Don't Send Your Money Away From Home. A Dollar Spent Away From Home Is Gone Forever! It Will Never Come Back To Support Your Schools, Churches, Public Institutions Or Town.

John W. Griffin

Mt. Vernon, Livingston, Brodhead and all of Rockcastle County are now on the brink of more and better things for our people.

If we are to continue to build, expand and do more to support ourselves, we must continue to trade at home and support those who are striving to obtain industry and other outstanding improvements.

Mt. Vernon and Rockcastle County are great, with fine people. But, we must continue to keep everything possible at home in order to grow stronger.

Measurement Of Tobacco Now Underway

Rockcastle County's more than 1800 tobacco farms will begin receiving visitors soon. Approximately 15 reporters have been specially trained for acreage measurement work and are now beginning the summer job of checking crop acreages on allotment #6 Soil Bank Farms. In announcing the start of 1960 measurement work, Agriculture Commissioner Charles Mullins, ASC Committee Chairman, urged cooperating farmers in assisting the reporters with measurement work. "Producer cooperation," he said, "helps us do the kind of work that is necessary to make ASC program operate efficiently, effectively, and economically."

The work of the reporters is only part of the performance check. Mullins pointed out. The reporter outlines acreage on an aerial photograph, then the completed photograph is returned to the county office where operators under the direction of John L. Bullock, Office Manager use an instrument known as a "planimeter" to get the exact acreage of the field of tobacco taken up. Planted acreages are then compared with the allotment and appropriate notices are mailed.

The goal is to have original measurements completed by Aug. 1 and all excess destroyed before Aug. 26. Since most producers destroy the excess acreage and avoid the payment of the penalty, Mullins encourages producers to file for destruction as soon as possible. Excess acreage can be destroyed before maturity and the last minute rush just before harvest.

2 Accused Bank Robbers Taken Near Livingston

Two men charged with a bank robbery in Cincinnati, Ohio, were apprehended last week about two miles south of Livingston after they were taken to have abandoned a car stolen in London earlier.

The pair, identified by authorities as brothers from Pine Village, Ind., John Taylor, Jr., and Cecil Edward Taylor, while hitch-hiking, were arrested by FBI agents, Kentucky State Police and Pendleton County Sheriff.

The robbers, as they tried to hitch a ride, were recognized by the Pendleton Sheriff who was riding with an FBI agent. The men were picked up and arrested. According to authorities, they were identified positively as the persons who had stolen Earl Smith's car at Kern's Bakery in London.

Authorities said the auto was abandoned in Livingston. According to FBI agents the brothers robbed the Union Savings and Association Bank of Cincinnati June 9. The pair obtained only three dollars during the robbery and that was from a woman's purse.

After a hearing before U. S. Commissioner Robert H. Helton, the men were held under $25,000 bond each and transferred to the Bell County Jail at Pineville. Bank robbery charges carry maximum penalties of 30 years.

The brothers, both born in Indiana, have had previous convictions. Cecil was released from the Texas State Penitentiary in October in 1956 after serving six years of a 10 year

Man Killed In Auto Crash; Manslaughter Charges Filed

State Police are still searching for Melvin Johnson who has been charged with manslaughter in the death of one Friday night in Mt. Vernon on May 25 in the North city limits of Mt. Vernon.

State Trooper Willis Martin said Johnson, about 30, of Big Hill, collided with a car and then ran over an occupant of his car who had fallen out and another man who was attempting to get out of the mangled car.

Martin, 47, of Big Hill was killed and Roscoe Russell was run over by Johnson, receiving lacerations of the leg and foot.

Jack Doonin, 15, was hospitalized at Rockcastle Baptist Hospital for lacerations of the chin. His father, James Doonin, owner of Sweetwater, Tenn., who was driving the auto, received minor bruises.

Martin reported Johnson collided with the northbound Douglas road on a hill. Johnson's car continued down the hill 94 feet after the accident, striking a mill. His left front wheel had been knocked off.

