tigers have two more times, this Friday at Lily and next Friday at McFee, in addition to two scheduled games.

Bryant Gives Case For Anti-Mergers

In the wake of the recent vote not to meet with officials of the county school system, two members of the board of education immediately became apparent. One school of thought, that the schools not be merged, is represented below in a statement issued this week by Logan D. Bryant, a school board member. This statement does not reflect the sympathies of the Signal in any way.
(Text of Bryant's Statement)
"We have nothing to gain—all to lose—by merger."

"Our school plant and facilities are fully adequate to meet our needs for several years to come. Should we need additional facilities, our board of education is so low that funds would be readily available. The county bonded debt is high."

"In addition to our courses, our schools offer a wide range of subjects in music, commerce, typing, industrial arts, science, agriculture, home economics, etc."

"Our teaching staff has increased from 17 to 24 in the past 4 school years—attendance has increased. The county has lost two teachers and attendance. Our teachers rank higher and receive an average of $68.00 per month. The county's population is decreasing while ours is increasing."

"Our school can live within its present income. We lost some thousands of dollars in 1957 by violating some of the minimum Foundation Program's requirements as to certain teachers. Our economies can affect the quality of education."

"There is absolutely no pressure on us from the State Department of Education to merge. They are very willing to let us proceed on our present budget in order to meet current expenses."

"The consolidated schools at Livingston and Broadhead would be very difficult to transport. If Livingston high school students are brought to Mt. Vernon, our grade classes would be overcrowded, dangerous roads to distant schools, the county debt, the high cost of building new, and additional buildings for years."

"State statistics indicate that independent minded and progressive Out of the 95 independent districts in the state, 62 have voted to merge. The rates of approximately 50c on the $100 includes London, Somerset, Stanford, Danville and Berea has raised its assessment."

"We could have a better school by voting a small tax increase. The State Department of Economic Development, as well as to officials of companies interested in locating here, is a concern of the telephone. The Bank of Mt. Vernon, told the members that representatives of a cheese concern had recently visited here and had toured the county, adjudging the adaptability of farms to dairy methods."

Pfc. Eugene Falin
Pfc. Eugene Falin, son of Mr. and Mrs. Alva Falin, Pine Hill, recently took a trip to Thailand, Siam, from his home base at Hawaii. He will return to the Islands in about 20 days.
Falin enlisted in January, 1958 and is now serving his second term. He has three more years remaining of his enlistment.

Cliffene Chappel Wins Conservation Award

Cliffene Chappel, Conway, has been named winner of the Rockcastle County Conservation Essay Contest. She received a $25 savings bond from the Louisville Courier-Journal, The Louisville Times and WHAS, Inc., sponsors of the contest.

Cliffene's entry was one of a record 21,426 essays entered in the state contest. The total exceeded by 3,000 the number entered in the 1957 contest.

The nationwide trend now is toward consolidated schools, which offer a wider curriculum.

Chamber of Commerce Elects Officers Monday

The Mt. Vernon Chamber of Commerce, at a called meeting Monday night, voted to lower membership dues to $5 per year, and to elect officers for the year to more people. The Chamber also voted to prepare a brochure giving pertinent information about Mt. Vernon. Chamber officials will confer with the Rockcastle Jaycees concerning its preparation.

The brochure is to be presented to the State Department of Economic Development, as well as to officials of companies interested in locating here, in a concern of the telephone. The Bank of Mt. Vernon, told the members that representatives of a cheese concern had recently visited here and had toured the county, adjudging the adaptability of farms to dairy methods."

As for the merger, there is not one good reason I can think of for merger."

Mrs. Myrtle Burke, 69, Dies At Broadhead

Mrs. Myrtle Rose Burke, 69, died at her home in Broadhead Thursday, Feb. 5. A member of Bethel Church of Christ, she was born in Lincoln County, Ky. Survivors are her husband, J. S. Burke; a daughter, Mrs. Mae Brown, Broadhead; five sisters, Mrs. Florence Burke, Colgate Corner, Ohio; Mrs. Mary Brown, Crab Orchard; Mrs. Jenny Bishop, Kankakee, Ill.; Miss Alice Bengel, Crab Orchard; Miss Berne Bengel, Indianapolis; one brother, James Bengel, Broadhead; four grandchildren and one great-grandchild.
Services were held at Broadhead Baptist Church at 2 p. m. Saturday and Burial was in Piney Grove Cemetery. Watson Funeral Home was in charge of arrangements.

