When it comes to sheer intrigue, I say dandelions are the world's eleverent weeds.

First they hide beneath their yellow blooms, figuring I'll mistake them for flowers.

Then when I have spent most of the summer rooting them out, the last conning survivors always enlist the help of my own youngsters to plant a bumper crop for next year.

Bumper crop for next year.

But there are weeds more serious than dandellons—weeds which like the tares in Christ's parable are planted by an Enemy. These are my real concern when I think about my youngsters. I want no will to choke or twist the character of my sons and daughters. Nof do I want them to apread the spores of will that will undermine the character of others.

I believe that God meant me to seek truth and moral recovered through the teaching, preaching and fellowship His Church provides. Every boarday Y share these blessings with my family.