Martin said Johnson then put his foot in reverse, backing up the hill and ran over both Russell, Abrams, and Russell. Russell was killed by the wheel of the car which was passing about Abrams' condition.

Officers searched wooded areas in Mt. Vernon Saturday and Sunday. Johnson was reported being seen. He was last reported seen at a truck stop in Madison County.

Coach Parrett Awarded For Achievement

Preston Parrett, coach at Livingston Graduate High School, recently received an award from the Kentucky Health and Physical Education Association.

He was given a certificate for achievement with limited class of Livingston High School. Coach Parrett stated that his students used the Rockcastle River, which is close to the school, to learn swimming. He and his students cleaned off the top of a hill to use for ball games. They rent the town roller rink to teach a unit in roller skating.

In all, 25 different activities are taught at the physical education classes including various types of ball games, tumbling, tennis and archery.

Of the 500 pupils enrolled at Livingston some 350 take part in physical education classes.

Officials of the Ky. Health and Physical Education Association reported that Coach Parrett to write an account of his program so they could use it to demonstrate to other teachers the value of his program.

Coach Parrett is president of the Central Kentucky Physical Education Association.

800 Attend Playgrounds Despite Adverse Weather

According to Mt. Vernon playground director Larry Travis, the weather has tried to cause postponement of all league games this week but repairs on the field have helped tremendously.

Scores in the Little League this week, found the Cardinals defeating the Reds 7-5 at the Broaddus playground. The Dodgers eked out a victory over the Giants, 5 to 1.

The Braves downed the Livingston Braves by 16 to 2 at the Mt. Vernon playground. At the Broaddus playground the Reds lost to the Dodgers 13 to 1.

All pony league games were postponed Tuesday because of rain.

In the adult softball league, Monday night, the Teen Agers won over the Regulars of Mt. Vernon 10 to 1. Ottawa defeated Broaddus 24 to 8.

Tuesday night, Ottawa beat Brindle Ridge 18 to 1 and the Regulars lost to Broaddus by a score of 16 to 4.

Playground director Travis requests all motorists to school on the opposite side of the road from the ball field. This is urged for the safety of the children, he stated.

Attendance this week for both the Mt. Vernon and Broaddus playground was 800.

On Monday, July 4, an all star adult softball team will play the league leader.

Miss Eddie Parrett, instructor of arts and crafts at the Mt. Vernon playground, urges parents to encourage their children, especially girls from six years of age through 11 to take advantage of the arts and crafts program which is held each afternoon from 1 to 4 p. m. Monday through Friday.

ENROLL AT SPENCERIAN

Three girls from the senior class of Livingston High School enrolled at Spencerian Business College at Louisville, last week to learn swimming. They are Carol Frederick, Phyllis Travillion and Carolyn Poyner.

Missing Lawn Chairs

Somewhere in or near Mt. Vernon there is apparently a tired thief. Or could it be that the thief is prone to rest and enjoys a nap in the varieties of lawn chairs upon which to recline.

Those who have lost lawn chairs this week include Mr. and Mrs. Clinton Winstead, Mr. and Mrs. Gillis Craig, Mr. and Mrs. Earl Barrett and Mr. and Mrs. John Griffin.

The thief is apparently very particular. He or she only takes the chairs which are folding-type chairs. Mrs. Craig reported that several heavy articles were on the porch at the time her lawn chairs were "lifted."

Answers To Your Tax Questions

BY WILLIAM E. SCENT
KENTUCKY'S COMMISSIONER OF REVENUE

This is the second of a series of columns seeking to acquaint the readers of this paper with the tax structure effective July 1 in Kentucky.

Q. Are sales of feed to farmers subject to the sales tax?
A. No.

Q. If a farmer buys farm stock, is the sale subject to the sales tax?
A. No.

Q. If he buys livestock for breeding, is it subject to the tax?
A. No.

Q. If he buys livestock for dairy purposes, is it subject to the tax?
A. No.

Q. If he buys poultry for breeding, is it subject to the tax?
A. No.

Q. If he buys poultry for production of food for humans or if his product is sold in the regular course of business.
A. No.