State Gives Reasons For Merging Systems

Although Mt. Vernon school board members contend that the State is not pressing action on the merger, the State Department of Education has previously given its reasons for wanting the Mt. Vernon and Rockcastle school districts combined.

The reasons, ten of them, are given below:

1. A better long range program of public education for all children concerned, especially at the high school level.

2. The merger is strongly recommended in the Second Facilities Survey of 1952-53, which is the basic guide for all school planning in Kentucky.

3. Calls for construction of a new elementary school center in Mt. Vernon, in addition to a high school center, thus assuring that Mt. Vernon is expanding to a school merger.

4. The good influence of citizens in Mt. Vernon when applied with that of the county would be most helpful to public education.

5. The Mt. Vernon school is small and its future is uncertain. It will become more difficult for Mt. Vernon High School to meet present day standards.

6. To become merged in education would unify the people in almost all respects in a county that realistically has a population too small for two separate school districts.

7. There are many Chambers of Commerce aspects to a merger, especially as well as good families tend to practically all instances to locate in communities with good schools.

8. A merger would solve many of the transportation problems that are developing at the Mt. Vernon school.

9. The nationwide trend now is toward consolidated schools, which offer a wider curriculum.

10. The nationwide trend now is toward consolidated schools, which offer a wider curriculum.

Conflicting opinions were being expressed here this week on the issue of whether the Independent School District of Mt. Vernon should or should not be merged with the county school system. Facts were often mixed and many opposing factors were given to support the issue.

The facts surrounding the issue are these:

Beginning in June, 1957, the Independent School District operated at a deficit. With increased funds each year, the gap between operating costs and the budget has continued to increase.

In the five years since 1954, Mt. Vernon has added 7 teachers to its payroll and has qualified for full support under the Minimum Foundation Plan. The county school system has not, and the county is bringing one less teacher than in 1954.

The new Roundstone School Center to open this fall, after the high school, will bring more provision for the transportation of children to Mt. Vernon. It is estimated that this will take 50 students from the local school, 25 of them from the upper four grades.

With the loss of 25 students from the high school enrollment, the number of students will be about 160. If the State raises minimum attendance requirements to 150 daily in one year, the number of students will be about 160. If the State raises minimum attendance requirements to 150 daily in one year, the number of students will be about 160.

Logan Bryant, Mt. Vernon businessman and an anti-merger school board member, believes the school "should either live within its budget or increase taxes." He cited Stanford, Berea, Hanville and others as having increased their assessments in order to remain independent, but he said he is opposed to the raised assessment unless another solution is apparent.

Bryant also proposed that the school board reduce the sheriff's commission for collecting taxes. Now collecting 4 per cent, Bryant says the sheriff is supposed to receive only enough to cover his collection expenses.

Bryant also proposed to eliminate the agricultural program at Mt. Vernon High School, saying that not enough students there are participating. This would especially be true when county students are withdrawn from the school.

Although a recently-released scale of improvement under the Minimum Foundation Plan shows Mt. Vernon teachers to be more highly paid, pro-merger adherents point out that the Minimum Foundation Plan also shows that county schools must raise their assessments in order to remain independent, but he said he is opposed to the raised assessment unless another solution is apparent.

Discayne 4-Door Sedan shows the Fisher Body beauty of Chevrolet's lowest priced series for '59.

CHEVY'S NEW HI-THRIFT 6

More miles are back in a gallon of regular-grade gas—up to 10% more—and Chevy's new Hi-Thrift 6 engine puts them there. It also gives you more "git" in the speeds you drive the most.

Here's an engine that always seems able to coax extra miles out of a tank of regular-grade gas. In fact, if you're one of those drivers who keep tabs on things like gas mileage, you'll soon see for yourself that this new Hi-Thrift 6 gets up to 10% more miles a gallon.

Another thing you'll like about this 135-h.p. 6 is the extra pep it gives you for passing and climbing hills. This is due to higher torque at normal speeds.

It may be hard to believe anything that looks and moves like this '59 Chevy can be such a stickler for economy. But—whether you pick the Hi-Thrift 6 or a six-cylinder V8—this is just one more reason Chevy's the car that's wanted for all its worth. Stop by your dealer's and see.

The smart switch is to the '59 Chevy!

now—see the wider selection of models at your local authorized Chevrolet dealer's!