Q. How will a feed store merchant determine whether the sale is exempt from the tax?
A. The farmer when he purchases the feed from the feed store must have a "purchase certificate" an Agricultural exemption certificate. This gives the merchant a record showing that no tax is due on the sale.

Q. If a farmer buys a tractor and trades in his old one, will he pay the tax on the full purchase price of the new tractor?
A. No. The tax will apply only to the cash difference. For example, if a farmer buys a $3,000 tractor and receives $1, 500 allowance for his old tractor, the tax would apply on the $1,500 difference or would amount to $150.

Q. If a farmer buys farm stock, is the sale subject to the sales tax?
A. No.

Q. If a farmer has bad luck with his tobacco plant beds and purchases plants from his neighbor will the neighbor collect the tax on the full purchase price of the new tractor?
A. No. The tax will apply only to the cash difference. For example, if a farmer buys a $3,000 tractor and receives $1, 500 allowance for his old tractor, the tax would apply on the $1,500 difference or would amount to $150.

Seeding Pastures In Late Summer

Planning to see a permanent pasture this summer? Started getting your ground ready yet? How about fertilizer and lime? Summer following is one of the best ways to get the soil ready for a late summer seeding. To follow, it's best to break or disk the ground early (by June 15 if possible). Disk after each rain or weeds show up. This should take three to five diskings. Use a harrow or coultipacker to get and keep a good, firm seedbed. Be ready to make the seeding by early August.

About fertilizer and limestone: Take a soil sample within the next week or so. If you see that lime is needed, put it on and work it in. Fertilizer can usually be put on just before seeding.

Good pastures don't just happen. They are planned and planted.

Poison Ivy

Knock out poison ivy when the plant leaves are well developed in early summer. The plant pest can do damage almost any time of the year but is particularly bothersome in summer.

Some materials and methods that can be used to kill poison ivy in residential areas and farm fields, as recommended by James Herron, UK Experiment Station weed control specialist:

For home lawns, use a material called Ammate as a spray. If spraying foliage, dissolve from 3/4 of a pound to one pound of the material in one gallon of water. Cover leaves and stems thoroughly with the spray. If spraying bark and stumps, use 4 pounds of Ammate in a gallon of water; spray or paint lower 15 inches of trunk or stem until the solution runs off. The material can be used safely near such crops as tobacco, tomatoes, grapes, cotton, and ornamentals.

Another good material for residential areas is Amino triazole. It is applied as a spray to the vine or creeping forms of poison ivy at the rate of 1 pound of the 50 percent wettable powder in 25 gallons of water, or for smaller areas, 3 tablespoonsful in 1 gallon of water. It is effective, however, only as a foliage treatment. Apply when plants are in full leaf. It also can be used safely near such crops as tobacco, tomatoes, etc., and ornamentals. For fence rows and such areas in fields, 2 1/2 5-T or combination of 2 1/2 5-T and 2 1/2 4-D can be used. These are volatile materials, however, and should be used carefully to avoid drift on tobacco and other crops.

Extension Leaflet 207, "Controlling Poison Ivy," gives full information on control of the poison oak and ivy pests. They are available at county agents' offices.

Tobacco Talk

Inquiries continue for tobacco plants. So far the plant bed situation has not changed for the better, plants or still critically short and it looks now like they will continue short throughout the season. Normally, we would expect plants to be plentiful by this time.

The more important causes for the shortages include: Continued dry and unfavorable growing conditions; the presence of Anthracnose in plant beds, which has destroyed many plants and slowed down the growth of the remaining plants; the continued excess nitrating to force plant growth; growers abandon plant beds when they have met requirements for their individual farms; and lastly, rather general out-break of Pythium in many fields. This disease has caused heavy resetting, thus reducing plant supply.

It is doubtful now if all the crop will be set. All farmers are urged to take care of their beds and when they have finished setting their crops, let their neighbors have their beds.

It is imperative that plants not be permitted to waste, late beds should be watered regularly and covers left on, so that they will provide plants later. Planting can be done with a reasonable chance of success as late as the 10th of July; chances for the crop decrease rapidly after the 20th to 25th of June.

However, in past years tobacco has been planted as late as the 8th to 10th of July and made reasonably good tobacco. From present indications there will be few Counties with surplus plants later this month, publicity will be given about the location of plants as they become available.

In the mean time, farmers are urged to take care of their beds and plan to get most of their requirements either at home or in the County.

Wash-And-Wear

"Just how should I care for wash-and-wear clothes?" is a question often asked by homemakers.

Follow instructions is the first rule. Different fabrics and finishes need different care. Check hang tags or labels to find exactly how each garment should be handled. Write a description of the garment on the hang tag and file it for future reference; then follow the manufacturer's care instructions for the best results. You'll be playing safe if you buy only those wash-and-wear garments for which care instructions are given.

Should wash-and-wear clothes be hand-washed? If the instructions suggest hand-washing of course the garment needs this type of care. Even when the tag says "machine washable," some homemakers prefer to wash these garments by hand, too, instead of stopping the long washing machine at a certain point to take out the clothes that need special handling.

When washing drip-dry clothes by hand, soiled places may need some soaking in liquid detergent or soaping and rubbing between the hands or with a soft brush. Then wash the garment in almost-cold water by squeezing the water gently through the fabric; rinse well. Hang the garment up wet; the pull of the water as the garment drips dry should smooth out wrinkles, she points out.

FOR ATHLETE'S FOOT

Always sort clothes carefully when machine-washing, she recommends. Separate heavily-soiled clothes from lightly-soiled ones. Badly soiled clothes need special treatment to get them clean, while lightly-soiled ones give up their soil easily; never use high temperature or strong soap with wash-and-wear garments. Heavily-soiled clothes also can spread their soil through an entire washer load, and discolor light or white garments.

Also separate colored clothes from the light or white ones before putting them in the washing machine. Not all dyes are color-fast; washing colored clothes at a high temperature often extracts some trace of color that can permanently stain white clothes. White nylon, especially, picks up color very easily, even from garments that are usually color-fast.

Be very careful with bleaches. Some resin finishes retain chlorine; using a chlorine bleach on a white fabric with this type finish yellows and weakens the fabric. Garments treated with such resin finishes should carry a warning against the use of chlorine bleaches, but some manufacturers do not include this warning. This is another reason for buying only those wash-and-wear fabrics for which specific care instructions are given.

Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Graves and Elva Langford were at Lexington Tuesday on business. Mrs. E. Zieger visited Rev. and Mrs. R. Lawrence at Shelbyville last week. Mr. and Mrs. Bud Sturgill of Louisville spent last week with Mr. and Mrs. Ray Renner. Mrs. Willie Milburn Jr. returned from Memphis, Tenn. Tuesday and reports Dr. J. Improving slowly from major surgery. He will remain at the hospital for several weeks.

Friends, we have been in this area nearly nine years. We have been in Brodhead nearly one year. You are welcome to go where we have been before and investigate the kind of people we have been as citizens.

This past year, we have undergone one of the worst barrages of lies, gossip, propaganda and slander, that could be put out on anyone. We have sat by and said nothing. However, it has come a time, now, for us to answer some of these things. Every week it is something new.

We probably make mistakes. Anyone who tries to do anything will make a few. The man who does nothing makes none.

Below are just a few of the things that have been told and our answers:

1. "The old-depot is unfit for a Funeral Home." Our answer - The truth is the Depot was the only place we could find, with space enough to take care of the large crowds one must take care of in Funeral service. We have it arranged to seat well over 100 people if necessary. Three-rooms are partitioned off for privacy with folding doors, or all can be put together for a nice Chapel. We have rugs on the floors, nice back drapes and indirect lighting, an electric organ or a public address system with loud speakers for music. All who have visited the place tell us it is nice.