THEY GAVE HIM TO THE AGES

Exactly one hundred fifty years have passed today since the birth in an obscure mountain cabin of an infant which was to grow physically immense, ethically perfect, and morally strong before his death at the hands of a fanatic actor with a lethal weapon and a warped sense of justice.

In the past 150 years this man, who in life was somewhat great in stature, has grown to exceed all proportions many men before and after his time who live on, too, in the annals of American history.

We recall with facility the revered names of Washington, Jefferson, Jackson, Grant and Sherman. We know that Kentucky's native sons include Henry Clay, John Hunt Morgan, Jefferson Davis and Alben Barkley. And we know that not one of these immortals has created the impression of the backwoods lumberjack and self-made lawyer, who elevated himself to the highest office our nation can bestow.

This gaunt, ugly fellow, who was put to great lengths to obtain anything he wanted for, educated himself by freighting, traveled the court circuit in an effort to make a living as a lawyer, performed with a determination reserved for the superhuman as his nation passed through the most trying time of its existence, and found time in between to charm with his endless wit those who were fortunate enough to be near him.

In view of the many conflicts which divided the nation during Lincoln's tenure of office, many must have hated him, as indeed did John Wilkes Booth when the assassin fatally shot the President in a box seat of the Ford Theatre in Washington, D. C.

That that hate was without foundation can be seen today in the countless volumes that have been written about Lincoln, in the increasing multitudes of anecdotes concerning him, in the legend of the path between a log cabin and the White House, and in the standard educational use of the Gettysburg Address as one of the most proficient and correct examples of the English language.

Almost a hundred years have passed since Stanton gazed at Lincoln's still form on his deathbed and pronounced "We give him to the ages." And through the tireless, loving effort of countless Lincoln historians, including Carl Sandburg, Stanton's prophecy has been carried out.

On a day such as this; no Kentuckian need be ashamed to claim Lincoln as a native son.

Mrs. Pauline Miller Dies At Son's Home

Mrs. Pauline Miller, 82, died Sunday at the home of her son, Raymond, in Disputanta. She was a member of the Baptist Church and was born in Lincoln County.

Survivors include two daughters, Mrs. Sally Thomas, Boone, and Mrs. Nora Mae Cope, Disputanta; three sons, John and Raymond, of Disputanta, and George, of Boone, one brother, Bud Chastern, Berea; 24 grandchildren and 11 great-grandchildren. Her husband, Harvey Miller, preceded her in death.

Funeral services will be held 2 p. m. Tuesday at Old Scaffold, Cane Church by the Rev. William Hamilton. Burial was in Scaffold Cane Cemetery. Cox Funeral Home was in charge of arrangements.

Captured Still Alone Does Not Implicate Proprietors Of Land

The Signal this week received notice that the owners of a parcel of land on which a moonshiner still was confiscated recently were surprised to read of the incident and that they were concerned with the reflection cast upon them.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Lovell, who own the farm on which a still was raided Sunday, Feb. 1, has asserted that the man and boy arrested at that time were trespassing. Mr. Lovell has been sick for several years and is unable to tend to his property. The still was located in a very remote section of the farm.

It is the policy of the Signal not to stress out the apparent; most stills are set on property belonging to someone else, and if officers have knowledge of the owner's participation in any illicit operation, they arrest them and charge them along with the moonshiners.

When our newspaper accounts give the name of the landowner but do not indicate that the proprietor was indicted, that should imply that said landowner is not in violation of liquor laws.

Please keep this policy in mind in the future, should a still be confiscated from your property. Unless you are involved, we will not give the impression that you are a law breaker.

county and independent schools are paid approximately the same wages, commensurate with their training. Mrs. Miracle explained that all courses in the one and two-room schools are beset with the problem of finding sufficiently-trained teachers with which to staff them. Mrs. Miracle said that all required by law to have at least a bachelor's degree in education to be qualified. All Mt. Vernon teachers have bachelor's degrees, six have masters degrees, 12 have done graduate work.

A breakdown of the county system's 124 teachers reveals that 14 have masters degrees, 49 have bachelors degrees or above; 20 have had three years or more of college; 24 have had between two and three years of college, and nine including emergency teachers, fall below two years of college.

Bryant also proposed certain salary cuts, among them extra salaries being paid for extra work among the teachers. Band Director Jack Adams receives $1,212.00 extra for his work with chorus and band; William Landrum receives $420.00 a year for his duties as principal; Mary Menting is paid $378 extra as librarian and Lawrence Travis receives $601 for coaching.