2. "No one is for us but the Holiness and Mountain people." Our answer - We surely are glad to have the support of this group as they are all fine, God-fearing Anglo Saxon Settlers of this God-fearing land.

3. "We can not embalm babies." Our answer - I have in my files a letter from one of the largest best baby embalmers in the United States, at one time, stating that he felt like I was one of the best and many of them of baby cases we have prepared and posed naturally, which he uses in his lectures and courses. We can show you articles from several Funeral Directors trade magazines about our wonderful baby work. The truth is, if a baby - even a stillborn - is large enough to prepare. We show them several days without them even turning the least bit. This is not boasting. Ask anyone around Crab Orchard about our baby work. I doubt that whomever started this can boast such a record.

4. "We are closing up and going out of business." When we get ready to close up we will let you know, and you will not have to get in from idle gossip. We have a long time lease and expect to fill it. In fact, we have found out in the 30 years we have been in this business, it is a long time to build one and we expect to be around for a long, long time. This is just more competitive gossip.

5. "We can't even bury our kinfolk." I will be glad to open my files. Since we have been here we have buried 99 percent of our kin. Some of our indirect ones we may have lost due to politics and other measures. But we will match our record against others, as to number of kin we have.

6. "The last one we will discuss here, as we could take many and answer each but this one is a slanderous remark." "We recently had to take a body out of a casket and re-do it." The truth is, out of better than 2000 cases I have prepared for burial in my life, I have never had to do this to but one body. It was a drowsy case I had when working in Memphis, Tenn., that had been in water for four days. It developed tissue gas, the dreaded thing for all embalmers which occurs sometimes in frozen, drowned and electrocuted cases. This is a malicious statement.

Now here is our offer: Anyone who can furnish me proof of the culprit who is the starter of this malicious slander, that will stick in Court in a slander case, and will swear to it in Court, I will give $100. I will also give $100 to anyone who can prove these statements and others that have circulated through out this community and territory.

So friends, you know the tongue is the most poisonous thing in the world. Many good people have been persecuted, maligned and hurt by its use. So when you hear these things in the future, would you do me this favor? Tell the person if they can prove the statement above and beyond a reasonable doubt to a selected Judge or Jury of good Christian men and women selected to hear their case not in Court - just selected at random, that I will give them one hundred-dollars ($100) to prove it. If they do not want to take you up, you will know they are either repeating idle gossip and slander, or that they are starting it. If they are not guilty of one of the above then they will earn this $100. As you know, money is tight, now, and this would be an easy way to earn it. If they do not want to accept, then you know this is just another tale started by someone to hurt us.

We will promise you one thing, if we can not do your business because of our superior services, because of fair reasonable prices, quality merchandise considered and because you choose us because of the faith you have that we will deal honestly with you - We will not get out and start idle gossip, lies, slander and propaganda on someone else to get to do business with you. Because after you think it over, this is not the kind of people you wish to deal with.

We have always been people who shoot straight from the shoulder and face to facts - It has come to a time when we must face the above facts. Because someone is using the poisonous human tongue to hurt us we were forced to come to you with the truth and answers to some of these statements that are truths. We are willing to pay the above reward to anyone who can prove these malicious untruths.

 Give Excess Tobacco Plants to Neighbors
 Tobacco farmers in this county who have completed setting out their own crops this week were asked by County Agent H. Lee Durham to make sure any plants left in beds are made available to neighbors or county residents who are short.
 Durham emphasized that the tobacco plant shortage this spring and early summer has been critical due to drought conditions that delayed plant bed growth.
 Recent general rains in the state have improved the situation slightly but there is still a critical shortage of plants.
 "If any farmers are through with their beds, they should notify their neighbors or get in touch with my office," says Durham "so we can notify farmers who are short. We ask especially that farmers who do have some plants left - no matter how few - contact us so that other people needing plants can get them. We also urge farmers who are through