Superintendent Linville said that the Minimum Foundation provides for $1,000 each for a coach and for a band-chorus director. He also said that if most of the salaries were not paid, then the state would not provide for them in the budget, since some salaries are paid on a 10-month basis. Since Travis and Coach Jack Laswell each receive $601 for coaching, Linville explained that the school is getting year-round athletics for only $202 more than the Foundation provides for.

Another complaint voiced by those opposing merger is the bonded debt of the County School System, a plight that besieges many county systems which have to maintain separate schools for small groups of pupils.

The county in 1957-58 had a surplus of $1,570.75 and the preceding year had $15,903.24 surplus. Mrs. Miracle explained that the surplus is usually utilized to purchase new school buses.

Supporters of the movement toward merger counter the allegation that grade children might be transported from here to Livingston with a statement which says that new County State officials hinted at which 10-room school plant in Mt. Vernon, which would increase its service ability to the area.

A regular meeting will be held at Mt. Vernon School on Thursday, Feb. 26, at 7 p. m. The public is welcome at these meetings and is urged to attend at this time that they may have a better conception of the facts behind the issue.

for the students. Much of the present day criticism is based on especially small high schools. At the time the ten points were presented, the State also presented a summary showing combined assessment of city-county, the amount that can be levied in taxes, outstanding bonds and the amount of new bonds that could be issued.

Also at that time the Bureau of Administration and Finance said that consideration would be given to the construction of a 10-room elementary school in Mt. Vernon.

Jaycees Sponsor Pillow Cleaning Service Friday

Fluff 'N' Puff pillow cleaning service of Lexington, under the sponsorship of the Rockcastle Jaycees, will have a cleaning unit in front of the Western Auto Store in Mt. Vernon tomorrow (Friday) from 9 a. m. to 5 p. m.

The service, which consists of cleaning and sterilizing feather pillows and changing the feathers to a new ticking, takes approximately four minutes to perform, and is offered at a rate of $2.50 per pillow, which is said to be somewhat below the cost of a quality pillow when purchased new.

The Jaycees, as did the Mt. Vernon Lions Club last week, voted to support a recent movement, headed by Rev. Lee Hopkins, to secure a picnic-playground area and to hire a paid attendant to supervise and oversee activities at the site.

In addition to club support, the playground movement is expected to solicit funds in a mass fund-raising drive in the county. Such a drive, if successful, would lessen the possibility of charging admission to the proposed park-playground.

Choose Pattern For Fabric:

Fabrics and patterns for mid-winter and spring sewing should be considered together before either is bought.

Many of the fabrics made of man-made fibers that have heavy crease-resistant finishes, or that are crisp or polished, have little "give". Extra fullness cannot be shrunken out and, if gathered, the garment may seem bulky.

A careful selection of pattern will counteract such problems. A wise choice would be a design with sleeves cut in one piece with the bodice, a skirt that is slim or only moderately full, and pleats or darts used instead of gathers.

The fewer number of pieces in the pattern the more satisfactory the result is likely to be, particularly in sheer fabrics where seams show through unattractively.

If the desired fabric is in the soft class, such as jersey, crepe or one of the soft, spun blends, then the pattern may have gathers, soft fullness and plenty of ease.

In early spring sewing that includes wash garments, be sure that pads, linings, bindings, and the like are also washable to avoid unequal shrinkage.

Proper Precautions Urged In Use Of Electricity

Electricity will do a big job for you, safely and efficiently, if you handle it correctly and with respect.

While very few of us really understand what electricity is, we can accurately predict what it will do under given conditions.

A frayed cord or a defective or broken plug may not seem important, but either one might be a cause of fire or an accident. It is recommended that every household gather up all its electrical appliances for a check-up, then replace all frayed or broken cords.

Plugs that are so difficult to remove that pulling on the electric cord is often resorted to, should also be replaced. Easy-to-grasp plugs are available wherever electrical supplies are sold, and will add greatly to safety standards.

If new appliances are being considered, be sure to look for the Underwriters Laboratories (UL) label, for it guarantees that the product under consideration is made with reasonable safety standards.

Some householders have replaced the proper size fuses in their fuse box with others capable of carrying a much larger load, but with wiring that is not large enough to carry it. This is likely to lead to serious trouble, such as a fire or serious damage to the wiring.
